ned as kynges: and so dyd their chyldren after them many peares / & moch wyckednesse increased in the worlde. Out of these came ſ vngacious rote/noble Antiochus the ſonne of Antiochus ſ kyng (which had bene a pledg at Rome) & he reigned in the C. xxxviij. yeare of the raigne of the Cykes.

In those dayes wente there out of Iſraell wicked men/ whych moued moch people to their counsell/ſayenge: Lett vs go & make a couenaunt with the Heathen / & are rounde about vs: for ſence we departed from them/we haue had moch ſorrow. So thys deuyſe pleaſed them well/ and certayne of & people toke vpon theſe for to go vnto & kynge/ which gaue them licence to do after the ordinaunce of the Heathen. Then ſet they by an open ſcole (at Ieruſalem) of the lawes of the Heathen/& were nomore circuncyſed: but forſoke the holy Teſtamente/ & toynded them ſelues to & Heathen/ & were cleane ſolde to do myſchete

So when Antiochus begarne to be mightie in his kyngdome/ he wente aboute to op-tayne þe lande of Egypte also/ that he myght haue the dominyon of two realmes. vpon this entred he in to Egypte wth a stronge hoost with charrettes/ elephantes/ horssmen and a greate nombze of shippes / and begarne to warre agaynst Ptolomey the kyng of Egypte. But Ptolomey was afrayed of hym / and fled : and many of hys people were wounded to death. Thus Antiochus wane many strōge cities/ and toke awaye greate good out of the lande of Egypte.

And after that Antiochus had smitten
Egypt/ he turned agayne in the Cxliij. yeare & wente towardes Israel/ & came by to Jerusalem with a mightie people: & entred proudly in to the Sanctuary / and toke away þ golden altare / the candylsticke and all the ornamentes therof / the table of þ shewbryd the pouring bessel þ chargers/ þ golden sponge bale/ the crownes and golden apparell of the temple/ and brake downe all. He toke also the syluer & golde/ the precious Jewels and the secreete treasures that he founde.
And when he had taken away all together/caused a greate murthure of men / and so fulfilled his malicious pryde/ he departed in to his owne lande.

Thus there arose greate heuyneſſe and miſery in al the lande of Iſrael. The princes and the elders of the people mourned / & yonge men and the maydens were defyled / and the fayre beutyfe of women was chainged: the bydegrome and the byde toke them to mournyng: the lande and thofe that dwelt therin / was moued: for all the house of Jacob was brought to confufion.

¶ After two yeares the kyng sent hys chefe
 1. Mach. 1. 2. treasurer vnto þe cyties of Iuda / which came to Ierusalem with a great multitude of people / speakinge peaceable wordes vnto them but all was disceate: for whā they had geue hym credence / he fel sodenly vpon the cytye / 1. Mach. 1. 3. & smote it soze / and destroyed moche people of Istraell. And when he had spoyled the cytye / 1. Mach. 1. 4. he set fyre on it / castynge downe houses and walles on euery syde. The women and theyr childzen toke they captiue / & led a waye their catel. Then buryded they the castel of Dauid with a great and thicke wall / & with mightie towres / and made it a stronge holde for thē.
 Besyde all this they sett wyched people and vngodly men to kepe it / stoared it with wea-pens and bytales: gathered the goodes of Jerusalem / and layed them by there: thus became it a thewys castell.

And thys was done to laye waite for the people that went in to the Sanctuary/ and for the cruell destruction of Israel. Thus they shed innocent bloude on euery syde of the Sanctuary/ and despyled it: In somoch that the citsens were fayne to departe / and the citey became an habitacyon of straungers/ beyng desolate of her awne sede / for her awne natyues were fayne to leaue her. Her Sanctuary was cleane wasted/ her holy dayes were turned in to mournynge / her Sabbathes were had in despyson / and her honour brought to naught. Loke how great her glory was a fore/ so greate was her confusyon/ and her ioye turned in to sorow.

Commission vnto all hys kyngdome / that all the people shulde be one . Then they left euery man hys lawe / and all the Heathen agreed to the comaundement of kyng Antiochus: Yee many of the Israelites consented there vnto / offeringe vnto Idols / and despylinge & Sabbath . So the kyng Antiochus sent his messaugers wth hys commissyon vnto Jerusalem / & to all the cytyes of Iuda : that they shulde folowe the lawes of the Heathen / and forbad ether burnt offeringe meat offer-inge or peace offeringe to be made in & temple of God / & that there shulde no Sabbath ner hye feast daye be kepte: but commaunded / that the Sanctuary and the holy people of Israel shulde be despyled.

He commaunded also that there shulde be sett by other altares/temples & Idols: to offer by swynes flesh & other unclean beasts:
that men shulde leaue their chyldren vnchrcuncypled to defyle their soules with all maner of vncleennesse & abhominacions : & they myght so forget the lawe / & chaunge all the holy ordinaunces of God: & that whosoener wolde not do a ccordeinge to the commaunde-ment of king Antiochus / Shulde suffre death In lyke maner commaunded he thozow out all his realme / and sett rulers ouer the people / for to compell them to do these thinges / commaunding the cyties of Iuda to do sacrifice vnto Idols.

Then wente the people vnto the heathen by heapes / forsoke the lawe of the Lorde / & comitted moch euell in the lande: yee and cha-ced out the secrete Israelites / which had hyd them selues in cornes and pzeuy places. ¶
The xv. daye of the moneth Casleu / in the Cxlvi. yeare / sett kynge Antiochus an abhominable Idol of desolacton vpon the altare of God / and they buylded altares thozow out all the cytyes of Iuda on euery hyde / befoze the doores of the houses / and in the stretes: where they bzent incense / and dyd sa- Jere. xxxvi. 16 cryfpe. And as for the bookes of the lawe of God / they bzent them in the fyre / and rent them in peces . What so euer he was that had a boke of the testament of the Lorde found by hym / yee whosoener endeouored hymself to kepe the lawe of the Lorde / the kynges commaundement was / that they shulde put hym to death. And thozow hys auctorite they executed these thinges euery moneth / vpon the people of Israel that were founde the cytyes.

The fyue and twentye daye of the moneth ¶ Exch. xl. 9.
 what tyme as they dyd sacrifice vpon the altare (which stode in the steade of the altare of the Lorde) accordeynge to the commaunde-ment of kynge Antiochus / they put cer-tayne women to death / whych had caused their chyldren to be circumsised: Not only that / but they hanged vp the chyldren by the nec-kes thorow out all their houses / and slewed circuncisers of them.

Yet were there many of the people of Israel which determined in them selues / that they wolde not eate vncleane thynges: but chose rather to suffre death / then to be defiled wth vncleane meates. So because they wolde not b^{re}ake the blessed lawe of God / they were cruelly slayne. And this great tyranny increased very sore vpon the people of Israel.

The mourning of Mathathiah and his sonnes for the destruction of the holy temple. They refuse to do sacrifice vnto Idoles. The zeale of Mathathiah for the lawe of God. They are slayne & will not feight agayne because of the Sabbath daye. Mathathiah bringeth commaundeth his sonnes to steepe by the word of God after the example of the fathers.

In those dayes there dyd stande by one Mathathyah & sonne of Symeon the prest (out of the kynred of Joariz) from Jerusalem / & dwelt vpon the mount of Modin / & had v. sonnes: The first called Goddis: Symon / called Chas: Judas / other wise called Machabeus: Eleazer / other wise called Abaron: and Jonathan / whose surname was Apphus. These sawe the euell / that was done amonge the people of Juda & Jerusalem. And Mathathyah sayde: Wo is me / alas & euer I was borne / to se this mysery of my people / & the piteous destruccio of & holy cite: & thus to lye to fill / it beinge deliqued in to & hādes of & enemys. Her Sanctuary is come in to the power of straungers her temple is / as it were a man & hath lost his good name. Her precious ornaments are carped awaye captiue / her olde men are slayne in the strettes / & her yōge mē are fallen thowow & swearde of the enemyes.

What people is it / that hath not some possession in her kingdome? Or who hath not gotten some of her spoyle? All her gloze is taken awaye. She was a Quene / & now she is become an handmayde. Beholde oure Sanctuary / oure betwye & honoure is wasted awaye / & despoiled by the Gentiles. What helpeth it vs thē to lyue? And Mathathyah rente his clothes / & his sonnes / & put sack cloth vpon them / & mourned very soze.

28 Then came the men thither whych were sent of kynge Antiochus / to compell such as were fled in to the cytie of Modyn / for to do sacrifice & to burne incense vnto Idols / & to forsake the lawe of God. So / many of the people of Israell consented & enclyned vnto thē / but Mathathyah & his sonnes remayned stedfast. Then spake the commissyoners of kynge Antiochus / and sayde vnto Mathathyah: Thou art a noble man / of hys reputacyon and greate in this cite / haupnge saye chyliden and brythzen. Come thou therfore first / and fulfill the kynges commaundement / lyke as all the Heathen haue done / yee & the men of Juda / and such as remayne at Jerusalem: so shalt thou and thy chyliden be in the kynges fauoure / and enryched wth golde / syluer & greate rewardes.

Mathathyah answered / and spake with a loude voyce: Though all nacjons obeye the kyng Antiochus / and sal awaye euery man fro hepyng the lawe of their fathers: though they consente to his commaundementes / yet wyl I & my sonnes and my brythzen / not fall fro the lawe of oure fathers. God forbyd we shulde: that were not good for vs / that we shulde forsake the lawe and ordynaunces of God / and to agre vnto the commaundement of kynge Antiochus. Therfore we wyl do no such sacrifice / nether breake the statutes of our lawe / to go another waye. And when he had spoken these wordes / there came one of the Jewes / whych openly in the syght of all / dyd sacrifice vnto the Idols vpon the auter in the cytie of Modyn / according to the kynges commaundement.

Why Mathathyah sawe thys / it greued hym at the herte / so that hys raynes shoke withall / and hys wrauth kindled for very zeale of the lawe. Whyth that he gaue a shyppe forth / and kyled the Jewe betwix the auter: Yee and slewe the kynges commissioner / that compelled him to do sacrifice / & destroyed the auter at the same tyme: soch a zeale had he vnto & lawe of God / like as Phynches dyd vnto & lamb / & sonne of Salome. And Mathathyah cried with a loude voyce thowow the cite / sayenge: Whoso is feruent in the lawe / & wil kepe & couenaunt / let him folowe me. So he and hys sonnes fled in to the mountaynes & lefall that euer they had in the cite. Many other godly men also departed in to & wilderness wth their chyliden / their wyues and their catel / & remayned there: for the tyrāny increased so soze vpon them.

Now when the kynges seruantes / and the hoost / whych was at Jerusalem in the cytie of David herde / & certayne mē had brythen the kynges commaundement and were gone their waye to the wilderness in to secrete places / and that there were many departed after them: they folowed vpon them to fyght agaynst them in the Sabbath daye & sayde: Wyl ye yet rebell? Get you hence & do the commaundement of kynge Antiochus and ye shal lyue. They answered: We wil not go forth / nether wyl we do the kynges commaundement / to despoyle the Sabbath daye. Then begane they to fyght agaynst thē neuertheless they gaue them none other answer / nether cast they one stone at them ne made fast their prey places / but sayde. We wil dye al in oure innocency / heauē & earth shal testifie with vs / that ye put vs to death wrongeously. Thus they fought agaynst thē vpon the Sabbath / & slewe both men & catel / their wyues & their chyliden / to the nombre of a thousande people.

When Mathathyah and hys frendes herde this / they mourned for them right soze / and sayde one to another: It so be that we all do as our brythzen haue done / & fight not for our lyues & for oure lawes agaynst & Heathen: then shall they the soner rote vs out of the earth. So they concluded amonge them selues at the same tyme / sayenge: Whatsoeuer he be that commeth to make battayll wth vs vpon the Sabbath daye / we wyl fyght agaynst him / & not dye al / as our brythzen & were were murthered so hanouly. vpon thys came the Synagoge of the Jewes vnto thē: Stronge men of Israel / all such as were feruent in the lawe. And all they that were fled for persecucion / came to helpe them / and to stande by them: In so moch that they gathered an hoost of men / and slewe the wyched doers in their gelousy / and the vngodly men in their wrauth. Some of the wyched fled vnto the Heathen / and escaped.

Thus Mathathyah & his frendes wente aboute / and destroyed the auters / and circumcysed the chyliden / that had not yet receaued circumcisiō: as many as they founde within the costes of Israel: & folowed mightely vpon the chyliden of pyrde / & this acte prospered in their handes: In so moch / that they kepte the lawe agaynst the power of & Gentiles and the kynges / and gaue not ouer their domynyon vnto wyched doers.

After thys when the tyme drowe on fast / that Mathathyah shulde dye / he sayde vnto his sonnes: Now is pyrde and persecucion increased / now is the tyme of destruccyon & wrauthfull dyspleasure: wherfore (O my sonnes) be ye feruent in the lawe / and seoparde your lyues for the Testamēt of the fathers: call to remembraunce what actes oure fathers dyd in their tyme / so shall ye receaue greate honoure and an eueralstinge name.

Remembre Abraham / was not he founde faythfull in tentacyon / and it was reckened vnto him for rightuousnes? Joseph in tyme of hys trouble kepte the commaundement / and was made a Lorde of Egypt. Phynches oure father was so feruent for the honoure of God / that he optayned the couenaunt of an eueralstinge presthode. Josue for fulfilling the worde of God / was made the captayne of Israel. Caleb bare recorde before the congregaciō / and receaued an heretage. David also in hys mercifull kyndnes / optayned the trone of an eueralstinge kyngdome. Eliah beinge gelous and feruent in & lawe / was taken vp in to heauē. Hananias / Azarias and Misael remayned stedfast in fayth / and were deliuered out of the fyre. In lyke maner Daniel beinge vngodly / was saued from the mouth of the Lyons.

And thus ye maye consydre thowow out of all ages sence the worlde beganne / that who soeuer put their trust in God / were not ouer come. Feare not ye then the wordes of an vngodly man / for hys gloze is but donge and wormes: to daye is he set vp / and to morow is he gone: for he is turned into earth / and hys memozyall is come to naught. Wherfore (O my sonnes) take good hertes vnto you / & quyte your selues lyke men in the lawe: for ye do the thynges that are commaunded you in the lawe of the Lorde your God / ye shall optayne greate honoure therein.

And beholde / I know that your bryther Symon is a man of wysdome: se & ye geue care vnto hym alwaye / he shalbe a father vnto you. As for Judas Machabeus / he hath euer bene myghty and stronge fro hys youth by: let him be your captayne / & ordre the battayll of & people: thus shall ye brynge vnto you all those that fauoure the lawe / & se that ye auenge the wronge of your people / and recompence the Heathen agayne / & applye your selues whole to the commaundement of the lawe. So he gaue them hys blessinge / and was layed by hys fathers: & died in the .C. & xvi. yere at Modin / where hys sonnes buried him in hys fathers sepulchre / & all Israell made greate lamentacyon for hym.

Judas is made ruler ouer the Jewes. He kyllety Appollonius & Seron the prynces of Syria. The consyence of Judas towardes God. Judas determyneyth to fyght agaynst Lysias / whom Antiochus had made captayne ouer his host. The prayer of & absteyners.

The .iiij. Chapter.

Ihen stode by Judas Machabeus in his fathers steade / & all his brythzen helped him: and so dyd all they that helde in hys father / & fought Antiochus with cherefulnesse for Israel. So Judas gat his people great honoure: He put on a brest plate as a glaunte / & arayed hym selfe with his harnesse / and defended the hoste with hys swearde. In his actes he was lyke a Lyon / and as a lyōs whelpe roaringe at his praye. He was an enemye to the wyched / & hunted them out: and brynt by those that beyed hys people: So that hys enemyes fled for feare of hym / and all the worchers of vngodlynes were put to trouble: soch lucke and prosperyte was in his hande. This greued dyuerse kyngs / but Jacob was greatly reioyled thowow hys actes / and he gatt hymself a greate name for euer.

He wente thowow the cyties of Juda / destroyed the vngodly out of them / turninge awaye the wrauth from Israel / and receauynge such as were oppressed: and the same of him wente vnto the vttemost parte of the earth. Then Appollonius (a pryncce of Syria) gathered a myghty greate hoost of the Heathen & out of Samaria / to fyght agaynst Israel. Whych when Judas perceaued / he wente forth to mete hym / fought wth hym: slewe him / and a greate multitude with him / the remnaite fled / & he toke their substaunce Judas also toke Appollonius awne swearde / and fought with it all his lyfe longe.

Now whē Seron (another pryncce of Syria) herde saye / that Judas had gathered vnto hym the congregacyon and church of the B. D. b. saythfull saythfull he sayde: I wyll get me aname & a prayse thow out the realme: for I wyll go fight with Judas & them that are wyth hym/as many as haue despyed the kynges commaundement. So he made hym ready/ and there wente with him a greate myghtye hoost of the vngodly/ to stande by hym/ and to be auenged of the chyldren of Israel. And when they came nye vnto Bethozon/ Judas wente forth agaynst the with a small company. And whē hys people sawe such a greate hoost before them/ they sayde vnto Judas: How are we able (beinge so fewe) to fyght agaynst so greate a multitude and so strōge? seinge we be so weery/ and haue fasted all thys daye?

1. Reg. xliij. a.

5. Para. xxiij. b.

But Judas sayde: It is a small matter for many to be overcome w^{ch} fewe: yee there is no dyfference to the God of heauen/ to deliuer by a greate multitude or by a small company: for the victorie of the battell standeth not in the multitude of the hoost/ but in the strength cometh from heauen. Beholde/ they come agaynst vs wyth a presumptuous and proude multitude/ to destroye vs/ oure wyues and oure chyldren/ and to robbe vs. But we wyll fight for oure lyues/ & for oure lawes/ and the Lorde hym selfe shall destroye them before oure face: therfore be not ye afraied of them.

As soone as he had spoken these wordes/ he leapt sodenly vpon the. Thus was Seron smytten/ and his hoost put to flight/ and Judas folowed vpon them beyonde Bethozon vnto the playne felde: where there were slayne eight hundred men of them/ and the residue fled in to the lande of the Philistynes. Then all the Heathen on euery syde were afraied for Judas and hys brethren: so that the rumoure of hym came vnto the kynges eares/ for all the Gentyles coude tell of the warres of Judas.

So when kynge Antiochus hearde these tydynges/ he was angry in his minde: wherfore he sente forth and gathered an hoost of hys whole realme very stronge armys: and opened hys treasury/ and gaue hys hoost a yeaues wages in hande/ commaundyng them to be ready at all tymes.

Neuerthelesse when he sawe/ that there was not money ynough in hys treasures/ and that thow the dyscorde and persecucion/ whych he made in hys lande (to put downe the lawes that had bene of olde tymes) hys customes & trybutes of the lande were mynyshed: he feared that he was not able for to beare the costes and charges any longer/ nor to haue such gyftes/ to geue so liberally as he dyd afore/ more then the kynges that were before hym.

Wherfore he was heuy in his minde/ and thought to go into Persides/ for to take trybutes of the lande/ & so to gather moche money. So he left Lysias (a noble man of the kynges bloude) to ouerse the kynges busynesses/ from the water Euphrates vnto the borders of Egypte: & to kepe well his sonne Antiochus/ tyll he came agayne.

Moreouer/ he gaue him half of his hoost and Elephates/ commytted vnto hym euery thyng of hys mynde/ concernyng those whych dwelt in Iuda and Jerusalem: that he shulde sende out an armye agaynst the/ to destroye and to rote out the power of Israel and the remnaunt of Jerusalem: to put out their memoiall from that place/ to let strangers for to inhabyt all their quarters/ and to parte their lande amonge them. Thus the kynge toke the other parte of the hoost/ and departed from Antioch (a cyte of hys realme) ouer the water of Euphrates/ in the hundredth and xliij. yeaue/ and went thow the hys countrees.

Joseph. capt. lib. xij. antiq.

And Lysias chose vnto hym Ptolomy the sonne of Dositimus/ Pricanoz and Gorgias myghty men/ and the kynges frendes. These he sent with xl. thousande sote men and vij. thousande horsmen/ for to go into the lande of Iuda/ and to destroye it/ as the kynge commaunded. So they wete forth with all their power/ & came to Emmaus into the playne felde. When the marchauntes hearde hys rumoure of them/ they & their seruantes toke very much syluer & golde/ for to bye the chyldren of Israel to be their bodie men. There came vnto them also yet moche men of warre on euery syde/ out of Syria and from the Palestynes.

Now when Judas and hys brethren sawe that trouble increased/ & that the hoost drew nye vnto their borders: consyderyng the kynges wordes whych he commaunded vnto the people: namely/ that they shulde utterly waste and destroye the: they sayde one to another: Let vs redresse the decaye of oure people/ let vs fyght for oure folke and for oure Sanctuary. Then the congregacyon were soone ready gathered to fyght/ to praye & to make supplicacyon vnto God for mercy & grace.

As for Jerusalem/ it laye boyde/ and was as it had bene a wyldernesse. There wente no man in nor out at it/ and the Sanctuary was troden downe. The aleauntes kepte the castell/ there was the habytacyon of the Heathen. The myyth of Jacob was taken awaye/ the pyper and the harpe was gone fro amonge them.

The Israelites gathered them to gether/ and came to Bethphage before Jerusalem: for in Bethphage was the place where they prayed afore afore tyme. So they fasted that daye/ & put sackclothes vpon them/ cast ashes vpon their heades/ rente their clothes/ & layde forth the bookes of the lawe (wherout the Heathen sought the yckynesse of their ymagines) and brought the prestes ornaments/ the firstlinges and the tythes. They set there also the absteyners (whych had fulfilled their dayes) before God/ and cryed wyth a loude voyce toward heauen/ sayinge: What shall we do wyth these? and whither shall we cary them awaye? for the Sanctuary is trode downe and defyled/ the prestes are come to heuy nesse and byshonoure: and beholde/ the Heathen are come together for to destroye vs. Thou knowest what thynges they ymagyn agaynst vs. How may we stande before the/ excepte thou (O God) be oure helpe?

They blew out the trompette also wyth a loude voyce. Then Judas ordered captaynes ouer the people: ouer thousandes/ ouer hundredes/ ouer fiftye/ and ouer ten. But as for such as buyded them houses/ married wyues/ planted them byneparides/ and those that were fearfull: he commaunded the euery man to go home/ accorpyng to the lawe. So the hoost remoued/ and pyched vpon the south syde of Emmaus.

Mat. vi. b. Luc. xlii.

And Judas sayde: Arme youre selues/ be stronge (O my chyldren) make you ready agaynst to morow in the mornyng/ that ye maye fyght wyth these people/ whych are agreed together to destroye vs & oure sanctuary. Better is it for vs to dye in battayll/ than to se oure people and oure sanctuary in such a myserable case. Neuerthelesse/ as the wyll is in heauen/ so be it.

¶ Judas goeth agaynst Gorgias whych lieth in wayte. He putteth Gorgias and his hoost to flight. Lysias inuadeth Jerusaleme/ but Judas dyueth him oute. Judas purpyseth the temple and dedycateth the altaer.

The. iij. Chapter.

¶ When toke Gorgias fyue thousand men of sote/ & a thousande of the best horsmen: & remoued by night/ to come nye where the Jewes hoost laye/ & so to slaye them sodenly. Now h men that kepte the castell/ were the conueyers of them. Then arose Judas to smyte the chiefe & principall of the kynges hoost at Emmaus/ for the army was not yet come together. In the meane season came Gorgias by nyght in to Judas tentes: & when he founde no man there/ he sought them in the mountaynes/ & thought they had bene fled awaye because of him. But whē it was daye/ Judas thewed hym selfe in the felde wyth thye thousande men only/ whych had nether harnesse ney sweardes to their myndes.

But on the other syde/ they sawe that the Heathen were myghtie and well harnessed/ and their horsmen aboute them/ and all these well experte in fettes of warre. Then sayde Judas to h men that were with hym: feare not ye the multitude of them/ be not afraied of their violence runnyng: remembre how oure fathers were deliuered in the reed see/ when Pharaoh threatned them with a greate host.

¶ Then so lett vs also crye now toward heauen: and the Lorde shall haue mercy vpon vs/ and remembre the couenaunt of oure fathers/ yee and destroye this host before oure face this daye: And all h Heathen shall know/ that it is God hym selfe/ whych deliuereth & saueh Israel.

¶ Then the Heathen lyft by their eyes: and when they sawe that they were commyng agaynst them/ they went out of their tentes in to the battayll: and they that were wyth Judas/ blew by the trompettes. So they buckled together/ and the Heathen were dyscomfyted and fled ouer the playne felde: but the hymnost of them were slayne. For they folowed vpon them vnto Betharamoth/ and in to the feldes of Idumea toward Betot and Jannia: so that there were slayne of them vpon a thye thousande men. So Judas turned agayne wyth his hoste/ & sayde vnto the people: Be not greedy of the spoyles/ we haue yet a battayll to fyght: for Gorgias and his hoost are here by vs in the mountaynes/ but stande ye fast agaynst oure enemyes/ & ouer come the: then maye ye safely take the spoyles.

¶ As Judas was speaking these wordes/ there appeared one parte of them vpon the mount. But when Gorgias sawe that they of his partye were fled/ and the tentes brened by (for by the smoke they might vnderstande what was done) they perceauyng this/ were very sore afraied: and when they sawe also that Judas and hys hoost were in the felde ready to stricke battayll/ they fled euerychone in to the lande of the Heathen.

So Judas turned agayne to spoyle the tentes/ where they gatt moche golde and syluer/ precious stones/ purple/ a great riches. Thus they went home and songe a Psalme of thankesgeuyng and praysed God in heauen: for he is gracious/ and hys mercy endureth for euer: And so Israel had a greate victory in that daye.

Psalm. cxv. b. 1. Sam. c. xviij. a.

¶ Now all the Heathen that escaped/ came and tolde Lysias euery thyng as it happened. Wherfore Lysias was sore afraied and greued in his mynde/ because Israel had not gotten such myffortune as he wolde they shulde

The fyrst booke

Shulde / neither as the kynge commaunded. The next yeare following gathered Lysias thre scoze thousande chosen men of fote / & fyue thousande horsmen / to fight agaynst the Jewes. So they came in to Jewry / and pitched their tentes at Bethozon / where Judas came agaynst them with ten thousande men. And when he sawe so greates mighte an host / he made hys prayer and sayde : Blessed be thou (O saviour of Israell) whych dydest destroye the violent power of the greunte / in the hande of thy seruant Dauid / and gauest the host of the Heathen in to the hande of Ionathas (the sonne of Saul) and of hys weapon bearer.

But this host now in to the hande of thy people of Israell / and let them be confounded in their multitude and horsmen. Make them afrayed / & dyscomfyt the boldnes of their strenght / that they maye be moued thorow their destruction. Cast them downe thorow the swerde of thy louers / then shall all they that knowe thy name / prayse the with thankesgeuyng.

So they stroke the batell / and there were slayne of Lysias host / fyue thousande men. When Lysias sawe the dyscomfytynge of hys men / and the manlynesse of the Jewes / how they were ready / ether to fyue or to dye like men : he wente vnto Antioche and chose out men of warre : that whā they were gathered together / they myght come agayne in to Jewry. When sayde Judas and hys brethren : beholde / our enemyes are dyscomfited : Lett vs now go by / to clesse and to repayre the Sanctuary.

Upon this / all the host gathered them together / and wente by vnto mount Syon. Now whā they sawe the Sanctuary laied waste / & the altare defyled / the doores byt by / & mybbes growinge in the courtes / like as in a wood / vpon mountaynes / yee & the prestes Celles were broken downe : They rente their clothes / made great lamentacion / cast ashes vpon their heades / fell downe flat to the grounde / made a greates noyse with the trompettes / & cryed towarde heauen.

Then Judas apoynted certayne men to fyght agaynst those which were in the castell till they had clesed the Sanctuary. So he chose prestes & were vndefyled / such as had pleasure in the lawe of God : and they clesed the Sanctuary / and bare out the defyled stones in to an vnclene place. And for so moch as the altare of burnt offerynges was vnhalowed / he toke aduysment / what he might do : so he thought it was best to destroye it (lest it shulde happen to do them any shame) for the Heathen had defyled it / & therefore they brake it downe. As for the stones they layed the by vnto the moystayne by the house in a conuenient place till there came a prophet to shewe / what shulde be done with them.

So they toke whole stones acordinge to the lawe / & buylded a new altare / such one as was before / & made by the Sanctuary within & without / & halowed the courtes. They made new ornaments / & brought the candlestick the altare of incense / & the table in to the temple. The incense layed they vpon the altare / & lychted the lampes which were vpon the candlestick / that they myght burne in the temple. They set the shewbread vpon the table / & hanged by the bale / and set by the temple / as it was afore. And vpon the xxv. daye of the ix. moneth / which is called the moneth of Cassleu / in the C. xliiij. yeare : they rose by bytymes in the moynynge for to do sacrifice (acordinge to the lawe) vpon the new burnt offeryng altare / that they had made : after the tyme and season that the Heathen had defyled it. The same daye was it set by agayne / with songes pypes / harpes & cymbales.

And all the people fell vpon their faces / & worshippynge & thankyng the God of heauen which had geuen them the victory. So they kepte the dedicacion of the altare viij. dayes offeryng burnt sacrifices & thankofferynges with gladnesse. They decked the temple also with crowns & sheldes of gold / & halowed the portes & celles / & hanged doores by the temple. Thus there was very great gladnes amonge the people / because the blasphemie of the Heathen was put away. So Judas & his brethren in the whole congregacion of Israell / ordered / that the tyme of the dedycacyon of the altare shulde be kepte in hys season from yeare to yeare / by the space of viij. dayes / from the xxv. daye of the moneth Cassleu : yee and that with myght and gladnesse.

And at the same tyme buylded they by the mount Syon with hys walles and stronge towres rounde aboute : lest the Gentiles shuld come and treade it downe / as they dyd afore. Therefore Judas sett men of warre in it / to kepe it : and made it stronge / for to defende Bethsura : that the people myght haue a refuge agaynst the Edomytes.

Judas baynquethed the Heathen that go aboute to destroye Israell / and is holpen of his brethren Simon and Ionathas. He ouerthroweth the cytye of Sphon / because they denyed hym passage thorow it.

The. v. Chapter. It happened also that whā the Heathen rounde aboute her / how they byt the altare & the Sanctuary were sett by in the olde estate : it displeased the very soze / wherefore they thought to destroye the generacyon of Jacob that was amonge them : In so moch that they began beginne to slaye and to persecute certayne of the people. Then Judas fought agaynst the chyldre of Esau in Idumea / & agaynst those which were at Arabathane (for they dwelt rounde aboute the Israelites) where he slew and spoyled a greates multitude of them. He thought also vpon the malice and vnfaithfulness of the chyldre of Ben / how they were a snare & stoppe vnto the people / & how they layed wayte for them in the hye wayes : wherefore he shut them by in to towres / and came vnto them / condemned them / and bent by their towres / with all that were in them.

Afterwarde wente he agaynst the chyldren of Ammon / wherof he founde a myghty power & a greates multitude of people / with Timothy their captayne. So he stroke many battails with them / which were destroyed before hym. And when he had slayne them / he wanne Gazer the cytye / with the towres belonginge thereto / and so turned agayne in to Jewry. The Heathen also in Galaad gathered the together / agaynst the Israelites that were in their quarters to slaye them : but they fled to the castell of Bathanan. and sent letters vnto Judas and his brethren / sayinge : The Heathen are gathered agaynst vs on euery syde / to destroye vs / & now they make them for to come / and laye sege to the castell / wherunto we are fled / and Timothy is the captayne of their host : come therefore / and deliuer vs out of their handes : for there is a greates multitude of vs slayne all ready. Yee and our brethren that were at Tabin / are slayne & destroyed (well nye a thousande men) and their wyues / their chyldren and their goodes haue the enemyes led awaye captiue.

Whyle these letters were yet a readyng / beholde / there came other messagers from Galile / with rente clothes : which tolde euen the same tydynge / and sayde / that they of Ptolomais / of Tyrys and of Sidon were gathered agaynst them / and that all Galilee was fylled with enemyes to destroye Israell. When Judas and the people herde this / they came together (a greates congregacyon) to deliuer / what they might do for their brethren / that were in trouble & beleged of their enemyes. And Judas sayde vnto Simon his brother : chose the out certaynemen / and go deliuer thy brethren in Galilee : As for me and my brother Ionathas / we wyll go in to Galaadithim. So he left Josephus & some of Zachary / and Alarias to be Captaynes of the people and to kepe the remnaunt of the host in Jewry / and commaunded them / sayinge : Take the ouersyght of this people / and se ye make no warre agaynst the Heathen / vntill the tyme that we come agayne. And when to Simon he gaue thre thousande men for to go in to Galilee / but Judas hym selfe had eyght thousande in Calasabithim.

Then wente Simon in to Galilee / and stroke diuerse batells with the Heathen : wherof he dyscomfited / and folowed vpon them by to the porte of Ptolomais. And there were slayne of the Heathen almost iij. thousande men. So he toke the spoyle of them / and carried awaye the Israelites / that were in Galilee and Arabathim / with their wyues / their chyldren and all that they had / and brought them in to Jewry with greates gladnesse. Judas Machabeus also and his brother Ionathas / wente ouer Jordan / and trauayled iij. dayes iourney in the wyldernes : where the Hebrewes met them / and receaued them loyngly / and tolde the euery thyng that had happened vnto their brethren in Calasabithim / and how that many of them were beleged in Barasa / Boso / Alimis / Calphoz / Mageth and Carnaim (all these are stronge walled and myghtie greates cyties) and that they were kepte in other cyties of Galaad also : & to moze they are apoynted to byge their host vnto these cyties / to take them & to wyne them in one daye.

So Judas and his host turned in all the haste in the wyldernes towarde Boso / and wanne the cytye / & we all the males with the swerde / toke all their goodes / and sett fyre vpon the cytye. And in the nyght they toke their iourney from thence / and came to the castell. And by tymes in the moynynge wher they looked by / beholde / there was an innumerable people bearyng ladders and other instrumentes of warre / to take the castell and to ouercome them.

When Judas sawe that the battayll beganne / and that the noyse therof wente by a range in to the heauen / and that there was so greates crye in the cytye : he sayd vnto his host : fyght this daye for your brethren. And so came behynde their enemyes in thre companyes / and blew by the trompettes / and cryed in their prayer to God.

But as soone as Timothy's host perceaued Machabeus was there / they fled from him / and the other slew them downe ryght soze : so that there were killed of them the same daye / almost eyght thousande men. Then departed Judas vnto Dalp / layed sege vnto it and wanne it / & we all the males in it / spoyled it / and set fyre vpon it. From thence wente he and toke Calbon / Mageth / Boso / and the other cyties in Galaad.

After this gathered Timothy another host / which pitched their tentes before Raphon beyonde the water. Judas sent to spye the host / & they brought hym worde agayne / sayinge / agayne / sayenge: All the Heathen þe be roide aboute vs / are gathered vnto him / and the host is very grete: Yee they haue byzed the Arabians to helpe them / & haue pitched their tentes beyonde the water / and are ready to come & fyght agaynst the. So Judas wente on to mete them.

And Timothy sayde vnto the captaynes of hys host: when Judas & hys host come nye þe ryuer: yf he go ouer first / we shal not be able to withstande him: for why / he wil be to stronge for vs. But yf he darre not come ouer so that he pitch his tente beyonde the water: then will we go ouer / for we shal be stronge ynough agaynst him. Now as soone as Judas came to þe ryuer / he appoynted certayne scribes of the people / & commaunded them / sayenge: se þe ye leaue none behinde wth this tyde of the ryuer / but let euery man come to the battayl. So he wente first ouer vnto the & his people after him.

And all the Heathen were dyscomfited befoze him / and lett their weapens fall / & ranne in to the temple that was at Carnaim. Which cytye Judas wanne / and bzent the temple wth all that were in it: So was Carnaim subdued / and myght not withstande Judas. Then Judas gathered all the Israelites that were in Galaad / & from the leest vnto the most / wth their wyues and their chyldren (a very grete host) for to come in to the lande of Israel.

So they came vnto Ephron / which was a myghtie / grete and stronge cytye / and laye in their waye. For they coude not go by it / nether of the ryght hande ner of the left / but must goo thorow it. Neuerthelesse they that were in þe cytye / wolde not lett the go thorow / but walled by the portes wth stones. And Judas sent vnto the wth peaceable wordes / sayenge: Let vs passe thorow poure land / & we maye goo in to oure awne countre: there shall no body do you harme / we wyll but on- ly go thorow. But they wolde not lett the in.

Wherfoze Judas commaunded a pzocla- macyon to be made thorow oute the Hoste / that euery man shulde kepe his ordze: and so they dyd their best lyke baleaunt men.

And Judas beseged the cytye all that daye and all that nyght / and so wanne it: where they stode as many as were males / and de- stroyed the cytye / and spoyled it / and wente thorow all the cytye ouer the þe were slayne. Then went they ouer Iordane in to þe playne felde befoze Bethsan. And Judas helped those forwarde that cam behynde / and gaue the people good exortacyon all the waye thorow / tyll they were come in to the lande of Iuda. Thus they wente vnto þe mount Syon / where they offered wth myght & thanc-helguyng: because there were none of the slayne / but came home agayne peaceably.

Now what tyme as Judas and Jonathas were in the lande of Galaad / and Symon their brother in Galilee befoze Ptolomays: Then Josephus the sonne of Zachary and Alaryah the captaynes / hearynge of the ac- tes that were done and of the battels that were stroken / sayde: Let vs get vs a name also / and go fight agaynst the Heathen that are rounde aboute vs.

So they gaue their host a commaunde- ment / and wente towarde Jamnyah. Then came Gorygab & his men out of the cytye / to fyght agaynst them: Josephus also and Alaryah were chased vnto the borders of Jeryz & there were slayne þe daye of þe people of Is- rael. Men: so þe there was a great misery amonge þe people / & al because they were not obedient vnto Judas and hys brethren / but thought they shulde quyte them selues man fully. Neuerthelesse they came not of the sede of these men / by whō Israel was helped. But the mē þe were wth Judas / were grea- tly commended in the sight of all Israel and all Heathen / where so euer their name was herde vpon / & the people came vnto the byd- dyng them welcome.

After this wente Judas forth wth hys brethren / and fought agaynst the chyldze of Esau / in the lande þe lyeth towarde the south where he wanne the cytye of Hebron and the townes that lye helyde it: & as for the walles and towres rounde aboute it / he bzent them by. Then remoued he to go in to the lande of the Philistines / and wente thorow Samaria. At þe same tyme were there many prestz slayne in the battayl / whych wylfully and without aduylment wente out for to fyght to get them honoure. And when Judas cam to Azot in the Philistines lande / he bzake downe their altars / bzent the ymages of their Idols / spoyled þe cyties / & came agayne in to the lande of Iuda.

Antiochus wyllynge to take the cytye of Slinas for a praye is dyspuen awaye of the Cyprians. He falleth in to synches and dyeth. His sonne Antiochus is made kynge. The besage of the tower of Syon. Cupator cometh in to Jeryz wth a great armye. The bold- nesse of Cleazar.

The. vii. Chapter.

Now when kynge Antiochus tra- uayled thorow the hys countrees / & he herde þe Cymas in Persia was Josephus cap. xix. lib. x. a noble & plenteous cite in syluer & gold / & that there was in it a very riche temple: where as were clothes / cote armoures & myldes of golde / whych Alexander the sonne of Philippe kynge of Macedonia had left be- hynde him. Wherfoze he wote about to take the the cytye & to spoyl it / but he was not able: for the cytyens were warned of it / & fought wth him. And so he fled & departed wth great he- uynesse / & came agayne into Babylon. Wher- ouer there came one which brought hym tydynges in Persyde / that his hostes which were in the lande of Iuda / were dyspuen a- waye / and how that Antias went forth first wth a grete power / & was dyspuen awaye of the Jewes: how that they had wonne the vic- toze / & gotten grete goodes out of the hoo- stes þe persyde: how they had bzokē downe the abhomynacion / which he set by vpon the altare at Jerusalem / and fenced the Sanc- tuary wth hys walles / like as it was afore: yee and Bethsura his cite also.

So it chaunced / that when the King had herde these wordes / he was afraied and gre- ued very soze. Wherfoze he layed him downe vpon his bed / and fell sicke for very sorowe: and all because it had not happened as he had deuyled. And there contynued he longe / for hys grete was euer moze and moze / so þe he saw he must nedes dye. Wherfoze he sent for his frendes / & sayde vnto the: the slepe is gone fro myne eyes / for the very sorow and heracyon of herte þe I haue. For when I co- syde in my mynde þe grete aduersite þe I am come vnto / & the floudes of heuynesse which I am come in / where as afore tyme I was so myr / and so greatly set by (by reason of my power) agayne / consyderinge the euell þe I haue done at Jerusalem / fro whence I toke all the ryches of golde & syluer þe were in it / and sent to fetch awaye the inhabytours of Jeryz / without any reason why: I knowe / þe these troubles are come by me for the same cause. And beholde / I must dye wth grete sorow in a straunge lande. Then called he for one Philippe a frende of his / whom he made ruler of al his realme / & gaue him þe crowne / his roabe & his rync: that he shulde take hys sonne Antiochus vnto hym / & byrynge hym by / tyll he myght raygne hymself. So the kynge Antiochus dyed there / in the. cxiij. yere. When Antias knewe that the kynge was deed / he ordered Antiochus hys sonne (whom he had brought by) to raygne in hys fathers steade / & called hym Cupator. Now they that were in the castell (at Jerusalem) kepte in the Jewes round about the Sanc- tuary / & fought euer tyll to do them harme / for the strengthenyng of the Heathen.

Wherfoze Judas thought to destroye the / and called all the people together / that they myght laye sege vnto them. So they came together in the. c. yere / & beseged them / sayenge forth their ordynance and instru- mentes of warre. Then certayne of the that were beseged wente forth vnto whom some ungodly men of Israel toged them selues also / and went vnto the kynge sayenge: Wth longe wyll it be / or thou punysh and auenge oure brethren? We haue euer bene mynded to do thy father serupce / to walke in his sta- tutes / and to obeye his commaundementes: Wherfoze oure people fel from vs / & where- soeuer they founde any of vs / they slewe the: and they haue not only medled wth vs / but wth all oure countrees: and beholde / this daye are they besegynge the castell at Je- rusalem / and haue made by the stronge holde in Bethsura: And yf thou dost not pzeuente them ryght soone / they wyll do moze then these / and thou shalt not be able to ouer- come them.

When the kynge herde this / he was very angry / and called all hys frendes / the cap- tynes of hys sote men and of all hys horse men together. He byzed men of watre also out of other realmes and oute of the Isles of the see / which came vnto hym. And the nom- bre of hys host was an hundred thousande sote men / and twenty thousande horsemen / & xxxij. elephantes well exercised to battayl. These came thorow Idumea vnto Bethsu- ra / and beseged it a longe season / and made dyuerse instrumentes of warre agaynst it. But the Jewes came out and bzent them / and fought lyke men. Then departed Judas from the castell at Jerusalem / and remoued the host toward Bethsacaran ouer agaynst the kynges armye.

So the kynge arose befoze the daye / and brought the power of his host in to þe waye to Bethsacaran / where the Hostes made the to the battayl / blowingge the trompettes. And to pzoouke the Elephantes for to fight / they shewed them the sappe of reed grapes and molbertes. And deuyded the Elephantes amonge the Hoste: so þe by euery Elephante there stode a. M. men well harnessed / & hel- mettes of stele vpon their heades: Yee vnto euery one of the Elephantes also / were orde- ned. b. c. horsemen of the best / which wayted of the Elephante / goynge where so euer he wente / and departed not from him. Euery Elephante was couered wth a stronge tower of wdd / where vpon were. xxxij. baleaunte men wth weapens to fyght / & wthyn it was a man of gnde to rule the beest.

As for the remynant of the horsemen / he sett them vpon both the sides in two partes wth trompettes / to pzoouke the Hoste / and toffere by such as were slowe in the armye. And when the sunne shone vnto their shildes of golde and stele / the mountaynes glistered agayne at them / and were as bryght as the cressettes of fyre. The kynge's host also was deuyded / one parte vnto þe mountaynes / the

the other towe beneth: so they went on / cahyng good hede / and hepyng their ordre.
And all they that dwelt in the lande / were as-trayed at the noyse of their hoost / when the multytude wente forth / & when the weapes smote together / for h hoost was both great & myghty. Judas also & his hoost entred in to the battayll / & flew. Of. men of the kynges armye. Now whē Eleazar the sonne of Sau-ra dyde one of the Elephantes decke in the kynges badge / and was a moze goodly beest then the other: he thought the kyng should be upon hym / & leoparde him self to delpyer his people / and to get him a perpetuall name.

Wherfore he ranne with a corage vnto h Elephante in the myddest of the hoost / smytynge them downe of both the sydes / & slewe many aboute him. So wente he to the Elephantes fete / & gat hym vnder hym / & slewe him: then fell the Elephant downe vpon him / & there he dyed. Judas also & his men seing h power of the kyng & the myghtye vpolce of his hoost / departed fro them. And the kynges armye wente by agaynst the towarde Jerusalem / & pitched their tentes in Jewry besyde mount Sion. Mozeouer / the kyng toke truce with them that were in Bethsura.

But whē they came out of h cyte (because they had no bytales withyn / & the lande laye vntyll) the kyng toke Bethsura / & set men to kepe it / & turned hys hoost to the place of the Sanctuary / & layed siege to it a greate whyle. Where he made al maner ordynace: handbowes / fyre dartes / rackets to cast stones / scoppys to shute arrowes / & slinges.
The Jewes also made ordynance agaynst theirs / and fought a longe season.

But in the cyte there were no bytales / for it was the seuenth yere of the warres / & those that remayned in Jewry had eaten vp all their stoare. And in the Sanctuary were few men lefte / for hunger came so vpon the / that they were scattered abroade euery man to his atone place.

So when Lysias hearde that Philippe (whom Antiochus the kyng whyle he was yet lyuyng / had ordered to byng by An-tiochus his sonne / that he myght be kyng) was come agayne out of Persia & Medea with the kynges hoost / & thought to oplayne the kyngdome: He gat him to the kyng in all the haste / & to the captaynes of h hoost / and sayde: we decreafe dayly / & oure bytales are but small. Agayne / the place h we laye sege vnto / is very strong / & it were oure parte to se for the realme. Let vs agre with these men and take truce with them / and with all their people / and graunte them to lyue after their lawe / as they dyd afore. For they be greued & do all these thyngs agaynst vs / because we haue despyed their lawe. So the kyng and the pynces were content / & sent vnto the to make peace / & they receyued it. Now when the kyng & the pynces had made an othe to them / they came out of the castell / and kyng wente by to mount Syon. But whē he sawe that the place was well fenced / he broke the othe that he had made / & commaunded to destroye h wall rounde aboute. Then departed he in all the haste / & returned vnto Antioche / where he foude Philippe hauyng dominyon of h cyte. So he fought agaynst him / & toke h cyte agayne in to his handes.

The. viij. Chapter.

In the. cii. yere came Demetrius the sonne of Seleucus from the cyte of Rome with a small cōpany of men / vnto a cyte of the see coast / & there he bare rule. And it chaunced / that when he came to Antioch the cite of his Progenitours / hys hoost toke Antiochus & Lysias / to byng the vnto him. But whē he was tolde him / he sayde: lett me not se their faces. So the hoost put them to death. Now when Demetrius was set vpon the throne of his kyngdome / there came vnto him wyched and vngodly men of Israel: whose captayne was Alcimus / that wolde haue bene made hys prest: These men accused the people of Israel vnto the kyng / sayinge: Judas & his brythren haue slayne thy frendes / and byue vs out of oure atone lande. Wherfore sende now some man (to whom thou geuest credē-ce) that he maye go and se all the destruccyō / which he hath done vnto vs & to the kynges lande / and lett him be punished with all his frendes and sauours.

When the kyng chose Bachides a frende of his / which was a mā of greate power in the realme (beyonde the greate water) and saythfull vnto the kyng: and sent hym to se the destruccyō that Judas had done. And as for that wyched Alcimus / he made him hys prest / and commaunded hym to be auenged of the chylde of Israel. So they stode by / and came with a greate hoost in to the lande of Juda / sendyng messaungers to Judas & his brythren / & speakyng vnto the in peaceable wordes: but vnder disceate. Wherfore Judas & his people beleued not their sayyng / for they sawe h they were come in a greate host.

After this came the scribes together vnto Alcimus & Bachides / trustyng the best vnto the. And fyrst h Alcimus requyred peace of them / sayinge: Alcimus the prest is come of the seide of Iard / how can he disceane vs?

So they gaue the iouynge wordes / & swoze vnto them / & sayde: we wil do you no harme / neither your frendes: & they beleued the. But the very same daye toke they lx. men of them & slewe them according to h wordes that are written: They haue cast the flesh of thy sanctes / & shed their bloude rounde about Jerusalem / & there was noman that wolde bury them. So there came a greate feare & dyede amonge the people / sayenge: there is nether treuth nor ryghteousnesse in them / for they haue broken the appoyntment & othe that they made. And Bachides remoued his hoost from Jerusalem / and pyched hys tente at Bethzecha: where he sent forth / & toke many of them that had forsaken hym: He slewe many of the people also / and cast them in to a greate pytt. Then commytted he the lande vnto Alcimus / and left men of warre with hym to helpe him / & Bachides hym self wente vnto the kyng. And thus Alcimus defended his hye presthode / and all such as byred Israel / resoyted vnto hym: In so moch that they optayned the lande of Juda / & dyd moch euell vnto the Israelites.

Now when Judas sawe all the myschefe that Alcimus and his company had done (yee moze then the Heathen them selues) vnto the Israelites: He wente forth rounde about all the borders of Jewry / and punished those vnfaithfull renagates / so that they came no moze out in to the countre. So when Alcimus sawe / that Judas and his people had gotten the byperhande / and that he was not able to abyde them: he wente agayne to the kyng / and sayde all the worst of them that he coude. Then the kyng sent Micanos / one of his chiefe pynces (whych bare euell wyl vnto Israel) and commaunded hym / that he shulde utterly destroye the people.

So Micanos came to Jerusalem with a greate hoost / and sent vnto Judas and hys brythren with frendly wordes (but vnder di-sceate) sayenge: there shall be no warre be-twixte me and you: I will come with a few men / to se how ye do / with frendshipe. vpon thys he came vnto Judas / and they saluted one another peaceably: but the enemyes were appoynted to take Judas by violence. Ne-uertheles it was tolde Judas / that he came vnto h but vnder disceate: wherfore he gat him awaye from him / & wolde se his face no-moze. When Micanos perceaued that hys counsell was betrayed / he went out to fight agaynst Judas / besyde Capharsalama:
where there were slayne of Micanos hoost /
b. viij. men: the resydue fled vnto the castell of David.

After thys came Micanos by vnto mount Sion: and the prestes with the elders of the people wente forth to salute him peaceably & to shewe him the burnt sacrifices that were offered for the kyng. But he laughed them to scozne / mocked them / defiled their offerin-ges / & spake disdainely / yee and swoze in his woth / sayenge: If Judas and hys hoost be not deliuered now in to my handes / as soone y. shall as euer I come agayne (& saye well) I shal burne by this house. With that / wente he out in a greate anger. Then the prestes came in / and stode before the altier of the temple / wepyng & sayenge: For so moch as thou (O Lorde) hast chosen this house / that thy name might be called vpon therein / & that it shulde be an house of prayer and petycyon vnto thy people: Be abenged of this man & his hoost / & lett them be slayne with h sword: remembre the blasphemyes of them / & suffice them not to continue eny longer.

When Micanos was gone from Jerusalem. he pitched his tente at Bethozon / & there an hoost met him out of Syria. And Judas came to Adarfa with iij. m. / & made his prayer vnto God / sayenge: O Lorde / because the messaungers of king Senacherib blasphemed the / the angell wente forth / and slew an Cxxx. thousande of them: Euen so destroie thou this hoost before vs to daye h other people maye knowe / how that he hath blasphemed thy Sanctuary: & punish him / acordinge to his malyciousnesse.

And so the hoostes stroke the felde / the thirtente daye of the moneth Adar: & Mica-nos hoost was discomfited / and he hymself was fyrst slayne in the battayll. When Micanos men of warre sawe that he was kyl-led / they cast awaye their weapes and fled:
but the Jewes folowed vpon them an whole dayes iourney / from Adazer vnto Gazara / blowyng with the trompettes / & makinge tokens after the. So the Jewes came forth of all the townes there aboute / & blewe out their hornes vpon them / and turned agaynst them: Thus were they al slayne / and not one of them lefte.

When they toke their substauce for a pray and smote of Micanos heade and hys ryght hande (whych he helde by so prouidly) and brought it with them / and hanged it by a sc-re Jerusalem. Wherfore the people were exceedingly reioysed / and passed ouer that daie in great gladnesse. And Judas ordered / that the same daye (namely the .xiiij. daye of the moneth Adar) shulde be kepte in myghty eue-ry yere. Thus the lande of Juda was in rest a litle whyle.

Judas considering the power & goodly pollicy of the romaynes make th peace with the. The rescript of the romaynes sent vnto the Jewes.

The. viij. Chapter.

Judas

Judas hadde also the fame of the Romaynes / & they were myghty & balaust men / & agreable to all thinges that are requyred of the / & make peace with all men / which come vnto them / and how they were doughty men of strength. Besydes that it was to be hym of their battayls a noble actes whych they dyd in Galacia / how they had conquered them / & brought the vnder tribute: & what greates thinges they had done in Spayne / how that with their wysdome & sober behauiour they had wonne the Wynges offyluer and golde & are there / and obtayned all the lande / wryth other places farre from them: how they had dyscomfited & slayne downe the kynge that came vpon them / from the uttermost parte of the earth / and how other people gaue the tribute euery yere: How they had slayne & ouercome Philippe & Perles kynge of Cethim / and other mo (in battayll) whych had brought their ordynance agaynst them: how they dyscomfited greates Antiochus kynge of Asia (that wolde nedes fyght with them) haunge an hundreth and. xx. elephantes / with horsmen / charrettes / and a very greates hooft: how they toke hym self alque / and ordered hym (with such as shulde raigne after hym) to paye them a greates tribute / yee and to fynde them good suertyes and pledge: besydes all thys / how they had taken from him India / Media and Lydia (his best landes) & geuen them to kynge Eumenes. Agayne / how they perceauyng that the Grekes were comyng to bere them: sent agaynst them a captayne of an hooft / which gaue them battayll / slew many of them / led awaye their wyues and chyldren captiue / spoiled them / toke possession of their lande / destroyed their stronge holdes / and subdued them to be their bonde men / vnto this daye: Mozeouer / how that as for other kyngdomes & fles / whych somtyme with stode them / they destroyed the / & brought them vnder their dominyon: But helped euer their atone frendes & those that were confederate with them / and conquered kyngdomes both farre & nye: & that who so euer herde of their renoune / was afrayed of them: for who they wolde helpe to their kyngdomes / those raigned: & who it lyked not the to raigne / they put him downe: And how they were come to greates preeminence: haunge no kynge amonge them / nether any man clothed in purple / to be magnified there thozow but had ordered them selues a parlament / where in there sat iiii. C. and xx. Senatours daylie vpon counsel / to dispatch euery busynesse of the people / & to kepe good ordre: And how that euery yere they chose a Mayre / to haue the gouernaunce of all their lande: to who euery man was obedient / & there was nether euell will nether discencion amonge them. Then Judas chose Eupolemus the sonne of Thon the sonne of Jacob / & Jason the sonne of Eleazar / & sent them vnto Rome for to make frendshipe & a bonde of loue wth them: & they might take from them & bondage of Grekes / for & Jewes sawe that the Grekes wolde subdue the kyngdome of Israel. So they went vnto Rome (a very greates iourney) & came in to the Parliament / & sayde: Judas Machabeus with his brethren & the people of the Jewes hath sent vs vnto you / to make a bonde of frendshipe & peace with you / & ye to note vs as your louers & frendes. And the matter pleased the Romaynes ryght well / wherfore it was writte by: of which & Romaynes made a wrytting in tables of Latyn & sent it to Jerusalem: & they might haue by them a memorial of the same peace & bonde of frendshipe / after this maner: God saue the Romaynes & the people of Jewes both by see & by lande / & kepe & swearde & enemy fro them for euer moze. If there come fyrst eny warre vnto the Romaynes or eny of their frendes thozow out all their dominio & people of the Jewes shal helpe the (as the tyme requyret) & that wth all their hertes. Also they shal nether geue nor sende vnto their enemies vitales / weapens / money ner shippes: but fulfill this charge at & Romaynes pleasure / & take nothing fro them therfore. Agayne yf & people of the Jewes happē first to haue warre / the Romaynes shal stande by them wth a good wil / according as the tyme wil suffice. Nether shal they geue vnto & Jewes enemies / vitales / weapens / money ner shippes. Thus are the Romaynes content to do / & shal fulfill their charge wthout eny dysceate. Accordinge to these articles / the Romaynes made the bonde wryth the Jewes. Now after these articles (sayde they) yf eny of the parties wil put to the / or take eny thyng fro them: they shal do it wryth the consente of both: & whatsoeuer they adde vnto them or take from them / it shal stande fast. And as touchyng the euell that Demetrius hath done vnto the Jewes / we haue wrytten vnto him / sayeng: wherfore layest thou thy heuy pocke vpon the Jewes oure frendes and louers? If they make eny complaynte of the agayne vnto vs / we shal defende them / and fyght with the by see and by lande. After the death of Nicanoz Demetrius sendeth his armie agaynst Judas. Judas is slayne. Jonathan is put in the steade of his brother. The strife betwene Jonathan & Bachides. Alcimus is taken with the patrye & dyeth. Bachides retourneth agayne vnto Phing. He cometh vpon Jonathan by the counsell of certain wycked personnes / & is ouercome. The trefe of Jonathan with Bachides.

1. Mach. vi. f. Josephus. cap. xxi. lib. vii.

The ix. Chapter.

In the meane season when Demetrius herde & Nicanoz a hys hooft was slayne in the felde / he proceeded further to sende Bachides & Alcimus agayne in to Jewry / & those that were in the right wyng of his hooft / wryth the. So they wente forth by the waye that ledeth vnto Galgala / and pyched their tentes before Bethsaioth which is in Arbellis / & wanne & cittle / & slewe moch people. In & first moneth of the Clij. yere / they brought their hooft to Jerusalem / & rose by & came to Bera / wryth xx. M. fote men / & ii. M. horsmen. Now Judas had pyched his tente at Lasfa / wryth thye thousande chosen men. And when they sawe the multytude of the other army that it was so greates / they were soze afrayed / & many conueyed them selues out of the hooft / In so moch that there abode no mo of them but iiii. C. men. When Judas sawe that is hooft sayled him / and that he must nedes fight: it brake his hert / that he had no tyme to gather them together: wherfore the man was in extreme trouble. Neuerthelesse he sayde vnto them / that remayned wryth hym: wryth let vs go agaynst oure enemies / peraduenture we shal be able to fight wryth them. But they wolde haue stopped him / sayenge: we shal not be able / therfore let vs now saue oure lyues / and turne agayne to our brethren / and then wryll we fight agaynst them / for we are here but fewe. And Judas sayde: God is for vs / that we shulde fle from them. Wherfore yf oure tyme be come / lett vs dye manfully for oure brethren / and lett vs not slayne our honoure. When the hooft remoued out of the tentes / & stode agaynst them. The horsmen were deuyded in two partes: the syngre casters & the archeys wente before the hooft / & all the myghtye men were forsmest in the felde. Bachides himself was in the right wyng of the battell / and the hooft dreyne in two partes / and blew the trompettes. They of Judas syde blew the trompettes also / & the earth shoke at the noyse of the hooftes / and they stroke a felde from the moztow til nyght. And when Judas sawe that Bachides hooft was strongest of the right syde / he toke wryth hym all the hardy men / and brake the ryght wyng of their ordre / and folowed vnto them vnto the mount Azot. Now when they whych were of the lefte wyng / sawe that the right syde was dyscomfited / they persecuted Judas and them that were wryth hym. When was there a soze battayll / for many were slayne and wounded of both the parties / Judas also hymself was kyllid / and the remnant fled. So Jonathan and Symon toke Judas their brother / and buried him in his fathers sepulchre in the cytie of Modin. And all the people of Israel made greates lamentacion for him / and mourned longe / sayenge: Alas / that thys worthy shulde be slayne / which deliuered the people of Israel. As for other thinges pertynyng to the battayls of Judas / the noble actes & he did & of his worthynesse: they are not wrytten / for they were very many. And after the death of Judas / wycked man Joseph. cap. ix. came by in all the coastes of Israel / and there arose all such as wolde be yngodlynesse. In those dayes was there a greates dearth in the lande / and all the countre gaue ouer the selues & theirs vnto Bachides. So Bachides chose wycked men / and made them lordes in the lande. These fought out and made search for Judas frendes / and brought them vnto Bachides: which auenged him self vnto them wryth greates despise. And there came so greates trouble in Israel / as was not sens the tyme that no prophet was sene there. Then came all Judas frendes together / & sayde vnto Jonathan: for so moch as thy brother Judas is deed / there is none lyke him to go forth agaynst our enemy / agaynst Bachides / and such as are aduersaries vnto oure people. Wherfore thys daye we chose the for him / to be oure prynce and captayne to ordre oure battell. And Jonathan toke the gouernaunce vpon hym at the same tyme / and ruled in steade of his brother Judas. When Bachides gatt knowlege therof / he sought for to slep hym: But Jonathan and Symon his brother / perceauyng that / fled in to & wilderness of Checua wryth all their company / and pyched their tentes by & water pole of Asphar. Which when Bachides vnderstode / he came ouer Jordan wryth all his hooft vpon the Sabbath daye. Now had Jonathan sent his brother Thon (a captayne of the people) to praye his frendes the Nabuthites / & they wolde lende them their ordynance / for they had moch. So the chyldren of Jambry came out of Madaba / and toke Thon and all that he had / and wente their waye wrythal. Then came worde vnto Jonathan and Symon his brother / that the chyldren of Jambry made a greates maryage / and brought the byde from Madaba wryth greates pompe: for she was daughter to one of the noblest prynces of Canaan. Wherfore they remembred the bloude of Thon their brother / and wente by / and hid them selues vnder the shadowe of the mountayne. So they lift by their eyes / and lohed: and beholde / there was moch a do / and greates repayre: for the bydegrome came forth / & his frendes & his brethren met them wryth tym.

Joseph. cap. ix. Antig.

panyes/instrumentes of musich/ and many weapens. Then Jonathan and they that were with him/ rose out of their lurking places agaynst them/ and slewe many of them. As for the remnant/ they fled in the to most saynes/ and they toke all their substaunce. Thus the mariage was turned to moorning/ and the noyle of their melody in to lamentation. And so when they had auenged the bloude of they brother/ they turned agayne vnto Iordane.

Bachides hearynge thys/ came vnto the very border of Iordane with a greate power vpon the Sabbath daye. And Jonathan sayde to his company: lett vs get vp/ & fyght agaynst oure enemyes: for it standeth not wyth vs todaye/as in tymes past: Beholde/ our enemyes are in oure waye / the water of Iordane vpon the one syde of vs / wyth banckes/fennes & woddes of the other syde / so there is no place for vs to departe vnto. Wherfore crye now vnto heauen / & ye maye be deliuered from the power of poure enemyes. So they stroke the batell. And Jonathan stretched out his hande to smyte Bachides/ but he fled backward. Then Jonathan & they that were wyth hym leapt in to Iordane/ & swymmed ouer Iordane vnto hym / & there were slayne of Bachides syde that daye / a thousande men.

Wherfore Bachides with his hooft turned agayn to Jerusalem/ & buylte by the castels & strong holdes that were in Jewry/ Jericho/ Emmaus/ Bethozon/ Bethell/ Chammata/ Phara & Copo/ wyth hys walles/ wyth portes & lockes: & sett men to kepe them/ that they might vse their malice vpon Israell. He walled by Bethsurah/ Gazarah & the castell at Jerusalem also / & prouyded them w men & vitayles: He toke also the cheffest mens sonny in the countre for pledges/ & put them in the castell at Jerusalem to be kepte.

Afterwarde in the .c. liij. yere in the seconde moneth/ Alcimus commaunded/ that the walles of the ynnmost Sanctuary shoulde be destroyed/ & the buyldinges of the prophetes also. And when he beganne to destroye them the thinges that he wente about/ were hyndered for he was smytten w a palsy/ & hys mouth shut/ so that he coulde nomore speake ner commaunde any of his house concerning his busynesse. Thus dyed Alcimus in great mystry at the same tyme. And whē Bachides sawe that Alcimus was deed / he turned agayne to the kynge/ & so the lande was in rest .ij. yeres. Then all the vngodly men helde a counsell/ sayenge: Beholde Jonathan & his company are at ease/ & dwell without care. Wherfore lett vs bringe Bachides hither/ & he shal take them all in one nyght.

So they wente and gaue Bachides thys coscel/ which arose to come w a greate hooft/ & sent letters pruely to his adherentes which were in Jewry / to take Jonathan & those that were wyth hym: but they myght not/ for the other had gotten knowlege of theyr deuyce. And Jonathan toke .x. men of the countre/ (which were the ryngleaders of them) & slew them. Then Jonathan & Symon with their company departed vnto the cytye Bethbessen which lyeth in the wyldernesse/ and repayred the decaye therof/ & made it stronge. When Bachides knewe thys / he gathered all hys hooft/ & sent worde to them that were of Jewry. The came he & layde sege to Bethbessen & fought agaynst it a longe season / & made instrumentes of warre. Now Jonathan left his brother Symon in the cytye/ and wente forth himself in to the countre/ & came wyth a certayne nombere/ and slewe Adares & his brethren and the chyldre of Phaleron in their tentes: so that he beganne to be stronge/ and to increase in power.

As for Symon & his company/ they went out of the cytye/ and went by the instrumentes of warre/ and fought agaynst Bachides/ and dyscomfyted hym. And Bachides was sore bered/ because hys counsell and traualle was in bayne. Wherfore he was wroth at the wicked men (that gaue hym counsell to come in to their lande) and slew many of them. Then purposed he wyth hys company to go awaye in to his awne countre: wherof when Jonathan had knowlege / he sent embassytours vnto hym/ for to make peace with him/ & that he shoulde deliuer hym his prisoners agayne. To the whych Bachides consented gladly/ & dyd accordinge to his desyre: yee and made an othe / that he shoulde neuer do hym harme all the dayes of hys life. So he restored vnto hym all the prisoners that he had taken out of the lande of Iuda/ and they returned and wente hys waye in to hys awne lande/ nether proceded he any further to come vnto the borders of Iuda. Thus Israell had more warre. And Jonathan dwelt at Machmas / and beganne there to gouerne the people / and destroyed the vngodly men out of Israell.

Demetrius desyeth to haue peace with Jonathan. Alexander moueth warre agaynst Demetrius. Demetrius is slayne. The frendshyppe of Ptolomeus & Alexander.

The .x. Chapter.

In the .c. lx. yere came Alexander the sonne of noble Antioch & toke Ptolomeus/ whose cytyens receyued him & there he reigned. Whē Demetrius herde therof / he gathered an exceeding greate hooft / and went forth agaynst

agaynst him to fight. Wherfore Demetrius sent letters vnto Jonathan w louynge wordes/ & prayled hym greatly. For he sayde: we wyll fyrst make peace wyth hym/ before he bynde hym self with Alexander agaynst vs: els he shal remembre the euell that we haue done agaynst hym/ his brother & his people. And so he gaue Jonathan leue together with hooft/ to make weapens / and to be confederate with him/ & commaunded the pledges that were in the castell/ to be deliuered vnto him.

Then came Jonathan to Jerusalem/ and red the letters in the audyence of all the people/ and of them that were in the castell. And therfore were they sore afrayed / because they herde/ that the kynge had geue him licence to gather an hooft. Thus were the pledges deliuered vnto Jonathan / which testified the to their elders. Jonathan also dwelt at Jerusalem / & beganne to buyde by and to repayre the cite: commaunding the woich men/ to wall it/ and the mount Sion round aboute wyth fre stone/ to be a stronge holde/ and so they dyd. As for the death that were in the castels which Bachides had made by/ they fled: so that euery man left the place/ & wente into his awne countre. Only at Bethsura remayned certayne of the Jewes/ which had forsake the lawe & commaundementes of God/ for Bethsura was their refuge.

Now when kynge Alexander herde of the promyses that Demetrius had made vnto Jonathan/ and when it was tolde hym of the battels & noble actes/ whych he and his brethren had done/ and of the greate traualles that they had taken: he sayde: where shal we fynde such a man? well/ we wyll make hym oure frende/ & be confederate with him. Wherfore he wrote a lettre vnto hym / wyth these wordes: kynge Alexander saluteth his brother Jonathan. We haue herde of the/ that thou art a valeaunt man / and mete to be oure frende: wherfore this daye we ordene the to be the hys frend of the people / and to be called the kynges frende. (Upon thys/ he sente hym a purple clothinge/ & a crowne of golde) that thou mayest confidre what is for oure profyt/ & kepe frendshyppe towarde vs.

So in the .liij. moneth of the .c. lx. yere vnto the solempne feast daye of the tabernacles/ Jonathan put the holy rayment vpon him. Then gathered he an hooft/ & made many weapens. Whych when Demetrius herde/ he was maruelous sore/ & sayde: alas/ what haue we done/ that Alexander hath preuented vs in gettinge the frendshyppe of the Jewes/ for his awne defence? Yet wyll I write Ioungly vnto him also / yee & promyse the dygnities & rewardes/ that they maye be of my syde/ wherby he wrote vnto the these wordes: kynge Demetrius sendeth greetynge vnto the people of the Jewes. where as ye haue kepte your couenaunt towarde vs / & continued in our frendshyppe / not enclinyng to oure enemyes we were glad/ when we herde therof. Wherfore remayne still & be saythfull to vs: & we shal well recompense you for the thinges/ that ye haue done on oure partye: we shal releafe you of many charges/ and geue you rewardes. And now I dyscharge you & all the Jewes from tributes/ & forgeue you the customes of salt/ & releafe you of the crowne taxes/ of the thirde parte of seide/ and half of the frute of trees/ which is myne atownd betwixt. These I leaue for you/ from this daye forth: so that they shal not be taken of the lande of Iuda ner of the thre cities which are added thereto out of Samaria & Galilee/ from this daye forth for euermore. Jerusalem also with all thinges belonging thereto/ shal be holy & free/ yee the tythes & tributes shal pertaine vnto it. As for the power of the castell which is at Jerusalem/ I remytte & geue it vnto the hys frend/ & he maye set in it suche men/ as he shal chuse to kepe it. I frely deliuer all the Jewes that are prisoners thowout all my realme: so that euery one of them shalbe free from paying any tribute/ yee euery of their catell.

All the solempne feastes/ Sabbathes/ newmones/ the dayes appoynted/ the thre dayes before and after the feast shalbe free for all the Jewes in my realme: so that in them no man shal haue power to do any thing / or to moue any busynesse agaynst any of the in any manner of cause. Where shal. xxx. Also of the Jewes he witten by in the kynges host/ and haue their wages payed / as all other men of warre of the kynges shoulde haue: and of them shalbe ordened certayne / to kepe the kynges strong holdes: yee and some of them shalbe set ouer the kynges busynesse/ & they maye saythfully deale wyth the same. The Jewes also shal haue princes of their awne/ and walcke in their awne lawes/ as the king hath commaunded in the lande of Iuda.

And the thre cytyes that are fallen vnto Jewrye from the countre of Samaria and Galilee: shalbe taken as Jewrye / and be bnder one: nether be subiecte to any straunge lord/ but to the hys frend. As for Ptolomeus and the lande pertainynge thereto/ I geue it vnto the Sanctuary at Jerusalem / for the necessary expences of the holy thinges. Moreouer / I wyll geue euery yere .xv. thousand Syckles of syluer out of the kynges cheker (whych pertaineth vnto me) to the woiche of the temple: yee and loke what remayneth (whych they that had oure matters in hande in tymes past/ haue not payed) & same shal they they geue vnto them also. And besydes all this / the .v. .M. cycles whych they toke yearly of the rentes of the Sanctuary / shall belonge vnto the prestes that do seruice.

Item / whosoever they be that fle vnto the temple at Jerusalem or within the liberties thereof / where as they are fallen in to the kynge's daunger for any maner of byrgnes / they shall be pardoned / and all the goodes that they haue in my realme / shall be fre. For the byrgnyng also & repaynyng of the worke of the Sanctuary / expenses shall be geuen out of the kynge's Checker: Yee and for the makinge of the walles rounde aboute Jerusalem / for the byrnyng downe of the olde / and for the settinge vp of the stronge holdes in Jewry / whal & colles & charges be geuen out of the kynge's Checker.

1. Mac. vii. b.

But when Jonathan and the people heard these wordes / they gaue no credence vnto them / nether receaued them: for they remembred the greates wyckednesse that he had done vnto Israel / and how soe he had byred the. Wherfore they agreed vnto Alexander / for he was a prince that had deale frendly wyth them / and so they stode by him allwaye. The gathered kynge Alexander a greates host / & brought his armye agaynst Demetrius.

Josephus. cap. v. lib. xii.

So the two kynge's stroke battayll together / but Demetrius host fled / and Alexander folowed after and fell vpon them. A myghty soe felde was it / continuinge til the Sonne wente downe / and Demetrius was slayne the same daye.

And Alexander sente embassitours vnto Ptolomey the kynge of Egypte wth these wordes / sayenge: For so moch as I am come agayne to my realme / and am set in the trone of my progenitours / and haue gotten the dominyon / ouer comed Demetrius / conquered the lande / and stryken a felde wyth hym / so that we haue discomfyted both hym and his host / and set in the trone of his kyngdome: Let vs now make frendshipe together / geue me thy daughter to wyfe: so shall I be thy sonne in lawe / and both geue the rewardes / and her greates dignyte. Ptolomey the kynge gaue answer / sayenge: Happy be the daye wherin thou art come agayne to the lande of thy progenitours / and sett in the trone of thy kyngdome. As now wyll I fulfill thy wyrtynge: but mete me at Ptolomais / & we maye se one another / and that I maye marry my daughter vnto the accorpyng to thy desire. So Ptolomey wete out of Egypte wyth his daughter Cleopatra / & came vnto Ptolomais in the .x. .yere: where kynge Alexander met hym / and he gaue Alexander his daughter Cleopatra / & marryed hym at Ptolomais wyth greates wordes / lyke as the maner of kynge's is to be. Then wrote kynge Alexander vnto Jonathan / that he shoulde come and mete him. So he wente honozably vnto Ptolomais / and there he met the two kynge's / and gaue them greates presentes of golde and syluer / and soude sauoure in their syght. And there came together agaynst Jonathan certayne wickid men & ingracious personnes of Israel / makinge complayntes of hym / but the kynge regarded them not. As for Jonathan / the kynge commaunded to take of his garmentes / and to clothe hym in purple: and so they dyd. Then the kynge appointed hym to sytt by hym / and sayde vnto his prynces: Go wyth hym in to the myddell of the cytye / and make a proclamacion / that no man complayne agaynst him of any matter / and that no man trouble him for any maner of cause.

So it happened that when his accusers sawe the wordes whych was proclaimed of him / & that he was clothed in purple: they fled euerychone. And the kynge made moch of hym / wrote hym amonge his chiefe frendes / made hym a duke / and partaker of his domynyon. Thus Jonathan wente agayne to Jerusalem wyth peace and gladnesse. In the .x. .yere came Demetrius the sonne of Demetrius from Creta in to his fathers lande: wherof when Alexander herde tell / he was ryght soe / and returned vnto Antioche. And Demetrius chose Appollonius (whych had the gouernaunce of Celosyria) to be his captayne.

So he gathered a greates host and came vnto Jamnia / and sende wordes vnto Jonathan the hye prest / sayenge: Darrest thou stande by thy self alone? As for me / I am but laughed to scoone and shamed / because thou proudest thy strength agaynst vs in the mostaynes. Now therfore if thou trustest in thyne awne strength / come downe to vs in to the playne felde / and there lett vs proue oure strength together: thou shalt synde / & I haue baleant men of warre wyth me: and shalt knowe whom I am / and the other that stande by me.

Whych saye / that poure sote is not able to stande before oure face / for thy fathers haue bene twyfe chased in to their awne lande. And now / how wyll thou be able to abyde so greates an host of hozsmen and fotemen in the felde / where as is nether rocke / stone / nor place to fle vnto?

When Jonathan herde the wordes of Appollonius / he was moued in his mynde: wherfore he chose .x. thousande men and wete out of Jerusalem / and Symon his brother met hym for to helpe hym: And they pitched their tentes at Joppa / but the cytye kepte hym forth hym forth / for Joppa was an holde of Appollonius. Then Jonathan layde sege to it / and they that were in the cytye / for very feare let hym in: and so Jonathan wane Joppa. Appollonius hearpyng of this / toke the thousande hozse men / with a greates host of fote / & wete as though he wolde go to Azotus / and came immediatly in to the playne felde: because he had so many hozsmen / & put his trust in them. So Jonathan folowed vpon him to Azotus / and there they stroke the battayll. Now had Appollonius sette a thousande hozsmen behinde the pyruely in the felde. And when Jonathan knewe that soch wayte was layde behynde them / they went rounde aboute the enemyes host / and shot darteres at the people from the moynyng to the euenyng. As for Jonathan's people / they kepte their ordze as he had commaunded them / and the enemyes hozses were euer labouryng.

Then brought Symon forth his hoste / & set them agaynst the fote men. For the hozsmen were wery allready. So he discomfyted them / and they fled. And they that were scatered in the felde / gat them to Azotus / and came in to the temple of Dagon their Idol / that they myght there saue their lyues. But Jonathan sett fyre vpon Azotus and all the cities rounde aboute it / & toke their goodes / and bzent by the temple of Dagon wyth all them that were fled in to it.

1. Mac. xi. d.

Thus were slayne and bzent well nye .viij. thousande men. So Jonathan remoued the hoste from thence / and brought them to Ascalon: where the men of the citie came forth / and met hym with greates wordes. After this wente Jonathan and his hoste agayne to Jerusalem / wyth greates substance of good. And when kynge Alexander herde these thynges / he thought to do Jonathan moze wordes / and sent him a colar of golde / as the vse is to be geuen vnto soch as are of the kynge's nexte bloude. He gaue hym also the cytye of Accaron (wyth the landes belonging therto) in possession.

The bylencyon betwixte Ptolomey & Alexander his sonne in lawe. The deeth of Alexander. Demetrius raygneth after the deeth of Ptolomey. Symon is beleged of Jonathan. Demetrius seing that no man resisteth him / sende his armye agayne. Cyprius moueth Antiochus agaynst Demetrius. Demetrius is deliuered by the succour of Jonathan. After his deliuerance he breaketh his couenaunt that he had made.

The .xj. Chapter.

And the kynge of Egypte gathered an hoste / lyke the sande that lyeth vpon the see shore / and many shippes: & wete aboute the shore disceate to optayne the kyngdome of Alexander / and to toyne it vnto his awne realme. Upon this he toke his sournye in to Syria / and was

letten in to the cytyes / & men came forth to mete him: for kynge Alexander had commaunded them so to do / because he was his father in lawe. Now when Ptolomey entred in to any cytye / he lette men of warre to kepe it / & this he dyd thowome out all the cytyes. And when he came to Azotus / they shewed hym the temple of Dagon and Azotus that was bzent by / with the other thynges whych were destroyed / the deed bodies cast abrode / & the graues that they had made by the waye syde / for soch as were slayne in the felde: And tolde the kynge that Jonathan had done all these thynges / to the intent they myght gett hym euell wyll. But the kynge sayde not a worde therto. And Jonathan met the kynge wyth greates honoure at Joppa / where they saluted one another / & toke their rest. So when Jonathan had gone wyth the kynge / vnto the water that was called Eleutherus / he turned agayne to Jerusalem. Now Ptolomey had gotten the dominion of the cyties vnto Seleucia vpon the see coast / ymagynyng wickid counceils agaynst Alexander / & sent embassitours vnto Demetrius / sayng: Come / lett vs make a bonde betwixte vs / so shall I geue the my daughter that Alexander hath / and thou shalt raygne in thy fathers kyngdome. I repente that I gaue Alexander my daughter / for he goeth aboute to sle me. And thus he sleaundzed Alexander / because he wolde haue had his realme.

Thus he toke his daughter from him / gaue her vnto Demetrius / and forsoke Alexander / so that his malice was openly knowne. And Ptolomey came to Antioche / where he set two crownes vpon his awne head: the crowne of Egypte and of Asia. In the meane season was kynge Alexander in Cilicia / for they dwelt in those places / had rebelled agaynst hym. But when Alexander herde of this / he came to warre agaynst him. So kynge Ptolomey brought forth his host & met hym wyth a myghty power / and chased hym awaye. Then fled Alexander in to Araby / there to be defended / & kynge Ptolomey's honoure increased. And Zabbai the Arabian smote of Alexander's head / & sent it vnto Ptolomey. But the thyrde daye after / dyed kynge Ptolomey hym selfe: and they whom he had sett in the stronge holdes / were slayne of those that were within the cytyes. And Demetrius raygned in the hundreth and seuen and fyrtye yere.

At the same tyme gathered Jonathan them that were in Jewry to laye sege vnto the castell whych was at Jerusalem / and so they made many instrumentes of warre agaynst it. Then wente there certayne yngodly personnes (whych hated their awne people) vnto kynge Demetrius / and tolde hym / that that Jonathan beseged the castell. So whē he herde it, he was angrie / & immediately came vnto Ptolomais / & wrote vnto Jonathan / & he shulde not laye sege to þe castell / but come & speake with hym in all the haste. Neuertheles when Jonathan herde this he comāssed to besege it. He chose also certayne of the elders & prestes of Israell / & put him self in the parell / & toke with him golde / siluer / clothe / & diuerse presentes: & wente to Ptolomais vnto the kinge / & founde him gracious.

And though certayne vngodly mē of hys awne people made cōplayntes vpon him / yet the kynge intreated him / lyke as hys predecessours had done before: & promoted hym in the sight of all his frendes / confirmed him in the hys presthode with all the worshippe þe he had afore / & made him his chiefe frende. Jonathan also desyred the kynge that he wolde make Jewry fre / with the thre head cyties of Samaria & the landes pertaynyng therto: vpon this dyd Jonathan promise him thre talents. Where vnto the kynge consented / & gaue Jonathan wrytyng of the same / conteinynge these wordes. Kynge Demetrius sendeth gretynge vnto his brother Jonathan & to the people of the Jewes. We sende you here a cōpy of the lettre whych we dyd wryte vnto oure elder Lathenus / concerning you that ye shulde knowe it.

Kynge Demetrius sendeth gretynge vnto Lathenus his elder. For the fawthfulnes þe oure frendes the people of the Jewes kepe vnto vs / & for the lounge kynndesse whych they beare toward vs: we are determed to do them good. Wherfore we ordene all the coastes of Ierurpe wyth. iii. cytyes / Lyda and Ramatha (whych are added vnto Jewry fro Samaria) & all the landes pertayning therto: to be frely separated for soch as do sacrifice in Ierusalem: both concernynge the payntes whych the kynge toke yearly afore tyme / & the frutes also of the earth & trees. As for other tithes & tributes that belonged vnto vs / we discharge them therof from this tyme forth. In lyke maner we graunte vnto them all the customes of salt & crowne taxes whych were brought vnto vs. And this freedom shall they haue firme & stedfast / from this tyme forth for euermore. Therfore se þe make a cōpy of these our letters / & deliuer it vnto Jonathan: þe it maye be kepte vpon þe holy mount in a conuenient place.

After this / when Demetrius the kynge sawe that his lande was in rest / & that no resistance was made hym: he sent awaye all his host euery man to hys awne place / excepte an armie of straungers / whom he brought from the Isles of the Heathen / wherfore al his fathers host had euell wil at him.

Now was there one Crispion (that had bene of Alexanders parte afore) whych when he sawe that all the host murmured agaynst Demetrius: he wente to Emalcuel the Arabian (that brought by Antiochus the sonne of Alexander) & laye sege vpon him / to deliuer him this ydg. Antiochus: that he might raygne in his fathers steade. He tolde hym also what greute euell Demetrius had done / and how his men of warre loued him not: & so remayned there a longe season.

And Jonathan sent vnto kinge Demetrius / to dypue them out whych were in the castell at Ierusalem & in the other refuges for they dyd Israell greute harme. So Demetrius sent word vnto Jonathan / sayenge: I wil not only do these thynges for the and thy people / but at tyme conuenient I will do both the & thy people greute worshippe. But now thou shalt do me a pleasure / if thou wilt send me men to helpe me: for all myne armie is gone from me. So Jonathan sent hym. iii. M. stronge men vnto Antioche / and they came vnto the kinge / wherfore the kynge was very glad at their cōmyng. But they that were of the cite (euē an. Cxx. thousande men) gathered them together / & wolde haue slayne the kynge / whych fled in to hys court: and the citelins kepte the stretes of the cite / and beganne to fyght.

When the kynge called for the Jewes helpe / whych came vnto hym al together / & wete abrode thowow the cytye / & slewe the same daye an. C. M. men: set fyre vnto the cite / gat many spoiles in that daye / & deliuered the kinge. So when the citelins sawe that the Jewes had gotten their wil of the cytye / and they them selues dyspoynted of their purpose they made their supplicacion vnto the kinge sayenge: Graunte vs peace / and lett the Jewes cease from troubling vs and the cytye / & vpon this they cast awaye their weapons. Thus they made peace / and the Jewes gat greute worshippe in the syght of the kynge / & in the sight of all that were in hys realme / & were spoken of thowow out the kyngdome: and so they came agayne to Ierusalem with greute goodes.

So the king Demetrius sat in the trone of his kyngdome / and had peace in his lande. Neuertheles he dyssembled in all that euē he spake / & with dyde him self from Jonathan / neither rewarded him accordyng to the benefytes whych he had done for hym / but troubled him very sore. After this came Crispion agayne with yonge Antiochus / whych raygned & was crowned kynge. Then there gathered vnto him al the men of warre / whō Demetrius had put awaye: these fought agaynst Demetrius / whych fled & turned hys backe backe. So Crispion toke the Elephantes / & Iuanne Antioche. And yonge Antiochus wrote vnto Jonathan / sayenge: I confyrme the in thy presthode / & make the ruler of. iii. countrees / þe thou mayest be a frende of þe kinges. vpon this he sent him golden vessels to be serued in / & gaue him leue to drynke in golde to be clothed in purple / and to were a colar of golde / He made hys brother Symon also captayne / from the coastes of Cyprus vnto þe borders of Egypte. Then Jonathan toke hys journey / & wente thowow the cytyes beyonde the water (of Iordane) & all the men of warre of Syria gathered them vnto hym for to helpe hym. So he came vnto Ascalon / and they of the cytye receaued hym honorably: & from thence wente he vnto Gaza / but they wolde not lett him in: wherfore he layed sege vnto it burnynge bp and spoylynge the places that were aboute the cytye.

And the cytelins of Gaza submytted them selues vnto Jonathan / whych made peace wth the / but toke of their sonnes to plege / sent them to Ierusalem / and wente thowow the countre vnto Damascus. Now when Jonathan herde that Demetrius pynces were come in to Cades (whych is in Galilee) with a great host / purposing to put Demetrius out from medlynge in the realme: he came agaynst them / and leste Symon his brother in the lande: whych came to Bethsura / and layed sege to it a longe season / and discomfited the. So they desyred to haue peace with him / whych he graunted them / & afterwarde put the out fro thence / toke þe cite / & set men to kepe it. And Jonathan wth his host came to þe water of Genesar / & by tymes in ymornyng gat the to the playne felde of Azot.

And beholde / the hostes of the Heathen met the in the felde / & layed watch for the in the mountaynes: so þe when Jonathan came agaynst the / the other (whych were layed to watch) rose out of their places / & fought / & they that were of Jonathan syde / fled euery man: & there was not one of the left / excepte Machabias the sonne of Abisalomus / and Judas the sonne of Calphit the captayne of the host. When Jonathan rente his clothes / layed earth vpon his head / made hys prayer / & turned agayne to the in þe felde: where they fought together / and he put them to flyght. Now when his awne men þe were fled / saw this: they turned agayne vnto him / & helped him to folowe vpon all their enemyes vnto their tentes at Cades. So there were slayne of the Heathen the same daye. iii. M. men / & Jonathan turned agayne to Ierusalem.

Jonathan sendeth Embassadours to Rome & to the people of Sparta to renue their couenaunt of frendshipp. Jonathan put teth to flyght the pynces of Demetrius. Crispion taketh Jonathan by deceate.

The. xii. Chapter.

Jonathan seinge that þe tyme was mete for him / chose certayne men & sent them vnto Rome for to sta-blysh & to renue the frendshipp with them. He sent letters also vnto Sparta / & to other places in lyke maner. So they wente vnto Rome / & entred into the coscell / & sayde: Jonathan the hys prest & the people of the Jewes sent vs vnto you / for to renue the olde frendshipp & bonde of loue. vpon this the Romaynes gaue them fre passpotes / þe men shulde lede them home into the lande of Iuda peaceably. And this is the cōpy of the letters þe Jonathan wrote vnto þe Sparciāns: Jonathan the hys prest wth þe elders / prestes / & the other people of the Jewes / sende gretynge vnto the Sparciāns their brethzen. There were letters sente longe agoo vnto Onias the hys prest / fro Arius / whych than raygned amōge you: þe ye are oure brethzen / as the wrytyng made therupon / specifieth. And Onias entreated the embassadoure that was sent / honorably / & receaued the letters: wherē there was mencyō made of þe bonde of loue & frendshipp. But as for vs / we nede no soch wrytynges: for why / we haue þe holy bookes of scripture in oure handes to oure cōforte. Neuertheles we had rather sende vnto you / for the renuyng of the brotherhode and frendshipp: lest we shulde be straunge vnto you / for it is longe / sens the tyme þe ye sent wordes vnto vs. Wherfore in þe sacrifices & we offre & other ceremonies vpon the hys solemne dayes and other / we alwaye remembre you without ceasynge / (like as reason is / & as it becometh vs to thynke vpon our brethzen) yee and are ryght glad of youre prosperous honoure.

And though we haue had greute troubles and warres / so that the kynges aboute vs haue foughten agaynst vs: yet wolde we not be greuous vnto you ner to other of our louers and frendes in these warres. For we haue had helpe from heauen / so that we are deliuered / & oure enemyes subdued. Wherfore we chose Dumenius the sonne of Antiochus and Antipater the sonne of Jason / and sent them vnto the Romaynes / for to renue the olde bonde of frendshipp and loue wyth them. We commaunded them also to come vnto you / to salute you / and to deliuer you oure letters / concernynge the renouacyon of oure brotherhode. And now ye shall do right well / to geue vs an answer there vnto.

And this is the cōpy of the wrytyng / whych Arius the kynge of Sparta sent vnto Onias: Arius kynge of þe Sparciāns sendeth gretynge vnto Onias the hys prest. It is founde in wrytyng / that the Sparciāns and Jewes are brethren / and come out of the generacyon of Abraham. And now for so much as this is come to our knowledge / ye shall do well / to write unto us of your prosperite. As for us / we have written our mynde unto you: Our catell and goodes are yours / and yours ours. These thynges have we commaunded to be shewed unto you.

When Jonathan herde / that Demetrius pynces were come forth to fight agaynst hym / with a greater host then afore / he wēt from Jerusalem / & met them in the lande of Demath / for he gaue the not space to come into his awne countre. And he sent spyes unto their tentes / which came agayne & tolde hym / that they were appoynted to come vpon him in the nyght season. Wherfore when the sunne was gone downe / Jonathan commaunded his men to watch all the nyght / & to be ready w weapons for to fight: & let watchmen rounde aboute the host. But when the aduersaries herde that Jonathan was ready with his men to the battayll / they feared / & were afrayed in their hertes / and kindled fyres in their tentes / brake vp / and gat the awaye. Neuertheles Jonathan and his company knewe it not till the morning / for they sawe the fyres burninge.

Then Jonathan folowed vpon them / but he myght not ouertake them / for they were gone ouer the water Eleutherus. So Jonathan departed vnto the Arabias (which were called Zabadei) slew them / & toke their goodes. He proceeded further also / and came vnto Damascus / & wente thow all that countre. But Simo his brother toke his tourney and came to Ascalon & to the nexte stronge holdes: departynge vnto Joppa / and wanne it. For he herde that they wold stande of Demetrius partye: wherfore he sent men of warre in the cyte / to kepe it. After this came Jonathan home agayne / & called the elders of the people together: and deuyled with the for to buyde by the stronge holdes in Jewry / and the walles of Jerusalem / to let vp an hye wall betwixt the castell and the cite / for to separate it from the cite / that it myght be alone / and that men shulde nether be nor sell in it.

Upon this they came together for to bulde by the cite: & for much as the wall vpon the broke of the well syd (called Caphethetah) was fallen downe / they repayed it. And Symon set by Adiadah in Sephelah / & made it strong setting portes & lockes vpon it. Now when Crispion purposed to raygne in Asya / to be crowned / & to slaye the kynge Antiochus: he was afrayed that Jonathan wolde not suffice him / but fight agaynst him. Wherfore he wrote about to take Jonathan / & to kill him.

1 Mach. x. c.
Joseph. cap. x. c.
lib. vii.

So he departed / & came vnto Bethsan. Then wente Jonathan forth agaynst him to the battayll with fourtye thousande chosen men / & came vnto Bethsan also. But when Crispion sawe that Jonathan came with so greate an hoste to destroye hym / he was afrayed: and therfore he receaued him honorably comended him vnto all his frendes / & gaue hym rewardes / and commaunded his men of warre to be obedient vnto him as to hym selfe.

And sayde vnto Jonathan: why hast thou caused this people to take soch trauayle / saying there is no warre betwixt vs? Wherfore sende them home agayne / & chose certayne men to wayte vpon the / & come thou with me to Ptolomais: for I will geue it thee / with other stronge holdes / men of warre & their officers: As for me / I must departe / this is only the cause of my coming. Jonathan beleued him / and vnd as he sayde / puttinge awaye his host / which wente into the lande of Iuda. He kepte but. iij. M. by him / wherof he sent. ii. M. in to Galilee / and one. M. wente with him selfe.

Now as soone as Jonathan entred in to Ptolomais / the cytelens sparmed the gates of the cyte / and toke him / and slewe all the with the swerde: & came in with him. Then sent Crispion an host of fote men and horsemen in to Galilee and in to the great playne felde / to destroye all Jonathan's company. But when they knewe that Jonathan was taken / & all they slayne that wayted vpon him: they toke councell together / & came forth ready to the battayll. So when they which folowed vpon the / sawe that it was a matter of lyfe / they turned backe agayne. As for the other / they wente in to the lande of Iuda peaceably / and bewayled Jonathan / & them that were with hym right sore. And Israel made great lamentacyon. Then all the heathen that were rounde aboute them / sought to destroye the for they sayde: now haue they no captayne / nor eny man to helpe them. Wherfore lett vs overcome them / and rote out their name from amonge men.

After Jonathan was taken Symon is chosen captayne / of whom Crispion taking his chyldre & money for the redemption of Jonathan / sylleth hym and his chyldren. The graue of Jonathan. Crispion sylleth Antiochus / & possedeth the realme. Demetrius taketh truce with Symon. Symon winneth Gaza. He possedeth the tower of Sion. He maketh his sonne John Captayne.

The. xlii. Chapter.

Now when Symon herde that Crispion gathered a greate hoste / to come in to the lande of Iuda / and to destroye it: a lawe that the people was in greate fearfulness & care: He came vnto

by to Jerusalem / and gathered people together / and gaue them exortacyon / saying: Ye knowe what greate battayls I and my brethren & my fathers house haue stricke for the lawe & the Sanctuary / & what maner of troubles we haue sene: thow we occasyon wherof / all my brethren are slayne for Israels sake / and I am left alone. And now lett not me spare myne awne lyfe in eny maner of trouble / for I am no better then my brethren: but will auenge my people & the Sanctuary / our chyldren and our wyues: for all the heathen are gathered together / to destroye vs of very malice.

At these wordes the hertes of the people were kindled together / so that they cryed w a loude voyce / saying: Thou shalt be our captayne in steade of Iudas and Jonathan thy brethren / & thou our battell / & what soeuer thou commaundest vs / we shall do it. So he gathered all men of warre making haste to synish all the walles of Jerusalem / which he made stronge rounde aboute. Then sent he Jonathan the sonne of Absalomus with a fresh hoste vnto Joppa / which droue the out that were in the castell / and remayned there him selfe. Crispion also remoued from Ptolomais with a greate armie / to come in to the lande of Iuda / and Jonathan w hym in warde. And Symon pitched his tentes at Addus before the playne felde.

But when Crispion knewe that Symon stode vp in steade of his brother Jonathan / & that he wolde warre agaynst hym: he sent messengers vnto him / saying: Where as we haue kepte Jonathan thy brother / it is for money that he is awynge in the kynges account / concerninge the busynesse that he had in hande. Wherfore sende now an. C. talentes of syluer and hys two sonnes for surety / that when he is letten forth he shall not forsake vs: and we shall sende him agayne. Neuertheles Symon knewe / that he dyssembled in his wordes: yet commaunded he the money & chyldren to be deliuered vnto hym: lest he shuld be the greater enemye agaynst the people of Israel / & saye: because he sent him not the money and the chyldren / therfore is Jonathan dead.

So Symon sent him the chyldre and an hundred talentes / but he dissembled / & wolde not let Jonathan go. Afterwarde came Crispion in to the lande / to destroye it / and went rounde aboute by the waye / that ledeth vnto Ador. But where soeuer they wente / theyther wente Symon and his hoste also. Now they that were in the castell / sent messengers vnto Crispion / that he shulde make haste to come by the wyldernesse / and to sende the bytales: And Crispion made ready all his horsemen to come that same night. Neuerthelesse it was a very greate snowe / so that he came not in Galaadithim. And when he drew nye Batschama / he slewe Jonathan and his sonnes there / and then turned for to goo home in to his awne lande.

Then sent Symon for to set his brothers deed coarke / and buried it in Ador in his fathers cytie. So all Israel bewayled hym w greate lamentacyon / and mourned for hym very longe. And Symon made vpon the sepulchre of his father and his brethren a buydynge hye to loke vnto of fre stone behynde & before: and set by seue pylers / one agaynst another (for his father / his mother & four brethren) & set greate pylers rounde aboute / with armes vpon them for a perpetuall memory / and carued shippes betwixt the armes: that they might be sene of men saylynge in the see. This sepulchre which he made at Ador / standeth yet vnto this daye.

Now as Crispion went forth to walke w his pynge kynge Antiochus / he slew him treacherously / and raigned in his steade / crowned hym selfe kynge of Asia / and vnd much euell in the lande. Symon also buyde by the castels in Jewry / makinge them stronge with hye towres / greate walles / portes and lockes / & layed by bytales in the stronge holdes. And Symon chose certayne men / and sent them to kynge Demetrius: to desyre him / that he wolde discharge the land from all bondage / for Crispion had spoyled it very sore. Wher vpon Demetrius the kynge answered hym / and wrote vnto him after this maner.

Demetrius the kynge sendeth gretynge vnto Symon the hye prest his frende / with the elders & people of the Jewes. The golde crowne and pectious stone that ye sent vnto us / haue we receaued: and are ready to make a stedfast peace with you / & to write vnto our officers / for to release you / concerninge the thynges wherin we made you fre: & the appoyntment that we made with you / shalbe firme and stable. The stronge holdes which ye haue buyded / shal be youre awne. As for eny ouer syght or sawte commytted vnto this daye / we forgeue it / & the crowne tax that ye ought vs also. And where as was eny other tribute in Jerusalem / it shal now be no tribute: and loke who are mete amonge you to be in our court / let them be written by / that there maye be peace betwixt vs.

Thus the rocke of the heathen was taken from Israel / in the hundredth and seuentye yeare. And the people of the Jewes beganne to write in their letters & actes on this manner. In the fyfth yeare of Symon the hye prest / and pynce of the Jewes.

In those dayes went Symon vnto Gaza / and and beseged it rounde aboute / where he sett by ordinaunce of warre. And wanne a towre whych he toke. So they that gatt in to the towre leapt in the ctyte / whych was in a greate feare: In so moch that the people of the cite rente their clothes / and chymmed by byon the walles with their wyues & chyldre beseechynge Symon to be at one wyth the sayenge.

¶ Rewarde vs not after oure wickednes / but be gracious vnto vs / and we shall do & seruyce. Then Symon for very pite / wolde sight nomore agaynst them / but put the out of the ctyte / and caused the houses (wherein & Images were) to be clenched: and so entred the ctyte with psalmes of prayse / geuyng thatches vnto the Lorde. So whē he had cast all abhominacions out of the ctyte / he lett soch men in it as kepte the law of God / and made the ctyte stronge / and buyde a dwellynge place for hym selfe.

¶ Now when they in the castell at Jerusalem were kepte so streightly / that they coude not come forth ner in to & countre / & myght nether bye ner sell: they were very hungrye / and many of them sampted to death: In so moch that they besought Symon to be at one with them / whych he graunted them. So he put them out from thence / and clenched the castell from fylthynesse. And vpon the xxliij. daye of the seconde moneth in the .C. lxxi. yere they entred in to it with thankesgeuyng and bzaunches of palme trees / with harpes / crowdes / cymbals / and lutes / syngynge psalmes / and songes of prayse vnto God: for that the great enemy of Israel was ouercome.

¶ And Symon ordered that the same daye shuld be kepte euery yere in gladnesse / and made ströge the hyll of the temple that was besyde the castell / where he dwelt hym selfe with his cōpany. Symon also perceauynge that Jhon his sonne was a myghtie man of armes / made him captayne of all the hostes / and caused him to dwell at Gaza.

¶ Demetrius is ouercome of Arsaces. Symon being captayne there is greate quietnes in Israel. The couenant of frendshipp with the Romanes & with the people of Sparta is renewed.

¶ The. xliij. Chapter.

¶ In the. C. lxxi. yere gathered kynge Demetrius his host / and departed vnto Media / to gett him helpe for to fyght agaynst Tryphon. Now when Arsaces the kynge of Persia & Media herde / & Demetrius was entred within his borders: he sent one of his prynces to take hym alpye / & to byngne hym vnto hym. So he wente and slewe Demetrius hoste / toke hym selfe / & brought hym to Arsaces / which kept hym inwarde. And all the lande of Juda was in rest / so longe as Symon liued for he sought the wealth of his people / therfore were they glad to haue him for their ruler / & to do him worshippe allwaye.

¶ Symon wāne the cite of Joppa also for an haueu towne / & made it an intraunce in to the fles of & see. He enlarged the borders of his people / & conquered them moze lande:
He gathered by many of their people that were pzeisoners: he had the domynion of Gaza / Bethsura and the castell / whych he clenched from fylthynesse / and there was no man that resisted hym: So that euery man tyllid his grounde in peace / the lande of Juda and the trees gaue their frute and encrease. The elders satt all in iudgement / & toke their deuyce for the wealth of the lande: the yonge men put on worshippe and harnesse vpon the.
He prouided bytalles for the ctytes / and made goodly stronge holdes of them: so that the same of his worshippe was spoken of vnto the ende of the worlde. For he made peace thorow out the lande / and Israel was full of myght and ioye.

¶ Euery mā sat vnder his byne & fyge trees and there was no man to fraye the awaye.
There was none in & lande to fyght agaynst them / for then & kynge were ouercome. He helped those that were in aduersyte amonge his people / he was diligit to se & lawe kepte:
as for soch as were vngodly and wycked he toke the awaye. He set by the Sanctuary / & encreased the holy vessels of the temple.

¶ When the Romaynes and Sparcians had gotten worde / that Jonathas was deed / they were ryght loy. But when they herde that Symon his brother was made hye prest in his steade / and how he had wonne & lande agayne with the ctytes in it: they wrote vnto hym in tables of latyn / to renue the frendshype / & bonde of loue / which they had made afoze with Judas & Jonathas his brethzen.
Which waytynges were red befoze the congregacyon at Jerusalem.

¶ And this is the copy of the lertres / that the Sparcians sent: The Senatus and of Celsyns of Sparta sende greting vnto Symon & great prest to the elders / prestes / & other people of the Jewes their brethzen: when youre embassytours & were sent vnto oure people / certifyed vs of youre worshippe / ho-noure & prosperous wealth: we were glad of their comynge / & haue wyttē the earande which they spake befoze & coscell of & people: namely / that Numentius & sonne of An-tiochus / And Antipater & sonne of Jason the Jewes embassytours are come vnto vs / for to renue & olde frendshype with vs. vpon this & people consented / that & men shulde be honorable

honorably intreated / and that the copy of their earande shulde be wyttē in the speccall bokes of the people / for a perpetuall memozy vnto the Sparcians: yee and that we shulde sende a copy of the same vnto Symon & great preste.

¶ After this byd Symon sende Numentius vnto Rome / with a golden shyld of a thou-saund pounce weight to cosfirme the frendshype with them: which when the Romaynes vnderstode / they sayde: what thanches shall we recompence agayne vnto Symon & his chyldre: for he hath stablihed his brethzen / & ouercome the enemyes of Israel.
Wherfore they graunted him to be fre. And all this wrote the Jewes in tables of latyn / and naled it vnto the pylers vpon the mounte Sion. The copy of the waytynges is this:

¶ The. xliij. daye of the moneth Elul in &
C. lxxi. yere in the thirde yere of Symon the hye prest / in the greate congregacyon of the prestes / rulers of the people / and elders of & cositre at Asarame / were these wordes openly declared:

¶ For so moch as there was moch warre in oure land / therfore Symon & sonne of Ma-tathias (come of the chyldzen of Jareb) and his brethzen / put them selues in parell / and resysted the enemyes of their people: & their Sanctuary and lawe might be manteyned / and byd their people greate worshippe. Jona-thas in lyke maner / after that he had go-uerned his people and bene their hye prest:
dyed / and lyeth buried besyde his elders.

¶ After & wolde their enemyes haue trodde their holy thynges vnder fote / destroyed their lande / and utterly waisted their Sanctuary. Then Symon withstode them / & fought for his people / spent moch of his awne money / weapened the baleaunt men of his people / gaue the wages / made stronge & ctytes of Juda / with Bethsura that lyeth vpon & borders of Jewry (where the ordynaunce of their enemyes laye somtyme) and set Jewes there for to kepe it.

¶ He made fast Joppa also / which lyeth vpon the see / and Gaza that bozdyeth vpon Azotus (where the enemyes dwelt afoze) & there he lett Jewes to kepe it: & whatsoeuer was mete for the subduynge of the aduersaryes / that layed he therein. Now when the people sawe the noble actes of Symon / and what worshippe he purposed to do for the / his godly behauoure / and saythfulnesse whych he kept vnto them / and how he sought by all wayes the wealth of his people / because he byd all this / therfore they chose hym to be their pryncce and hye prest. And in his tyme they prospered well by hym / so that the heathen were take out of their land: & they also which were in the ctyte of Dauid at Jerusalem in the castell (where they wet out & defy-led all thynges that were aboute the Sanctuary / and byd greate harme vnto clenlynes) and Symon put me of the Jewes in it / for the defence of the lande and the ctyte / & set by the walles of Jerusalem.

¶ And kynge Demetrius confirmed him in & his hye presthode / made him his frende / and byd him greate worshippe. For he herde that the Romayns called the Jewes their frends / louers and brethzen: how honorable they re-ceaued Simons embassytours: how the Je-wes and prestes consented that he shulde be their pryncce and hye prest perpetually (tyll God rayled by the true prophet) and that he shuld be their captayne / to care for & Sanctuary / and to sett officers vpon the wayches therof / ouer the land / ouer the weapens / ouer the houses of defence / to make prouision for the holy thynges / and to be obeyed of euery man / & all the waytynges of the lande to be made in his name: that he shulde be clothed in purple and golde / & that it shulde be lau-full for none of & people nor prestes to breake eny of these thynges / to wythstande his wordes / ner to call eny congregacyon in the lande without him: & he shulde be clothed in purple / & weare a colar of gold: And yf there were eny which disobeyed / bzahe this ordi-naunce / that he shulde be punished.

¶ So all the people cosented to a lowe Simon / and to do accorpyng to these wordes.
Symon also him selfe toke it vpon hym / & was contente to be & hye prest / the captayne and pryncce of the Jewes and prestes / and to gouerne them all. And they commaunded to make this waytyng in tables of latyn / and fasten it vnto the compasse of the Sanctuary in an open place: and to laye by a copy of the same in the treasury / that Symon & his posterite might haue it.

¶ Antiochus maketh a couenaunt of frendship with Symon / and Tryphon is persecuted. The Romaynes wyte lertres vnto kynge and nacyons in the defence of the Jewes. Antiochus refusynge the helpe that Symon sent him / breaketh his couenaunt.

¶ The. xlv. Chapter.

¶ Mowuer / kynge Antiochus & sonne of Demetrius sente lertres from the fles of the see / vnto Symon the hye prest and pryncce of & Je-wes / and to all the people / conteynyng these wordes: Antiochus the kynge sendeth gre-tyng vnto Symon the hye prest and to the people of & Jewes. For so moch as certayne wycked men haue gotten the kyngdome of oure progenytours / I am purposed to chalenge the realme agayne / and to restore it to the olde estate.

Wherfoze I haue gathered a greaue host & made shippes of warre: that I maye goe thowme the countre / and be auenged of the which haue destroyed oure lande / and wasted many cities in my realme. And therfoze now I make the fre also from all the tributes / wherof all kinges my progenitours haue discharged the / and from other customes (wher from they haue released the) whatsoeuer they be: Yee I geue the leaue to smyte money of thyne a wne within thy lande. As for Jerusalem / I will that it be holy and fre: and all the wapens and houses of defence which thou hast buyded & kept in thyne handes / shall be thyne. Where as eny thyng is or shall be awynge vnto the kynge / I forgeue it the / fro this tyme forth for euermore. And when we haue optayned our kyngdom / we shall do the / the people and the temple greaue wo: shyppe: so þ þoure honoure shall be knowne thowme vnto the whole worlde.

In the Cxxxij. yere wente Antiochus in to his fathers lande / & al the me of warre came together vnto him / so that fewe were left with Crispion. So the kyng Antiochus folowed vpon him / but he fled vnto Doza / whych lyeth by the see syde: for he sawe that there was myschefe commynge vnto hym / & that his host had forsaken him. Then came Antiochus vnto Doza with an hundred and twente thousande men of armes vpon fote / & eight thousande horsmen. So he compassed the cite rounde aboute / & the shippes came by the see. Thus they beryed the cite by land and by water / in so moch that they suffred no man to go in nor out.

In the meane season came Pumentus (a they that had bene with him) from the cite of Rome / hauryng letters wrytten vnto the kynges & prouyncies / wherin were conteyned these wordes: Lucius the Mayre of Rome sendeth greetynge vnto Ptolomey the king. The embassitours of the Jewes oure frendes beyng sent from Symon the hye prest and from þ people of the Jewes / came vnto vs / for to renue the olde frendshippes / and bonde of loue / & brought a shyld of golde weyeng a thousand ponde / which we were contente to receaue of them. Wherfoze we thought it good to wryte vnto the kynges and prouyncies / to do them no harme / nor to take parte agaynst them / their cities ner countrees ner ther to mayntene their enemies agaynst the. If there be eny wycked personnes therfoze fled from their countre vnto you / deliuer the vnto Symon the hye prest / that he maye punysh them accordynge to their awne lawe.

The same wordes wote the Romaynes also vnto Demetrius the kyng / to Attalus / Traba / Arsaces & to all regions: as Sam-lanes / to the of Sparta / Delo / Rhodo / Sydon / Caria / Samos / Pamphilia / Lycia / Allicarnassum / & to the Rhodes / to Gaselis / Coo / Sida / Arado / Gortina / Gnidum / to Cypres & to Cyren. And of euery lentre they sent a cōpy to Symon the hye prest & to the people of the Jewes. So Antiochus þ kyng brought his host vnto Doza þ secōde tyme / to take it: where he made diuerse ordinaunce of warre / & kepte Crispion in / þ he shuld not come forth. Then sent Symon Antiochus two thousande chosen me to helpe hym with gold / syluer and other plenteous geer: neuerthelesse he wolde not receaue them / but brake all þ couenaunt which he made id Symon afoze / & withdrew him self fro him.

He sent Athenobius also a frende of hys vnto Symon / for to reason with him sayng: Ye withholde from me Joppa & Gaza (with the castell that is at Jerusalem) which are cities of my realme / whose borders ye haue destroyed / & done greaue euell in the land / buyng the dominacion in many other places of my kyngdome. Wherfoze deliuer now þ cities which ye haue takē with the tributes of the places þ ye haue rule vpon without þ borders of Jewry: Or els geue me fyue hundred talentes of syluer / yee & for the harme þ ye haue done in the cities & for the tributes of the same / other fyue hundred talentes. If no / we shall come & fyght agaynst you.

So Athenobius the kynges frende came to Jerusalem / & when he sawe þ greaue wo: shype & honoure of Symon in golde / syluer and so great plenty of ornaments: he marueled / and tolde Symon as the kyng commaunded him. Then answered Symon and sayd vnto him: As for vs / we haue neither taken other mens land / ner withholde the / but only oure fathers heretage / which oure enemies had vnrightheously in possession a certayne tyme. This heretage of oure fathers haue we chalenged in pōcesse of tyme. And where as thou cōplaynest concernynge Joppa and Gaza / they dyd greaue harme to oure people and in oure lande / yet will we geue an. C. talentes for them.

Neuertheles Athenobius answered hym not one worde / but turned agayne wrothful ly vnto þ kyng / & tolde him all these wordes / and the greaue dignyte of Symon with all that he had sene / and the kyng was very angrie. In the meane tyme fled Crispion by shyppe vnto Ditholsaida. When the kyng made Cendebeus captayne of the see coast / & gaue him an host of fote men & horsmen / commaunding him to remoue the host towarde Jewry / & to buyde by the cite of Cedron / to make by the portes / & to warre agaynst þ people of the Jewes. As for the kyng he went selfe / selfe / he folowed vpon Crispion. So Cendebeus came vnto Jamnia / & beganne to bere the people / to treade downe Jewry / to take the people prisoners / to slaye the & to buyd by Cedron: where he sett horsmen and other men of warre / that they myght come forth & go thowme the stretes of Jewry / lyke as the kyng had commaunded him.

Cendebeus the captayne of Antiochus hoste is put to flight of the sonnes of Symon þ tolemeys son. He of Abobus killeth Symon & his sonnes at a bacher: John killeth them that spe in wayte for his life.

The xvi. Chapter.

Then came Jhon by from Gaza / & tolde Symon his father / what Cendebeus had done amonge their people. vpon this called Symon two of his eldest sonnes / Judas & Jhon / & sayde vnto them: I and my brethren & my fathers house / haue euer from oure youth by vnto this daye / foughten agaynst the enemies of Israel / & God gaue vs good fortune to deliuer Israel oft tymes. And now for so moch as I am olde / be ye in steade of me & my brother / to go forth and fyght for oure people / & þ helpe of God be with you. So he chose. xx. M. fyghtynge men of the countre / wherof men also / which wente forth agaynst Cendebeus and rested at Modin.

In the mornynge they arose / and went in to the playne felde: and beholde / a myghty greaue host came agaynst them / both of fote men and horsmen. Now was there a water broke betwyxe them / and Jhon remoued þ host towarde them. And when he sawe that the people was afrayed to goo ouer the water broke / he wente ouer fyrst him selfe: and the men seyng this / folowed him.

Then Jhon set his horsmen & fote men in ordre / the one by the other / for their enemies horsmen were very many. But when they blew by þ prestes trompettes / Cendebeus fled wyth hys hoste / wherof many were slayne / and the remnaunt gat them to their stronge holde. Judas also Jhons brother was wounded at the same tyme. And Jhon folowed still vpon the enemies / tyll he came to Cedron which he buyded. The enemies fled also vnto the towres that were in the feldes of Azotus / and those dyd Jhon burne by. Thus there were slayne. li. M. men of them / and Jhon turned agayne peaceably in to Jewry.

And in the felde of Jericho was Ptolomey the sonne of Abobus made captayne: which because he had aboundaunce of syluer and golde / for he had maryed þ daughter of Symon þ hye prest / waxed proude in his minde / and thought to conquere the lande / ymage-ning falsly agaynst Symon & his sonnes / to destroye them. Now as Symon was goynge aboute thowme the cities / that were in the countre of Jewry / and carryng for the: he came downe to Jericho / with Datathiah and Judas his sonnes / in the Cxxxij. yere in the. xi. moneth called Sabat. Then Ptolomey the sonne of Abobus receaued the (but with dyscreete) in to a stronge house of hys called Doch / which he had buyded / where he made them a banquet.

So when Symon and hys sonnes were merry and had droncken well / Ptolomey stode by with his men (whom he had byd there) and toke their wapens / entred in to the banquet house / & slewe Symon with his two sonnes / and certayne of his seruantes. Soch greaue vnfaithfulnesse dyd Ptolomey in Israel / and recompensed euell for good. Then wrote thys Ptolomey the same vnto kyng Antiochus / requyringe him that he shulde sende hym an host to helpe him: & so shulde he deliuer him the lande / with the cities and tributes of þ same. He sent other men also vnto Gaza / for to take Jhon: and wrote vnto the captaynes to come to him / and he shuld geue them syluer / golde and rewardes. And to Jerusalem he sent other / to take it and the Sanctuary.

Then rane there one before / & tolde Jhon in Gaza / that is father & his brethren were slayne / and how that Ptolomey had sent to slaye him also. Whē Jhon herde this / he was sore abashed / and layed hādes of them that were come to destroye him / and slewe them: for he knewe / that they went aboute to kyll hym.

As for other thynges concernynge Jhons of his warres / of his noble actes (wherin he behaued him selfe manfully) of the buyding of walles whych he made / and other of hys dedes: they are wrytten in the cronicles of hys presthode / from the tyme forth that he was made hye prest after his father.

The seconde boke of the Machabees.

An Epistle of the Jewes that dwell at Jerusalem sent vnto them which dwell in Egypte/when in they exhorte them to geue thanks for the death of Antiochus. Of the fyre & was hydde in the pye. The prayer of Nehemias.

The fyrst Chapter.

The brethren of the Jewes which be at Jerusalem & in the lande of Jewry / with vnto those brethren of Jewes that are thowout Egypte: good fortune, health & peace.

God the Lord be gracious vnto you / and thynke by his couenaunt & he made with Abraham / Isaac & Jacob his saythfull seruantes: and geue you all such an hert / that ye maye loue and serue him / yee & persour me bys wyll with an whole herte and of a willng mynde: He open youre hertes in his lawe and in his commaundementes / sende you peace: heare youre prayers / be at one w you / and neuer forsake you in tyme of trouble. This is here oure prayer for you.

What tyme as Demetrius reigned / in the Cxxx. yere / we Jewes wrote vnto you in & trouble and violence that came vnto vs. In those yeres after that Jason departed oute of the holy lande and kynngdome / they bent by the portes / & shed innocent bloude. Then made we oure prayer vnto the Lord / and were hearde: we offered / & lyghted the candles / setting forth cakes and bzed. And now come ye vnto the feast of tabernacles in the moneth Casleu.

In the Cxxxviii. yere the people & was was at Jerusalem & in Jewry / the counsell and Judas him self / sent this wholsome salutation vnto Aristobolus kynge Ptolomys master / which came of the generation of the anoynted prestes: and to the Jewes & were in Egypte: In so moch as God hath deliuered vs from greete perils / we thanke hym hylie. In that we resisted so mightie a kynge. And why: he brought men out of Persis by heapes / to fyght agaynst vs & the holy cytie. For as he was in Persis (namely / the Captayne with the great host) he persued in the temple of Paneas / beyng discaured thowout the deuyc of Paneas prestes. For as he was purposed to haue dwelt there / Antiochus and his frendes came thither / to receaue moch moneye for a dowry. So when Paneas prestes had layed forth the moneye / he entred w a small company in to the copasse of the temple / and so they shut the temple.

Now when Antiochus entred by opening the priue intrasse of the temple / the prestes stoned the captayne to death / betwixt them in peeces that were wyth hym / smote of their heades / and threwe them out in all thynges. God be prayed / whych hath deliuered the wicked in to oure handes.

Where as we now are purposed to kepe & purifycation of the temple vpon the xxv. daye of the moneth Casleu / we thought necessary to certifie you therof: that ye also myght kepe the tabernacles feast daye / & the daye of the fyre / whych was geuen vs when Nehemias offered / after that he had let by the temple and the altar. For what tyme as oure fathers were led awaye vnto Persis / & prestes (whych then fought & honoure of God) toke the fyre pryuey from the altar / and hyd it in a balley / where as was a depe dyt: & therein they kepte it / because the place was vnknown to euery man. Now after many yeres when it pleased God / & Nehemias shulde be sent fro the kynge of Persia: he sent the chylders chyldren of those prestes (which had hyd & fyre) to seke it. And as they tolde vs / they founde no fyre / but thicke water. Then commaunded he the to drawe it by / & to bringe it him / and & offeringes wythall. Now when the sacrifices were layed on & ozdred / the prest Nehemias commaunded to sprynkle them & the wod w the water. When this was done / & the tyme come & the Sunne shone / which afore was hyd in & cloude: there was a greete fyre kyndled. In so moch that euery man marueled. Now all & prestes prayed / whye the sacrifice was a making. Jonathan prayed first / and the other gaue answer.

And Nehemias prayer was after this manner: O Lord God maker of all thynges / thou fearfull & stronge / thou ryghteous & mercyfull / thou that art onely a gracious kynge / onely lyberall / onely iust / Almighty & euerlastyng / thou that deliuerest Israel fro all trouble / thou that hast chosen the fathers and halowed them: receaue the offeringe for the whole people of Israel / preserve thyne awne porcyon / & halowe it. Gather those together / that are scattered abrode from vs: deliuer them that are vnder & Heathens bondage / loke vpon them whych are despyled & abhoyred / that the Heathen maye knowe and se / how that thou art oure God: Punishe the that oppresse / & proudly put vs to dishonoure. Set thy people agayne in thy holy place / like as Moles hath spok.

And the prestes longe psalmes of thankesgyng / so longe as & sacrifice endured. Now when the sacrifice was bent / Nehemias commaunded the greete stones to be sprynkled w the residue of & water which when it was done / there was kyndled a flame of them of them also: but it was consumed thowout the lyght / that shyned from the altar. So when this matter was knowne / it was tolde the kynge of Persia / that in the place where the prestes / which were led awaye / had hyd fyre / there appeared water in steade of fyre / & that Nehemias & his company had purified the sacrifices wythall. Then the kynge considered & pondered the matter diligently / made him a temple to proue the thyng that was done. And when he founde it so in dede / he gaue the prestes many gyftes & dyuerse rewardes: yee he toke them wyth his awne hand / and gaue them. And Nehemias called the same place Nephtar / which is as moch to saye as a clensyng: but many men call it Nepht.

How Jeremy hydde the tabernacle / the Arche / and the altare in the byll. Of the. v. bokes of Jason coneyned in one.

The.ii. Chapter.

It is founde also in the wrytinges of Jeremy the prophet / that he commaunded them which were caried awaye to take fyre / as it is sayde afore. He commaunded them also / that they shulde not forget the lawe and commaundementes of the Lord / and that they shulde not erre in their myndes / when they se Images of syluer and golde with their ornaments. These and such other thynges commaunded he them / & exhorted them / that they shulde not lett the lawe of God go out of theyr hertes.

It is wrytten also / how the prophet (at the commaundement of God) charged them / to take the tabernacle & the arche with them: & he wente forth vnto the mountayne / where Moles clymmed by / & sawe the heretage of God. And when Jeremy came there / he founde an open caue / wherein he layed & tabernacle / & arche & the altar of incense / & so stopped the hole. There came certayne men together also folowynghim / to marche the place / but they coude not fynde it. Which when Jeremy perceaued / he reproued them sayng: As for that place / it shalbe vnkowne / vntill & tyme & God gather his people together agayne / & receaue the vnto mercy. Then shal God shew them these thynges / & the maiesty of & Lord shal appeare / & the cloude also / like as it was shewed vnto Moles: & lyke as when Salomon despyed & the place myght be sanctified / & it was shewed him.

For he beyng a wyse man / handled honorably and wplye offeringe vnto God in the halowinge of the temple / when it was finished. And lyke as when Moles prayed vnto the Lord / the fyre came downe from heauē / and consumed the burnt offeringe: Euen so prayed Salomon also / and the fyre came &. Para. b. & do wne from heauen / and consumed & burnt offeringe. And Moles sayde: because the sin offeringe was not eaten / therfore it is consumed. In lyke maner Salomon kepte the dedycacion (or halowinge) eight dayes.

In the Annotacyōs & wrytinges of Jeremy / were these thynges put also: & how he made a lybary / & how he gathered out of all countrees the bokes of the prophetes / of Dauid / the epistles of the kynges / and of the prestes. Euen so Judas also / loke what he lerned by experyence of warre / & such thynges as hath happened vnto vs / he gathered them all together / and so we haue them by vs. If ye now desyre to haue the same / sende some body to fetch them vnto you. Where as we then are aboute to celebra the purifycation / we haue wrytten vnto you. Therfore ye shal do well / yf ye kepe the same dayes. We hope also / that the God (which deliuered his people / and gaue them all the heretage / kynngdome / presthode & Sanctuary that he promised them in the lawe) shal shortly haue mercy vpon vs / and gather vs together from vnder the heauen in to his holy place: for he hath saued vs from greete perils / and hath clenched the place.

As concernynge Judas Machabeus and his brethren / the purifycation of the greete temple / the dedicacion of the altar / yee & of the warres that cōcerne noble Antiochus & Eupator his sonne / of the thynges & cam downe from heauen vpon those / which fully defended the Jewes. For though they were but fewe / yet defended they the whole lande / drove awaye the enemyes host / recovered agayne the temple / that was spoken of thowout all the worlde / deliuered the cite / doyng their best that the lawe of the Lord which was put downe / might with all tranquillite be restored agayne vnto & Lord / & was so mercifull vnto them. As touchynge Jason also of Cyren / we haue vnder take cōpendiously to bringe in to one boke / & thyngs that were comprehended of hym in fyue. For we cōsiderynge the multitude of the bokes / and how harde it shulde be for them / & molde medle with stories and actes (& that because of so diuerse matters) haue vnder taken so to comprehend the stories: that such as are disposed to reade / myght haue pleasure and paynme therein: & that they which are diligent in such thynges / myght the better thinke vpon the: yee and that whosoener read the / might haue profit thereby.

Neuerthelesse we oure selues that haue medled with this matter for the shortenynge of it / haue taken no small labour / but great diligence / watchynge and traualle. Lyke as the

as they that make a feast / wolde sayne do other men pleasure: & so we also (for many mens sakes) are very well content to take the labour / where as we maye shortly comprehend / the thynges that other men haue truly written.

For he that buydeth an house anew / must prouide for many thynges / to the whole buydunge: but he that paynteth it afterwarde / seeketh but only what is comely / mete & convenient to garnish it withall. Euen so do we also in lyke maner. And why? He that beginneth to write a story for the fyrst / must with his vnderstandynge gather the matter together / sethys wordes in order / and diligently seke out of euery parte: But he that afterwarde wyll shorten it / blitheth few wordes / and toucheth not the matter at the largiest. Let thys be sufficient for a prologe / now will we begynne to shewe the matter: for it is but a folysh thinge to make a longe prologe / and to be shortly in the story itself.

Of the honour done vnto the temple by the kynge of the Gentyles. Symon uttereth what treasure is in the temple. Heliodorus is sent to take the awaye. He is trychen of Gods heales at the prayer of Onias.

The. iij. Chapter.

What tyme as the holy cyte was inhabited in all peace & wealth / & where the lawes were yet very well kepte. (For so was it ordered by Onias the hye prest & other godly men / that were enemyes to wickednesse) It came thereto / that euen the kinges & princes the seueres vnto the place greates worshippe / & garnished the temple with greates gifts: In so much that Seleucus kynge of Asia of his awne reues bare all the costes belongynge to the seruyce of the offrynges. Then Symon of the trybe of Beniamin / a ruler of the temple / laboured to worke some myschefe in the cite: but the hye prest resisted him.

Nevertheless when he myght not ouercome Onias / he gat him to Appolonius the sonne of Thersa (which then was chiefe lord in Celosyria and Phenices) & tolde him / that the treasury in Jerusalem was full of innumerable money / and how that the comons goodes (which belonged not vnto the offrynges) were exceeding greates also: yee & how it were possible / that all these myght come vnder the kynges power.

Now when Appolonius had shewed the kynge of the moneye / as it was tolde hym: the king called for Heliodorus his steward / & sent him with a commaundement / to bringe him the same money. Immediately Heliodorus toke hys journey / but vnder a colour / as though he wolde go thowow Celosyria & Phenices to visit the cities / but his purpose was to fulfill the kynges pleasure. So when he came to Jerusalem / & was lounyngly receaued of the hye prest into the cyte: he tolde what was determed concernynge the moneye / and shewed the cause of his comynge: he asked also / yf it were so in dede. Then the hye prest tolde him / that there was such money layed by for the byholdynge of weddowes and fatherlesse chyldren / & how that a certayne of it belonged vnto Pyrcanus Tobias a noble man: & that of all the moneye (which that wyched Symon had bewrayed) there were. iij. hundredth talentes of syluer / and. ii. hundredth of golde: yee & that it were impossible for those mens meanynge to be dysceaued: he had layed by their money in the place and temple (which is had in worshippe thowow the whole world) for the mayntenaunce and honoure of the same. Wherevnto Heliodorus answered / that the kynge had commaunded him in any wyse / to bringe hym in the moneye.

So at the daye appoynted / Heliodorus entered in to the temple to ordeyne thys matter. But there was no small feare thowowout the whole cyte. The prestes fell downe before the auter in their bestymentes / and called vnto heauen vpon hym / whych had made a lawe concernynge thys geuen to kepe / that they shulde be safely preserued / for such as commytte them vnto hepyng. Then who so had looked the hye prest in the face / it wolde haue greued his herte: for his countenance and the chaunginge of his coloure / declared the inward sorowe of hys mynde. The man was all in heynesse / and hys body in feare: wherby they that looked vpon him / myght perceaue the grete of hys herte. The other people also came out of their houses by heapes vnto the comon prayer / because the place was lyke to come in to confusyon. The women came together thowow the stretes / with heaue clothes aboute their bestes.

The virgyns also that were kepte in / rane to Onias / some to the walles / other some looked out of the wyndowes: yee they all helde by their handes toward heaue / and prayed. A miserable thinge was it / to loke vpon the comen people / & the hye prest beinge in such trouble. But they besought almyghty God / that the goodes which were commytted vnto them / myght be kepte whole / for those that had dysperced them vnto their hepyng. Nevertheless the thyng that Heliodorus was determed to do / that perfourmed he in the same place / he hym self personally beinge about the treasury with his men of warre. But the spete of almyghty God shewed him selfe openly / so that all they which presumed to obeye obeye Heliodorus / fell thowow the power of God into a greates fearfulness & drede. For there appeared vnto the anhoyle / with a terrible man sitting vpon him / deckt in goodly aray / and the hoyle smote at Heliodorus with his fore fete. Now he that sat vpon the hoyle / had harnesse of golde vpon him.

Whereouer there appeared. ii. sayre & beutyfull yong men in goodly aray / which stode by him / scourged hym of both the sydes / and gaue hym many stripes without ceasinge. With that fell Heliodorus sodenly vnto the grounde. So they toke him by (beinge compassed aboute with greates darchnesse) & bare hym out vpon a beare. Thus he that came with so many runners and men of warre in to the sayde treasury was borne out / where as no man myght helpe hym: & so the power of God was manifest and knowne. He laye still domme also by the power of God / destitute of all hope and lyfe. And they prayed the Lord / that he had shewed his power vpon his place and temple / which a lytle afore was full of feare & trouble: and that thowow the reuelacyon of the almyghty Lorde it was fylled with foie and gladnesse.

Then certayne of Heliodorus frendes prayed Onias / that in all haste he wolde call vpon God / to graunte him his lyfe / which was geuyng by the goost. So the hye prest considered the matter / and lest the kinge shuld suspecte that the Jewes had done Heliodorus some euell: he offered an healt offeryng for him. Now when the hye prest had opteyned his petition / the same yonge men in the same clothinge appeared / & stode besyde Heliodorus / sayng: Chanche Onias the hye prest / for for his sake hath the Lorde graunted the lyfe: therfore seing the God hath scourged the / geue him prayse & thanckes / & shewe euery man his myght & power. And when they had spoken these wordes they appeared nomore.

So Heliodorus offered vnto God / made greates bowes vnto him / which had graunted him his lyfe / thacked Onias / toke his hood / & wente agayne to the kynge. Then testified he vnto euery man of the greates wordes of God / & he had sene with his eyes. And when the kynge asked Heliodorus who were mete to be sent yet once agayne to Jerusalem / he sayde: yf thou hast any enemy or aduersary vnto thy realme / sende him thither / and thou shalt haue hym punished / yf he escape with his lyfe: for in that place (no doute) there is a specyall power & working of God. For he dwelleth in heaue / bysyeth & defendeth that place: and al that come to do it harme / he punisheth & plageth the. This is now the matter concernynge Heliodorus / & the hepyng of the treasury at Jerusalem.

Simon reporteth the deeth of Onias. Jason bewrayeth the office of the hye prest corrupteth the kynge with rewardes. He wyched intent of Jason.

The. iij. Chapter.

His Simon now (of whome we spake afore) beinge a bewrayce of the mo. A. A. ney & of his awne naturall contrerie / reported the worst of Onias: as though he had moued Heliodorus vnto this / & as though he had bene a bytger by of euell. Thus was he not ashamed to call hym an enemye of the realme / that was so faythfull an ouerseer & defender of the elte & of his people: yee & soferuent in the lawe of God. But when the malice of Symon increased so farre / that thowow his frendes there were certayne mandlaughters committed: Onias considered the perill that might come thowow this stryfe / & how that Appolonius (namely the chiefe lord in Celosyria and Phenices) was all set vpon tyranny / and Symons malice increased the same: he gat hym to the kinge / not as an accuser of the cytelins / but as one that by him self intended the comon wealth of the whole multitude. For he sawe it was not possible to lyue in peace / nether Symon to leaue of fro his folyshnesse / except the kynge dyd loke thereto. But after the deeth of Seleucus / when Antiochus (which is called the noble) toke the kingdom: Jason the brother of Onias laboured to be hye prest: for he came vnto the kynge / and promised hym thre hundredth &. lx. talentes of syluer / & of the other rentes. lxxx. talentes. Besides this he prompted hym yet an. C. &. l. yf he myght haue the scole of the chyldren / & that he myght call them of Jerusalem Antiochians. Which when the kynge had graunted / & he had gott the superioryte / he began immediately to drawe his kynsmen to the custome of the Heathen / put downe the thynges that the Jewes had set by of loue / by John the father of Eupolemus / whych was sent embassytoure vnto Rome / for to make the bonde of frendshyppe and loue. He put downe all the Jewes & liberties of the Jewes / and set by the wyched statutes. He durst make a fyghtynge scole vnder the castell / and set sayre yonge men to lerne the maners of whores and byobels.

This was now the begynnynge of the Heathenish & straunge conuersacyon / brought in thowow the vnglacpous & vnherte wychednesse of Jason / which shulde not be called a prest / but an vngodly personne. In so much that the prestes were now nomore occupyd about the seruyce of the auter / but dyspyled the temple / regarded not the offrynges: yee gaue their dyspygence to lerne to fyght / to wastle / to leape / to daunce / & to put at the ston: not lettynge by the honour of the lawe. Rrr. ij. thers / thers/but liked the glory of the Grekes best of all: for the which they stroue perloudly / & were greedy to folowe their statutes / per their lust was in all thinges to be lyke the / which afore were their enemyes & destroyers. Now he it to do wickedly agaynst the law of God / shall not escape unpunished: but of this we shall speake here after.

¶ What tyme as the Olympiades sportes were played at Cyzus (the kynge him selfe beinge presente) this bngtracypous Jason sent wicked men / bearyng from them of Jerusalem (whych now were called Antiochyans) iij. C. drachmas of syluer for an offerynge to Hercules. These had they that caried them / despyred vnder such a fashion / as though they shulde not haue bene offered / but bestowed to other bles. Neuertheles he that sent them / sent them to the intent that they shulde be offered vnto Hercules. But because of those that were present / they were geuen asto the makinge of hyppes. And Appolonius the sonne of Nesteus was sent in to Egypte / because of the noble men of kynge Ptolomy Philometoz. Now when Antiochus perceaued he was put out from medlynge in the realme / he sought his awne pzoof / departed from thence / came to Joppa / & then to Jerusalem: where he was honozably receaued of Jason & the cite / & was bzought in id to the lyght and with greete prayse: and so he turned his hooft vnto Phenices.

¶ After iij. yere Jason sent Menelaus / the foresayde Symons brother / to beare the money vnto the kynge / & to bzinge him and were of other necessary matters. But he (when he was prayled of the kynge for magnifyng of his power) turned the presthode vnto him self / laynge bp. iij. C. talentes of syluer for Jason. So whē he had gotten commaundementes fro the kynge / he came hauinge nothinge but becometh a prest / but bearyng the stomach of a cruell tyraunt / & the wrath of a wyld brute best. When Jason (which had dysceaued his awne brother) seinge that he him selfe was begyled also / was fayne to fle into the lande of the Ammonites / & Menelaus gat the domynyon. But as for the money he had promysed vnto the kynge / he dyd nothinge therein / when Sosstratus the ruler of the castell requyred it of him. For Sosstratus was a man that gathered the customes: wherfore they were both called before the king. Thus was Menelaus put out of the presthode / & Lysimachus his brother came in his steade. Sosstratus also was made lord of the Cyzius. It happened in the meane season / that the Chaldeans & Mallochas made insurreccio / because they were geuen for a present vnto kynge Antiochus concubynne. Then came the kinge in all the haste / to styll them agayne / & to pacifye the matter / leauing Andronicus there to be his debyte / as one mete therfore. Now Menelaus supposyng he had gotten a ryght comientent tyme / stole certayne vessels of golde out of the temple / & gaue them to Andronicus for a present: & some he solde at Cyzus and in the cytyes therby.

Which when Onias knewe of a suertye / he reproued him: but he kepte him in a Sanctuary beynde Daphnis / that lyeth by Antioche. Wherfore Menelaus gat hym to Andronicus / & prayed hym that he wolde slaye Onias. So whē he came to Onias / he couceled him craftely to come out of the Sanctuary / geuyng hym his hande with an othe (howe be it he suspecte him) and then he slew Onias / without any regarde of rightuousnesse. For the which cause not only the Jewes / but other nacionys also toke indignacion / & were displeased for the vnrightuous death of so godly a man.

And when the kynge was come agayne from Cilicia / the Jewes and certayne of the Grekes wente vnto him / complaynyng for the vnrightuous death of Onias. Yea Antiochus hit self was soz in his mynde for Onias / so that it pitted him / & he wepte / remembreinge his sovernesse & manerly behauoure. Wherfore he was so kyndled in his mynde / he commaunded Andronicus to be strypped out of his purple clothinge / & so to be led thozow out all the cite: yee & the bngtracypous man to be slayne in the same place / where he compted hys wickednes vpon Onias. Thus the Lord rewarded him his punishment / as he had deserued. Now when Lysimachus had done many wicked dedes in the temple thozow the couceill of Menelaus / & the voyce came abrode: the multitude gathered them together agaynst Lysimachus / for he had caried out now moche golde.

So when the people arose / and were full of dyspleasure / Lysimachus armed. iij. M. vntyrstes to defende him: a certayne tyraute beinge their captayne / which was growen both in age & woddnesse. But whē the people vnderstode the purpose of Lysimachus / some gat stones / some good ströge clubbes / & some cast athes vpon Lysimachus. Thus there were many of the wounded / some being slayne / & all the other chased awaye. But as for the wicked chutchrobber hym self / they killed hym beynde the treasury. Of these matters therfore there was kepte a courte agaynst Menelaus. Now when the kynge came to Cyzus / they made a complaynte vnto him of Menelaus / concernyng this busynesse / and the embaytours were thre. But Menelaus wēt a promysed Ptolomy to geue him him much money / yf he wolde perswade the king. So Ptolomy wēt to the kynge in to a courte / (where as he was sett to coole him) & bzoght him out of that mynde. In so moche that he discharged Menelaus from the accusacions / that not withstandinge was cause of all myschefe: and those pooze men / whych yf they had tolde they cause / yee before the Scythians / they shulde haue bene iudged innocent / them he condemned to death.

Thus were they soone punished / whych folowed vpon the matter for the cytye / for the people / and for the holy vessel. Wherfore they of Cyzus toke indignacion / and buytyed them honozably. And so thozow the couetousnesse of them that were in power / Menelaus remayned styll in authozyte / increasynge in malyce / to the hurte of the cytyens.

¶ Of the sygnes and tokens sene in Jerusalem. Of the ende and offence of Jason. The pursute of Antiochus agaynst the Jewes. The spoylinge of the temple.

The v. Chapter.

¶ At the same tyme Antiochus made hym ready to go agayne in to Egypte. Then were there sene at Jerusalem / xl. days longe / hoysmen runnyng to and fro in the ayre / whych had rayment of golde / and speares. There were sene also whole hooftes of men weapened / & hoyses runnyng in an ordze / how they came together / how they helde forth theyr shieldes / how the harnessed men drew out their sweardes / and thott their dardes.

The sygne of the golden weapens was sene / and of all maner of armure. Wherfore euery man prayed / that those tokens myght turne to good. Now when there was gone forth a false rumour / as though Antiochus had bene deed: Jason toke a. M. men / and came suddenly vpon the cytye. The cytyens ranne vnto the walles / at the last was the cytye taken / & Menelaus fled in to the castell.

As for Jason / he spared not his awne cytyens in the slaughter / nether considered he what greete euell it were / to destroye the pzoofite of hys awne kynsmen: but dyd as one that had gotten the byctory of hys enemyes / and not of hys frendes. For all this gatt he not the superioryte / but at the last receaued confucion for hys malyce / and fled agayne lyke a bagabunde in to the lande of the Ammonytes.

Finally / for a reward of his wickednesse / he was accused before Bretha the kynge of the Arabians: In so moche that he was fayne to fle from cytye to cytye / beyng despyled of euery man as a forsaker of the lawes / and an abhominable personne. And at the last

Thus he that afoze put many out of theiſ awne natyue land / perished from home him self. He wēt to Lacedemō / thynkinge there to haue gotten succoure by reason of kynred. And he that afoze had casten many one out vnburyed / was thozowen out hym self / no man mournynge for hym / ner puttynge him in his graue: so that he nether enjoyed buriall of a straunger / nether was he partaker of his fathers sepulchre.

Now when this was donie the kynge suspected / that the Jewes wolde haue fallē from hym: wherfore he came in a greete dyspleasure out of Egypte / and toke the cytye by violence. He commaunded hys me of warre also / that they shulde kyl & not spare / but slaye downe such as withstode them / or clymmed bp vpon the houses.

Thus was there a greete slaughter of yonge men / olde men / women / chyldzen and virgines. In. liij. dayes were there slayne lxxx. M. fourty thousande put in pzoof / and no lesse solde. Yet was he not content with this / but durst go in to the most holy temple (Menelaus that traytoute to the lawes and to his awne naturall countre / beyng his gyde) and with his wicked handes toke the holy vessel / which other kynges & cyties had geuen theyr for the garmynginge & honour of the place: them toke he in hys handes vnbowthely / & despyled them.

So made was Antiochus / that he considered not / how that God was a lytle wroth for the synnes of them that dwell in the cite / for the which soch confucion came vpon that place. And why? yf it had not happened them to haue bene lapped in many synnes / this Antiochus (as soone as he had come) had so denyly bene punished / and thott out for hys presumpcyon / lyke as Helyodorus was / who Seleucus the kynge sente to robbe the treasury. Neuertheles God hath not chosen the people for the places sake / but the place for the peoples sake: and therfore is the place become partaker of the peoples trouble / but afterwarde shall it enioye the wealth of them. And lyke as it is now forsaken in the wrath of Almyghty God / so when the greete God is reconcyled / it shall be set bp in hye wozshyppe agayne.

So when Antiochus had taken a. M. and. viij. C. talentes out of the temple / he gat him to Antioche in all the haste / thynking in his pryde / that he myght make men sale vpon the byre land / and to go vpon the see / soch an hye mynde had he. He lefte debytes there to hys people: At Jerusalem left he Philyppe a then he commaunded his men to take the to their

The Jewes are compelled to leaue the law of God.
The temple is despoiled. The readers are monyfyed that they shal not abhorre the aduersitie wherwith the Lord afflicted the. The greuous payne of Eleazarus.

Chapter.

At longe after this / sent the king a messenger of Antioche / to the cite of Jewes to alre the ordinaunces of the fathers & the law of God / to despoile the temple that was at Jerusalem / & to call it the temple of Jupiter Olympius: & the temple shuld be in Sa-zarim / as those which dwell at the place of Jupiter & herberous. Thys wycked sedicio of the kingdome was heuy vpon all the people: for the temple was full of voluptuousnes / bibbinge & boling of the deathe / of ribauds & harlots together. The wemen went into the holy place / & bare in that was not laudfull. The altar also was full of vnlaful thinge / which the lawe forbode to laye vpon it. The Sabbathes were not kept / & other colpeable feastes of the lawe were not regarded. To be playne / there durst nomā be a knowe that he was a Jewe. In the daye of the kinge by the they were compelled parforce to offre: & wher the feast of Bachus was kepte / they were constrained to weare garlandes of pype / so to go aboute for the honoure of Bachus.
Morouer thorow the counsell of Ptolomey / there went out a commaundment in the nexte cities of the deathe / that they shuld intreate the Jew-es in like maner: namely / to compel the to do sacrifice after the lawes of the Gentiles: & who so wolde not / to put them to death. A py-teous thyng was it to se. There were. iiij. we-men accused to haue circocided their sonne / wher when they had led roide aboute the cite (the babes hanging at their beltes) they cast the downe headlyngs ouer the walles. Some were crepte in to denne / & had kepte the Sabbath / were accused vnto Philippe / & bent in the fyre: because the for the feare of God they kepte the commaundment to stiffe / & wolde not defende the selus. Now I beseeche all those which reade this booke / that they refuse it not for these fall of aduersite: & iudge the thinges that are happened / for no destruccyō / but for a chastenyng of oure people. And why? Wher God suffreth not sinners longe to folow thei awne mynde / but shortly punisheth the / it is a token of his greate louyng kyndnes. For this grace haue we of God moze then other people / that he suffereth not vs longe to synne vnpunished lyke other nacjons / that when the daye of iudgment cometh / he maye punish the in the fulnes of their synnes. If we synne / he correcteth vs / but he neuer withdroweth his mercy fro vs:

a though he punish the aduersite / yet doth he neuer forsake his people. But lett this the we haue spokē now in few wordes / be for a warning & exhortacio of the deathe. Now will we come to the declaryng of the matter. Eleazar one of the principall Scribes / an aged mā & of a well sauoyed costenance / was constrained to gape the mouth to eate swynes flesh. But he despying rather to dye gloriously then to lyue in shame / offered him self willingly to the martyrdome. Now wher he sawe the he must ned go to it / he toke it patiently: for he was at a poynte to hit self / that he wolde consente to no vnlaful thing for eny pleasure of life. They stode by being moued to pite (but not a right) for the olde frendshipe of the mā / toke him as depietely / & prayed him that he wolde let such flesh be brought him as were laudfull to eate / & the
to make a costenance as though he had eate the flesh of the sacrifice like as the king commaunded / for so he might be deliuered from death: & so for the olde frendshipe of the mā / they shewed him this kyndnes. But he began to cōfesse his discret & honozable age / his noble & worthy stroke / & how the fro his youth by he had bene of an honest & good coueracyō: yea & how constantly he had kepte the ordinaces & lawes commaunded by God / wherfore he gaue the this answer / & sayde: Yet had I rather first be laied in my graue. For it becommeth not myne age (sayde he) in eny wyse to dissimble / wherby many yōg personnes might thinke / that Eleazar being lxx. yere olde & x.
were now gone to a strange life: & so thorow myne ypocrysy (for a lytle tyme of a trasitory life) they might be disceayned by this meanes also shuld they despoile myne age / & make it abhominable. For though I were now deliuered fro the tomyng of men / yet shuld I not escape the hand of almighty God / nether anye ner deed.
Wherfore I will dye manfully / & do as it becommeth mine age: wherby I may peradventure leauē an exaple of stedfastnes for such as be yōge / yet in a ready mynde & manfully dye an honest death / for the most worthy & holy lawe.

Of the Machabees. lxxvj.

When he had sayde these wordes / immediately he was drawen to the tomynte. Now they that led hym & were myde a litle afoze / beganne to take dyspleasure because of the wordes that he sayde: for they thought he had spoken them of an hye mynde. But when he was in his martyrdome / he mourned and sayde: Thou (O Lord) which hast the holy knowlege / knowest openly: that where as I might be deliuered from death / I suffre these soze paynes of my body: but in my mynde I am well content to suffre them / because I feare the. Thus thys man dyed / leauyng the memorial of his death for an exaple / not only vnto yonge men / but vnto all the people / to be stedfast and manly.

The punishmet of the brethren of their mother.
The. viij. Chapter.

It happened also that there were viij. brethren (with their mother) taken & compelled by the kinge agaynst the lawe to eate swynes flesh: namely with scourges & lychen whippes. And one of them which was the chiefe / sayde: What sekest thou / & what requyrest thou of vs? As for vs / we are ready rather to suffre death / then to offende the lawes of God and the fathers. Then was the kinge angrie / and had beate cauldrons and brasen pottes. Whych when they were made hote / immediatly he commaunded the tonge of hym that spake first to be cut out / to pul the skynne ouer his hea-de / to pare of the edges of his handes & fete:
yea and that in the syght of his mother and the other of his brethren. Now when he was cleane marred / he commaunded a fyre to be made / and so (whyle there was eny breath in him) to be tryed in the cauldron. In the which when he had bene longe payned / the other brethren with the mother exorted hym to dye manfully / sayenge: The Lord God shall regarde the treuth / and comforte vs / lyke as Moses testifieth and declareth in his songe / sayenge: and he will haue compasyō on his seruautes.

So when the fyre was deed after this maner / they brought the seconde to haue him in beryng / pulled the skynne with the heare ouer his heade / & asked him / yf he wolde eate swynes flesh / or he were payned in the other membres also thorow out his body. But he answered boldly / and sayde: I will not do it.
And so was he tomynted lyke as the first / & when he was euen at the geuyng by the goost he sayde: Thou most bngacious personne puttest vs now to death / but the kyng of the worldes shall rayle vs vp (whych dye for his lawes) in the resurrection of euerylastyng life.
After hym / was the thyrde had in beryng: and when he was requyred / he putt out his tonge / and that ryght soone / holdyng forth his handes manfully / and spake with a stedfast faith: These haue I of heauen / but now for the lawe of God I despyse them / for my trust is / that I shall receaue them of him agayne. In so moch that the kyng and they which were with hym / marueled at the yonge mans boldnesse / that he nothyng regarded the paynes.

Now when he was deed also / they bered the fourth with tomyntes in lyke maner. And when he was now at his death / he sayde: It is better that we be yonge put to death of man haue oure hope and trust in God / for he shall rayle vs vp agayne. As for the / thou shalt haue no resurrection to lyfe.

And when they had spoken to the fyfth / they tomynted him. When toke he vnto the kinge / & sayde: thou hast power amonge me / for thou art a mortall man also thyself / to do what thou wilt / but thinke not / that God hath forsaken oure generacyō. Wher the / tary still a whyle / and thou shalt se the great power of God / how he will punish the & the sede. After hym they brought the syxte / whych beinge at the poynte of death / sayde: We not disceayned (O king) for this we suffre for oure owne sakes / because we haue offended oure God / & therfore maruelous thynges are shewed vpon vs. But thinke not thou / whych takest in hande to stryue agaynst God / that thou shalt escape vnpunished.

This excellent mother (worthy to be well reported of / and had in remembrance) saue her seven sonnes dye in one daye / and suffred it patiently / because of the hope that she had in God: yea she exorted euery one of them in esperaill / and that boldly and stedfastly to partye wyldome / wakyng by her wyppyn thought with a manly stomache / and sayde vnto them: I can not tell how ye came in my wombe / for I nether gaue you brethren soule / nor lyfe. It is not I that toynded the members of your bodies together / but the maker of the world / which fashioned the byrth of man / & beganne all thynges. Euen he also of his awne mercy shal geue you breath and life agayne like as ye now regarde not oure awne selus for his lawes sake.

Now thought Antiochus that he had despoiled him / therfore he left her go with her repyours / and beganne to exorte the yongest sonne (which yet was left) not to do the wordes but to goe vnto him in an ooth / that he shuld make hym a rich & welthy man (yfe he wolde forsake the lawes of his fathers) yea and that he shuld geue him / what so euer were necessary for him. But when the yōge mā wolde not be moued / for all these thynges / he called his mother / and coscelled her to saue her sonnes Rah. iij. lyfe.

lyte. And whē he had exhorted her wth many wordes, he promysed him that she shoulde speake vnto her sonne. So she turned her vnto hym (laughynge the cruell cypaunte to scorn) and spake with a bolde voyce: O my sonne, haue pite on me, that baye & x. monethes in my wombe, that gaue the sucke, nozished the & brought the vp vnto this age.

O beseeche the (my sonne) loke vpon heauē and earth and all that is therein / and confesse, that God made them and mans generacyon of nought: so shalt thou not feare thys hangman / but suffre death stedfastly / lyke as thy brythren haue done: that I maye receaue the agayne in the same mercy wth thy brythren.

Whyle she was yet speakynge these wordes, the yonge mā sayde: Whom loke ye for? Wherfore do ye tary? I will not obeye the kyniges commaundement, but the lawe that God gaue vs by Moyses. As for the that ymagyneth all my chere agaynst the Jewes / thou shalt not escape the hande of God, for we suffre these thinges, because of our synne.

And though God be angry wth vs a lytle whyle (for our chastenynge and refozmaycyon) yet shall he beate one agayne wth hys seruantes. But thou, O shamefull and most abhominable personne, whydest not thy self thow wanne hope / in beyng so malicious vpon the seruantes of God: for thou hast not yet escaped the iudgment of the God whych is almyghty / and seyth all thynges. Whych brythren that haue suffred a lytle payne are now vnder the couenaunt of euerlastynge lyfe: but thow the iudgment of God! thou shalt be punished ryghteously for thy pryde.

As for me (like as my brythren haue done) I offre my soule and my body for the lawes of our fathers / callynge vpon God, that he will soone be merciful vnto our people: yee and wth payne and punishment to make the graunte, that he only is God. I meane now and in my brythren the wrath of almyghty God is at an ende / whych ryghteously is fallen vpon all our people.

When the kynge beyng kyndled in anger was moze cruell vpon hym, then vpon all the other / and toke indignacion, that he was so lyghtly regarded. So thys yonge man dyed vndeuyled / & put hys trust styll in the Lorde. Last of all after the sonnes / was the mother put to death also. Lett thys now be ynough spoken, concernynge the offrynges / and extreme cruellnesse.

Judas gathereth together hys hoost. Nicanor is sent agaynst Judas. Judas exhorteth his souldiers to constancy. Nicanor is overcome. The Jewes geue thanks after they haue put their enemies to flight / bytynge the spoiles vnto the fatherles and vnto the wyddowes. Nicanor dyeth vnto Antiochus.

The. lviij. Chapter.

Then Judas Machabeus and they that were with hym / wente pryvely in to the townes / called theyr kynskynnes and frendes together / toke vnto them all such as contynued yet in the fayth and lawe of the Jewes / & brought forth vij. M. men.

So they called vpon the Lorde / that he wolde haue an eye vnto hys people / whych was trodden downe of euery man: to be gracious vnto the temple / that was despyled of the vngodly: to haue compassion vpon the destruction of the cytye / whych was shortly lyke to be layed waste / to heare the voyce of the bloude that cryed vnto hym: to remembre the most vnrightheous deathe of yonge innocent thylzen / the blasphemys also done vnto hys name / and to punyssh them.

Now when Machabeus had gathered thys multitude together / he was to myghty for he beate them (for the wrath of the Lorde was turned in to mercy) he fell vpon the townes and cytyes vnto warres / bent them toke the most commodious places / and slewe many of the enemyes. But specially he made such chases by nyght / in so moche that hys manynesse was spoken of euerywhere.

So when Philippe sawe that the man increased by litle and litle / and that the matter prospered wth hym for the most parte: he wrote vnto Ptolomey (whych was a captayne in Celosyria & Phenycy) to helpe him in the kyniges busynes. When sent he Decanor Patrocle (a specyall frende of hys) in all the haste / and gaue hym of the comen forste of the Heathen no lesse then xx. M. harnessed men / to rote out the whole generacyon of the Jewes / haunynge to helpe hym one Gorgias a man of warre / whych in matters concernynge battayls had great experience. Nicanor ordened also a trybute (whych the Romaynes shoulde haue had) to be geuen vnto the kynge / out of the captiuite of the Jewes / namely ij. M. talentes. And immediately he sent to the cyties of the see coast / requyringe them for to bye Jewes to be their seruantes & bonde men / promysynge to sell the lxxx. and ten for one talente: but he considered not the wrath of almyghty God / & was to come vpon hym.

When Judas knewe of thys / he tolde the Jewes that were wth hym of Nicanors comynge. Now were there some of them fearfull / not trustynge vnto the ryghtuousnes of God and fled their waye.

But the other that remayned / came together and besought the Lorde / to deliuer them from that wycked Nicanor / whych had solde had solde them or euer he came nye them: & though he wolde not do it for their sakes / yet for the couenaunt that he made wth theyr fathers / & because they called vpon hys holy & glorious name. And so Machabeus called his men together / namely aboute vij. M. exhortynge them not to agree vnto their enemies nether to be afraied for a multitude of their aduersaries comynge agaynst them vnrightheously: but to fight manly / consideringe the reproche that they had done to the holy place without cause / how they had despyled and oppressed the cytye / yee & destroyed the lawes of the fathers. For they (sayde he) trust in their weapons and boldnesse / but oure confidence is in the almyghty Lorde / whych in the twyncklynge of an eye maye both destroye them that come agaynst vs / and all the world.

He exhorted them also to call to remembrance the helpe / that God shewed vnto their fathers: as when there perished an C. & lxxx. M. of Sennacheribs people: And of a battail they had in Babilon agaynst a Gallacyans: how & all the Macedonys & came to helpe the / fode in feare: & how they being but only vij. M. slewe an C. & xx. M. thow the helpe that was geuen them from heauen / wherby they also had receaued many benefites.

Thow thes wordes the men toke good hertes vnto them / ready to dye for the lawe & the costre. So he sett vpon euery company a captaine / one of his awne brythren: Simo / Joseph & Jonathan: geuyng eche one xv. C. men. He caused also to reade the holy booke vnto them / and to geue them a token of the helpe of God.

Then he himself beinge captayne in a fore front of the battayll / buckled wth Nicanor. And God was their helpe / in so moche that they slewe aboute ix. M. men & compelled a moze parte of Nicanors hoost to fle / they were so wounded & feable. Thus they toke the money from those that came to bye them / & folowed vpon them on euery syde. But whē the tyme came vpon them / they returned / for it was the Sabbath / and therfore they folowed nomoze vpon them. So they toke their weapons & spoiles & kepte the Sabbath / geuyng thanks vnto the Lorde / whych had deliuered them that daye / and shewed them his mercy. After the Sabbath they distributed the spoiles to the stiche / to the fatherlesse and to wyddowes / and the residue had they them selues wth theyrs. When this was done / and they all had made a generall prayer: they besought the mercifull Lorde to be at one with his seruantes.

Of those also that were with Timotheus and Bachides / whych fought agaynst them / they slewe xx. M. wanne hys and stronge holdes / and deuided moo spoiles: euer geuyng an equal porcion vnto the stiche / to the fatherlesse to wyddowes & to aged persons. And when they had diligently gathered their weapons together / they layed them all in conueniente places / & the remnaunt of the spoiles brought they to Jerusalem. They slewe Phylarches that wicked personne / whych was wth Timotheus / and had bereed many Jewes. And when they helde the thakelgeuynge at Jerusalem for the victorie / they bent those that had sett fyre on the portes of the temple: namely Calisthenes / whych was fled in to an house: and so they gatt a worthy rewarde for theyr wyckednesse. As for that most vngodly Nicanor / whych had brought a thousande marchantes / to bye the Jewes / he was thow the helpe of the Lorde brought downe euen of them whom he regarded not: in so moche & he put of hys glorious rayment / fled by see / and came alone to Antioche / wth greateshame and dishonour / whych he gatt thow the destruction of hys hoost. Thus he & promysed the Romaynes to paye them their tribute / when he toke Jerusalem: began now to saye plainly / that God was the defender of the Jewes / & therfore not possible to wound them / because they folowed the lawes whych God had made.

Antiochus willing to spoyle Jerusalem is dyuent to flight. As he persecuteth the Jewes / he is stryckē of the Lorde. The sayned repentance of Antiochus. He dyeth.

The. lx. Chapter.

The same tyme came Antiochus agayne to dyshonoure out of Jerusalem. For when he came to Jerusalem / and vnder toke to robbe the temple and to subdue the cite / the people ranne together and defended the selues / in so moche that he and his were fayne to fle wth shame. And so after that flight / it happened / that Antiochus came agayne wth dyshonoure. But when he came to Egbatana / he gatt knowlege what was happened vnto Nicanor & Timotheus. Now as he was auuncynge hymself in hys wrath / he thought he was able to abenge the iniury that was done to them / vpon the Jewes: and therfore commaunded to make ready hys charret / hys tynge on hys iourney wthout ceasynge / the iudgement of God prouokinge him / because he had spoken so proudly / that he wolde come to Jerusalem / and make it a graue of the Jewes. But the Lorde God of Israel / that seyth all thynges / smote hym wth an inuysible plage / whych no man coulde heale.

For as soone as he had spoken these wordes there came vpon hym an horrible payne of hys bowles / and a soze grese of the charmes. And that was but right: for he had martyred other mens bowels with dyuerse and straunge tormentes / how be it he wolde in no wise ceasse from his malice. Yee he was yet the prouder and more malicious against the Jewes: But while he was commaunding to make haste in the matter / it happened that he felldowne violently from the charret / so that it brysed hys body / and by hym greate payne.

And so he that thought he myght commaunde the floudes of the see (so proude was he beyonde the condycion of man) and to weye the hye mountaynes in a paye of scales / was now brought downe to the grounde / & caried vpon an horlytter / knowlegynge the manifeste power of God vpon hym: so that the wicked body of hys was ful of wormes / whych in hys payne fell quyk out of hys flesh: In so moch that hys hooft was greued with the smell and syncke of hym. Thus he that a lytle afore thought he myght reach to the starres of heauen / hym myght no man now abyde ner beare / for the vehemence of syncke.

Wherefore he beyng brought from hys greate pynde / beganne for to come to knowlege of hym self: for the punishment of God warned hym / and hys payne increased euer more and more. And when he hym self might not abyde hys awne syncke / he sayde these wordes: It is reason to be obedient vnto God and that a man desyre not to be lyke vnto hym. Whys wycked personne prayed also vnto the Lorde / of whom he shulde haue obtained no mercy. And as for the cytie that he came vnto so hastily / to bynge it downe to the grounde / and to make it a graue for deed men: now he desyret to deliuer it fre.

And as touching the Jewes / whom he had iudged not worthy to be buried / but wolde haue cast the out for to be deuoured of foules & wilde bestes / sayenge / that he wolde haue destroyed both olde and yonge: Now he promyseth / to make them lyke the cytelyns of Athens. And where as he had spoyled the holy temple afore / now he maketh promyse to garnish it with greate giftes / to increase the holy ornamentes / and of hys awne rentes to beare the costes / and charges belonging to the offeringes: yee and that he wolde also become a Jewe hym self / to go thow euer place of the worlde / and to preach the power of God.

But when hys paynes wolde not ceasse / (for the ryghteous iudgment of God was come vpon hym) out of a very despayre he wrote vnto the Jewes a lettre of intercession / containinge these wordes: The kynge and prince Antiochus wytheth vnto the vertuous ciuelyns of the Jewes / moch health and good prosperite.

I fe and youre children fare well / and of all thinges go after youre mynde: we geue greate thanks. In my sicknesse also do I remembre you louyngly: for as I came out of Persya / and was taken with soze dysseale: I thought it necessary to care for your wealth. Nether despayre I in my self / but haue a good hope to escape this sickness.

But consyderynge that my father led an hooft sometyne in the hyer places / and shewed who shulde raygne after hym / that (if there happened any cotrouerisy / or any hard thyng were declared) they in the lande might knowe their cheste lorde / that there shulde be no insurreccion: Agayne / when I ponde by my self / how that all the myghty men and neighbours rounde aboute / are layenge waste / and loke but for oportynite to do harme: I haue ordered that my sonne Antiochus shall raygne after me / whom I oft commended to many of you / when I was in the hyer kyngdomes / and haue wytten vnto hym as it foloweth herafter. Wherefore I praye you & requyre you / to remembre the benedyctes that I haue done vnto you generally and in especyall. For I hope that he shal be of sober & louyng behaoure / & yf he folowe my dysceypte / he shal be indyfferent vnto you.

Thus that murthurer and blasphemare of God was soze smytten: & lyke as he had intreated other men / so he dyed a myserable death in a straunge countre vpon a mountayne. And his body dyd Philyppe (that went with hym) carry awaye: whych fearynge the sonne of Antiochus / wente in to Egypte to Ptolomy Philometor.

Judas Machabeus taketh the cytie & the temple. He beginneth to shewe the actes of Eupator. The Jewes feght agaynst the Idumeans: Timotheus inuadeth Jerusaleme / with whom Judas fought battell. A. men apere in the ayre to the helpe of the Jewes. Timotheus is slayne.

The x. Chapter.

Machabeus now and hys company (thow the helpe of the Lorde) i. Mach. 11. 2. swanne the temple and the cytie agayne / destroyed the alters and chapels & the Heathen had buylded thow the stretes: censed the temple / made another altar of brycke stone / & after .ij. yeres they offered sacrificys / set forth the incense / the lyghtes & shewe bzed. When that was done / they fell downe flat vpon the grounde / and besought the Lorde / that they myght come nomore in to soch trouble: but yf they synned eny moenymore agaynst him / he him self to chastise them wyth mercy / and not to come in the habes of those aleauntes and blasphemous men.

Now vpon the same daye that the straungers polluted the temple / it happened that on the very same daye it was censed agayne: namely / the .xxij. daye of the moneth called Casleu. They kepte .viij. dayes in gladnesse / lyke as in the feast of the tabernacles: remembreynge that not longe afore / they helde the feast of the tabernacles vpon the mountaynes and in demes lyke bestes. And to the same token they bare grene bowes / bzaunches and palmes before him that had geuen them good fortune to cense his place. They agreed also together / and made a statute / & euery yere those dayes shulde be solemly kepte of all the people of the Jewes.

How Antiochus then (that was called the noble) dyed / it is sufficiently tolde. Now will we speake of Picanor the sonne of that wicked Antiochus / how it happened with him: and so with few wordes to comprehend the aduersyte that chaunced in the warres. When he had take in the kyngdome / he made one Lysias (which had bene captayne of the host in Phenices and Siria) ruler ouer the matters of the realme. For Ptolomy that was called Macron / beyng a ruler for the Jewes (and specially / to lye in iudgment for soch wronge as was done vnto them) vnder toke to deale peaceably with them. For the which cause he was accused of the frenches before Eupator: and when he was suspecte to be a traytoure (because he had left Eypres) that Philometor had commytted vnto hym: and because he departed from noble Antiochus / that he was come vnto / he poysoned him selfe / and dyed.

Now when Gorgias was gouernoure of the same places / he toke straungers and vnder toke of tymes to warre with the Jewes. Moreouer the Idumeans that helde the stronge holdes / receaued those that were dryuen from Jerusalem / and toke in hande to warre also. But they that were with Machabeus besought and prayed vnto the Lorde / that he wolde be their helper: and so they fell in to the stronge holdes of the Idumeans / and wanne many places by strength: Soch as came agaynst them they slew / and kyled no lesse (of all together) then twenty thousande. Neuerthelesse some / no lesse then nyne thousande / were fled in to two stronge towres / hauynge all maner of ordynaunce to withstande them.

Then Machabeus leauynge Symon / Josephus / Zachaus and those that were with them (which were very many) wente to bele-ge them / and to fight where most nede was. Now they that were with Symon beyng led with courtounesse / were intreated for money / thow certain of those that laye in the towres: toke .lxx. M. Machmas / & let some of them escape. But when it was tolde Machabeus what had happened / he called the captaynes of the people together / accusynge those personnes / & they had tolde the bzythen for money / and lett their enemyes go. So he slewe those traytours / and immediatly wente in hande with the .ij. towres. And whē they had ordred them selues manly with their weapens and handes / they slewe in the two castels moo then twenty thousande.

Now Timotheus whom the Jewes had overcome afore / gathered a multitude of strange people / brought an hoste also of horsmen of the Asians / to wyne Jewry by strength. But when he dzewe nye / Machabeus & they that were with hym fell to their prayer / sprenckled althes vpon their heades / beyng gyrded with heartie cloth about their loynes / fell downe before the altare / and besought the Lorde that he wolde be merciful to them / but an enemye vnto their enemyes / and to take parte agaynst their aduersaries / accordynge as it is promysed in lawe. So after the prayer / they wente on further from the cytie: and when they came nye the enemyes / they prepared them selues agaynst them.

And by tymes in the mornyng at the bzeake of the daye / both the hostes buckled together. The one parte had the Lorde for their refuge / whych is the geuer of prosperite / strength and victorie. The other had a manly stomack / whych is a captayne of warre.

The battayll now beyng greate / there appeared vnto the enemyes from heauen. b. i. Mach. 11. 6. men vpon horsbacks with byrdels of golde / ledynge the Jewes / and two of them hauynge Machabeus betwixte them / that kepte him safe on euery syde with their weapens / but shot dartes and lightenynges vpon the enemyes: where thow they were confounded with byndnesse & so soze afrayed / that they fell downe. There were slayne of fote men twenty thousande and fyue hundred / and fyve hundred horsmen. As for Timotheus him selfe / he fled vnto Gazar a very stronge holde / wherein Cereas was captayne. But Machabeus and his company layed sege to it chearkfully .iiij. dayes.

Now they that were within trustynge to the strength of the place / cursed and banned excedyngly / and made greate cryinge with wycked wordes. Neuerthelesse b. ii. Mach. 11. 6. vpon

Upon the fyfth daye in þe moonyng. xx. yong men of Machabeus company/beynge/ sett on fyre in their myndes because of the blasphemy: came manfully vnto the wall / and with bolde stomakes they and their other companions clymmed by vpon the towres / vnder takinge to set fyre vpon the portes / & to burne those blasphemous personis quickly. Two dayes were they destroying the castle / whych when they founde Amotheus (that was crept in to a corner) they killed him / & slew Cereas his brother in lyke manner with Appollophanes. When this was done / they sung psalmes / wyth prayes & thanckesgeuynges vnto the Lorde / which had done so greates thynges for Israel / and geuen them the victorie.

¶ Lysias goeth aboute to ouercome the Jewes. Sencourt is sent from heauen vnto the Jewes. The letter of Lysias to the Jewes. The letter of kynge Antiochus vnto Lysias. A letter of the same vnto the Jewes. A letter of the Romaynes to the Jewes.

The .xj. Chapter.

Not longe after thys / Lysias the kynge's stwarde and a kynsman of his) which had þe gouernaunce of his matters (toke soze displeasure for the thynges that had happened: and when he had gathered. lxxx. M. men of sote with all the hoste of the hoymen / he came agaynst the Jewes / thynkyng to wyne þe cytie / to make it an habytacion for the heathen / and the temple wolde he haue to be an house of lucre / lyke as the other goddes houses of the heathen are / & to sell the prestes of fyre every yere: Not consyderyng þe power of God / but was wyld in hys mynde / trustyng in the multitude of sote men / in thousandes of hoymen / & in his. lxxx. Elephantes.

So he came in to Jewry & then to Bethsura (a castell of defence lying in a narrow place. b. furlonges from Jerusalem) & wanne it. Now when Machabeus and his company knewe that the stronge holdes were taken / they fell to their prayers with wepyng and teares before the Lorde: and all the people in lyke maner besought him / that he wolde sende a good angell to deliuer Israel. Machabeus hym selfe was the first that made him ready to þe battayll / exhortyng the other that were with him / to seoperde them selues and to helpe their brethren. And when they were goyenge forth of Jerusalem together with a redy and wyllyng mynde / there appeared before the bys hoysacke a man in whyte clothynge with harnesse of golde / shakynge his speare. When they prayled the Lorde all together / which had shewed them mercy / & were comforted in their myndes: in so much that they were ready / not only to fyght with men / but with the most cruell bestes / yee & to runne thorow walles of yron.

Thus they wente on willingly hauynge an helper from heauen / and the Lorde merciful vnto them. They fell myghtely vpon their enemyes lyke lyons / brought downe. xi. M. sote men. xxi. C. hoymen / put all þe other to flight / many of them beyng wounded / and some gatawaye naked. Yee Lysias him selfe was fayne to fle shamefully / and so to escape. Neuerthelesse the man was not wyth out vnderstandynge / but consydered by hym selfe that his power was mynished and pondered how the Jewes beyng defended by the helpe of Almighty God / were not able to be ouercome: wherfore he sent the worde / and promysed / þe he wolde consente to all thynges which were reasonable / and to make þe kynge their frende. To the which prayer of Lysias Machabeus agreed sekynge in all thynges the comen wealth: and whatsoeuer Machabeus wrote vnto Lysias concernynge the Jewes / the kynge graunted it. For there were lettres wyrtten vnto the Jewes from Lysias cōteynynge these wordes.

Lysias sendeth gretynge to the people of the Jewes. Jhon and Absalon whych were sent from you / deliuered me wyrtynge / & requyred me to fulfill the thynges concernynge their earande. Therfore loke what might be graunted / I certifyed þe kynge therof: & whatsoeuer was conuenient. I agreed thereto. If ye now wyll be saythfull in þe matters / I shal endeuer my selfe hereafter all to do you good. As concernynge other thynges by euery article therof: I haue comytted the to youre messaungers / and to those whom I sent vnto you / to comen with you of þe same / fare ye well. In the hundreth & xlviij. yere / þe .xxiiij. daye of þe moneth Dioscorinthius.

Now the kynge's lettre conteyned these wordes. Kynge Antiochus sendeth gretynge vnto his brother Lysias. For so much as our father is now deed / our wyll is / that they which are in our realme / lyue without eny insurreccyon / and euery man to be diligent in his awne matters. We vnderstande also / that the Jewes wolde not consent to oure father / for to be brought vnto the custome of the Gentyles / but styllly to kepe their awne statutes: for the which cause they requyre of vs also / to lett them remayne styll by their awne lawes.

Wherfore oure mynde is / that this people shalbe in rest: we haue concluded and determined also / to restore the their temple agayne: that they maye lyue accordynge to the ble & custome of their fore fathers. Thou shalt do us a pleasure therfore / yf thou sende vnto them and agre with them: that whē they are certifi-certified of oure mynde / they maye be of good chere / and loke to their awne wealth.

And this was the lettre / that the kynge wrote vnto the Jewes: Kynge Antiochus sendeth gretynge vnto the counsell and þe other people of þe Jewes. If ye fare well / we haue oure desyre: as for vs / we are in good health. Menelaus came and tolde vs / how þe poure desyre was to come downe to poure people / which are with vs.

Wherfore those that wyll come / we geue them fre lyberte / vnto the. xxx. daye of the moneth of Apyll / that they maye ble þe meates of the Jewes and their awne lawes / lyke as afore: and none of them by eny maner of wayes to haue harme / for thynges done in ignorance. Menelaus whom we haue sent vnto you / shal come with you at large / fare ye well. In the. Cxliij. yere / the. xv. daye of the moneth of Apyll.

The Romaynes also sent a lettre / conteynyng these wordes: Quintus Pennius & Titus Manilius embassitours of the Romaynes / sende gretynge vnto the people of the Jewes. Loke what Lysias the kynge's kynsman hath graunted you / we graunte you the same also. But as concernynge the thynges which he referred vnto the kynge / sende hyther some with spede: and ponder the matter diligently amonge your selues / that we maye cast þe best to poure profite / for we must departe now vnto Antioche. And therfore wyte shortly agayne / þe we maye knowe poure mynde / fare well. In þe hundreth. xliij. yere / the. xv. daye of the moneth of Apyll.

¶ Amotheus troubleth the Jewes. The wyched deade of the Jewys agaynst the Jewes. Judas is auenged of them. He letteth fyre on the pale of Jamnia. The pursute of the Jewes agaynst Amotheus. Amotheus is takē & let go vnhurt. Judas purchaseth Gorgias. Judas offering sacrifice for the dead. He weth the hope of the resurreccyon.

The .xij. Chapter.

Nen these couenauntes were made Lysias wente vnto the kynge / & the Jewes cyled their grounde. But Amotheus / Appollonius & sonne of Gemes / Jerome and Demophon & proude / Picanor the captayne of Cyper / & they that laye in those places: wolde not lett them lyue in rest and peace. They of Joppa also dyd euen soch a shamefull dede. They prayed the Jewes that dwelt amonge them / to go with their wyues and chyldren in to þe shippes which they had prepared / and dyd wyth them / as though they had ought the no euell wyll. For so much then as there was gone forth a generall proclamacion thorow þe cytie because of peace / they consented ther-to / & suspecte nothyng: but when they were gone forth in to the depe / they drowned no lesse then. ij. C. of them.

When Judas knew of this cruell shewed vnto his people / he commaunded those that were with him to make the ready / exhortyng them to call vpon God the ryghtuous iudge: went forth agaynst those murthurers of his brethren / set fyre in the haue by nyght / byt by the shippes / and those that escaped from the fyre / he slew with the swearde. And whē he had done thys / he departed as though he wolde come agayne / and rote out all them of Joppa. But when he had gotten worde that the Jamnites were mynded to do in lyke manner vnto the Jewes which dwelt amonge the / he came vpon the Jamnites by nyght / & sette fyre in the haue with the shippes: so that the lyght of the fyre was sene at Jerusalem / vpon a. ij. C. and. xl. furlonges.

Now when they were gone from thence. ix. furlonges / in their tourney toward Amotheus. b. thousande men of sote and. b. hundreth hoymen of the Arabians fought with hym. So whē the battell was earnest / and prospered with Judas thorow the helpe of God: the residue of the Arabians beyng ouercome / besought Judas to be at one wth them / & promysed to geue hym certayne pastures / and to do hym good in other thynges. Judas thynkyng that they shulde in dede be profytable concernynge many thynges / promysed them praece: wherupon they shoke handes / and so they departed to their tentes. Judas wente also vnto a cytie / whych was very faste kepte with byrdes / fenced round aboute wyth walles / and dyuerse kyndes of people dwellyng therein / called Caspin.

They that were within it / put soch trust in the strength of the walles / & in their stoare of bytales: that they were the slacker in their doynges / cursynge and reuyllynge Judas wth blasphemyes / and speakynge soch wordes as it becommeth not. But Machabeus callynge vpon the greates Prynce of the worlde (whych wythout any battayllrammes or ordynaunce of warre / dyd cast downe the walles of Jericho / in the tyme of Josue) fell Jous. vi. c. manfully vpon the walles / toke the cytie / & (thorow the helpe of the Lorde) made an excedyng greates slaughter: in so much that a lake of two furlonges byde whych laye thereby / semed to flowe wyth the bloude of the slayne.

Then departed they from thence. vij. C. & l. furlonges / and came to Caraca vnto the Jewes that are called Cubianei. But as for Amotheus / they coude not get him there: for (not one matter dyspatched) he was departed from thence / and had left certayne men men in a very stronge holde. But Josithus & Sosipater / which were Captaynes wth Machabeus / slew those 2 Timotheus had left in the house of defence / euē. x. men. And Machabeus prepared him with the vi. men 2 were aboute him / let them in oze by companies / and wente forth agaynst Timotheus / which had with him an. C. and xx. men of fote. ij. M. and. v. C. horsemen. When Timotheus had knowledge of Judas commynge / he sent the women / chyldren / and the other baggage vnto a castell called Carnion. (For it coude not be wōne / & was harde to come vnto / the wayes of the same places were so narrow) and whē Judas company came fyrst in syght / the enemyes were smytten with feare / thow the ptesence of God / which seyth all thynges: In so moch 2 they sleynge one here / another there / were rather discomfited of their awne people / and wounded wth strokes of their awne swordes. Judas also was very earnest in folowynge vpon them punishynge those vngodly / and slewe xxx. M. men of them. Timotheus also himselfe fell in to the handes of Josithus and Sosipater / whom he besought w many prayers / to let him go with his lyfe: because he had many of the Jewes fathers & bryethen in pteson. which (yf they put hym to death) myght be disapoynted. So whē he had promysed faythfully to deliuer the agayne according to the condycion made / they let him go without harme / for the health of the brethren. And when Judas had slayne. xxx. M. he wente from Carnion.

Now after 2 he had chased awaye a slayne his enemyes / he remoued the hoste towarde Ephron a stronge cyte / wherin dwelt many dyuerse people of the heathen / & the stronge ponge men kepte the walles / defendynge the myghtely. In this cyte was moch ordynance / and prouysion of darters. But when Judas and his company had called vpon Almighty God (which w his power breaketh the strength of the enemyes) they wanne the cyte / and slewe. xxx. M. of them / that were within. From thence wente they to the cyte of the Scythians / which lyeth. vi. C. fur longes from Jerusalem. But whē 2 Jewes which were in the cyte testified / that 2 citys dealete louyngly with them / yee and intrated them kynndly in the tyme of their aduersite / Judas and his company gaue them thanckes / deliuyng them to be frendly still vnto them: and so they came to Jerusalem the hye feast of the weekes beyng at hande. And after the feast they went forth agaynst Gorgias the gouernoure of Idumea / wth iii. M. men of fote &. iiii. C. horsemen. which when they met together / it chaunced a seme of the Jewes to be slayne. And Josithus one of the Bachenors a myghty hero / ma toke holde of Gorgias / and wolde haue takē him quykly. But an horsman of Chacia fell vpon him / and smote of his arme / so that Gorgias escaped & fled in to Mozeia. When they now 2 were of Gorgias syde / had fought longe & were weary: Judas called vpon the Lorde that he wolde be their helper: & captayne of the felde: and with that / he beganne wth a manly voyce to take vp a songe of prayse / & a crye: In so moch that he made the enemyes afrayed / and Gorgias men of warre toke their flight. So Judas gathered his hoste / & came in to the cyte of Modia. And when the seuenth daye came vpon them / they cleded them selues (as 2 custome was) & kepte the Sabbath in the same place. And vpon 2 daye folowynge / Judas & his company came to take vp the bodies of those that were slayne / and to burye the in the fathers graues. Now vnder the cotes of certayne Jewes which were slayne / they founde Jewels that they had takē out of the temple & from the Idols of the Jamnites: which thyng is so byddē of the Jewes by the lawe. When euery mā saw that this was the cause / wherfore they were slayne.

And so euery man gaue thanckes vnto the Lorde for his ryghtuous iudgment / which had opened the thyng that was hyd. They fell downe also vnto their prayers / and besought God / 2 the lawe which was made / might be put out of remembrance. Besydes that / Judas exorted the people earnestly / to kepe the selues from such synne: for so moch as they sawe before their eyes / 2 these men were slayne for the same offence. So he gathered of euery one a certayne / in so moch 2 he brought together two thousande drachmas of syluer / which he sent vnto Jerusalem / that there myght a sacrifice be offered for the mysdede. In the which place he dyd well and ryght: for he had some consyderacyon & ponderynge of the lyfe that is after this tyme. For yf he had not thought that they / which were slayne / dyd yet lyue / it had bene superfluous / and bayne / to make any bowe or sacrifice / for those that were ded. But for so moch as he sawe / that they which dye in the fauoure & beleue of God / are in good rest and tope / he thought it to be good & honorable for a recouynge / to do 2 same for those which were slayne / 2 the offence myght be forgiven.

The alowe the ceremonye of Christenynge for the ded / noma are dothe any place of the canon call scripture alowe the ceremonye of offerynge for the ded. Forthermore: This hole booke of the Machabees / and specially this second / is not of sufficient authoritie to make an article of our faith: as it is before sufficiently proued by the authoritie of Jerome in the prologe of these bookes called Apocrypha.

The contynge of Supator in to Jewrye. The death of Menelaus. Machabeus goynge to fight agaynst Supator / moueth his soldars vnto prayer. He killeth xliii. thousande men in the tentes of Antiochus. who docus the betrayer of the Jewes is taken. Antiochus retayneth frendship wth the Jewes.

The. xliii. Chapter.

In the. xliii. yere gatt Judas knowledge / that Antiochus Supator was commynge wth a greate power in to Jewrye / & Lysias the stwarde and ruler of his matters with him: hauynge an. C. and. x. men of fote. v. M. horsemen. xii. Elephantes / and. iiii. C. charrettes. Menelaus also toynd him self wth them (but wth greate dysceate) and spake saye to the kynge / not for eny good of the countre / but because he thought to haue bene made some greate man of auctoryte. But the kynge of kinges moued Antiochus mynde agaynst this vngodly personne / and Lysias infourmyd the kynge / that this Menelaus was the cause of all myschefe: so that the kynge commaunded to take him / and (as the maner of them is) to put hym vnto death in the same place.

There was also in the same place a tower of. A. cubytes hye / heappd wth alshes: but about it was so made / that men myght loke downe on euery syde. Where in to the kynge commaunded that shamefull person to be cast amonge the alshes / as one that was cause of all vngodlynesse. And reason it was / that 2 bnythist shulde dye such a death / and not to be buryed: for he had done moch myschefe vnto the aulter of God (whose fyre & alshes were holy) therfore was it right / 2 he him self also shulde be destroyed wth alshes.

But the kynge was woode in his mynde and came to shewe hym selfe more cruell vnto the Jewes / then his father was. Whych when Judas perceaued / he commaunded the people to call vpon the Lorde myght and daye: that he wolde now helpe them also / lyke as he had done allwaye: for they were afrayed to be put from their lawe / from their naturall countre and from the holy temple: and not to suffre the people (whych a lytle whyle afore beganne to recouer) to be subdued agayne of 2 blasphemous nacions.

So when they had done this together / and besought the Lorde for mercy / with wepyng and fastynge thre dayes longe / flatt vpon the grounde: Judas exorted them / to make them selues ready. But he and the elders together deuysed / to go forth first wth their people / afore the kynge brought his host in to Jewrye / and afore he beleged the cyte / & so to commytte the matter vnto God.

Wherfore he ascribde the power of all thynges vnto God the maker of the worlde / exhortynge his people to fight manfully / (yee euen vnto death) for the lawes / the temple / the cyte / their awne natyue countre / and to defende the cytelyns: and let his hoste before Modym. He gaue them also that were wth hym / a token of the vctory of God / chosynge out the manifest yonge men / wente by nyght in to the kynges pauplyon / slewe of the host. xliii. M. men / & the greatest Elephantes / wth those that satt vpon them.

Thus when they had brought a greate feare and rumour amonge the tentes of their enemyes / and all thynges went prosperously wth them / they departed in the bryake of the daye / God beyng their helper and defender. Now when the kynge perceaued the manlynesse of the Jewes / he wente aboute to the take the stronge places by craft / and remoued his host vnto Bethsura / whych was a well kepte house of defence of the Jewes: but they were chased awaye / hurte and dyscomfited.

And Judas sent vnto them that were in it / such thynges as were necessary. In the Jewes host also there was one Rhodocus / whych tolde the enemyes their secretes: but they sought him out / and when they had gotten hym / they put hym in pteson. After this dyd the kynge comen wth them that were in Bethsura / toke truce wth them / departed / and stroke a battayl wth Judas / which ouer came him.

But when he vnderstode / that Phylippe (whs he had left to be ouerleer of his busynesses at Antioche) beganne to rebel agaynst hym / he was astonnyed in his mynde: so that he yelded hym self to the Jewes / and made the an othe / to do whatsoeuer they thought ryght.

Now when he was reconcyled wth them / he offered / made moch of the temple / gaue greate gyftes vnto it / embraced Machabeus / makinge hym captayne and gouernour vnto Ptolomays vnto the Serrenes.

Neuerthelesse when he came to Ptolomays / the people of the cyte were not content wth that bonde of frendshype: for they were afrayed / that he wolde bryake the couenaunt. Then wente Lysias by in to the seate / and enfourmed the people / shewed the cause why / and pacified them. So he came agayne to Antioche. This is now the matter concernynge the kynges iourney / & his returne.

By the mocyon of the Lorde / Demetrius sendeth Nicator to kyll the Jewes. Nicator maketh a compact wth the Jewes / which he yet bryake through the mocyon of the kynge. Nicator commaundeth Razia to be taken. The boldnes of Razia.

The. xliii. Chapter.

After

After thye yeares was Judas in-loured/how that Demetrius the sonne of Seleucus was come vp with a greate power and myppes/thorow the hauens of Tripolis /to take cer-tayne commodious places and countrees/agaynst Antiochus & his captayne Lyfias.
Now Alcimus (which had bene hys prest / & wylfully defyled hym self / in the tyme of the myrryng) being / & by no meanes he coude be helped / nerhaue any moze inraunce to the aultare: he came to hyngge Demetrius in the hundreth and one & fyttye yeare / presentyng vnto him a crowne of golde / a palme & an olyue tree: which (as men thought) belonged to the temple / & that daye he helde his tonge. But whē he had gottē oportunitie for his madnesse / Demetrius called hym to coun-cell / and asked hym / what thynges or coun-cels the Jewes leaned vnto? He answered:
The Jewes that be called Alcides (whose captaine is Judas Machabeus) maynteyne warres / make insurreccyons / and wyl not let the realme be in peace.

So I beyng depzured of my fathers ho-noure (I meane the hys presthode) am come hyther: partly because I was saythfull vnto the kyng / and partly because I fought the prophēt of & cytelins. And why? all oure people / thorow the wickednesse of them / are not a litle troubled. Wherfore I beseeche the (O kyng) conseyde all these thynges diligently / and then make some prouisyō for the lande and the people / accōdyng to & kyndnesse that thou hast offred vnto them. For as longe as Judas hath the byperhāde / it is not possible that men can lyue in peace.

When he had spoken these wordes / other frendes also hauinge euell wyl at Judas / lett the kyng Demetrius on fyre agaynst him. Which immediatly sent Nicanoz (ruler of the Elephantes) a captayne / in to Je-ru: comādyng hym / to take Judas himselfe alpye / but to slaye them that were with him / and to make Alcimus hys prest of the temple.

When the Heathen whych fled oute of Je-ru: from Judas / came to Nicanoz by flo-kes / thynchyng the harme and decaye of & Jewes to be their welfare. Now when the Jewes herde of Nicanoz commyng / and the gatheryng together of the Heathen: they spēckled the selues with earth / & besought hym / whych made them hys people / & euer defended his awne porcion with euident tokens / that he wolde pzeferue them tyll. So at the commaundment of the captayne / they remoued from thence / and came to a towne called Belsan. And Symon Judas brother fell in hande with Nicanoz / but thorow the sodane commyng of the enenyes / he was afrayed.

Neuertheles Nicanoz hearinge the man-lynes of them that were with Judas / & the bolde stomaches that they had to fyght for their naturall countre / durst not proue the matter with bloudsheddyng. Wherfore he sent Polidorus / Theodocius & Mathias before / to geue and to take peace. So when they had taken longe aduysment there vpon / and the captayne shewed it vnto the multy-tude: they were agreed in one mynde / to haue peace. And they appoynted a daye to syt vpon these matters quyetly amonge them selues / the scoles also were brought and set forth.
Neuertheles Judas commaunded certayne men of armes to wayte in conuenient places / lest there shulde sodenly arysse any euell thorow the enenyes. And so they commoned reasonably together.

Nicanoz / whyle he abode at Jerusalem / ordred hym selfe not vnreasonably / but sent awaye the people that were gathered together. He loued Judas euer with his hert / and fauoured him. He prayed hym also to take a wyfe / and to byngge forth chyldren. So he marrd / lyued in rest / and they led a comen lyfe. But Alcimus perceauyng the loue & was betwixte them / and how they were agreed together / came to Demetrius / & tolde him that Nicanoz had taken straunge matters in hande / and ordred Judas (an enemy of the realme) to be the kynges successeur.
Then the kyng was soze displeased / & tho-row & wycked accusacyōs whych Alcimus made of Nicanoz / he was so prouoked / that he wrote vnto Nicanoz / saying: that he was beryng angrie for & frendshyppe and agrement / whych he had made with Machabeus. Ne-uertheles he commaunded hym in all & haste / that he shulde take Machabeus pzeoner / and sende him to Antioche.

Whych lēttres when Nicanoz had sene /
he was at his wyttē ende / and soze greued / that he shulde bzeake the thynges wheryn they had agreed: specially / sayenge Machabeus was the man / that neuer dyd hym har-me. But because he myght not with stande the kyng / he sought oportunitie to fulfil his commaundement. Not withstanding when Machabeus sawe that Nicanoz beganne to be churlysh vnto hym / and that he intreated him moze roughly then he was wonte / he perceaued & soch unkyndnes came not of good / and therfore he gathered a few of his men / & withdrew hym selfe from Nicanoz. Whych when he knewe that Machabeus had man-fully pzevented hym / he came in to the great and most holy temple: and commaunded the prestes (whych were doyng their usuall of-frynges) fringes) to deliuer hym the man. And when they sware that they coude not tell where the man was whom he sought / he stretched out his hande / & made an othe / sayenge: Jere wyl not deliuer me Judas captiue / I shall remoue this temple of God into & playne felde / I shall bzeake downe the aultar / and consecrate this temple vnto Bachus. After these wordes he departed.

Then the prestes lyft vp their handes to-warde heauen / and besought hym that was euer the defender of their people / sayenge: Thou O Lorde of all / whych hast nede of nothyng / woldest that the temple of thy habytacyō shulde be amonge vs. Therfore now O most holy Lorde / kepe thyshouse euer vndefyled / whych lately was clesed. Now was there accused vnto Nicanoz / one Razis an Alderman of Jerusalem / a louer of the whole cyte / and a mā of good repozte: whych for the kynde herte that he bare vnto the people / was called a father of the Jewes. This man oft tymes / when the Jewes were mynded to kepe the selues vndefyled / defended & deliuered them / betwixte content stedfastly to spende his body and his lyfe for his people.

So Nicanoz wyllyng to declare & hate / that he bare to the Jewes / sent fūe hundreth men to take hym: for he thought / yf he gat him / he shulde byngge the Jewes in great decaye. Now when the people beganne to rushe in at hys house / to bzeake the doores / & to set fyre on it: he beinge now taken / wolde haue defended himself with his swearde: chosyng rather to dye manfully / then to yelde hymself to those wicked doers: & because of his noble stroke / he had rather haue bene put to extreme crueltie. Notwithstanding what tyme as he missed of hys stroke for haste / & multitude fell in by collyer betwixte the doores: he rāne boldly to the wal / & cast himselfe downe man-fully amonge the heape of the / whych gaue soone place to his fall / so that he fel vpon his bely. Neuertheles whyle there was yet bzeath wythin hym / he was kyndled in hys mynde / and whyle hys bloude gushyd out exceedingly (for he was very soze wounded) he ranne thorow the myddest of the people / and gat hym to the toppe of a rocke. So whē hys bloude was now gone / he toke out hys awne bowels with both his handes / & threw them vpon the people: callinge vpon & Lorde of lyfe & spzyte / to rewarde him this agayne / and so he dyed.

Nicanoz goeth aboute to come vpon Judas on the Sabboth daye. The blasphemie of Nicanoz Machabeus expoundyng vnto the Jewes the vpyon / boldenesse their heres. The prayer of Machabeus. After the hoste of Nicanoz is ouercome / Machabeus commaundeth his herd and hys handes to be cut of / & his tonge to be geuen vnto fowles.

The xv. Chapter.

Now when Nicanoz knewe that i. Mach. xv. b.
Judas was in the countre of Samaria / he thought with all hys power to stryke a felde with hym vpon a Sabbath daye. Neuertheles the Je-wes that were compelled to go with hym / sayde: O do not so cruelly and unkyndly / but halowe the Sabbath daye / and wo: myppe hym that seyth all thynges. For all thys / yet sayde the vnglacious personne: Is there a myghty one in heauen / that comāunded the Sabboth daye to be kepte? And when they sayde: yee the lyuyng God / the myghty Lorde in heauen commaunded the seuenth daye to be kepte / he sayde: And I am myghty vpon earth / to commaunde them for to arme them selues / and to persourne the kynges butynesse. Not withstandinge he myght not haue his purpose.

Nicanoz had deuyld with greate pryde to ouercome Judas / and to byngge awaye the victorie. But Machabeus had euera fast confydence and a perfecte hope in God that he wolde helpe him / and exhorted his people / not to be afrayed at the comyng of the Heathen: but alwaye to remembre the helpe that had bene shewed vnto them from heauen / yee and to be sure now also / that almyghty God wolde geue them the victorie. He spake vnto them out of the lawe and prophetes / putting the in remembraunce of & battayls / that they had stryken afore / and made them to be of a good corage.

So when their hartes were plucte vp / he shewed them also the dyscreetnesse of the Heathen / and how they wolde kepe no couenant nor othe. Thus he weapened the not with the armour of shyld and speare / but with wholsome wordes and exhortacyōs. He shewed them a dreame also / wherthorow he made the al glad / whych was this: he thought that he sawe Onias (whych had bene hys prest / a vertuous and louyng man / sad and of honest conuersacyō / well spoken / & one that had bene excerpced in Godlynes from a chylde) holdyng vp his handes towarde heauen / and prayenge for his people. After this there appeared vnto hym another mā / whych was aged / honozable and gloriuous. And Onias sayde: This is a louer of the byethzen / and of the people of Israel. This is he that prayeth moch for the people / and for all the holy cytle: Jeremy the prophete of God. He thought also & Jeremy helde out hys ryght hande / and gaue hym (namely vnto Judas) a swearde of golde / sayenge: Take this holy swearde / a gyfte from God / wherewith thou shalt smyte downe the enenyes of the people of Israel.

And

The second booke, & c.

And so they were well comforted thozow the wordes of Judas / and toke courage vnto them / so that the yonge men were determed in their myndes to fyght / and to vyde styfly at it: In so moche that in the thynges whych they toke in hande / their boldnesse thewed same / because the holy cytie and the temple were in perill: for the which they toke moze care / then for their wyues / chyldren / brether and kynfolkes. Agayne / they that were in the cytie / were most carefull for those whych were to fyght. Now when they were all in a hope that the iudgment of þ matter was at hand / and the enemyes drew nye / the host beyng set in aray / the Elephantes and horsemen every one standyng in hys place: Machabeus considered the commyng of þ multytude / the ordynance of dyuerse wea-pens / the cruelnesse of the beestes / & helpe by his handes to warde heauē / calling vpon the Lorde that doth wonders / whych geueth not the victoꝝ after the multytude of wea-pens and power of the host / but to them that please hym / accordyng to hys awne wyll.
Cherfoze in his prayer he sayd these wordes.

O Lorde / thou that dydest sende thyne Angell in the tyme of Gezehiah kyng of Juda / and in the hoste of Sennacherib slewest an hundred and fyue and foure scoze thousand: sende now also thy good angell befoze vs (O Lorde of heauens) in the fearfulnessse and drede of thy myghtye arme / that they whych come agaynst thy holy people to blaspheme the / maye be afrayed. And so he made an ende of his wordes. Then Micanoz & they þ were with hym / drew nye with watmes and songes: but Judas & his company wyth prayer and callinge vpon God.

Wyth their handes they smote / but wyth their hertes they prayed vnto the Lorde / and slew no lesse then .xxxv. M. men: for thozow þ present helpe of God they were gloriously comforted.

Now when they left of / & were turnyng agayne with ioye / they vnderstode that Mi-canoz hym selfe was slayne wyth the other.
Then they gaue a greates shoute and a crye / praysyng the Almighty Lorde with a loude voyce. And Judas (whych was euer ready to spende his body and lyfe for his citezens) commaunded to smyte of Micanozs head / wyth hys arme & hande / & to be brought to Jerusalem. When he came there / he called all the people / and the prestes at the auter wyth those that were in the castell / and shewed the Micanozs head / and his wyched hāde / whych he had presumptuously holden by agaynst þ temple of God. He caused the tonge also of þ vngodly Micanoz to be cut in lytle peces / & to be cast to the foules / and the cruell mā hande to be hanged by befoze the temple.

So every man gaue thankes vnto the Lorde / sayinge: blessed be he / that hath kepte hys place vnderfyled.

As for Micanozs head / he hanged it by vpon the hye castell / for an euident & playne toke of the helpe of God. And so they agreed all together / to kepe that daye holy / namely the .xlii. daye of the moneth Adar / whych in the Syzians language is called the nexte daye befoze Mardocheus daye. Thus was Micanoz slayne / & from that tyme forth the Jewes had the cytie in possession. And here wyll I now make an ende.

The byrth of Jesus Christ was on this wyse. When his mother Mary was maryed to Joseph / before they came to dwell toge-

The ii. Chapter.
When Jesus was bozne at Bethleem in Jure / in the tyme of Herode the kynge. Beholde ther came a * wyfe men from the West to Jerusalem (which was in sayinge. where is he that is bozne kynge of Jewes? We haue sene his starre in the West / and are come to worship him.
When Herode the kynge had hearde this / he was troubled / & all Jerusalem with hym / & he gathered all the chief priests & scribes of the people / & asked of them where Christ was bozne.

And they sayde vnto hym: at because Chyph was born there Bethleem beto
keneth & Chyph Bethleem in the lande of Iewry/ art not the leest conceit of the Pynces of Iuda. For out of the theepes of the mal come the captayne/that shall gouern
my people Israel.

Then Herode pryncely called the wyse me and diligently enquired of them/ the tyme of the starre that appered/ and sent them to Bethleem sayinge: Godd and searche dili gently for the chylde. And when ye haue founde by lernynge and hym/ byng me worde/ that I maye come

When they had heard the kynge/ they de parted: and lo the starre whych they sawe in the weste. wst before the/ tyll it came & stode ouer the place where the chylde was. When they sawe the starre/ they were maruelously glad: and went into the house/ and found the chylde with Mary his mother/ & kneeled dou ne and worshipped hym/ and opened their treasures/ and offered vnto hym gyfftes/ gold franchynse & myrr. And after they were warned of God in a dreame/ that they shuld not go agayne to Herode/ they returned into their awne countre another waye.

When they were departed beholde the an gell of the Lord appered to Ioseph in a dreame sayinge: arylle and take the chylde and his mother/ and fflye into Egypte/ & abyde there tyll I bynge the worde. For Herode wyll seke & chylde to destroye hym. When he arose and toke the chylde and his mother by nyght and departed in to Egypte/ and was there vnto the death of Herod to fulfill that which was spoken of the Lord by the Prophet whych sayeth/ out of Egypte haue I called my sonne.

Then Herod perceauynge & he was moc ked of the wyse men was exceedinge wroth & sent forth and sle all the chyliden & were in Bethleem/ and in all the costes there of/as many as were two yere olde & vnder/ ac cordinge to the tyme which he had diligently searched oute of the wyse men.

Then was fulfilled that whych was spo ken by the Prophet Ieremy sayinge: On the dayes was a boyce heard/ mourning/ & re pyng/ and greate lamentacyon: Rachel we sayde: It is bet pyng for her chyliden/ and wolde not be co forted/ because they were not.

When Herode was deed beholde/ an an gell of the Lord appered in a dreame to Jo seph in Egypte sayinge: arylle and take the chylde and his mother/ and go into the lande of Israel. For they are deed which sought the chylde. When he arose by/ and toke the chylde and his mother/ and came into the lande of Israel. But when he hearde that Archelaus dyd raygne in Iewry/ in the towne of Iherusalem/ he was afrayde to go thither. Not withstandinge after he was warned of God in a dreame he turned & fflye into the parties of Galile/ and went & dwelt in a cite called Nazareth/ to fulfill & which was spoken by the Prophetes: he shall be cal led a Nazarete.

The baptyme/ preaching and offyce of Iohn/ & how Christ was baptised of him in Iordane.

The iiij. Chapter.

In those dayes Iohn the Baptyst came & preached in the wyldernes of Iewry/ saying: Repente & byng dome of heauens at hande. Chys is he of whom it is spoken by the Prophet Isaiah/ whych sayeth: The voyce of a cryer in wyldernes/ prepare the Lordes waye/ and make his pathes straght. Chys Iohn had hys garment of camels hearre/ and a gyrdell of a chynne aboute hys loynes. Hys meate was locustes and wybe hony. Then went oute to hym Iherusalem and all Iewry/ and all the regyon rounde aboute Iordan/ and were baptised of hym in Iordan/ confessyng they synnes.

When he sawe many of the Pharises & Saduces come to his baptyme/ he sayd vnto them: Generacyon of byppers/ who hath taught you to fle from the vengeaunce to come? Bynginge forth therfore the frutes belongynge to repentaunce. And se that ye ons thynke not to saye in poure selues/ we haue Abraham to oure father. For I saye vn to you/ & God is able of these stoness to rayse vnto you children/ as many as the frutes of the tree. For the frutes of the tree which byn geth not forth good frute/ is hewen downe and cast into the fyre.

I baptise you in water in token of repen taunce: but he that cometh after me/ is might ier then I/ whose shoes I am not worthy to beare. He shall baptise you in the holy goost and with fyre: which hath also his fan in hys hand/ and will puryge his flour/ and gether the wheate into his garner/ and wyll burne the chaffe with vnquencheable fyre.

Then came Iesus from Galile to Iorda to Iohn to be baptised of him. But Iohn forbade him/ sayinge: I ought to be baptised of thee: & comest thou to me? Iesus answered and sayde to him. Let it be so now. For thus it becometh vs to fulfill all rightewesnes.
Then he suffered hym. And Iesus as sone he was baptised/ came streyght out of the water.
And lo/ heauens was open ouer hym: and Iohn sawe the spyrte of God descende lyke a doue a lyght vpon hym. And lo/ there came a voyce fro heauen sayinge: This is that my beloued sonne in whom is my deelyte.

Chyph saileth and is tempted: he calleth Peter/Andrew/ James/ and Iohn/ and healeth all the syche.

The iij. Chapter.

When was Iesus led awaye of spyr ite into wyldernes/ to be tēpted of the deuyl. And when he had fasted fourty dayes & fourty nyghtes/ he was afterward an hungred. Then came to hi the deuyl/ & sayde: If thou be the sonne of God commaunde these stoness be made bred. He answered and sayde: It is wyrtten/ man shall not lyue by bred onely/ but by euery worde & procedeth out of the mouth of God.

Then the deuyl toke him by into the holy cite/ & set him on a pynacle of the temple/ and sayde vnto hym: If thou be the sonne of God/cast thy selfe doune. For it is wyrtte: he shall geue his angels charge ouer the/ & with their handes they shall holde the/ that thou dash thy fote agaynst a stone. And Iesus sayde to hym/ it is wyrtten also: Thou shalt not tempte thy Lord God.

The deuyl toke hym by agayne and ledde him in to an exceedinge hye mountayne/ and shewed him all the kingdomes of the worlde/ & all the glozve of them/ and sayde to hym: all these wyll I geue the/ if thou wilt fall doune and worship me. Then sayde Iesus vnto hym Auorde Satan. For it is wyrtte/ thou shalt worship the Lord thy God/ and hym only shalt thou serue.

Then the deuyl left hym/ and beholde/ the angels came and ministered vnto hym.
When Iesus had hearde that Iohn was take/ he departed into Galile and left Naza reth/ & went & dwelt in Capernaum/ whych is a cite by the see/ in the coastes of zabulon & Nephtalim/ to fulfill & which was spoken by Iay & Prophet/ sayinge: The lande of Zabulon & Nephtalim/ the waye of the see beyonde Iordan/ Galile of the Gentyls/ the people whych sat in darcknes/ sawe great lyght/ & to the whych late in the region & sha dome of deeth/ lyght is begone to shyne.

From that tyme Iesus began to preache/and to saye: Repent/ for the kyngdome of heauen is at hande.

As Iesus walked by the see of Galile he sawe two brythren: Simon whych was called Peter/ & Andrew his brother/ castinge a nett into the see/ for they were fyshers/ and he sayde vnto the/ folowe me/ & I wyll make you fyshers of men. And they streyght waye lefte their nettes/ and folowed hym.

And he went forth from thence/ and sawe other two brythren/ James the sonne of Ze bede/ & Iohn his brother/ in the shyppe with Zebede their father/ mēdyng their nettes/ & called them. And they without taryng lefte the shyp and their father and folowed hym.

the lande: and aboundaunce of rayne descended / and the fluddes came / and the wyndes blewe and beet vpon that house / and it fell / and great was the fall of it.

¶ And it came to passe / that when Iesus had ended these sayinges / the people were aston-nyed at his doctryne. For he taught them as one hauinge power / and not as the scribes.

¶ Christ cleneth the leper / healeth the captaynes ser-uaunt and many other dyscales / helpeth the lepers mother in law / sylleth the see and the wyndes / dyspueth the

¶ The. viij. Chapter.
¶ When he was come downe from the mostayne / moche people folowed him. And lo / ther came a leper and wozshipped him sayinge: Master if thou wilt thou canst make me cleane. And Iesus put forth his hand & touched him sayinge: I will / be thou cleane / & immediatly his leprosy was clenched. And Iesus sayde vnto him: se thou tell no man / but go & shewe thy selfe to the preste / & offer the gyfte that Moses comaunded in wytnes to them.

¶ When Iesus was entred into Caper-naum ther came vnto hym a certayne Cen-turion / and besought hym sayinge: Master / my seruaunt lyeth sycke at home of the palsy / and is greuouly payned. And Iesus sayd vnto hym: I wyll come and heale hym.

The Centurion answered and sayde: Syr / I am not worthy that thou shouldest come vnder my rofe / but speake the worde only & my ser-uaunt shalbe healed. For I also my selfe am a man subiect to the authoryte of another / and haue souldyers vnder me / and I saye to one go / and he goeth / and to another come & he cometh: and to my seruaunt / do this / & he doeth it. When Iesus hearde that / he marue-led and sayd to the that folowed hym: wherely I saye vnto you / I haue not founde so great fayth: no / not in Israel. & I say therfore vnto you that many shal come fro the east & west and shall rest with Abraham / Isaac & Jacob in the kyngdome of heauen: and the chyldren of the kyngdome shalbe cast out in to vtter darknes: there shalbe wepyng and gnashynge of teth. Then Iesus sayde vnto the Cen-turion / go thy waye / and as thou beleuest so be it vnto the. And his seruaunt was healed the selfe houre.

¶ And then Iesus went to Peters house / & sawe his wyues mother lyinge sycke of a feuer / & touched her hande / & the feuer left hir:
and she arose / and mynystred vnto them.

¶ When the euen was come / they brought vnto hym many that were possessed with deuyls. And he cast out the spytes with a worde / & healed all that were sycke / to fulfill that which was spoken by Iesayas the Prophet sayinge: He toke on him oure infymities / and bare oure sycknes.

¶ When Iesus sawe moche people about hym / he comaunded to go ouer the water. And ther came a Scribe & sayde vnto him: Master / I wyll folowe the whither soeuer thou goest. And Iesus sayde vnto hym: the foxes haue holes / and the byrdes of the ayer haue nestes / but the sonne of man hath not wher to rest his heed. Another that was of his disciples sayde vnto hym: master / suffre me first to go and burye my father. But Iesus sayde vnto him: folowe me / & let the deed bu-rye theyr deed.

¶ And he entred into a shippe / & his disciples folowed hym. And beholde there arose a great tempest in the see / in so moche that the shippe was couered with waues / & he was a slepe. And his discipples came to hym / & awoke hym sayinge: Master laue vs / we pe-rysh. And he sayd to them: why are ye fear-full / & ye of lytell fayth? Then he arose / and rebuked the wyndes and the see / and ther followed a greates calme. And the men marueled and sayd: what man is this / that both wyndes and see obey hym?

the graues / & were out of measure feare / so that no man myght go by waye. And beholde they cryed out sayng: O Iesu thou sonne of God what haue we to do with the? Art thou come hither to torment vs before the tyme become? And ther was a good waye of fro the a greates heerd of swyne fedynge. Then the deuyls besought him sayinge: if thou cast vs out / suffre vs to go oure waye into the heerd of swyne. And he sayde vnto them: go poure wayes. Then went they out / & departed into the heerd of swyne. And beholde the whoale heerd of swyne was carped with violence helynge into the see / and perished in the water.
Then the heerdme fled & wet their wayes in to the citie / and tolde euery thinge / & what had fortuned vnto the possessed of the deuyls.
And beholde all the cytie came out & met Jesus / and when they sawe him / they besought him to departe out of their countre.

¶ The. ix. Chapter.

¶ When he entred in to a shippe and passed ouer & came into his awne cytie. And lo / they brought to hym a man sycke of the palsey / lyinge in his bed. And when Iesus sawe the fayth of of them / he sayde to the sycke of the palsey:
sonne be of good chere / thy synnes be forgeue the. And beholde certayne of the Scribes sayde in them selues / this man blasphemeth.
And when Iesus sawe their thoughtes / he sayde: wherfore thyncke ye euill in youre heart? whether is easer to saye / thy synnes be forgeue the / or to saye: aryse and walke?
That ye maye knowe that the sonne of man hath power to forgeue synnes in erth / then sayde he vnto the sycke of the palsey: aryse / take vp thy bed / and go home to thyne house.
And he arose & departed to his awne house.
And when the people sawe it / they marue-led and glorified God which had geue such power to men.

¶ And as Iesus passed forth fro thence / he sawe a man sate a receauynge of custome / named Mathew / and sayde to hym: folowe me.
And he arose & folowed hym. And it came to passe as he sat at meate in the house: beholde many Publycans and synners came and sate downe also with Iesus and his discipples.

¶ When the Pharises sawe that / they sayd to his discipples: why eatech youre master with Publycans and synners? When Iesus hearde that / he sayde vnto them: The whoale neade not the Pharise / but they are sicke.
Go & learne what it meaneth: I haue pleasure in mercy / and not in offrynge. For I am Mercie and not come to call the ryghtewes / but the synners to repentance.

¶ Then came the discipples of John to him saying: why do we & the Pharises faste ofte: but thy discipples faste not? And Iesus sayd vnto the: can the bypdegrome is with them? The tyme wyll come when the bypdegrome shalbe taken from them / & then shall they faste. No man peceth an olde garment with a pece of newe cloothe. For then taketh he awaye the pece agayne from the garment / & the rent is made greater. Nether do men put new wyne into olde vessels. For then the vessels breake / & the wyne runneth oute / & the vessels perishe.
But they poure new wyne into new vessels and so are bothe saued together.

¶ Whyle he thus spake vnto the / beholde ther came a certayne ruler / and wozyshipped him / saying: my daughter is euē now decased / but come & lay thy hand on her & she shall lyue. And Iesus arose and folowed him with his discipples. And beholde a woman whych was diseased with an yssue of bloude. xij. ye-his besture. For she sayd in her selfe: yf I may ¶ And whē Iesus came into the rulers house / and sawe the minstreys & the people raginge / he sayde vnto them: get you hence / for the mayde is not deed / but slepeth. And they laughed him to scozne. As sone as the people were put forth / he went in & toke her by the hande / and the mayde arose. And this was noyed through out all that lande.

¶ And as Iesus departed thence / two blynde men folowed hym crying and sayinge: O thou sonne of Dauid haue mercy on vs. And when he was come home / the blinde came to him. And Iesus sayde vnto them: Beleue ye are cured. that I am able to do this: And they sayde vnto hym: ye Lord. Then touched he their eyes / sayinge: accordynge to youre fayth be it vnto you. And their eyes were opened. And Jesus charged them sayinge: Se that no man knowe of it. But they as sone as they were departed / spreed abroad his name through out all the lande.

¶ As they went out / beholde / they brought to him a dome man possessed of a deuyl. And as sone as the deuyl was cast out / the domine spake. And the people marueled / sayinge: it was neuer so sene in Israel. But the Phari-ses sayde: he casteth oute deuyls / by the power of the chiefe deuyl.

thankfull cyties and louyngly exhorteth men to take his yoke vpon them.

The .xi. Chapter.

And it came to passe whe Iesus had made an ende of commaundenge his .xij. disciples / that he departed thence / to teache and to preache in their cyties.

¶ When Iohn beyng in p̄eson hearde the woordes of Christ/ he sent two of his disciples and sayde vnto him. Arte thou he þ̄ shall come: or shall we loke for another Iesus answered and sayde vnto them. Go and shewe Iohn what ye haue hearde & sene. The byndse/ the halt go/ the lepers are clyented: the deef heare/ the deef ryse agayne/ and the glad tydings is p̄ached to the poore. And happy is he that is not offended by me.

And as they departed / Iesus begane to speake vnto the people of Iohn. To se what went ye out into the wylderners? wēt ye ou to se a * rede shaken wyth the wynde? other what went ye out for to se? A man clothed in lookte raymēt: Beholde they þ̄ weare lookte clothing are in kyngs houses. But what wēt ye out for to se? A prophete. Ye I saye to you and moze then a Prophete. For thys is he of whom it is wrytte. Beholde / I sende my mes senger before thy face / whych shall prepare thy waye before the. F

¶ Merely I saye vnto you, amōge the children of women arose there not a gretter then John the Baptist. Notwithstandyng he that is lesse* in the kyngdome of heuen / is gretter then he. From the tyme of John Baptist hytherto the kyngedome of heuen suffreth byolence / and they that goo to it with byolence pluck it vnto them. For all the Prophetes & the lawe prophesied vnto the tyme of John.
And also yf ye wyll receaue it / thys is De-ilas which shuld come. He that hath eares to heare let him heare. ¶

But wher vnto shall I lyken this generacion: ^b* It is lyke vnto chyldren which crye in the market and call vnto their felowes / and saye: we haue ypped vnto you / & ye haue not daunced: We haue mourned vnto you / & ye haue not sorowed. For John came nether eatinge nor drynkyng / and they saye / he hath the dewyll. & the sonne of man came eatyng & and drynckinge / and they saye / beholde a glutton and dryncker of wyne / and a frende vnto publicans and synners. Neuerthelater

¶ Then began he to bpbzayd þ̃ cyties / in which most of hys myracles were done / because they mended not. Wo be to the Chorazin. Wo be to þ̃ Bethsaida: for yf þ̃ myracles which were shewed in you / had bene done in Tyre and Sidon / they had repented longe agoone in sack cloth & ashes. Neuerthelesse I saye to you: it shal be easier for Tyre & Sidon at the daye of iudgement / then for you. And thou Capernaum / which art lyft vp by heuen / shalt be broughed downe to hell. For yf the myracles which haue bene done in þ̃ / had bene shewed in Zodom: they had remained to this daye. Neuerthelesse I saye vnto you: it shal be easier for the land of Zodom in the daye of iudgement / then for the.

¶ At that tyme Iesus answered and sayde:
I prayse the o father Lord of heuē and erth/because thou hast hid these thynges from the wyse and prudent/and hast opened the vnto babes: euē so father/for so it pleased the. All knewe not. thynges are geue vnto me of my father. And noma knoweth y sonne but thy father: nether knoweth eny mā the father / saue the sonne/and he to whome the sonne wyll open him.

Come vnto me all ye that ^{be} laboure & are ladē and I will ease you. Take my yocke on

The .xij. Chapter.

At that tyme Iesus went on þe Sab-both dayes thorow the corne and hys disciples were an hongred / & began to plucke þe eares of corne / & to eate. Whē þe Pharises sawe þe / they sayde vnto him: Beholde / thy disciples do þe which is not lawfull to do vpon the Saboth daye.
He sayde vnto them. Haue ye not read what Dauid byd / whē he was an hongred / & they also which were with him: How he entred in to the house of God / & ate the halowed loues whych were not lawfull for hym to eate nether for the which were with hym / but only for þe prestes. Or haue ye not read in þe lawe / how þe prestes in the temple breake the Saboth daye / and yet are blamelesse? But I saye vnto you: that here is one greater then þe temple. Wherfoze yf ye had myght what I saye meanieth: I require mercy / & not sacrifice: ye wold neuer haue cōdemned innocēt.
For þe sonne of mā is lord euē of þe Saboth daye.

The Gospel

Taxes are expounded.

And the chyldren of the kyngdome / they are the good seed. And the tares are the chyldren of the wycked. And the enemye that soweth them / is the deuyll. The haruest is the ende of the worlde. And the reapers be the Angels. For euen as the tares are gathered & bzent in the fyre : so shall it be in the ende of thys worlde. *The sonne of man shall sende forth his Angels / and they shall gather out of his kyngdome all thynges that offende / and the which do iniquite / and shall cast them into a furnes of fyre. There shall be waylinge and gnashyng of teth. *Then shall the iuste men shine as bryght as the sonne in the kyngdom of their father. Whosoever hath eares to heare / let him heare.

*Agayne the kyngdom of heauen is lyke vnto treasure hydde in the felde / the whych a man fyndeth and hydeth : and for love therof goeth & selleth all he hath / & byeth he felde. Agayne the kyngdome of heauen is lyke to a marchant that seketh good pearles / which whē he had founde one p̄cious pearle / wēt and solde all that he had / and bought it.

Agayne the kyngdom of heauen is lyke vnto a neet cast in to the see / he geathereth of all kyndes of fyshes : which when it is full / men drawe to lande / & fyte & geather he good in to vessels / & cast the bad awaye. So shall it be at the ende of the worlde. The Angels shall come oute & seuer the bad from the good / & shall cast the into a furnes of fyre : there shall be waylinge and gnashyng of teth.

Jesus sayde vnto them. vnderstande ye all these thynges. They sayde : ye Lorde. Then sayde he vnto them : Wherefore euery scribe whiche is taught vnto the kyngdome of heauen is lyke an housholder / which byngeth forth / out of his treasure / thynges bothe newe and olde.

And it came to passe whē Jesus had synicled these similitudes / he departed thence / & came in to his awne countre / & taught the in their synagoges / in so moche he they were astonyed and sayde : whence cometh all this wysdome & power vnto him ? Is not this the Carpenters sonne ? Is not his mother called Mary ? and his byethzen be called James & Joscs and Simon and Judas ? And are not his systers all here with vs ? Whence hath he all these thynges. And they were offended by hym. Then Jesus sayde to them / a prophete is not without honoure / saue in his awne countre / and amonge his awne kynne. And he did not many myracles there / for there be lefles sake

John is taken and headed. Christ sedeth syue thou. sande men with. v. louses and two fyshes / and appeareth by nyght vnto his disciples vpon the see.

¶ The xliij. Chapter.

At that tyme Herode the tetrarche cha hearde of the fame of Jesu and sayde vnto his seruantes : this is John the Baptiste. He is synen a gayne from deeth and therfore are soche myracles wrought by him. For Herode had taken John / & bound him / & put him in prison for the sake of his wyfe Herodias sake / his brother Philipps wyfe. For John sayd vnto him : it is not lawfull for the to haue her. And when he wold haue put hym to deeth / he feared the people / because they counted him as a prophet.

But when Herodes byrth daye was come the daughter of Herodias dancid before the / & pleased Herode. Wherefore he promysed to an othe / that he wolde geue her whatsoeuer she wolde aske. And she beyng informed of her mother before / sayde : geue me here John Baptistes heed in a platter. And the kynge sorowed. Neuerthelesse for his othes sake / & for their sakes which sate also at the table / he commaunded it to be geuen her : & sent & beheaded John in the prison / and his heed was brought in a platter and geue to the damsell / and she brought it to her mother. And his disciples came and toke by his body / & buried it : and went and tolde Jesus.

When Jesus hearde he departed thence by shyppe into a desert place out of the waye. And when the people had hearde therof / they folowed hym a fote oute of their cyties. And Jesus went forth & sawe moche people / and his herte dyd misle vpon them / and he healed of the those that were sycke. When eue was come / his disciples came to him saying : thys is a deserte place / & the daye is spent : let the people departe / that they maye go in to the towne / and bye them bytalles. But Jesus sayde to them : They haue no neade to go awaye. Geue ye them to eate. Then sayde they vnto him : we haue here but. v. louses and two fyshes. And he sayde : bynge the hyther. And he commaunded the people to syt downe on the grasse / and toke the. v. louses & the. ii. fyshes / & looked vnto heauen and blessed & brake & gaue the louses to his disciples / & the disciples gaue the to the people. And they dyd all eate / & were sufficed. And they gathered by of the gobets that remayned. xij. baskets full. And they that ate / were in nombze about. v. men / besyde women and chyldzen.

*And streyght waye Jesus made his disciples enter into a shippe / and to goo ouer he : & he went by into a mountayne alone to praye. And whē night was come / he was there him selfe alone. And the shyppe was now in the middes of the see / and was toost with waues / for it was a contrary wynde. *And in the fourth watche watche of the nyght Jesus cam vnto them partyng the see. And when his disciples sawe hym walchynge on the see / they were troubled / saying : it is some spyte / and cryed out for feare. And streyght waye Jesus spake vnto them sayinge : be of good cheare / it is I / be not afayed.

Peter answered him / and sayd : master / yf thou be he / byd me to come vnto the on the water. And he sayd : come. And when Peter was come doune out of the shippe / he walched on the water / to go to Jesus. But when he sawe a myghty wynde / he was afayed. And as he beganne to syncke / he cryed sayinge : master saue me. And immediatly Jesus stretched forth his hand / & caught him / & sayd to him : Thou of lytell fayth / wherfore diddest thou dout ? And as they were come into the shippe / the wynde ceased. Then they he were in the shyppe / came and wooshypped hym / sayinge : of a truthe thou arte the sonne of God. And when they were come ouer / they went into the lande of Genazareth. And when the men of the place had knowledge of him / they sent out into all that countre rounde about / and brought vnto him all that were sycke / & besought him / that they myght touche the hemme of his vesture only. And as many as touched it were made safe.

¶ The xlv. Chapter. ¶ Then came to Jesus Scribes and Pharises from Jerusalem saying : why do thy disciples transgresse thy tradicions of the elders ? for they welsh not their handes when they eate byed. He answered & sayde vnto them : why do ye al so transgresse the commaundment of God / thowowt poure tradicions ? For God commaunded sayinge : honoure thy father & mother and he that curseth father or mother shall suffer deeth. But ye saye / euery mā shall saye to his father or mother : that which thou desyrest of me to helpe the with : is geue God : & so shall he not honoure his father or his mother. And thus haue ye made / that the commaundment of God is without effecte / thowowt poure tradicions. Ypocrites / wel prophesied of you Esayas sayinge : this people draweth nye vnto me with their mouthes / & honoureth me with their lippes / how be it their hertes are farre from me : but in hayne they wooshypp me teachynge doctrines / which are nothyng but mens precepts.

And he called the people vnto him / & sayd to them : heare and vnderstande. That which goeth into the mouth / defyleth not the man : but that which cometh out of the mouth / defyleth the man.

¶ Then came his disciples / and sayde vnto him : Perceuest thou not / how that the pharises are offended in hearing this sayinge ? He answered and sayde : all plantes which my heavenly father hath not planted / shall be plucked by the rotes. Let the alone / they be of the blynde leaders of the blynde. If the blynde leade the blynde / both shall fall into the dyche.

¶ Then answered Peter & sayd to him : declare vnto vs this parable. Then sayde Jesus : are ye yet without vnderstandinge ? perceauye not / whatsoeuer goeth in at the mouth / descendeth doune into the bely / & is cast oute into the draught : But those thynges which procede out of the mouth / come fro the herte / and they defyle the man. For out of the herte come euill thoughtes / murder / breakyng of wedlocke / whordom / thefte / false witnes / bynge / blasphemye. These are the thynges which defyle a man. But to eate with vnwashed handes / defyleth not a man.

¶ And Jesus went thence / & departed into the costes of Tyre and Sydon. And beholde a woman which was a Cananite cam out of the same costes / & cryed vnto hym sayinge : haue mercy on me Lorde thou sonne of Dauid / my daughter is p̄teously vexed with a deuyll. And he gaue her neuer a worde to answer. Then cam to him his disciples / and besought him sayinge : sende her awaye / for she foloweth vs cryyng. He answered / & sayde : I am not sent / but vnto the lost shepe of the house of Israel. Then she cam & wooshypped him / sayinge : master helpe me. He answered & sayde : it is not good / to take the chyldzens byedde / and to cast it to the dogges. She answered & sayde : truthe Lorde / neuerthelesse the dogges eate of the cromes / which fall fro their masters table. Then Jesus answered & sayde vnto her. O womā greate is thy fayth / theyr praye be it to the / euen as thou desyrest. And her daughter was made whole euen at that same houre.

¶ Then Jesus went awaye from thence / & cam nye vnto the see of Galilee / & went by in to a mountayne & sat doune there. And moche people came vnto him / hauinge with them / halt / blynde / donne / maymed / and other many : and cast them doune at Jesus fete. And he healed them / in so moche that the people wōdred / to se the the dome speake / the maymed whole / the halt to go / & the blynde to se. And they glorified the God of Israel.

¶ Then Jesus called his disciples to him / & sayde : I haue compassyon on the people because cause they haue continued with me now. iij. dayes / & haue nought to eate: and I will not let the departe fastynge / lest they peryshe in the waye. And his disciples sayd vnto him: whence shulde we get so moche breade in the wyldernes / as shuld suffice to greate a multitude? And Iesus sayde vnto them: how many lounes haue ye? And they sayde: seuen / and a leawe lytle fyshes. And he commaunded the people to syt doune on the grounde: and toke 7 leue lounes / & the fyshes / & gaue thankes / and brake them / and gaue to his disciples / & the disciples gaue them to the people. And they dyd all eate and were suffysed. And they toke vp of the broken meate that was lefte by. baskettes full. And yet they that ate were iij. M. men / besyde women and chyldre. And he sent awaye the people / and toke shyppe & came into the parties of Magdala.

The Pharises requyre a token. Iesus warneth his disciples of the Pharises doctrine. The confession of Peter. The keyes of heauen. The saythfull must beate the crosse after Christ.

The xviij. Chapter.

When cam the Pharises and Sadduces / & dyd tempte him / despyng him to shewe them some sygne fro heuen. He answered & sayde vnto them. * At euen ye saye / we shall haue sayre wedder and that because the skye is reed: and in the mornynge ye saye / to daye shalbe soule wedder / and that because the skye is cloudy & reed. * Ye pprophete / ye can discerne 7 falsyon of the skye: & can ye not discerne the signes of the tymes? The stowarde nacion & aduoutrous seketh a sygne / & there shall no nother sygne be geue vnto the but 7 sygne of 7 * Prophet Jonas. So leste he the & departed.

And when his disciples were come to the other syde of the water / they had forgottē to take bread with the. Then Iesus sayde vnto them: Take hede & beware of the * leue of 7 Pharises & of 7 Sadduces. And they thought in the selues sayng: because we haue brought no bread wth vs. When Iesus vnderstode that / he sayd vnto them. * Ye of lytell faith / why are youre myndes cumbered because ye haue brought no bread? * Doe ye not yet perceauē / neither remember those. b. lounes when there were. b. M. men / & how many baskettes toke ye vp? * Neither the. b. lounes whē there were iij. M. & how many baskettes toke ye vp? * Why perceauē ye not then / that I spake not vnto you of bread / when I sayde / beware of the leue of the Pharises & of the Sadduces? Then vnderstode they / how that he had not the beware of the leue of bread: but of 7 doctrine of the Pharises / and of the Sadduces.

When Iesus cam into the coostes of the cite which is called Cesarea Philippi / he asked his disciples sayng: who do men saye 7 the sonne of man am? They sayde / some saye that thou arte John Baptyst / some Elias / some Jeremias / or one of 7 prophetes. He sayde vnto the: but whom saye ye that I am? Simon Peter answered & sayde: * Thou arte Christ 7 sonne of the lyvinge God. And Iesus answered & sayde to hym: happy arte thou Simon 7 sonne of Jonas / for thou arte the bloudhath not opened vnto 7 that / but my father which is in heuē. And I saye also vnto 7 7 thou arte Peter: & * vpon this roche I will blyde my congregaciō. And the gates of hell shall not pteuayle agaynst it. And I wil geue vnto the / the keyes of the kyngdō of heuē: whatsoeuer thou byndest vpon erth / shall be bynde in heuē: & whatsoeuer thou loosest on erth / shalbe loosed in heuē.

Then he charged his disciples / that they shulde tell no mā / that he was Iesus Christ. From that tyme forth Iesus began to shewe vnto his disciples / how that he must go vnto Jerusalem / & suffer many thinges of the elders / & of the hye prestes / & of the Scribes / & must be kylled / & ryle agayne 7 thyrde daye. But Peter toke him a syde / and began to rebuke him sayng: master sauer thy selfe / this shall not come vnto 7. Then turned he aboute / & sayde vnto Peter: come after me Satan / thou offendest me / because thou sauourest not godly thinges / but worldly thinges.

Iesus then sayde to his disciples. If eny mā wil folowe me / let him forsake him selfe / & take vp his crosse and folowe me. For who soeuer will saue his lyfe / shall lose it. And who soeuer shall lose his lyfe for my sake / shall fynde it. What shall it pproffite a man / if he shulde wyne all the world / & lose his soule? Or els what shal a man geue to redeme his soule agayne with all? For the sonne of man shall come in the gloze of his father / with his angels: & then shall he rewarde euery mā accordyng to his debes. * weryly I saye vnto you / some ther be amonge them that here stande / whych shall not taste of deeth / tyll they shall se the sonne of man come in his kyngdome.

The transfiguration of Christ vpon the mount of Calvary. He healeth the lunatyke / & payeth tribute.

The xviij. Chapter.

After. vi. dayes Iesus toke Peter and James & John his brother / & brought the vp into an hye mount / & was transfigured before them: and his face dyd shyne as the sunne / and his clothes were as whyte as 7 lyght. And beholde they appered vnto the / Moses & Elias / talkyng wth him. Then answered Peter & sayd to Iesus: master here here is good beyng for vs. If thou wilt / leet vs make here. iij. tabernacles / one for the / & one for Moses / & one for Elias. Whyl he yet spake / beholde a bright cloude shadowed the. And * beholde there came a voyce out of that cloude sayng: this is my deare sonne / in whom I deylte / heare him. And when the disciples hearde that / they fell on their faces and were soore afrayed. And Iesus came & touched them / and sayde: arylse and be not afrayed. And when they looked vp / they saw no man / saue Iesus only.

And as they came doune from the mountayne / Iesus charged them sayng: se that ye shewe the vision to no man / vntyll the sonne of man be rylen agayne from deeth. * And his disciples asked of him / sayng: * Why then saye 7 Scribes / 7 Elias muste fyrst come? Iesus answered & sayde vnto them: Elias shall fyrst come / and restore all thynges. And I saye vnto you that Elias is come already / and they knewe him not: but haue done vnto hym whatsoeuer they lusted. In lykwys shall also the sonne of mā suffre of the. Then the disciples perceaued 7 he spake vnto the of John Baptyst. And when they were come to the people / ther came to hym a certayne man / and kneled doune to him / & sayd: Master haue mercy on my sonne for he is lunatike: & is soze bered. And oft tyme he falleth into the fyre / and oft into the water. * And I brought hym to thy disciples / & they coude not heale him. Iesus answered & sayd: O generation saythles & croked: how longe shall I be with you: how longe shall I suffre you? bring him hyther to me. And Iesus rebuked the deuyll / & he cam out of him. And 7 childe was healed euen that same houre.

Then came 7 disciples to Iesus secretly / & sayde: why coude not we cast him out? Iesus sayd vnto the: Because of your vnbelefe. For I saye verely vnto you: * yf ye had faith as a grayne of musterd seed / ye shulde saye vnto this mountayne / remoue hence to yonder place / & he shuld remoue: nether shuld eny thinge be impossible for you to do. How be it this kynde goeth not out / but by prayer and fasting. As they passed the tyme in Galile / Iesus sayde vnto the: * the sonne of man shal be betrayed into the handes of men / and they shall kyl him / & the thyrde daye shall he ryle agayne. And they sorowed greatly.

* And when they were come to Capernaum / they that were wont to geather polle money / cam to Peter & sayd: Doth your master paye tribute? He sayde: ye. And whē he was come into the house / Iesus spake fyrst to hym / sayng: What thinkest thou Simon? of who do 7 kynges of the erth take tribute of polle money? of their chyldren / or of straungers?

Peter sayde vnto him: of straungers. Then sayd Iesus vnto him agayne: Then are 7 chyldren fre. Neuerthelesse: lest we shuld offende the: go to 7 see / & cast in thyne angle / & take the fyrste 7 fyrst cometh vp: & whē thou hast opened his mouth / thou shalt fynde a pece of twentie pence: 7 take & paye for me & the.

The teacheth his disciples to be humble & harmeles: to auoyde occasyons of euell / and one to forgeue and thers offence.

The xviij. Chapter.

In the same tyme the disciples came vnto Iesus sayng: * who is the greatest in the kyngdō of heuē? Iesus called a chyld vnto him / & set him in the middes of them / & sayde: weryly I saye vnto you: * except ye tourne / & become as chyldren / ye cannot enter in to the kyngdō of heuē. Whosoever therfore humble him selfe as this chyld / the same is the greatest in the kyngdō of heuē. And whosoever receaueth suche a chyld in my name / receaueth me. * But whosoever offende one of these lytelons / which beleue in me: it were better for him that a myllstone were hanged aboute his necke / & that he were drowned in 7 depthe of the see. Wo be vnto the world because of offentes. How be it / it canot be auoyded but 7 offentes shalbe geue. Neuerthelesse wo be to the man / by whom the offence cometh.

Wherfore yf thy hande or thy fote offende the: * cut him of & cast him from the. It is better for the to enter into lyfe halt or maymed / rather then thou shuldest hauingetwo handes or two fete / be cast into euerlastyng fyre. And yf also thyne eye offende the / plucke hyt oute & caste hyt fro the. It is better for 7 to enter into lyfe with one eye / then hauing two eyes to be cast into hell fyre. Se 7 ye despyse not one of these lytelones. For I saye vnto you / that in heuē their angels alwayes beholde the face of my father / which is in heuē. * Ye & 7 sonne of man is come to saue that which is lost. How thinke ye? If a man haue an hundred shepe / & a one of them be gone astray / doth he not leue nynty & nyne in the mountayns / & go & seke that one which is gone astray? * If it happē that he fynd him / verely I saye vnto you: he reioyseth more of 7 shepe / then of 7 nynty & nyne which wēt not astray. Eue so it is not the wyll of your father in heuē / that one of these lytelons shulde peryshe.

* Moreover * yf thy brother trespass agaynst the. Go & tell him his faute betwene him and the alone. If he heare the / thou hast wone thy brother: But yf ye heare the not / then take yet wth 7 one or two / 7 * in 7 mouth / if he heare not the / tell it vnto 7 congregacion. If he heare not the congregacion / one of his felowes which ought him an hundred pence / and leyed handes on him / & toke him by the throte / sayng: paye me that thou owest. And his felowe fell doune & besought him sayng: haue pacience with me / & I will paye ¶ all. And he wolde not but wēt & cast him into prison / tyll he shulde paye the det.

 Whē his other felow sawe what was done / they were very sorry / and came and tolde vnto their Lorde all that had happened. Then his Lorde called him and sayd vnto him. ¶ Whyll seruant I forgaue the all that det / because thou praydest me: was it not mete also that thou shuldest haue had compassion on thy felow / eue as I had ptye on the? And his Lorde was wrooth / & deliuered him to the saylers / tyll he shuld paye all that was due to hym.
 So I saye vnto you / that whiche soeuer shall my heuēly father do vnto you / except ye forgeue with youre hertes / eache one to his brother their trespasses.

¶ This teacheth by a synnitytude that God is better his labour. He teacheth his disciples to be lowlye / & geueth two blynde men their syght.

 why dyd Moses comaunde to geue a testimo-niall of dyuorcement and to put her awaye?
 He sayde vnto them: Moses because of the hardnes of youre hertes suffered you to put awaye youre wyfes: But fro the begynning it was not so. I saye therfore vnto you / who-th medlocke. And whosoever marieth her which is dyuorced / doeth comyt aduouty.

Then sayde his disciples to him: yf the ma-good to mary. He sayde vnto the: all men can not awaye with that sayinge saue they to who it is geuen. Ther are chaste / which were so bozne out of their mothers belly. And ther are chaste / which be made of men. And ther be chaste / which haue made them selues chaste for the kyngdom of heuē sake. He that to him yonge chyldren / that he shuld put his buked them. But Iesus sayde: suffer ¶ chyldre & forbid them not to come to me: for of such is the kyngdom of heuē. And when he had put his handes on them he departed thence.

And beholde one came / & sayde vnto hym:

 uer hym to the gentyls / to be mocked / to be scourged / and to be crucified: and the thirde

Then came to him ¶ mother of Zebedes chyldre with her sonnes / ¶ wo: whyping him & despyng a certayne thyng of him. And he sayde vnto her: what wilt thou haue? She sayde vnto him: Graunte that these my two sonnes may sit / the one on thy ryght hande & the other on the lyfte hand in thy kyngdom.

Iesus answered & sayde: Ye wot not what ye aske. Are ye able to drynke of the cuppe I shall drynke of / and to be baptised with baptyme / that I shall be baptised with? They answered to him / that we are. And he sayde vnto the: Ye shall drynke of my cup & shall be baptised with the baptyme that I shall be baptised with. But to sit on my right hande & on my lyft hand / is not myne to geue: but to the for whom it is prepared of my father.

And whē the ten hearde this / they dysaned at the two brethre: But Iesus called the shulde holde their peace. But they cryed the

The xx. Chapter.
 B. J. When

Mark. xxi. a. Luke. xix. c. When they drew nye unto Jerusalem. & were come to Bethpha-ge/bnto moate. Dyete: then sent Jesus two of his disciples/ saying to the. Go into the towne & Iyeth ouer agaynst you/ & anone ye shall fynde an asse bounde/ & her colte with her: lose the & bryng the bnto me. And yf eny mā saye ought vnto you/ saye ye & the Lorde hath meade of the: & streyght waye he will let the go. All this was done/ to fulfyll & which was spokē by the prophete/sayig: Tell ye & daughter of Sion: beholde thy kyng cometh vnto the/ meke & syttinge vpon an asse & a colte/ & sole of an asse bled to the poche. The disciples wēt & dyd as Jesus comaunded the/ & brought the asse & & colte/& put on the thei clothes/ & sett him thereon.
And many of & people spreed their garmētes in & waye. Other cut doune bzaunches frō & trees/ & strawed the in & waye. Moreouer the people & wēt before/ & they also & came after/ cryed sayig: Hosanna to the sonne of Dauid. Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the Lorde. * Hosanna in the hyst. I And whē he was come to Jeru sale/ all the cittie was moued sayig: who is this? And the people sayde: this is Jesus & Prophet of Nazareth a cytie of Galile. And Jesus wēt in to the tēple of God/ & cast out all the & soule & bought in & tēple/ & ouerthrow the tables of & mony chaungers/ & the seates of the & solde dones/ & sayde to the: It is wyttē/ my house shalbe called & house of prayer. But ye haue made it a denne of theues. And & blynde & the halt came to him in & tēple/ & he healed the.
When the chiefe prestes & Scribes sawe & marueyles & he dyd/ & the chylde cryinge in the tēple & sayig: Hosanna to & sonne of Dauid/ they dysdayned/ & sayd vnto him: hea-rest thou what these saye? Jesus sayde vnto the yee: haue ye neuer redde/ of the mouth of babes and suckelinges thou halte ordeyned prayer? And he lefte the/ & went out of & citie vnto Bethanīe/ & had his abydinge there. I
In & moynynge as he returned into & citie agayne/ he hungred/ & spyed a & fygge tree theron/ but leues only/ and sayde to it/ neuer frute growe on & hence forthward. And anon the fygge tree wyddered awaye. And whē his disciples sawe & / they marueled sayig. How sone is the fygge tree wyddered awaye? Jesus answered/ & sayd vnto the: verely I saye vnto you/ yf ye shall haue faith and shall not dout ye shall not only do & which I haue done to & fygge tree: but also yf ye shall saye vnto this moystayne/ take thy selfe awaye/ & cast thy selfe into & see/ it shalbe done. And whatsoeuer ye shall aske in prayer (yf ye beleue) ye shall receaue it.

And when he was come in to & tēple/ the chefe prestes & the elders of & people/ came vnto him as he was teachinge/ and sayde by what auctorite doest thou these things? and who gaue the this power? Jesus answered/ & sayde vnto the: I also wyll aske of you a cer-tayne questio/ which yf ye aswoyle me/ I in Iy hewyle will tell you by what auctorite I do these thynges. The baptime of Joh: : whēce was it: frō heuē or * of mē? Then they reasoned amōge the selues sayig: yf we shall saye frō heuē/ he will saye vnto vs: why dyd ye not then beleue him? But & yf we shall saye/ of men/ then feare we & people. For all mē helde Joh: as a prophet. And they answered Jesus & sayd: we canot tell. And he likewyle sayd vnto the: nether tell I you by what auctorite I do these thynges. I what saye ye to this? A certayne mā had two sonns/ & came to & elder & sayde: sonne go & worke to daye in my vynegarde. He answered & sayd/ I will not: but afterward repented & wēt. Then cam he to & seconde/ & sayd lyke wise. And he answered & sayde: I will y: yet wēt not. Whether of the two yne dyd & will of & fathr? And they sayd vnto him: & fyrst. Jesus sayd vnto the: verely I saye vnto you & the publicans & & harlots shall come into & kyngdō of God before you.
For Joh: cam vnto you in & waye of righte-wines/ & ye beleued him not. But & publicans & & harlots beleued him. And yet ye (though ye sawe it) were not yet moued to repētance/& ye might afterwarde haue beleued him. I Herken another similitude. * Ther was a certayne housholder / which planted a vynegarde/ & hedged it rounde about & made a wynepresse in it/ & bilt a tower/ & let it out to husbandmen/ & wēt into a straung countre.
And whē the tyme of the frute drew neare/he sent his seruantes to & husbandmen to re-ceauē & frute of it. And & husbandmen caught his seruantes/ & bet one/ killed another/ and stoned another. Agayne he sent other seruantes/ moo then & fyrst: & they serued the lyke-wyle. But last of all / he sent vnto them hys awne sonne sayig: they will feare my sonne.
But whē & husbandmen sawe the sonne/ they sayd amōge the selues. * This is & heyre: come/let vs kill him/ & let vs take his inheritaunce to oure selues. And they caught him & thrust him out of & vinegarde/ & stowe him. Whē & Lord of & vinegarde cometh/ what will he do to those husbandmen? They sayd vnto him: he will cruellye destroye those euyl persons / & will let out his vinegarde vnto other husbandmē/ which shall deliuer him & frute attymes couenient. Jesus sayd vnto the: dyd ye neuer reade in & scriptur: the stone which & bylders refused/ & same is set in & principall part of & corner: this was the Lorde doinge/ & it is met.

Ismenelous in oure eyes. Therfore saye I vnto you/ the kyngdome of God shalbe take from you/ and shalbe geuen to the Gentyls/which shall bryng forth the frutes of it. And whosoener shall fall on this stone/ he shalbe broken/ but on whosoener it shall fall vpon/it will grynde him to powder. And when the chefe prestes and pharises hearde these symylytudes/ they perceaued that he spake of them. * And they went about to laye handes on him/ but they feared the people / because they tooke him as a Prophet. I The marriage of the kynges sonne. Trybute to be geuen to the Emperour. This confuteth the opinion of the Saduces concerning & resurreccio/ and answereth the Scribe vnto his question.
The xxii. Chapter.
Jesus answered/ and spake vnto them agayne / in synlytudes/sayig. * The kyngdome of heuē is lyke vnto a certayne kyng / which maryed his sonne/ & sent forth his ser-uautes/ to call the that were byd to & weddyng/ and they wolde not come. Agayne he sent forth other seruantes/ sayig. Tell the which are bydden: beholde I haue prepared my dynner/ myne oxen & my fatlynges are kylled/ & all thynges are redy/ come vnto the marriage. But they made lyght of it / & went their wayes: one to his ferme place/ another about his marchaundise/ the remnaunt toke his seruantes & intreated the vngodly and stewe the. When the kyng hearde & / he was wroth/ & send forth his warrpers & destroyed those murtherers/ and bzent by their cytie.
Then sayde he to his seruantes: the weddyng was prepared. But they which were byddē/ were not worthy. Soo ye therfore out into the hys wayes/ and as many as ye fynde byd the to the marriage. The seruantes wēt out into the hys wayes/ & gathered to gether as many as they coude fynde/ both good and bad/ and the weddinge was furnished wyth gestes. Then the kyng came in/ to vplet the gestes/ & spyed there a mā which had not on weddyng garment / & sayde vnto hym: frende/ how fortunēd it & thou camest in hy-ther & hast not on a weddinge garmēt? And he was euē spechlesse. Then sayde & kyng to his ministers: take & bynde him hand & fote/and caste him into vtter darchnes/ there shal be wepyng & gnashynge of teth. For many are called and fewe be chosen. I * Then wēt the pharises & toke coucell how they myght tangle hym in hys wordes.
And they sent vnto him their disciples wyth Herodes seruantes sayig: * Master / we knowe & thou art true / & teachest the waye of God truly/ nether carest for eny man/ for thou cōspyrest not mēns estate. Tell vs therfore: how thynkest thou? Is it lawfull to geue trybute vnto Cesar or not? Jesus perceaued their wychednes/ & sayde: Why tepte ye me ye ypocrites? Let me se & trybute money. And they toke him a peny. And he sayde vnto the: whose is this Image & superscrip-ciō? They sayd vnto him: Cesar. Then sayde he vnto the: Geue therfore to Cesar/ & which is Cesar: and geue vnto God/ that which is Goddes. I When they hearde that/ they mar-ueled/ and left him/ and went their waye.
The same daye the Saduces came to him (which saye that there is no resurreccyon) & asked him sayig: Master/ Moyses bade/ yf a man dye hauynge no chyliden/ that the brother mary his wyfe / and reple by seed vnto hys brother. Ther were with vs leuē bzythē & the fyrste married & deceased without yssue & lefte his wyfe vnto his brother. Lykewyle the seconde and the thirde vnto the seuenth.
Laste of all the woman dyed also. Now in & resurreccyon whose wyfe shall she be of the seuen? For all had her. Jesus answered and sayde vnto them: ye are deceaued and vnder-standenot the scriptures / nor yet the power of God. For in the resurreccyon they nether mary nor are maryed: but are as the Angells

As touchyng the resurreccyon of the deed:

Isaacs God/ and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the deed: but of the lyuynge.
And when the people hearde that / they were astonyed at his doctryne.

This is the fyrst and the chefe commaunde-

Loue thyne neybour as thy selfe. In these two commaundementes hange all the lawe

Whyll the pharises were gathered toge-

ter their woordes do not: for they saye / and do not: they bynde heuy burthens and greuous to be bozne / & ley the on mēnes shoulders: but they the selves will not heaue at the end of their fyngers. All their woordes they do / for to be seene of mē. They set abroade their phylacteries / & make large borders on their garmentes / & loue to sytt byppermoste at feastes and to haue the chiefe seates in the syn-agoges / and greetynge in the markettes / & to be called of men Rabbi.

But ye shall not suffice youre selues to be called Rabbi: for one is youre maker / that keth of the that is to wit Christ / and all ye are brethren. And do truly teache call no man youre father vpon the erthe: for there is but one your father / & he is in heaue.
Be not called masters: for there is but one master in the celes: he is Christ. He is the greatest of amōge you: shalbe youre seruaut. But who men. And euen soeuer exalteth hym selfe / shalbe brought lowe. And he shūmbleth hym selfe / shalbe exalted. Do be vnto you Scribes & Phari- gospell though of heaue befoze men: ye youre selues go not in: nether suffre ye the that come to enter in.

Do be vnto you Scribes & Pharises / ypocrites: ye deuoure widowes houses: & that gaspeth: wherfore ye shall receaue greater dānaciō.
Do be vnto you Scribes and Pharises ypocrites: whych compasse see and lande / to exerceysing vpon bypunge one into youre belefe: and whē he is brought ye make hym two folde moare the chylde of hell / then ye youre selues are.

Do be vnto you bynde gydes / which saye whosoever sweareth by the temple: it is nothyng: but whosoever sweareth by the golde of the temple / he offendeth. Ye soles & bynde: whether is greater / the gold or the tēple that sanctifieth the gold? And whosoever sweareth by the aultre / it is nothyng: but whosoever sweareth by the offering that lyeth on the aulter / he offendeth. Ye soles and bynde: whether is greater the offering / or the aultre which sanctifieth the offering? Whosoever therfore sweareth by the aultre / sweareth by it / and by all that there on is. And whosoever sweareth by the temple / sweareth by it / & by him that dwelleth therein. And he shal sweareth by heauen sweareth by the seate of God & by him that sitteth thereon.

Do be to you Scribes & Pharises ypocrites / which tyth mynt / anyle / & conyn / and leauē the wayghter matters of the lawe byn-done: iudgement / mercy / & fayth. These ought ye to haue done / & not to haue left the other byndone. Ye bynde gydes which strayne out a gnat and swallowe a cammell.

Do be to you Scribes & Pharises ypocrites: which make cleane the vtter syde of the cuppe / & of the platter: but wythin they are full of bypbery & excesse. Thou bynde Pha-rise / cleanse thyselfe bynne of the cup & platter: that the outersyde of the maye be cleane also.

Do be to you Scribes & Pharises ypocrites: for ye are lyke vnto paynted tombes which appere beautifull outwarde: but are wythin full of deed bones & of all fylthynes.
So are ye / for outward ye appere righteous vnto men: whē wythin ye are full of ypocrisy and iniquite.

Do be vnto you Scribes & Pharises ypocrites: ye bylde the tombes of the prophetes / & garnishē the sepulchres of the ryghteous / & saye: yf we had bene in the dayes of oure fathers / we wolde not haue bene parteners w the in the bloude of the prophetes. So then ye be wytnesses vnto youre selues / & ye are the chyliden of the which kylled the prophetes.
Fulfil ye likewise the measure of youre fathers. Ye serpētes & generaciō of bypers / how shuld ye scape the dampnaciō of hell:

Wherfore / beholde I sende vnto you prophetes / wyle men & scribes / of them ye shall kylle & crucifye: and of the ye shall scourge in your synagoges / and persecute fro cytie to cytie: that vpon you maye come all the ryghteous bloude that was shed vpon the erthe / fro the bloude of ryghteous Abel / vnto that bloude of Zacharias the sonne of Barachias / whō ye slewe betwene the tēple & the aultre.
Wierely I saye vnto you / all these thynges shall lyght vpon this generaciō. Ierusalem / Ierusalem which kyllest prophetes / & stonest them which are sent to the: how often wolde I haue gathered thy chyliden together / as the henne gathereth her chylchē: & vnder her wynges / but ye wolde not: Beholde youre habitaciō shalbe leste vnto you desolate. For I saye to you / ye shall not se me hence forth / tyll that ye saye: blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lorde.

Christ sheweth his disciples the destruction of the temple: the ende of the worldes the tokens of the latter dayes / and warneth them to wake: for the world shal sodenly perishe.

The .xxiiij. Chapter.

And Iesus went out & departed fro the temple: & his disciples came to him / for to shewe him the byldyng of the tēple. Iesus sayde vnto the: se ye not all these thynges: Wierely I saye

Of S. Mathew.

you: ther shall not be here leste one stone vpon another: that shall not be cast doune.

And as he sat vpon the mount Olivete / hys disciples came vnto him secretly sayig. Tell vs when these thynges shalbe: & what sygne shalbe of thy comyng & of the ende of the world?
And Iesus answered & sayd vnto the: take hede / for no man deceaue you. For many shall come in my name sayinge: I am Christ: and shall deceaue many. Ye shall heare of warre / & of the fame of warres: but se that ye be not troubled. For all these thynges must come to passe: but the ende is not yet. For naciō shall ryse agaynst naciō / and realme agaynst realme: and ther shalbe pestilence / hunger and erthquakes in all quarters. All these are the beginnynges of sorowes.

Then shall they put you to trouble / & shall kylle you: & ye shalbe hated of all naciōs for my names sake. And then shall many be offended / & shall betraye one another / & shall hate one the other. And many false prophetes shall aryse / and shall deceaue many. And because iniquite shall haue the bypper hand / the loue of many shall abate. But he that endu-reth to the ende / the same shalbe safe. And this glad tydynges of the kyngdome shalbe preached in all the world: for a wytnes vnto all naciōs: and then shall the ende come.

When ye therfore shall se the abhominaciō that betokeneth desolaciō / spoke of by Daniel the prophet: stande in the holy place: let him that redeth it / vnderstande it. Then lett them which be in Iury / flye into the mountaynes. And let him which is on the house toppe / not come doune to fet any thyng out of hys house. Nether let him which is in the felde / returne backe to fetche his clothes. And shalbe in those dayes to the that are with chylde / & to the that geue sucke. But praye that youre flight be not in the winter / nether on the Sa-bath day. For then shalbe great tribulaciō / suche as was not from the beginning of the world to this tyme / nor shalbe. Ye & except those dayes shuld be shortened / there shulde no fleshe be saued: but for the chosens saue he / those dayes shalbe shortened.

Then yf any man shall saye vnto you: lo / here is Christ / or there is Christ: beleue it not.
For there shall aryse false Christes / & false prophetes / & shall do great miracles & wonders / & so byddes. In so moche that yf it were possible / the berie electe shuld be deceaue. Take hede / & haue tolde you befoze. Wherfore yf they shall saye vnto you: beholde he is in the desert go not forth: beholde he is in the secret places / beleue not. For as the lightynge cometh out of the West / and shyneth into the West: so shall the comyng of the sonne of mā be. For where soeuer a deed hath is / eue thyther will the egles resorte. Immediately after the tribulaciōs of those dayes / shall the sunne be darkened: & the mōne shall not geue her lyght / & the starres shall fall fro heaue / & the powers of heaue shall moue. And then shall appere the sygne of the sonne of man in heauen. And then shall all the kynredes of the erth mourne / and they shall se the sonne of mā come in the cloudes of heauen with power & grete glorie. And he shall sende his Angels to the grete voyce of a trompette / & they shall gather to gether his chosē / from the towne wyndes / & from the one ende of the world to the other.

Learnē a symilitude of the figge tree: whē his boughs are yet tender & his leues sprōg / ye knowe that sommer is nye. So like wise ye / when ye se all these thynges / be ye sure it is neare / euen at the doores. Wierely I saye vnto you / that this generaciō shall not passe tyll all these be fulfilled. Heaue & erth shall perishe / but my woordes shall abide. But of that daye and houre knoweth no mā / no not the angels of heauen / but my father only.

As the tyme of Noe was / so lykwys shall the comyng of the sonne of man be. For as in the dayes befoze the flood: they byd eate & dryncke / marry & were married / eue vnto the daye that Noe entred into the shippe / & knew of nothyng / tyll the flood came and toke the all awaye. So shall also the comyng of the sonne of mā be. Then two shalbe in the felde / the one shalbe receaue / and the other shalbe refused: two shalbe gryndinge at the myll / & one shalbe receaue / & the other shalbe refused. Make therfore / because ye knowe not what houre youre master will come. Of this be sure / yf the good mā of the house knewe what houre the thefe wolde come: he wolde suerly wathe / and not suffre his house to be broken bype. Therfore be ye also redy / for in the houre ye thynke he wolde not: wyll the sonne of man come. If there be any faythfull seruaut & wyle / whom his master hath made ruler ouer his housholde to geue the meate in season conuenient: happy is that seruaut whō his master (when he cometh) shall finde so doyng. Wierely I saye vnto you / he shall make him ruler ouer all hys goodes. But yf that euill seruaut shall saye in his herte / my master wyll defer his comyng / and begyne to smyte his felowes / ye and to eate & to dryncke with the dronchen: the seruantes master wyll come in a daye when he lotheth not for hym / & in an houre he is not ware of / and wyll deuyde him / and geue him his re-warde with ypcrites. And there shalbe wepyng and gnashynge of teth.

The ten virgins. The talentes deliuered to the ser-uantes / and of the generall iudgement.

The .xxv. Chapter.

Then

¶ Then ¶ a kyngdō of heauē shal be likened vnto ten byrgins/whiche toke their lampes/ & went to mete the byrgrome: fyue of them were folpthe/ & fyue were wyle. The folpthe toke their lampes/ but toke none oyle with the. But the wyle toke oyle with the in their bels with their lampes also. Whill the byrgrome tarped/ all slombzed & slepte. And euē God both go. at mynryght/ there was a crye made: behold/ the byrgrome cometh/ go out agaynst him. Then all those byrgins arose/ and prepared their lampes. And the folpthe sayde to the wyle: geue vs of youre oyle for oure lampes go out. But the wyle answered sayinge: not so/ lest ther be not ynough for vs & you: but goo rather to them that sell & by for your selues. And whyll they went to bye/ the byrgrome came: & they that were redy/ wēt in with him to the wedding/ & the gate was shut by. After wardes came also the other byrgins saying: Master master/ open to vs. But he answered & sayde/ verely I saye vnto you: I knowe not you. Watche therfore: for ye knowe neether the daye nor yet the houre/ when the sonne of man shal come.

¶ Lyke wyle as a certeyne mā redy to take his iorney to a straunge countre/ called his seruauntes & deliuered to the his goodes. And vnto one he gaue. b. talentes/ to another. ii. & to another one: to euery mā after his abilitie/ and streyght waye departed. Then he had receaued the fyue talentes/ wēt & bestowed them and wanne other fyue talentes. Lyke wyle he had receaued two/ gayed other two. But he that receaued that one/ went & dygged a pyt in the erth/ and hysd his masters money. After a longe season the Lorde of those seruauntes came and rekened with the. Then came he that had receaued fyue talentes/ & brought other fyue talentes sayinge: master thou deliueredst vnto me fyue talentes: behold I haue gayed with the fyue talentes moo. Then hys master sayde vnto hym: well good seruaunt and faythfull. Thou hast bene faythfull in lytel/ I will make the ruler ouer moche: & entre in into thy masters toye. Also he that receaued two talentes/ came and sayde: master thou deliueredst vnto me two talentes: behold I haue wone two other talentes with them. And hys master sayde vnto hym/ well good seruaunt and faythfull. Thou hast bene faythfull in lytel/ I will make the ruler ouer moche/ goo in into thy masters toye.

¶ Then he which had receaued the one talent came and sayde: master/ I considered that thou wast an harde man/ whych repest where thou sowdest not/ & gatherest where thou strawdest not/ & was therfore afrayde/

& wēt and hysd thy talent in the erth: behold/ thou hast thyne a wone. Hys master answered and sayde vnto hym: thou euill seruaunt and slowthfull/ thou knetest that I reape where I sowed not & gather where I strawed not: thou oughtest therfore to haue had my money to the chaungers/ & then at my comynge shulde I haue receaued myne a wone with bauntage. Take therfore the talent fro hym/ and geue it vnto him which hath ten talentes.

¶ For vnto euery mā that hath shalbe geue/ & he shal haue aboundance/ and from hym that hath not/ shalbe taken a wone/ euē that he hath. And cast that vnyprofitable seruaunt into the utter dercknes: there shalbe wepyng and gnashynge of teeth.

¶ When the sonne of mā cometh in his glorie/ & all the holy angels with him/ then shal he syt vpon the seate of his glorie/ and befoze him shalbe gathered all nacjōs. And he shal seperate the one from another/ as a shepherde deuptyeth the shepe from the gootes. And he shal set the shepe on his ryght hande/ and the gootes on the lyfte. Then shal the kyng saye to them on hys ryghte hande: Come ye blessed chyldzen of my father/ inheret ye the kyngdome prepared for you from the begynnyng of the worlde. For I was an hongred/ and ye gaue me meate. I thurst/ & ye gaue me drynke. I was herbourlesse/ & ye lodged me. I was naked & ye clothed me. I was sicke & ye visited me. I was in pzelon and ye came vnto me. Then shal the ryghteous answer hym saying: master/ whē sawe we the an hongred/ and feeded the? or a thurst/ and gaue the drynke? when sawe we the herbourlesse/ and lodged the? or naked and clothed the? or whē sawe we the sycke or in pzelon and came vnto the? And the kyng shal answer and saye vnto the: verely I saye vnto you: in as moche as ye haue done it vnto one of the leest of these my brythren/ ye haue donie it to me.

¶ Then shal the kyng saye vnto them that shalbe on the lyfte hand: departe from me ye cursed/ into euerlastynge fyre: which is prepared for the deuyl & his angels. For I was an hongred/ and ye gaue me no meate. I thurst/ & ye gaue me no drynke. I was herbourlesse/ and ye lodged me not. I was naked/ and ye clothed me not. I was sycke & in pzelon/ and ye visyted me not.

¶ Then shal they also answer hym saying: master/ when sawe we the an hongred/ or a thurst/ or herbourlesse/ or naked/ or sycke/ or in pzelon/ & dyd not mynister vnto the? Then shal he answer them & saye: verely I saye vnto you in as moche as ye dyd it not to one of the leest of these/ ye dyd it not to me. And these shal go into euerlastynge payne: & the ryghteous into lyfe eternall.

¶ And it came to passe/ whē Iesus had finished all these sayings/ he sayd vnto his disciples: Ye knowe I after two dayes shalbe ester/ & the sonne of mā shalbe deliuered to be crucified. Then assembled to gedder the chiefe prestes & the scribes and the elders of the people to the palice of the hye preste/ called Caphas/ and helde a counsell/ how they myght take Iesus by suttelste and kyll him. But they sayde/ not on the holy daye/ lest eny byproure aryle amōge the people.

¶ When Iesus was in Bethany/ in the house of Simon the leper/ ther came vnto hym a woman/ which had an alabastrer boxe of precious opyntment/ and powred it on his heed/ as he sate at the bourde. When his disciples sawe that/ they had indignacion sayinge: what neded thys wast? Thys opyntment myght haue bene well solde/ & geuen to the poore. When Iesus vnderstode that/ he sayde vnto them: why trouble ye the woman? She hath wrought a good worke vpon me: for ye shal haue poze folche all wayes with you: but me shal ye not haue all wayes. And in that she casted thys opyntment on my hodye/ she dyd it to burpe me with all. Verely I saye vnto you/ where soeuer this gospell shalbe preached throughtout all the worlde there shal also thys that she hath done/ be tolde for a memorfall of her.

¶ Then one of the twelue called Judas Iscarioth went vnto the chiefe prestes/ & sayde: what will ye geue me/ & I will deliuer him vnto you? And they apoynted vnto him thys ty peces of syluer. And fro that tyme he sought oportunitie to betraye hym.

¶ The fyrst daye of swete breed the disciples came to Iesus sayinge vnto him: where wilt thou that we prepare for the to eate the paschall lambe? And he sayd: go into the cite/ to soche a mā/ & saye to him/ the master sayeth my tyme is at hande/ I will kepe myne ester at thy house with my disciples. And the disciples dyd as Iesus had apoynted them/ and made redy the esterlambe.

¶ When the euē was come he sate downe to the table. And as they did eate/ he sayd: verely I saye vnto you/ one of you shal betraye me. And they were excedinge sorowful/ & began euery one of the to saye vnto him: is it I master? He answered & sayde: he that deppeth hys hande to me in the dish/ the same shal betraye me. The sonne of mā goeth as it is wyrtten of him: but wo be to the mā/ by whō the sonne of man shalbe betrayed. It had bene good for mā/ yf he had neuer bene bozne. Then Judas which betrayed hym/ answered & sayd: is it I master? He sayde vnto hym: thou hast sayde. As they dyd eate/ Iesus toke bread and gaue thanks/ brake it/ & gaue it to the disciples/ and sayde: Take/ eate/ this is my body. And he toke the cup/ & thanked/ and gaue it them/ sayinge: drynke of it euery one. For this is my bloude of the new testament/ that shalbe shedde for many/ for the remysyon of synnes. I saye vnto you: I wyl not drynke hence forth of thys frute of the vyne tree/ vntyll that daye/ when I shal drynke it new with you in my fathers kyngdome.

¶ And when they had sayde grace/ they wēt out into mounte oliuete. Then sayde Iesus vnto them: all ye shalbe offended by me thys night. For it is wyrtten: I will smyte the shepe herde/ & the shepe of the flocke shalbe scattered abroad. But after I am rylen agayne/ I will go before you into Galile. Peter answered/ & sayde vnto hym: though all me shulde be offended by the/ yet wolde I neuer be offended. Iesus sayde vnto him: verely I saye vnto the/ that this same night before the coche crowe/ thou shalt denye me thys tyme. Peter sayde vnto him: If I shulde dye with the/ yet wolde I not denye the. Lyke wyle also sayde al the disciples.

¶ Then went Iesus with them into a place which is called Gethsemane/ & sayde vnto the disciples/ syt ye here whyll I go and praye yonder. And he toke with hym Peter & the two sonnes of Zebede/ & began to wexe sorowfull & to be in an agony. Then sayde Iesus vnto them: my soule is heuy euen vnto the deeth. Cary ye here/ & watche with me. And he wēt a lytell aparte/ and fell flat on hys face/ and prayed sayinge: O my father/ yf it possible/ let this cuppe passe from me: neuerthelesse/ not as I will/ but as thou wilt. And he came vnto the disciples/ and founde them a slepe/ and sayde to Peter: what/ coulde ye not watche with me one houre: watche: and praye the ye fall not into temptaciō. The spyte is wyllynge/ but the fleshe is weake.

¶ He wēt awaye once moare & prayed/ sayinge: O my father/ yf this cuppe canot passe awaye from me/ but that I drynke of it/ thy will be fulfilled. And he came/ & founde the a slepe agayne. For their eyes were heuy. And he sette the & went agayne/ & prayed the thys tyme sayinge the same wordes. Then came he to hys disciples & sayde vnto the: Slepe ye hence forth & take youre rest. Take hede the houre is at hande/ & the sonne of mā shalbe betrayed into the handes of synners. Kye/ let vs be goynge: behold/ he is at hande the shal betraye me. Whyl he yet spake/ lo/ Judas one of the. xii. came/ & with hym a greute multitude of men.

he signified with sweardes & staves / sent from the chiefe prest & elders of the people. And he betrayed him / had geue a token / sayinge: whosoever I kysse / he is he / laye handes on him. And forth w all he came to Iesus / & sayde / haile Master: & kysed him. And Iesus sayde vnto hym: frende / wherfore arte thou come. Then came they & layed hand on Iesus & toke him.

And beholde / one of the which were with Iesus / stretched out his hande and drue his swearde / & stroke a seruant of the hye preste / & smote of hys eare. Then sayde Iesus vnto him: put by thy swearde into hys sheathe.

*For all that ley hand on I swearde / shall perishe with I swearde. Either thinkest thou I cannot now praye to my father / & he shall geue me moo then. xij. Legions of angels? But how then shulde I scriptur be fulfilled: for so must it be. The same tyme sayde Iesus to the multitude: ye be come out as it were vnto a thefe / & sweardes & staves for to take me. I sate daylye teachinge in I temple amōge you / & ye toke me not. All this was done I the scriptures of the Prophetes myght be fulfilled.

Then all I disciples forsoke him & fled. And they toke Iesus & leede him to Cayphas the hye preste / where I Scribes & I elders were assembled. And Peter folowed hym a farre of / vnto the hye prestes place: and wet in / & sate with the seruantes to se the ende.

The chiefe prestes & the elders / & all I counsell / sought false witness agaynst Iesus / for to put hym to deeth / but founde none: in so moche that whē many false witness came / yet founde they none. At I last came two false witness / & sayde: this felowe sayde: I can destroye I temple of God / & bylde it agayne in iij. dayes. And the chiefe preste arose / & sayde to him: answerest thou nothinge? How is it I these beare witness agaynst the? But Iesus helde his peace. And I chiefe preste answered / and sayde to him: I charge the in I name of I Iyvinge God / that thou tell vs / whether thou be Christ I sonne of God. Iesus sayde to him: thou haste sayd. Neuerthelesse I saye vnto you: hereafter shall ye se the sonne of man sittynge on the right hande of power / and come in the cloudes of the skye.

*Then I hye preste rent his clothes sayinge: he hath blasphemed: what nede we of eny moo witness? Behold now ye haue hearde his blasphemy: what thynke ye? They answered and sayde: he is worthy to dye. Then spat they in hys face and buffeted hym with fistes. And other smote him with I palme of their handes on the face / sayinge: tell vs thou Christ / who is he that smote the?

Peter sate without in the palace. And a dā sell came to hym sayinge: Thou also wast with Iesus of Galile: but he denyed before them all sayinge: I woot not what thou sayst. When he was goone out into the porche / another wenche sawe hym / & sayde vnto the that were there. This felowe was also with Iesus of Nazareth. And agayne he denyed with an othe that he knewe the man. And after a while came vnto hym they that stode by and sayde vnto Peter: suerly thou arte euen one of them / for thy speache betrayeth the.

Then began he to curse & to sweare / & he kint we not the mā. And immediatly the cocke crewe. And Peter remembred the wordes of Iesu which sayde vnto him: before the cocke crewe / thou shalt denye me thysse: and went out at the doores and wepte bitterly.

Christ is deliuered vnto Pilate. Judas hageth him selfe. Christe is crucified amonge theues. He dyeth & is buried. Watchmen kepe the graue.

The xxviij. Chapter. When the mornynge was come / all I chiefe prestes and the elders of I people helde a counsaile agaynst Iesus / to put hym to deeth / and brought him bounde and deliuered him vnto Poncius Pilate the debite.

Then when Judas which betrayed hym / sawe that he was condemned / he repēted him selfe / and brought agayne the xxx. plates of syluer to the chiefe prestes & elders sayinge: I haue synned betrayinge the innocēt bloud. And they sayde: what is that to vs? Se thou to I. And he cast doune I syluer plates in I tēple & departed / and went a hounge him selfe.

And the chiefe prestes toke I syluer plates & sayd: it is not lawfull for to put the into I treasure / because it is I pryce of bloud. And they toke counsell / & bought w the a potters felde to burye strangers in. Wherfore I felde is called the felde of bloud / vntill this daye. Then was fulfilled / I which was spoken by Jeremy the Prophet sayinge: & they toke xxx. syluer plates / the pryse of hym I was valued whō they bought of I childre of Irael / & they gaue the for I potters felde / as the Lorde appoynted me. *Iesus stode before I debite: & I debite asked him sayinge: arte thou I king of the Iues? Iesus sayd vnto hym: Thou sayest. And whē he was accused of the chiefe prestes & elders / he answered nothinge. Then sayd Pilate vnto hym: hearest thou not / how many thinges they saye agaynst the? And he answered him to neuer a worde: in so moche I the debite marueilled greatlye.

At that feest / the debite was wonte to deliuer vnto the people a p̄soner / whom they wolde desyre. He had then a notable p̄soner called Barrabas. And when they were gathered together / Pilate sayd vnto the: *whether wil ye I geue loofe vnto you / Barrabas or Iesus which is called Christ? For he knewe well / that for eny tyme they had deliuered hym. When he was set doune to geue iudgement his wyfe sent to hym sayinge: haue thou nothinge to do with I iuste mā. For I haue suffered many thynges thys daye in a dreame about hym. But I chiefe prestes & the elders had perswaded I people / that they shulde atke Barrabas / and shulde destroye Iesus. Then I debite answered & sayde vnto the: whether of the twayne wil ye I let loofe vnto you? And they sayd / Barrabas. Pilate sayde vnto the: what shall I do then with Iesus which is called Christ? They all sayde to him: let hym be crucified. Then sayde I debite: what euill hath he done? And they cryed I moze sayinge: let hym be crucified. Whē Pilate sawe that he p̄uayled nothinge / but I moze busines was made / he toke water & washed hys handes before I people sayinge: I am innocēt of I bloud of thys iuste person / & ye shall se.

Then answered all I people & sayd: his bloud be on vs / & on oure chyldre. Then let he Barrabas loofe vnto them / and scourged Iesus / and deliuered hym to be crucified.

Then I soudeours of I debite toke Iesus vnto the comen hall / & gathered vnto him all the company. And they stripped hym and put on him a purpill roobe / and platted a croune of thornes and put vpon his heed / & a rede in his ryght hande: & bowed their knees before hym and mocked hym / sayinge: haile kyng of the Iewes: and spitted vpon hym / and toke the rede and smote hym on the heed.

And when they had mocked him / they toke the robe of hym agayne / and put hys awne rayment on him / & leed him awaye to crucifye him. And as they came out / they founde a mā of Cyren / named Simon: hym they compelled to beare his crosse. And when they came vnto the place / called Golgotha (that is to saye / a place of deed mens sculles) they gaue him beneger to dryncke mingled with gall. And whē he had tasted therof / he wolde not dryncke.

When they had crucified hym / they parted his garmentes / & dyd cast lottes: to fulfill I which was spoken by the Prophet. *They deuyled my garmentes amonge the: & vpon my besture dyd cast lottes. And they sate & watched hym there and they set by ouer hys heed the cause of hys deeth wrytte. This is Iesus the kyng of the Iewes. *And there were two theues crucified with hym / one on the ryght hande & another on the lyfte.

They I passed by / reuyled him wagginge their heeddes & sayinge: thou I destroyest the tēple of God & byldest it in thre dayes / saue thy selfe. If thou be the sonne of God / come doune fro I crosse. Likewyse also I hye preste mockinge him with the Scribes and elders sayde: He saued other / hym selfe he cannot saue. If he be I kyng of Irael: let hym now come doune from the crosse / & we will beleue him. He trusted in God / let hym deliuer hym now / if he will haue him: for he sayde / I am the sonne of God. That same also the theues which were crucified with him / cast in his teethe from the lyfte houre was there berchines ouer all I lande vnto the nynt houre. And about I nynt houre Iesus cryed w a loude voyce / sayinge: Eli Eli lama al bathani. That is to saye: *my God / my God / why hast thou forsaken me? Some of the that stode there / when they herde that / sayde: This mā calleth for Delias. And streyght waye one of the vāne & toke a sponge & fylled it full of beneger / & put it on a rede / and gaue hym to dryncke. Other sayde / let be: let vs se whether Delias will come & deliuer hym. Iesus cryed agayne with a loude voyce and yelded by the goost.

And beholde the I bayle of the temple dyd rent in twayne fro the toppe to the bottome / and the erth dyd quake / & the stones dyd rent and graues dyd open: and the bodies of many saintes which slept / arose & came out of the graues after his resurreccion / & came into I holy cite / & appered vnto many. *Whē I cōfession / & they that were with hym watchinge Iesus / sawe I erth quake and those thinges which happened / they feared greatly / sayinge: Of a surete this was the sonne of God.

*And many women were there / beholdinge him a farre of / which folowed Iesus fro Galile / mynistringe vnto hym. Amonge which was Mary Magdalen / & Mary I mother of James & Ioses / and the mother of Zebedes I childre. *Whē I deuē was come there came a riche mā of Aramathia named Ioseph / which man also was Iesus dysciple. He went to Pilate & begged the body of Iesus. Then Pilate commaunded the body to be deliuered. And Ioseph toke the body / and wrapped it in a clene linnen clooth / and put it in hys newe tombe / which he had hewen out / euen in the roche / & rolled a greete stone to I doore of I sepulcre and departed. And there was I Mary Magdalene & the other Mary sittynge ouer agaynst I sepulcre. The first Chapter.

In the begynnyng of the Gospell of Jesu Christ sonne of God/ as it is written in the Prophetes/ beholde I sende my messenger before thy face which shall prepare thy waye before the.

The voyce of a cryer in the wilderness: prepare ye the waye of the Lorde/ make his pathes streight. John dyd baptise in the wilderness/ & preache the baptyme of repentance/ for the remission of synnes. And all that lande of Iurie & they of Ierusalem/ went out vnto hym/ and were all baptised of him in the ryuer Iordā/ confessinge their synnes.

John was clothed with camilles hery/ & he dyd eate locusts & wilde hony/ & preached sayinge/ a stronger then I cometh after me/ whose shoe latchet I am not worthy to stoupe doune & vnloose. I haue baptised you with water: but he shall baptise you with the holy goost.

And it came to passe in those dayes/ that Jesus cam fro Nazareth/ a cite of Galile/ & was baptised of John in Iordan. And asone as he was come out of the water/ John sawe heauen open/ & the holy goost descendinge vpon hym/ lyke a doue. And ther came a voyce fro heauen/ thou arte my dere sonne in whom I delecte.

And immediatly the spete draue him into wilderness: & he was there in the wilderness xl. dayes/ & was tepted of Sata/ & was in wilde beestes. And the angels ministred vnto hym. After John was takē/ Jesus came into Galile/file/ preachinge & Gospell of the kyngdome of God/ & sayinge/ the tyme is come/ & the kyngdome of God is at hande/ repēt & beleue the Gospell.

As he walked by the see of Galile/ he sawe Simon & Andrew his brother/ casting nettes into the see for they were fischers. And Jesus sayde vnto them/ folowe me/ & I will make you fischers of men. And straghte waye/ they forsoke their nettes and folowed hym. And when he had gone a lytell further thence/ he sawe James the sonne of Zebede/ and John his brother/ euen as they were in the shyppe mendinge their nettes. And anon he called them. And they leest their father Zebede in the shyppe with his hyred seruantes/ and went their waye after him.

And they entred into Capernaum: & streight waye on the Sabboth dayes/ he entred in to the synagoge & taught. And they merueiled at his learnynge. For he taught them as one that had power with hym/ and not as the Scribes.

And there was in their synagoge a man vexed with an vncleane spete/ & cryed sayinge/ let be/ what haue we to do with the thou Jesus of Nazareth? arte thou come to destruye vs? I knowe the what thou arte/ euen that holy of God. And Jesus rebuked him sayinge/ holde thy peace and come out of hym. And the vncleane spete tare him/ & cryed with a loude voyce/ and came out of hym. And they were all amased/ in so moche that they demaunded one of another amōge them selues sayinge/ what thing is this? what newe doctrine is this? for he commaundeth the foule spirites with power/ and they obeye him. And immediatly hys fame spreed abroade throughoute all the region borderinge on Galile.

And forth with/ asone as they were come out of the synagoge/ they entred into the house of Symon and Andrew/ with James and John. And Symons mother in lawe lay sycke of a feuer. And anon they tolde him of her. And he came and toke her by the hande and lyfte her vp/ and the feuer forsoke hy/ by and by: and she mynystrred vnto them. And at euen when the sonne was doune/ they brought to hym all that were dysleasid/ and them that were possessed with deuyls. And all the cytye gaddred to gedder at the doze/ and he healed many that were sycke of dyuers diseases.

And he cast out many deuyls/ & suffred not the deuyls to speake/ because they knewe him.

And in the moornyng he very early/ Jesus arose and went out into a solitary place/ and there prayed. And Symon and they that were with hym folowed after hym. And when they had founde him/ they sayde vnto him/ al men seke for the. And he sayd vnto them/ let vs go into the next townes/ that I maye preache there also: for truly I cam out for that purpose.

And he preached in their synagogs/ through out all Galile/ and cast the deuyls out.

And ther came a leper to him/ beseechinge him/ and kneled doune vnto hym/ & sayde to him/ yf thou wilt/ thou canest make me cleane. And Jesus had compassion on him/ & put forth his hande/ & touched him/ & sayde to him/ I will/ be thou cleane. And asone as he had spoken/ immediatly the leper departed fro him/ & sent him awaye forthwith/ & sayde vnto him/ se thou saye nothyng to any man: but get the hence/ & shewe thy selfe to the preste/ & offer for thy clenynge/ those thinges whych Moses commaunded/ for a testimoniall vnto the. But he (asone as he was departed) begane to tell many thinges/ and to publyshe the dede: in so moche that Jesus coude no moze openly entre into the cite/ but was without in desert places. And they came to him fro euery quarter.

He healeth the man of the palsey/ calleth Leui the customer/ eateth with open synners/ and excludeth hys discyples.

The ii. Chapter.

After a fewe dayes/ he entred into Capernaum agayne/ & it was noyed: for he was in a house. And anon many gadered to gedder/ in so moche that there was no roume to receaue the/ nor so moche as about the doze. And he preached the word vnto the. And there came vnto him a brought one sicke of the palsey bozne of fower mo. And because they coude not come nye vnto hym for pzeale/ they vncouered the rofe of the house where he was. And when they had broken it open/ they let doune the bed wherein the sycke of the palsey laye. When Jesus sawe their fayth/ he sayde to the sicke of the palsey/ sonne thy synnes are forgiven the.

And ther were certayne of the Scribes sytynge there/ and reasonynge in their hertes/ how doeth this fellowe so blasphem? who can forgive synnes/ but God only? And immediatly when Jesus perceaued in his spete that they so reasoned in them selues/ he sayde vnto them/ why thynke ye soche thynges in youre hertes? whether is it easer to saye to the sycke of the palsey/ thy synnes are forgiven the: or to saye/ arise take vp thy bed/ and walke? What ye maye knowe that the sonne of man hath power in erth to forgive synnes/ he spake vnto the sycke of the palsey/ I saye vnto the/ arise and take vp thy bed/ and get the hence into thine awne house. And by and by he arose/ & toke vp the bed/ and wet forth before them all: in so moche that they were all amased/ and glorified God sayinge/ we neuer sawe it on this fashon.

And he went agayne vnto the see/ and all the people resorted vnto him/ & he taught them. And as

And as Jesus passed by / he sawe Leuy the sonne of Alphaeus at the receypte of custome & sayde vnto hym: folowe me. And he arose & folowed him. * And it came to passe / as Jesus sate at meate in his house / many publicans & synners sate at meate also with Jesus and his disciples. For there were many that folowed him. And when the Scribes & Pharisees sawe him eate with publicans & synners / they sayde vnto his disciples: how is it / that he eateth & drincketh with publicans & synners? when Jesus hearde that / he sayde vnto them. * The whole haue no nede of the Physicion / but the sycke. I came not to call the ryghtwyle / but the synners to repentaunce.

And the disciples of John & the Pharisees dyd faste: & therfore came & sayde vnto hym.
Why do the dysciples of John & of the Pharisees faste / and thy disciples fast not. And Jesus sayde vnto the: can the children of a wed-dinge faste / whils the bydgrome is with the As longe as they haue the bydgrome with them / they cannot faste. But the dayes wyl come when the bydgrome shalbe taken fro them: then shall they* a faste in those dayes.

Also no man seweth a pece of newe cloth vnto an olde garment / for then taketh he awaye the newe pece fro the olde / & so is the rent worse. In lyke wise / no man powreth ne-we wyne into olde vessels: for yf he do / the newe wyne breakech & the vessels / & the wyne runneth out / & the vessels are marred. But new wyne must be powred into new vessels.

And it chaunced that he went thowow the corne felde on the Sabbath daye: & his disciples as they went in their waye / begane to plucke the eares of corne. And the Pharisees sayde vnto hym: beholde / why do they on the Sabbath dayes & which is not lawfull? And he sayde to the: haue ye neuer rede what Da-uid dyd / when he had nede / & was an hongred bothe he & they that were with him? How he went into the house of God in the dayes of Abiathar the hie Preste / and did eate the halowed loues / which is not lawfull to eate / but for the Prestes only: & gaue also to them which were with hym. And he sayde to them the Sabbath was made for man / & not man for the Saboth. Wherefore the sonne of man is Lord euen of the Saboth daye.

He helpeth the man with the dyed hande / choiceth his Apostles / & casteth out the vnclene spete: whych the Pharisees ascribte vnto the deuill. The brother-sister and mother of Christ.

The. iij. Chapter.

And he entred agayne into & syna-goge / & ther was a ma there which had a* wyddered hande. And they watched hym to se / whether he wolde heale him on the Saboth daye / & they myght accuse him. And he sayde vnto the ma which had the wyddered hande: arise & stonde in the middys. And he sayd to the: whether is it lawfull to do a good dede on the Sabbath dayes / or an euill? to saue lyfe or kyll? But they helde their peace. And he looked roūd aboute on the angry mournynge on the blyndnes of their hertes / & sayde to the ma: stretch forth thine hande.

And he stretched it oute. And his hande was restored / euen as whole as the other.

And the Pharisees departed / and streyght waye gaddred a counsell / with the & beloged to Herode / agaynst him / that they myght destroye him. And Jesus auoyded with his disciples to the see. And a grete multitude folowed hym from Galile & fro Turie / and from Ierusalem & fro Iudum / & from beyonde Iordane. *
And they that dwelled about Tyre and Sidon a grete multitude: whych when they had herde what thynges he dyd / came vnto hym.

And he commaunded his disciples / & a ship-pe shuld wayte on him / because of the people / lest they shuld throunge hym. For he had healed many / in somuche that they pzealed vpon him / for to touche hym as many as had plages. And when the vnclene spites sawe him they fell doune before hym / & cryed sayinge: thou arte the sonne of God. And he straitly charged them that they shuld not utter hym.

* And he went vnto a mountayne / & called vnto hym whom he wolde / and they came vnto hym. And he ordeyned the. xij. that they shuld be with him / & that he myght sende the to pzeache: and that they myght haue power to heale synnes / & to cast out deuyls. And he gaue Symon / to name Peter. And he called James & sonne of Zebede & John / James brother / & gaue the Bonargt to name / which is to saye / the sonnes of thounder. And Andrew / and Philip / & Bartlemew / & Mathew & Thomas / & James the sonne of Alphaeus & Taddeus / and Symon of Cana and Judas Iscariot / which same also betrayed hym.

And they came vnto house / and the people assembled togeder agayne / so greatly / & they had not leyfar somuche as to eate & reed. And when they that longed vnto him hearde of it / they went out to holde him. For they thought he had bene besyde him selfe. * And the Scribes which came fro Ierusalem / sayde: he hath Bezeub / and by the power of the chefe deuyl / casteth out deuyls. And he called them vnto him / and sayde vnto them in synnitudes.

How can Satan dryue out Satan: for yf a realme be deuided agaynst it selfe / & realme cannot endure. Or yf a house be deuided agaynst it selfe / that house cannot continue:
So yf Satan make insurrecyon agaynst him selfe and be deuided / he cannot continue but is at an ende. No man can entre into a ther & his brythre / & stode with out / and sent vnto him and called him. And the people sate aboute hym / and sayde vnto him: beholde thy mother & thy brythre seke for & without. And he answered the sayinge: who is my mother & my brythre? And he looked rounde about on his disciples / whych sate in compasse about him / & sayde: behold my mother & my brythre for whosoever doeth the wyl of God / he is my brother / my sister and mother.

The parable of the sower. Christ telleth the trespit of the see / which obeyed hym.

The. iij. Chapter.

And he began agayne to teache by & see side. And there gadered togeder vnto him moche people / so greatly that he entred into a ship / & sate in the see / & all the people was by the see syde on & shoore. And he taught the many thynges in simillitudes & sayde vnto them in his doctrine.
Herken to: beholde / there wet out a sower to sowe. And it fortuned as he sowed / some fel by the waye syde / & the fowles of the ayre came & deuoured it vp. Some fell on stony grounde where it had not moche erth: & by & by sprang vp / because it had not depth of erth: but as sone as the sunne was vp it caught heet / and because it had not rotyng / wyddered awaye.

And some fell amonge the thornes / and the thornes grewe vp and choked it / so that it gaue no frute. And some fell vpon good grounde / and dyd yelde frute that sprong and grew / and brought forth: some thyrty folde some sixty folde / and some an hundred folde. And he sayde vnto the: he that hath eares to heare / let hym heare.

And when he was alone / they that were aboute him with the. xij. asked him of the similitude. And he sayde vnto them. To* you is it geue to knowe the mystery of the kyngdome of God. But vnto them & are with out / shall all thynges be done in synnitudes: & when they se they shall se / & not discerne: & when they heare they shall heare / & not vnderstode: lest at any tyme they shulde tounre / & their synn / shuld be forgiven the. And he sayde vnto them: per-ceauye ye not this synnitude: how then shuld ye vnderstode all other synnitudes.

The sower soweth the worde. And they & are by the waye syde / where the worde is so-without: & when / are they to whom asone as they haue herde it / Sata cometh immediatly / & taketh it / vnto soche awaye & worde & was sown in their hertes. As he curious & And likewise they that are sown on the stone grounde / are they: which when they haue hearde the worde / at once receauy it with glad-nes / yet haue no rotes in the selues / & so endure but a tyme: & asone as trouble & perse-cucion aryseth for the wordes sake / they fall immediatly. And they that are sown amonge the thornes / are soche as heare the worde: & the care of this worlde & the dyscressynes of ryches and the lustes of other thynges / entre in & chooke the worde / & it is made vnfructfull And those that weare sown in good grounde / are they that heare the worde and receauy it / & brynge forth frute / some thyrty folde some sixty folde / some an hundred folde.

And he sayde vnto the: is the candle lyghted to be put vnder a bushell / or vnder the table / & not rather to be put on a candellstick? For there is nothyng so pzeuy / that shall not be opened: neether so secret / but that it shall come abroad. If any man haue eares to heare let hym heare. And he sayde vnto them: take hede what ye heare. With what measure ye mete / with the same shal it be measured vnto you agayne. And vnto you that heare / shall more be geue. For vnto him that hath / shall it be geuen: & from him that hath not / shall be taken awaye / euen that he hath.

And he sayde: so is the kyngdome of God / eue as yf a ma shuld sowe seede in the grounde and shulde slepe & rylle by nyght & daye: and the seede shuld sprynge and growe by / he not ware. For the erth bryngech forth frute of her selfe: first the blade / then the eares / after that full corne in the eares. And asone as the frute is brought forth / anone he throusteth in the syckle / because the heruest is come.

And he sayde: where vnto shall we lyken the kyngdome of God? or with what coparison shall we copare it? It is lyke a grayne of mustardseed / which when it is sown in the erth / is the leest of all seedes that be in the erth: but after that it is sown / it groweth vp / and is greatest of all perbes: and bereth grete braunches / so that the fowles of the ayre maye dwell vnder the shadowe of it.

And with many soche synnitudes he pzeached the worde vnto the / after as they myght heare it. And without synnitude spake he no thyng vnto them. But when they were a parte / he expounded all thynges to hys dysciples. And the same daye when euen was come / he sayde vnto them: let vs passe ouer vnto the other syde. And they left the people and toke hym eue as he was in the ship. And ther were also with him other shippes.

And ther arose a great storme of wynde / & dashed the waues into the ship / so that it was full. And full. And he was in the sterne a slepe on a pe-lowe. And they awoke hym / & sayde to hym Master / carest thou not / & we perishe? And he rose up / & rebuked / & wynde / & sayde vnto the see: peace / & be still. And the wynde alayed / & ther folowed a greate calme. And he sayde vnto them: why are ye so fearfull? How is it that ye haue no fayth? And they feared exceedingly / & sayde one to another: what felowe is this? for booth wynde and see obey hym.

He deliuereth the possessed from the vnclane spete / the woman from the bloudy pisse / and rapseth the captaynes daughter.

The .v. Chapter. .f.

And they cam ouer to the other syde of the see into the countre of Gaderenites. And when he was come out of the shippe / there met him out of the graues a man possessed of an vnclane spete / which had his abydinge amonge graues. And no man coude bynde him: no not wcheynes / because he whē he was offe bounde with fetters & cheynes / he plucked / & chayne a sundre / & brake the fetters in peces. Nether coude eny man tame him. And alwayes bothe night & daye he cryed in the mountaynes and in the graues / and bet him selfe with stones.
When he had spyed Iesus a farre off / he rane a * & worshipped hym / and cryed with a loude voyce & sayde: what haue I to do with thee Iesus the sonne of the most hest God? I re-quyre the in the name of God / & thou toimet me not. for he had sayd vnto him: come out of the man thou foule spete. And he asked him: what is thy name and he answered sayng: my name is Legion / for we are many. And he prayd him instantly / & he wolde not sende him awaye out of the countre.

And ther was there nye vnto the mountayns a greate heerd of swyne feedinge / & all the deuyls besought him sayng: sende vs in to the herde of swyne / that we maye enter into the.
And anone Iesus gaue them leaue. And the vnclane spete went out & entred in to the swyne.
And the heerd starteled / & ran hedling in to the see. They were about .iiij. thousand / and they were drowned in the see. And the swyne heerd fled & tolde it in the cite and in the countre.
And they came out for to se what had happened: and came to Iesus / & saue him that was bered with the fende and had the Legion / tyt-both clothed & in his ryght mynde / and were afraid. And they that saue it tolde the / how it had hapened to hym that was possessed w-the deuyl: and also of the swyne. * And they beganne to praye him / that he wolde departe fro their coost. And whē he was come into the shippe / he had the deuyl / prayd him / he myght be w- him. Howbeit Iesus wolde not suffre him / but sayde vnto him: go home in to thyne awne house & to thy frendes / & shewe them what great thinges the Lord hath done vnto the / & how he had compassion on the. And he departed / and beganne to publyshe in the cities / what greate thinges Iesus had done vnto him / and all men dyd merueyle.

And when Iesus was come ouer agayne by shippe vnto the other syde / moche people gadered to him / & he was nye vnto the see. * And beholde / ther came one of the rulers of the Synagoge / whose name was Jairus: & whē he saue him / he fell doune at his fete / and besought hym greatly sayng: my daughter lieth at poynt of deeth / I wolde thou woldest come & laye thy hande on her / that she myght be safe & liue. And he wet with him / & moche people folowed him / and thronged him.

And ther was a certen woman / whych was diseased of an yllue of bloude .xiiij. yeres / & had suffered many thinges of many physicions / & had spent all she had / & felte none amendement at all / but waxed worse & worse. When she had herde of Iesus: she came into the pre-ace behinde him / & touched his garment / for she thought: yf I maye but touche his clothes / I shall be whole. And streyght waye her fountaine of bloude was dryed vp / and she felt in her body / that she was healed of the plage.

And Iesus immediatly felt in him selfe / the bertue that went out of him / & tourned him round aboute in the preace / & sayde: who touched my clothes? And his discipyl sayde vnto him: seyst thou the people thrust the / and yet allest / who did touche me? And he looked round about / for to se her that had done that thinge.
The woman feared & trembled / for she knew what was done w- in her / & she came and fell doune before hym / & tolde hym the truth of euery thinge. And he sayde to her: Daughter thy fayth hath made the whole: go in peace / and be whole of thy plage.

* Whyl he yet spake / ther came fro the ruler of the Synagoges house / certayne which sayd: thy daughter is deed: why distealest thou the Master eny further? Allone as Iesus hearde that worde spoken / he sayde vnto the ruler of the Synagoge: be not afraid / only beleue. And he suffred no man to folowe him moare the Peter & James & John & brother of James. * And he came vnto the house of the ruler of the Synagoge / & saue the w- dyng: & them that wepte & wayled greatly / & went in & sayde vnto the: why make ye this a doowepe? The mayden is not deed / but slepeth.
And they laughd him to scoone. Then he put them all out & toke the father & the mother of the mayden / & them that were with him / and entred in where the mayden laye / & toke the mayden by the hande / & sayde vnto hyr: Tabitha / cum: whych is by interpretacion: mayden

mayde I saye vnto the / aryse. And streyght the mayden arose / and went on her fete. for she was of the age of twelue yeres. And they were astonied at it out of measure. And he charged the straitely that no man shuld knowe of it / and commaunded to geue her meate.

Christ sendeth his Apostles to heale them that were diseased. Of John and Herode. Of the .v. louches and the .iiij. thousand. And of the walkynge on the see.

The .vi. Chapter. .f.

And he departed thence / & cam into his awne countre / & his discipyles folowed him. And when the Saboth daye was come / he beganne to tea-che in the synagoge. And many heard him were astonied / & sayde: from whence hath he these thynges? & what wyl dome is this / & is geue vnto hyr: a luche bertues / & are wrought by his handes? Is not this the carpenter Maryes sonne? & the brother of James & Joseph of Juda & Simon? & are not his sisters here with vs? And they were offended by him. And Iesus sayde vnto them: a Prophet is not despised but in his awne countre / & amonge his awne kynne / & amonge them that are of the same householde. And he coude there shewe no myracles / but layde his handes vpon a fewe sycke fouliche and healed them and he merueyled at their vnbelefe.

And he went aboute by the townes & laye on euery syde / teachinge. And he called the twelue / & beganne to sende them two & two / a rode & gaue the power ouer vnclane spetes. And he commaunded them / that they shuld take no-thinge vnto their iorney saue a rode only nether scrippe / nether byed / nether mony in their pourses / but shuld be shod w- sandals. And they shuld not put on two cootes.
And he sayde vnto them: whersoever ye entre in to an house / there abyde tyll ye departe thence. And whosoever shall not receaue you nor heare you / whē ye departe thence / shake the duste that is vnder youre fete / for a wytnesse vnto the. I saye verely vnto you / it shalbe easier for Sodom & Gomorrah at the daye of iudgement / then for the cite. And they wet out & preached / & they shuld repēt: & they cast out many deuyls. And they annoynted many that were sycke with oyle / and healed them.

And kynge Herode herde of hym / for his name was spreade abroad / and sayde: John Baptiste is risen agayne from deeth / & therfore myracles are wrought by hym. Other sayde it is Helias: & some sayde: it is a Prophet or as one of the Prophetes. But when Herode hearde of hym / he sayde: it is John whom I beheaded / he is risen fro deeth agayne. for Herode him selfe had sent forth & had taken John / & bounde him / & cast him into pre-son for Herodias sake / which was his brother

Philipps wife. for he had maryed her. John sayde vnto Herode: It is not lawfull for me to haue thy brothers wife. Herodias layd waitte for him / and wolde haue kyled hym / but she coude not. for Herode feared John / knowinge that he was a iust man & an holy: & gaue hym reuerence: and when he hearde hym / he dyd many thinges / & hearde him gladly.

But when a conuenient daye was come: Herode on his byrth daye made a supper to his lordes / captayns & chiefe estates of Galile.
And the daughter of the sayde Herodias cam in & daunced / & pleased Herode & them that ate at boure also. Then the kynge sayde vnto the mayde: aske of me what thou wilt / & I will geue it the. And she swaue vnto hyr: what soeuer thou shalt aske of me / I will geue it the / euen vnto the one halfe of my kynngdome. And she went forth & sayde to her mother: what shall I aske? And the sayde: John Baptistes heed.
And she cam streyght waye w- haste vnto the kynge / and asked sayng: I will: thou geue me by and by in a charger the heed of John Baptist. And the kynge was sorowful: howbeit for his othes sake / and for their sakes whych ate at supper also / he wolde not put her beside her purpose. And immediatly he sig-sent the hangman & commaunded his heed to be brought in. And he went & beheaded hym in the prison and brought his heed in a chager / & gaue it to the mayden and the mayden gaue it to her mother. And whē his discipyls hearde of it / they came and toke by his body / and put it in a tombe.

And the Apostles gaddered them selues together to Iesus / & told him all thyngs / booth what they had done / & what they had taught.
And he sayde vnto them: come aparte into the wildernes / and rest a whyle. for there were many commers and goers / that they had no leisure so moche as to eate. And he went by ship out of the waye into a deserte place. But the people spyed them when they departed: & many kne w- him / & rane afote thither out of all cities / & cam thither before the / & came to gedder vnto hym. And Iesus wet out & saue moche people / & had compassion on the / because they were like shepe which had no shepherde.
And he beganne to teache the many thinges.

* And whē the daye was now farre spent / his discipyles came vnto him sayng: this is a desert place / & now the daye is farre passed. let the departe / & they maye go into the coost round about & into the townes / & bye the byed: for they haue nothinge to eate. He answered and sayd vnto them: geue ye the to eate. And they sayde vnto hym: shall we go and bye .iiij. penworth of bread / & geue the to eate? He sayde vnto the: how many loues haue ye? So a loke. And whē they had serched / they sayde

And two fyfthes. And he comaunded them to make the all sit doune by companies vpon greene grasse. And they late doune here arowe & there arowe/by hundred & by fyfthes. And he toke the. b. loues & the two fyfthes/ & lo-ed by to heauen * and blessed and brake the loues/ & gaue them to his disciples to put be- fore them: & the two fyfthes he deuided amog them all. And they all dyd eate/ & were satif- fied. And they toke by twelue baskettes full of the gobettes and of the fyfthes. And they that ate were about fyue thousand men.

And streyght waye he caused his disciples to go into the thyppe/ & to go ouer the water beto:re vnto Bethsayda/ whyll he sent awaye the people. * And asone as he had sent them awaye/ he departed into a mostayne to pray. And when euē was come the thyppe was in the middes of the see/ & he alone on the lande and he sawe the troubled in rowynge/ for the wynde was contrary vnto the. And aboute the fourth * quarter of the night/ he came vnto them/ walkinge vpon the see/ and wolde haue passed by the. When they sawe him walkinge vpon the see/ they supposed it had bene a spyt & cryed oute: for they all sawe him/ and were afrayed. And asone he talked with the & sayd vnto them: be of good chere/ it is I/ be not afrayed. * And he went vnto them into the thyppe & the wynde ceased/ & they were soze amazed in the selues beyonde measure/ and marueyled. For they remembred not/ of the loues/ because their hertes were blinded.

And they came ouer/ & went into the lande of Genezareth/ & dwe by into the haue. And asone as they were come out of the thyppe/ streyght they knewe hi/ & rane forth through out all the regyon rounde about/ & began to cary about in beddes all that were syche/ to the place where they hearde tell that he was. And whither soeuer he entred into townes ci- ties/ or villages/ they layde their syche in the streates/ & prayed him that they might touche/ and it were but the edge of his vesture. And as many as touched him/ were safe.

The disciples eate with bntwethen handes. The co maundemet of God is trasgredged by manes tradicions. Of the woman of Syrophecia. Of the Saboth.

The. viij. Chapter.

And Pharises came to gedder vnto him/ & diuers of the scribys/ which came fro Jerusale. And when they sawe certaine of his disciples eate bzed w comen handes (is to saye/ with bntwethen handes) they coplayned. For the Pharises & all the Jewes/ excepte they walshed their handes ofte/ eate not/ obseruinge tradicions of the elders. And when they come fro the market/ excepte they walshed/ they eate not. And many other thinges they be/ which they haue taken vpon the to obserue/ as the washinge of cuppes/ & cruces/ and of brassen vessels and of tables.

Then asked him the Pharises & Scribes why walke not thy disciples according to the traditions of the elders/ but eate bzed with bntwethen handes? He answered & sayd vnto them: well prophesied of you hypocrites/ as it is wyrtten: * This people honoreth me with their lippes/ but their herte is farre fro me: In vayne they worship me/ teaching doctrines which are nothinge but the comaun- dementes of men. For ye laye the comaunde- ment of God aparte/ & obserue the tradicions of men/ as the washinge of cruces & of cup- pes/ & many other suche lyke thynges ye do.

And he sayde vnto the: well/ ye cast a syde the comaundemet of God/ to mayntayne youre awne tradicions. * For Moses sayde/ honoure thy father & thy mother: a whosoever curseth father or mother/ let hym dye for it. But ye saye: a mā shall saye to father or mother/ Coz ban: whych is/ thou desyrest of me to helpe the with is geue God. And so ye suffre him no moze to do ought for his father or his mother/ makinge the word of God of none effecte/ through youre awne tradicions whych ye haue ordeyned. And many soche thinges do ye.

And he called all the people vnto him/ and sayde vnto the: herken vnto me/ euery one of you & vnderstande. * There is nothinge wyth out a mā that can defyle hym/ whē it entreteth into him/ but those thyngs which procede out of him/ are those whych defyle the man. If any man haue eares to heare/ let him heare. And when he came to house awaye fro the people/ his disciples asked him of the symilitude. And he sayde vnto them: are ye so without vnder- standinge? Do ye not yet perceaue/ what soeuer thyng come from wythout/ entreteth in to a man/ it cannot defyle him/ because it entreteth not into his hert/ but into the belly/ & goeth out into the draught that purgeth out all meates.

And he sayde: the defyleth a man whych cometh out of a man. For fro with in/ euē out of the herte of man/ procede euill thoughtes/ aduouty/ fornicaciō/ murther/ theft/ coue- tounes/ wickednes/ deceyte/ vncleennes/ & a wicked eye/ blasphemy/ pryde/ folywes: all these euill thinges come fro with in/ & defyle a mā. * And from thence he rose & wēt into the borders of Tyre & Sydon: & entred into an house/ & wolde that no man shuld haue knowē. But he coulde not be hyd. For a certayne wo- man whose daughter had a foule spyt heard of him & came a fell at his fete. The woman was a Greke oute of Syrophecia/ and she besought him that he wolde cast out the deuyll oute of her daughter. And Iesus sayde vnto her: let the chyldren fyrt be feed. For it is not mete to take the chyldrens bzed/ and to caste it vnto it vnto whelpes. She answered & sayd vnto him: euē so Master/ neuerthelesse/ the whel- pes also eate vnder the table of the chyldrens crome. And he sayde vnto her: for this sayinge go thy waye/ the deuyll is gone out of thy daughter. And when she was come home to her house/ she founde the deuyll departed/ & her daughter lyinge on the bed.

And he departed agayne fro the costes of Tyre and Sydon/ & came vnto the see of Galile. And he brought vnto hym one that was deffe & stambled in hys speche/ & prayde him to put his hande vpon him. And he toke him a syde from the people/ & put his fingers in his eares & dyd spyt & touched his tounge & loke vnto heauē & sighted/ and sayd vnto him: Ephatha/ that is to saye/ be opened. And streyght waye hys eares were opened/ & the stringe of his tounge was loosed/ and he spa- ke playne. And he comaunded them that they shulde tell no man. But the moze he forbad them/ so moche the moare a grete deale they publyshed it: and were beyonde measure astonyed/ sayinge: * He hath done all thynges well/ and hath made booth the deffe to heare and the domme to speake.

The myracle of the seuen loues. The Pharises aske a sygne. The leuen of the Pharises. The blinde re- ceaueth hys sight.

The. viij. Chapter.

In the dayes when ther was a very grete companye/ & had nothyng to eate/ Iesus called his dyscyples to him and sayde vnto them: I haue compassion on this people/ because they haue now bene with me. iij. dayes/ and haue no- thinge to eate: and yet I shuld sende the awaye fastyng to their awne houses/ they shulde saynt by the waye. For diuers of them came from farre. And hys dyscyples answered hym: where shulde a man haue bzeade here in the wilderness to satisfie these? And he asked them: how many loues haue ye? They sayde/ seuen. And he comaunded the people to sit doune on the grounde. And he toke the. viij. lo- ues/ gaue thankes/ brake & gaue to hys dis- ciples/ to set before the. And they dyd set the before the people. And they had a fewe small fyfthes. And he blessed the & comaunded them also to be set before them. And they ate and were sufficed. And they toke vp of the broke meate that was left. viij. baskettes full. And they that ate/ were in number aboute fower thousand. And he sent them awaye.

And as none he entred into a thyp with his dyscyples/ & came into the parties of Dalmanu- tha. * And the Pharises came forth/ & begane to dispute with him/ sekinge of hym a sygne fro heauē & temptinge him. And he syghed in his spete & sayd: why doth this generaciō seke a sygne? Verely I saye vnto you/ ther shall no signe be geuen vnto this generaciō. And he leste them and went into the thyp a- gayne/ and departed ouer the water.

And they had forgotten to take bzed with the/ nether had they in the thyp with the moze then one loofe. And he charged them sayinge: Take hede/ & beware of the leuē of the Pha- rises/ & of the leuē of Herode. And they reaso- ned amogge them selues sayinge: we haue no bzed. And when Iesus knewe that/ he sayde vnto the: why take ye thought because ye haue no bzed? perceaue ye not yet/ nether vnderstande? Haue ye youre hertes yet blinded? Haue ye eyes and se not? & haue ye eares and heare not? Do ye not remembre? When I brake. b. loues amogge. b. M. How many baskettes full of broke meate toke ye vp? They sayde vnto him/ twelue. When I brake. viij. amonge iiii. M. How many baskettes of the leuinges of broke meate toke ye vp? They sayde/ seuen. And he sayde vnto them: how is it that ye vnderstande not?

And he came to Bethsayda/ and they brought a blinde mā vnto him/ & desyred him to touche him. And he caught the blinde by the hande/ and leade him out of the toune/ & spat in his eyes & put hys handes vpon hym/ and asked hym whether he sawe ought. And he loke vnto and sayde: I se the men: for I se the walke/ as they were trees. After that he put his handes agayne vpon his eyes/ and made him see. And he was restozed to his sight/ and sawe euery mā clerly. And he sent him home to hys house sayinge: nether go into the tou- ne/ nor tell it to any in the toune.

And Iesus wēt out & hys disciples into the townes that longe to the cite called Cesarea Philippi. And by the waye he asked his dyscyples sayinge: who do men saye I am? And they answered/ some saye I thou arte John Bap- tist/ some saye I elyas/ & some one of the prophetes. And he sayde vnto the: but who saye ye I am? Peter answered & sayd vnto him/ thou arte very Christ. And he charged the/ they shuld tel no man of it. And he begane to teache the/ how that the sonne of man must suffre many thinges/ & shulde be reproued of the elders & of the hye prestes & Scribes/ and be kylled/ and after thre dayes aryse agayne. And he spake that sayinge openly. And Pe- ter toke him a syde/ and began to chide hym. When he tourned aboute/ and loke on hys disciples/ and rebuked Peter sayinge. Go af- ter me Satan. For thou sauerest not the thinges of God but the thynges of men.

And he called the people vnto him/ & sayde vnto the: whosoever will folowe me/ let him forsake him selfe & take

The transfiguracion. The lunatike is healed. The dysputacion who shuld be the greatest. Offences are forbydden.

The .ix. Chapter.

After .vi. dayes Iesus toke Peter / James & John / & ledde the by into an hye mountayne out of the waye alone / & he was transfigured before the. And his raymet byd shyne / & was made very whyte / euē as snowe: so whyte as no fuller can make vpon the erth. And there apered vnto them Moyses with Aaron: & they talked with Iesu. And Peter answered and sayde to Iesu: Master here is good beyng for vs / let vs make .iij. tabernacles / one for thee / one for Moyses / and one for Elias. And yet he wist not what he sayde: for they were afrayde. And ther was a cloude that shadow-wed them. And a voyce came out of the cloude sayinge: * This is my deare sonne / heare him. And sodenly they looked rounde aboute them / and sawe no man moze then Iesus only with them.

And as they came doune from the hyll / he charged them / that they shulde tell no man what they had sene tyll the sonne of man were rysen from deeth agayne. And they kepte that sayinge with them / and demaunded one of another / what p rylinge fro deeth agayne shuld meane? And they asked hym sayinge:
why then saye the Scribes / that Moyses muste fyrt come? He answered & sayde vnto the: * Moyses verely shall fyrt come & restore all thynges. And also the sonne of man as it is wyrtten / shall suffre many thynges and shalbe set at nought. Mozeouer I saye vnto you that Elias is come / and they haue done vnto hym whatsoeuer pleased them / as it is wyrtten of hym.

And he came to his disciples & sawe moche people aboute them / and the Scribes dys-putyng with them. And streyght waye all people when they behelde hym / were amased and ran to hym / & saluted hym. And he sayde vnto the Scribes: what dyspute ye with them? * And one of the copanye answered and sayde: Master I haue brought my sonne vnto the / whych hath a domme spyte. And whensoeuer he taketh hym / he teareth hym / and he cometh / and gnaweth with hys te-the / and pyneth awaye. And I spake to thy discyples that they shuld caste hym out / and they coude not.

He answered hym and sayde: O generacio without fayth / how longe shall I be w you?
How longe shall I lustre you? Wrynge hym vnto me. And they brought hym vnto hym.
And asone as the spyte sawe hym / he tare hym. And he fell doune on the grounde wa-lowynge and fominge. And he asked hys father how longe is it a goo / sens this hath happened hym? And he sayd / of a chyld: & ofte tymes casteth him into the fyre / & also into the water / to destroye him. But yf thou canst do enychyng / haue mercy on vs / and helpe vs.
And Iesus sayde vnto hym: yf thou couldest beleue / all thynges are possible to hym that beleueth. And streyght waye the father of the chyld cryed with teares sayinge: Lorde I beleue / helpe myne vnbelefe.

When Iesus sawe that the people came runnyng together vnto hym / he rebuked the foule spyte / sayinge vnto hym: Thou domme and desse spyte / I charge the come oute of hym / and entre no moze into hym.
And the spyte cryed / and rent hym soze and came out: and he was as one that had bene deed / in so moche that many sayde / he is deed.
But Iesus caught hys hande and lyfte hym by / and he rose. And when he was come into the house / hys discyples asked hym secretly why coude not we caste hi out? And he saide vnto them: this kynde can by no nother mea-nes come forth / but by prayer & fastinge.

And they departed thens / & toke their iorney thowow Galile / & he wolde not p any man shuld haue knowe it. For he taught his discyples / & sayde vnto the: * the sonne of man shalbe deliuered into p handes of me / & they shall kyl hym & after p he is kylled he shall aryse agayne the thryd daye. But they wiste not what p sayinge meant / & were afrayed to aske him. And he came to Capernaum. And when he was come to house / he axed the: what was it p ye disputed bitwene you by p waye?
And they helde their peace: for by the waye they reasoned amonge the selues / who shulde be the cheffest. * And he late doune & called p twelue vnto him / & sayde to the: yf any man desyre to be fyrt / the same shalbe last of all / & seruaunt vnto all. And he toke a chyld / & set him in p myddes of the / & toke him in hys armes and sayde vnto them: whosoever receaueth eny soche a chyld in my name / receaueth me.

ceaueth me. And whosoever receaueth me / receaueth not me / but him that sent me.

Iohn answered him sayinge: * Master / we sawe one castinge oute deuyls in thy name / whych foloweth not vs? we forbade him because he foloweth vs not. But Iesus sayd forbid him not. For ther is no man that shall do a myracle in my name / that can tyghtly speake euyl of me. Whosoever is not agast you / is on youre parte. And whosoever shall geue you a cuppe of water to drynke for my names sake / because ye belonge to Chyste / verely I saye vnto you / he shall not lose his rewarde. And whosoever shall offende one of these lytelons / that beleue in me / it were better for hym / that a myllstone were hanged aboute hys necke / and that he were cast into the see. Wherfore yf thy hande offende the / cut hym of. It is better for the / to entre into lyfe maymed / then hauynge two handes go into hell / into fyre that neuer shalbe queched / where their worme dyeth not / and the fyre neuer goeth oute. A yhe wyle yf thy fote offende the / cut hym of. For it is better for the to go halt into lyfe / then hauynge two fete to be cast into hell / into fyre that neuer shalbe quenched: where their worme dyeth not / and the fyre neuer goeth oute. Euen so yf thyne eye offende p / plucke him oute. It is better for the to go into the kyngdome of God with one eye / then hauynge two eyes to be cast into hell fyre: where their worme dyeth not / & the fyre neuer goeth oute.

Every man therfore shalbe salted with fyre. And every sacrifice shalbe seasoned w salt. Salt is good. But yf the salt be vnfauery / what shall ye salte therwith? Se that ye haue salt in youre selues: & haue peace am-ge youre selues / one with another.

The .x. Chapter.

And he rose from thence and went into the coastes of Turie thzough the region that is beyonde Jordan And the people resorted vnto hym a frefre: and as he was wont / he taught the agayne. And the Pharysyes came and asked hym a questyon: whether it were lawfull for a man to put awaye hys wyfe: to proue him.
And he answered and sayd vnto them: * what dyd Moyses byd you do? And they sayde Moses suffered to wyte a testimonyall of deuoz-ement / and to put her awaye. And Iesus answered and sayd vnto them: for the hardnes of youre hertes he wrote this pcept vnto you. But at the fyrt creatiō God made the man and woman. * And for this thynges sake shall man leue his father and mother & hyde by his wife and they twayne shalbe one fleshe. So then are they now not twayne but one fleshe. Therfore what God hath coupled / let not man separat.

And in the house his discyples asked hym agayne of that matter. And he sayde vnto the Whosoever putteth awaye his wyfe & ma-ryeth another / breaketh wedlocke to her-warde. And yf a womā forsake her husband and be married to another / she committeth aduoutrye. * And they brought chyldren to p kyngdome of God. Verely I saye vnto you whosoever shall not receaue p kyngdome of God as a chyld / he shal not entre therein. And he toke the by in his armes / & put his handes vpon them / and blessed them.

I* And when he was come into p waye / ther came one runnyng and kneled to hym / & asked hym: good Master / what shall I do that I maye enheret eternall lyfe? Iesus sayde to hym: why callest thou me good?
There is no mā good but one / whych is God.
Thou knowest the comādemētes: break not matrimony: kyl not: steale not / bere no falsse witness: defraude no man: honoure thy father & mother. He answered & sayde to him master al these I haue obserued fro my yowth Iesus behelde hym / & had a fauour to hym & sayd vnto him: one thinge is lackinge vnto p Go * & sell al that thou hast / and geue to the poore & thou shalt haue treasure in heuē & come & folowe me / & take by the crosse. But he was discumforted with that sayinge / & went awaye mournyng / for he had great possesiōs to forsake them.

And Iesus looked rounde aboute / & sayde vnto his disciples: what an harde thyng is it for the that haue ryches / to entre into p kingdome of God. And his discyples were aston-nyed at hys wordes. But Iesus answered & sayde vnto the: chyldren how harde is it for the that trust in ryches / to entre into the kyngdome of God? It is eaiser for a camell to go thowow the eye of an nedle / then for a ryche man to entre into the kyngdome of God. And they were astōnyed out of measure / sayinge betwene the selues: who then can be saued? Iesus looked vpon the / & sayde:
as with men it is vnpossible / but not with God:
for with God all thynges are possible.

And Peter beganne to saye vnto him: Lorde

The Gospell

And the Gospelles / whych shall not receave an hundred foole nowe in this lyfe: houses and bzythzen / and systers / and mothers / and chyldren / and landes with persecutions: and in the woꝛlde to come / eternall lyfe. Manye are fyzt / shalbe last: & a last / fyzt. And they were in the waye goynge vnto Iherusalem. And Iesus went before them: and they were amazed / and as they folowed / were asfayde.

And Iesus toke the .xij. agayne / & begane to tell them what thynges shuld happē vnto hym. * Beholde we go by to Iherusalem / and the sonne of man shalbe deliuered vnto hye pꝛestres and vnto the scribes: and they shall condempne hym to deeth / & shall deliuer hym to the gentyls: and they shall moche hym / and scourge hym / & spyt vpon hym / and kyll hym. And the thyrde daye he shall rylse agayne.

And then James and John the sonnes of Zebede came vnto hym / sayinge: Master: we wolde that thou shouldest do for vs what soeuer we desyre. He sayde vnto them: what wolde ye? I shuld do vnto you? They sayd to hym: graunt vnto vs that we maye sytte one on thy ryght hande / and the other on thy lyfte hande / in thy gloꝛy. But Iesus sayd vnto the: Ye wot not what ye aske. Can ye drynke of the cup that I shall drynke of / and be baptised in the baptysme that I shalbe baptised in? And they sayde vnto hym: that we can. Iesus sayde vnto them: ye shall drynke of the cup that I shall drynke of / and be baptised with the baptysme that I shalbe baptised in: but to syt on my ryght hande and on my lyfte hande is not myne to geue / but to them for whom it is prepared.

* And when the .x. heard that / they begā to disdayne at James and John. But Iesus called them vnto hym / and sayde to them: ye knowe I the which seme to beare rule amonge the gentyls / raygne as lordes ouer the. And they that be greute amonge them / exercepte auctozite ouer the. So shall it not be amonge you / but whosoever of you wylbe greute amonge you / shalbe youre minister. And who soeuer wylbe chiefe / shalbe seruaunt vnto all. For euen the sonne of mā came not to be mynistred vnto: but to minister / and to geue his lyfe for the redemption of many.

And they came to Hierico. * And as he wēt oute of Hierico with his disciples / & a great nombꝛe of people: Barthimeus the sonne of a thimeus which was blynde / late by the hye wayes syde beggynge. And when he hearde that it was Iesus of Nazareth / he began to crye and to saye: Iesus the sonne of Dauid / haue mercy on me. And many rebuked hym / that he shuld holde hys peace. But he cryed the moꝛe a greute deale / thou sonne of Dauid haue mercy on me. And Iesus stode still / and commaunded hym to be called. And they called the blynde / sayinge vnto hym: Be of good comfoꝛte: rylse / he calleth the. And he thꝛewe awaye hys clooke / and rooffe & came to Iesus. And Iesus answered / & sayde vnto hym: what wilt thou that I do vnto the? The blynde sayde vnto hym: Master / that I might se. Iesus sayde vnto hym: go thy waye / thy sayth hath saued the. And by a by he receaued his sight / and folowed Iesus in the waye.

And when they came nye to Iherusalem vnto Bethphage and Bethanite / belydes mount Oluyete / he sent forth two of hys disciples / and sayde vnto them: Go youre wayes into the toun that is ouer agaynst you. And as sone as ye be entred into it / ye shall fynde a coole bounde / wheron neuer man sate: lase hym and bzyngē hym. And yf eny man saye vnto you: why do ye so? Saye that the Lorde hath neede of hym: and streyght waye he will sende hym hyder. And they went their waye & founde a coole tyed by a doze with out in a place wher two wayes met / & they lased hym. And diuers of the that stode there / sayd vnto them: * what do ye loofynge the coole? And they sayd vnto them euen as Iesus had commaunded the. And they let them go. And they brought the coole to Iesus / and caste their garment on hym: & he sate vpon hym. And many spꝛede their garments in the waye. Other cut doune bꝛanches of the trees / & strowed the in the waye. And they that went before and they that folowed / cryed sayinge: * Hosanna: blessed be he that cometh in the name of the Lorde. Blessed be the kyngdome that cometh in the name of him that is Lorde of oure father Dauid: Hosanna in the hyest.

And the Lorde entred into Iherusalem & into the tēple. And whē he had looked round about vpon all thynges / and now the euē tyde was come / he went out vnto Bethany / with the twelue. And on the moꝛowe when they were come out fro Bethany / he hungred / & spied a fygge tree a farr of hauinge leues / & wēt to se whether he myght fynde eny thyng ther to eate. But when he came therto / he founde no thyng but leues: for the tyme of fygges was not yet. And Iesus answered and sayde to it: neuer man eate frute of the here after whyll I woꝛlde standith. And his disciples heard it.

And they came to Iherusalem. And Iesus went into the temple / & beganne to cast out the sellers and byers in the temple / & ouerthꝛewe the tables of the money chaungers / and the stoles of them that solde doves: and wolde not wolde not suffre that eny man carped a betsell thozow the tēple. And he taught sayinge vnto them: * is it not wyttē: my house shalbe called the house of prayer vnto all nacions? But ye haue made it a den of theues.

And the scribes and hye pꝛestres hearde it and sought howe to destrope him. For they feared hym / because all the people marueled at his doctrine. And when euē was come / he wēt out of the cite. * And in the moꝛning as they passed by / they sawe the fygge tree dryed by the rotes. And Peter remembꝛed / & sayde vnto hym: master / beholde / I sigge tree which thou cursedst / is withered awaye. And Iesus answered & sayde vnto the: haue cofydens in God. * Verely I saye vnto you / I whosoever shall saye vnto this mountayne: take awaye thy selfe / & cast thy selfe into the see & shall not wauer in his herte / but shall beleue those thynges whych he sayeth shall come to passe / what soeuer he sayeth / shalbe done to him. Therfore I saye vnto you: * whatsoeuer ye desyre wēt ye praye / beleue ye shal haue it / and it shalbe done vnto you. And when ye stande praye / forgeue yf ye haue eny thyng agaynst eny mā: I your father also which is in heuē / maye forgeue you youre trespass.

And they came agayne to Iherusalem. * And as he walked in the tēple / ther came to him the hye pꝛestres / & scribes / & elders / & sayd vnto him: by what auctozite doest thou these thynges? a who gaue the auctozite / to do these thynges? Iesus answered & sayde vnto the: I will also aske of you a certayne thyng & answer ye me / and I will tel you by what auctozite I do these thynges. The baptysme of John / was it from heuē or of men?

And they thought in the selues sayinge: yf we shall saye fro heuē: he wyl saye / why then dyd ye not beleue hym? but yf we shall saye / of men: then feare we the people. For all men counted John / that he was a be-ried prophete. And they answered & sayd vnto Iesus: we cannot tell. And Iesus answered / and sayd vnto them: nether will I tell you by what auctozite I do these thynges.

The byneparde is let oute. Geue to Cesar & belongeth to Cesar. Of the Saduces / of the doctoz / of lawe. ypoctrites must be estewed / & offeryng of pꝛoze wedowe Chap. xxi. Chapter.

And he beganne to speake vnto the in similitudes. A certayne mā plantēd a byneparde / & copaled it w an hedge & ordeyned a wyne pꝛesse / & bylt a toure in it. And let it out to hye vnto husbandmē / & wēt into a straunge countre. And whē the tyme was come / he sent to the tēnantes a seruaunt / & he myght receaue of the tēnantes of the frute of the byneparde. And they caught hym & bet hyn / and sent him agayne emptye.

And moꝛeouer he sent vnto the another seruaunt / & at hym they cast stones & brake hys heed / and sent him agayne all to reuylled. And agayne he sent another / & hym they kyllled: & many other / beetinge some & kyllinge some.

Yethad he one sonne who he loued tenderly / him also he sent at the last vnto the sayinge they will feare my sonne. * But the tēnantes sayde amongest the selues: this is the heyre: come let vs kill him / & the inheritaunce shalbe oures. And they toke hym & kyllled hym / & cast hym oute of the byneparde. What shall then the Lorde of the byneparde do? He will come and destrope the tēnantes / & let out the byneparde to other. Haue ye not redde this scrpyture? * The stone whych the bylders dyd refuse / is made the chiefe stoon in the corner: this was done of the Lorde / and is meruelous in oure eyes. And they went about to take hym / but they feared the people. For they perceaued that he spake that similitude agaynst them. And they left him and went their waye.

* And they sent vnto him certayne of the pharises with Herodes seruantes / to take him in his word. And as sone as they were come they sayd vnto hym: master we knowe that thou arte true / & carest for no mā: for thou conydest not the degre of me / but teachest the waye of God truly: Is it lawfull to paye tribute to Cesar / or not? Ought we to geue / or ought we not to geue? He vnderstode their simulation & sayde vnto them: Why tempte ye me? Bzyngē me a peny / & I maye se it. And they brought. And he sayde vnto them: Whose is this ymage and superscrpycon? And they sayd vnto him / Cesar. And Iesus answered and sayde vnto them: * Then geue to Cesar that whych belongeth to Cesar: and to God / that whych pertyneth to God. And they meruelled at hym.

Then came the Saduces vnto hym / which saye / ther is no resurreccyon. And they asked hym sayinge: * Master / Moyses wꝛote vnto vs yf eny mans brother dye / & leue hys wyfe behynde him / and leue no chyldren: that then hys brother shuld take hys wyfe / and reyle by seed vnto hys brother. There were seuen bꝛethzen: and the fyzt toke a wyfe / and whē he dyed leest no seed behynde hym. And the seconde toke hye / and dyed: nether leest eny seed. And the thyrde lyke wyse. And seuen had her and leest no seed behynde them. Last of all the wyfe dyed also. In the resurreccyon then whē they shall rylse agayne: whose wyfe shall she be of them? For seuen had her to wyfe. Iesus answered and sayde vnto them: Are ye not therfore deceaued and vnderstande not the scrpytures / nether the power of God? For when they shall rylse agayne from deeth / they nether marry / nor are marryed: but are as the angels.

the angels which are in heauen. As touchyng the deed/that they shall ryse agayne: haue ye not redde in the booke of Moses/ howe in the bushe God spake vnto hym sayinge: * I am the God of Abraham and God of Isaac/ and the God of Jacob: He is not the God of the deed/ but the God of the luyunge. Ye are therfore greatly deceaued.

* And ther came one of the Scribes that had hearde them disputyng to geder/ & perceaued that he had answered them well/ and asked hym: whych is the fyrste of all the comaundementes? Iesus answered hym: the fyrste of all the comaundementes is. Heare Israel: * The Lorde God/ is one Lorde. And thou shalt loue the Lorde thy God wth all thy hert/ and wth all thy soule/ and wth all thy mynde/ and wth all thy strength. Whys is the fyrste comaundement. And the seconde is lyke vnto this: * Thou shalt loue thy neghbour as thy selfe. Ther is none other commaundement greater then these.

And the Scribe sayde vnto hym: well master/ thou hast sayde the truth/ that ther is one God & that ther is none but he. And to loue him with all the herte/ & with all thy mynde & with all the soule/ & with all thy strength: & to loue a mans neyghbour as hym selfe/ is a greater thinge then all burnt offeringes & sacrifices. And whē Iesus sawe he answered farre from the kyngdome of God. And no mā after that/ durst aske hym any question.

And Iesus answered and sayd/ teachyng in the tēple: how saye the Scribes & Chyrt is the sonne of Dauid? for Dauid hym selfe inspyred with the holy goost/ sayde: The Lorde sayde to my Lorde/ syt on my ryght hande
* tyl I make thyn enemyes thy fote stole.
Then Dauid hym selfe calleth him Lorde: and by what meanes is he then lvs sonne? And moche people hearde him gladly.

And he sayde vnto thm in his doctrine: be ware of the Scribes which loue to go in lōge clothynges: and loue saluacions in the market places/ and the chiefe seates in the synagogues/ and to syt in the bypermost roumes at feastes/ and deuoure widowes houses/ & that vnder a coloure of lōge prayyng. These shall receaue greater dampnacō.

* And Iesus sat ouer agaynst the treasury/ and behelde how the people put money into the treasury. And many that were ryche cast in moch. And ther cam a certayne poore wydowe/ & she threwe in two mytes/ which make a farthyng. And he called vnto hym his discyples and sayde vnto them: werey I saye vnto you/ that thys poore wydowe hath cast moare in/ then all they which haue caste into the treasury. For they all dyd cast in of their superfluyte: but she of her pouerte/ dyd cast in all she had/ euen all her lyuynge. & The ende of the worlde. The daye and the houre is unknowne.

The. xliij. Chapter. *

And as he wēt out of the tēple/ one of his discyples sayde vnto hym: Master/ se what stones/ and what bygdynges are here. And Iesus answered and sayde vnto him: Seyt thou these greate bygdynges? There shall not be lefte one stone vpon a nother/ that shall not be thzowen doune. And as he late on mounte Olyuete/ ouer agaynst the temple/ Peter/ & James and John/ and Andzē asked hym secretly: tell vs/ when shall these thinges be?
And what is the sygne when all these thinges shall be fulfilled? And Iesus answered them/and began to saye: * take hede lest eny man deceauē you. For many shall come in my name sayinge: I am Chyrt/ & shall deceauē many.

When ye shall heare of warre and tydin-ges of warre/ be ye not troubled. For soche thinges must nedes be. But the ende is not yet. For ther shall nacyon arylse agaynst nacyon/ and kyngdome agaynst kyngdome.
And ther shall be erth quakes in all quarters/and famyment and troubles. These are the be-gynnynges of sorowes. * But take ye hede to your selues. For they shall bzyngē you bp to the counseils and into the synagoges/ and ye shall be beaten: ye and shall be brought before rulers and kynges for my sake for a te-stimoniall vnto them. And the Gospell must fyrste be publisshed amonge all nacjons.

* But when they lade you and present you take no thought asore hande what ye shall saye/ nether ymagin: but whatsoeuer is geuen you at the same tyme/ that speake. For it shall not be ye that shall speake/ but the holy goost. Ye and the brother shall deliuer brother to deeth/ and the father the sonne/ & the chylzen shall ryse agaynst their fathers and mothers/ and shall put them to deeth.
And ye shall be hated of all men for my names sake. But who soeuer shall endure vnto the ende/ the same shall be safe.

* Moreover when ye se the abhominacyon that he tokeneth desolacion/ wherof is spokē by Daniel the prophet/ stande where it ought not/ let him & rebeth vnderstāde. When let the be in Iurie/ & to the mountaynes. And let hym that is on the house toppe not descende doune into the house/ nether entre therin/ to fetteh eny thyng oute of hys house. And let him that is in the felde/ not tourne backe agayne vnto the thinges which he leest behynde him for to take hys clothes wth hym. And shall be then to them that are wth chylde/ and to them that geue soucke in those dayes. But praye/

that your praye/ that your flight be not in winter.
For ther shall be in those dayes suche trybulacion/ as was not fro the begynnyng of creatures which God created vnto this tyme/ nether shall be. And excepte that the Lord wuld shorten those dayes/ no man shulde be saued.
But for the electes sake/ which he hath chosen/ he hath shortened those dayes.

* And then/ yf eny mā saye to you: lo/ here is Chyrt/ lo/ he is there/ beleue not. For false Chyrtes shall ryse/ & false prophetes/ & shall shewe myracles & wondres/ to deceauē yf it were possible/ euē & electe. But take ye hede: behold/ I haue shewed you all thinges before.
* Moreover in those dayes/ after that tri-bulacion/ the sunne shall waxe darke/ & the mone shall not geue her lyght/ & the starres of heuē shall fall: & the powers which are in heuen/ shall moue. And then shall they se the sonne of man comyng in the cloudes/ with greate power and glory. And then shall he sende his angels/ & shall gather to gether his electe from the fower wyndes/ and from the one ende of the worlde to the other.

Learnē a symilitude of the figge tree. Whē his brāches are yet tender/ & hath brought forth leues/ ye knowe that sommer is neare.
So in lyke maner when ye se these thynges come to passe/ vnderstand/ that it is nye euen at the doores. Wherey I saye vnto you/ & thys generacion shall not passe/ tyl these thinges be done. Heuen and erth shall passe/ but my wordes shall not passe. But of the daye & the houre knoweth no man: no not the Angels which are in heuē: * nether the sonne him selfe: saue the father only.

Take hede/ watche & praye/ for ye knowe not whē the tyme is. As a mā which is gone into a strange contrey/ and hath lefte hys house/ and geuē auctorite to hys seruantes/and to euery mā his worke/ and comaunded the porter to watche. Watche therfore/ for ye knowe not when the master of the house will come/ whether at euen or at midnyght/ whether at the cocke crowyng or in the daunynge: lest yf he come sodēly he shuld fynde you sle-pyng. And that I saye vnto you/ I saye vnto all men/ watche.

¶ Mary Magdalen anoynteth Chyrt. The effer labe other thynges that were demaunded of Chyrt.

The. xliij. Chapter. *

¶ After two dayes folowed effer/ and the dayes of swete bzēd. And the hye prestes & the Scribes sought meanes how they myghte take him by craft and put him to deeth. But they sayde: not in the feast daye/ lest eny busynes arylse amonge the people.

* When he was in Bethania/ in the house of Simon the leper/ euē as he late at meate/ther cam a womā hauryng an alabaster boxe of oymēt called narde/ that was pure and costly: & she brake the boxe & powred it on is heed. And ther were some that were not cōtent in the selues/ & sayde: what neded this waste of oymēt? For it myght haue bene soolde for moze then thze hundred pens & bene geue vnto the poore. And they grudged agaynst her.

And Iesus sayde: lett her be in rest/ why trouble ye her? She hath done a good worke on me. For ye shall haue poore with you all wayes: & when soeuer ye will ye maye do the good: but me ye shall not haue alwayes.
She hath done & she coulde. She came a fore hande to anoynt my body to hys buryng warde. Wherey I saye vnto you: wher soeuer this Gospell shall be preached thozow out the whole worlde: this also & she hath done/ shall be rehearsed in remembraunce of her.

* And Judas Iscarioth/ one of the twelue/ went awaye vnto the hye prestes/ to betraye hym vnto them.
When they herde that/ they were gladde/ and prompyed that they wolde geue hym money. And he sought/ howe he myght conueniently betraye him.

And the fyrste daye of swete bzēd/ when men offer the pascall lambe/ his discyples sayd vnto him: where wilt thou & we go & prepare/ that thou mayst eate the effer lambe? And he sent forth two of his discyples/ & sayde vnto them. Go ye into the cytie/ & ther shall a mā mete you beryng a pitcher of water/ folowe him. And whither soeuer he goeth in/ saye ye to the good mā of the house/ the master asketh where is the geest chambrē/ where I shall eate the effer lambe with my discyples. And he will shewe you a greate parlour/ paved and prepared: there make ready for vs. And his discyples went forth and came to the cytie and founde as he had sayde vnto them: and made ready the effer lambe.

* And at euē he came with the. xij. And as they late at bozde and ate/ Iesus sayde: werey I saye vnto you: that one of you shall betraye me which eateth with me. And they be-ganne to mozne/ & to saye to him one by one: is it I? And another sayde: is it I? He answered & sayd vnto them: It is one of the. xij.
and the same deppeth with me in the platter.
The sonne of man goeth/ as it is wyrtten of hym: but two be to that man/ by whome the sonne of man is betrayed. Good were it for him: yf that man had neuer bene borne.

And as they ate/ Iesus toke bzēd/ blessed and brake and gaue to them and sayd: Take/eate/ this is my body. And he toke the cup/ gaue thankes/ & gaue it to the/ & they all drancke of it. And he sayde vnto them: This is my bloude of the new Testament which is shed for you.

for many. Verily I saye vnto you: I will drinke nomore of this frute of the vyne/ vntyll I drinke it new in the kyngdome of God. And whē they had sayde grace: they went out to mount olyuete.

And Iesus sayd vnto the: All ye shalbe offended thozow me this night: for it is writte: I will smyte the shepherd / & the shepe shalbe scattered. But after I am risen agayne / I will go into Galile before you. * Peter sayd vnto him: And though all men shuld be offended / yet wolde not I. And Iesus sayde vnto him: Verily I saye vnto the / this daye euē in this night before I cooke crowe twyse / thou shalt denye me thysse. And he spake boldly: no / yf I shulde dye with the / I will not deny the. Lkewyse also sayde they all.

* And they came into a place named Gethsemani. And he sayde to his disciples: Sit ye here whyll I go aparte & praye. And he toke with him Peter / James & John / & he began to waxe abashed & to be in an agony & sayd vnto them: My soule is very heuy euen vnto the deeth / tary here and wathe. And he went forth a litle and fell doune on the grounde & prayed: yf it were possible / yf houre might passe fro him. And he sayde: * Abba father / all thynges are possible vnto yf take awaye this cup from me. Neuerthelesse not that I will: but that thou wilt be done.

And he cam & founde the slepyng / & sayde to Peter: Simon sleepest thou? Couldst not thou wathe with me one houre? wathe ye / & praye lest ye entre into tēptacion / yf spyete is redy / but the flesch is weeke. And agayne he went awaye & prayde and spake the same wordes. And he returned & founde the a slepe agayne for their eyes were heuy: nether wist they what to answer him. And he came the thyrde tyme & sayde vnto them: slepe hens forth / and take youre ease / it is ynough. The houre is come / beholde yf sonne of mā shalbe deliuered into handes of synners. Ryse vp / let vs go. Lo he yf betrayeth me / is at hande.

And immediatly whill he yet spake / came Judas one of the twelue / & to him a greates number of people with swerdes and staves from the hye prestes and scribes & elders. And he that betrayed hym had geuen them a generall token saying: whosoever I do kisse / he it is: take him & leade him awaye warly. And as sone as he was come / he wēt straight waye to him / & sayde vnto him: master master / & kyssed him. And they layde their handes on him / and toke hym. And one of them that stode by / drew out a swearde / and smote a seruant of the hye preste / and cut of his eare.

And Iesus answered & sayd vnto them: ye become out as vnto a thefe w swerdes & staves / for to take me. I was dayly with you in the temple teaching / & ye toke me not: but yf the scriptures shuld be fulfilled. And they all forsoke him & ranne awaye. And ther followed him a certayne yonge man / clothed in lynnē byō the bare / & the yongemen caught him / & he leste his lynnē / & fled from the naked. * And they leed Iesus awaye to the hyest preste of all: & to him cam all the hye prestes / and the elders / and the scribes. And Peter followed him a greates waye of euen into the pallys of the hye preste / and sat with the seruantes / and warmed him selfe at the fyre.

And yf hye prestes & all yf counsell sought for witnes agaynst Iesu / to put him to deeth & founde noone. Yet many bare false witnes agaynst him / but their witnes agreed not together. And ther arose certayne & broughte false witnes agaynst him sayinge. We herde him saye: I will destroye thys temple made with handes / and with in thre dayes I will bylde another / made without handes. But their witnes agreed not together.

And yf hye preste stode by amōgest the / & asked Iesus sayinge: answerest thou nothyng? How is it that these beare witnes agaynst yf? And he helde is peace / & answered nothing. Agayne yf hye preste asked him & sayde vnto him: Arte thou Christ yf sonne of the blessed? And Iesus sayd: I am. * And ye shall se the sonne of mā syt on the ryght hand of power / & come in the cloudes of heauen. Then the hyest preste rent his clothes & sayd: what nede we eny further of wytnes? Ye haue hearde blasphemie / what thinke ye? And they all gaue sentence that he was worthy of deeth. And some begane to spit at him / & to couer his face / & to bete him with fistes / and to laye vnto him / arede vnto vs. And the seruantes boffeted him on the face.

And as Peter was beneath in the pallys / ther cam one of yf wenches of yf hyest preste: & whē she sawe Peter warminge him self / she looked on him / & sayde: wast not thou also with Iesus of Nazareth? And he denyed it saying: I knowe him not / nether wot I what thou sayest. And he wēt out into the porche / and yf cooke crowe. And a damsell sawe him: & agayne beganne to saye to the yf stode by / this is one of the. And he denyed it agayne. And anone after / they that stode by / sayde agayne to Peter: suerly thou arte one of the / for thou arte of Galile / & thy speache agreth therto. And he beganne to curse & to sweare sayinge: I knowe not thys man of whom ye speake. And agayne the cooke crowe / & Peter remembred the worde that Iesus sayde vnto him / before yf cooke crowe twyse / thou shalt denye me thysse / & beganne to wepe.

And anone in the dawninge the hye prestes helde counsell w yf elders & the scribes / & the whole congregacion & bounde Iesus & ledde him awaye & deliuered hym to Pilate. And Pilate asked hym: arte thou the kyng of yf Jewes? And he answered and sayd vnto him: thou sayest it. And yf hye prestes accused him of many thynges. Wherfore Pilate asked him agayne sayinge: * Answerest thou nothyng? Beholde how many thynges they lay vnto thy charge. Iesus yet answered neuer a worde / so that Pilate merueled.

At that feast Pilate was wont to deliuer at their pleasure a prisoner: whosoever they wolde desyre. And ther was one named Barabas / which laye bounde w them yf made insurreccion / & in the insurreccyon comitted murder. And the people called vnto him / and began to desyre accordyng as he had euer done vnto them. Pilate answered them and sayde: Will ye that I loose vnto you yf kyng of yf Jewes? for he knewe yf the hye prestes had deliuered him of enuy. But yf hye prestes had moued the people that he shulde rather deliuer Barabas vnto them.

And Pilate answered agayne / and sayde vnto the: * What will ye then that I do with him whō ye call the kyng of the Jewes? And they cryed agayne: crucifie him. Pilate sayd vnto the: What euill hath he done? And they cryed the more feruently: Crucifie hym. And so Pilate willinge to content yf people lowed them Barabas / and deliuered Iesus whē he had scourged him / for to be crucified.

And the soudyers ledde him awaye into yf comen hall / and called together the whole multitude / & they clothed him with purple / & they platted a crowne of thornes & crowned him with all / & begane to salute him. Hail kyng of the Jewes. And they smote hym on the heed with a rede / and spat vpon him / and worshyped him.

And whē they had mocked him / they toke the purple of him / & put his awne clothes on him and ledde him out / to crucifie him. * And they compelled one that passed by / called: Simon of Cyrene (which cam out of the felde / and was father of Alexander and Rufus) to beare his croffe. And they brought hym to a place named Golgotha (which is by interpre tacion / the place of deed mens scoules) and they gaue him to drinke / wyne mingled with myre / but he receaued it not.

And when they had crucified hym / they parted his garmetes / castinge lotes for the / what euery man shulde haue. And it was aboute yf thirde houre / & they crucified him. And the tytle of his cause was wyrtten: the kyng of the Jewes / And they crucified with him two theues: the one on the ryght hande / and the other on his lyfte. And the scripture was fulfilled which sayeth: he was counted amonge the wycked.

* And they yf wēt by rayled on him: wagginge their heedes and sayinge: A wycthe / that destroyest the temple / and byldest it in thre dayes: saue thy selfe / & come doune from the croffe. Lkewyse also mocked him yf hye prestes amonge them selues with the scribes & sayde / he saued other men / him selfe he cannot saue. Let Christ the kyng of yfrael now descende from the croffe / that we maye se and beleue. And they that were crucified with him / checked him also.

And when yf sixte houre was come darcknes arose ouer all the erth vntyll the nynthe houre. And at the nynthe houre Iesus cryed w a loude voyce saying: Eli / Eli / lamaa / bethani / which is yf it be interpreted: * my God my God why hast thou forsake me. And some of the that stode by / when they hearde that / sayd: beholde he calleth for Helias. And one ran and fylled a sponge full of beneger / and put it on a rede / & gaue him to drinke / sayinge: let him alone / let vs se whether he prayas will come and take him doune.

But Iesus cryed with a loude voyce / and gaue vp the goost. And the bayle of the temple dyd rent in two peces / fro the toppe to yf bottome. And when the Centurion whych stode before hym / sawe yf he so cryed & gaue by the gooste / he sayde: truly this mā was sonne of God. Ther were also women a good waye of beholdinge him: amonge whō was Mary Magdalen and Mary the mother of James the litle / & of Joses / and Mary Salome: which also when he was in Galile / lowed him & mynistred vnto him / and many other women which came by with him vnto yf Jerusalem.

And now when nyght was come / because it was the euē that goeth before the saboth / Joseph of Arimathia a noble Councellour / which also looked for the kyngdome of God / came & wēt in boldly vnto Pilate / & begged the body of Iesu. And Pilate merueled that he was already deed / and called vnto hym the Centurion / and asked of him / whether he had bene eny while deed. And when he knewe the truth of yf Centurion / he gaue the body to Joseph. And he bought a linnen clothe / and toke him doune / and wapped him in the linnen clothe / and layde hym in a tombe that was hewen oute of the sepulcre. And Mary Magdalen and Mary Joses behelde where he was layde.

And when the Saboth daye was past / Mary Magdalen / & Mary Jacoby / & Salome / bought spices / & they myght come & anoynt him. And early in the morning the nexte daye after the Saboth daye / they came vnto the sepulchre / whē the sunne was rylen. And they sayde one to another: who shall rolle vs awaye the stone from the doore of the sepulchre? And when they looked / they sawe how the stone was rolled awaye: for it was a very greate one. And they went into the sepulchre / and sawe a younge man sytting on the ryght syde / clothed in a longe white garment / and they were abashed. * And he sayde vnto them / be not afrayed: ye see Iesus of Nazareth / whych was crucified. He is rylen / he is not here. Beholde the place / where they put him. But goo poure waye / and tell his disciples / & namely Peter: he will go before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him / as he sayd vnto you. & And they went oute quickly and fled from the sepulchre. For they trembled & were amazed. Nether sayde they eny thyng to eny mā / for they were afrayed.

* When Iesus was rylen & moztow after the Saboth daye / he appered fyrst to Mary Magdalen / out of whom he cast seue deuyls. And she went and tolde them that were with him / as they mourned & weapte. And though they herde that he was aloue and had appered to her / yet they beleued it not. * After that he appered vnto two of the in a straunge figure / as they walked & went into the country. And they went & tolde it to the remnant. And they beleued them nether.

* After that / he appered vnto the eleue as they sate at meate: and cast in their teth their vnbelefe & hardnes of herte: because they beleued not them which had sene him after his resurrection. And he sayde vnto them: * Goo ye into all the worlde / and preache the glad tydings to all creatures / he that beleueth & is baptised / shall be saved. But he that beleueth not / shall be dampned.

And these thynges shall folowe the that beleue. In my name they shall cast out deuyls / & shall speake in newe edges / & shall kyl serpentes. And yf they drinke any deadly thyng / it shall not hurte them. They shall laye their handes on the sycke / & they shall recouer.

So then when the Lorde had spoken vnto them / he was receaued into heauen / & sate him doune on the ryght hand of God. And they went forth / and preached euery where. And the Lorde wrought with them / & confirmed the worde with myracles that folowed.

The conception and birth of John the baptist. The conception of Christ. The thankfull songes of Mary and Zachary.

The fyrst Chapter.

There was in the dayes of Herode the kynge of Iurie a certayne Prieste named Zacharyas / of the course of Abia. And his wyfe was of the daughters of Aaron: and her name was Elizabeth. Booth were perfect before God / and walked in all the lawes and ordynances of the Lorde / that no man coulde fynde faulte with them. And they had no chyld / because that Elizabeth was barre and booth were well stricken in age.

And it came to passe / as he executed the Priestes offyce before God / as his course came (accorpyng to the custome of the Priestes offyce) his lot was to burne incense. And he went into the temple of the Lorde / and the whoale multitude of the people were without in prayer whill the incense was aburnynge. And ther appered vnto him an Angell of the Lorde standynge on the ryght syde of the altare of incense. And when Zacharyas sawe him him / he was abashed / & feare cam on him. And the Angell sayde vnto him: feare not Zachary / for thy prayer is heard: * And thy wyfe Elizabeth shall beare the a sonne / and thou shalt call his name John / & thou shalt haue ioye and gladnes / & many shall reioyce at his birth. For he shall be greate in the syght of the Lorde / & shall nether drinke wyne nether stronge drinke. And he shall be filled with the holy goost / euē in his mothers wombe: & many of the chyldre of Israel shall be tourne to their Lorde God. And he shall go before him in the spyte & power of Elias / to tourne the hartes of the fathers to the chyldre / and the vnbeleuers to the wylsome of the iuste men: to make the people redy for the Lorde.

And Zacharyas sayde vnto the Angell: wherby shall I knowe this: sayng that I am olde and my wyfe well strycken in yeres. And the angell answered and sayde vnto hym. I am Gabriel that stande in the presens of God / & am sent to speake vnto the: and to shewe the these glad tydings. And beholde thou shalt be domme / & not be able to speake / vntyll the tyme the these thynges be performed / because thou beleuest not my wordes which shall be fulfilled in their season.

And the people waited for Zacharyas and merueyled that he tarped in the temple. And when he came out / he coulde not speke vnto the. Wherby they perceaued that he had sene some visyon in the temple. And he beckened vnto them / & remayned speechlesse.

* And it fortuneth / as sone as the tyme of his offyce was oute / he departed home into his atome house. And after those dayes / his wyfe Elizabeth conceaued / & byd her selfe fyue monethes sayng: * This wyfe hath God deaite with me in the dayes whē * he looked on me / to take fro me the rebuke & I suffered amonge men. And in the fyrte moneth the angell Gabriel was sent from God vnto a cytie of Galilee / named Nazareth / to a virgin spoused to a mā whose name was Ioseph / of the house of Dauid / & the virgins name was Mary. And the angell wet in vnto her / & sayde: * Hail full of grace / the Lorde is with the: blessed arte thou amonge women.

When she sawe hym she was abashed at his sayng: and cast in her mynde what manner of salutation that shulde be. And the angell sayd vnto her: feare not Mary: for thou hast founde grace with God. Lo / thou shalt conceaue in thy wombe / and shalt beare a sonne / & shalt call his name Iesus. He shall be greate / & shall be called the sonne of the hyst. And the Lorde God shall geue vnto hym the seate of his father Dauid / & he shall raygne ouer the house of Iacob for euer / and of his kyngdome shall be none ende.

Then sayde Mary vnto the angell: How shall this be / sayng I knowe not a man? And the angell answered & sayd vnto her: The holy goost shall come vpon the / & the power of the hyst shall ouer shadowe the. * Therefore also that holy thyng whych shall be borne / shall be called the sonne of God. And beholde thy colen Elizabeth she hath also conceaued a sonne in her age. And this is her fyrte moneth / though she be called barren: for with God can nothinge be impossible. And Mary sayde: beholde the hande mayden of the Lorde / be it vnto me euē as thou hast sayde. * And the angell departed from her.

* And Mary arose in those dayes / & went into the mountayns with haste / into a cytie of Iurie / & entred into the house of Zachary / & saluted Elizabeth. And it fortuneth / as Elizabeth heard the salutation of Mary / the babe spronge in her belly. And Elizabeth was fylled with the holy goost / & cryed in a loude voyce / & sayde: Blessed arte thou amonge the women & blessed is the frute of thy wombe. And whence hapeneth this to me that the mother of my Lorde shulde come to me? For lo / as sone as the voyce of thy salutaciō sounded in myne eares / the babe sprange in my belly for ioye. And blessed arte thou that beleuest: for those thynges shall be performed whych were tolde the fro the Lorde. And Mary sayde:

My soule magnifyeth the Lorde. And Magnificat my sprete reioyseth in God my sauour. * For he hath looked on the pooze degre of his hande mayden. Beholde now fro hence forth shall all generacions calle me blessed. For he the is myghty hath done to me greate thynges / and holpe is his name. And his mercy on the that feare him thozow out all generacions. He sheweth strength / with his arme / he scattereth them that are proude in the ymaginacyon of their hartes. He putteth doune the myghty from their seates / and exalteth them of lowe degre. He fylleth the hongry w good thynges: & sendeth awaye the ryche emptye. He remembreth mercy: and helpeth his seruauant Israel.

* Euē as he promysed to oure fathers / Abrahā / ham and to his seede for euer. And Mary abode with her aboute a .iiij. monethes / and retourned agayne to her atome house.

* Elizabethes tyme was come & she shuld be deliuered / and she brought forth a sonne. And her neyghbours and her cosins hearde tell how the Lorde had shewed great mercy vpon her / and they reioyced with her.

And it fortuneth the eyght daye: they came to circuncyse the chyld: and called his name Zacharyas / after the name of his father. How be it his mother answered and sayde: not so / but he shall be called John. And they sayd vnto her:

* He sheweth strength with his arme / the myghty hath done to me greate thynges / and holpe is his name. And his mercy on the that feare him thozow out all generacions. to her: Ther is none of thy kynne / that is named with this name. And they made sygnes to his father / how he wolde haue hym called. And he asked for wytyng tables and wrote saying: his name is John. And they marvelled all. And hys mouthe was opened immediately / & his tonge also / & he spake lawdyng God. And feare came on all them that dwelt nye vnto them. And all these saynges were norysed abroade througout all the hyl countre of Iurie and all they that herde the layde them by in their hertes saying: what manner chyld shall this be? And the hande of the Lord was with him.

And his father Zacharias was filled with the holy goost / and prophesied sayinge.

Benedictus Blessed be the Lord God of Israel / for he hath visited and redeemed his people.

And hath reysed by an horne of saluacion vnto vs in the house of his seruaunt Dauid. Euen as he promysed by the mouth of his holy Prophetes which were seng the worlde began. That we shuld be saued fro oure enemyes & from the handes of all that hate vs.

To fulfill the mercy promysed to oure fathers / and to remember his holy couenaunt.

* And to performe the othe which he sware to oure father Abraham / for to geue vs.

That we deliuered oute of the handes of oure enemyes / myght serue him which oute feare / all the dayes of oure lyfe / in such holynes & ryghtewlnes as are accept before him. And thou chyld shalt be called the Prophet of the hest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord / to prepare his wayes: And to geue knowledge of saluacion vnto hys people for the remission of synnes. And when the ryght daye was come that the chyld shuld be circumcised / his name was called Iesus / which was named of the Angell before he was conceaued in the wombe.

And when the tyme of their purificacion (after the lawe of Moyses) was come / they brought him to Hierusalem / to present hym to the Lord (as it is wyrtten in the lawe of the Lord: every man chyld that fyrst openeth the matrix / shalbe called holy to the Lord) and to offer (as it is sayde in the lawe of the Lord) a payre of turtle doves or two yonge pignons. And beholde ther was a man in Hierusalem whose name was Simeon. And the same man was iuste & feared God & longed for the consolacion of Israel & the holy goost was in him. And an answer was geuen hym of the holy goost / that he shuld not se deeth / before he had sene the Lordes Chylde. And he came

And it fortuned whill they were there / her tyme was come that the chyld be deliuered.

And she broughte forth her fyrst begotten sonne / and wrapped hym in swadlynge clothes / & layde him in a manger / because ther was no roume for them within the kynne.

And ther were in the same region shepherdes abydng in the feld and watchyng their flocke by nyght. And lo the angell of the Lord stode harde by them / and the brightnes of the Lord shone rounde aboute the / & they were sore afrayed. But the angell sayde vnto the: Be not afrayed / for beholde / I bringe you tyndnges of greute ioye / that shall come to all the people: for vnto you is borne this daye in the cytie of Dauid / a sauoure which is Chylde the Lord. And take this for a sygne: ye shall fynde the chyld swadled & layed in a manger. And strenght waye ther was with the angell a multitude of heuenly sowdysers / laudyng God and sayinge: Glory to God on hye / and peace on the erth: & vnto men reioysyng.

And it fortuned / as sone as the angels were gone a waye from the into heuen / the shepherdes sayde one to another: let vs go eue to Bethleem / & se this thyng that is hapened / which the Lord hath shewed vnto vs. And they came with haste and founde Mary and Ioseph and the babe layde in a manger. And when they had sene it / they published abrode the sayinge which was tolde the of the chyld.

And all that hearde it / wondred at those thynges which were tolde the of the shepherdes. But Mary kept all those saynges / and pondered them in her hert. And the shepherdes returned / prayyng and laudyng God for all that they had herde and sene / euen as it was told vnto them.

And when the ryght daye was come that the chyld shuld be circumcised / his name was called Iesus / which was named of the Angell before he was conceaued in the wombe.

The. iij. Chapter.

Iesus then full of the holy goost returned from Iordan & was caried of the sprete into wyldernes / and was .xl. dayes tempted of the deuill. And in those dayes ate he nothinge. And when they were ended / he after warde hongred. And the deuill sayde vnto him: if thou be the sonne of God commaunde this stone that it be breked. And Iesus answered him saying: It is wrytten / man shall not lyue by breked only / but by every worde of God.

And the deuill toke him into an hye mountayne / and shewed him all the kyngdom of the world / and the twynklynge of an eye. And the deuill sayde vnto him: all this power will I geue the euery whit & the glory of the: for that is deliuered to me and to whosoever I wyll / I geue it. If thou therfore wyll worshippe me / they shall be all thyne. Iesus answered him and sayde: hence from me Satan. For it is wrytten: Thou shalt honoure the Lord thy God and him only serue.

Math. xij. b. Marke. vi. a. And he came to Nazareth where he was nourished & as his custome was / went into the synagoge on the Saboth dayes / & stode by for to rede. And ther was deliuered vnto him the booke of the Prophete Esaias. And when he had opened the booke he founde the place / where it was wrytten: The sprete of the Lord is vpon me / because he hath annoynted me: to preache the Gospell to the poore he hath sent me: & to heale the broken hearted: to preache deliuerance to the captiue / & to set at liberty the that are bound / & to preache the acceptable yere of the Lord.

And he closed the booke / & gaue it agayne to the minister / and late doune. And the eyes of all that were in the synagoge / were fastened on him. And he began to saye vnto the. This daye is this scripture fulfilled in your eares. And all bare hym wytnes / & wondred at the gracious wordes which proceeded out of his mouth. & he sayd: Is not this Iosephs sonne?

And he sayde vnto the: Ye maye very well saye vnto me this prouerbe. Phylisicion / heale thy selfe. And what soeuer we haue heard done in Capernaum / do the same here likewise in thyne awne countre. And he sayde / verely I saye vnto you: No prophet is accepted in his awne countre.

Reg. xij. b. Iacob. v. b. But I tell you of a truith / many wyddowes were in Israel in the dayes of Helyas / when heuyn was shut thre yeres and syre monethes / when great famyn was throught out all the land / and vnto none of them was Helyas sent / saue in to Sarepta belydes Sidon vnto a woman that was a wyddowe. And many lepers were in Israel in the tyme of Heliseus the Prophete: and yet none of the was heled / saue ynge Naaman of Syria.

And as many as were in the synagoge when they herde that / were fylled with wrath: and tose vp / & thurst him out of the cite / & ledde him euery vnto the edge of the hyll / where on their cite was bylde / to cast hym doune headlynge. But he went his waye euery thowow the myddes of the: & he came into Capernaum a cite of Galile / & there taught them on the Saboth dayes. And they were astounded at his doctrine: for his preachynge was with power. And in the synagoge ther was a man which had a sprete of an vnclane deuill / & cryed w aloud booyce sayinge: let me alone / what hast thou to do with vs / thou Iesus of Nazareth: arte thou come to destroye vs? I knowe the what thou arte / euery holy of God. And Iesus rebuked him sayig: holde thy peace & come out of him. And the deuill threwe hym in the myddes of the & came out of hym / & hurt him not. Math. xij. b. Marke. i. c. And he rose vp & came out of the synagoge / & entred into Simons house. And Simons motherelawe was taken with a great feuer / & they made intercessio to him for her. And he stode ouer her / & rebuked the feuer: and it leest her. And immediatly she arose & mynistred vnto them.

When the sonne was doune / all they that had synche taken in diuers diseases / brought them vnto him: & he layde his handes on euery one of them / & healed the. And deuyls also came out of many of the cryinge and sayinge: thou arte Christ the sonne of God. And he rebuked them and suffered them not to speake: for they knewe that he was Christ.

As sone as it was daye / he departed & went awaye into a desert place / & the people sought him & came to him / & kept him that he shuld not departe from the. And he sayde vnto the. I muste to other cities also preache the kyngdome of God: for therfore am I sent. And he preached in the synagoges of Galile.

Christ preacheth in the Synagoge. The disciples forsake all / and folowe him. He cleareth the leper / healeth the man of the palsey / calleth Mathew the customere / and eateth with open synners.

The. v. Chapter.

Iesus came to passe as the people pressed vpon him / to heare the worde of God / that he stode by the lake of Genesareth: & sawe two shippes stode by the lake syde / but the fisheremen were gone out of them / and were washyngge their nettes. And he entred into one of the shippes / which perteyned to Simon / and prayed him / that he wolde thurst out a lyttell fro the lande. And he late doune and taught the people out of the shipp. When he had leest speakynge / he sayd vnto Simon: Launche out into depe / & let clippe your nettes to make a draught. And Simon answered and sayde to hym: Master / we haue labored all nyght / & haue taken nothinge. Neuerthelater at thy worde I wyll lose forth the net. And when they had so done / they inclosed a greates multitude of fyshes. And their net brake: but they made sygnes to their felowes which were in the other ship / that they shuld come & helpe them. And they came: and fylled bothe the shippes that they couerthe agayne.

When Simon Peter sawe that / he fell doune at Iesus knees sayinge: Lord go fro me / for I am a synfull man. For he was bitter / & astounded and all that were with him / at the draughte

Daughter of Syche which they toke: & so was also James & John & sonnes of Zebede which were partners in Simon. And Jesus sayde vnto Simo: feare not: for hence forth thou shalt catche me. And they brought & shippes to lande: & forsoke all: and folowed him.

* And it fortuned as he was in a certayne citie: beholde: ther was a ma full of leprosy: & when he had spyed Jesus: he fell on his face: & besought him saying: Lorde yt thou wilt: thou canst make me cleane. And he stretched forth his hand: & touched him saying: I will: be thou cleane. And immediatly the leprosy departed fro him. And he warned hym: that he shuld tell no man: but that he shuld go: & shewe him selfe to the Priest: & offer for hys cleansing accordeinge as Moyses commaundement was: for a wytnes vnto them.

But so moche the moare wet ther a fame abroade of him: & moche people came to gether to heare: & to be healed of hym: of their infirmityes. And he kepte him selfe aparte in the wyldernes: & gaue him selfe to prayer.

* And it happened on a certayne daye: that he taught: and ther sate the Pharises and doctors of lawe: which were come oute of all countres of Galile: Iurie: & Ierusalem. And the power of the Lord was to heale the. * And beholde: men brought a man lyinge in hys bedd which was takē with a palse: & sought meanes to bringe him in and to laye him befoze him. And when they coude not fynde by what waye they might bringe him in: because of the pzease: they wet bp on the toppe of the house: & let him doune thozowe the tpyng: & heerd & all: in & myddes befoze Jesus. When he sawe their sayth: he sayde vnto him: man: thy synnes are forgoen the. And the Scribes & Pharises began to thinke saying: What felow is this which speaketh blasphemy? * Who can forgive synnes but God only?

When Jesus perceaued their thoughtes: he answered & sayde vnto the: What thyne ye in youre hert: whether is easer to saye: yf thy synnes are forgoen the: or to saye: yf thou canst walke? But ye maye knowe that & sonne of man hath power to forgive synnes on erth: he sayde vnto the syche of the palse: I saye to the: arise: take vp thy bedd and go home to thy house. And immediatly he rose bp befoze the: & toke bp his bedd where on he laye: & departed to his awne house prayinge God. And they were all amazed & they lauded God: and were fylled with feare saying: We haue sene strange thynges to daye.

* And after that he went forth and sawe a publican named Leuy: sytting at & receypte of custome: & sayde vnto him: folow me. And he leest all: rose bp: & folowed him. And that same Leuy made him a great feast at home in his awne house. And ther was a great company of publicans & of other & sate at meate with him. * And & Scribes & Pharises murmured agaynst his disciples: sayinge: whye eat ye and drynke ye with publicans & synners? Jesus answered and sayde vnto them: They that are whole nede not of & physicion: but they that are syche. I came not to call & ryghtewys: but synners to repentance.

Then they sayde vnto hym: whye do & disciples of John fast often and praye: & & disciples of the Pharises also: and thye eate & drynke? And he sayd vnto the: * Can ye make the chyliden of the weddinge fast: as longe as the bydgrome is present with them? The dayes wyl come: when the bydgrome shal be taken awaye from the: then shall they fast in those dayes.

Then he spake vnto the a synilitude: No man putteth a pece of a newe garment: in to an olde besture: for yf he do: then breaketh he the newe: & the pece that was taken out of & newe: agreeth not with the olde. Also: no man poureth newe wyne into olde vessels: for yf he do: the newe wyne breaketh the vessels: & runneth out it selfe: & the vessels perishe: But newe wyne must be poured into newe vessels: & both are preserued. Also: no man drynkeheth olde wyne: strayght waye can awaye to newe: for he sayeth: & olde is pleasaunter.

Heereafter the disciples: that plucke the eares of corne: he healeth the ma with the wythred hande: chooseth his twelue Apostles: maketh a swete sermon: and teacheth to do good for euell.

The vi. Chapter.

It happened on an after Saboth: that he wet thozow the cornefeld: & that his disciples plucked the eares of corne: & ate: and rubbed them in their handes. And certayne of & Pharises sayde vnto them: whye do ye that which is not lawfull to do on the Saboth dayes? And Jesus answered them and sayde: * Haue ye not redde what Dauid dyd: when he hym selfe was an hungred and they whych were with hym: how he went into the house of God: & toke and ate the loues of halowed bread: & gaue also to them which were with him: which was not lawfull to eate: but for the Priestes only. And he sayde vnto them: The sonne of man is Lorde of the Saboth daye.

* And it fortuned in another Saboth: that he entred into the synagoge & taught. And ther was a man whose ryght hand was dyled bp. And the Scribes & Pharises watched him: to se whether he wolde heale on the Saboth daye: & they myght fynde an accusation agaynst hym. But he knewe their thoughtes: & sayde to the man which had the wyddred hand: Arise bp: & stande forth in & myddes myddes. And he arose & stepped forth. Then sayde Jesus vnto the: I will aske you a question: whether is it lawfull on the Saboth dayes to do good or to do euill: to saue lyfe or to destroye it? And he behelde them all in copasse: & sayde vnto the ma: Stretche forth thy hande. And he dyd so: & his hande was refozed: & made as whole as & other. And they were fylled full of madnes: & comuned one to another: what they myght do to Jesus.

* And it fortuned in those dayes: that he wet out into a mountayne for to praye: and continued all nyght in prayer to God. And as sone as it was daye: he called his disciples: and of them he chose twelue: which also he called Apostles. Simon whom he named Peter: & Andrew his brother: James and John: Philip and Bartlemew: Mathew & Thomas: James & sonne of Alpheus & Simon called Zelotes: and Judas James sonne: & Judas Iscariot: which same was the traytour.

* And he came doune with them and stode in the playne felde with the company of hys disciples: & a greete multitude of people out of all parties of Iurie and Ierusalem: & fro the see coste of Tyre & Sidon: which came to heare him: and to be healed of their dyscases: and they also that were vexed with foule spretes: & they were healed. And all & people pressed to touche him: for there went vertue out of him: and healed them all.

And he lyfted vp his eyes vnto & disciples: and sayde: Blessed be ye: * poore: for yours is the kyngdom of God. Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shalbe satisfied. Blessed are ye that wepe now: for ye shal laugh. Blessed are ye which are ye when men hate you: & thurst you oute of their companye: and rayle: and abhorre your name as an euyl thyng: for & sonne of man is to be gladd: & be reioyse: for beholde: youre rewarde is greete in heuē. * After this manner their fathers entreated the Prophetes.

But wo be to you that are & ryche: for ye haue the cause: haue therein youre consolacion. Wo be to you that are full: for ye shal hunger. Wo be to you that now laugh: for ye shal wepe and wepe. Wo be to you when all men praye you: for as in so dyd their fathers to the false prophetes.

But I saye vnto you whych heare: Love youre enemyes. Do good to them which hate you. Blesse the & curse you. And praye for the which wogfullie trouble you. And vnto him & myteth the on & one cheke: offer also & other. And him & taketh awaye thy gowne: forbyd not to take thy coote also. Geue to every ma that asketh of the. And of him that taketh awaye thy good: aske the not agayne. * And as ye wolde that men shuld do to you: so do ye to them lyke wyse.

If ye loue the which loue you: what thanke are ye worthy of: for the very synners loue their louers. And yf ye do for them whych do for you: what thanke are ye worthy of: for the very synners do euē the same. If ye lende to them of whome ye hope to receaue: what thanke shal ye haue: for the very synners lende to synners to receaue as moche agayne. I herfoze: loue ye youre enemyes: do good & lende: lohyng for nothyng agayne: & youre rewarde shalbe greete: and ye shalbe & chyliden of the hest: for he is kynde vnto the vnkynde and to the euyl.

* Be ye therfoze mercyfull: as youre father is mercyfull. * Judge not: & ye shal not be iudged. Condemne not: and ye shal not be condemned. For geue: and ye shalbe forgeue. Geue: and it shalbe geuen vnto you: good measure: pressed doune: shalke to gether and runnyng ouer: shal men geue into youre bolomes. * For with what measure ye mete: with & same shal men mete to you agayne.

And he put forth a synilitude vnto them: Can the blynde leade & blynde? Do they not both then fall into the dyche? The dysciple is not aboue his master. Euery man shalbe perfecte: euē as his master is. I why seyst thou a moote in thy brothers eye: & consyderest not the beame that is in thyne awne eye? Either how cannest thou saye to thy brother: Brother: let me pull out & moote that is in thyne eye: when thou perceauest not the beame that is in thyne awne eye? Ypocrite cast oute the beame out of thyne awne eye: first: and then shalt thou se perfectly: to pull out the moote out of thy brothers eye.

* It is not a good tree that bringeth forth the euyl frute: nether is that an euyl tree: that bringeth forth the good frute. For euery tree is knowne by his frute. Nether of thornes gather men figges: nor of busshes gather they grapes. A good ma out of the good treasure of his herte: bringeth forth & which is good. And an euyl man oute of the euyl treasure of his hert: bringeth forth & which is euyl. For of the aboundance of & hert: hys mouth speaketh.

Why call ye Master Master: and do not as I byd you: who soeuer cometh to me: and heareth my saynges: & doth the same: I will shewe you to whome he is lyke. He is lyke a man which bylt an house: and dygged depe & layde the foundacyon on a roche. When the waters arose: the flud bet vpon that house: & coude not moue it. For it was grounde vnto a roche. But he that heareth and doth not: is lyke a man that without foundacion bylt an house vpon the erth: agaynst which & fludde dyd beat: and it fell by: and by. And the fall of that house was greete.

He healeth the Captaynes seruante: rapeth vp the wedowes sonne from death to lyfe: enfourmeth the disciples whom John baptist sent vnto him/commendeth John/and reprimeth the Jewes for their vnfaithfulness. He eateth with the Pharisees. The woman washeth his fete with her teares: & he forgiveth her hir synnes.

iii. Reg. iii. d.

When he had ended all his sayings in the audience of þe people/ he entered into Capernaum. And a certainne Centurions seruante was sicke & ready to dye / who he made moche of.
And when he heard of Iesu/ he sent vnto him the elders of the Jewes/ beseeching him þe wolde come & heale hys seruante. And they cam to Iesu/ & besought him instatly sayig:
He is worthy þe thou shouldest do this for him.
For he loueth oure nacyon / and hath bylt vs a synagoge. And Iesus went with them.

And when he was not farre fro the house/the Centurion sent frendes to him: saying vnto him * Lorde trouble not thy selfe: for I am not worthy þe thou shouldest enter vnder my roffe. Wherefore I thought not my selfe wo-thy to come vnto the: but saye þe worde/ & my seruante shalbe whole. For I lyke wyse am a man vnder power/ and haue vnder me sou-diers/ & I saye vnto wone: go / and he goeth.
And to another: come: and he cometh. And to my seruaut: do this: & he doeth it. Wherfore herde this/ he merueyled at him / and turned him about & sayd to þe people þe folowed him:
I saye vnto you/ I haue not founde so great fayth/ no/ not in Israel. And they that were sent/ turned backe home agayne/ and founde the seruante that was sycke/ whole.

* And it fortuned after that/ that he went into a ctye called Naim/ & many of his disciples went with him & moche people. Wher he came nye to the gate of þe ctye: beholde ther was a deed mā carped out which was þe only sonne of his mother/ & she was a wydowe / & moche people of the ctye was with her. And when the Lorde sawe her / he had compassion on her/ and sayde vnto her: wepe not. And he wēt & touched the coffyn / and they that bare him/ stode still. And he sayde: Yonge man/ arise. And the deed stode vp. And the deed stode vp / & beganne to speake. * And he deliuered hym to his mother. And there came a feare on the all. And they glorified God sayinge: a grete pophet is risen amonge vs / & God hath visited his people. * And this rumoz of hym went forth throughout all Iurie/ & thorow out all the regions which Ipe rounde about.

And þe disciples of John shewed him of all these thyngs. And John called vnto hym two of his disciples/ & sent the to Iesu/ sayinge: Arte thou he þe shouldest come: or shall we loke for another? When þe men were come vnto him they sayde: John baptiste sent vs vnto þe saying: Arte thou he þe shouldest come: or shall we wayte for another? And at þe same tyme he cured many of their infirmities & plagues/& of euill spretes/ and vnto many that were blynde he gaue sight. And Iesus answered/ & sayd vnto the: Go your wayes and shewe John what thinge ye haue sene & harde/ how that the blynde se/ the halt go/ the lepers are cleansed/ the deafe heare/ the deed a ryse / to þe poore is þe glad tydinges preached/ & happy is he that is not offended by me.

When þe messengers of John were departed/ he bega to speake vnto þe people of John what wēt ye out into þe wyldernes for to se: what wēt ye out for to se? A mā clothed in softe raymet? Beholde they whith are gogeously apparellled/ and lyue delicatly / are in kynges courtes. But what went ye forth to se? A Prophete? Ye I saye to you/ a moare then a Prophete. Chys is he of whom it is writtē: Behold I sende my messenger before thy face/ to prepare thy waye before the. For I saye vnto you: a greater Prophete then John/ amonge wemens chyldre is ther none.
Deuerthelesse one that is lesse in the kyngdome of God/ is greater then he. *

And all the people that hearde/ & the publicans/ iustified God/ & were baptysed wth the baptisme of John. But the Pharisees and Scribes despyed þe counsel of God agaynst them selues/ and were not baptised of him.

And the Lorde sayd: Wher vnto shall I ly-ken þe men of this generacion/ & what thinge are they lyke? They are lyke vnto chyldre sit-tyng in the market place/ & cryng one to another/ & saying: We haue piped vnto you/& ye haue not daunced: we haue mourned to you/ & ye haue not wept. For John Baptiste came/ nether eatynge breed ner drynkyng wyne/ & ye saye: he hath þe deuyl. The sonne of mā is come & eateth & dryncketh/ & ye saye: beholde a mā which is a glotte/ & a dryncker of wyne/ & a frende of publicans and synners.

Yet is wyldome fulfilled of his chyldren.
* And one of the Pharisees despyed hym & he wolde eate with him. And he wēt into the Pharisees house/ & sat doune to meate. And beholde a woman in the ctye/ which was a synner/ as some as she knewe that Iesus sat at meate in the Pharisees house/ she brought an alabastr boxe of oynment/ & she stode at his fete behynde him wepyng/ & beganne to weth his fete with teares/ and byd wyse the with the heares of her heed/ & kysed his fete/and anoynted them with oynment.

When the Pharise which bade him/ sawe that/ he spake to him selfe/ saying: If this

Iesus answered & sayde vnto him: Simon I had nothinge to paye he forgauē the bothe.

Which of the tell me/ wyll loue him moost?
Simon answered and sayd: I suppose/ that he to whom he forgauē moost. And he sayde vnto him: Thou hast truly iudged.

And he turned to the woman & sayde vnto Simon: Seist thou this womā? I entred in to thy house / & thou gauest me no water to my fete: but she hath wethed my fete w tea-res & wyped the with the heeres of her heed.
Thou gauest me no kysse: but she / sence the tyme I came in / hath not ceased to kysse my fete. Wyne heerd with oyle thou dydest not aoynment. Wherefore I saye vnto the: many synnes are forguē her: for she loued moche to who lesse is forguē / the same doeth lesse loue. And he sayde vnto her/ thy synnes are forguē the. And they that sat at meate w him / beganne to saye with in them selues:

Who is chys which forgiveth synnes also?
And he sayd to the womā: Thy fayth hath sa-

The viii. Chapter.

Not it fortuned after that / that he him selfe went through out ctyes and townes/ preachinge/ and shew-yng the kyngdome of God / and the twelue with him. And also certayne we-men/ whych were healed of euell spretes / & infirmities: Mary called Magdalen/ out of whom went seuen deuyls/ and Iohanna & wyfe of Chusa Perodes steward / & Susanna & many other: which ministred vnto the of their substance. * Wher moche people were gathered to gether/ & were come to him oute of all ctyes/ he spake by a synnitytude. A sower went out to sowe his seede: and as he sowed some fell by the waye syde/ and it was trode vnder fete/ and the foules of the ayre deuou-red it vp. And some fell on stōne/ and as sone as it was spronge bp/ it withered awaye/ because it lacked moysture. And some fell amonge thornes/ and the thornes sprange by with it/and choked it. And some fell on good grounde and sprange bp/ and bare frute / an hundred foolde. And as he sayd these thyngs/ he cryed:
He that hath eares to heare/ let him heare.

And his disciples asked him saying: what maner synnitytude is this? And he sayde: * Vnto you to you is it geuen to knowe the secretes of the kyngdome of God: but to other in synnitytudes:
that when they se they shuld not se / and when they heare they shuld not vnderstande.

The synnitytude is this. The seede is the worde of God. Those þe are besyde the waye/are they that heare / and afterwarde cometh the deuyl and taketh awaye the worde oute of their hertes lest they shuld beleue and be saued. They on þe stōnes/ are they which whē they heare/ receaue þe worde with ioye. But these haue no rotes/ which for a while beleue/ and in tyme of temptaciō go awaye. And þe which fell amonge thornes/ are they whych heare/ and go forth/ & are choked with cares and with ryches/ and voluptuous lyuinge/ & brynge forth no frute. That in þe good grounde/are they which with a good and pure herte/heare the worde and kepe it and brynge forth frute with pacience.

* A mā lighteth a candell/ & couereth it vnder a bessel/ nether putteth it vnder the table but setteth it on a candellsticke / that they that enter in/ maye se the lyght. No thinge is in secret that shall not come abroode: nether eny thinge hyd/ that shall not be knowē / & come to lyght. Take hede therfore how ye heare.
For whosoever hath / to hym shalbe geuen:
And whosoever hath not / fro hym shalbe taken/ & eue þe same which he supposed þe he hath enter in/ maye se the lyght. No thinge is in secret that shall not come abroode: nether eny thinge hyd/ that shall not be knowē / & come to lyght. Take hede therfore how ye heare.

Then came to him his mother and his bry-thren/ and coulde not come at him for pzease.
And they tolde him saying: Thy mother and thy brythren stande without/ & wolde se the.
He answered and sayde vnto them: my mother & my brythren are these which heare the worde of God and do it.

* And it chaunced on a certayne daye that he went into a shippe & his disciples also / & he sayde vnto the: Let vs go ouer vnto the other syde of the lake. And they Lanched forth.
And as they sayled/ he fell a slepe / and there arose a storme of winde in the lake/ and they were fylled with water/ & were in leopardy.
And they went to him & awoke hym sayinge: Master Master/ we are loost. Then he arose & rebuked þe wynde & the tēpest of water / & and they ceased/ and it waxed calme. And he sayde vnto the: where is youre fayth? They feared and wondred sayinge one to another:
what felowe is this? for he comaundeth both the wyndes & water/ & they obey him? And they sayled vnto the region of the Gaderen-tes/ which is ouer agaynst Galile.

And as he went out to land/ ther met hym a certayne mā out of þe ctye/ which had a de-uyl longe tyme/ & ware no clothes / nether abode in eny house: but amonge graues.

When he sawe Jesus he cryed / & fell doune before him / & with a loude voyce sayd: what haue I to do with the Jesus the sonne of the God moost hysst? I beseeche the torment me not. When he commaunded the foule spete to come out of hys ma. For ofte tymes he caught him / & he was bounde with chaynes / & kept with setters: and he brake hys bondes / & was carryed of the fende into wyldernes.

Legion name: And he sayd: Legion because many deuyls were entred into hym. And they besought him that he wolde not commaunde the to go out into the depe. And ther was there by an heerde of many swyne / fedynge on an hyll and besought him that he wolde suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them. Then went the deuyls out of the ma / and entred into the swyne: And the heerd toke their course and ran heedlynge into the lake / and were choked. When the herdmen sawe what had chaunted / they fled & tolde it in the cite and in the villages.

And they came out to se what was done: & came to Jesus / and founde the man / oute of who the deuyls were departed / sittynge at hys fete of Jesus / clothed & in his ryght mynde / & they were a frayde. They also which sawe it tolde the by what meanes he that was possessed of the deuyl / was healed. And all the whole multitude of the cōtrey of Gadarenes / besought him that he wolde departe fro the: for they were take w greute feare. And he gate hym into hys shippe & returned backe agayne. When the ma out of who hys deuyls were departed / besought him that he myght be w him. But Jesus sent him away saying: Go home agayne into thyne awne house / & shewe what great thynges God hath done to the. And he wet his waye / & preached thorow out all the cōtrey what great thynges Jesus had done vnto him.

Mar. v. b.

And it fortuneth when Jesus was come agayne hys people receaued him. For they all waited for hym: & beholde ther came a man named Jairus / and he was a ruler of hys synagoge / and he fell doune at Jesus fete / & besought him that he wolde come into hys house / for he had but a daughter only / vpon a twelue yere of age / and she laye a dyng. And as he went the people thronged him. And a woman hauninge an issue of bloud twelue yeres / which had spent all her substance amonge Physicions / nether coulde be holpen of eny / came behinde him / & touched the hem of his garment / & immediatly her issue of bloud stauched. And Jesus sayde: Who is it that touched me? When euery ma denyed / Peter & they hys were w him / sayde: Master / the people thrust the and bere the: and sayest thou who touched me? And Jesus sayd: Some body touched me. For I perceaue hys vertue is gone oute of me. When the woman sawe that she was not hyd / she came trymblinge / & fell at his fete / & tolde him before all hys people for what cause she had touched him / and how she was healed immediatly. And he sayde vnto her: Daugther be of good comforte. Thy faith hath made the hoale / go in peace.

Will he yet spake / there came one fro the rulers of the synagogs house which sayde to him: thy daughter is deed / diseale not hys master. When Jesus hearde that / he answered the father / saying: Feare not / beleue only & she shalbe made whole. And when he came to the house he suffred no ma to go in with him / saue Peter / James and John / & the father & the mother of the mayden. Euery body weeped & sorrowed for her. And he sayde: Wepe not: for she is not deed / but slepeth. And they ierough him to scoone. For they knew that she was deed. And he thrust the all out / & caught her by the hande: and cryed saying: Mayde aryse. And her spete came agayne / and she rose straght waye. And he commaunded to geue her meate. And the father & hys mother of her were astonied. But he warned them that they shuld tell no man what was done.

He sendeth out the xii. Apostles to preache. Herode beareth tell of him. He fedeth fyue thousand me with fyue loaves & two fyshes. The disciples cōfesse hym to be the sonne of God. He transfigureth hym selfe vpon the mount / & sheweth the possel / and teacheth hys disciples to be lowly. They bespye vengeance / but he reproveth them.

The ix. Chapter. Then called he hys xii. to gether and gaue the power / & auctorite ouer all deuyls / & that they might heale diseases. And he sent the to preache the kyngdom of God / & to cure the synch. And he sayde to the: Take nothyng to lucher you by hys waye: nether staffe / nor scrippe / nether bread / nether money / nether haue two cotes. And whatsoeuer house ye enter into there abyde & thence departe. And whosoever wyll not receaue you / wher ye go out of that cite / shake of the very dust from youre fete / for a testimony agaynst them. And they wet out / and went thorow the townes / preaching the gospell and healinge euery where.

And Herode the tetrarch hearde of all that was done by him / and doubted / because he it was sayde of some / that John was rylen agayne from deeth: and of some / that Elias was rylen agayne. And Herode sayd: John haue I beheaded: who then is this of whom I heare suche thynges? And he desired to se him.

And the Apostles returned: and tolde him what what great thynges they had done. And he toke them & wet asyde into a solitary place / nye to a cite called Bethsaida. And hys people knewe of it / & folowed him. And he receaued them / & spake vnto them of the kyngdom of God & healed the that had nede to be healed. And when hys daye beganne to weare awaye / then came the twelue & sayd vnto him: sende the people awaye / that they maye go in to hys townes and villages rounde about a lodge / & get meate / for we are here in a place of wyldernes. But he sayde vnto them: Geue ye the to eate. And they sayde: We haue no mo but fyue loaves and two fyshes / except we shuld go & bye meate for all this people. And they were aboute a fyue thousande men. And he sayde to his disciples: Cause the to syt doune by fyfties in a company. And they byd so / and made them all syt doune. And he toke hys fyue loaves / & the two fyshes / & looked vp to heuen / and blessed them / and brake / and gaue to the disciples / to sett before the people. And they ate / & were all satisfied. And there was take vp of hys remayned to the / twelue baskettes full of broken meate.

And it fortuneth as he was alone praying / hys disciples were with hym / & he asked the saying: Who saye the people I am? They answered & sayd: John Baptist: Some saye Elias. And some saye / one of the olde prophetes is rylen agayne. He sayde vnto them: Who saye ye that I am? Peter answered and sayde: thou arte the Christ of God. And he warned & commaunded the that they shuld tell no ma that thinge saying: hys sonne of ma must suffer many thynges / and be reproued of the elders / & of the hye prestes and scribes & be slayne / and the thirde daye ryl agayne.

And he sayde to them all / yf eny man wyll come after me / let him denye hym selfe / and take by hys crosse dayly & folowe me. Who soeuer wyll laue hys lyfe / shall lose it. And who soeuer shall lose his lyfe for my sake / the same shall laue it. For what auauntage it is to hym a man to wyne the whole worlde yf he loose hym selfe / or runne in domage of hym selfe? For who soeuer is ashamed of me / and of my saynges / of him shall hys sonne of ma be ashamed / wher he cometh in his awne glorie / and in the glorie of his father / & of hys holy angels.

Mat. ix. c. Mar. vi. d.

And I tell you of a surety. There be some of them that stande here whych shall not tast of deeth / tyll they se the kyngdom of God. And it folowed about an. iiij. dayes after those saynges / that he toke Peter / James / & John / & went vp into a mountayne to praye. And as he prayed / the facyon of his countenance was chaunged / & his garment was white & gloone. And behold two men talked with him / and they were Moles and Elias which appered gloriously / & spake of hys de- ter. d. wyrtely partynge / which he shuld ende at Jerusalem. Peter & they that were w him / were heily w slepe. And when they woke / they sawe hys glorie / and two men standynge with him.

And it chaunted as they departed fro him / Peter sayde vnto Jesus: Master / it is good beyng here for vs: Let vs make thre tabernacles / one for the & one for Moles / & one for Petyas: & wylt not what he sayde. Whyll he thus spake / there came a cloude & shadowed them / and they feared when they were come vnder the cloude. And there came a voyce out of the cloude saying: This is my deare sonne / heare him. And as sone as hys voyce was past / Jesus was founde alone. And they kept it cloose: & tolde no man in those dayes eny of those thynges which they had sene.

And it chaunted on the nexte daye as they came doune from the hyll / moche people met him. And beholde a man of the cōpany cryed out saying: Master / I beseeche the beholde my sonne / for he is all that I haue: and se / & spete taketh him / & suddenly he cypeth / and he feareth him that he cometh agayne / and with moche payne departeth fro him / wher he hath rent him / & I besought thy disciples to cast him oute / & they coulde not. Jesus answered and sayd: O generation w out fayth / & croked how longe shall I be wth you? & shall I suffice you? Brynge thy sonne hydder. As he yet was a comynge / the fende rent him and tare hym. And Jesus rebuked the vnclene spete / and healed the chyld / and deliuered him to his father. And they were all amazed at the myghty power of God.

Whyll they wōdred euery one at all thinges which he byd / he sayde vnto his disciples: Let these saynges synke doune into youre eares / the tyme wyll come / when the sonne of ma shalbe deliuered into the handes of men. But they wylt not what that worde meant / and it was byd from them / that they vnderstode it not. And they feared to aske him of hys saynges.

Then ther arose a disputacion amonge the who shuld be the greatest. When Jesus perceaued the thoughtes of thei hertes / he toke a chyld / & set him hard by him / & sayde vnto the: Whosoever receaueth this chyld in my name / receaueth me. And whosoever receaueth me / receaueth him / & sent me. For he is is least amonge you all / & same shalbe greute.

And John answered and sayd: Master we sawe one castinge oute deuyls in thy name / & we forbade hym / because he foloweth not with vs. And Jesus sayd vnto him: for byd ye him not. For he is not agaynst vs / is w vs.

And it folowed when the tyme was come that he shulde be receaued by / then he set his face to go to Jerusalem / & sent messengers before before him. And they went and entered into a cite of Samaria to make redy for him. But they wold not receaue him/ because his face was as though he wolde go to Ierusalem. When his disciples James & John sawe that/ they sayde. Lord/ wilt thou that we commaunde/ that fyre come doune from heuen & consume them/ euen as Elias dyd? Jesus turned about/ & rebuked the saying: ye wote not what maner spete ye are of. The sonne of mā is not come to destroye mennes lyues/ but to saue them. And they went to another toun. And it chaunced as he went in the waye/ a certayne man sayde vnto him: I will folowe the whither soeuer thou goo. Jesus sayde vnto him: foxes haue holes / & byddes of the ayer haue nestes: but the sonne of mā hath not where on to laye his heed.

And he sayde vnto another: folowe me. And the same sayde: Lord suffre me fyrst to go & bury my father. Jesus sayde vnto hym. Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preache the kyngdome of God.

Let the dead bury their dead and preache the kyngdome of God. That is: let the myddell alone is there in fydellite/ and so lowe thou me/ that is beleue thou in me. &c. And go preache the kyngdome of God. &c.

And another sayd: I wyll folowe þe Lord: but let me fyrst go by the fare well / which are at home at my house. Jesus sayde vnto hym: No man that putteth his hande to the plowe/ & loketh backe/ is apte to the kyngdome of God. &c.

He sendeth the seuentye before him to preache / and geueth them a charge how to behaue the selues/ prayeth his heauenty father: answereth the scrype that tempteth him: & by the example of the Samaritane sheweth who is a mans neyghboure. Martha receueth the Lord in to her house. Mary Magdalene is feruent in hearinge his worde.

The .x. Chapter.

After these thynges/ þe Lord apoynted other seuentye also / & sent the two & two before hym into euery cite & place/ whither he hym self wolde come. And he sayde vnto the: the harvest is greute but the labozers are fewe. Praye therfore the Lord of the harvest / to sende forth labozers in to his harvest. Goo youre wayes: beholde/ I sende you forth as lambs amonge wolues. Beare no wallet/ nether scrippe/ nor shooes/ & salute no mā by the waye. Into whatsoeuer house ye enter/ fyrst saye: Peace be to this house. And if the sonne of peace be there / youre peace shall rest vpon hym: yf not / it shall turne to you agayne. And in the same house tary styl / eatinge & drynkinge soche as they haue. For the labozer is worthy of his rewarde.

Go not fro house to house: & into whatsoeuer cite ye entre/ yf they receaue you / eate soche thynges as are set before you / & heale the synke that are there/ & saye vnto the: the kyngdom of God is come nye vnto you. But into whatsoeuer cite ye shall enter/ yf they receaue you not/ go youre wayes out into the stretes of the same & saye: eue the very dust/ which cleaueth on vs of your cite/ we wypp of agaynst you: notwithstandinge / make this þe kyngdome of God was come nye vnto you. Ye & I saye to you: þe it shalbe easier in that daye for Sodome then for that cite.

Go be to þe Chorazin: wo be to the Bethsaida. For yf the myracles had bene done in you/ they had a greute whyle agone repented sytting in heere & adhes. Neuerthelesse it shalbe easier for you & Sidon/ at the iudgement/ then for you. And thou Capernaum whych arte exalted to heauen/ shalt be thrust doune to hell. He þe heareth you/ heareth me: & he þe despiseth you/ despiseth me: & he that despiseth me/ despiseth him that sent me.

And the seuentye turned agayne to Ioye/ sayinge: Lord eue the very deuils are subdued to vs thowme thy name. And he sayde vnto the: I sawe Satan/ as it had bene ligh-tenyng/ faule doune from heauē. Beholde I geue vnto you power to treade on serpentes & scorpiōs/ & ouer all maner power of the enemye: & nothyng shall hurte you. Neuerthelesse/ in this reioyse not/ that the synkes are vnder youre power: but reioyse / because youre names are wyrtten in heauen.

That same tyme reioysed Jesus in þe spyte/ & sayde: I cōfesse vnto the father: * Lord of heauē & erth/ that thou hast hyd these thyngs from the wyle & proude/ & hast opened them to the babes. Euen so father/ for so pleased it the All thynges are geuen me of my father. And no man knoweth who the sonne is/ but the father: nether who the father is/ saue the sonne/ & he to whō þe sonne wyll shewe hym.

And he turned to his disciples/ & sayd secretly: I happy are the eyes/ which se that ye se. For I tell you that many prophetes & kynge haue desired to se those thynges which ye se/ & haue not sene the: & to heare those thynges which ye heare/ and haue not hearde them.

And beholde a certayne laweer stode by/ & tempted him/ sayinge: * Master what shall I do to inheret eternall lyfe? He sayde vnto him: what is wyrtten in the lawe? How redest thou? And he answered & sayde: * Loue thy Lord God/ with all thy hert / & wyth all thy soule and wyth all thy strengthe/ & wyth all thy mynde: & thy neyghbour as thy selfe. And he sayde vnto him: Thou hast answered ryght. This do and thou shalt lyue. He wyllynge to iustifye him selfe/ sayde vnto Jesus: Who is then my neyghbour?

Jesus answered & sayde: A certayne man descended fro Ierusalem into Hierico / & fell into the handes of theues/ which robbed him of his raymet and wounded hym/ & departed leuyng leuyng him halfe deed. And by chaunce ther came a certayne psette that same waye/ & whē he sawe hym/ he passed by. And lyke wise a Leuite/ when he was come nye to þe place/ went and lohed on hym/ and passed by. Then a certayne Samaritane/ as he tozneyed/ came nye vnto him/ & when he sawe hym/ he had cōpassion on hym/ & went to a bounde by his wounde/ & poured in oyle & wyne/ & put hym on his awne beaste/ & brought him to a cōmē myne/ & made prouision for him. And on þe morowe whē he departed/ he toke out two pēce & gaue the to þe host/ & sayde vnto him: Take cure of hym/ and whatsoeuer thou spendest moare/ when I come agayne/ I will recompence the. Which now of these thre thyngest thou/ was neyghbour vnto him that fell into the theues handes? And he sayde: he that shewed mercy on hym. Then sayde Jesus vnto hym: Go and do thou lyke wyse.

It fortunēd as they wēt/ that he entred into a certayne toun. And a certayne womā named Martha/ receaued him into her house. And this woman had a sister called Mary/ whych sat at Jesus fete/ and hearde his preachinge. And Martha was cōbzed about moche seruinge/ & stode & sayd: master/ doest thou not care/ that my syster hath left me to minister alone? Wyd her therfore/ þe she helpe me. And Jesus answered/ and sayde vnto her Martha/ Martha/ thou carest / & arte troubled about many thynges: bereyly one is needfull. * Mary hath chosen her þe good parte/ which shall not be taken awaye from her. &c. He teacheth his disciples to praye/ dyueth out a deuill/ and rebuketh the blasphemous pharisees. They requyre synnes and tokens. He eateth with the pharisees/ and is reproboureth the pporitye of the pharisees/ scrupes and pporities.

The .xi. Chapter.

And it fortunēd as he was praying in a certayne place: whē he ceased one of his disciples sayde vnto him: Master/ teache vs to praye/ as Iohn taught his discyples. And he sayde vnto them: when ye praye/ saye: O our father which arte in heauen/ halowed be thy name. Thy kyngdome come. Thy wille be fulfilled/ euen in erth as it is in heauen. Dure dayly breed geue vs euermore. And forgeue vs our synnes: for euen we forgeue euery man þe trespasseth vs. And leade vs not into temptation. But deliuer vs from euill.

And he sayde vnto them: * yf any of you shuld haue a frende/ & shuld go to him at mid nyght/ & saye vnto him: frende lende me thre loues/ for a frende of myne is come out of þe waye to me/ & I haue nothyng to set before hym: & he within shuld answer & saye/ trouble me not/ the doze is now shut/ and my seruantes are with me in the chamber / I can not ryse & geue them to the. I saye vnto you/ though he wolde not aryse and geue him/ because he is his frende: yet because of his importunite he wolde ryse/ & geue him as many as he neded. And I saye vnto you: alke/ & if shalbe geue you. Seke / and ye shall fynde. Knocke / and it shalbe opened vnto you. For euery one þe asketh/ receaueth: & he þe seeketh/ findeth: & to him þe knocketh/ shal it be opened. Yf þe sonne shal alke breed of eny of you that is a father: will he geue him a stone? Or yf he alke the fiffhe/ will he for a fiffhe geue him a serper? Or yf he alke an egge: will he offer him a scorpion? Yf ye then which are euill/ can geue good gyfte vnto youre chyldre/ how moche moare shal þe father of heauē geue an holy spete to the/ that desyre it of him? &c. And he was castinge out a deuill/ whych was domme. And it folowed when the deuill was gone out/ the dome spake / & the people wondred. But some of them sayd: he casteth out deuyls by the power of a * Belzeub the chefe of the deuyls. And other tēpted him sayinge of him a sygne from heauen. But he knewe their thoughtes / & sayde vnto them: Euery kyngdom deuiled with in it selfe shal be desolate: and one house shal fall vpon another. So yf Satan be deuyled with in hym selfe: how shal his kyngdome endure? Because ye saye þe I cast out deuyls by þe power of Belzeub/ &c. / by þe power of Belzeub caste out deuyls: by whom do youre chyldren cast them out? * Therfore shal they be your iudges. But yf I/ with þe synger of God cast out deuyls/ no doute the kyngdome of God is come vpon you.

And as he spake/ a certayne Pharise besought him to dyne with hym: and he went in & yet not to haue left the other vndone.

Mat. 23. c.

Wo be to you Pharises: for ye loue the hypermost seates in the synagoges/ & greetynge in the markets. Wo be to you scribes & Pharises ypocrytes/ for ye are as graues whych appere not/ & the men that walke ouer them are not ware of them. Then answered one of the laweares/ & sayd vnto hym: Master/ thus sayinge thou puttst vs to rebuke also. Then he sayde: wo be to you also ye laweares: for ye lade me with burthens greuous to be borne/& ye youre selues touche not y^e packes with one of youre fyngers. Wo be to you: ye bylde the sepulchres of the pphetes/ & youre fathers killed them/ truly ye beare witness/ that ye allowe the dedes of youre fathers: for they killed them/ and ye bylde their sepulchres.

Therfore sayd the wysdome of God: I will send them pphetes & Apostles/ and of the

they shall flee & persecute: that the bloude of all pphetes/ whych was shed fro the begynninge of the worlde/ maye be requyred of this generacion/ fro the bloud of Abel vnto the bloud of Zachary/ whych perished betwene the altare & the temple. Weresy I saye vnto you: it shall be requyred of this nacton.

Wo be to you laweares: for ye haue taken awaye the keye of knowledge/ ye entred not in youre selues/ & them y^e came in ye forbad.
When he thus spake vnto them/ the laweares and the Pharises begā to were busye about tions/ sayinge wayte for him/ and sekinge to catche some thyng of his mouth/ wher by ware of couetousnes/ by the synilitude of a certayne ryche man: he will not haue the to hange vpon earthly commynge.

The. xii. Chapter.

And they gathered to gether an innumerable multitude of people (in so moche y^e they trood one another) he began to saye vnto his disciples: fyrst of all beware of the Pharises whych is ypocryt. For ther is no thyng couered/ that shall not be vncouered: nether hyd y^e shall not be knowen. For what soeuer ye haue spoken in darknes: that same shall be harde in light. And y^e whych ye haue spoken in the eare eue in secret places/ shall be preached euen on the toppe of the houses.

I saye vnto you my frendes: be not afrayde of them that kyll the body/ and after y^e haue no moare that they can do. But I will shewe you/ whom ye shall feare. Feare hym whych after he hath kylled/ hath power to cast into hell. Yee I saye vnto you/ him feare. Are not foure sparowes bought for two farthynges?
And yet not one of them is forgotten of God.
Also eue the very heeres of youre heedes are numbred. Feare not therfore: ye are moare of alue then many sparowes.

I saye vnto you: whosoever confesseth me confesse also before the angels of God. And he that denyeth me before me: shall be denyed before the angels of God. And whosoever speaketh a worde agaynst the sonne of mā it shall be forgeuen him. But vnto him y^e blasphemeth y^e holy goost/ it shall not be forgeuen.

When they byynge you vnto the synagoges/with me. And he sayde vnto hym: Man/ who made me a iudge or a deuyder ouer you?

Therfore he sayde vnto the: take hede/ & beware of couetousnes. *For no mannes lyfe standeth in the aboundaunce of the thynges whych he possedeth. And he put forth a synylitude vnto the sayinge: The grounde of a cer-tayne ryche man brought forth frutes plenteously/ and he thought in hym selfe sayinge:
what shall I do/ because I haue no rōume where to bestowe my frutes? And he sayde: this will I do. I will destroye my barnes/ & bylde greater/ & therin will I gadder all my frutes/ & my goodes: and I will saye to my soule: Soule thou hast moche goodes layde by in stoor for many yeres/ take thyne ease: eate/ drynke/ & be mery. But God sayde vnto him: Thou sole/ this night will they fetch awaye thy soule agayne fro the. Then whose shall those thynges be whych thou hast prouided? So is it with him that gadreth riches: & is not riche in God.

And he spake vnto his disciples: Therfore I saye vnto you: Take no thought for your lyfe/ what ye shall eate: nether for your body/ what ye shall put on. The lyfe is moare then meate/ & the bodye is moare then ray-ment. Consydre the rauens/ for they nether sowe nor reye/ whych nether haue stoor house ner barne/ and yet God feedeth them.
How moche are y^e better then foules. Which of you with takinge thought can adde to his stature one cubyt? If ye then be not able to do y^e thig which is least: why take y^e thought for the remnaunt? Consydre y^e lilies how they growe: they laboure not: they spyn not: and yet I saye vnto you/ y^e Salomon in all this royalte/ was not clothed lyke to one of these.

If the grasse which is to daye in the felde/& to morowe shall be cast into y^e fornaice/ God to clothe/ how moche moze will he clothe you/ o ye endued w lytle sayth. And as he not what ye shall eate or what ye shall drynke/nether clyme ye by an hye: for all soche thin-ges the hethen people of the worlde seke for.
Your father knoweth that ye haue neade of soche thynges. Wherfore seke ye after the kingdome of God/ and all these thynges shall be mynystrid vnto you. *Feare not lytell flocke/ for it is your fathers pleasure/ to geue you a kyngdome. *Sell y^e haue/ & geue almes. And make you bagges/ whych were not olde/ & a treasure y^e sayleth not in he-uen/ where no thefe cometh/ nether moth corrupteth. For where your treasure is/ there will your hertes be also.

Let your loynes be girded about/ & your lyghtes bynnyng/ & ye your selues lyke vnto men y^e wayte for their master/ when he will retorne fro a wedding: y^e as he cometh

& knocketh/ they maye open vnto him. Happy are those seruantes/ whych the Lorde whē he cometh shall fynde wakynge. Weresy I saye vnto you/ he will gyrdde him selfe about & make the to syt doune to meate/ & walke by & mynyster vnto them. And yf he come in the seconde watche/ y^e yf he come in the thyrde watche/ & shall fynde the so/ happy are those seruantes. This vnderstonde/ y^e yf y^e good man of the house knewe what houre y^e thefe wolde come/ he wolde suerly watche: & not suffer his house to be broke by. Be ye prepared therfore: for the sonne of man will come at an houre when ye thynke not.

Then Peter sayd vnto him: *Master/ tel-lest thou this synylytude vnto vs/ or to all mē? And y^e Lorde sayde: If there be any sayth-full seruaunt & wyse/ whom his Lorde shall make ruler ouer his housholde/ to geue them their due of meate at due season: happy is that seruaunt/ who hys master when he commeth/ shall fynde so doyng. Of a trouth I saye vnto you: y^e he will make hym ruler ouer all y^e he hath. But y^e yf y^e euill seruaunt shall saye in his hert: My master will deferre his comynge/ and shall begynne to smyte the ser-uautes & maydens/ & to eate & drynke & to be dronche: the Lorde of y^e seruaunt will come in a daye when he thinketh not & at an houre when he is not ware/ & will deuyde hym/ & will geue hys rewarde to the vnbeleuers.

The seruaunt that knewe his masters will & prepared nothym selfe/ nether dyd according to his will/ shall be betwixt many stripes.
But he that knewe not/ and yet dyd committe thynges worthy of stripes/ shall be beaten with fewe stripes. For vnto whom moche is geuen/ of hym shall be moche requyred.
And to whom men moche commit/ the moze of hym will they aske.

I am come to sende fyre on erth: and what is my desyre/ but that it were all readye kindled. Not withstandinge I must be baptyzed w a baptyme: & how am I payned tyll it be ended? Suppose ye y^e I am come to send peace on erth? I tell you naye/ but rather debate. For fro hence forth ther shall be fyre in one house deuyded/ thye agaynst two/ & two agaynst thye. The father shall be deuyded agaynst the sonne/ & the sonne agaynst the father. The mother agaynst the daughter/ & y^e daughter agaynst y^e mother. The motherlawe agaynst hyr daughterlawe/ and the daughterlawe agaynst hyr motherlawe.

Then sayde he to the people: when ye se a cloude ryle out of the west strayght waye ye saye: we shall haue a shower/ & so it is. And when ye se the south wynde blowe/ ye saye:
we shall haue heet/ and it cometh to passe.

The. xiii. Chapter.

Iher were present at the same season that thewed him of the Galileans/ whose bloude Pylate meyled with their awne sacryfyce. And Iesus answered/ & sayde vnto them: Suppose ye these Galileans were greater synners then all the other Galileans/ because they suffered suche punishment? I tell you naye: but except ye repent/ ye shall all like wyle peryshe. Of those. xliii. vpon which the toure in Syloe fell/ & slewe the/thinke ye that they were synners aboue all me that dwel in Ierusalem? I tell you naye: But excepte ye repent/ ye all shall lyke wyle peryshe.

I He put forth the this similitude: a certayne ma had a fygge tree planted in his byne parde/ & he came & sought frute thereon/ and founde none. Then sayde he to the dyeller of hys byne parde: beholde/ this thre yeare haue I come & sought frute in this fygge tree/ & fynde none: cut it doune: why combyeth it y grounde: and he answered & sayde vnto hym: Lorde let it alone this yeare also/ tyll I dygge rounde aboute it/ & donge it/ to se whether it will beare frute: & yf it beare not then/ after y/ cut it doune. And he taught in one of their synagoges on the Saboth dayes. And beholde ther was a woman which had a spete of infirmite. xliii. yeares: & was bowed to gether/ & coude not lyfte by her selfe at all. When Iesus sawe her/ he called her to hym/ & sayde to her: woman thou arte deliuered from thy dyscase. And he layde hys handes on her/ and immediatly she was straght/ and glorified God. And the ruler of the synagoge answered with indignacyon (because that Iesus had healed on the Saboth daye) and sayde vnto the people. Ther are fyve dayes in which men ought to worke: in them come and be healed/ and not on the Saboth daye.

Math. x. a.
Luce. xliii. a.

Then answered hym the Lorde/ and sayde: yppocryte/ doth not eache one of you on the Saboth daye/ lowse his oxe or his asse from the stall/ & leade hym to the water? And ought not thys daughter of Abraham/ whom Satan hath bounde to. xliii. yeares/ be lowsed fro this bonde on the Saboth daye? And when he thus sayde/ all his aduersaries were ashamed/ and all the people reioysed on all the excellent dedes/ that were done by hym.

Then sayde he: what is the kyngedome of God lyke? or wherto shall I compare it? It is lyke a grayne of mustard seede/ which a ma toke and sowed in his garden: and it grewe & waxed a greate tree/ and the foules of the ayre made nestes in the braunches of it.

And agayne he sayde: wher vnto shall I liken the kyngedome of God? it is lyke leuen/ which a woman toke/ and hysde in thre busshels of flour/ tyll all was thozow leuened. And he went thozow all maner of cyties and townes teachinge/ and iorneyinge towards Ierusalem. Then sayde one vnto hym: Lorde/ are ther seame y shalbe saued? And he sayde vnto the: stryue to youre selues to enter in at the strypte gate: for many I saye vnto you/ will seke to enter in/ and shall not be able.

* When the good ma of the house is rylen by/ and hath shet to the doze/ ye shall beginne to stande without/ & to knocke at the doze sayinge Lorde Lorde/ open vnto vs: and he shall answer & saye vnto you: I knowe you not wher ce ye are. Then shall ye begin to saye: we haue eaten in thy presence & droncke/ & thou hast taught in oure stretes. And he shall saye: I tell you I knowe you not whence ye are: departe from me all ye workers of iniquite. There shalbe wepyng & gnashinge of teth/ when ye shall se Abraham and Isaac & Jacob/ and all the prophetes in the kyngdome of God/ & youre selues thrust oute at dozes. And they shall come from the east & from the west & fro the north & from the southe/ and shall syt doune in the kyngdome of God. And beholde/ there are last/ which shalbe fyrst: And ther are fyrst which shalbe last.

The same daye there came certayne of the Pharises and sayd vnto hym: get y out of the waye/ and departe hence: for Herode will kyl the. And he sayd vnto them. Go ye and tell y fore/ beholde I cast oute deuyls and heale y people to daye and to morowe/ and y thyrdaye I make an ende. Neuerthelesse/ I must walke to daye and to morowe/ & the daye: followinge: for it can not be/ that a Prophet perishe eny other whete/ saue at Ierusalem.

* O Jerusalem/ Jerusalem/ which killest prophetes/ & stonest the that are sent to the: how often wolde I haue gathered thy chyldre to gether/ as the hen gathered her nest vnder her wynges/ but ye wold not. Beholde poure habytacion shalbe left vnto you desolate. For I tell you/ ye shall not se me vntyll the tyme come that ye shall saye/ blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lorde.

Iesus

Iesus cateth with the Pharisees/ healeth the droopyn upon the Saboth/ teacheth to be lowly/ telleth of the great supper/ & warneth them that wyl folowe hym/ to laye their accomptes before what it wyl cost them/ The salt of the earth.

The. xiiii. Chapter.

It chaunced that he went into the house of one of the chiefe Pharises/ to eate bread on a Saboth daye: & they watched hym. And beholde ther was a ma before him/ which had a droopyn. And Iesus answered & spake vnto the laweares and Pharises sayinge: is it lawfull to heale on the Saboth daye? And they helde their peace. And he toke hym & healed hym/ and let hym go: and answered them sayinge/ which of you shall haue an asse or an oxe fallen into a pyt/ and wyl not straght waye pull hym out on the Saboth daye? And they coude not answer hym agayne to that.

He put forth a similitude to the gesses/ wher he marked how they pleased to the hyst roumes/ & sayd vnto the: When thou arte bidden to a weddinge of eny man/ syt not doune in the hyst roume/ lest a moze honorable ma then thou be bidden of hym/ and he that hade bothe hym & the/ come and saye to the: geue this ma roume/ and thou then beginnewith shame to take the lowest roume. But rather wher thou arte bydden/ go & syt in the lowest roume/ & wher he that hade the commeth/ he maye saye vnto the: fronde syt by hys. Then shall thou haue worshipp in the presence of them that syt at meate with the. * For whosoeuer exalteth hym selfe/ shalbe brought lowe. And he that humbleth hym selfe/ shalbe exalted.

Math. x. b.
Luce. xliii. c.

Then sayde he also to him that had dyspyed hym to dîner: I wher thou makest a dîner or a supper/ call not thy frendes/ nor thy brethre/ nether thy kynsmen/ yet ryche neyghbours: lest they byde the agayne/ & recopence be made the. But when thou makest a feast/ call the poore/ the maymed/ the lame & the bynde/ and thou shalt be happy/ for they cannot recompence the. But thou shalt be recopented at the resurrection of the iuste men.

When one of them that sate at meate also heard that/ he sayde vnto hym: happy is he that eateth bread in the kyngdome of God. Then sayd he to hym: A certayne man ordeined a greate supper/ & hade many/ & sent his seruaunt at supper tyme/ to saye to the that were bidden/ come: for all thynges are now ready. And they all at once beganne to make excuse. The fyrst sayd vnto hym: I haue bought a ferme/ and I must nedes go & se it/ I praye the haue me excused. And another sayd: I haue bought fyue yooke of oxen/ and I go to plowe the/ I praye the haue me excused. The thyrde sayd: I haue maryed a wyfe/ and therfore I cannot come. And the seruaunt went/and brought hys Master worde therof. Then was the good man of the house dyspleased/ & sayd to his seruaunt: Go out quickly into the stretes & quarters of the cite/ and bryng in hydder & poore & the maymed & the halt & the bynde. And the seruaunt sayd Lorde it is done as thou comaundest & yet there is roume. And the Lorde sayd to the seruaunt: Go out into the hys wayes & hedges/ & cōpel the to come in/ that my house maye be fylled. For I saye vnto you/ that none of those men which were bidden/ shall tast of my supper.

Math. x. b.
Mat. viii. d.

Then went a greate cōpany with hym/ and he turned & sayde vnto the: I f a ma come to me/ & hate not his father & mother & wyfe/ and chyldren/ and brethre/ and systers/ nor reouer/ and hys awne lyfe/ he cannot be my discipyle. And whosoeuer beate not his crosse/ and come after me cannot be my discipyle.

Which of you disposed to byde a toure/ sit teth not doune before and counteth the cost/ whether he haue sufficiēt to perfoyme it? lest after he hath layde the foundacyon/ and is not able to perfoyme it/ all y beholde it/ beginne to moche hym sayinge: thys man beganne to byde/ and was not able to make an ende. O what king goeth to make batayle agaynst another kyng/ and sytteth not doune fyrst/ and casteth in his mynde/ whether he be able with ten thousande/ to mete him that cometh agaynst hym with. xx. thousand. Or els whyll y other is yet a greate waye of/ he wyl sende ambassatours/ and desyre peace. So lyke wyle one of you that forsaketh not all that he hath/ can be my discipyle.

* Salt is good/ but yf salt haue losse hyr saltnes/ what shall be seasoned ther with? It is nether good for the lande nor yet for the donge hyll/ but men cast it out at the dozes. He that hath eares to heare/ let hym heare.

The loungye metey of God is opely set forth in the parable of the hundred shepe/ & of the lounge pwas lost

The. xv. Chapter.

Ihen resorted vnto hym all the publicans and synners/ for to heare hym. And the Pharises and Scribes murmured sayinge: He recea- ueth to his cōpany synners/ and eateth with them. Then put he forth the thys similitude to them sayinge: What man of you haunge an hundred shepe/ yf he loose one of them/ doth not leue nynty and nyne in the wyldernes/ and go after that which is lost vntyll he fynde hym? And when he hath founde hym/ he putteth hym on hys shuldres with ioye: And asone as he cometh home/ he calleth to gether hys louers and neyghbours sayinge vnto them: Reioyse with me for I haue founde my shepe which was lost. I saye vnto you/unto you that the wyle soye shalbe in heuē ouer one synner that repenteth / moore then ouer nynty & nyne iuste persons / which nede no repentance. Ethe what woman hauing p. grottes / yf she loose one / doth not lyght a candle / & swepe the house / & seke diligently tyll she fynde it. And when she hath founde it she calleth her iouers & her neighbours sayinge: Reioyce with me / for I haue founde a grotte which I had lost. A p. hewyle I saye vnto you / ioye is made in the p. sence of angels of God ouer one synner that repenteth. I.

And he sayde: A certayne man had two sonnes / & the yonger of them sayde to his father: father geue me the parte of the goodes that to me belongeth. And he deuoyded vnto them his substance. And not long after / the yonger sonne gaddered all that he had to geder / & toke his iorney into a farre countre / and there he wasted his goodes in ryetous lyuynge. And when he had spent all that he had / ther arose a greatederth thozow out all that same lade / & he began to lacke. And he went & claued to a cytesyn of that same countre / which sent him to his felde / to kepe his swyne. And he wolde sayne haue fylled his bely with the coddys that the swyne ate: and no man gaue to hym.

Then he came to hym selfe and sayde: how many hyred seruauntes at my fathers haue bred ynough / & I dye for honger. I will arysle & go to my father / & wyl saye vnto hym: father I haue synned agaynst heuē & before the / & am no moze worthy to be called thy sonne / make me as one of thy hyred seruauntes. And he arose and went to his father. And when he was yet a greate waye of / hys father sawe hym / & had compasyon / & ran & fell on his neck & kysed hym. And the sonne sayd vnto hym: father I haue synned agaynst heuē / & in thy sight / & am no moze worthy to be called thy sonne. But his father sayd to his seruauntes: hrynge forth that best garment and put it on him / & put a ringe on his hande / & shooes on his fete. And bringe hydder that fatted caulfe & kill hym / & let vs eate and be mery: for this my sonne was deed / and is alpye agayne / he was losse / & is now founde. And they began to be merye. The elder brother was in the felde / & when he came & dreyne nye to the house / he herde minstrelly & dauntynge / & called one of his seruauntes / & asked what those thynges meate. And he sayde vnto him: thy brother is come / & thy father had killed a fatted caulfe / because he hath receaued him safe & sound. And he was angry / & wolde not go in. Then came his father out & entreated him. He answered & sayde to his father: Lo these many yeres haue I done thy seruice / nether haue I at any tyme thy commaundment / & yet gauest thou me neuer so muche as a kyd to make mery with my iouers: but as sone as this thy sonne was come / which hath deuoyded thy goodes with harlots / thou hast for his pleasure killed a fatted caulfe. And he sayd vnto him: Sonne / thou wast euer with me / and all that I haue is thine: it was mete that we shuld make mery and be glad: for thys thy brother was deed / and is alpye agayne: and was losse / and is founde.

The parable of the wyched Mammon. Not one tye of Gods worde shall perishe. Of the ryche man and poore Lazarus.

The xxi. Chapter.

And he sayd also vnto his discyples. A. Ther was a certayne ryche man / which had a stewarde / that was accused vnto him / that he had wasted his goodes. And he called hym: and sayd vnto him: How is it / that I heare this of the? Geue a compes of thy stewarde thyppye: for thou mayste be no longer stewarde. The stewarde sayd to hym selfe: what shall I do: for my master will take awaye fro me the stewarde shippe. I can not bygge / and to begge / I am ashamed. I woote what to do / that when I am put out of the stewards shippe / they maye receaue me into their houses.

Then called he all hys masters detters / & B sayd vnto the fyrst: how moche owest thou vnto my master? And he sayd an hondred tonnes of oyle. And he sayd to him: take thy byll / & syt doune quychly and wyte fyrtye. Then sayd he to another: what owest thou? And he sayde: an hondred quarters of wheate. He sayd to him: Take thy byll / and wyte foure scoore. And the Lorde commendeth the vnjust stewarde because he had done wyllly. For the chyldren of thys worlde are in their kynde / wyser then the chyldren of lyght. And I saye also vnto you: make you frendes of the wyched Mammon / & when ye shall departe / they may receaue you into euertlasting habitacions. I.

He that is faythfull in a litle / which is litle the same is faythfull in moche. And he is vn faythfull in a litle: is vn faythfull also in moche. So then yf ye haue not ben faythfull in a litle wicked mammon / who will beleue you in that which is true? And yf ye haue not bene faythfull in another mannes busynes: who shall geue you youre awne? No seruaunt can serue two masters / for other he shall hate the one & loue the other / or els he shall lene to the one & despise the other. Ye can not serue God & mammon. All these thynges herde the pharysees also / which were couetous / & they mockted hym. And he sayd vnto the: Ye are they which desire to be called of men: but God hateth you. For that which is hyghly esteemed amonge men / is abhominable in the sight of God. I.

The lawe

The lawe and the prophetes raygned vntill the tyme of John: and sence that tyme the kyngdome of God is preached / & euery man stryuethe to go in. Soner shall heuen & erth perishe then one tyele of the lawe shall perishe. Whosoever forsaketh his wyle & marryeth another / breaketh matrimony. And euery man which marryeth her that is deuoyded fro her husbände / committeth adoutry also.

Ther was a certayne ryche man / which was clothed in purple and syne byde / & fared deliciously euery daye. And there was a certayne begger named Lazarus / which laye at his gate full of soores despynginge to be refreshed with the cromes which he sell fro the ryche manes boorde. Neuerthelesse / a dogges came and licked hys soores. And it fortuned that the begger dyed / and was caried by the angelles into Abrahams bosome. The ryche man also dyed / and was buryed.

And beinge in hell in tormētes / he lyfte vp his eyes and sawe Abraham a farre of / & Lazarus in his bosome / & he cryed & sayd: father Abraham / haue mercy on me / & sende Lazarus that he maye dyppe the tyepe of his synger in water / & cole my tōge: for I am tourmented in this flame. But Abraham sayd vnto hym: Sonne / remeber that thou in thy lyfe tyme / receauedst thy pleasure / & contrary wyle Lazarus payne. Now therfore is he comforted / & thou art punished. Beyond all this / bytweene you and vs ther is a greate space set / so that they which wolde go from hence to you can not: nether maye come from thence to vs.

Then he sayd I praye the therfore father / send him to my fathers house. For I haue fyue brethren: for to warne the lest they also come into the place of tourment. Abraham sayd vnto him: they haue Moses & the Prophetes let them heare the. And he sayd: maye father Abraham / but yf one came vnto them from the deed / they wolde repent. He sayde vnto hym: If they heare not Moses and the Prophetes / nether wyl they beleue / though one rose from deeth agayne.

Christ teacheth his discyples to auoyde occasyons of euell / one to forgyue another / steadfastly to trust in God / and no mā to presume in his awne wyse. He healeth the ten lepers / speaketh of the latter dayes / and of the ende of the worlde.

The xxii. Chapter.

Then sayde he to hys discyples / it can not be auoyded but that offences wyl come. Neuerthelesse wo be to hym thozow whom they come. Ye were better for hym that a myllstone were hanged aboute his necke / & that he were cast into the see / then that he shulde offende one of these lytle. Take hede to youre selues. For if thy brother trespas agaynst the / rebuke him and yf he repēt / forgyue him. And though he synne agaynst the seuen tymes in a daye / & seuen tymes in a daye tourne agayne to the sayinge: it repenteth me / forgyue him.

And the Apostles sayde vnto the Lorde: increase oure fayth. And the Lorde sayde: yf ye had sayth lyke a grayne of mustard seede / & shuld saye vnto thys sycamine tree / plucke thy selfe by the rootes / and plant thy selfe in the see: he shoulde obey you.

Who is it of you yf he had a seruaute plowinge or sedinge catel / that wolde saye vnto him when he were come from the felde: Go quychly and syt doune to meate: & wolde not rather saye to hym / dresse wherwith I maye sup / and gyde by thy selfe and serue me / tyll I haue eaten & dronchen: & afterwarde / eate thou / and drinke thou: Doeth he thā he that seruaunt because he dyd that which was commaunded vnto him: I trowe not. So likewise ye / when ye haue done all those thynges which are commaunded you saye / we are benefitable seruauntes. We haue done that which was oure duty to do.

And it chaunted as he went to Ierusalem / that he passed thozow Samaria and Galilee. And as he entred into a certayne toun / ther met him ten men that were lepers. Which stode a farre of & put forth their voyces and sayde: Iesu master / haue mercy on vs. When he sawe them / he sayde vnto them: Go and shewe youre selues vnto the prestes. And it chaunted as they went / they were censed. And one of the / when he sawe that he was censed / turned backe agayne / & wyth a loude voyce prayled God / & fell doune on his face at his fete / and gaue him thākes. And the same was a Samaritane. And Iesus answered & sayde: are ther not ten censed? But where are those nyne? Ther are not founde that returned agayne / to geue God prayse saue only this strainger. And he sayde vnto him: arysle / & go thy waye thy fayth hath made the whole. I.

When he was demaunded of the pharises / whē the kyngdome of God shuld come / he answered them & sayde: The kyngdome of God cometh not with waytyng for. Nether lone God wylth shall men saye: Lo here / lo there. For beholde the kyngdome of God is with in you.

And he sayde vnto the discyples: the dayes accordynge to the will come / when ye shal despyre to se one daye couenaunt made of the sonne of man / & ye shal not se it. And he sayde vnto them: Se here / Se there. Go not after them / nor folowe them / for as the lyghtenynge that apereth out of one parte / loued the. And of heuen: and shyneth vnto the other parte of all this is with heauen. So shall the sonne of man be in his dayes. But fyrst must he suffre many thynges / and be refused of this nation.

The xliij. Chapter.

And he put forth a ſymilitude vnto the/ ſignifying that men ought alwayes to praye & not to be wery/ſayinge: Ther was a Judge in a certayne cytie/ whych feared not God neither regarded man. And ther was a certayne we-dowe in the ſame citie/ which came vnto him ſayinge: auenge me of myne aduerſary. And he wolde not for a while. But afterwarde he ſayde to him ſelfe: though I feare not God nor care for man/ yet becauſe theſe wedowe troubleth me/ I will auenge her leſt at laſte ſhe come & hagge on me. And the Lozde ſayd heare what the vnyghtewes Judge ſayeth.
And ſhall not God auenge his electe/ whych deſerre them? I tell you he will auenge them and that quickly. & Neuertheleſſe/ whē the ſonne of mā cometh/ ſuppoſe ye/ that he ſhal

And he put forth this ſymilitude/ vnto certayne which truſted in them ſelues & they were perfecte/ and deſpyſed other. Two men went by into the tēple to praye: 8 one a Phariſe & the other a publicā. The Phariſe ſtoode & prayed thus with him ſelfe. God I thanke the that I am not as other men are/ extorſio-ners/ vnſuffe/ aduouters/ or as this publicā I ſat twyfe in the weke. I geue tythe of all that I poſſeſſe. And the publican ſtoode a farre of/ & wolde not lyfte by his eyes to heauē/but ſmote hys bzeſt ſayinge: God be mercyfull to me a ſynner. I tell you theſe man departed home to hys houſe iuſtified moare then the other. * For euery man that exalteth hym ſelfe/ ſhall be brought low: And he that humbleth him ſelfe/ ſhall be exalted.

They brought vnto him alſo babes/ that he ſhulde touche the. Whē his diſciples ſawe that/ they rebuked the. But Jeſus called the vnto him/ & ſayde: Suffer chyldren to come vnto me/ & forbide them not. For of ſoche is the kyngdome of God. Verely I ſaye vnto you: whoſoeuer receaueth not 8 kyngdome of God as a chyld: he ſhall not enter therein.

And a certayne ruler aſked hym ſayinge:
good maſter: what ought I to do/ to obayne eternall lyfe? Jeſus ſayde vnto him: why calleſt thou me good? None is good/ ſaue God only. Thou knoweſt the comaundementes: Thou ſhalt not commit aduoutry: thou ſhalt not kyll: thou ſhalt not ſteale: thou ſhalt not beare falſe wytnes: Honoure thy father and thy mother. And he ſayde all theſe haue I kept frō my yowthe. Whē Jeſus hearde 8 ſayde vnto him: Yet lackeſt thou one thinge.

* Sell al that thou haſt/ & diſtribute it vnto the poore/ & thou ſhalt haue treaſure in heauen/ and come/ & folowe me. Whē he hearde that/ he was heuy: for he was very ryche.

When Jeſus ſawe hym moorne/ he ſayde:
with what diſſiculte ſhall they that haue ryches/ enter into the kyngdome of God: it is eaſyer for a camell to go thozowe a nedles eye/ then for a ryche man to enter into the kyngdome of God. Then ſayde they 8 hearde that. And who ſhall then be ſaued? And he ſayde: Chynges whych are impoſſible wyth men are poſſible wyth God.

Then Peter ſayde: Lo we haue leſte all/ & haue folowed the. And he ſayde vnto them:
* Verely I ſaye vnto you/ ther is no mā that vnto them. Beholde we go by to Jeruſalem/& all ſhall be fulfilled that are wyrtten by the Prophetes of the ſonne of man. He ſhall be deſiuered vnto the gentyls/ & ſhall be mocked and ſhall be deſpytfully entreated/ and ſhall be ſpetted on: and whē they haue ſcourged him/they will put him to deeth/ and the thyrde daye he ſhall aryſe agayne. But they vnderſtoode none of theſe thinges. And this ſayinge was hyd from them. And they perceaued not the thynges whych were ſpoken.

And he entred in & wēt thozow Hier-rico. And beholde/ther was a man named Zacheus/ which was a ruler amonge the Publicans/ & was riche alſo. And he made meanes to ſe Jeſus/what he ſhulde be: & coulde not for 8 preace/becauſe he was of a lo ſtature. Wherefore he ran before/ & clymed by into a wyldre figge tree/ to ſe him: for he ſhulde come 8 waye.
And when Jeſus cam to the place/ he loked by/ and ſawe him/ and ſayd vnto him: Zache-come doune attōce/ for to daye I muſt abyde at thy houſe. And he came doune haſtely & receaued him ioyfully. And whē they ſawe 8 they all groudged ſayinge: He is gone in to tary with a man that is a ſynner.

And Zache ſtoode forth and ſayd vnto the Lozde: beholde Lozde/ 8 hauſe of my good-des I geue to the poore/ and yf I haue done eny man wronge/ I wyll reſtoze hym ſower althe come vnto thys houſe/ for as moche as he alſo is become 8 chyld of Abraham. * For the ſonne of man is come to ſeke and to ſaue that which was looſte.

As they hearde theſe thinges/ he added ther to a ſymilitude/ becauſe he was nye to Hier-rico/ and becauſe alſo they thought that the kyngdome of God ſhuld ſhortely appere.
He ſayde therfore: * A certayne noble man went into a ſarre countre/ to receaue hym a kyngdome/ and then to come agayne. And he called his ten ſeruautes and deſpyered the ten pounde/ ſayinge vnto the: by and ſell till I come. But his ciſelens hated him/ and ſent meſſengers after hym ſayinge: we wyll not chaue this man to raygne ouer vs.

And it came to paſſe/ when he was come agayne & had receaued his kyngdome/ he cō-maunded theſe ſeruautes/ to be called to him (to whom he gaue hys money) to wit what euery mā had done. Then came 8 firſt/ ſaying Lozde/ thy pounde hath encreaſed tē pōnde.
And he ſayd vnto him: Well good ſeruaunt becauſe thou waſt faythfull in a very lytell thinge/ take thou auctozite ouer ten cytyes.
And 8 other came ſayinge: Lozde thy pounde hath encreaſed fyue pounde. And to the ſame he ſayde: & be thou alſo ruler ouer fyue cittes.

And 8 thyrde came & ſayde: Lozde beholde here thy pounde/ whych I haue kepte in a napkyn/ for I feared the/ becauſe thou arte a ſtrayte man: thou takeſt by 8 thou laydeſt not doune/ & repeſt that thou dydeſt not ſo-we. And he ſayde vnto him: * Of thynne a wne weſt thou that I am a ſtrayte mā takinge by that I layde not doune/ & reppuge that I dyd not ſowe? Wherefore then gaueſt not thou my money into the banke/ that at my cōminge I might haue required mine a wne w baſſage

And he ſayde to the that ſtoode by: take frō him that pounde/ & geue it him that hath ten pounde. And they ſayde vnto hym Lozde he hath ten pounde. I ſaye vnto you/ that vnto all them that haue/ it ſhall be geuen: a frō him that hath not/ euen that he hath ſhall be taken from him. Whereouer thoſe myne enemyes/whych wolde not 8 I ſhuld raygne ouer the byryge hiddre/ & ſlee them before me. * And when he had thus ſpoken/ he proceeded forth before/ aſcendinge by to Jeruſalem.

And it ſortuned/ when he was come nye to Bethphage & Bethany/ beſides moſte Oli-uete/ he ſent two of his diſciples ſayinge: go ye into 8 tōune whych is ouer agaynſt you.
In the which aſſone as ye are come/ ye ſhall finde a colte tyed/ wheron yet neuer mā ſate.
Louſe him and brynge him hyder. And yf eny man aſke you/ why that ye lowſe hym: thus ſaye vnto him/ the Lozde hath nede of hym.

They that were ſent/ went their waye and foude/ euen as he had ſayde vnto them. And as they were aſcendinge the colte/ the owners ſayde vnto them: why lowſe ye the colte?
And they ſayde: for the Lozde hath nede of hym. And they brought hym to Jeſus. And they caſt their rayment on the colte/ and ſette Jeſus thereon. And as he went/ they ſpredd their clothes in the waye.

And when he was now come/ where he ſhuld go doune frō 8 moſte Oliuete/ 8 whole multitude of the diſciples begā to reioyce/& to laude God with a loude voyce/ for all the myzacles that they had ſene/ ſayinge: bleſſed certayne pooze wyddowe / whych cast in thyrther two mytes. And he sayde: of a trueth I saye vnto you / this pooze wyddowe hath put in moare then they all. For they all haue of their superfluyte added vnto þe offeryng of God: but she / of her penury hath cast in all the substaunce that she had.

As some spake of the temple/how it was sayde. *The dayes wyll come/when of these thynges whych ye se/shall not be lefte stone vpon stone/that shall not be throwen downe.

And they asked hym sayinge: Master when shal these thynges be/a what signe will therbe when suche thynges shall come to passe.

And he sayd: take hede / þe ye be not decea-
ued. for many will come in my name saying I am he: and the tyme draweth neare. folo-we ye not them therfoze. But when ye heare of warre and dissencion: be not afraied. for these thynges myght fyrst come: but the ende foloweth not by a by. Then sayd he vnto the:

Take hede to youre selues/lest youre hertes be ouercome wth surfeitinge & d^runkennes and cares of thys worlde: and that/ y^e daye come on you vnwares. For as a snare shall it come on all them that lye on the face of the erthe. Watche therfore continually & praye/ that ye maye obtayne grace to stye all this that shall come/and that ye maye stande before the sonne of man.

In the daye tyme/ he taught in the temple and at nyght/ he went out/ and had abydinge in the mount oliuete. And all y^e people came in the moorninge to hym in the temple/ for to heare hym.

This is betrayed. They eate the easter labe. The institution of the sacrament. They scrue who shalbe greatest/ he reproveth the: he prayeth the tymes vpon the mount. They take hym and bringe him to the hye prestes house: Peter denyeth hym thre tyme/ they bringe hym before the counsell.

The xxij. Chapter. In the feast of swete bread bzeed nye whych is called easter/ and the hye prestes & scribes sought how to kyl him/ but they feared y^e people.

Then entred Satan into Judas/ whose s^r name was Iscariot (whych was of the nobre of y^e twelue) & he went his waye & cōmuned with the hye prestes & officers how he myght betraye him to the. And they were glad: & promised to geue him money. And he consented/ and sought oportunitie to betraye hym vnto them when the people were awaye.

Then came the daye of swete bread/ wh^{ch} of necessitye the easterlambe must be offered. And he sent Peter & John sayinge: go & prepare vs the easterlabe/ y^e we maye eate. They sayde to him. Where wilt thou/ that we prepare? And he sayde vnto the. Beholde wh^{er} ye be entred into the cite/ ther shall a man mete you bearynge a pitcher of water/ him folowe into the same house that he entrech in/ & saye vnto the good man of the house. The master sayeth vnto the: where is the guest chamber/ where I shal eate mine easterlambe with my disciples? And he shal shew you a greete parloure paved. Ther make redy. And they went and founde as he had sayde vnto them: & made redy the easterlambe.

And wh^{en} y^e houre was come/ he sate doune and the twelue Apostles wyth hym. And he sayde vnto them: I haue inwardly desyred to eate this easterlambe wyth you before that I suffre. For I saye vnto you: hence forth I will not eate of it eny moore/ vntyll it be fulfilled in the kyngdome of God. And he toke y^e cup and gaue thankes/ and sayd. Take thys/ and deuyde it amonge you. For I saye vnto you: I will not dryncke of the frute of the vyne/ vntyll the kyngdome of God be come.

And he toke bread/ gaue thankes/ & gaue to them/ sayinge: This is my body whych is geuen for you. This do in the remembraunce of me. A lyke wyse also/ when they had supped/ he toke the cup sayinge: This cup is the newe testamēt in my bloude/ whych shall for you be shedde.

Yet beholde/ y^e hande of him that betrayeth me/ is wyth me on the table. And the sonne of man goeth as it is apoynted: But wo be to that man by wh^{om} he is betrayed. And they began to enquire amonge them selues/ whych of them it shulde be/ that shulde do that.

And ther was a stryfe amonge them/ whych of the shulde be takē for y^e greatest. And he sayde vnto the: the kynges of the gentyls raygne ouer them/ and they that beare rule ouer them/ are called gracious lordes. But ye shall not be so: But he y^e is greatest amonge you/ shalbe as the yongest: and he that is chiefe/ shalbe as the mynister. For whether is greater/ he that sitteth at meate: or he y^e serueth? Is not he that sitteth at meate? And I am amonge you/ as he that ministrerth. Ye are they whych haue bydden wyth me in my temptacions. And I apoynt vnto you a kyngdome as my father hath appoynted to me: that ye maye eate and dryncke at my table in my kyngdome/ and lye on seates/ and iudge the twelue trybes of Israell.

And y^e Lord sayde: Simon/ Simō beholde Satan hath desyred you/ to lyfte you/ as it were wheate: but I haue prayed for the/ that thy fayth faile not. And when thou arte conuerted/ strengthe thy brethren. And he sayde vnto hym. Lord/ I am redy to go wyth the into p^reson to deeth. And he sayde: I tell the Peter/ y^e cocke shall not crowe thys daye/ tyl thou haue thre denyed y^e thou knowest me.

And he sayde vnto them: when I sent you wythout wallet and scrippe & shoes/ lacked ye eny thinge? And they sayd/ no. And he sayd to them: but now he that hath a wallet let him take it by/ and likewise his scrippe. And he that hath not/ let him sell his coote and bye one. For I saye vnto you/ that yet that whych is wyrtten/ must be performed in me: euen wyth the wyched was he nombred. For those thynges whych are wyrtten of me/ haue an ende. And they sayde: Lord/ beholde here are two weardes. And he sayde vnto them: it is ynough.

And he came out/ & went as he was wote to mounte Oliuete. And the disciples folowed hym. And when he came to the place/ he sayde to the: praye/ lest ye fall into temptaciō.

And he gate him selfe from them/ about a stonys cast/ & kneled doune/ & prayed/ sayinge: Father yf thou wilt/ withd^rawe this cup from me. Neuerthelesse/ not my will/ but thyne be fulfilled. And ther appered an angell vnto hym from hym from heauen/ confortynge hym. And he was in an agony/ and prayed somwhat longer. And hys sweate was lyke dropes of bloud/ trichlynge doune to the grounde. And he rose by from prayer and came to his disciples/ and founde them slepyng: for sozowe/ and sayde vnto them: why slepe ye? Rysse and praye/ lest ye fall into temptacion.

Whyll he yet spake/ beholde/ ther came a cōpany/ & he that was called Judas one of y^e twelue/ went before them/ and pleased nye vnto Iesus to kysse him. And Iesus sayd vnto him: Judas/ betrayest thou y^e sonne of man with a kysse? When they whych were about hym sawe what wolde folow/ they sayd vnto him: Lord/ shall we smite wth swerde. And one of the smote a seruant of the hye prest of all/ & smote of hys ryght eare. And Iesus answered & sayd: suffre ye thus. Sufre for the. And he touched his eare/ and healed him.

Then Iesus sayde vnto the hye prestes & rulers of the temple and the elders whych whych were come to him. Be ye come out/ as vnto a thete wth swerdes & staves: when I was dayly wyth you in the temple/ ye strected not forth handes agaynst me. But thys is euen youre very houre/ and the power of darchnes. Then toke they hym/ & ledde hym/ and brought hym to the hye prestes house. And Peter folowed a farre of.

When they had kyndled a fyre in the myddes of the palys/ & were set doune to gether/ Peter also sate doune amonge the. And wo he of the wenches/ behelde him as he sate by the fyre/ & set good eye syght on him & sayde: this same was also wyth him. Then he denied him sayinge: woman/ I knowe hym not. And after a lytell whyle/ another sawe hym and sayde: thou arte also of the. And Peter sayde: man/ I am not. And about the space of an houre after/ another affirmed sayinge: verely euen thys felowe was wyth him/ for he is of Galile/ & Peter sayde: man/ I wote not what thou sayest. And immediatly whyll he yet spake/ the cocke crewe. And the Lord touned backe and lohed vpon Peter. And Peter remembered the wordes of the Lord/ how he sayde vnto him/ before y^e cocke crowe/ thou shalt deny me thre tyme. And Peter went out/ and wepte bitterly.

And the men that stood about Iesus/ mocked him/ & smote hym/ & byndfolded hym/ & smote his face. And asked him sayinge: arte thou is that smote the? And many other thynges despytfulllye sayd they agaynst him.

And as it was daye/ y^e elders of the people and the hye prestes and scribes/ came to gether/ & ledde him into their counsell sayinge: arte thou very chylde? tell vs. And he sayde vnto them: yf I shall tell you/ ye will not beleue. And yf also I aske you/ ye will not answer me or let me go. Hereafter shall the sonne of man lye on the ryght hand of the power of God. Then sayde they all: arte thou then the sonne of God? He sayd to them: ye saye that I am. Then sayde they: what neede we eny further witness? We oure selues haue herde of hys awne mouth.

Jesus is brought before Pilate and Herode. The women make lamentacion for him. He prayeth for his enemyes/ forgetteth the thete vpon hys ryght hande/ and dyeth on the crosse/ and is buryed.

The xxij. Chapter.

And y^e whole multitude of the arose/ & ledde him vnto Pilate. And they began to accuse hym sayinge: we haue founde thys felowe peruer-tinge the people/ and forbydyng to paye tribute to Cesar/ sayinge/ that he is Chylst a kyng. And Pilate appoled hym sayinge: arte thou y^e kyng of the Jewes? He answered him and sayde: thou sayest it. Then sayde Pilate to the hye prestes/ and to the people: I fynde no faute in this man. And they were y^e mooze fearce sayinge. He moueth y^e people/ teachynge thozow out Jewry/ and beganne at Galile/ euen to this place.

When Pilate hearde mencion of Galile he asked whether the mā were of Galile. And asone as he knewe that he was of Herodes iurisdiccio he sent him to Herode/ which was also at Jerusalem in those dayes. And when Herode sawe Iesus/ he was exceedinglye glad/ for he was desyrous to se him of a lōge season/ because he had hearde many thynges of hym/ and trusted to haue sene some myracle done by him. Then questoned he with hym of many thynges. But he answered hym not one worde. The hye prestes and scribes/ stode forth and accused him straitly. And Herod with his men of warre/ despised him/ and mocked him/ and arayed hym in whyte/ and sent him agayne to Pilate. And y^e same daye Pilate and Herod were made frendes to gether. For before they were at variapance.

And Pilate called to gether y^e hye prestes and the rulers/ & the people/ and sayde vnto them: ye haue brought this man vnto me/ as one that peruerterd the people. And beholde/ I haue examined him before you/ & haue founde no faute in this man/ of those thynges where of ye accuse him. No noz yet Herode. For I sent you to hym: and lo nothinge worthy of deeth is done to him. I will therfore chaster him/ & let hy louse. For of necessitye/ he must haue let one louse vnto them at that feast.

And all the people cryed atonce sayinge: awaye wyth hym/ & deliuer to vs Barababas: whych for insurreccion made in y^e cite & mozt ther was cast in p^reson. Pilate spake agayne to them

And all the people that came to gether to that syght/ beholdinge the thynges whych were done: smoot their brestes/ & returned home. And all his acqumtaunce/ and the wemen that folowed hym from Galile/ stode a farr of beholdinge these thynges.

And beholde ther was a man named Joseph/ a counsellour/ and was a good mā and a iuste/ & did not consent to the counsell & dede of them/ which was of Aramathia/ a cite of the Jewes: whych same also wayted for the kyngdome of God: he went vnto Pilate and begged y boddy of Iesus/ & toke it doune/ & wapped it in a lynnē clooth/ & layed it in an hewe toūbe/ wherin was neuer man before layed. And y daye was y Saboth euen/ & the Saboth daye on. The wemen y folowed after which came wyth hym from Galile/ behelde the sepulchre & how his body was layed. And they returned & prepared odoures and oymntes: but rested the Saboth daye/ accordyng to the commaundement.

And the wemen came to the graue/ & ther they sawe the two disciples that go towarde Emmaus/ stonde in the myddes of all his disciples/ openeth their vnderstandyng in the scrippures/ geueth them a charge/ & ascended vp to heauen.

The xxiii. Chapter.

And y morowe after y Saboth/ cryy in the morninge/ they came vnto y toūbe & brought y odoures whych they had prepared & other wemen wyth the. And they founde y stone rowled awaye fro y sepulchre/ & went in: but founde not the body of the Lorde Iesu. And it happened/ as they were amased therat: Beholde two women stode by them in thyngge bestures. * And as they were afrayde/ and bowed doune their faces to the erth/ they sayd to them: why seke ye the lyuynge amonge the dead? left/ and departed wōd/ ynge in hym selfe at that whych had happened.

And beholde/ two of them went that same daye to a tōune whych was from Ierusalem about thre scōore forlonges/ called Emmaus/ and they talked to gether of all the thynges that had happened. And it chaunced/ as they comened to gether and reasoned/ that Iesus him selfe dūe neare/ & went wyth them. But their eyes were holden/ that they coude not knowe hym. And he sayde vnto them: What maner of communicaciōs are these that ye haue one to another as ye walke/ and are sadde? And the one of them named Cleophas/ answered and sayde vnto hym: arte thou only a strainger in Ierusalem/ and haste not knowen y thynges whych haue chaunced therin in these dayes? To whom he sayd: what thynges?

And they sayd vnto him: of Iesus of Nazareth whych was a Prophet/ myghtye in dede and word before God/ and all the people. And how the hye prestes/ and oure rulers deliuered hym to be condemned to deeth: and haue crucyfyed hym. But we trusted that it shuld haue bene he that shuld haue deliuered Israel. And as touchyng all these thynges to daye is euen the thyrde daye/ that they were done.

Ye and certayne wemen also of oure company made vs astonyed/ whych came cryy vnto the sepulchre/ and founde not hys body: and came sayinge/ that they had sene a vision of angels/ whych sayde that he was aloue. And certayne of them whych were wyth vs/ went their waye to the sepulchre/ and founde it euen so as the wemen had sayde: but hym they sawe not.

And he sayde vnto them: O folos and slowe of herte to beleue all that the Prophetes haue spoken. Dught not Chyrt to haue suffered these thynges/ and to enter into hys glory? And he began at Moses/ and at all the Prophetes/ and interpreted vnto them in all scrippures whych were wrytten of him/ And they dūe nye vnto the tōune whych they wet to. And he made as though he wolde haue gone further. But they constrained hym sayinge/ abyde wyth vs/ for it draweth towardes nyght/ and the daye is farre passed. And he went in/ to tary wyth them.

And it came to passe as he sate at meate wyth them/ he toke bred/ blessed it/ brake & gaue to them. And their eyes were opened & they knewe hym: and he banysched out of their syght. And they sayde betwene them selues: dyd not oure hertes burne wyth in vs/ whyll he talked wyth vs by y waye/ and as he opened to vs the scrippures? And they tooke by the same houre/ & returned agayne to Ierusalem/ and founde the eleuen gathered to gether/ and them that were wyth them whych sayde: the Lorde is risen in dede/ and hath apared to Simon. And they tolde what thynges was done in the waye/ and how they knewe him in breakyng of bred.

As they thus spake. Iesus hym selfe stood in the myddes of them/ and sayde vnto them: peace be with you. And they were abashed and afrayde/ supposyng that they had sene a spete. And he sayde vnto them: why are ye troubled/ and why do thoughtes arys in youre hertes? Beholde my handes and my fete/ that it is euen my selfe. Handle me and se: for spetes haue not fleshe and bones/ as ye se me haue. And when he had thus spoken he shewed them his handes and his fete. And whyll they yet beleued not for ioye and wonder/ he sayde vnto them: Haue ye here eny meate? And they gaue him a pece of a broyled fische/ and of an hony combe. And he toke it/ and ate it before them.

And he sayde vnto them. These are the wordes which I spake vnto you whyll I was yet with you: that al must be fulfilled which were wrytten of me in the lawe of Moses and in the Prophetes/ and in the Psalmes: * Then opened he their wyttes/ that they myght vnderstand the scrippures/ and sayde vnto them: Thus is it wrytten/ and thus it behoued Chyrt to suffer/ and to rise agayne from deeth the thyrde daye/ and that repentaunce and remission of synnes shuld be preached in his name amonge all nacyns/ & must be begynne at Ierusalem. And ye are wytnesses of these thynges. And beholde/ I wyll sende the promes of my father vnto you. * But tary ye in the cite of Ierusalem/ vntyll ye be endewed with power from an hye.

And he ledde them out into Bethany/ and lyfte by his handes and blessed them. * And it came to passe/ as he blessed them/ he departed from the/ and was carryed by into heauen. And they worshipped him/ and returned to Ierusalem wyth grete ioye/ & were continually in y temple praylinge & laudinge God: Amen.

The Gospell

The Gospell of Sayncte John.

The enelastynge byrth of Christ and how he became man. The testimony of John. The callinge of Andrew & Peter. &c.

The fyrst Chapter.

In the begynnyng was the worde: & the worde was with God: and the worde was God. The same was in the begynnyng wyth God. All thinges were made by it: and without it, was made nothinge that was made. In it was lyfe: & the lyfe was the lyght of men: & the lyght shyneth in the darcknes.

There was a man sent from God: whose name was John. The same came as a witness to beare wytnes of the lyght: that all men through him myght beleue. He was not that lyght: but to beare wytnes of the lyght. That was a true lyght: which lyghteth all men that come into the worlde. He was in the worlde: and the worlde was made by hym: and yet the worlde knewe hym not. He came amonge hymen: and hymen receaued hym not. But as many as receaued hym: to them he gaue power to be the sonnes of God in that they beleued on hym name: which were borne, not of bloude, nor of the wyll of the fleshe, nor yet of the wyll of man: but of God.

And the worde was made fleshe and dwelt amonge vs: and we sawe the glory of it: as the glory of the only begotten sonne of the father: which worde was full of grace and verite.

John bare wytnes of hym and cryed sayinge: This was he of whome I spake: he that cometh after me: was before me: because he was per then I. And of hys fulnes: grace for grace: for the lawe was geuen by Moyses: but grace and trithe came by Jesus Christ. No man hath sene God at any tyme. The only begotten sonne: which is in the bosome of the father: he hath declared him.

And this is the recorde of John: when the Jewes sent Priestes and Leuites fro Jerusalem: to aske hym: what arte thou? And he confessed and denyed not: & sayde playnly: I am not Christ. And they asked hym: what then arte thou? He sayde: I am a prophete. And he answered not. Then sayd they vnto him: what arte thou: that we maye geue an answer to them that sent vs: What sayest thou of thy selfe? He sayde: I am a voyce of a cryar in the wilderness: make straight the waye of the Lord: as sayde the prophete Esaias.

And they which were sent: were of the Pharisees. And they asked hym: and sayde vnto him: why baptisest thou then: if thou be not Christ: nor a prophete: neither a prophete? John answered them sayinge: I baptise with water: but one is come amonge you: whom ye knowe not: he it is that cometh after me: which was before me: whose shoe I latchet: I am not worthy to vnloose. These thinges were done in Bethabara beyonde Iordā where John dyd baptise.

The nexte daye John sawe Jesus comynge vnto him: and sayde: beholde the lambe of God: which taketh awaye the synne of the worlde. This is he of whom I sayd. After me cometh a man: which was before me: for he was per then: and I knewe him not: but that he shuld be declared to Israel: therfore am I come baptysinge with water.

And John bare recorde sayinge: I sawe & sprete descende from heuen: like vnto a doue and abyde vpon him: and I knewe hym not. But he that sent me to baptise in water: the same sayde vnto me: by whom thou shalt see the sprete descende and tary vpon hym: the same is he which baptiseth with the holy goost. And I sawe and bare recorde that this is the sonne of God.

The nexte daye after John stode agayne: and two of hys disciples. And he behelde Jesus as he walked by: and sayde: beholde the lambe of God. And the two disciples hearde hym speake and folowed Jesus. And Jesus turned about: and sawe them folowe: & sayd vnto them: what seek ye? They sayd vnto him: Rabbi (which is to saye by interpretacion: Master) wheredwellest thou? He sayde vnto them: come and see. They came & sawe where he dwelt: and abode with him that daye. For it was about the tenth houre.

One of

xxxviii.

One of the two which hearde John speake and folowed Jesus: was Andrew Simon Peters brother. The same folowe hys brother Simon fyrst: and sayde vnto hym: we haue founde Messias: which is by interpretacion: annoynted: and brought hym to Jesus. And Jesus behelde him and sayde: thou arte Simon the sonne of Jonas: thou shalt be called Cephas: which is by interpretacion: a stone.

The daye folowynge Jesus wolde go into Galile: & founde Philip: and sayd vnto him: folowe me. Philip was of Bethsaida: a citie of Andrew and Peter. And Philip founde Nathanael: and sayde vnto hym: We haue founde hym of whome Moyses in the lawe: and the prophetes dyd wyte. Jesus & sonne of Joseph of Nazareth. And Nathanael sayd vnto hym: can there any good thyng come oute of Nazareth? Philip sayde to him: come and see.

Jesus sawe Nathanael comynge to hym: and sayde of him. Beholde a ryght Israelyte: in whom is no guyle. Nathanael sayde vnto hym: where knewest thou me? Jesus answered: and sayde vnto him: Before that Philip called the: when thou wast vnder the figge tree: I sawe the. Nathanael answered and sayd vnto him: Rabbi: thou arte the sonne of God: thou arte the kynge of Israel. Jesus answered and sayde vnto him: Because I sayde vnto the: I sawe the vnder the figge tree: thou beleuest. Thou shalt see greater thinges then these. And he sayde vnto him: verely verely: I saye vnto you: hereafter shall ye see heuen open: and the angels of God ascendynge and descendynge ouer the sonne of man.

Christ turneth the water vnto wyne: and dryueth the byers & sellers out of the temple.

The iiij. Chapter.

The thyrde daye: was ther a marriage in Cana a citie of Galile: & the mother of Jesus was there. And Jesus was called also and his disciples vnto the marriage. And when the wyne fayled: the mother of Jesus sayde vnto him: they haue no wyne. Jesus sayd vnto her: woman: what haue I to do wyth the? myne houre is not yet come. His mother sayde vnto the mynistres: whatsoeuer he sayeth vnto you: do it. And ther were standynge there: fyre waterpottes of stone after the maner of the purifyinge of the Jewes: containynge two or thre fyryngs a peece.

And Jesus sayde vnto them: fylle the waterpottes with water. And they fylled them vnto the brim. And he sayde vnto them: drawe out now: & beare vnto the gouernour of the feaste. And they bare it. When the ruler of the feaste had tasted the water that was turned vnto wyne: and knewe not whence it was: but the mynistres which drue the water kene: he called the bydegrome: and sayde vnto hym: All men at the begynnyng: sett forth good wyne: and when men be dronke: then that which is worse. But thou hast kept backe the good wyne: vntill now.

This begynnyng of myracles dyd Jesus in Cana of Galile: and shewed his glory: and his disciples beleued on him. After that he descended into Capernaum: & his mother: and his brethren: and his disciples: but continued not manye dayes there.

And the Jewes ester was cuen at hande: and Jesus wet vp to Jerusalem: and founde syttenge in the temple those that solde oren and shepe and doves: & chaungers of money. And he made a scourge of small cordes: and drave them all out of the temple: with the shepe & oren: & powdered out the chaungers money: and ouerthru the tables: and sayde vnto them that solde doves: haue these thinges hence: & make not my fathers house an house of marchandise. And his disciples remembred: how that it was wyten: the zeale of thyne house hath euen eaten me.

Then answered the Jewes and sayde vnto hym: what token shewest thou vnto vs: seynge that thou dost these thynges? Jesus answered & sayde vnto them: destroye this temple: and in thre dayes I will reare it vp agayne. Then sayde the Jewes: what peres was this temple abyldynge: & wilt thou reare it vp in thre dayes? But he spake of the temple of his body. As sone therfore as he was rylen fro deeth agayne: hys disciples remembred & he thus sayde. And they beleued & scripture: and the wordes which Jesus had sayde.

When he was at Jerusalem at ester in the feaste: many beleued on his name: whē they sawe his myracles which he dyd. But Jesus put not hym selfe in their handes: because he knewe all men: and neded not: that any mā shuld testifie of him. For he knewe what was in man.

The comynge of Christ to Nicodemus. The doctryne and baptysme of John: and what wytnesse he beareth of Christ.

The iiij. Chapter.

There was a mā of the Pharisees named Nicodemus: a ruler amonge the Jewes. He came to Jesus by nyght: and sayde vnto hym: Rabbi: we knowe thou arte a teacher which arte come from God. For no man coulde do suche myracles as thou doest: except God were with hym. Jesus answered & sayd vnto him: verely verely: I saye vnto the: except a mā be borne a newe: he cannot see the kyngdome of God. Nicodemus sayde vnto him: how can a mā be bozen when he is olde: can he enter wes therfore sayde to hym that was made whole. It is the Saboth daye / it is not law-full for the to carry thy beed. He answered the:

he that made me whole / sayde vnto me: take vp thy beed / & get the hence. Then asked they him what man is that which sayd vnto the / take vp thy beed and walke. And he that was healed / wylt not who it was. For Iesus had gotten him selfe awaye / because p ther was ppeace of people in the place.

And after that / Iesus founde hym in the temple / & sayde vnto him: beholde thou arte made whole / synne no moze / lest a worke thyng happen vnto the. The man departed & tolde the Jewes that it was Iesus / whych had made him whole. & And therfore the Je-wes dyd persecute Iesus / & sought p meanes to see him / because he had done these thyngs on p Saboth daye. And Iesus answered the:

My father worketh hider to / & I worke.
Therfore the Jewes sought p moare to kyll him / not only because he had broke the Sa-both: but sayde also that God was his father and made him selfe equall with God.

Then answered Iesus & sayde vnto them:
berely / berely / I saye vnto you: the sonne can do nothyng of him selfe / but that he seeth p the sonne also. For the father loueth p sonne / and sheweth him all thynges whatsoeuer he him selfe doeth. And he will shewe hym greater workes then these / because ye shuld mar-uaile. For I ykewylle as the father rayleth vp the deede / & quycheneth the / euē to the sonne quycheneth whom he wyl. Nether iudgeth the father eny man: but hath commytted all iudgement vnto the sonne / because that all men shuld honoure the sonne / euē as they ho-noure the father. He that honoureth not the sonne / p same honoureth not p father which hath sent hym. Berely / berely / I saye vnto you: He that heareth my wordes / & beleueth on him that sent me / hath euerylastyng lyfe / and shall not come into dampnacion: but is scaped from deeth vnto lyfe.

berely / berely / I saye vnto you: the tyme shall come / & now is / when * the deede shall heare p voyce of the sonne of God. And they that heare / shall lyue. For as the father hath lyfe in him selfe / so I ykewylle hath he geue to the sonne to haue lyfe in him selfe: and hath geuen hym power also to iudge / in that he is the sonne of man. Maruaile not at this: p houre shall come in p which / all that are in p graues / shall heare his voyce: and shall come forth: they that haue done good vnto resurreccion of lyfe: and they that haue done euyl / vnto the resurreccion of dāpnacion. I I can of myne awne selfe do nothyng at all. As I heare / I iudge / and my iudgment is iust / because I seke not myne awne wyl / but the wyl of p father which hath sent me.

If I beare wytnes of my selfe / my wytnes is not true. Ther is another p beareth wytnes of me / and I am sure that the wytnes which he beareth of me / is true.

Ye sent vnto Iohn / & he bare wytnes vnto the tru the. But I receaue not the recorde of man. Neuerthelesse / these thynges I saye / that ye myght be safe. He was a burnyng / & a shynynge lyght / & ye wolde for a season haue reioyced in his lyght. But I haue greater wytnes then the wytnes of Iohn. For the workes which the father hath geue me to fynyshe: the same workes p do / beare wytnes of me / that the father sent me. And p father him selfe which hath sent me / beareth wytnes of me. Ye haue not hearde hys voyce at eny tyme noz ye haue sene his shap: therto hys wordz haue ye not abydinge in you. For who he hath sent hym ye beleue not.

Searche p scriptures / for in the p whynche ye haue eternall lyfe: & they are they whych testify of me. And yet will ye not cometo me / that ye might haue lyfe. I receaue not prayse of men. But I knowe you / that ye haue not the loue of God in you. I am come in my fathers name / and ye receaue me not. If another shall come in his awne name / him wyl ye receaue. How can ye beleue which receaue honoure one of another / and seke not the ho-noure that cometh of God only?

Do not thynke that I wyl accuse you to my father. Ther is one that accuseth you: euē Moses in who ye trust. For had ye beleued Moses / ye wolde haue beleued me: for he wrote of me. But saynge ye beleue not hys wytynge: how shuld ye beleue my wordz?

Iesus sedeth syue thousand men departeth awaye / p they shuld not make him kynge / & reproueth fleschly hearers of his wordes. The carnall are offended at him.

The vii. Chapter.

After these thynges Iesus wēt hys waye ouer p see of Galilee npe to a citty called Ciberias. And a great multitude folowed hym / because they

they had sene his myracles whych he dyd on them that were diseased. And Iesus went vp into a mountayne / & there he late with hys disciples. And after / a feast of p Jewes was nye. & * Then Iesus lyfte vp his eyes / and sawe a great cōpany come vnto hym / & sayd vnto Philip: whence shall we bye bred that these might eate. This he sayd to proue him: for he him selfe knewe what he wolde do.

Philip answered him / two hundred peny worth of bred are not sufficient for them / p every man haue a lytell. Then sayde vnto him one of his disciples / Andzew Simō Peters brother. There is a lad here / which hath syue barley louses and two fyshes: but what is that amonge so many? And Iesus sayde: Make p people syt doune: Ther was moche grasse in the place. And the men late doune / in nombze / about syue thousand. And Iesus toke the bred / and gaue thanckes & gaue to the disciples / and hys disciples to them that were set doune. And I ykewylle of the fyshes as moche as they wolde.

When they had eate ynough he sayde vnto his disciples / gather vp the broken meate that remaineth: that nothyng be loost. And they gathered it to gether / and fylled twelue baskets with the broken meate / of the syue barley louses: which broken meate remainyd vnto them that had eate. Then the men / whē they had sene the myracle p Iesus dyd / sayd:
this is of a trueth the prophete that shulde come into the worlde.

I whē Iesus perceaued p they wolde come / & take him vp to make him kynge / he departed agayne into a mountayne him selfe alone.

And whē euē was come his disciples wēt vnto the see & entred into a shippe / and went ouer the see vnto Capernaum. And anone it was darcke / & Iesus was not come to them.
And the see arose with a greete wynde that blew. And when they had rowed about a. xxb. or a. xxx. furlonges / they sawe Iesus walke on the see / & drawe npe vnto p shippe / & were astayed. And he sayde vnto them: It is I / be not a frayde. Then wold they haue receaued hym into the shyp / and the shyp was by and by at the lande whither they went.

The daye folowynge / the people whych stode on the other syde of the see / sawe p ther was none other shyp there / saue that one wherin to his disciples were entred / & that Iesus went not in with hys disciples in the shipp: but that his disciples were gone awaye alone. How be it / ther cam other shippes fro Ciberias npe vnto the place / where they ate bred / when the Lord had blessed. Then whē p people sawe that Iesus was not there nether his disciples / they also toke shippynge & came to Capernaum sekynge for Iesus.

And whē they had founde hym on p other syde of the see / they sayde vnto hym: Rabbi / whē camest thou hyder? Iesus answered the and sayde: berely / berely / I saye vnto you: ye seke me / not because ye sawe the myracles:
but because ye ate of p louses / & were fylled.
I Laboure not for the meate which perysmeth / but for the meate that endureth vnto euerylastyng lyfe / which meate the sonne of man shall geue vnto you. For him hath God the father * sealed.

Then sayde they vnto him: what shall we do p we myght worke the workes of God? I is: he hath put hys Iesus answered and sayde vnto them. Thys is the worke of God / that ye beleue on him / holye goost on who he hath sent. They sayde vnto him: what him which tefygne shewest thou then / that we maye se a stifieth in myra-cles what he is.
I what doest thou worke? Dure fathers dyd eate Manna in the desert / as it is wyttē: He gaue them bred from heauen to eate. Iesus sayde vnto the: berely / berely I saye vnto you: Moses gaue you not bred from heauen: but my father geueth you the true bred from heauen. For the * bred of God is he which cometh doune from heauē / and geueth lyfe vnto the worlde.

Then sayd they vnto him: Lord / euermoze geue vs this bred. And Iesus sayd vnto the:
I am that bred of lyfe. He that cometh to me shall not hunger: and he that beleueth on me shall neuer thirst. I But I sayde vnto you: that ye haue sene me / & yet beleue not.
All that the father geueth me shall come to me: and hym that cometh to me / I cast not awaye. For I came doune from heauen: not to do myne awne wyl / but hys wyl whych hath sent me. And thys is the fathers wyl which hath sent me / that of all whych he hath geuen me / I shulde loose nothyng: but shuld rayle it vp agayne at p last daye. And thys is p wil of him p sent me: that euery mā whych seyth p sonne & beleueth on hym / haue euer-lastyng lyfe. And I wyl rayle him vp at p last daye. The Jewes then murmured at him / because he sayd: I am that bred which is come doune fro heauē. And they sayde: Is not thys Iesus the sonne of Ioseph / whose father and mother we knowe? How is it then that he sayeth / I came doune fro heauen? Iesus answered & sayde vnto them. Murmur not be-twene youre selues. I * No man can come to me except p father which hath sent me dra-we hym. And I wyl rayle hym vp at the last daye. It is wyttē in p Prophetes / that they shalbe all taught of God. Euery man therfore that hath hearde and hath learned of the father cometh vnto me. Not that eny man hath sene p father / saue he which is of God.
the same hath sene the father.

berely / berely / I saye vnto you / he that beleueth

¶ Then spake Iesus agayne vnto the sayng:
I am the lycht of the worlde. He þ foloweth me / shall not walche in darcknes: but shall haue þ light of lyfe. The Pharises sayde vnto him: thou bearest recorde of thy sylfe / thy recorde is not true. Iesus answered & sayde vnto the: though I beare recorde of my selfe / yet my recorde is true: for I knowe whence I cam & whither I go. But ye canot tell whēce I come and whither I go. Ye iudge after the fleshe / I iudge no man. And ye I iudge / my iudgemēt is true. For I am not alone: but I & the father þ sent me. It is also wyrtten in youre lawe / that the testimony of two men is true. I am one þ beare wytnes of my selfe / & the father that sent me / beareth wytnes of me. Then sayde they vnto hym: where is thy father? Iesus answered: ye nether know me / noz yet my father. If ye had knowen me / ye shulde haue knowen my father also. These wordes spake Iesus in þ trefury / as he taught in the temple / and no man layde handes on him / for his tyme was not yet come. ¶ Then sayde Iesus agayne vnto them
* I go

* I go my waye / & ye shall see me / & shall dye in youre synnes. Whither I go / thither can ye not come. When sayde the Jewes: will he kyll him selfe / because he sayth: whither I go / thither can ye not come? And he sayde vnto them: ye are frō beneth / I am frō aboue. Ye are of this world / I am not of this world. I sayd therfore vnto you / that ye shall dye in youre synnes. For except ye beleue that I am he / ye shall dye in youre synnes.

Then sayd they vnto him / who arte thou? And Iesus sayde vnto the: Eue the very same thyng that I saye vnto you. I haue many thynges to saye / and to iudge of you. Ye & he that sent me is true. And I speake in this world / those thynges which I haue hearde of hym. Howbeit they vnderstode not that he spake of his father. Then sayd Iesus vnto the: whē ye haue lyft vp an hē the sonne of mā / then shall ye knowe that I am he / & that I do no thyng of my selfe: but as my father hath taught me / euē so I speake: and he that sent me / is with me. The father hath not leste me alone / for I do all wayes those thynges that please hym. As he spake these wordes / many beleued on him.

Then sayde Iesus to those Jewes which beleued on hym. If ye cōtinue in my word / then are ye my very disciples / & shall knowe the truth: & the truth shall make you free. They answered hym: We be Abrahams seede / and were neuer bonde to eny mā: why sayest thou then / ye shall be made free.

Roma. vi. 6. Iesus answered the: verely I saye vnto you / that whosoever cōmitteth synne / is the seruante of synne. And the seruante abydeth not in this house for euer: But the sonne abydeth euer. If the sonne therfore shall make you free / then are ye free in dede. I knowe that ye are Abrahams seede: but ye seke meanes to kill me / because my sayinge haue no place in you. I speake that I haue sene wth my father: and ye do that which ye haue sene in youre father. They answered and sayde vnto him: Abrahā is oure father. Iesus sayde vnto them. If ye were Abrahams chyldren ye wolde do the dedes of Abrahā. But now ye go aboute to kyll me / a man that haue tolde you the trueth whych I haue herde of God: this dyd not Abrahā. Ye do the dedes of youre father. When sayde they to him: we were not borne of fornicacyon. We haue one father / which is God. Iesus sayd vnto them: yf God were youre father / then wolde ye loue me. For I proceeded forth and come from God. Nether came I of my selfe / but he sent me. Why do ye not knowe my speache? Eue because ye canot abyde the hearing of my word.

Ye are of youre father the deuyll / and the lustes of youre father ye wyll do. He was a murderer from the begynnyng / and abode not in the trueth / because there is no trueth in him. Whē he speaketh a lye / then speaketh he of his awne. For he is a lyar / and a father thereof. And because I tell you the trueth / therfore ye beleue me not.

Which of you can rebuke me of synne? If I saye the trueth / why do not ye beleue me? He that is of God heareth Goddes wordes. I therfore heare the not / because ye are not of God. Then answered the Jewes and sayd vnto him: Saye we not well that thou arte a Samaritane and hast the deuyll? Iesus answered: I haue not the deuyll: but I honour my father / & ye haue dishonoured me. I seke not myne awne prayse: but ther is one that seeth and iudgeth.

Merely verely I saye vnto you / yf a man kepe my sayings / he shall neuer se deeth. Then sayde the Jewes to hym. Now knowe we that thou hast the deuyll. Abrahā is deed / and also the Prophetes: and yet thou sayest / yf a mā kepe my saying / he shall neuer taste of deeth. Arte thou greater then oure father Abraham / which is deed: and the Prophetes are deed. Whom makest thou thy selfe.

Iesus answered: If I honour my selfe / myne honour is nothyng worth. It is my father that honoureth me / whych ye saye / is youre God / and ye haue not knowen him: but I knowe him. And yf I wuld saye / I knowe hym not / I shulde be a lyar lyke vnto you. But I knowe him / and kepe his sayinge.

Your father Abraham was glad to se my daye / & he saweth and reioyced. Then sayde the Jewes vnto him: thou arte not yet. I pere olde / and hast thou sene Abrahā? Iesus sayd vnto the: Merely verely I saye vnto you: yf Abraham was / I am. Then toke they by stones / to caste at him. But Iesus hid him selfe / and went out of the temple.

Christ maketh the man to se that was borne blynde.

The ix. Chapter.

As Iesus passed by / he sawe a man which was blynde from his birth. And his disciples asked him sayinge: Master / who dyd synne: this man or his father / & mother / that he was borne blynde? Iesus answered: Nether hath this man synned / nor yet his father / and mother: but that the workes of God shulde be shewed on him. I must worke the workes of him that sent me / whill it is daye. The night cometh when noman can worke. As longe as I am in the world / I am the lycht of the world.

As longe as he had thus spokē / he spatte on the grounde and made claye of the spetle / & rubbed the claye on the eyes of the blynde / & sayde vnto him: Go wylde the in the pole of Siloe.

Siloe /

Siloe / which by interpretacion / significeth sent. He went his waye & washed and came agayne seynge. The neyghbours & they that had sene him before how he was a begger / sayde: is not this he that sate & begged? Some sayde: this is he. Other sayde: he is lyke him.

But he him selfe sayde: I am euē he. They sayde vnto hym. How are thyne eyes opened then? He answered and sayde. The man that is called Iesus / made claye / and anoynted myne eyes / & sayde vnto me. Go to the pole Siloe and wylde. And I went and wylde and receaued my syght. They sayd vnto him: where is he? He sayde: I can not tell.

Then brought they to the Pharises / hym that a lytell before was blynde: for it was Saboth daye when Iesus made the claye & opened his eyes. Then agayne the Pharises also asked him how he had receaued his syght. He sayde vnto the: He put claye vpon myne eyes & I washed / & do se. Then sayde some of the Pharises: this mā is not of God / because he keepeth not the Saboth daye. Other sayde: how can a man that is a synner / do suche myracles? And ther was stryfe amonge the. Then spake they vnto the blynde agayne: what sayst thou of hym / because he hath opened thyne eyes? And he sayde: He is a Prophet.

But the Jewes dyd not beleue of the felow / how that he was blynde and receaued his syght / vntill they had called the father & mother of him that had receaued his syght. And they asked them sayinge: Is this youre sonne / whom ye saye was borne blynde? How doth he now se then? His father and mother answered them & sayde / we wote well that this is oure sonne / & he was borne blynde: but by what meanes he now seyth that can we not tell / or who hath opened his eyes / can we not tell. He is olde ynough / aske him / let him answer for him selfe. Suche wordes spake his father and mother / because they feared the Jewes. For the Jewes had cōspyred all redy that yf eny man dyd confesse that he was Christ he shulde be excommunicat out of the synagoge. Therfore sayde his father and mother: he is olde ynough / aske him.

Then agayne called they the man that was blynde / & sayd vnto him: Geue God thy prayse: we knowe that this mā is a synner. He answered and sayde: Whither he be a synner or no / I cannot tell: One thyng I am sure of / that I was blynde / & now I se. Then sayd they to him agayne. What dyd he to the? How opened he thyne eyes? He answered them / I tolde you ver whyle / and ye dyd not heare. Wherefore wold ye heare it agayne? Wylle ye also be his disciples? Then rated they hym / & sayd: Thou arte his discipyle. We be Moses discipyles. We are sure that God spake wth Moses.

This felow we knowe not frō whence he is. The man answered and layde vnto them: this is a meruelous thyng that ye wote not whēce he is / seing he hath opened myne eyes. For we be sure that God heareth not synners. But yf eny mā be a worshipper of God & do his will / him heareth he. Sence I wolde be ganne was it not hearde that eny mā opened the eyes of one that was borne blynde? If this mā were not of God / he coulde haue done no thyng. They answered and sayde vnto hym: thou arte all to gether borne in synne / & dost thou teache vs? And they cast him out.

Iesus hearde that they had excommunicate him: & as he had founde hym / he sayde vnto hym: dost thou beleue on the sonne of God? He answered & sayde: Who is it Lord / that I myght beleue on hym? And Iesus sayde vnto him: Thou hast sene hym / & he it is that talketh to the. And he sayde: Lord I beleue / & worshipped him. Iesus sayd: I am come vnto iudgement into this world: that they which se not myght se / & they which se might be made blynde. And some of the Pharises which were with him / hearde these wordes & sayde vnto hym: are we then blynde? Iesus sayde vnto them: yf ye were blynde ye shulde haue no synne. But now ye saye / we se / therfore youre synne remaineth.

Christ is the true shepheard / & the doze of the shepe / Some saye: Christ hath the deuell / & is madd / Some saye: he speaketh not the wordes of one that hath the deuell. Because he telleth the trueth / the Jewes take by stones to cast at him / call his preaching blasphemie / and go aboute to take him.

The x. Chapter.

Merely verely I saye vnto you: he that entreth not in by the doze into the shepefolde / but clymeth by some other waye: the samē is a thefe & a robber. He that goeth in by the doze / is the shepheard of the shepe: to him the porter openeth / & the shepe heare his voyce / & he calleth bys atone shepe by name / & leadeth the out. And when he hath sent forth his awne shepe / he goeth before the / & the shepe folowe him: for they knowe his voyce. A straunger they will not folowe / but will flye from hym: for they knowe not the voyce of straungers. This similitude spake Iesus vnto the. But they vnderstode not what thynges they were whych he spake vnto the. Then sayd Iesus vnto them agayne. Merely verely I saye vnto you: I am the doze of the shepe. All / euē as many as came before me / are theyes & robbers: but the shepe dyd not heare the. I am the doze: by me yf eny mā enter in / he shal be safe / & shall go in / & fynde pasture. The thefe cometh not but for to steale / kyll / and destroye. I am come that they myght haue lyfe / and haue it more abundantly.

I am

Math. xi. 6
Luc. x. 1
Math. xx. 1

I am the good shepheerd. The good shepheerd geueth hys lyfe for the shepe. An hyred seruast/ which is not a shepherd/ ne- ther the shepe are hys owne/ seyth the wolfe comynge/ & leueth the shepe/ & flyeth/ and a wolfe catcheth the/ & scattereth a shepe. The hyred seruast flyeth/ because he is an hyred seruast/ & careth not for the shepe. I am a good shepheerd/ and knowe myne/ and am knowne of myne. * As my father knoweth me: euē so know I my father. And I geue my lyfe for the shepe: & other shepe I haue/ which are not of this fold. Them also must I bring/ that they maye heare my voyce/ & that they maye be one flocke and one shepheerde. Therefore doth my father loue me/ because I put my lyfe from me/ that I myght take it agayne. No mā taketh it from me: but I put it awaye of my selfe. I haue power to put it from me/ and haue power to take it agayne: This comaundement haue I receaued of my father. And there was a dyscypyl agayne amonge the Jewes for these saynges/ & many of them sayde. He hath the deuyl/ & is made: why heare ye him? Other sayd/ these are not the wordes of him that hath the deuyl. Can the deuyl open the eyes of the blynde?

And it was at Jerusalem the feaste of dedication/ and it was winter: & Iesus walked in Salomons porche. Then cam the Jewes Crounde aboute him/ and sayd vnto him: How longe dost thou make vs doute? If thou be Christ/ tell vs playnly. Iesus answered the: I tolde you and ye beleue not. The workes I do in my fathers name/ they beare witness of me. But ye beleue not/ because ye are not of my shepe. As I sayde vnto you: my shepe heare my voyce/ & I knowe them/ and they folow me/ and I geue vnto the eternall lyfe/ & they shall neuer perishe/ neither shall any man plucke them oute of my hande. My father whych gaue them me/ is greater then all & no mā is able to take them oute of my fathers hande. And I and my father are one.

Then the Jewes agayne toke by stones/ to stone hym w all. Iesus answered the: many good workes haue I shewed you fro my father: for which of the wyll ye stone me? The Jewes answered hym sayng. For thy good workes sake we stone the: not/ but for thy blasphemie/ & because thou beinge a mā/ makest thy selfe God. Iesus answered them. Is it not witten in youre lawe. * I saye/ ye are Goddes: If he called them Goddes vnto whō the worde of God was spoken (as a scripture can not be broken) saye ye then to hym/ whō the father hath sanctified/ and sent into the worlde/ thou blasphemest/ because I sayd I am the sonne of God? If I do not the workes of my father/ beleue me not. But yf I do/then though ye beleue not me yet beleue the workes/ that ye maye knowe & beleue that the father is in me/ and I in him.

Agayne they wēt aboute to take him: but he escaped out of their hādes/ & went awaye agayne beyonde Jordan/ into a place where John befoze had baptised/ & there abode. And many resorted vnto him/ & sayd. John dyd no miracle: but all thyngs I John spake of this mā/ are true. And many beleued on hē theare.

Christ rapeth Lazarus fro death. The hye prestes and pharises gather a councell agaynst him/ he getteth him out of the waye.

The. xi. Chapter.

A certayne man was sycke/ named Lazarus of Bethania a couene of Mary and her syster Martha. It was a Mary which anoynted Iesus with oymntment & wyped hys fete w her heere/ whoie brother Lazarus was sycke/ & his sisters sent vnto him sayng. Lorde be- holde he whō thou louest/ is sycke. When Iesus hearde the/ he sayde: this infirmite is not vnto deeth/ but for the laude of God/ that the sonne of God might be praysed by the reason of it. Iesus loued Martha and her syster and Lazarus. Then after he had hearde that he was sycke/ yet abode he two dayes styll in the same place where he was.

Then after the/ sayd he to hys disciples: lett vs go into Jewry agayne. His disciples sayd vnto hym: Master/ the Jewes lately sought meanes to stone the/ & wilt thou go thither agayne? Iesus answered/ are ther not twelue houres in the daye? If a mā walke in the daye/ he strombleth not/ because he seyth the lyght of this worlde. But yf a mā walke in the night/ he strombleth/ because ther is no lyght in hym. This sayde he/ & after that/ he sayd vnto the: oure frende Lazarus slepeth/ but I goo to wake him oute of slepe. Then sayde hys disciples: Lorde yf he slepe/ he shall do well ynough. How beit Iesus spake of his deeth: but they thought he had spoken of a naturall slepe. Then sayd Iesus vnto the playnly/ Lazarus is deed/ & I am glad for your sake/ & I was not there/ because ye maye beleue. Neuerthelesse let vs go vnto him. Then sayd Thomas which is called Didymus/ vnto the disciples: lett vs also go/ & we maye dye with him. Then went Iesus/ & a founde that he had layne in hys graue foure dayes already. Bethania was nye vnto Jerusalem/ aboute xx. furlonges of/ & many of the Jewes were come to Martha and Mary to comforte the ouer their brother. Martha alone as she hearde that Iesus was comynge/ went & met hym: but Mary late styll in the house.

Then sayd Martha vnto Iesus: Lorde yf thou haddest bene here/ my brother had not bene in the re- surreccion and lyf. That I am the au- thor of resur- reccion & lyfe- those that be- lieue in me shall not dye. I haue liued & now I liue in me.

bene deed: but neuerthelesse/ I knowe what soeuer thou askest of God/ God wyll geue it the. Iesus sayde vnto her: Thy brother shall ryse agayne. Martha sayd vnto him: I knowe he shall ryse agayne in the resurreccion at the last daye. Iesus sayde vnto her: * I am the resurreccion & the lyfe: he that beleueth on me/ & though he were dead/ yet shall he liue. And whosoer lyueth and beleueth on me/ shall neuer dye. Beleuest thou this? She sayd vnto him: yē Lorde/ I beleue the thou arte Christ the sonne of God which shulde come into the worlde. And as she had so sayde/ she went her waye & called Marie her syster secretly sayng: The master is come & calleth for the. And she as she hearde the/ arose quickly/ & came vnto hym. Iesus was not yet come into the toun: but was in a place where Martha met hym. The Jewes then which were with her in the house & comforted her/ when they sawe Mary/ that she rose by herselfe/ and went out/ folowed her/ sayng: She goeth vnto the graue/ to wepe there.

Then whē Mary was come where Iesus was a saue hym/ she fell doune at hys fete/ sayng vnto him: Lorde yf thou haddest bene here/ my brother had not bene deed. Whē Iesus sawe her wepe/ and the Jewes also wepe/ which came with her/ he groined in the sprete/ & was troubled in him selfe & sayde: Where haue ye layed hym? They sayde vnto hym: Lorde come a se. And Iesus wept. Then sayd the Jewes: Beholde how he loued hym. And some of the sayd: coulde not he which opened the eyes of the blynde/ haue made also/ & this man shuld not haue dyed? Iesus agayne groined in him selfe/ & came to the graue. It was a caue and a stone layde on it.

And Iesus sayde: take ye awaye the stone. Martha the syster of him the was deed/ sayde vnto him: Lorde by this tyme he stynketh. For he hath bene deed foure dayes. Iesus sayd vnto her: Sayde I not vnto the/ that yf thou dydest beleue/ thou shuldest se the glozy of God. Then they toke awaye the stone fro the place where the deed was layde. And Iesus lyfte up hys eyes and sayd: Father I thanke the because that thou hast hearde me. I wot that thou hearest me all wayes: but because of the people that stande by I sayde it & they maye beleue/ that thou hast sent me.

And when he thus had spoken/ he cryed w a loude voyce. Lazarus come forth. And he the was deed/ came forth/ bounde hande and fote with graue bondes/ & hys face was bounde with a naphin. Iesus sayde vnto the: lowse him/ & let him go. Then many of the Jewes which came to Mary/ and had sene the things which Iesus dyd/ beleued on hē. But some of them went their wayes to the pharises/and tolde them what Iesus had do ne.

Then gathered the hye prestes & the pharises a counsell & sayd: what do we? This mā doeth many miracles. If we lett hym scape thus/ all men will beleue on him/ and the Ro- maynes shall come & take awaye oure cotre & the people. And one of the named Cayphas which was the hye prest that same yere/ sayd vnto them: Ye perceaue nothinge at all no? yet consyder it is expedient for vs/ & one mā dye for the people/ & not all the people perishe. This spake he not of hym selfe/ but beyng he prest that same yere/ he prophe- sied the Iesus shulde dye for the people/ & not for the people only/ but he shuld gather to- gether in one the chyldre of God which were scattered abrode. * fro the daye forth they held a counsell to gether/ for to put him to deeth.

Iesus therfore walched no more openly amonge the Jewes: but wēt his waye thence vnto a cottre nye to a wilbernes/ into a cite called Ephraim/ & there haunted whis disci- ples. * And the Jewes efter was nye at hand/ & many wēt out of the countrey to Jerusa- lem befoze the efter/ to purify the selues. Then sought they for Iesus/ & spake betwene the selues as they stode in the temple: What thinke ye/ seying he cometh not to the feast. The hye prestes & pharises had geuen a comaunde- ment/ that yf any man knew where he were/ he shuld shewe it/ & they myght take him.

Mary anoynteth Christes fete. Judas murmureth/ Christ exaueth her/ & rydeth in to Jerusalem.

The. xii. Chapter.

When Iesus fixe dayes befoze efter/ came to Bethany where Lazarus was/ which was deed & whō Iesus rapled from deeth. There they made him a supper/ and Martha serued: but Laza- rus was one of them that late at the table with him. Then toke mary a pounce of oymntment called Nardus/ perfecte & precious/ & anoynted Iesus fete/ and wyped his fete with her heere & the house was fylled of the sauer of the oymntment. * Then sayde one of his disci- ples named Judas Iscarioth Simons sonne/ which afterward betrayed him: why was not this oymntment tolde for the hundred pence/ & geue to the pooze? This sayde he/ not that he cated for the pooze: but because he was a thefe/ & kept the bagge/ and bare that which was geue. Then sayde Iesus: Let her alone/ agaynst the daye of my buryng she kept it. The pooze all wayes shall ye haue with you/ but me shall ye not all wayes haue.

Moche people of the Jewes had know- ledge the he was there. And they came/ not for Iesus sake only/ but that they myght se La- zarus also whom he rapled from deeth. The hye prestes therfore held a counsell the they shuld myghte might put Lazarus to death also because that for his sake many of the Jewes went away/and beleued on Jesus.

* On the morowe/moche people that were come to the feast when they heard that Jesus should come to Jerusalem/toke bryanches of palme trees & wēt & met him/& cryed Hosanna/blessed is he that in the name of the Lord/commeth kynge of Israel. And Jesus got a yonge asse & sate thereon/ accordyng to that which was wrytten: feare not daughter of Syon/ beholde thy kynge cometh sitting on an asses coltre. These thinges vnderstode not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified/then remembred they that soche thinges were wrytten of him/and that soche thinges they had done vnto him. The people that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his graue/ & raysed him fro death/ bare recorde. Therefore met hym the people/ because they heard that he had done soche a myracle. The Pharisees therefore sayde amonge them selues perceauye ye how we pzeuayle nothyng? Beholde the worlde goth awaye after him.

¶ There were certayne Grekes amonge them/ that came to praye at the feast: the same came to Philip which was of Bethsaida a citie in Galilee/ & desired him saying: Syr we wolde saye se Jesus. Philip came & tolde Andrew. And agayne Andrew & Philip tolde Jesus. And Jesus answered them saying: the houre is come that the sonne of man must be glorified.

* Merely verely I saye vnto you/ except ye wheate corne fall into the grounde and dye/ it bydeth alone. If it dye/ it bringeth forth moche fruite. He that loueth his lyfe shall destroye it: & he that hateth his lyfe in this worlde/ shall kepe it vnto lyfe eternall. If any man minister vnto me/ lett hym folowe me and where I am/ there shall also my minister be. And if any man minister vnto me/ hym will my father honoure.

¶ Now is my soule troubled/ and what shall I saye? father deliuer me fro this houre: but therefore came I vnto this houre. Father glorify thy name. Then came there a voyce fro heauen: I haue glorified it & will glorify it agayne. Then sayd the people that stode by & heard: it thoundreth. Other sayde an angell spake to hym. Jesus answered & sayde: thys voyce cam/ not because of me/ but for your sakes.

* Now is the iudgement of this worlde: now shall the prince of this worlde be cast out/ And I/ if I were lyfte by from the erth/ will drawe all men vnto me. This sayde Jesus/ signifyinge what death he should dye. The people answered hym: we haue hearde oute of lawe that Christ bydeth euer/ & how sayest thou then that the sonne of man must be lyfte by? who is that sonne of man? Then Jesus sayde vnto them: yet a lytell whyle is the lyght with you. Walke whyll ye haue lyght/ lest darkness come on you. He that walketh in the darcke/ wotteth not whither he goeth. Whyll ye haue lyght beleue on the lyght/ & ye maye be the chyldren of the lyght.

¶ These thinges spake Jesus & departed/ & hyd him selfe from them. And though he had done so many miracles before them/ yet beleued not they on him/ & the sayinge of Esaias the prophet myght be fulfilled/ & he spake. * Lord who shall beleue oure sayinge? And to who is the arme of the Lord opened? Therefore could they not beleue/ because Esaias sayth agayne: he hath bynded their eyes and hardened their hertes/ that they shulde not se with their eyes/ & vnderstande with their hertes & shuld be conuerted/ and I shuld heale them. Soche thyngs sayd Esaias when he sawe his glory/ & spake of him. Neuerthelesse amonge the chiefe rulers many beleued on him. But because of the Pharisees they wolde not be a knowe of it/ lest they shuld be excommunicat. For they loued the prayse that is geue of men/ more then the prayse that cometh of God.

¶ And Jesus cryed & sayde: he that beleueth on me/ beleueth not on me/ but on him that sent me. And he that seith me/ seith him that sent me. * I am come a lyght into the worlde that whosoeuer beleueth on me/ shuld not byde in darcknes. And if any man heare my wordes/ & beleue not/ I iudge him not. For I came not to iudge the worlde: but to saue the worlde. He that refuseth me & receaueth not my wordes/ hath one that iudgeth him. The wordes that I haue spoken/ they shall iudge him in the laste daye. For I haue not spoken of my selfe: but the father which sent me/ he gaue me a commaundment what I shuld saye/ & what I shuld speake. And I knowe that this commaundment is lyfe euerlastyng. Whatsoeuer I speake therefore/ euen as the father bade me/ so I speake.

¶ The. xiiij. Chapter. ¶ Before the feast of easter when Jesus knewe that his houre was come/ & he that shuld departe oute of this worlde vnto the father. When he loued hym which were in the worlde/ vnto the ende he loued them. And when supper was ended/ after that the deuyl had put in the hert of Judas Iscariot Simons sonne/ to betraye him: Jesus knowinge that the father had geue all thyngs in to his handes/ & that he was come fro God/ and wēt to God: he rose from supper/ & sayde a lyde his upper garmentes/ & toke a towell/ and gyrded hym selfe. After that/ he poured water into a balyne/ & began to wash his disciples fete/ & to wype them with the towell/ wherewith he was gyrded.

¶ Then came he to Simon Peter. And Peter sayde to him: Lord shall thou wesse my fete? Jesus answered & sayde vnto him: what I do/ thou wotest not now/ but thou shalt knowe hereafter. Peter sayde vnto him: thou shalt not wesse my fete whyll I worlde stand. Jesus answered him: if I wash thee & not/ thou shalt haue no part with me. Simon Peter sayde vnto him: Lord/ not my fete only: but also my handes & my heed. Jesus sayde to hym: he that is wessed/ needeth not saue to wesse his fete/ & is cleane euerly whit. And ye are cleane: but not all. For he knewe hym besyde the synne. Therefore sayd he: ye are not all cleane.

¶ After he had wessed their fete/ & receaued his clothes/ & was set doune agayne/ he sayd vnto them: wot ye what I haue done to you? Ye call me master & Lord/ & ye saye well/ for so am I. If I then poure Lord and master haue wessed your fete/ ye also ought to wesse the one anothers fete. For I haue geuen you an ensample/ & ye shuld do as I haue done to you. Merely verely I saye vnto you/ & seruauant is not greater then his master/ neither the messenger greater then he that sent hym.

¶ If ye vnderstande these thynges/ happy are ye if ye do them. I speake not of you all/ I knowe who I haue chosen. But the scripture be fulfilled: he that eateth & breedeth with me/ hath my lyfe by his side agaynst me. Now tell I you before it come: that when it is come to passe ye myght beleue that I am he. Merely verely I saye vnto you. He that receaueth who soeuer I sende/ receaueth me. And he that receaueth me/ receaueth him that sent me.

¶ When Jesus had thus sayd/ he was troubled in the spete/ & testified saying: verely verely I saye vnto you/ & one of you shall betraye me. And then the disciples looked one on another doutyng of whom he spake. There was one of his disciples/ which leaned on Jesus bosome/ whom Jesus loued/ to him beckened Simon Peter that he shuld aske who it was of whom he spake. He then as he leaned on Jesus brest/ sayd vnto him: Lord who is it? Jesus answered/ he it is to whom I geue a soppe/ when I haue dypt it. And he wet a soppe/ & gaue it to Judas Iscariot Simons sonne. And after the soppe/ Satan entred into him. Then sayd Jesus vnto him: & thou doest/ do quickly. That wist nomā at the tyme/ for what intent he spake vnto him. Some saye that he thought/ because Judas had a bagge/ & he had sayd vnto him/ by those thinges that we haue nedde of agaynst the feast: or that he shuld geue some thyng to the poore. And none of these/ but then as he had receaued the soppe/ he wēt in-mediately out. And it was night/ when he was gone out. Jesus sayde: now is the sonne of man glorified/ And God is glorified by hym. If God be glorified by hym/ God shall also glorify him in himselfe: & shall straight waye glorify him.

¶ Deare chyldren/ yet a lytell whyle am I with you. Ye shall see me/ & as I saye vnto the Jewes/ whither I go/ thither can ye not followe/ where I demēt geue I vnto you/ & ye loue to gether/ as I haue loued you/ & ye euen so ye loue one another. By this shall all men knowe that ye are my disciples/ if ye shall haue loue one to another. Simon Peter sayde vnto hym: Lord/ whither goest thou? Jesus answered hym: whither I go thou canst not followe me now/ but thou shalt followe me afterwarde. Peter sayde vnto hym: Lord/ why can not I followe thee now? I will geue my lyfe for thy sake: Jesus answered him: wilt thou geue thy lyfe for my sake? verely/ verely I saye vnto the/ the cocke shall not crowe/ tyll thou haue denyed me thryse.

¶ The armeth his disciples with consolacion agaynst trouble/ and promyseth them the holy gost/ the spirite of comforte.

¶ The. xiiij. Chapter.

¶ And he sayde vnto his disciples: let not your hertes be troubled. Be-leeue in God/ and beleue in me. In my fathers house are many mansions. If it were not so/ I wolde haue tolde you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go to prepare a place for you/ I will come agayne/ & receaue you euen vnto my selfe & where I am/ there maye ye be also. And whither I go ye knowe/ & the waye ye knowe.

¶ Thomas sayde vnto him: Lord we knowe not whither thou goest. Althow is it possible for vs to knowe the waye? Jesus sayde vnto him: I am the waye/ the truth & the lyfe. And no man cometh vnto the father/ but by me. If ye had knowe me/ ye had knowe my father also. And now ye knowe him/ & haue sene him.

¶ Philip sayde vnto him: Lord shew vs the father/ & it sufficeth vs. Jesus sayd vnto him/ haue I bene so longe tyme with you/ & yet hast thou not knowe me? Philip/ he that hath sene me/ hath sene the father. And how sayest thou then: shew vs the father? Beleuest thou not that I am in the father/ & the father in me? The wordes that I speake vnto you/ I speake not of my selfe: but the father that dwelleth in me/ is he that doeth the workes. Beleue me that I am in the father/ & the father in me. At the laste beleue me for the very workes sake.

¶ Merely/ verely I saye vnto you/ he that beleueth on me/ the workes that I do/ the same shall he do/ & greater workes then these shall he do/ if he do/

Some saye that he thought/ because Judas had a bagge/ & he had sayd vnto him/ by those thinges that we haue nedde of agaynst the feast: or that he shuld geue some thyng to the poore. And none of these/ but then as he had receaued the soppe/ he wēt in-he do/because I go vnto my father. And what soeuer ye aske in my name/that will I do/ & the father myght be glorified by the sonne. If ye shall aske any thyng in my name/ I will do it. If ye loue me kepe my commaundementes/ & I will praye the father/ & he shall geue you another comforter/ that he maye byde wth you euer: which is the sprete of truthe whom the worlde cannot receaue/ because the worlde seeth hym not/ neither knoweth hym. But ye knowe hym. For he dwelleth wth you/ & shalbe in you. I will not leaue you comfortlesse: but will come to you. Yet a lytell while and the worlde seeth me no moare: but ye shall se me. For I lye & ye shall lye. That daye shall ye knowe that I am in my father/ & you in me/ & I in you. He that hath my commaundementes & kepeth them/ the same is he that loueth me. And he that loueth me shalbe loued of my father: & I will loue him/ & will shewe myne awne selfe to him. Judas sayde vnto him (not Judas Iscariot) Lorde what is the cause that thou wilt shewe thy selfe vnto vs/ & not vnto the worlde? Iesus answered and sayd vnto hym: yf a man loue me and will kepe my saynges/ my father also will loue him/ & we will come vnto hym/ and will dwell wth him. He that loueth me not/ kepeth not my saynges. And the wordes which ye heare/ are not myne/ but the fathers which sent me.

This haue I spoken vnto you beyng yet present wth you. But the comforter which is the holy goost (whom my father will sende in my name) he shall teache you all thynges/ and byngge all thynges to youre remembraunce whatsoeuer I haue tolde you.

Peace I leue wth you/ my peace I geue vnto you. Not as the worlde geueth/ geue I vnto you. Let not your hertes be greued/ neither feare ye. Ye haue hearde how I sayde vnto you: I go & come agayne vnto you. If ye loued me/ ye wolde verely reioyce/ because I sayde I go vnto the father. For the father is greater then I. And now haue I shewed you/ before it come/ & when it is come to passe/ ye myght beleue. Here after will I not talke many wordes vnto you. For the ruler of this worlde cometh/ & hath nought in me. But the worlde maye knowe that I loue the father: therefore as the father gaue me commaundment/ euē so do I. & wyle let vs go to hence.

The true vyne/ the husbandman & the braches. A doctrine of loue & a sweete comforte agaynst persecucion. The. xviij. Chapter.

In the true vyne/ & my father is an husbandman. Every branche that beareth not frute in me/ he will take awaye. And every branche that beareth frute/ will he poure/ & it maye byngge moare frute. Now are ye cleane those that the wordes which I haue spoken vnto you. Byde in me/ & let me byde in you. As the branche cannot beare frute of itselfe/ except it byde in the vyne: no moare can ye except ye abyde in me. I am the vyne/ and ye are the braches. He that abydeth in me/ and I in him/ the same bynggeth forth moche frute. For without me can ye do nothing. If a man byde not in me/ he is cast forth as a brache/ & is wyddered: and men gather it and cast it into the fyre/ and it burneth. If ye byde in me & my wordes also byde in you: aske what ye will/ and it shalbe done to you. Herein is my father glorified/ & ye beare moche frute/ and be made my disciples.

As the father hath loued me/ euē so haue I loued you. Continue in my loue. If ye shall kepe my commaundementes/ ye shall byde in my loue/ euē as I haue kept my fathers commaundementes/ and byde in his loue. These thynges haue I spoken vnto you/ that my love myght remayne in you/ and that your love myght be full.

This is my commaundement: that ye loue to gether as I haue loued you. Greater love then this hath no man/ then that a man bestowe his lyfe for his frendes. Ye are my frendes/ yf ye do whatsoeuer I commaunde you. Henceforth call I you not seruantes: for the seruant knoweth not what his lord doeth. But you haue I called frendes: for all thynges that I haue hearde of my father I haue opened to you.

Ye haue not chosen me/ but I haue chosen you and ordeyned/ that ye goe and byngge forth frute/ and that your frute remayne/ that whatsoeuer ye shall aske of the father in my name/ he shulde geue it you.

This commaunde I you/ that ye loue to gether. If the worlde hate you/ ye knowe the he hated me before he hated you. If ye were of the worlde/ the worlde wolde loue hym awne. Now he it because ye are not of the worlde/ but I haue chosen you oute of the worlde/ therefore hateth you the worlde. Remember the saynges that I sayde vnto you: the seruant is not greater then the lord. If they haue persecuted me/ so will they persecute you. If they haue kept my saynges/ so will they kepe yours.

But all these thinges will they do vnto you/ for my names sake/ because they haue not knowen him that sent me. If I had not come and spoken vnto them they shulde not haue had synne: but now haue they nothyng to cloke their synne wth all. He that hateth me/ hateth my father. If I had not done workes amonge them which none other man did/ they had not had synne. But now haue they sene/ and whereas ye haue hated bothe me & my father: euē in the. xviij. chap. tre of Iohn. If ye sayd myght be fulfilled & is written in their lawe: they hated me without a cause. But when the comforter is come/ whom I will sende vnto you from the father/ which is the sprete of truthe/ which proceedeth of the father/ he shall testifie of me. And ye shall beare mynes also/ because ye haue bene with me from the begynnyng.

Consolacion agaynst trouble. Prayers are herde. The. xviij. Chapter.

These thynges haue I sayde vnto you/ because ye shuld not be offended. They shall excommunicat you: ye the tyme shall come that whosoever killeth you/ will thynke he doth Gods seruyce. And suche thynges will they do vnto you/ because they haue not knowen the father neither yet me. But these thynges haue I tolde you/ that when that houre is come/ ye myght remember then/ that I tolde you so. These thynges sayde I not vnto you at the begynnyng because I was present wth you.

But now I go my waye to hym that sent me/ & none of you asketh me: whither goest thou? But because I haue sayd suche thinges vnto you/ your hertes are full of sorowe. Nevertheless I tell you the truthe/ it is expedient for you that I go awaye. For yf I goe not awaye/ that comforter will not come vnto you. But yf I departe/ I will sende hym vnto you. And when he is come/ he will re-buke the worlde of synne/ and of ryghtewesnes/ & of iudgement. Of synne/ because they beleue not on me: of ryghtewesnes/ because I go to my father/ & ye shall se me no moare: of iudgement/ because the chiefe ruler of this worlde/ is iudged all ready.

I haue yet many thynges to saye vnto you: but ye cannot beare them awaye now. Now he cometh/ when he is come/ I meane the sprete of truthe/ he will leade you into all truthe. He shall not speake of hym selfe: but whatsoeuer he shall heare/ that shall he speake/ and he will shewe you thinges to come. He shall glorify me/ for he shall receaue of myne & shall shewe vnto you. All thinges that the father hath are myne. Therefore sayde I vnto you/ & he shall take of myne and shewe vnto you.

After a while ye shall not se me/ & agayne after a while ye shall se me: for I go to the father. When sayd some of his disciples betwene themselves: what is this that he sayth vnto them? he sayth after a while ye shall not se me/ & agayne after a while ye shall se me: and that I go to the father. They sayde therefore: what is this that he sayth after a while? we cannot tell what he sayth. Iesus perceaued that they would saye that aske hym/ & sayde vnto them: This is it that enquyre of betwene youre selues/ & I sayde after a while ye shall not se me/ and agayne after a while ye shall se me. Verely verely I saye vnto you: ye shall wepe & lament and the worlde shall reioyce. Ye shall sorowe: but your sorowe shalbe turned to ioye.

A woman whiche travaileth hath sorowe/ because her houre is come: but as soon as she is deliuered of the chyld/ she remembereth no moare the angurthe/ for ioye that a man is borne into the worlde. And ye now are in sorowe: but I will se you agayne/ and your hertes shall reioyce/ & your ioye shall no man take fro you. And in that daye shall ye aske me no question. Verely verely I saye vnto you/ whatsoeuer ye shall aske the father in my name/ he will geue it you. Hitherto haue ye asked nothinge in my name. Aske & ye shall receaue it: that your ioye maye be full.

These thinges haue I spoken vnto you in prouerbes. The tyme will come when I shall no moare speake to you in prouerbes: but I shall shewe you playnly fro my father. At that daye shall ye aske in myne name. And I saye not vnto you that I will speake vnto my father for you. For the father hym selfe loueth you/ because ye haue loued me/ and haue beleued that I came out fro God. I wet out from the father/ and cam into the worlde: & I leue the worlde agayne/ and go to the father.

His disciples sayde vnto him: lo now speakest thou playnly/ & thou blest no prouerbe. Now knowe we that thou vnderstandest all thinges/ and needest not that any man shulde aske the any question. Therefore beleue we that thou comest fro God. Iesus answered the: Now ye do beleue. Behold the houre draweth nye/ and is all ready come that ye shalbe scattered euery man his wayes/ and shall leaue me alone. And yet am I not alone. For the father is wth me.

These wordes haue I spoken vnto you that in me ye myght haue peace. For in the worlde shall ye haue tribulacion: but be of good cheare/ I haue ouercome the worlde.

The most hartly & louynge prayer of Christ vnto his father/ for all such as receaue the truthe.

The. xviij. Chapter.

These wordes spake Iesus & Iyste by his eyes to heaue/ & sayd: father/ the houre is come: glorify thy sonne/ that thy sonne maye glorify the: as thou hast geue him power ouer all flesh/ & he shulde geue eternall lyfe to as many as thou hast geue him. This is lyfe eternall/ that they myght knowe the that only very God/ & whom thou hast sent Iesus Christ.

I haue glorified the on the erth. I haue fulfilled the worke which thou gauest me to do. And now glorify me thou father wth thyne awne eare. Jesus is brought before Anna & Apphas & Pilate.

The. xliij. Chapter. ✠

When Iesus had spoke these wordes/he went forth wyth hys disciples ouer the brooke Cedron/ wher was a garden into the whych he entred wth his disciples. Judas also whych betrayed him/ knewe the place: for Iesus ofte tymes resorted thither wyth hys disciples. Judas then after he had receaved abonde of men/ & ministers of the hye Prestes and Pharises/came thither with lanterns and fytybz/ andes & wepens. Then Iesus knowing all thinges that shulde come on him/ went forth & sayde vnto them: whome seke ye? They answered him: Iesus of Nazareth. Iesus sayd vnto the:
I am he. * Judas also whiche betrayed hym/ B stode with them. But asone as he had sayde vnto them, I am he/ they wēt backe wardes and fell to the grounde. And he asked them agayne: whom seke ye? They sayde: Iesus of Nazareth. Iesus answered: I sayd vnto you/I am he. If ye seke me / lett these goo their waye. What the sayinge myght be fulfilled which he spake: of them whych thou gauest me/ haue I not lost one.

Simon Peter had a swearde/ & drew it/ & smote the hye prestes seruaunt/ & cut of hys ryght eare. The seruauntes name was Malchias. Then sayde Iesus vnto Peter: put by thy swearde into þe sheath: shall I not drynke of the cup which my father hath geuen me. Then the cōpany & the Capayne/ and ministers of the Jewes toke Iesus & bōnde him/ & led him awaye to Anna fyrst: for he was father in lawe vnto Cayphas which was þe hye Preste þe same yere. Cayphas was he þe gaue counsell to the Jewes/ that it was expedient that one man shulde dye for the people.

* And Simon Peter folowed Iesus & another disciple: that disciple was knowen of þ hye preste / & went in with Iesus into þ palys of the hye preste. But Peter stode at the doze without. Then went out that other disciple which was knowen vnto the hye preste / & spake to the damsell that kept the doze / and brought in Peter. Then sayde the damsell þ kept the doze / vnto Peter: Arte not thou one of this mānes disciples? He sayde: I am not.
The seruantes & the ministers stode there / & had made a fyre of coles: for it was colde and they warmed them selues. Peter also stode amonge them and warmed him selfe.

*The hye preste asked Iesus of his disciples & of his doctrine. Iesus answered him: I speake openly in þ world. I neuer taught in þ Syna-goge & in the temple whyther all the Jewes reioyced/ & in secreete haue I sayde nothyng: why

why askest thou me? Alke the which hearde me/ what I sayde vnto the. Beholde they can tell what I sayd. Whe he had thus spoke/ one of his ministers which stode by/ smote Iesus on the face sayinge: answerest thou the hye preste so? Iesus answered him. If I haue euyll spoken/ beare witnes of it euyll: yf I haue well spoken/ why smyttest thou me? And Annas sent him bounde vnto Cayphas hye preste.

Simon Peter stode & warmed him selfe.
 ¶ And they sayde vnto hym: arte not thou also one of hys disciples? He denyed it/ & sayde: I am not. One of þe seruantes of þe hye prestes (his cosyn whose eare Peter smote of) sayd vnto him: did not I see þe in þe garde with him? Peter denyed agayne: & immediatly þe cocke crewe. * Then led they Iesus fro Caphphas into þe hall of iudgemēt. It was in þe mornynge/ & they them selues went not into the iudgemēt hall lest they shuld be defyled/ but that they myght eate the paschall lambe. Pylate then went out vnto them & sayde: what accusaciō bringe ye agaynste this mā? They answered & sayd vnto him. If he were not an euyll doer we wolde not haue deliuered hym vnto the.
 ¶ Then sayd Pylate vnto them: take ye hym & iudge him after youre awne lawe. Then the Jewes sayde vnto him. It is not lawfull for vs to put eny man to deeth. * That þe wordes of Iesus myght be fulfilled which he spake/signyfyinge what deeth he shuld dye.

Then Pplate entred into the iudgement hal agayne, & called Iesus, & sayd vnto him: arte thou þ kyng of the Iewes? Iesus answered: sayst thou that of thy selfe, or dyd other tell it the of me? Pplate answered: Am I a Iewe?
Thyne atwne nacio & hye prestes haue deli-uered þ vnto me. What hast thou done? Iesus answered: ^b* my kyngdome is not of thys worlde. Yf my kyngdome were of this worlde then wolde my ministers suerly feght, that I shulde not be deliuered to þ Iewes, but now is my kyngdome not fro hence. Pplate sayde vnto him: Arte thou a kyng then? Iesus answered: thou sayst þ I am a kyng. for thys that confy- cause was I hojne / & for thys cause came I fely in straight into the woꝛlde / that I shulde beare wytnes of hys / in me onto the trueth. And all that are of & trueth in the swerde & heare my hojce. Pylate sayd unto him: what in the subde- thyng is trueth? And whē he had sayd that / of hys vnde- he went out agayne unto the Jewes / & sayde of hys vnde- unto them: I fynde in him no cause at all. Ye of hys vnde- have a custome / & I shulde deluyt you one of hys vnde- louse at efter. Wyl ye that I louse unto you of hys vnde- the kyng of the Jewes? Then cryed they all of hys vnde- agayne sayinge: Not hym but Barrabas: of hys vnde- that Barrabas was a robber..

The .xix. Chapter,

When Pilate toke Iesus & scourged him hym. * And the souldiers wounde a crowne of thornes & put it on hys heed. And they dyd on him a purple garmēt / & sayd: haill kyng of the Jewes: & they smote him on the face. Pilate wet forth agayne & sayde vnto the: beholde I brynge him forth to you / so ye maye knowe / so I fynde no faulte in hym. Then came Iesus forth wearinge a crowne of thorne & a robe of purple. And Pilate sayde vnto them: beholde the man. * When the hye Priestes & mynisters sawe hym / they cryed sayinge: crucify him / crucify him / Pilate sayde vnto the: Take ye him and crucify him: for I fynde no cause in him. The Jewes answered him. We haue a lawe / & by our lawe he ought to dye: because he made him self the sonne of God. When Pilate hearde this sayinge he was the more a frayde / & went agayne into the iudgemēt hall / & sayde vnto Iesus: whē arte thou? But Iesus gaue him none answer. Then sayde Pilate vnto hym. Speakest thou not vnto me? Knowest thou not that I haue power to crucify the / & haue power to loose the? Iesus answered: Thou couldest haue no power at all agaynste me / except it were geuen the from aboue. Therefore he that deliuered me vnto the / is moare in synne. * And from thence forth sought Pilate meanes to loose hym: but the Jewes cryed sayinge: yet thou let hym go thou arte not Cesar's frende. For whosoever maketh him selfe a kyng / is agaynste Cesar.

Whē Pilate hearde þ̄ sayinge/he brought

And he bare hys crosse/ and wēt forth into a place called the place of deed mens sculles/ which is named in Hebꝛue/ Golgotha. Wher they crucifyed him/ and two other with him/ on ether syde one/ and Iesus in the myddes. And Plate wꝛote his tyle/ and put it on the crosse. The wꝛytinge was: Iesus of Nazareth kynge of the Jewes. Thys tyle reed many of the Jewes. For þe place where Iesus was crucifyed/ was nye to the cpye. And it was wꝛitten in Hebꝛue/ Greke and Latyn. Then sayde the hye pꝛiestes of the Jewes to Plate: wꝛyte not kynge of the Jewes/ but þe he sayde I am kynge of the Jewes. Plate answered: what I haue wꝛyten/ that haue I wꝛyten.

f. b. Then

E When the souldiers/whē they had crucified Iesus/toke his garmētes & made foure partes/to euery souldier a parte/& also his coote. The coote was without seme/wrought by thozowe out. And they sayde one to another. Let vs not deuide it/but cast lotes who shall haue it. That s scripture myght be fulfilled whych sayth. *They departed my rayment amonge the/& on my coote byd cast lotes. And the souldiers byd soche thinges in dede.

Then stode by the crosse of Iesus his mother/& his mothers syster Mary the wyfe of Cleophas/& Mary Magdalene. Whē Iesus sawe his mother/& his disciple standinge whō he loued/he sayde vnto his mother:womā be holde thy sonne. Then sayde he to his disciple: beholde thy mother. And from that houre the discipple toke her for his awne.

After that when Iesus perceaued that all thynges were performed:that the scripture myght be fulfilled:he sayde: I thyrst. Ther stode a vessel full of beneger by. *And they filled a spōge w beneger/& wounde it about with ylope/& put it to hys mouth. Althow as Iesus had receaued of beneger/he sayde: It is fynished/& bowed his heed/& gaue by the goost. The Jewes then because it was the Sabbath euen/that s bodyes shuld not remayne vnto s crosse on s sabbath daye/for that sabbath daye was an hye daye/besought Pilate that their legges might be broke & that they might be taken doune. Then came s souldiers & brake the legges of the fyrst/& of s other which was crucified with Iesus. But when they came to Iesus/& sawe s he was deed already they brake not his legges: but one of s souldiers with a speare/thrust hym into s syde/& forthwith came ther out blood and water.

And he that sawe it/bare recorde/& his recorde is true. And he knoweth s he sayth true s ye myght beleue also. These thinges were done s the scripture shuld be fulfilled. *Ye shall not breake a bone of hym. And agayne another scripture sayeth: they shall loke on hym/whō they pearled. *After s Joseph of Aramathia (whych was a discipple of Iesus: but secretly for feare of s Jewes) besought Pilate s he might take doune s body of Iesus. And Pilate gaue him licēce. And ther cā also Nicodemus which at s beginninge came to Iesus by night/& brought of myrrer & aloes mingled together aboute an hundred pounde wayght. Then toke they s body of Iesu/and wounde it in lynnē clothes with s odoures/as the maner of the Jewes is to bury. And in s place where Iesus was crucified/was a garden/& in the garde a newe sepulcre/wherin was neuer mā layde. There layde they Iesus because of the Jewes Sabbath euen/for the sepulcre was nye at hande.

The resurrection of Christ/whiche appeareth to Mary Magdalene to all his disciples/to their greate comforte.

The xx. Chapter.

After that s sabbath daye/cā Mary Magdalene erly/whē it was yet darcke/vnto s sepulcre/& sawe s stone take awaye from s cōmbe. Then she rāne/& came to Simon Peter & to s other discipple whō Iesus loued/& sayde vnto the. They haue take awaye s Lorde out of the cōmbe/& we cānot tell where they haue layde him. Peter went forth & that other discipple & came vnto the sepulcre. They ranne bothe together/& that other discipple dyd out rāne Peter/& came fyrst to the sepulcre. And he stouped doune & sawe the lynnē clothes lyinge/vet wēt he not in. Then came Simon Peter folowinge him/& wēt into s sepulcre/& sawe the lynnē clothes lye/& the naphyn that was aboute his heed/not lyinge with s lynnē clothe/but wapped to gether in a place by it selfe. Then went in also that other discipple which came fyrst to the sepulcre/& he sawe s & beleued. For as yet they knewe not the scriptures that he shulde ryse agayne from deeth. And the disciples went awaye agayne vnto their awne home.

Then Mary stode without at s sepulcre weepinge. And as she wept/she bowed her selfe into s sepulcre & sawe two angels in whyte sittinge/the one at the heede the other at the fete/where they had layde the body of Iesus. And they sayde vnto her:womā why wepest thou? She sayde vnto the:for they haue take awaye my Lorde/& I wote not where they haue layde him. Whē she had thus sayde/she turned her selfe backe & sawe Iesus standinge & knewe not s it was Iesus. Iesus sayd vnto her:womā why wepest thou? Whom seekest thou? She supposinge s he had bene a gardener/sayde vnto hi. Sye yf thou haue borne him hēce tell me wher thou hast layde him? I maye fet him. Iesus sayde vnto her: Mary. She turned her selfe/& sayd vnto him: Rabboni/which is to saye master. Iesus sayde vnto her: touche me not/for I am not yet ascended to my father. But go to my bretheren & saye vnto them/ I ascende vnto my father & your father/to my God & your God. Mary Magdalene came & tolde the discipples s she had sene the Lorde/and that he had spoken soche thinges vnto her.

The same daye at nyght/which was s morowe after s sabbath daye/when s dozes were shut/where s disciples were assembled to gether for feare of the Jewes/came Iesus and stode in s myddes/& sayd to the: peace be with you. And when he had so sayde/he shewed vnto the his handes/and his syde. Then were the

were the discipples glad when they sawe the Lorde. Then sayde Iesus to the agayne: peace be with you. As my father sent me/euen so sende I you. And when he had sayde that/he brythed on them & sayde vnto them: Receaue s holy goost. Whoso euer s synnes ye remit they are remitted vnto the. And whoso euer s synnes ye retayne/they are retayned. But Thomas one of the twelue/called Didymus/was not with them when Iesus came. The other discipples sayd vnto him: we haue sene the Lorde. And he sayde vnto the: except I se in his handes s pzent of nayles/& thrust my hāde into his syde/I will not beleue. And after viij. dayes agayne hys discipples were in s Thomas with them. Then came Iesus when s dozes were shut/& stode in the myddes & sayde: peace be with you.

After that sayde he to Thomas: brynge thy synger hether & se my handes/and brynge thy hande & thrust it into my syde/& be not sayth lesse/but beleuinge. Thomas answered and sayde vnto him: my Lorde/& my God. Iesus sayde vnto him. Thomas/because thou hast sene me/therfore thou beleuest: happy are they that haue not sene/and yet beleue.

And many other sygnes dyd Iesus in the ptesence of his disciples/which are not wrytten in this booke. These are wrytten that ye myght beleue/that Iesus is Christ s sonne of God/& that in beleuyngē ye myght haue lyfe thozowe his name.

The appeareth to hys disciples agayne by the see of Cyperias/and commaundeth Peter earnestly to fede hys shepe.

The xxi. Chapter.

After that Iesus shewed hym selfe agayne/at s see of Cyperias. And on this wyse shewed he hym selfe. There were to gether Simon Peter & Thomas/which is called Didymus:& Nathanael of Cana a citie of Galile/& the sonny of Zebedee/& two other of the discipples. Simon Peter sayde vnto the: I go a fyllingē. They sayde vnto him: we also will go with s. They went their waye & entred into a shippe straght waye/& that night caught they nothinge. But whē s morninge was now come Iesus stode on s shore/neuerthelesse the discipples knewe not s it was Iesus. Iesus sayde vnto the: syes/haue ye enymēate? They answered him/no. And he sayd vnto the: cast out s net on s right syde of s ship/& ye shall fynde. They cast out/and anon they were not able to drawe it for the multitude of fylshes.

Then sayde the discipple whō Iesus loued vnto Peter: It is s Lorde. When Simon Peter hearde that it was the Lorde/he gyrded his mantell to him (for he was naked) & sprang into the see. The other discipples came by ship for they were not farre from lande/ but as it were two hondred cubites/& they drew the net with fylshes. Althow as they were come to lande/they sawe hoot coles and fyre layd theron/& breed Iesus sayde vnto the: brynge of the fylshes which ye haue now caught. Simon Peter stepped forth and drew the net to londe full of greete fylshes/an hondred & lxxij. And for all ther were so many/vet was not the net broken. Iesus sayde vnto them: come & dyne. And none of the discipples durste aske him: what arte thou? For they knewe that it was the Lorde. Iesus then came and toke breed/and gaue them/and fylshes lyke wyse. And thus is now the thyrde tyme that Iesus appered to hys disciples/after that he he was risen agayne from deeth.

When they had dyned/Iesus sayde to Simon Peter: Simon Ioāna/ louest thou me moze then these? He sayde vnto him: ye Lorde thou knowest/that I loue the. He sayd vnto him: fede my lābes. He sayde to hym agayne the seconde tyme: Simon Ioāna/ louest thou me? He sayde vnto him: ye Lorde thou knowest s I loue s. He sayde vnto him: fede my shepe. He sayde vnto him s thyrde tyme: Simon Ioāna/ louest thou me? And Peter sorrowed because he sayde to him s thyrde tyme louest thou me/& sayde vnto him: Lorde/thou knowest all thinge/thou knowest that I loue the. Iesus sayde vnto hym: fede my shepe.

Wherely verely I saye vnto the/when thou shalt wange/thou gerddest thy selfe/& walkest whither thou woldest: but when thou arte olde/thou shalt strecthe forth thy hande & another shall gyde the/& leade the whither thou woldest not. That spake he signifyinge by what deeth he shuld glorify God.

And whē he had sayde thus/he sayd to him: folowe me. Peter turned about & sawe s discipple whom Iesus loued folowinge which also lened on his brest at supper & sayd: Lorde which is he that shall betraye the. Whē Peter sawe him/he sayde to Iesus: Lorde what shall he here do? Iesus sayde vnto him: If I wyll haue hym to tary tyll I come/ what is that to the? folowe thou me. Then went this written & this sayinge a broode amonge the bretheren/that is a figuratiue s discipple shulde not dye. Yet Iesus sayde not to him/he shall not dye: but yf I wyll that he tary tyll I come/what is that to the? The saynges/and wrote these thynges. And we knowe/that his testimony is true. There are also many other thinges which Iesus dyd vnto this place. the which yf they shuld be wrytten euery one of these bookes that shuld be wrytten.

The Actes of the Apostles written by Sayncte Luke the Euangelyst/whych was present at doynges of them.

The ascensyon of Chyyst/Matthias is chosen in the steade of Judas.

The fyrst Chapter.

In the former treatyse I haue written of all that I beganne to do and teache vntyll the daye in whych he was taken vp/ after that he/ thoroowe the holy goost/ had geuen commaundementes vnto the Apostles/ whych he had chosen: to who also he shewed him selfe alpyue after his passion by many tokes/ apperynge vnto them fourtye dayes/ & speakinge of the kyngdome of God/ & gathered the to gether/ and commaunded them/ that they shuld not departe from Iherusalem: but to warte for the promys of the father wherof ye haue herde of me. For Iohn baptised with water: but ye shalbe baptised with the holy goost/ and that with in this fewe dayes. When they were come to gether/ they asked of hym sayinge: Lorde wilt thou at this tyme/ restore agayne the kyngdome to Israel? And he sayde vnto them: It is not for you to knowe the tymes/ or the seasons whych the father hath put in his awne power: but ye shal receaue power of the holy goost whych shall come on you. And ye shall be wytnesses vnto me in Iherusalem/ and in all Jewrye and in Samary/ & even vnto the worldes ende.

And when he had spoken these thynges/ whyll they behelde/ he was taken vp/ and a cloude receaued hym vp oute of their syght. And whyle they looked stedfastly vp to heuē as he wēt/ beholde two men stode by them in whyte apparell/ whych also sayde: ye men of Galile/ why stande ye gasinge vp into heauē? This same Iesus whych is taken vp fro you into heuē/ shall so come/ euē as ye haue sene him go into heauen. Then returned they vnto Iherusalem from mount Blyuete/ whych is nye to Iherusalem/ cōteyninge a Sabbath dayes iorney. And when they were come in/ they wēt vp into a parler/ where aboode both Peter and James/ Iohn and Andye w/ Philip and Thomas/ Bartlemew and Mathew/ James the sonne of Alpheus/ & Simon Zelotes/ and Judas James sonne. These all cōtynued with one accorde in prayer and supplicacyon with the women and Mary the mother of Iesu/ and with his brythren.

And in those dayes Peter stode vp in the middes of the disciples and sayde/ I nōumbr of names that were to gether/ were aboute an hondred and twentye. Ye men & brythren this scripture must haue nedes ben fulfilled whych the holy goost thoroow the mouth of Dauid spake befoze of Judas/ whych was gyde to them that toke Iesus. For he was nōumbrd with vs and had obtayned fellowship in thys mynystracyon. And the same hath now possessed a plat of grounde with the rewarde of iniquite/ and when he was hanged/ brast a sonde in the myddes/ and all hys bowels gushyd oute. And it is knowen vnto all the inhabitants of Iherusalem: in so moche that felde is called in their mother tonge/ Acheldama/ that is to saye/ the bloud felde.

It is writte in the booke of Psalmes: hys habitacion be voyde/ & no man be dwellinge therein: & hys dyschordyche let another take. Wherfoze of these men whych haue cōpanyed with vs/ all the tyme that the Lorde Iesus went in and out amonge vs/ beginnyng at the baptyme of Iohn vnto that same daye he was take vp fro vs/ must one be ordeyned to beaze wytnes with vs of his resurrection.

And they apoynted two/ Joseph called Barsabas (whose surname was Iustus) and Mathias. And they prayed sayinge: thou Lorde whych knowest the hertes of all men/ shewe whether of these two thou hast chosen that the one maye take the roume of this ministrye & Apostleshippe/ from whych Judas by transgression fell/ that he myght go to his awne place. And they gaue forth their lottes/ and the lot fel on Mathias/ and he was counted with the eleuen Apostles.

The commyng of the holy goost. The sermon of Peter befoze the congregacyon at Iherusalem/ and the increas of the saythfull.

The seconde Chapter.

When

When the fiftith daye was come/ they were all in one accorde to gether in one place. And sodely ther came a sounde fro heauē/ as it had bene the comyng of a myghty wynde/ and it fylled all the house where they sate. And there appered vnto them clouen tonges/ lyke as they had bene fyr/ and it sate vpon each of the: & they were all fylled with the holy Goost/ and beganne to speake with other tonges/ euen as the sprete gaue them utteraunce.

And ther were dwellinge at Iherusalem/ Jewes/ deuoute men whych were of all nacys vnder heauē. When this was noyed aboute the multitude came to gether and were astounded/ because that euery man hearde them speake his awne tounge. They wondered all & marueyled/ sayinge amōge the selues: beholde/ are not all these whych speake/ of Galile? And how heare we euery man his awne tounge wherin we were bozen? Parthians/ Medes & Clamytes/ and the inhabitants of Mesopotamia/ of Iury/ & of Capadocia/ of Ponthus & Asia/ Phrygia/ Pamphylia/ & of Egypte/ & of the parties of Lybia whych is betwixte Syrene/ & straungers of Rome/ Jewes and conuertes/ Grekes & Arabians: we haue herde the speake with oure awne tonges & greute wythes of God. They were all amazed/ & wōdred sayinge one to another what meaneth thys? Other mocked them sayinge: they are full of newe wyne.

But Peter stepped forth with the eleue/ and lyft vp his voyce/ & sayde vnto them: Ye men of Jewrye/ & all ye that inhabite Iherusalem: be this knowe vnto you & with poure eares heare my wordes. These are not dōcenes/ as ye suppose: for it is yet but the thyrde houre of the daye. But this is which was spoken by the Prophete Iohel: It shalbe in the last dayes sayth God: of my sprete I will powze out vpon all fleshe. And poure sonnes & poure daughters shal prophesy and poure ponge men shal se visions/ & poure olde men shal dreme dremes. And on my seruantes/ & on my hande maydes I will powze out of my sprete in those dayes/ & they shal prophesy. And I will shewe wonders in heauē aboue/ & tokens in the erth beneth/ bloud and fyre/ & the vapour of smoke. The sunne shalbe turned into darcknes/ & the mōne into bloud befoze that greute & notable daye of the Lorde come. And it shalbe/ to who soeuer shall call on the name of the Lorde/ shalbe saued.

Ye men of Israel heare these wordes. Iesus of Nazareth a man aproued of God amonge you with myracles/ wōdres & sygnes whych God dyd by hym in the myddes of you/ as ye poure selues knowe: hym haue ye taken by the handes of vnrightewes persones/after he was deliuered by determinat cōfession & foreknowledge of God/ and haue crucified & slayne: whom God hath rayled by & lowed the sorowes of deeth/ because it was impossible that he shuld be holden of it. For Dauid speaketh of him. Afoze hāde I saue God alwaies befoze me: for he is on my right hande/ that I shuld not be moued. Therfoze dyd my hert reioyce/ and my tounge was glad. Moreouer also my fleshe shal rest in hope/ because thou wilt not leue my soule in hell/ nether wilt suffer thine holpe/ to se corrupcion. Thou hast shewed me the wayes of life/ & shalt make me full of toyce with thy countenance. When a brythren/ let me frely speake vnto you of the patriarke Dauid: for he is both deed & buryed/ & hys sepulchre remayneth vnto this daye. Therfoze seinge he was a Prophet/ & knewe that God had sworne with an othe to him/ that the frute of his loyns shuld sit on his seat/ in the thyrst shulde ryle agayne in the fleshe/ he sawe befoze: & spake of the resurrection of Chyrist/ that his soule shuld not be left in hell: nether hys fleshe shuld se corrupcion. This Iesus hath God rayled by/ wherof we all are wytnesses.

Sencc now that he by the ryght hande of God exalted is/ & hath receaued of the father the promys of the holy Goost/ he hath shed forth the which ye now se & heare. For Dauid is not ascendid into heuē: but he sayde. The Lorde sayde to my Lord sit on my right hāde vntyll I make thy foes thy fote stole. So therfoze let al the house of Israel knowe for a surety/ that God hath made & saue Iesus whom ye haue crucified/ Lorde and Chyrist.

When they hearde this they were pricked in their hertes/ & sayd vnto Peter & vnto the other Apostles: Ye men & brythren/ what shal we do? Peter sayde vnto them: repent and be baptised euery one of you in the name of Iesus Chyrist for the remission of synnes/ and ye shal receaue the gyfte of the holy goost. For the promys was made vnto you/ & to poure chyldren/ and to all that are a farte/ euen as many as the Lorde oure God shall call. And in many other wordes bare he wytnes & exhorted them sayinge: Saue poure selues from this vntowarde generacion. Then they that gladly receaued his preachinge/ were baptised: and the same daye/ ther were added vnto them aboute thre thousande soules.

And they contynued in the Apostles doctrine & felowshippe/ and in breakinge of bred/ & in prayer. And feare came ouer euery soule. And many wōdres & signes were shewed by the Apostles. And all that beleued kept the selues to gether/ & had all thinges comen/ & solde their possessions and goodes/ & departed the to all men/ as euery man had nede. And they contynued continued dayly with one accorde in temple/ and brake bread in euery house/ and dyd eate their meate together/ with gladnes & singlenes of hert praylinge God/ & had fauour of all the people. And the Lorde added to the congregacion dayly soche as shuld be saued.

The hert is restored to hys sete. Peter preacheth Chrys into the people.

The.iii. Chapter.

Peter & John wet by to gether into the temple at the nyntythe houre of prayer. And ther was a certayne man halt from his mothers wombe/ whom they brought and layde at the gate of the temple called beutyfull/ to aske almes of them that entred into the temple. Whych same when he sawe Peter & John/ that they wolde into the temple/ desyred to receaue an almes. And Peter fastened hys eyes on hym with John/ & sayd: loke on vs. And he gaue hede vnto them/ trustynge to receaue some thinge of them. Then sayd Peter: Syner & golde haue I none/ Suche as I haue/ geue I the. In the name of Iesus Chyrist of Nazareth/ ryle by and walke. And he toke hym by the ryght hande/ and lyfte hym by. And immediatly his fete & ancle bones receaued strenght. And he sprange/ stode and also walked/ and entred with them into the temple/ walkinge and leapinge and laudynge God.

And all the people sawe hym walke and laude God. And they knewe him/ that it was he which late & begged at the beutyfull gate of the temple. And they wondred & were sore astonysed at that whych had happened vnto hym. And as the halt whych was healed/ helde Peter and John/ all the people ranne amased vnto them in Salomons porche.

When Peter sawe that/ he answered vnto the people. Ye men of Israel/ why maruaile ye at this/ or why loke ye so stedfastly on vs/ as though by oure awne power or holynes/ we had made this man go? The God of Abraham/ Isaac and Jacob/ the God of oure fathers hath glorified his sonne Iesus/ whō ye deliuered/ & denyed in the ptesence of Prylate when he had iudged hym to be lowsted.

But ye denyed the holy and iust/ & desyred a mozt herat to be geue you & kyled. The Lorde of lyfe/ whom God hath rayled fro deeth/ of whych we are wytnesses. And hys name thorow the sayth of hys name/ hath made this man sound/ whom ye se and knowe. And the sayth whych is by hym/ hath geue to him this health in the ptesence of you all.

And now brethzen I wote well & thozow ignoraunce ye dyd it/ as dyd also poure heddy. But those thyngs whych God befoze had shewed/ by the mouth of all his Prophetes/ how that Chyrist shuld suffre/ he hath thus wyle fulfylled. Repent ye therfoze & turne/ that your synnes maye be done awaye/ & when the tyme of restitucyon cometh/ whych we shall haue of the ptesence of the Lorde/ & whē God shall sende him/ whych befoze was preached vnto you/ that is to wit Iesus Chyrist/ whych must receaue heauen vntyll the tyme that all thynges/ whych God had spoken by the mouth of all his holy Prophetes sence the worlde began/ be restored agayne.

For Moses sayd vnto the fathers: a Prophet shall the Lorde poure God rayle by vnto you/ euen of poure brethzen lyke vnto me: him shall ye heare in all thynges whatsoever he shall saye vnto you. For the tyme will come/ that euery soule whych shall not heare that same Prophet/ shalbe destroyed fro amonge the people. Also all the Prophetes fro Samuel & thence forth/ as many as haue spoken haue in lyke wyse tolde of these dayes.

Ye are the chyldren of the Prophetes and of the couenant/ whych God hath made vnto oure fathers/ sayng to Abraham: Euen in thy seede shall all the kynredes of the erth be blessed. If ye vnto you hath God rayled by hys sonne Iesus/ & him he hath sent to blyse you/ that euery one of you shuld turne from poure wychednes.

The Apostles are taken & brought before the counsell. They are forbydden to preach/ but they turne the vnto prayer/ & are more obedient vnto God the vnto me

The.iiii. Chapter.

As they spake vnto the people/ the Prestes and the ruler of the temple/ and the Saduces came vpon them/ takinge it greuouly that they taught the people & preached in Iesus resurrection fro deeth. And they layde handes on them and put the in holde vntyll the nexte daye: for it was now euen tye. Now be it many of the whych hearde the wordes/ beleeued the nobylte of the men was aboute fyue thousande.

And it chaunced on the morowe that the rulars & elders & Scribes/ as Annas & chete Prest and Cayphas & John and Alexander & as many as were of the kynred of the Pharysees gathered to gether at Jerusalem/ and set the other befoze the/ & asked: by what power or in what name haue ye done this/ sayd? Then Peter full of the holy goost sayd vnto the: ye rulars of the people/ & elders of Israel/ yf we this daye are examined of a good dede done to the sicke man/ by what meanes he is made whoale: be it knowe vnto you all/ & to the people of Israel/ that in the name of Iesus Chyrist of Nazareth/ whō ye crucified/ & whō God rayled agayne from deeth: euen by him doth this man stande here present befoze you whoale. This is the stone cast a fyde of the bylders/ whych is set in the cheste place of the corner.

the corner. Nether is ther saluacyon in eny other. For yet also is ther eny other name geuen to men wherin we must be saued.

When they sawe the boldnes of Peter and John/ & vnderstode that they were bnterned men and laye people/ they marueled/ & they knewe the/ that they were with Iesus: and beholdinge also the man whych was healed standinge with the/ they coulde not saye agaynst it. But they commaunded the to go a fyde out of the counsell/ and counceled amonge them selues sayng: what shal we do to these men? For a manifest sygne is done by them/ and is openly knowen to all the that dwell in Jerusalem/ & we cannot denye it. But that it be noyled no farther amonge the people/ let vs threaten and charge them that they speake hence forth to no man in this name.

And they called them/ and commaunded the that in nowise they shuld speake or teache in the name of Iesu. But Peter & John answered vnto them and sayde: whether it be ryght in the sight of God/ to obeye you moare then God/ iudge ye. For we cannot but speake that whych we haue sene & hearde. So they threatened they them and let them go/ and founde no thinge how to punyssh them/ because of the people. For all men lauded God for the myracle whych was done: for a man was aboute forty yere olde/ on whom this myracle of healinge was shewed.

Alone as they were let go/ they came to their felowes/ and shewed all that the hye Prestes & elders had sayde to the. And when they hearde that/ they lyfte by their voyces to God with one accorde/ & sayde: Lorde/ thou arte God which hast made heauen & erth the see and all that in them is/ whych by the mouth of thy seruauit Dauid hast sayd: Why dyd the hethen rage/ & the people inuagen bayne thynges. The kynge of the erth stode by and the rulars came to gether/ agaynst the Lorde and agaynst his Chyrist.

For of a trouth/ agaynst thy holy chyld Iesus whō thou hast anoynted/ bothe Herode and also Poncius Prylate/ with the Gentyls and the people of Israel gathered the selues to gether/ for to do whatsoever thy handes & thy counsell determyned befoze to be done. And now Lorde/ beholde their threatenynge and graunte vnto thy seruantes with all cōfydence to speake thy worde. So that thou stretch forth thyne hande/ that healinge and sygnes and wonders be done by the name of thy holy chyld Iesus. And asone as they had prayed the place incued wheare they were assembled to gether/ and they were all spyled with the holy goost/ and they spake the worde of God boldly.

And the multitude of the that beleued/were of one hert/ and of one soule. Also none of them sayde/ that eny of the thynges whych he possessed/ was his awne. but had all thyngs commun. And with greute power gaue the Apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lorde Iesu. And greute grace was with them all. Nether was ther eny amonge them/ that lacked. For as many as were possessers of landes/ or houses/ solde them and brought the pryce of the thynges that were solde/ and layed it doune at the Apostles fete. And distribucion was made vnto euery man accordynge as he had nede.

And Joses whych was also called of the Apostles/ Barnabas (that is to saye/ the sonne of consolacion) beyng a Leuite/ & of the countre of Cyprus had lande/ and solde it & layde the pryce doune at the Apostles fete.

The dyssemblynge of Ananias and Saphira is punished. Miracles are done by the Apostles/ whych are taken/ but the angell of God byngeth them out of prison. They are brought before the counsell. The sentence of Gamaliel. The apostles are bett/ they reioyse in trouble.

The.v. Chapter.

A certayne man named Ananias & Saphira his wyfe solde a possessiō & kepte awaye parte of the pryce/ (his wyfe also beyng of counsell) and brought a certayne parte/ & layd it doune asyde of hys at the Apostles fete. Then sayde Peter: Ananias how is it that thou hast filled thyne hert/ & hast kepte awaye parte of the pryce of the lande/ whiche thou hast sold? thou hast lied vnto the holy goost/ & hast kepte awaye parte of the pryce of the lande/ whiche thou hast sold. Whiche was not the pryce in thine awne power? How is it that thou hast concealed this thinge in thine herte? thou hast not lied vnto me/ but vnto God. When Ananias herde these wordes/ he fell doune and gaue by the goost. And great feare came on all the that these thyngs heard. And the younge men roote by/ and put hym a parte/ and caried him out/ and buryed him.

And it fortunied as it were aboute space of thre dayes/ after that his wyfe came in/ ignorant of that whych was done. And Peter sayde vnto her: Tell me/ gaue ye the lande for so moche? And he sayd: yf/ for so moche. Then sayde Peter vnto her: why haue ye agreed to this/ & have not told the fete of the Lorde? Beholde the fete of them whych haue buryed thy husbnde/ are at the doze/ and shall cary the out. Then she fel doune straght waye at his fete and yeldd by the goost. And the younge men came in/ and founde her ded/ and caried her out/ and buryed her by her husbnde. And great feare came on all the congregacyon/ & on as many as hearde it.

By the handes of the Apostles were many signes & wonders shewed amonge the people. And they were all to gether in one accorde in Salomons to deliuer them. And now come and I will sende the into Egypte.

This Moses whom they forsoke sayinge: who made the a ruler and a iudge: the same God sent bothe a ruler and a deliuerer/ by his handes of the Angell whych appered to hym in the bush. And the same brought them out of the wylde wondres & signes in Egypt/ & in the red see & in the wylernes. xl. yeares. This is that Moses whych sayde vnto the chyldre of Israel: * A Prophet shall the Lorde poure God rayle by vnto you of youre brythren/ lyke vnto me/ hym shall ye heare.

This is he that was in the congregacyō/ in the wylernes with the Angell whych spake to him in the mounte Syna/ & with our fathers. This mā receaued the worde of lye to geue vnto vs/ to whō our fathers could not obeie/ but cast it fro the/ and in their hertes turned backe agayne into Egypte/ sayinge vnto Aarō: * make vs Godd/ to go before vs. For this Moses brought vs out of the lande of Egypte/ we wote not wat is become of hym. And they made a calfe in those dayes/ & offered sacryfice vnto the ymage/ & reioysed in the workes of their awne handes.

Then God turned hym selfe & gaue them by that they shulde worshyp the starres of the skye/ as it is wrytten in the boke of the Prophetes. * Ye of the house of Israel/ gaue ye to me sacryfices & meateofferynges by the space of xl. yeares in the wylernes: And ye toke vnto you the tabernacle of Moloch/ & the starre of your God Remphan/ figures whych ye made to worshyppe the. And I will translate you beyonde Babylon.

Our fathers had the tabernacle of witnes in the wylernes/ as he had apoynted them speakinge vnto Moses/ that he shuld make it accordynge to the fassyon that he had sene. Which tabernacle our fathers receaued/ & brought it in with Iosue into the possession of the Gentyls whych God draue out before the face of our fathers vnto the tyme of Dauid. Whych founde fauour before God/ & wolde sayne haue made a tabernacle for the God of Jacob. But Salomon bylt him an house.

Now be it he that is hys selfe of all/ dwelleth not in temples made with handes/ as sayth the Prophet: heauē is my seate/ & erth is my fote stole/ what house will ye bylde for me sayth the Lorde: or what place is it that I shulde rest in hath not my hande made all these thinges?

Ye stiffnecked & of bncircumcised hertes and eares: ye haue all wayes resysted the holy goost: as poure fathers dyd/ so do ye. Whych of the Prophetes haue not poure fathers persecuted? And they haue slayne them/ whych shewed before of the comminge of that Iust/ whom ye haue now betrayed and mozdred.

And ye also haue receaued a lawe by the ordinaunce of Angells/ and haue not kept it.

When they hearde these thynges/ their hertes claue a sunder and they gnashed on him with their tethe. But he beinge full of the holy goost/ looked by stedfastlie with his eyes into heauen/ and sawe the glorie of God/ and Jesus standynge on the ryght hande of God and sayde: beholde/ I se the heuens open/ and the sonne of man standynge on the ryght hande of God. Then they gaue a shout with a loude voyce/ and stopped their eares & rāne vpon him all at once/ and cast him out of the citie/ & stoned hym. And the wytnesses layde doune their clothes at a yonge manes fete named Saul. And they stoned Steuen callinge on & sayinge: Lorde Jesu receaue my sprete. And he kneeled doune and cryed with a loude voyce: Lorde laye not this synne to their charge. And when he had thus spoken/ he fell a slepe.

Saul persecuted the Christen/ The Apostles are scatred abrode. Philip cometh in to Samaria. Simon magus is baptysed/ he dyssembleth. Philip baptyseth the chamberlayne.

The viij. Chapter.

Saul had pleasure in his deeth. And at that tyme ther was a great persecucion agaynst the congregacyō whych was at Ierusalē/ and they were all scatred abrode thowout the regyōs of Iury & Samaria/ except the Apostles. Then deuout men dressed Steuen/ & made great lamētaciō ouer him. But Saul made hauocke of the congregaciō/ and entred into euery house & drew out bothe man & womā & thrust the into prison. Howbeit they that were scatred abrode/ went euery where preachinge the worde. Then came Philip into a citie of Samaria/ & preached Christ vnto them. And the people gaue hede vnto those thinges whych Philip spake/ with one acorde in that they hearde and sawe the myracles whych he dyd/ for vnclene spretes cryinge w loude voyce/ came out of many & were possessed of the. And many taken with palsy/ and many that halited/ were healed. And ther was greute ioye in that citie. And ther was a certayne mā called Simon/ which before tyme in the same citie/ bled wichecraftes & bewitched the people of Samarie/ sayinge that he was a man that coude do greute thynges. Whom they regarded/ fro the lest to the greatest/ sayinge: this felow is the great power of God. And hym they set moche by/ because of longe tyme he had mocked them with sorcery. But asone as they beleued Philip's preachinge of the kyngdome of God & of the name of Jesu Christ/ they were baptysed bothe the men and women. Then Simon him selfe beleued beleued also/ and was baptysed/ & continued with Philip/ & wondred beholdinge the myracles and signes/ which were shewed.

When the Apostles which were at Ierusalem hearde saye that Samaria had receaued the worde of God: they sent vnto the Peter & John. Whych when they were come/ prayed for the that they might receaue the holy goost.

For as yet he was come on none of the: but they were baptysed only in the name of Christ Jesu. Then layde they their handes on them/ and they receaued the holy goost.

When Simon sawe/ that thowout layinge on of the Apostles handes on them/ the holy goost was geue: he offered the money sayinge: geue me also this power/ that on whom soeuer I put the handes/ he maye receaue the holy goost.

Then layde Peter vnto hym: thy money perissheth with the/ because thou wenest that the gifte of God maye be obtayned with money. Thou hast nether parte nor fellowe in the thynge: thyne in this busynes. For thy hert is not raight in the syght of God. Repent therfore of this thy wickednes/ & praye God that the thought of thyne hert maye be forgiven the. For I perceaue that thou arte full of bitter gall/ and wapped in inquite.

Then answered Simon & sayd: praye ye to the Lorde for me/ that none of these thynges whych ye haue spoken/ fall on me. And they whē they had testified & preached the worde of the Lord returned toward Ierusalē & preached the gospell in many cities of Samarias.

Then the Angel of the Lorde spake vnto Philip sayinge: arys & go towarde midde daye vnto the waye that goeth doune from Ierusalem vnto Gaza which is in the desert. And he arose and wēt on. And beholde a man of ethiopia which was a chamberlayne/ and of greute auctozite wyth Candace quene of the ethiophians/ and had the rule of all her treasure/ came to Ierusalē for to praye. And as he returned home agayne syttinge in his charet/ he rede the prophete.

Then the sprete sayde vnto Philip: go neare & ioynne thy selfe to yonder charet. And Philip rāne to him/ & hearde him rede the prophete Elayas/ & sayde: vnderstandest thou what thou redest? And he sayd: how can I/ except I had a gyde? And he desyred Philip that he wold come by & sit with him. The tenoure of the scripture which he redde was this. He was ledde as a shepe to be slayne: & lyke a lambe dome before his shearer/ so opened he not his mouth. * Because of his humblenes/ he was not esteemed: who shal declare his generaciō? for his lyfe is taken fro the erthe. The chamberlayne answered Philip & sayde: I praye the/ of whom speaketh the prophete this: of him selfe/ or of some other man?

And Philip opened his mouth/ & beganne to saye at the same scripture/ & preached vnto hym Jesus. And as they went on the waye/ they came vnto a certayne water/ & the chamberlayne sayde: Se here is water/ what shall I let me to be baptysed? Philip sayde vnto him: if thou beleue with all thyne hert/ thou mayst. He answered and sayde: I beleue that Jesus Christ is the sonne of God. And he commaunded the charet to stande still. And they went doune bothe into the water: bothe Philip and also the chamberlayne/ and he baptysed him. And asone as they were come out of the water/ the sprete of the Lorde caught away Philip/ that the chamberlayne sawe him no moore. And he wēt on his waye reioysing: but Philip was founde at Azotus. And he walked thowout the countre preachinge in their cities/ tyll he came to Cesarea.

The ix. Chapter.

Saul yet brythinge out thzeat ninges & slaughter agaynst the disciples of the Lorde/ went on to the hye prieste/ & desyred of hym lettres to Damasco to synagoges: that yf he founde eny of thys waye whether they were men or women/ he myght bringe the bounde vnto Ierusalē. But as he ioyned & was come nye to Damasco/ sodēly their shyned round about hym a lyght fro heauē/ & he fell to the erth/ & hearde a voyce sayinge to him: * Saul/ Saul why persecutest thou me? And he sayd: what arte thou Lorde? And the Lorde sayd: I am Jesus whō thou persecutest/ it shalbe harde for the to kyche agaynst the prycke. And he bothe trēblinge & astonyed sayde: Lord what wilt thou haue me to do? And the Lorde sayd vnto him: arys & go into the citie/ & it shalbe tolde the what thou shalt do.

The men whych ioyned with him/ stode amazed/ for they hearde a voyce/ but sawe no man. And Saul arose from the erth/ & opened hys eyes/ but sawe no man. Then ledde they him by the hande/ and brought him into Damasco. And he was. iij. dayes wout sight & netherate nor dranke. And ther was a certayne discipule at Damasco named Ananias and to him sayde the Lorde in a visyon: Ananias: And he sayde: beholde I am here Lorde. And the Lorde sayde vnto him: arys & go into the strete whych is called strayght/ and seke in the house of Judas/ after one called Saul of Tharsus. For beholde he prayeth/ & hath sene in a visyon a man named Ananias comminge into him/ and puttinge his handes on him/ that he myght receaue his syght.

Then Ananias answered: Lorde/ I haue hearde by many of this mā/ how moche euyl he hath Cneas.

And he arose immediately. And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron/ save hym/ and tour-ned to the Lorde.
There was at Joppa a certayne woman (whiche was a dysciple named Tabitha/which by interpretacio is called Dorcas) the same was full of good workes & almes dedes/which she did. And it chauned in those dayes that she was sycke and dyed. When they had washed her and layd her in a chamber/ because Lydda was nye to Joppa/ & the disciples had hearde that Peter was there/ they sent vnto him/ bespynging him that he wolde not be gre-ued to come vnto them.
Peter arose & came with them. And when he was come/ they brought him in to the chaber. And all the widowes stode round about him weping & shewing the cotes & garnites which Dorcas made whill she was with the. And Peter put the all forth & kneled doune & prayde & turned him to the body & sayde: Tabitha/ arise. And he opened her eyes/ and when she sawe Peter/ sat vp. And he gaue her the hande & lyft her vp/ & called the saintes & wy-dowes/ & shewed her all. And it was knowne thorowout all Joppa/ & many beleued on the Lorde. And it fortuned that he tarped many dayes in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.
The vision that Peter sawe. How he was sent to Cornelius. The he then also receaue the spyrte/ and are baptysed.
The x. Chapter.
There was a certayne man in Cesarea called Cornelius/ a captayne of the souldiers of Italy/ a deuoute man/ & a one that feared God with all his householde/ whych gaue moche almes to the people/ and prayde God alwaye. The same sawe in a vision euidently aboute the nyghte houre of the daye/ an Angell of God cominge into him/ and sayinge vnto hym: Cornelius.
When he looked on him/ he was afrayde & sayd what is it lorde? He sayde vnto hym: a * Thy prayers & thy almes are come vp into re-membraunce before God. And now sende me to Joppa/ & call for one Simon named also Peter. He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner whose house is by the see syde. He shall tell the what thou oughtest to do. When the Angell which spake vnto Cornelius/ was departed/ he called two of his householde seruantes and a deuoute souldier of them that wayted on hym/ and tolde them all the mater/ and sent them to Joppa.
On the morowe as they went on their journey & drew nye vnto the cite/ Peter went vp vnto the toppe of the house to praye/ about the vi. houre. Then waxed he an hongred/ & wolde haue eat. But whyll they made redy. He fell into a trance/ and sawe heauen opened and a him agayne the secōde tyme: what God hath done thysle/ and the bestell was receaued by agayne into heauen.

While Peter mused in him selfe what this visyon which he had sene meāt: beholde/ the men whych were sent from Cornelius/ had made inquirace for Simons house/ & stode before the doze. And called out one and asked whether Simon which was also called Peter were lodged there. Whyll Peter thought on this vision/ the spyrte sayde vnto him: be-holde/ me seke the: aryle therfore/ get the doune & go with them/ & doute not: for I haue sent them. Peter went doune to the men whych were sent vnto him from Cornelius/ and sayde: Beholde/ I am he whom ye seke/ what is the cause wherfore ye are come? And they sayde vnto him: Cornelius the captayne/ a iust mā/and one that feareth God/ and of good repose amonge all the people of the Jewes/ was warned by an holy angell to sende for the into his house/ and to heare wordes of the. Then called he them in/ and lodged them.
And on the morowe Peter went awaye to them/ and certayne brethren from Joppa accompanied him. And the thyrde daye entred they into Cesaria. And Cornelius wayted for the/and had called to gether his kynsmen/ & speciall frends. And as it chauned Peter to come in/ Cornelius met him/ and fell doune at his feete/ and worshipped hym. But Peter toke him vp sayinge: stande vp: for euyn I my selfe am a man. And as he talked with him he cam in/ & founde many that were comē to gether.
And he sayde vnto them: Ye knowe how that it is an vnlawfull thinge for a man that is a Jewe/ to company or come vnto an aliē: but God hath shewed me that I shulde not call enyn man common or vnclene: therfore came I vnto you without sayinge naye/ allone as I was sent for. I aske therfore/ for what intent haue ye sent for me.
And Cornelius sayde: This daye now. iij.
dayes I fasted & at the nyghte houre I prayde in my house: & beholde/ a mā stode before me in bright clothynge/ & sayde: Cornelius/ thy prayer is hearde & thine almes dedes are had in remembraunce in the syght of God. Sende therfore to Joppa/ & call for Simon whych is also called Peter. He is lodged in the house of one Symon a tanner by the see syde/ the which allone as he is come/ shal speake vnto the. Then sent I for the immediately: & thou hast well done for to come. Now are we all here present before God/ to heare all thinges that are commaunded vnto the of God.

Then Peter opened his mouth & sayde: Of a truerth I perceaue/ that God is not parcial but in all people he that feareth hym & worketh rightewesnes/ is accepted with him.
Ye knowe the preachynge that God sent vnto the chyldre of Israel/ preachynge peace by Iesus Christ/ whych is Lorde ouer all therfore that things: & which preachynge was published thorowoute all Jewye/ and beganne in Ga-lile/ after the baptyme which John preached how God had annoynted Iesus of Nazareth with the holy goost/ and with power. Which Iesus went aboute doynge good/ & healinge all that were oppressed of the deuels/ for God was with hym. And we are witnesses of all thynges whych he dyd in the lande of the Jewes & at Ierusalem: whom they slew/ & honge on tree. Him God resped by the thyrde daye/shewed him openly/ not to all the people/ but vnto vs witness chosen before of God/ whych ate & dronke with him/ after he arose from deeth. & And he commaunded vnto vs to pre-che vnto the people & testifie/ that it is he that is ordened of God a iudge of quych & deed.
To him geue all the Prophetes witness/ that thorow his name/ all that beleue in hym/shall receaue remission of synnes.
Whiche Peter yet spake these wordes/ the holy goost fell on all the which hearde chynge. And they of the circumcysion whych beleued/ were astonied/ as many as came Peter/ because that on the Gentyls also was shed oute the gyfte of holy goost. For they hearde them speake with tonges & magnify God. Then answered Peter: can enyn mā water/ & these shuld not be baptised/ whych haue receaued the holy goost as well as we?
And he commaunded them to be baptysed in the name of the Lorde. & Then prayde they him: to tary a fewe dayes.
Peter sheweth the cause wherfore he wente to the Agabus prophecieth deeth for to come.

The xi. Chapter.
The Apostles & the brethren that were thorowout Jewye heard saye geuenes for the the hepthen had also receaued the worde of God. And when Peter was come by to Ierusalem/ they of the circumcysion reasoned with hym sayinge: Thou wentest into men vncircumcised/ and attest with the in order to the sayynge: I was in the cytof Joppa prayynge/ & in a trance I sawe a vision

vision/a certē befall descende/as it had bene a large lynnyn clothe/let doune fro heuen by the fower corners/a it cam to me. Into the which when I had fastened myne eyes/I considered and sawe fowerfoted beastes of the erth/a bermen and woymes/a fowles of the ayer. And I herde a voyce sayinge vnto me:

Barple Peter/ley & eate. And I sayd: God for? byd Lorde/for nothyng? comen o? vnclene/hath at eny tyme entred into my mouth. But I voyce answered me agayne fro heuē/coūt not thou those thynges comen/whyche God re forbydden by hath clesed. And this was done thze tymes. And all were taken by agayne into heauin.

And beholde immediatly ther were toze mē come vnto the house where I was sent from Cesarea vnto me. And the sprete sayde vnto me/that I shuld go with them/with out doubtyng. Whereouer these sixe bzyethzen accompanied me: & we entred into the mans house. And he shewed vs/ how he had sene an angel in his house/which stode & sayde to him: send me to Joppa/a call for Simon/named also Peter: he shall tell the wordes/ wherby both thou & all thyne house shalbe saued. And as I beganne to preache/ the holy goost fell on them/as he dyd on vs at p beginnyng. Then came to my remembzaunce the wordes of p Lorde/ how he sayde: * John baptised in water but ye shalbe baptised with p holy goost. For as moche then as God gaue them lyke giftes/as he dyd vnto vs/ when we beleued on p Lorde Iesus Chyzt: what was I/ that I shuld haue withstande God? I whē they heard thys/they helde their peace & glorified God/sayinge: then hath God also to the Gentylis graunted repentance vnto lyfe.

John. i. d.

They which were scattyrd ab? oade thozow the affliction that arose aboute Steuē/walhed thozow oute tyll they came vnto Phenice and Cypers & Antioche preachynge the word: vnto no man/ but vnto p Jewes only. Some of them were men of Cypers and Syrene/ whych when they were come into Antioche/ spake vnto the Grekes/ and preched p Lorde Iesus. And the hande of the Lorde was with them/ and a greates nombze beleued & turned vnto the Lorde.

Cydinges of these thynges came vnto the eares of the congregaciō/ whych was in Jerusalem. And they sent forth Barnabas that he shuld go vnto Antioche. Whych when he was come and had sene p grace of God/ was glad/ and exhorted thē all/ that with purpose of hert/ they wolde continually cleaue vnto the Lorde. For he was a good man/ and full of the holy goost & of saythe: & moche people was added vnto the Lorde. Then departed Barnabas to Tarfus/ for to seke Saul. And when he had founde hym/ he brought hym vnto Antioche. And it chaunced that a whole yere they had ther conuersacion with the congregacion there/ and taught moche people: in so moche that p disciples of Antioche were the fyrst that were called Chyristen.

* In those dayes came Prophetes fro Je. rusalem vnto Antioche. And ther stode by one of them named Agabus/ and signified by the sprete/ that ther shuld be great derth thzoughoute all the world/ whych came to passe in the Emproure Claudius dayes. Then the disciples euery man accordyng to his abylyte/ purposed to sende socoure vnto the bzyethzen whych dwelt in Jewry. Whych thyng they also dyd/ & sent it to the elders/ by the handes of Barnabas and Saul.

Herode persecuteth the Chyristen / Killeth James putteth Peter in prison/ whom the Lorde deliuereth by an Angell. The shamefull death of Herode.

The. xii. Chapter.

At that tyme Herode p kynge stred. Iyed forth his had/ to bere certayne of the congregaciō. And he killed James p brother of John with the swerde/ & because he sawe that it pleased the Jewes/ he proceeded forther/ & toke Peter also. Then were the dayes of twete byred. And whē he had caught him/ he put him in prison & deliuered him to. iiii. * quaternions of soldiers to be kepte/ entendinge after ester to bzyng him forth to p people. Then was Peter kepte in prison. But prayer was made w out ceasinge of the congregacion/ vnto God for him. And whē Herode wold haue brought hym oute vnto the people/ the same nyght slepte Peter betwene two soudyers/ bounde with two chaynes/ and the keepers befoze the doze kepte the prison.

And beholde the angell of the Lorde was there present/ and a light shyned in the lodge. And he smote Peter on the syde/ & steryd hym by sayinge: aryse by quickly. And his cheyns fell of from hys handes. And the Angell sayd vnto hym: ggyde thy selfe and bynde on thy * sandales. And so he dyd. And he sayde vnto hym: cast thy mantle aboute the/ and folowe me. And he came oute and folowed hym/ and wist not/ that it was trueth whych was done by p Angell/ but thought he had sene a visio. When they were past the fyrst and the secōde wathe/ they came vnto the yron gate/ that ledeth vnto the cite/ which opened to thē by his awne accorde. And they went out & passed thozowe one strete/ and by and by the Angell departed from hym.

And when Peter was come to hym selfe/ he sayde: now I knowe of a surety/ that the Lorde hath sent his Angell/ & hath deliuered me out of the hande of Herode/ & from all the waytyng waytyng for of p people of the Jewes. & And as he consyded the thyng/ he came to p house of Mary the mother of one * John/ which was called Marke also/ where many were gathered to gether in prayer. As Peter knocked at p entry doze/ a dāsell came forth to herken/ named Rhoda. And whē she knew Peters voyce/ she opened not the entre for gladnes/ but ran in and told how Peter stode befoze p entre. And they sayde vnto her: thou arte mad. And she bare thē doune that it was euen so. Then sayde they: it is his angel. But Peter contynued knockynge: and when they had opened the doze/ & sawe hym/ they were astonyed. And he beckened vnto thē with the hande/ to holde their peace/ and tolde them by what meanes p Lorde had brought him oute of the prison. & And he sayde: go shew these thynges vnto James & to the bzyethzen. And he departed and went into a nother place.

* This John is same Marke that wrote the gospel of Mar

As for as it was daye ther was no lytell a do amōge the soudiers/ what was become of Peter. When Herode had called for him/ and founde him not/ he examined the keepers/ and commaunded thē to departe. And he descended from Jewry to Cesarea/ and ther abode. Herode was displeased with them of Cyre and Sidon. And they came all at once/ and made intercession vnto Blastus the kynes chamberlen/ and desyred peace/ because their cōstrey was noryshed by the kinges lande. And vpon a daye appoynted/ Herode arayed hym in royall apparell/ and set him in his seate/ & made an oracion vnto them. And the people gaue a shoute/ sayinge: it is p boyce of a God and not of a man. And immediatly the angel of p Lorde smote him/ because he gaue not God the honoure/ & he was eaten of woymes & gaue by the goost. And the worde of God grewe & multiplied. And Barnabas & Paul returned to Jerusalem/ whē they had fulfilled their offyce/ & toke with thē John/ which was also called Marcus.

Paul and Barnabas are called to preache amonge p heythens Of Sergius Paulus & Elymas the sorcerer. Paul preacheth at Antioche.

The. xiii. Chapter.

Here were at Antioche/ in the congregacion certayne * Prophetes & teachers: as Barnabas and Simō called Niger/ & Lucius of Cerene and Manahan Herode the Tetrarkes nozfelowe/ and Saul. As they ministered to the Lorde & fasted/ the holy goost sayde: separate me Barnabas & Saul/ for the worke where vnto I haue called them. Then fasted they & prayed/ and put their handes on them/ & let them go. And they after they were sent of the holy goost/ came vnto Seleucia/ and from thence they sayled to Cypus. And when they were come to Solamine/ they shewed the worde of God in the synagoges of p Jewes. And they had John to their minister.

When they had gone thozowout p yle vnto the cite of Paphos/ they founde a certayne sorcerer/ a false prophet which was a Jewe/ named * Bariesu/ which was with p ruler of the cōtre one Sergius Paulus a prudent man. The same ruler called vnto hym Barnabas and Saul/ & desyred to heare the worde of God. But Elymas the sorcerer (for so was his name by interpretaciō) withstode thē/ & sought to turne away the ruler from the sayth. Then Saul * which also is called Paul beyng full of p holy goost set his eyes on hym/ & sayde: O full of all subtiltye & deysyfulnes/ the chyld of the deuyll/ & p enemye of all ryghteousnes/ thou cease not to peruert the strayght wayes of the Lorde. And nowe beholde the hande of the Lorde is vpon p people with all maynges/ thē to iudge p they rather talke w God then w p deuell. And Eli was was hys name by interpretaciō sayth. When they that were with Paule/ were departed by shippe fro Paphus/ they came to Perga a cite of Pamphilia: and there John departed from them/ and returned to Jerusalem. But they wandred thozowe the cōntres fro Perga to Antioche a cite of the cōstrey of Bilisoria/ and wēt into the synagoge on the Saboth daye and late doune. And after the lawe and the Prophetes were redde/ the rulers of the synagoge sent vnto thē sayinge: Ye men and bzyethzen/ yf ye haue eny sermon to exhorte the people/ laye on.

And Eli was was hys name by interpretaciō sayth.

Then Paul stode by and beckened with the hande/ & sayde: Men of Israell/ & ye that feare God/ geue audience. The God of thys people chole oure fathers/ and exalted the people when they dwelt as straungers in the lande of Egypt/ and with a myghty arme brought them oute of it/ and about the tyme of xl. yeares suffred he their maners in the myldernes. Of this maners seed hath God (accordyng to hys

G. iiii. to hys

to hys promes) brought forth to the people of Israel/a saviour/one Jesus/when John had first preached before his comynge by baptisme of repentance to Israel. And whē John had fulfilled hys course/he sayde: whome ye thinke that I am/the same am I not. But he holde ther cometh one after me/whose shew of his fete I am not worthy to lowse.

¶ Ye men & brethren/children of the generation of Abraham/& whosoever amonge you feareth God/to you is this worde of saluacyō sent. The inhabitants of Ierusalem and their rulers/because they knew him not/nor yet prophesies of prophetes whych are redde euery Saboth daye/they haue fulfilled the same in condempnyng him. And whē they founde no cause of death in him/they desired they shoulde kill him. And when they had fulfilled all that was written of hym/they toke hym doune fro a tree & put him in a sepulchre. But God rayled hym agayne fro death/& he was sene many dayes of them whych came with hym from Galile to Ierusalem. Whych are his witnesses vnto the people.

And we declare vnto you/how that hys promes made vnto hys fathers/God hath fulfilled vnto vs their chylde/in that he rayled by Jesus agayne. For euen as it is written in the fyrste psalme: Thou arte my sonne/this same daye begat I thee. As concerninge that he rayled hym by from death/nor no more to retorne to corrupcyōn/he sayde on this wyse: The holy promyses made to David/I will geue the faithfully to you. Wherfore he saith also in another place. Thou shalt not suffice thine holpe to se corrupcyōn. Howbeit David after he had in hys tyme fulfilled the wyll of God he slepte/& was layde with his fathers/and sawe corrupcyōn. But he whō God rayled agayne/sawe no corrupcyōn.

¶ Be it knowne vnto you therfore ye men & brethren/that thowow thys man is preached vnto you the forgyuenes of synnes/& that by hym/all that beleue/are iustified fro all thynges from which ye coude not be iustified by the lawe of Moyses. Beware therfore lest ye fall on you/whych is spoken of in prophetes: Beholde ye despylers & wonder/& peryshe ye: for I do a worke in youre dayes/whych ye shal not beleue/ys a mā wolde declare it you.

Whē they were come out of synagoge of the Jewes/the Gentyls besought hys they wolde preache the worde to the betwene the Saboth dayes. When the congregaciō was broken by many of the Jewes and heretous cōuertes folowed Paul & Barnabas/whych spake to them & exhorted them to contynue in the grace of God. And nexte Saboth daye came almoste hys whole cite to gether to heare the worde of God. When the Jewes sawe the people/they were full of indignaciō & spake agaynst those thynges whych were spoken of Paul speakinge agaynst it/& raylinge on it. Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bolde/and sayde: it was mete hys the worde of God shoulde fyrst haue bene preached to you. But seynge ye put it from you/& thinke youre selues better worthy of euerslastinge lyfe: lo/ we turne to the Gentyls: for so hath the Lorde commaunded vs. I haue made the a lyght to the Gentyls/that thou be saltacion vnto hys ende of the worlde.

The gentyls hearde & were glad and glorified the worde of the Lorde/& beleued: euen as many as were ordeyned vnto eternal lyfe. And the worde of the Lorde was published thowowoute all the region. But the Jewes moued the worshipfull and honozable women and the chiefe men of the cite/& reyled persecucion agaynst Paul and Barnabas and expelled the oute of their costes. And they shooke of the duste of their fete agaynst the/ & came vnto Iconium. And the disciples were filled with ioye and with the holy goost. For Paul and Barnabas preach at Iconium/ some beleue/ some sterc by sedycion. At Listra they wolde do sacrifice to Barnabas and Paul/whych refuse it/and exhorte the people to worshippe the true God: Paul is stoned/after that cometh he to Derba/Lystra/Iconium and to Antioche.

The xiiiij. Chapter.

¶ As it fortuned in Iconium hys they went both to gether into synagoge of the Jewes/& so spake/that a gret multitude both of Jewes & also of Grekes beleued. But hys bybeleuinge Jewes/steryd by & iniquitied the myndes of the gentyls agaynst hys brethren. Longe tyme a boode they there & quyt the selues boldly with hys helpe of the Lorde/whych gaue testimony vnto the worde of his grace/& caused signes & wonderes to be done by their handes. The people of the cite were deuyled: and parte helde with the Jewes/and parte with the Apostles.

When ther was a faulte made both of the Gentyls & also of the Jewes with their rulers/to put them to shame and to stone them they were ware of it/& fled vnto Lystra and Derba/cities of Lycaonia/& vnto the region lyeth round aboute/& there preached the Gospel. And ther late a certayne man at Lystra weake in his fete/beinge creple fro his mothers wombe/and neuer walkyd. The same hearde Paul preache. Whych behelde hym & perceaued that he had fayth to be whole/and said with a loude voyce: stand by right on thy fete. And he stert by/and walked. And whē the people sawe/what Paul had done/they lyfte by their voyces/sayinge in the speache of Lycaonia: Goddes are come doune to vs in the lykenes of men. And they called Barnabas Jupiter/& Paul Mercurius/because he was the preacher

Paul & Barnabas. Preacher. Then Jupiter's prieste/which dwelt before their cite/brought oren & garlandes vnto the churche porche/& wolde haue done sacrifice with the people.

¶ But whē the Apostles/Barnabas & Paul herde that/they rent their clothes/and ran amonge the people/cryinge and sayinge: why do ye this? We are mortall men like vnto you/and preache vnto you/that ye shoulde turne from these vanyties vnto the lyuinge God/whych made heauē & earth & the see & all that is in the: the whych in tymes past suffered all nations to walke in their awne wayes. Neuertheless he left not him selfe withoute witness/ in that he shewed hys benefites/ in geuyng by rayne from heauē and frutefull seasons/fylling oure hertes wth fode/& gladnes. And with these saynges/scale refrayned they the people/that they had not done sacrifice vnto them.

Whither came certayne Jewes fro Antioche and Iconium/& obtayned the peoples consent/a stoned Paul/and drew hym out of the cite/suppoyng he had bene deed. Howbeit as the disciples stode rounde about him he arose by and came into the cite. And hys nexte daye he departed with Barnabas to Derba. After they had preached to that cite/and had taught many/they returned agayne to Lystra/& to Iconium & Antioche/& strengthened the disciples soules/exhortyng them to contynue in the fayth/affirminge that we must thowow moche tribulacyōn/entre into the kynngdome of God. And they ordeyned them elders by election in euery congregaciōn/and prayde and fasted/and commended the to God on whom they beleued. And they went thowow out Pisidia & came to Pamphilia/and when they had preached the worde of God in Perga/they descended in to Attalia/& thence departed by shippe to Antioche/ from whence they were deliuered vnto the grace of God/to the worke whych they had fulfilled. Whē they were come & had gathered the congregaciōn to gether/they rehersed all that God had done by them/& how he had opened the doore of fayth vnto the Gentyls. And there they abode longe tyme with the disciples.

¶ The xv. Chapter. When came certayne from Jewes/and taught the brethren. Excepte ye be circumcysed after the maner of Moyses/ye cannot be saued. And when ther was rylen dissencion & disputyng not a lyttel vnto Paul & Barnabas agaynst them. They determined that Paul and Barnabas/and certayne other of them shuld ascende to Ierusalem vnto the Apostles & elders aboute thys questyon. And after they were brought on their waye by the congregaciōn/they passed ouer Phenices & Samaria/declaringe the conuersion of the Gentyls/and they brought great ioye vnto all the brethren. And when they were come to Ierusalem/they were receaued of the congregaciōn and of the Apostles and elders. And they declared what thynges God had done by the. Then rose by certayne of the secte of the Pharises/whych byd beleue/saying/that it was nedfull to circumcysle them and to entoyne them to kepe the lawe of Moyses. And the Apostles & elders came to gether to reason of this matter.

And whē ther was moche disputyng/Peter rose by & sayd vnto the: Ye men & brethren/ye knowe how that a good whyle agoo/God chose amonge vs hys the Gentyls by my mouth shuld heare the worde of the Gospel and beleue. And God whych knoweth the hert/bare them witness/and gaue vnto them the holy goost/euen as he dyd vnto vs and he put no difference betwene the & vs/ but with fayth & purified their hertes. Now therfore why tempt ye God/that ye wolde put a yoke on the disciples neckes/whych neither oure fathers nor we were able to beare. But we beleue that thowow the grace of the Lorde Jesus Christ/we shalbe saued/as they do. When all the multitude was peased and gaue audience to Barnabas and Paul/whych tolde what signes and wonderes God had shewed amonge the Gentyls by them.

And whē they helde their peace James answered sayinge: Men & brethren/herken vnto me. Simeon tolde how God at the beginning dyd visite the Gentyls/& receaued of the people vnto his name. And to this agreyth the word of the prophetes/as it is writte. After this I will retorne/& I will byde agayne/the tabernacle of David which is fallen doune/and I will byde agayne/and I will set it by/that the residue of men myght seeke after the Lorde/& also the Gentyls. By whō my name is named sayth the Lorde/whych doth all these thynges: knowe vnto God are all his workes fro the beginning of the worlde. Wherfore my sentence is/that we trouble not the which fro amonge the Gentyls/are turned to God: but hys we wyte vnto the/that they absteyne the selues from filthynges of ymagines from fornicaciōn/ from strangelyd & fro bloude. For Moyses of olde tyme hath in euery cite that preache him/that he is rede in synagogs euery Saboth daye.

Then pleased it the Apostles & elders the whole congregaciōn/to sende chosen men of their awne company to Antioche wth Paul and Barnabas. They sent Judas called also Barsabas/& Syllas/whych were chiefe men amonge amonge the bʒethʒen/and gaue them letters in their handes after this maner.

The Apostles/elders & bʒethʒen send gretynges vnto the bʒethʒen which are of ʒ Genetys in Antioche/Syria and Cylicia. For as moche as we haue hearde ʒ certayne whych departed from vs / haue troubled you wʒth wordes/and combʒed poure myndes saying: Ye must be circumcysed and kepe the lawe/ to whom we gaue no soche cōmaundement. It seemed therfore to vs a good thinge/ when we were come to gether with one accorde/ to sende cholen men vnto you / wʒ our beloued Barnabas and Paul/ men that haue reoparaded their lyues for the name of oure Lorde Jesu Chʒist. We haue sent therfore Judas and Silas/ which shall also tell you ʒ same thynges by mouth. For it seemed good to the holy goost & to vs/ to put no greuous thyng to you/ moze then these necessary thynges: ʒ is to saye/ that ye abstayne from thynges offered to ymages/ from bloud/ from stragled and fornicacion. Fro which ye kepe poure selues/ ye shall do well. So fare ye well.

¶ When they were departed/they cam to Antioche and gathered ʒ multitude to gether/ & deliuered the pistle. When they had rede it/ they reioysed of that consolacion. And Judas & Syllas beinge ʒ prophetes/ exhorted ʒ bʒethʒen with moche preaching/ and strengthened the. And after they had tarped there a space/ they were let go in peace of the bʒethʒen vnto the Apostles. Not wʒthstandyng it pleased Syllas to abyde there styll. Paul & Barnabas continued in Antioche teaching & preaching ʒ worde of ʒ Lorde with other many.

But after a certayne space/ Paul sayd vnto Barnabas: Let vs go agayne and bysite oure bʒethʒen in euery cytie where we haue shewed ʒ worde of ʒ Lorde/ & se how they do.

¶ And Barnabas gaue counsell to take wʒth them John/ called also Marke. But Paul thought it not mete to take hym vnto their cōpany which departed from the at Pamphilia/ & went not with the to the worke. And the diffencion was so sharpe betwene them/ ʒ they departed a sūder one from the other/ so ʒ Barnabas toke Marke and sayled vnto Cyprus. And Paul chose Syllas & departed/ deliuered of the bʒethʒen vnto the grace of God. And he went thowoe all Cyria and Cylicia/ stablishyng the conregacions.

¶ Timothy is circumcysed. Paul preacheth at Philippi/ and ther is he put in pʒeson.

The .xvi. Chapter.

¶ When cam he to Berba & to Lystra. And beholde a certayne discypple was there named Timothy / a woman's sonne which was a Jewe: ʒ he was beleued: but his father was a Greke. Of whom reported well/ the bʒethʒen of Lystra & of Iconium. The same Paul wolde that he shuld go forth with him/ and toke & circumcised him because of the Jewes whych were in those quarters: for they knewe all/ ʒ his father was a Greke. As they went thowoe the cyties/ they deliuered the ʒ decrees for to kepe / ordeyned of the Apostles and elders/ whych were at Jerusalem. And so were the congregacions stablished in the sayth / and encreased in nūmbe dayly.

¶ When they had gone thowoe Phrygia/ & the region of Galacia/ and were forbydden of the holy goost to preach the worde in Asia/ they came to Mysia/ & sought to go into Bithynia. But the spʒete forbad the. Then they went ouer Mysia/ and came doune to Troada. And a vision appered to Paul in ʒ nyght. There stode a man of Macedonia and prayed him/ sayig: come in to Macedonia & helpe vs. After he had sene the vision/ immediately we prepared to go in to Macedonia/ certified ʒ the Lorde had called vs/ for to preach the ʒ gospell vnto the. Then toloued we forth fro Troada/ & with a straght course cam to Samothracia/ & ʒ nexte daye to Neapolim/ & fro thence to Philippi/ which is ʒ chiefe cytie in ʒ partes of Macedonia/ & a fre cytie.

¶ We were in that cytie abyding a certayne dayes. And on ʒ Saboth dayes we wēt out of the cytie besydes a ryuer where men were wont to praye. And we sate doune and spake vnto the women which resorted thither. And a certayne woman named Lydia a seller of purple/ of the cytie of Thyatira/ which worshipped God/ gaue vs audience. Whose hert the Lorde opened that she attended vnto the thynges/ which Paul spake. When she was baptised and her household/ she besought vs saying: If ye thinke ʒ I beleue on ʒ Lorde/ come into my house/ & abyde there. And she constrained vs.

¶ And it fortuned as we went to praye/ & a certayn damsell possessed with a spʒete that prophesied/ met vs/ which brought her master & maistres moche bauntage in prophesyinge. The same folowed Paul and vs and cryed saying: these men are the seruantes of the most hye God/ which shewe vnto vs ʒ waye of saluacyon. And this dyd she many dayes. But Paul not content/ turned about and sayde to the spʒete. I commaunde the in the name of Jesu Chʒist/ that thou come out of her. And he came out the same houre.

¶ And when her master and maistres sawe that ʒ hope of their gaynes was gone/ they caught Paul and Syllas / and dʒue the into the market place vnto the rulers/ & brought the to the officers saying: these men trouble oure cytie/ which are Jewes & preach ordinaunces/naunces/ which are not laudfull for vs to receaue/ neither to obserue/ seinge we are Romayns. And ʒ people ranne on the/ & the officers rent their clothes/ & cōmaunded the to be beatē wʒ rodde. And when they had beatē them soze/ they cast the into pʒeson/ cōmaundyng the sayler to kepe them surely. Which sayler when he had receaued suche cōmaundement/ thrust them into the ynnier pʒeson/ & made their fete fast in the stocks.

¶ At mydnyght Paul & Syllas prayed/ and lauded God. And the pʒesoners heard them. And sodenly ther was a greates earthquake/ so that the foundacion of ʒ pʒeson was shaken/ & by & by all ʒ dozes opened/ & euery mānes bandes were lowsed. When the keeper of the pʒeson waked out of his slepe & sawe the pʒeson dozes open he dʒue oute his swearde and wolde haue kyllid him selfe/ supposyng the pʒesoners had bene fledde. But Paul cried wʒ a loud voice saying: do thy selfe no harme/ for we are all heare. Then he called for a light and sprange in and cam tremblyng/ & fell doune before Paul & Syllas/ & brought the oute & sayde: Syllas what must I do to be saued? And they sayde: beleue on the Lorde Jesus & thou shalt be saued & thy household. And they preached vnto him the worde of the Lorde/ & to all that were in his house. And he toke the same houre of the nyght & washed their woundes/ & was baptised with all ʒ belonged vnto him straight waye. When he had brought the into his house/ he set meate before them / and ioyed that he with all his household/ beleued on God.

¶ And when it was daye/ the officers sent ʒ ministers sayig: let those men go. The keeper of the pʒeson tolde this sayinge to Paul/ the officers haue sent worde to lowse you. Now therfore get you hēce and go in peace. Then sayd Paul vnto the: they haue beatē vs openly vncōdēpned/ for all ʒ we are Romayns/ & haue cast vs into pʒeson: & now wolde they sende vs awaye pʒeuelly? Naye not so/ but let the come: the selues & fet vs out. When ʒ ministers tolde these wordes vnto ʒ officers/ they feared when they hearde that they were Romayns/ & cam & besought the / and brought the out/ and desyred them to departe out of ʒ cytie. And they went out of ʒ pʒeson & entred into ʒ house of Lydia/ & when they had sene the bʒethʒen/ they cōforted them & departed.

¶ Paul cometh to Thessalonica/ where the Jewes set the cytie on a roze. Paul escapeth/ & cometh to Athens/ where he preacheth the true & unknowne God.

The .xvii. Chapter.

¶ They made their forney thowoe Amphipolis/ and Appolonia/ they cam to Thessalonica where was a Synagoge of the Jewes. And

Paul as his maner was went in vnto them/ & the Saboth dayes declared out of the scripture vnto them/ & openyng & allegyng that Chʒist must nedes haue suffered and risen agayne from deeth / and that this Jesus was Chʒist/ whom (sayd he) I preache to you. And some of them beleued & cam and companyed with Paul and Syllas: also of the honourable Grekes a greates multitude & of ʒ chiefe women/ not a fewe.

¶ But ʒ Jewes which beleued not hauyng indignaciō/ toke vnto them euill men which were bagabondes/ & gathered a company/ & set all the cytie on a roze / and made assaut vnto the house of Jason/ & sought to bʒyng the out to the people. But when they founde them not/ they dʒue Jason and certayne bʒethʒen vnto the heedes of ʒ citie crying: these that trouble the worlde are come hydder al/ to which Jason hath receaued pʒeuelly. And these all do contrary to the decrees of Cesar/ affirmyng another kyng/ one Jesus. And they troubled the people & the officers of the cytie / when they hearde these thynges. And when they were sufficiently answered of Jason & of the other/ they let them go.

¶ And the bʒethʒen immediately sent awaye Paul and Syllas by nyght vnto Berrea. Which when they were come thither/ they entred in to the Synagoge of the Jewes. These were the noblest of by the amonge the of Thessalonica / which receaued the worde wʒth all diligence of mynde / and searched the scriptures dayly whether those thynges were euen so. And many of them beleued: also of woʒthyfull women whych were Grekes/ and of men not a fewe. When the Jewes of Thessalonica had knowledge that ʒ worde of God was preached of Paul at Berrea/ they came and moued the people there. And then by and by the bʒethʒen sent awaye Paul to go as it were to the see: but Syllas & Timothy abode there styll. And they that gathered Paul/ brought him vnto Athens/ and receaued a cōmaundement vnto Syllas & Timothy for to come to him at once & came their waye. When Paul wayted for the at Athens/ his spʒete was moued in him / to se the cytie geuen to woʒshipping of ymages. When he disputed in the synagoge wʒ the Jewes/ & wʒ ʒ deuout personnes/ and in the market dayly with them that came vnto hym. Certayne Philosophers of the Epicures and of the Stoicks/ disputed with him. And some ther were which sayd: what will this babler saye? Other sayde: he seemeth to be a tydynges bringer of newe deuils/ because he preached vnto them Jesus & the resurrecciō. And they toke hym/ & brought hym into Marce stete sayinge: maye we not knowe what this new doctrine

Paul stode in the myddes of Marce strete & sayde: ye men of Athens / perceaue that in all thinges ye are to superstitious. Paul preacheth at Corinthum / contynuing there nyere and a half / goeth agayne into Syria / cometh to Ephesus / Cesarea and Antioche. Of Apollos / Aquila and Priscilla.

The xiiii. Chapter.

After that Paul departed from Athens & came to Corinth / & founde a certayne Jewe named Aquila borne in Pontus / lately come fro Italie with his wyfe Priscilla / because that the Emperour Claudius had comaunded all Jewes to departe from Rome / & he bytwe vnto the. And because he was of y same crafte / he abode with them & wrought: their crafte was to make tentes. And he preached in the synagoge euery Saboth daye / & exhorted y Jewes and the gentyls.

When Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia / Paul was constrained by the sprete to testifie to the Jewes that Iesus was very Christ. And when they sayde contrary & blasphemed / he shoke his rayment and sayde vnto the: your bloud vpon your awne heeddes / & from hence forth I go blamelesse vnto the gentyls. And he departed thence / & entred into a certayne mannes house named Justus a worshipper of God / whose house ioyned hard to the synagoge. Now beit one Crispus the chiefe ruler of the synagoge beleued on the Lorde wyth all his household / & many of the Corinthians gaue audiere / & he beleued and were baptised.

Then spake the Lorde to Paul in the nyght by a visyon: be not afrayde / but speake / and holde not thy peace: for I am with the / & no mā shall inuade the that shall hurte the. For I haue moche people in this cite. And he continued there a yere and fyre monethes / and taught them the worde of God.

When Gallio was ruler of the countre of Achaia the Jewes made insurreccion vnto one accorde agaynst Paul / & brought him to the iudgement seate / sayng: this fellow counceleth men to worshipp God contrary to y lawe. And as Paul was about to open his mouth / Gallio sayde vnto the Jewes: yf it were a matter of wronge / or an euill dede / we Jewes) reason wold that I shulde heare you: but yf it be a question of word / or of names / or of your lawe / loke ye to it your selues. For I wyl be no iudge in soche matters / & he draue the fro the seate. Then toke all the Grekes softenes y chiefe ruler of the synagoge / & smote him befoze y iudges seate. And Gallio cared for none of those thynges.

Paul after this / taried there yet a good whyle / & then toke his leaue of the bzyth / & sayled thence into Ciria / Priscilla & Aquila accompanying him. And he shoke his heed in Cenchres / for he had a bowe. And he came to Ephesus & leste them there: but he hym selfe entred into the synagoge / and reasoned w the Jewes. When they despyed hym to tary longer tyme with them / he consented not / but bad them fare well sayng. I must nedes at this feast that cometh / be in Jerusalem: but I will retorne agayne vnto you / yf God will. And he departed from Ephesus & came vnto Cesarea: & ascended and saluted the congregacion / & departed vnto Antioche / & whē he had taried there a whyle he departed. And went ouer all the countre of Galacia and Phrygia by order / strengthinge all the disciples.

And a certayne Jewe named Apollos / borne borne at Alexandria / came to Ephesus / an eloquent mā / and myghty in the scriptures. The same was informed in the waye of the Lorde / & he spake feruently in the synete / & taught diligently the thynges of y Lorde / & knewe but the baptisme of John only. And the same begā to speake boldly in the synagoge. And when Aquila and Priscilla had heard him / they toke him vnto the & exposted vnto him y waye of God moze perfectly.

And whē he was disposed to go into Achaia / the bzythen wrote exhortynge the discyples to receaue him. After he was come thither / he holpe them moche which had beleued thom grace. And myghtely he ouercame the Jewes / and that openly / shewing by the scriptures that Iesus was Christ.

Of the xii. men whom Paul baptised at Ephesus / and what miracles were done by him. Demetrius moueth sedicion in the cytie.

The xix. Chapter.

Fortuned whyll Apollos was at Corinthum / that Paul passed thow the vpper costes and came to Ephesus / & founde certayne discyples / & sayde vnto the: haue ye receaued the holy goost fence ye beleued? And they sayde vnto hym: no we haue not heard whether ther be eny holy goost or no. And he sayde vnto the: wherwith were ye then baptised? And they sayd: with Johns baptyme. Then sayd Paul: John verely baptised with the baptim of repentance / sayng vnto the people that they shuld beleue on him / which shuld come after him: that is on Christ Iesus. Whē they heard that / they were baptised in the name of the Lorde Iesu. And Paul sayde his hādes vpon them / & the holy goost came on them / & they spake with tonges / and prophesied / and all the men were about. xii.

a* With this baptisme. The difference betwene Johns baptyme of penitence / & y apo- stles was only that John filled the to with christ / he was for to give the the giftes of the holy spirit. The difference betwene the two was that John was for to prepare the waye / & the apostles were for to bringe in the kyngdom of God. I. When dy- uers wered harde herted & beleued not / but spake euill of the waye / and that befoze the multitude: he departed from the / and sepe- rated the discyples. And he disputed dayly in y scole of one called Tyrannus. And this contynued by the space of two yeaues: so that all they which dwelt in Asia / heard the worde of the Lorde Iesu / bothe Jewes & Grekes. And God wrought no small myzacles by the handes of Paul: so that from his body / were brought vnto y sicke / naphyns or partelett / and the diseases departed from them / and the euill spretes went out of them.

Then certayne of the bagabounde Jewes exorcistes / toke vpon them to call ouer them which had euill spretes / the name of y Lorde Iesus sayng: We adiuere you by Iesu who Paul preacheth. And ther were sent somes of one Sceua a Jewe and chiefe of y prestes which dōd so. And the euill sprete answered & sayde: Iesus I knowe & Paul I know: but who are ye? And the man in whome the euill sprete was / ranne on them / & ouercame the / and preuayled agaynst them / so y they fledde out of that house naked & wounded. And this was knowne to all the Jewes & Grekes also / which dwelt at Ephesus and feare came on them all / and they magnified the name of the Lorde Iesus.

And many that beleued / can & confessed & shewed their wozeches. Many of the which bled curious craftes / brought their bohes & burned them befoze all men / & they counted the pryce of them / & founde it ffty thousand syluerlynges. So mightely grewe y worde of God / and preuayled. After these thynges were ended / Paul purposed in the spete / to passe ouer Macedonia & Achaia / & to go to Jerusalem sayng: After I haue bene there / I must also se Rome. So sent he into Macedonia two of the that mynistred vnto hym Timotheus and Crastus: but he him selfe remained in Asia for a season.

* These spretes whych we now and then call pen- ce / the Jewe call cycles / and are worth. x. d. pence. sterlyng the pece.

The same tyme ther arose no lytell adou- aboute that waye. For a certayne mā named Demetrius / a syluer smyth / which made syluer schrynes for Diana / was not a lytell beneficiall vnto the craftes men. Which he cal- led together w the workemen of lyke occupa- cio / & sayd: Syys / ye knowe y by this crafte we haue bauntage. Mozeouer ye se & heare y not alone at Ephesus / but all most thow out all Asia / this Paul hath perswaded & tur- ned awaye moche people sayng y they be not goddes which are made with hādes. So y not only this oure crafte cometh into pa- rell to be set at nought: but also that y temple of the greates Goddas Diana shulde be despyled / and her magnificence shulde be destroyed / which all Asia and the worlde wor- shippeth.

When they hearde these saynges / they were full of wrath / and cryed out sayng: Greate is Diana of the Ephesians. And all y cite was on a rooze / & they rushed into the comen hall with one assent / & caught Gayus and Aristarcus / men of Macedonia / Pauls companions. When Paul wolde haue entred in vnto the people / the discyples suffered him not. Certayne also of the chiefe of Asia which were his frendes / sent vnto hym / despyng him that he wolde not pzeace into the comen hall. Some cryed one thyng and some ano- ther / & the congregacion was all out of quiet / and y moare parte knewe not wherfore they were come together.

The Actes

And as the seuen dayes shuld haue bene ended, & Jewes which were of Asia when they sawe him in the temple, they moued all & people, and layde handes on him crying: men of Israel, helpe. This is the man that teacheth all all men euery where agaynst the people and þe lawe / a this place. Moreover also he hath brought Grekes into the temple / a hath polluted this holy place. For they sawe one Trophimus an Ephesian with him in the cytē. Him they supposed Paul had brought into the temple. And all the cytē was moued / a the people swarmed together. And they toke Paul and drue hym oute of the temple / and forth with the doores were shut to.

As they went about to kill hym / tydings came vnto the hye captayne of the soudyers / that all Jerusalem was moued. Which immediately toke soudiers a vndercaptaynes / a ranne doune vnto them. When they sawe þe hyer captayne a the soudiers they leste my tinge of Paul. Then the captayne came neare a toke him / and commaunded him to be boude w two chaynes / a demaunded what he was / a what he had done. And one cryed this / another þe amōge the people. And when he coude not knowe þe certayntie for the rage / he commaunded him to be caried into the castle. And when he came vnto a Grece / it fortuned that he was borne of the soudiers for the byolce of the people. For the multitude of þe people folowed after cryinge: awaye with him.

And as Paul shulde haue bene caried into the castle / he sayde vnto the hye Captayne: maye I speake vnto the? Which sayde: Cast thou speake Greke? Arte not thou that Egyptian which before these dayes made an byroure / and ledde out into the wyldernes. iiii. thousande men that were moztchers? But Paul sayde: I am a mā which am a Jewe of Charlus a cite in Cilic a Citie of no byle cytē / I beseeche the soffre me to speake vnto the peope. When he had geuen him licence / Paul stode on the steppes / and beckened w the hande vnto the people / a ther was made a great sylene. And he spake vnto them in þe hebreue tonge sayinge.

Paul answered the Jewes / is scourged / and layde in prison agayne.

The. xxi. Chapter

Men / brethren / and fathers / heare myne answer which I make vnto you. When they hearde þe he spake in the hebreue tonge to them / they kept þe moore sylene. And he sayd: I am here by a mā which am a Jewe borne in Charlus / a cytē in Cilic: neuerthelesse yet brought by in this cytē / at the fete of Gamaliel / and informed diligently in þe lawe of the fathers / a was feruent mynded to God warde / as ye all are this same daye / a I persecuted this waye vnto the deeth byndynge a deliuerynge into prison bothe men a women / as þe chiefe prest both beare me wytnes / a all þe elders of whom also I receaued letters vnto þe bye-then / and went to Damasco to bynge the which were there boude vnto Jerusalem for to be punished.

And it fortuned / as I made my journey and was come nye vnto Damasco aboute none that sodenly ther shone from heauen a great lyght rounde aboute me / and I fell vnto the erth / a heard a voyce sayig vnto me. * Saul Saul / why persecutest thou me? And I answered: what arte thou Lorde? And he sayde to me: I am Iesus of Nazareth whom thou persecutest. And they that were w me / sawe beery a lyghte and were afrayde: but they hearde not þe voyce of him þe spake with me. And I sayde: what shall I do Lorde? And the Lorde sayd vnto me: Arise a go in to Damasco and there it shall be tolde the of all thynges which are apoynted for the to do. And when I came nothing for þe byghtnes of þe lyght / I was ledde by the hande of them that were with me / and came into Damasco.

And one Ananias a perfect mā / a as persaynyng to the lawe hauynge good reporte of all the Jewes which there dwelt / came vnto me / and stode and sayde vnto me: Brother Saul / looke by. And þe same houre I receaued my syght and sawe him. And he sayd: the God of oure fathers hath ordeyned þe before / þe thou shuldest knowe his will / a shuldest se that which is ryghtfull / a shuldest heare the voyce of his mouth: for thou shalt be his wytnes vnto all men of those thynges / which thou hast sene and hearde. And now: why tarriest thou? Arise and be baptised / and we the awaye thy synnes / in callynge on the name of the Lorde. And it fortuned / when I was come agayne to Jerusalem a prayde in the temple / that I was in a traunce / and sawe him sayig vnto me. Make haste / a get þe quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receaue thy wytnes that thou bearest of me. And I sayde: Lorde they knowe that I prisoned / and bet in euery synagoge the þe beleued on the. And when the bloud of thy wytnes Stephen was shed / I also stode by / a consented vnto his deeth a kept the rayment of the that sene him. And he sayd vnto me: departe / for I will sende the a farre hence vnto the Gentylis.

They gaue him audience vnto this worde / and then lyfte by their voyces a sayd: awaye with soche a felowe from the erth: it is pytie that he shuld lyue. And as they cryed a cast of their clothes / and threue dust into the ayer / the captayne bad him to be brought into the castle / a commaunded him to be scourged / a to be examined / that he myght knowe wherfore they cryed on hym. And as they bounde hym with thonges / Paul sayde vnto þe Centurion that stode by: Is it lawfull for you to scourge a man that is a Romayne and vnderdempned? when when the Centurion hearde that / he went / and tolde the hyer Captayne sayig: What intende thou to do? This mā is a Romayne. Then the hyer Captayne cam / a sayd to him: tell me / art thou a Romayne? He sayd: Ye. And the captayne answered: with a great some obtayned I this fredd. And Paul sayde: I was fre borne. Then straght waye departed from him / they which shulde haue examined hym. And the hye Captayne also was afrayde / after he knewe that he was a Romayne: because he had bounde him.

On the morowe because he wolde haue knowne the certayntie wherfore he was accused of the Jewes / he tolde him from his bondes / and commaunded the hye Prestes a all the counsell to come together / a brought Paul and set him before them.

Paul commeth before the counsell. Debate aryleth amōge the people / the Captayne deliuereth him / God comforteth hym.

The. xxii. Chapter.

Paul behelde the counsell and sayd: men and brethren / I haue lyued in all good conscience before God vntill this daye. The hye prest Ananias commaunded the that stode by / to smyte him on the mouth. Then sayde Paul to hym: God smyte the thou paynted wall. Sittest thou and iudget me after the lawe: and commaundest me to be smytten contrary to the lawe? And they that stode by sayde: reuylest thou Goddes hye Preste? Then sayde Paul: I wist not brethren þe he was the hye prest. For it is wyttē: thou shalt not curse the ruler of thy people.

When Paul perceaued that the one parte were Saduces / and the other Pharises: he cryed out in the counsell. Men and brethren / I am a Pharise / a sonne of a Pharise. Of the hope and resurreccion from deeth / I am Iudged. And when he had so sayde / ther arose a debate betwene the Pharises a the Saduces / and the multitude was deuyded. For the Saduces saye that ther is no resurreccio / nether angell / nor sprete. But þe Pharises graunt bothe. And ther arose a great crye / and the Scribes which were of þe Pharises parte / arose and stroue sayinge: we fynde none euill in this mā. Though a sprete or an angell hath apared to hym / lett vs not stryue agaynst God.

And when ther arose greute debate / the captayne fearynge lest Paul shuld haue bene pluckt a sondre of them / commaunded þe soudiers to go doune / a to take him fro amonge them and to bynge hym into the castle. The nyght folowynge / God stode by him a sayde: be of good cheare Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem / so must thou beare wytnes at Rome. When daye was come / the captayne of the Jewes gathered them selues together / and made a bowe / sayinge / that they wolde nether eate nor drynke tyll they had killed Paul. They were about. xl. which had made this conspiracion. And they came to þe chiefe Preste and elders / and sayde: we haue bounde oure selues with a bowe / þe we will eate nothyng vntill we haue slayne Paul. Now therfore geue ye knowledge to the hyer captayne a to the counsell / that he bring him forth vnto vs to morow / as though we wolde knowe some thyng moze perfectly of him. But we (or euer he come neare) are ready in the meane season to kill him.

When Pauls sisters sonne hearde of their layinge awaye / he went and entred into the castle / and tolde Paul. And Paul called one of the vnder captaynes vnto him / and sayde: bynge this younge man vnto the hye Captayne: for he hath a certayne thyng to shewe him. And he toke him and sayde: Paul þe prisoner called me vnto him / and prayed me to bynge this younge man vnto the / which hath a certayne matter to shewe the.

The hye captayne toke him by the hand a went a parte with him oute of the waye: and asked him: what hast thou to saye vnto me? And he sayde: the Jewes are determyned to despyse the þe thou woldest bynge forth Paul to morowe into the counsell / as though they wolde enquire somwhat of him moze perfectly. But folowe not their myndes: for they lye in waye for him of the mother. xl. men / which haue bounde them selues w a bowe / that they will nether eate ner drynke tyll they haue killed him. And now are they ready / and loke for thy promes.

The hyer captayne let the younge man departe a charged hym: se thou tell it out to no man þe thou hast shewed these thynges to me. And he called vnto him two vnder Captaynes sayinge: make redy two hundred soudiers to go to Cesarea a horsemen thre score a ten / a speare men two hundred / at the thirde houre of the nyght. And despyre the beastes that they maye put Paul on / and bynge him safe vnto Felix the hye debyte / and wote a letter in this maner.

Claudius Lysias vnto the most myghty ruler Felix / sendeth gretyngs. This mā was taken of the Jewes / a shuld haue bene killed of the. When I came / with soudiers / a refused him / a perceaued that he was a Romayne. And when I wolde haue knowne the cause / wherfore they accused him / I broughte hym forth into the counsell. There perceaued I þe he was accused of questions of their lawe: but was not gyltye of eny thyng worthy of deeth or of bondes. Afterwarde when it was shewed shewed me howe þ the Jewes layde wayte for the mā / I sent him straght waye to the / and gaue comaundment to his accusars / yf they had ought agaynst him / to tell it vnto þ: fare well. Then the soudiers as it was comaunded the / toke Paul / & brought him by nyghte to Antipatras. On the morowe they leste þ horsmen to go with him / & returned vnto the castle. Whych when they came to Cesarea / they deliuered the epistle to the debyte / & presented Paul before him. Whē the debyte had redde the letter / he asked of what countre he was. And whē he vnderstode þ he was of Cilicill / I will heare the (sayde he) whē thyne accusars are come also: & comaunded him to be kepte in Herodes pallys.

Paul is accused before Felix / he answereth for him selfe.

The. xliii. Chapter.

After fyue dayes / Ananias the hye p̄stle descended / with elders and with a certayne Oratour named Tertullus / & enformed þ ruler of Paul. When Paul was called forth / Tertullus begane to accuse him saying: Seinge þ we lyue in great quietnes by þ meanes of þ / & that many good thinges are done vnto this nation thozowe thy prouidence: þ alowe we euer & in all places most myghty felix with all thanckes. Not withstandinge / that þ he not recedous vnto the / I praye the / that thou woldest heare vs of thy curtesy a feaw word.

B We haue founde this man a pestilent fellowe / & a mouer of debate vnto all þ Jewes thozow out the woꝛde / and a mayntayner of þ secte of the Nazarites / & hath also enforled to pollute the tēple. Whem we toke & wolde haue iudged accozdng to oure lawe: but the hye captayne Lysias came vpon vs / & with great violence toke him awaye oute of oure handes comaundyng hys accusars to come to the. Of whom thou mayst (yf thou wilt enquire) knowe the certayne of all these thinges.

Wherof we accuse hym. The Jewes lyke- wyle affirmed / sayinge that it was euen so.

Then Paul (after that the ruler hym selfe had beched vnto him that he shuld speake) answered: I shall with a moare quiet mynde answer for my selfe / for as moche as I vnderstande that thou hast bene of many yeres a iudge vnto this people / because that thou mayst knowe þ there are yet / but. xii. dayes sence I went vp to Jerusalem for to praye / & they nether founde me in the temple dysputyng with eny man / ether rayfynge by the people nether in the Synagoges / nor in the cytye: Nether can they proue the thynges wherof they accuse me.

But this I confesse vnto the / that after þ waye (which they call heresy) so woꝛshippe the God of my fathers / beleuynge all thinges which are writte in the lawe & þ Prophetes & haue hope towards God / that the same resurrection of the deed (which they the selues loke for) also shalbe / both of iust and vniust. And therfore stode I to haue a cleare conscience towards God / & toward mā also.

But after many yeres I came & brought aymes to my peple & offeringes in the which they founde me purified in þ temple / nether with multitude / nor yet with iniquities. howbeit there were certayne Jewes out of Asia / which ought to be here present before the / & accuse me / yf they had ought agaynst me: or els lett these same here saye / yf they haue founde eny euill doynge in me / whyll I stode here in the counsell: except it be for thys one voyce / that I cryed standinge amonge them / of the resurrection from deeth am I iudged of you this daye.

Whē felix hearde these thinges / he deferde them / for he knewe very well of that waye / & sayde: when Lysias the captayne is come / I will knowe the vtmost of youre matters. And he comaunded an vndercaptayne to kepe Paul and that he shuld haue rest / and that he shuld forbyd none of hys acquayntaunce to minister vnto him / or to come vnto him.

And after a certayne dayes / cam felix & his wyfe Drusilla which was a Jewes / & called forth Paul / and hearde him of þ sayth which is toward Christ. And as he preached of ryghteousnes / temperance / & iudgemēt to come / felix trembled and answered: thou hast done ynough at this tyme / beparte / when I haue coueniet time / I will sende for the. He hoped also that money shulde haue bene geue hym of Paul / that he myght loose him: wherfore he called hym & oftener and comened with him. But after two yeres festus Porcius cam into felix rōme. And felix willing to shew the Jewes a pleasure / leste Paul in prison bounde.

The Jewes accuse Paule before Festus / he appeareth vnto the Emperoure / and is sent vnto Rome.

The. xlv. Chapter.

When festus was come into þ prouince / after thre dayes / he ascended from Cesarea vnto Jerusalem. Then enformed hym the hye p̄stres and the chiefe of the Jewes of Paul. And they besought hym & desyred fauour agaynst hym / that he wolde sende for him to Jerusalem: & layde awayte for him in þ waye / to kyll him. Festus answered that Paul shulde be kept at Cesarea: but that he hym selfe wolde shortly departe thither. Let them therfore (sayde he) whych amonge you are able to do it / come doune with vs and accuse him / yf ther be eny faute in the man.

When

When he had tarped there moare then ten dayes / he departed vnto Cesarea / & the nexte daye late doune in the iudgement seate / & comaunded Paul to be brought. When he was come / the Jewes which were come fro Jerusalem / cam aboute hym and layde many and greuous cōplayntes agaynst Paul / whych they coude not proue as longe as he answered for hym selfe / that he had nether agaynst þ lawe of the Jewes / nether agaynst the temple / nor yet agaynst Cesar offended eny thyng at all.

Festus willinge to do þ Jewes a pleasure answered Paul & sayde: wilt thou go to Jerusalem and there be iudged of these thinges before me? Then sayde Paul: I stande at Cesars iudgement seate / where I ought to be iudged. To the Jewes haue I no harme done / as thou very well knowest. If I haue hurte the / or cōmytted eny thyng woꝛthy of deeth I refuse not to dye. If none of these thinges are / where of they accuse me / no man ought to deliuer me to them. I appeale vnto Cesar. Then spake festus with deliberation / & answered. Thou hast appealed vnto Cesar: vnto Cesar shalt thou go.

After a certayne dayes / kynge Agrippa & Bernice came vnto Cesarea to salute festus. And whē they had bene there a good ceason / festus reherled Pauls cause vnto the kynge saying: ther is a certayne man left in prison of felix / about whom when I came to Jerusalem the hye p̄stres & elders of the Jewes enformed me / and desyred to haue iudgemēt agaynst him. To whō I answered: It is not the maner of þ Romayns to deliuer eny mā / that he shuld perishe / before that he which is accused / haue the accusars before hym / and haue lycence to answer for him selfe concerninge þ cryme layde agaynst him: when they were come hydder / without delaye on the morowe I late to geue iudgemēt / & comaunded the man to be brought forth. Agaynst whō whē þ accusers stode by / they brought none accusacion of soche thynges as I supposed: but had certayne questions agaynst hym of their awne superstycion / and of one Iesus which was deed whome Paul affirmed to be alijue. And because I doutd of soche maner questions / I asked him whether he wolde go to Jerusalem / & there be iudged of these matters. Then when Paul had appealed to be kept vnto þ knowledge of Cesar / I comaunded him to be kept / tyll I myght send him to Cesar. Agrippa sayd vnto festus: I wolde also heare the man my selfe. To morowe (sayde he) thou shalt heare hym. And on the morowe when Agrippa was come and Bernice with greute pompe / & were entred into þ counsell house with the captaynes & chiefe men of the citie / at festus commaundement Paul was brought forth. And festus sayd: kynge Agrippa / & all men whych are heare present with vs: ye se this man about whom all the multitude of the Jewes haue bene with me / both at Jerusalem / and also here / cryng that he ought not to lyue eny lenger. Yet founde I nothyng woꝛthy of deeth that he had comitted. Neuerthelesse seynge that he hath appealed to Cesar / I haue determined to sende him. Of whō I haue no certayne thyng to write vnto my Lord: wherfore I haue brought him vnto you / & specially vnto the / kynge Agrippa / & after examinacion had / I myght haue sumwhat to wyte. For me thincketh it vnrasonable / for to sende a prisoner / & not to shewe þ causes which are layde agaynst him.

Kynge Agrippa heareth Paule / whiche telleth him his callinge from the begynnyng.

The. xlv. Chapter.

Agrippa sayd vnto Paul: thou arte permitted to speake for thy selfe. Then Paul stetched forth þ shade / & answered for him selfe. I thinke my selfe happy kynge Agrippa / because I shall answer this daye before the / of all the thynges wherof I am accused of the Jewes namely because thou art experte in all customes and questions / which are amonge the Jewes. Wherfore I beseeche the to heare me patiently.

My lyuinge of a chyld / which was at þ fyrst amonge myne awne nacion at Jerusalem knowe all þ Jewes which knewe me fro the begynnyng / yf they wolde testifie it. For after the most strayt secte of oure laye / lyued I a Pharisee. And now I stande & am iudged for the hope of the promes made of God vnto oure fathers: vnto whych promes oure rytynges instantly seruyng God daye and nyght hope to come. For which hopes sake / kynge Agrippa / am I accused of the Jewes. Why shulde it be thought a thyng incredible vnto you / that God shuld rayse agayne þ deed? I also berey thought in my selfe / that I ought to do many contrary thynges / clene agaynst þ name of Iesus of Nazareth: which thinge I also dyd in Jerusalem. Where many of the sayntes I shut by in prison / & had re- ceaued auctorite of the hye p̄stres. And whē they were put to deeth / I gaue the sentence. And I punished the ofte in euery synagoge / and compelled the to blasfeme: & was yet moze mad vpon the / & persecuted them / euē vnto strange cities. About which thinges as I went to Damasco with auctorite & licēce of the hye p̄stres / euē at middaye (o kynge) I sawe in the waye a lyght from heauē / about the brightnes of þ sunne / myne route about me and them which fornyed with me.

D. ij. When

When we were all fallen to the erthe / I heard a voyce speaking vnto me / & saying in the Hebraie tonge: * Saul / Saul / why persecutest thou me? It is harde for the to kicke agaynst the prycke. And I sayde: Who arte thou Lord? And he sayde: I am Iesus whom thou persecutest / but rise & stand vp on thy fete. For I haue apered vnto the for this purpose / to make & a minister & a witnes both of those thynges which thou hast sene / & of those thynges in the which I will appere vnto the / deliueringe the fro the people / & fro gentyls / vnto which nowe I sende the / to open their eyes / that they myght turne fro darcknes to lycht / & from the power of Satan vnto God / that they may receaue forgiuenes of synnes & inheritaunce amonge the which are sanctified by fayth in me.

Wherfore kynge Agrippa / I was not disobedient vnto the heauyly visyon: but shewed fyrst vnto them of Damasco / and at Jerusalem / & thow out all the costes of Iewry / & to the getyls / & they shuld repent / & tourne to God / & do the ryght woordes of repentance / for this cause the Jewes caught me in & temple & went about to kyll me. Neuerthelesse I obtayned helpe of God & cōtynue vnto this daye witnessinge bothe to small and to great saying none other thing / then those which the prophetes & Moyses dyd saye shuld come / & Christ shuld suffre / and that he shuld be the fyrst that shuld rise from deeth / and shuld shewe lycht vnto the people / & to gentyls. As he thus answered for hym selfe: Iesus sayde vnto a lowde voyce. Paul / thou arte besydes thy selfe. Moche learninge hath made & mad. And Paul sayde: I am not mad / most dere Iesus: but speake & woordes of trueth and sobernes. The kynge knoweth of these thynges / before whome I speke frely: nether thynke I & any of these thynges are hydden from him. For this thyng was not done in a corner. Kynge Agrippa beleuest thou & I prophetes: I wote well thou beleuest. Agrippa sayde vnto Paul: Sumwhat thou byngest me in mynde for to be come a Christen. And Paul sayde: I wolde to God & not only thou: but also all that heare me to daye / were / not sumwhat only but altogether soche as I am / except these bondes. And when he had thus spoken / the kynge rose vp / & the debite / and Bernice / and they that sate with them. And when they were gone aparte / they talked betwene them selues sayinge: This man doeth nothing worthy of deeth / nor of bond. Then sayde Agrippa vnto Iesus: This man myght haue bene lawfed / yf he had not appeared vnto Cesar.

Paul shippynge towarde Rome / Julius the Captayne intreateth hym curteously / at the last they suffre shipwreake.

The xxij. Chapter.

When it was concluded & we shuld sayle into Italy / they deliuered Paul & certayne other prisoners vnto one named Julius / an vnder captayne of Cessars souldiers. And we entered into a ship of Adramicti / & lawfed fro land / apointed to sayle by the costes of Asia / one Aristarcus out of Macedonia / of the contrie of Thessalia / beinge wth vs. And & nexte daye we came to Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul / & gaue him lyberte to go vnto his frendes / & to refreche hym selfe. And fro thence lanchted we / & sayled harde by Cyprus / because the wyndes were contrayre. Then sayled we ouer the see of Cilicia / and Pamphilia / & cam to Myra a citie in Lycia.

And there & vndercaptayne founde a shippe of Alexander / redy to sayle into Italy / & put vs therein. And when we had sayled slowly many dayes / & scace were come ouer agaynst Cyprus / because & winde withstode vs / we sayled harde by the costes of Candy / ouer agaynst Salmo / & w moche wothe sayled beyonde it / & cam vnto a place called goodpoozte. Myr wher vnto was a cytie called Lasea. When moche time was spent & sayling was now too perdecous / because also & we had ouerlonge fasted / Paul put the in remembraunce / and sayde vnto the. Syys / I perceaue that this viage wilbe wth hurte & moche damage / not of the saydng & ship only: but also of oure liues. Neuerthelesse the vnder captayne beleued & gouerned the master / better then tho thing which were spoke of Paul. And because the hause was not comodius to wynter in / many toke counsell to departe thence / yf by any meanes they myght attayne to Phenices & there to wynter / whych is an hauen of Candy / and seruit to the south west & north west wynde. When the south wynde blew / they supposynge to obtayne their purpose lawfed vnto Adon / and sayled past all Candy.

But anone after / ther arose agaynst the purpose / a flawe of wynde out of & north east. And whē the ship was caught / & could not resist the wynde / we let her go & drave with & wether. And we came vnto an yle named Claudia / & had moche wothe to come by a boote / which they toke by & bled helpe / vndergerdinge the shippe / fearinge lest we shuld haue falle into Syrtis / & we let doune a bessel & so were carped. The nexte daye whē we were tossed wth an exceedinge tēpest / they lightened & ship / & the thyrde daye we cast out wth oure atone handes / & tacklynge of & shippe. Whē at the last nether sunne nor starre in many dayes appered & no small tēpest laye by & by / all hope & we shuld be saued / was then taken awaye. Then after longe abstynence / Paul stode forth in the myddes of them and sayde: Syys ye shulde haue hardenened come / & not haue lawfed from Candy / nether to haue brought vnto vs this harme & losse. And now I exhorte you to be of good chere. For ther shalbe no losse of any mans lyfe amonge you / save of & ship only. For ther stode by me this nyght the angell of God / whose I am / & who I serue / saying: feare not Paul / for thou must be brought before Cesar. And so / God hath geuen vnto the all that sayle with the. Wherfore syys be of good chere: for I beleue God / & it shalbe euē as it was tolde me. How be it we must be cast into a certayne ylonde.

But when the fourtenth nyght was come as we were caried in Adria about midnyght / the shipmen denied that ther appered some countre vnto them: and sounded / and founde it. xx. feddōs. And whē they had gone a lytell further / they sounded agayne / and founde. x. feddōms. Then fearynge lest they shuld haue faille on some rocke / they cast. iiii. ankers out of the sterne / and wyshed for the daye. As the shipmen were about to fle out of the ship / & had let doune & bote into the see / vnder a couloure as though they wolde haue cast ankers oute of the for shippe: Paul sayde vnto the vnder captayne and the Souldiers: excepte these abyde in & ship / ye canot be safe. Then the Souldiers cut of the rope of the bote / and let it fall awaye.

And in the meane tyme betwixt that and daye / Paul besought the all to take meate / sayinge: this is the fourtenth daye & ye haue tarped and contynued fastinge / receauynge nothing at all. Wherfore I praye you to take meate: for this no dout is for your helth: for ther shall not an here fall from & heed of any of you. And when he had thus spoken / he toke bread and gaue thanckes to God in ptesence of the all / and brake it / and beganne to eate. Then were they all of good cheare / and they also toke meate. We were all to gether in the ship / two hundred thre score & xxi. soules. And when they had eaten ynough / they lygh-tened & ship / & cast out & wheate in to the see.

When it was daye / they knew not & lande but they spied a certayne hauen wth a banche into the which they were mynded (yf it were possible) to thrust in the ship. And when they had taken by the ankers / they committed the selues vnto the see / & lawfed & rudder bondes and hopped by the mayne sayle to the wynde & drue to lande. But they chaunced on a place / which had the see on bothe the sydes / & thrust in the ship. And the sooze parte sticke fast & moued not but the hynder brake with the violence of the waues.

The Souldiers councell was to kyll the prisoners / lest any of the / whē he had swome out shulde fle awaye. But & vnder captayne wyllynge to saue Paul kept them from their purpose / and comaunded that they & coulde swyme shulde cast them selues fyrst into the see / and scape to land. And the other he comaunded to go / some on bozdes / and some on broken peces of the ship. And so it came to passe / that they came all safe to lande.

The vpper hurteth not Pauls hande / he healeth Publius father / and preacheth Christ at Rome.

The xxiii. Chapter.

When they were scaped / then they knewe that the yle was called Milet. And the people of & costre shewed vs no lytell kynndnes: for they kyndled a fyre & receaued vs euery one / because of the present rayne and because of & colde. And when Paul had gathered a bonnell of styckes / and put them in to the fyre / ther came a vpper out of the heet and lept on his hande. When the men of & countre sawe the woyme hange on his hande / they sayde amonge them selues: this man must nedes be a mozt heret: whom (though he haue escaped the see) yet vengeaunce suffreth not to lyue. But he shooke of the bermen into the fyre & felt no harme. How be it they wayted when he shulde haue swolne / or fallen doune deed sodenly. But after they had loked a greate whyle / and sawe no harme come to him / they chaunged their myndes / and sayde that he was a God.

In the same quarters the chiefe man of the yle whose name was Publius / had a lordshippe: the same receaued vs / and lodged vs thre dayes courteously. And it fortunēd that the father of Publius laye sycke of a fierer and of a bluddy lyxe. To whom Paul entred in and prayde / and layde his handes on hym and healed hym. When this was done / other also which had dyceases in the yle / came and were healed. And they dyd vs great honoure. And when we departed / they laded vs wth thynges necessary.

After thre monethes we departed in a ship of Alexandry / which had wyntred in the yle / whose badge was Castor & Pollux. And whē we came to Cyrcusa / we taried there thre dayes. And from thence we fet a compasse & came to Regium. And after one daye & south wynde blew / and we came the next daye to Puttolus: where we founde brethzen / & were despyed to tary with them seuē dayes / and so came to Rome. And from thence / when the brethzen hearde of vs / they came agaynst vs to Appyphorum / & to the thre tauerne. When Paul sawe them / he thancked God / & wered holde. And when he came to Rome / the vnder captayne deliuered & prisoners to the chiefe captayne of the host: but Paul was suffred to

The Prologe to the Epistle of Saynt Ix,

Paul to the Romans.

For as moche as this Epistle is the principall & moost excellent part of the newe Testament & moost pure Euangelion / that is to saye / glad tydings and that we call Gospell / and also a light and awake in vnto the hole scripture / I thinke it meate / euery Christen man not only knowe it by rote & without the booke / but also exercise him selfe therein euermore continually as in the dayly brede of the soule. No man verely can rede it to ofte or studie it to well : for the more it is studied the easier it is / the more it is chewed / the pleasanter it is / & the more groundely it is serched the preciofer thyng & as fast be in it so great treasure of spiritual thyngs lyeth hyd therein. I will therefore bestowe my labour & diligence to shewe the best of this Epistle.

awaye in the vnto / so farforth as God shall geue me grace / that it may be the better vnderstande of euery mā. For it hath benehether to cypell darckened th glasse & woddere full dreames of Sophisters / þ no mā cowde spee out þ entente & meanyng of it. Whiche neuerthelesse yet of it selfe / is a bright lychte & sufficient to geue lychte vnto all þ scripture. First we must marke diligently the manner of freewomen of this world / and then shall we see the manner of freewomen of the next world.

¶ If we must marke diligently the maner of speakeynge of the Apostel/and about all thyngs knowe what Paul meaneth by these wordes: the Latwe/Synne/Grace/Faith/Ryghteounes/Flethe/Spite/ & loche lyke / or els rede thou it neuer so ofte/ thou shalt but loose thy labour. This word latwe maye not be vnderstande here after the commyune maner/ & so vñe Pauls terme/ after the maner of men: or after mans wayes/ þ thou woldest saye the lawe here in this place were nothyng but lernynge which teacheth what ought to be done and what ought not to be done/ as it goeth with mannes latwe where þ latwe is fulfilled withoutwarde woikes onþ/ though the hert be neuer so farre of. But God iudgeth the grounde of the hert/ & the thoughtes & þ secret mouynges of the mynde/ and therfore his latwe requyeth the grounde of the herte & loue from the botome thereof/ & is not cōtent with the outwarde woike onþ/ but rebuketh those woikes most of all which spynge not of loue from the ground & loue botome of the herte/ & though they appere outward neuer so honest & good. As Christ in þ Gospell rebuketh þ Phariseas about all other þeuer, synne, & so forth.

more open spyners & calleth the pproctres that is to saye dissemblers & paynted sepulchres which pharisees yet iudged nemen to pure & as pertayninge to the outwarde dekes & woordes of the lawe: yete 3d aul in the thirde Chapter of hys Epistle unto the 3d helippians confesseth of hym selfe as touchynge the lawe he was luche a one as no mā coude cōpleyne on & not with standyng was yet a murderer of the Christen/persecuted the & tomedeth the so foore: & he cō pelled the to blasfeme Christ & was all to gether merclesse as many which now sayne outward good woꝛk ave.
For this cause the. xlv. 3d salme calleth all men lyars. because that no man kepeth the Lawe from the grounde of the herte: nether can hepe it/though he appeare outward full of good woꝛkes.

For all men are naturally enclined vnto euill & hate the lawe: we fynde in oure selues vnlust & tediousnes to do good: but lust & delectacion to do euill: Now where no free lust is to do good/there the botome of the herte fulfylleth not the lawe: & there no doute is also synne & wraith is deserved before God: though there be neuer to great and outwarde shewe & apperance of honeste luyng. For this cause concludeth sapient Paul in the seconde Chapter/ that the Jewes are all synners & transgressors of the lawe/ though they make men beleue/ that by the pocrity of outwarde woikes/ how that they fulfyll the lawe/ and saye that he only which doth the lawe/ is ryghteous before God/ meaninge thereby that no man with outwarde woikes/ fulfylleth the lawe.

Thou sayst he to the Jewe teachest a man shulde not breake wedlocke / yet breakest wedlocke thy selfe / wherein thou iudgest an other man / therein condemnest thou thy selfe. for thou thy selfe doest euen þ very same thynges which thou iudgest. As though he wolde saye / thou lpuest outwardly well in the woorkes of the lawe / add iudgest them that lpuen not to. Thou teachest other men / lest a moote in an other māns eye / but art not ware of þ beame þ is in thyne awne eye. For though thou kepe þ lawe outwardly with woorkes / for feare of rebuke / shame & punishment / other for loue of rewarde. vantage & vayne glory / yet doest thou all without lust & loue toward the lawe / & haddest letter a greate deale of other wyle do. yf thou dydest not feare the lawe / ye inwardly in thyne herte / thou woldest that ther were no lawe / no noy / yet God the auctor / & vengear of the lawe / yf it wre possible / to payne full it is vnto the / to haue thyne appetites refrayned / to be kepte doune. Wherefore then it is a playne conclusion / that thou seest the grounde and botome of thyne herte / are an eninge to the lawe / what preuayleth it now / that thou teachest an other mā not to steale / when thou thyne awne selfe arte a thefe in thyne herte / and outwardly woldest saye steale yf thou durst / though that þ outward deede abyde not awape helynde with soche hypocrytes & dissimulars / but breake forth amoge euen as an euill scabbie of a poeke cannot all wayes be kept in with violence of medicine.

Thou teachest an other mā, but teachest not thy selfe: for thou wotest not what thou teachest, for thou understādest not the lawe a ryght how: that it cānot be fulfilled & satisfied, but with an vnspayed loue & affection, so greatly it cannot be fulfilled with outward dedes & workes only. Moreover the lawe encreaseth synne, as he sayth in the Chapter, because that man is an enemy to the lawe, for as moche as it requyeth so many thynges cleue contrarie to his nature, whereof he is not able to fulfill one poynte or tytle, as the lawe requyeth it. And therfore are we moore pynned, and haue greater lust to breake it. For which causes sake he sayth in the seventh Chapter, that the lawe is spiritual, as though he wolde saye, if the lawe were fleschly & but mans doctrine, it might be fulfilled/satisfied and styllled with outward dedes. But nowe is the lawe goodly, & no mā fulfilleth it, excepte p all that he doeth, springe of loue frō the botome of the hert. Suche a newe hert & lusty corage vnto the lawe warde, canst thou neuer come by requyement, but by the operation & workynge of the spyrte. For the spyrte of God only can maketh a man spiritual & lyke vnto the lawe, so that now hēceforth he doeth no thyng of feare or for lucre or vainglorie sake, or of bayne glorie, but of a fre hert, & of inward lust. The lawe is spiritual, & wythe dothe loued and fulfilled of a spiritual hert, & therfore of necessity requyeth it the spyrte that maketh a mannes hert fre, and geueth hym lust and courage vnto the lawe warde. Where forche a spyrte is not, there remaineth synne/grudgyng & hate, reb agaynst the lawe, which lawe neuer thelesse is good, ryghteuous and holy.

Acquaynte thy selfe therefore with the maner of speakinge of the Apostles let this now stye fast in thyn heart/that it is not bothe one/ to do dedes & workes of the lawe/ & to fulfill the lawe. The worke of the lawe/ is whatsoeuer a man doeth or can do of his awne freewyll/ of his awne proper strenght & enforlynge: Not withstandinge though there be neuer so greate workynge/ yet as longe as ther remaineth in the herte/ vniust/ tediousnes/ grudgynge/ grief/ & a payne/ to thynnes & copulsion toward the lawe/ so longe are all the workes vnyfyttable/ lost/ & damnable in the syght of God. This meaneth Paul in the thirde Chapter where he sayth/ by the dedes of the lawe shall no fleshe be justified in the syght of God. Here by perceauest thou that those sophisters are but discernerers/ which teach a mā māne/ & must prepare him selfe to grace & to the fauour of God with good workes before he haue sinned a true sayth of Christ. how can they prepare the selues vnto the fauour of God/ to that which is good/ whe they the sel

The Prologe

Prologus. Inuides & thoughtes captiue at his pleasure. Can thole woikes please God thinest thou/which are done with griffe payne & tediousnes in an euill will / with a contrary & grudging mynd. Wholy sayncte prosperus/bow myghtely / to the scripture of Paul. dydest thou founde this here/pe/aboute (I trowe) a twelue hundred yeres go/oz therbyd. To fulfill the lawe/to do the woikes therofe whatsoeuer the lawe comaunde th/with loue/lust & inward affection & delectation: and to lyeue godly & well/frely/wyllingly/ without compulsion of p lawe/euen as though there were no lawe at all. Suche luste & fre lyster to the lawe/comech only by the woiking of the spyte in the herte / as he sayth in the .i. Chap. Now is the spyte none other wyle geue/then by fapth only/in p we beleue the promyses of God/ with out waierynge/how that God is true/and wyll fulfill all his good promyses toward vs/for Chyrtles bloudes sake /as it is playne in the .iij. Chap. I am not ashamed sayth Paul/of Chyrtles gladd tydings/for it is the power of God vnto saluacion to asmany as beleue. For attence & to gether cum as we beleue the glad tydings preached to vs / the holy ghost entreteth into oure hertes/ & tomethe the bondes of the deuyll/which befor possed oure hertes in captiuitie/ & held them that we coude haue no lust to the will of God in the lawe. And as the spyte cometh by fapth cometh fapth only/eus to fapth cometh by hearpyng the woide of glad tydings of God/when Chyrt is preached/how that he is Goddes sonne & man also/deed and rylen agayne for oure sakes/as he sayth in the .iii. .iiii. & .x. Chapters. All oure glad tydings. In stynging then cometh of fapth/ & fapth and the spyte come of God & not of vs.

The spyte cometh by fapth. When we saye fapth bringeth the spyte/it is not to be vnderstande/that fapth deserueth the spyte/oz p the spyte is not present in vs before fapth. For the spyte is cur in vs/ & fapth is the gyfte & woiking of the spyte. But thowow preachynge/the spyte begynneth to worke in vs. And as by preachynge the lawe/he wo: he th the feare of God / so by preachynge the glad tydings/he wo: he th fapth. And now when we beleue & are come vnder the couenaunt of God/ then are we sure of the spyte/by the promise of God & then the spyte accompanieth fapth inseparably/ & we beginne to fele his wo: hynge. And so fapth certifieth vs of the spyte/ & also bringeth the spyte with her vnto the woiking of all other gyftes of grace/ & to the woiking out of the rest of oure saluacion/vntill we haue all to gether oure come synne/deeth/hell & Satan/ & are come vnto the euellastynge lyfe of glorie. And for this cause saye we fapth bringeth p the spyte. Here of cometh it/that fapth only iustifieth/maketh ryghte wyls/ & fulfillieth the lawe/for it byngeth the spyte thowow Chyrtles deseruynges/ the spyte bringeth lust/looseth the herte/maketh him fre/letteth hym at lyberte/ & geueth him strength to worke the dedes of the lawe with loue/cut as the lawe requyrez. Then at the last oute of the same fapth to woiking in the herte/bringeth all good woikes by there awne accord. That meaneth is in the thirde Chapter/for after he hath cast awaye the woikes of the lawe/so he foundeth as though he wolde breake & bynull the lawe thowow fapth/ he answereth to that myght be layde agaynst sayynge: we destroye not the lawe thowow fapth but maintayne/forther oz stablyshe the lawe thowow fapth. That is to saye/we fulfill the lawe thowow fapth.

Synne. Synne in the scripture is not called that outward woike only comytted by the body/but all the whole busines & whatsoeuer accompanieth/moueth oz stereth vnto the outwarde dede/ & that whence the woikes springe/as vnbelefe/ prouenes & redines vnto the dede in the grounde of the herte/with all the powers/affections & appetites wherewith we can but synne. So that we saye/that a man then synneth/when he is caried awaye hedlonge into synne/all to ge: ther as moche as he is of that popyn inclination & corrupt nature wherin he was conceyued & borne. For there is none outwarde synne comytted/except a man be caried awaye all to gether/wh lyfe/soule/herte/body/ luste & inpyde therinto. The scripture loketh singularly vnto the herte/ vnto the rote & originall fountayne of all synne / which is vnbelefe in the botome of the herte. For as fapth only iustifieth & byngeth the spyte & luste vnto the outwarde good woikes/eus to vnbelefe only dammeth & kepeth oute the spyte/prouoketh the flesche & stereth by luste vnto the euill outwarde woikes/as happened to Adam and Eua in p arabye. Genes. .iiij.

Fapth is p mo: tyer of all good woikes/ & vnbelefe of euill. For this cause Chyrt calleth synne vnbelefe/ & that notably in the .xvi. Chapter of sayncte John. The spyte sayth he shall rebuke the woide of synne/because they beleue not in me. And John. viij. he sayth. I am p lyght of p world. And therefore in the .xij. of John he byddeth them/ whyle they haue lyght to beleue in the lyght / that ye maye be the chyldren of lyght/for he that walketh in darcknes woteth not whither he goeth. Now as the lyght/ is the lyght/ so is the ignorance of Chyrt that darcknes wherof he speaketh/in which he p walketh/ woteth not whither he goeth/that is he knoweth not how to worke a good woike in the lyght of God/oz what a good woike is. And therefore in the .ix. he sayth/as longe as I am in the world/I am the lyght of the world/but there cometh nyght wher no ma can worke/ which nyght is but ignorance of Chyrt in which no ma can fe to do any woike that pleaseh God. And Paul exhorteth Ephes. .iii. that they walke not as other hethen which are strangers fro the lyfe of God/thowow the ignorance that is in the. And agayne in the same Chapter. But of (fapth) he the olde ma which is corrupt thowow the lustes of erroure/that is to saye ignorance. And Rom. .xiiij. Let vs cast awaye the dedes of darcknes/that is to saye of ignorance & vnbelefe. And .i. Petri. .i. Fallion not your felues vnto youre olde lustes of ignorance. And .i. John. .i. He that loueth his brother dwelleth in lyght/and he that hateth his brother walketh in darcknes/ & woteth not whither he goeth/for darcknes hath bynded his eyes. By lyght he meaneth the knowledge of Chyrt/ & by darcknes / the ignorance of Chyrt. For it is impossible that he that knoweth Chyrt truly/shulde hate his brother.

Fapth is p mo: tyer of all good woikes/ & vnbelefe of euill. Further more to perceauethis thynge moare clearly/thou shalt vnderstande/ p it is impossible to synne any synne at all/except a ma breake the fyrst comaundment before. Now is the fyrst comaundment deuyded into two verbes. Thy Loyde God is one God. & thou shalt loue thy Loyde God with all thyne hert/with all thy soule/with all thy power and with all thy myght. And the whoale cause whp I synne agaynst any inferioure precept/ & p this loue is not in myne hert/for were this loue wytted in my herte & were full & perfect in my soule/it wold kepe myne hert fro consenting vnto any synne. And the whoale & only cause whp this loue is not wytted in oure hertes/is that we beleue not p fapth parte/that oure Loyde God is one God. For wylt I what these woordes/one Loyde & one God meaneth/that is to saye/ p fapth vnderstande that he made all/ & ruleth all/ & p whatsoeuer is done to me/ whether it be good or bad/ is yett hys wyl/ & p he only is the Loyde that ruleth/ & doth it/ & wylt ther to what thys woide/ myne/meaneth/that is to saye/ p myne herte beleued & felte the infinite benefites & kyndenes of God to me warde/ & vnderstande & earnestly beleued p many folde couenauntes of mercede wherewith God hath bounde hym selfe to be myne/wholye & all together/with all hys power/loue/mercede & myght/then shuld I loue him with all myne hert/soule/power/ & myght/and of that loue euer kepe his comaundementes. So se pe now that as fapth is the mother of all goodnes & of all good woikes/to is vnbelefe p grounde & rote of all euill & all euill woikes. Finally/pe any ma hath forsake synne & is conuerted to put his trust in Chyrt/and to kepe the lawe of God/both fall at a tyme/the cause is/ that the flesche thowow negligence hath choked the spyte & oppressed hys taken from hys the fede of hys strength with p fede of hys meditacyon in God & in hys wonderfull dedes/ & in the many folde couenauntes of hys mercede.

Wherfore then before all good woikes as good frutes/there must be vnbelefe in the herte whence they spring. And before all bad dedes as bad frutes/there must be vnbelefe in the herte as in the rote/fountayne/pith & strength of all synne. Whiche vnbelefe & ignorance is called the heed of the serpet & of the olde drago/which the woman sed Chyrt must

lxi. must treade vnder fote/as it was promysed vnto Adam. Grace & gifte haue this difference. Grace properly is God. Grace fauoure/beneuolence of kindind/which of hys awne selfe/without deseruynge of vs/he beareth to vs/wherby he was moued & enclined to geue Chyrt vnto vs/with all his other gyftes of grace. Gifte is the holy goost & his woiking whp he powreth into the hertes of th/on whp he hath merce/whom he fauoreth. Though the gyftes of the spyte encrease in vs daylye/ & haue not yett their full perfection/ & though there remayne in vs yett euill lustes and synne which fygth agaynst the spyte/as he sayth here in the .viij. Chapter/ & in the .v. to the Galathians/ & as it was spoken before in the .iij. chapter of Gene. of the debate betwene the woman sed/ & the seed of the serpent/ yett neuertheless Goddes fauoure is to greace/ & to stronge ouer vs/for Chyrtles sake/ & we are counted for full hole & perfect before God. For Goddes fauoure toward vs/deuydeth not hys selfe/encreasynge a lytell & a lytell/as do the gyftes/but re: ceaueth vs hole & all to gether in full loue/for Chyrtles sake ouer inter celloz and mediatoz/ & because th at the giftes of the spyte and batayle betwene the spyte and euill lustes/are begonne in vs all ready.

Of this now vnderstande thou the .viij. Chap. where Paul accuseth him selfe as a synner/ & yett in the .viij. chap. sayeth there is no danacyon to the that are in Chyrt/ & that because of the spyte/and because the gyftes of the spyte are begonne in vs. Synners we are because the flesche is not full kyled and mortified. Neuertheless in as moche as we beleue in Chyrt/ & haue the earnest & beginninge of the spytes/ & wold saye be perfect/ God is to louynge/ & fauour: ble vnto vs/ & he wil not loke on soche synne/ neither will coste it as synne/but wil deale w vs according to oure belefe in Chyrt & accordyng to his promyses/which be hath sworne to vs/ vntill p synne be full slayne & mortified by dethe.

Fapth is not mas opinion & dyame/as some ymagin & sayne/wher they heare the storie of the Gospeil/which whp fapth is not p they fe that there folowe no good woikes noz mendement of liuynge/though they heare/ & yett ca babyl many thynge woike of man: of fapth/then they fall fro the righte waye & saye/fapth only iustifieth not/a man must haue good woikes also/pe he wylde righteous & safe. The cause is when they heare the Gospeil of glad tydings/they sayne of their awne strenght certayne ymaginacions & thoughtes in their hertes sayynge/ I haue heard the Gospeil/ I remembre the storie/lo I bele: ue. And that they counte righte fapth/which neuerthele as it is but mas ymaginacio & saynyng/eus to profiteth it not/ neither folowe there any good woikes/oz mendement of liuynge. But righte fapth is a thynge wrought by the holy adghe fapth is ghost in vs/which chaungeth vs/turneth vs in to a newe nature & begetteth vs a newe in God/ & maketh vs the son of God/ as thou reddest in the .iij. of John/ & kyleth the olde Ad/ & maketh vs all to gether newe in the herte/ of the spyte of mynd/wyl/ & in all oure affections & powers of the soule/ the holy ghost euer accompaniynge hir & rulinge p hert. God. Fapth is a lyuely thynge/ myghty in woiking/valaunte & stronge/ euer domge/ euer frutfull/ & that it is impossible that he which is indurde thre with synne/ & not worke al wayes good woikes without ceasinge. He asketh not whether good woikes are to be done oz not/ but hath done the all redy/ per mencio be made of the/ & is allwaye doynge/ for soche is his nature/ nowe quyeke fapth in his herte & lyuely mouynge of the spyte/ diue him & sterre him ther vnto. Whp: soeuer doeth not good woikes/ & is an vnbeleuynge person & faithles/ & loketh round about gropynge after fapth & good woikes/ & woteth not what fapth oz good woike meane/ though he habill neuer so many thing/ of fapth & good woike.

Fapth is then a lyuely & stedfast truste in the fauoure of God/wherby we comytte oure selues all to gether vnto God/ & that truste is so surely grounded & steketh so fast in oure hertes/that a man woteth not once doute of it/ though he shuld dye a thousand tymes therfore. And such truste wrought by the holy goost through fapth/maketh a man glad/lyst/cherefull & true herted vnto God & to all creatures. By the meanes wherof/willingly & with out compulsion he is glad & redy to do good to euery man/ to do seruyce/ & to suffre all thynge/that God maye be loued & prayled/which hath geuen him suche grace/so that it is impossible to separat good woikes fro fapth/euen as it is impossible to separat heete & burninge fro fyre. Wherfore take heede to thy selfe/ & beware of thyn awne fanta: syes & ymaginacions/ which to iudge of fapth & good woikes wyl seme wyle/when in dede they are sterke blind & of al thynge most folysh. Saye God that he wylt wite safe to worke fapth in thynne herte/ & ife shalt thou remayne euermore fapthlesse/ sayne thou/ ymagin thou/enforce thou/ wylt pll with thy selfe/ & do what thou wylt oz canst.

Righteousnes is euen such fapth/ & is called Goddes righteousnes/ & ryghteousnes that is of valoure before God. Fapth is rygh: For it is Goddes gyfte/ & it altereth a ma & chaungeth him to a newe spirittual nature/ & maketh him fre & liberrall to reason: paye euery ma his dute. For thowow fapth is a man purged of his synnes/and obteyneth luste vnto the lawe of God/ wherby he geueth God his honoure/ & payeth him that he oweth him/ & vnto me he doeth seruys willingly wherwith soeuer he can/ & payeth euery man his dute. Suche righteousness can nature/ & frewyl/ & oure awne strenght neuey bringe to passe. For as no ma can geue him selfe fapth/ & can he not take awaye vnbelefe/how then can he take awaye any thing at all. Wherfore al is false pprocrys & synne/ whatsoeuer is done w out fapth/oz in vnbelefe/as it is euident in the .xiiij. Chapter vnto the Romayns/ though it appere neuer so glorious/oz beautifull outwarde.

Flesche & spyte maye be thou not here vnderstande/as though flesche were only that which pertayneth vnto viche: flesche what is flesche/ & the spyte/that which inwardly pertayneth to the herte/ but Paul calleth flesche here as Chyrt doth John. .iij. All that is borne of flesche/ & is to wete/ the whole ma with lyfe/soule/body/wylt/wylt/reason & whatsoeuer he is oz doth with in & with out/ because that these all/ & all that is in man/ study after the woide and the flesche. All flesche therefore whatsoeuer (as longe as we are with out the spyte of God) we thynke oz speke of God/ of fapth of good woikes & of spirittual matters. All flesche also all woike which are done woute grace/ & woute p woiking of p spyte/ how soeuer good/holy & spirittual they seme to be/as thou mayst proue by p. v. Chapter vnto the Galathians/ where Paul nombreth woikingynge of ydols/witchecraftes/enuy & hate/amonge the dedes of the flesche/ & by the .viij. vnto the Romayns/ where he sayth that the lawe by the reason of the flesche is weake. Whych is not vnderstande of vnt: cha: pte only/but of all synnes/ & most specially/ of vnbelefe whych is a byce most sp: ytuall & ground of all synnes.

And as thou called hym/ whych is not renewed with the spyte & borne agayne in Chyrt/flesche/ & all hys dedes eut the very moyses of hys hert & mynd/ hys seruyng doctrine & conspacy of hys thynge/hys preachynge/tea: chynge & studyng scripture/byldynge of churches/foundynge of abbes/ & yngne of almes/ma: te/matence & what soeuer he doeth/ though it seme spirittual/ & after the lawes of God/ so contrary wyle call him spirittual/ which is renewed in Chyrt/ & all hys dedes whych springe of fapth/ & seme they neuer to grose/ as the walshynge of the dy: sciples sette done by Chyrt/ and Peters sp: yngne after the resurreccy/ & all th: dedes of matrimony are pure sp: ytuall/ & they procede of fapth/ & what soeuer is done with in the lawes of God/ though it be wrought by p body/as the very woynge of Hewes & soche lyke/ how soeuer grose they appere outwarde. Whp: thout such v: berstandynge of these woordes/canst thou neuer vnderstande this epistle of Paul/ neither any other place in the halp scripture. Take heede therfore/ for whatsoeuer vnderstandeth these woordes other wyle/ the same vnderstandeth not Paul/ what soeuer he be. Now wylt we prepare oure selues vnto the epistle.

For as moche as it becommeth the precher of Chyrtles glad tydings/ & fapth thowow openynge of the lawe/ to re: bne all thynge/ & to proue all thynge synne/ that proc: be not of the spyte & of fapth in Chyrt/ & to proue all men synners & chyldren of wrath by inheritaunce/ and how that to synne is thyn nature/ and that by nature they can none other wyle do than to synne/and therewith to abate the pyde of man/and to bringe him vnto the knowledge of him selfe/ to impleye & wretchednes/that he might despie helpe. Wher to doeth saynt Paul/and beginneth in the 1. Chapter to rebuke vnbefele & grose synnes which all men se/as ydolatre/and as the grose synnes of the hethen were/and as the synnes now are of all the which lue in ignorance without sayth/and without the fauoure of God: & sayth. The wrath of God of heauen appereth thorow the Gospell vpon all men for their vngodlynes & vniholpynesse. For though it be knowne a dayly vnderstande by the creatures/that ther is but one God/yet is nature of hym selfe with out the sperte & grace/so corrupte & so poysoned/that men neither can thake hym/nether worshippe him/nether geue hym his due honour/but blind the selues & faule with out ceasinge in to worse case/untill they come vnto worshippinge of ymages & worshippinge of shamefull synnes which are abominable & agaynst nature/& more ouer suffer the same vnbeked in other/hauiunge deflection & pleasure therin. In the ii. Chapter. he procedeith further and rebuketh all those holp people also which with out luste & loue to the lawe/true well outwardly in the face of ydols/are condempne other gladly/as the nature of all ypocrites is/to thinke the selues pure in respecte of open synners/& yet hate the lawe inwardly/& are full of couetousnes & enuie & of all viciennes. What. xxiij. These are they which despise the goodnes of God/& according to the hardenes of their hertes/hope to gether for the selues the wrath of God. Forthermore saynt Paul as a true expounder of the lawe/suffereth no man to be with out synne/but declareth yf all they are vnder synne/which of freewill and of nature will lue well/& suffereth them not to be better then the ope synners yet he calleth them harde herted and soche as cannot repent. In the iij. Chapter. he myngleth both to gether/both the Jewes & the gentyles/& sayth that the one is as the other/both synners/& no difference betwene the/laue in this only/that the Jewes had the worde of God comitted vnto them. And though many of them beleued not theron/yet is God des truth & promysse thereby neither burte ner minished/& he taketh in his waye & aliogeth the sayinge of the. I. Psal. that God might abyde true in his wordes and ouercome when he is iudged. After that he returneth to his purpose agayne & proueth by the scripture/that all men without difference or exceptio are sinners/& that by the workes of y lawe no man is iustificed/but that the lawe was geuen to vtter & to declare synne only. Then he begynneth & sheweth the ryghte waye vnto ryghtewelsnes/by what means me must be made righteous & safe & sayth. They are all synners & with out ppye before God/& must ly out their awne deservynge he made ryghteous thorow sayth in Christ/whych hath deservede soche ryghtewelsnes for vs/& is become vnto vs Goddes mercy stole for the remission of synnes that are past/therby prouinge yf Christes ryghteousnes which cometh on vs thorow sayth/helpeth vs only. Which ryghteousnes/sayth he/is now declared thorow the Gospell/& was testifed of before by the lawe & the prophetes. Forthermore (sayth he) the lawe is holpe & fordered thorow sayth/though that the workes therof with all their bolle are brought to nought and proued not to iustifie.

In the .iiij. Chapter (after that now by the .iiij. first Chapters/the synnes are opened/& the waye of fapth vnto righteounes layde) he beginneth to answer vnto certayne objections and cauellacions. And first he putteth forth those blind reasons/whych comenly they shoulde be iustified by their atone workes/are wote to make wher they beare p fapth only with out wo:kes/iustified/sayinge: Shall mende no good workes/pe & yf fapth only iustifie / what nedeth a man to stodye for to do good workes? he putteth forth therfore Abraham for an example/sayinge: what dyd Abraham with his workes? was all in vayne/came hys workes to no prophete. And so concludeth that Abraham with out and before all workes was iustified & made righteous. In to moche that before the workes of circuncision he was payed of p scripture & called righteous by his fapth only. Gene. xij. So that he dyd not the workes of circuncision for to be holpe ther by vnto righteounes/whych yet God commaunded him to do/& was a good worke of obedience. And in this wyse no doute none other workes helpe any thinge at all vnto a man iustifyinge/but as Abrahams circuncision was an outward signe wherby he declared his righteounes which he had by fapth/& his obedience & redynes vnto the wyll of God/enen to are all other good workes outward signes & outward frutes of fapth & of the spyte/which iustifie not a man/but that a man is iustified all redy before God inwardly in the hert/thorow fapth & thorow the spyte purchased by Christes blood. Here with now stablisheth sapnt Paul hys doctrine of fapth afore rehersed in the .iiij. Chap. and bringeth also testimony of Dauid in the .xiiij. Psal which calleth a man blessed/not of workes/but in that his synne is not reuened and in that fapth is imputed for righteounes/though he abyde not afterwarde with out good workes/when he is once iustified. For we are iustified & receive the spyte for to do good workes/nether were it other wyse possible to do good workes/except we had first the spyte.

For how is it possible to do anything well in the sight of God whyle we are yet in captiuitie & bondage vnder the deuill? the deuill possedeth vs all to gether & holdeth oure hertes / so that we cannot once consent vnto the will of God. No man therefore can preuent the spiete in doinge good / but the spiete must first come & wake him out of hys slepe & with the thunder of the lawe feare him / the worke him his miserable estate & wretchednes / make him abhorre & hate him selfe & to desyre helpe / & then cōforte him agayne with the pleasant rayne of the Gospell / that is to saye / with the sweete promyses of God in Christ / steepe vpon sayth / in him to beleue the promyses. Then when he beleueth & promysed / as God was mercifull to promyse / so is he true to fulfill them / & will geue him the spiete & strength / both to loue the will of God & to worke there after. So fe we that God only which accordinge to the scripture worketh all in all thinges / too. hech anxious trustyng / saluacion & health / yea & powereth sayth & beleue / lust to loue Goddes will / & strength to fulfill the same / into vs / euen as water is powred into a bell / & that of his good will & purpose / & not of oure deservynges & merites. Goddes mercy in promysyng / & trueth in fulfillyng his promyses saueth vs & not we oure selues. And therefore is all laude / prayse / glorie / to be geueu vnto God for his mercy & trueth / & not vnto vs for oure merites & deservynges. After that he stretcheth his ensample out agaynst all other good workes of & lawe / & concludeth that the Jewes cannot be Abrahames heyres because of bloud & floure only / moche lesse by the workes of the lawe / but must inheret Abrahamas faith / yf they wilbe the right heyres of Abraham / for as moche as Abraham before the lawe / bothe of Moses and also of circuncision / was thowen forth made righteous / called the father of all them that beleue / & not of them that worke. Whereouer the lawe causeth wrath / it is as moche as no man can fulfill it with loue & luste. And as longe as suche grudgyng / hate & indignacion agaynst the lawe remaineth in the herte / & is not taken away by the spiete that cometh by faith / so longe / no doute / the workes of the lawe / declare evidently that the wrath of God is vpon vs & not fauoure. Wherefore sayth onely receyrueth the grace promysed vnto Abraham. And these ensamples were not wytted for Abraham sake only / sayth he / but for oure also to whom yf we beleue / sayth shalbe rehedned lyke wyle for ryghteousnes / as he sayth in the ende of the Chapter.

In the v. Chapter he commendeth the fruites or workes of faith as are peace/reioysing in the conscience/inward lone to God & man/morouer boldnes/trust/confidence & a strong & a lusty mynde & stedfast hope in tribulacion & sufferinge. For all suche folowe where the ryght faith is / for the aboundante graces sake and gyftes of the spere/which God hath geuen vs in Iesu Christe in that he gaue hym to dye for vs yet his enemyes. Now haue we then that sequently no spiete that cometh of God. And where Goddis spiete is not/ there cā be no good worke/ eue as when an

After that he breaketh forth his runneth at large & sheweth whence both synne & ryghteousnes/both a lyfe come. And he compareth Adam & Christ together thus wyle realonyng & disputynge/that Christ must needs come as a second Adam to make vs heires of his rightewynesse/for woe a newe spirituall byrth without oure deservynge/cue as the fyrst Adā made vs heires of synne/for woe the bodely generacyon/without oure deservynge. Wherby is evidently knowne & proued to the vttermoste/that no man can byrnge hym selfe oute of synne vnto ryghtewynesse/no more then he coulde haue withstande that he was bozne bodely. And that is proued herewith/for as moche as the very lawe of God/whiche of ryghte shoulde haue holpe/ye any thinge coulde haue holpen/not only came & brought no helpe with hym/but also encreased synne/because þe euill & poysoned nature is offended & vterly displeased with the lawe & the more the is forced by the lawe/the more is she prouoked and set a fyre to fulfill and satisfie hyr lustes. By the lawe then we se cleerly that we muste nedes haue Christe to iustifie vs with hye grace/and to helpe nature.

In the vi. he settech forth the cheefe & principall worke of fapth/the batayll of the spyte agaynst the fleshe/how the spyte laboureth & enforseth to kyll & remeuante of synne & luste which remaine in & helpe/after oure iustifyinge. The. vi. Chap.
And this chapter teacheth vs/that we are not so free fro synne thorowe fapth/that we shuide hence forth go vp and ter.
dome yole carlesse & sure of oure scues/as though the were notw no more synne in vs:/yes there is synne remay-ninge in vs/but it is not rehered. because of fapth & of spyte/which fyghte agaynst it. Wherefore we haue enough to do all oure lyues longe/ to tame oure bodys/& to compell the membres to obeye the sp. yte & not the appetites/that therby we myghte be lyke vnto Christ's deeth & reuerrection and myght fulfill oure baptisme/which signifyeth the Baptisme is a mortifyinge of synnes/and the newe lyfe of grace. For this batayle ceaseth not in vs vntyll the laste breath/and vntyll withtyme betwene that synne be utterly slayn by the deeth of the bodye.

This thinge (I meane to tame the bodye & so forth) we are able to do (sayth he) sepyng we are vnder grace/and not vnder the lawe/what it is/not to be vnder the lawe/he him selfe expoundeth. For not to be vnder the lawe is not to be to moztifye to be vnderstande/that euery man may do what him listeth. But not to be vnder the lawe/is to haue a free herte reue. the lusts & synned with the spryte/so that thou haste luste inwardly of thyne atone accorde to do that which the lawe commaundeth/ue that remayneth oute compulsion/ue though there were no lawe. For grace that is to saue Goddis fauoure bringeth vs & synne/ue in flesche & maketh vs loue the lawe/so is there nowe no moare synne/nether is the lawe nowe any moare agaynst vs/ but at one/ & agreede with vs & we with it. But to be vnder the lawe/is to deale with & worke of the lawe/ & to worke about. Not to be vnder the synne and grace/so to longe no doute synne rapeth in vs thozow the lawe/that is to saye/the lawe declareth & der the lawe we are vnder synne and that synne hath power and dominion ouer vs/sepyng we cannot fulfyll the lawe/namely vnder what it meane in the herte/so/as moche as no man of nature fauoureth the lawe/consenteth there vnto & deyleth therein. Whych neth. thinge is exceddinge greaue synne/that we canot consent to the lawe/which lawe is nothyng else saue & will of God.

This is the ryght freidome & lyberte from luyne & fro the lawe where of he woteyth unto the ende of this Chapter that it is a freidome to do good only with lustre & to lyue well without copulsion of the lawe/where fore thys fre- To be vnder dome is spirituall freidome/which deftroyeth not the lawe/but ministreth that which the lawe requyreth & where with the lawe is fulfilled/that is to vnderstand lustre & loue/where with the lawe is fylled & accufeth vs no moare/copelleth vs no moare/nether hath oughte to craue of vs any moare. Such as though thou were in dette to an other man/ & were not able to paye/two maner wayes myghtest thou be loosed. One waye/yf he wolde requyre nothyng of the/ & breke thynne oblygacion. An other waye/yf some other good man wolde paye for the/ & geue þe as moche as thou myghtest satisfie thynne oblygaciō with all. Of this woteyth Christe made þe fre fro the lawe/ & therfore is this no wyde fleschly lyberte/that shulde do nought/but that doeth all thynges/ & is fre from the crauynge & dette of þe lawe.

In the .viij. confirmeth he the same with a similitude of the state of matrimony. As when the husband dyeth/ the wyfe is at hye lyberte/ & the one loved & departed fro the other/ not that h. womā shulde not haue power to marie vnto an other man/ but rather now fy:ste of all is the fre/ & hath power to marie vnto an other mā/ which she coulde not do before/ tyll she was loved fro hye fy:st husband. But so are oure consciences bound & in daunger to the lawe vnder olde Ada the fleshy/ as long as he lyueth in vs. For the lawe declareth h. oure vertes are bounde & that we can not discōsent fro him. But when he is mortified & hylled by the spyrte/ then is the cōscience fre & at lyberte/ not so that h. cōscience shall nowe nought do/ but now fy:st of all cleueth vnto an other/ h. is to wete Christ/ & bringeth forth the frutes of lyfe. So nowe to be vnder the lawe/ is/ not to be able to fulfyll the lawe/ but to be better to it/ & not able to paye that which the lawe requyryeth. And to be lowse from the lawe/ is to fulfyll it & to paye that which the lawe demaundeth/ so that it can now hence forth are the nought. Consequently Paul declareth more largely the nature of synne and of the lawe. how that thorow the lawe synne requyryeth mouch hye selfe/ and gadereth strength. For the oldman and corrupt nature/ the moare he is forbidden and kepte vnder the lawe/ is the moare offended and displeased there wth/ for as moche as he cannot paye that wyche is requyred of the lawe. For synne is hys nature and of hym selfe/ he cannot but synne. Therefore is the lawe deeth to hym/ tormente and marterdome. Not that the lawe is euill but because that the euill nature cannot suffice that wyche is good/ cannot abyde that the lawe shulde requyre of hym any good thyng. Lyke as a lycke man cannot suffice that a man shulde desyre of hym to runne/ to lepe and to do other dedes of an whole man. For wyche cause Sapient Paul concludeth/ that where the lawe is vnderstande and perceaued of the beste wyse/ there it doeth no moare but vtter synne/ and bryng vs vnto the knowlidge of oure felices/ and thereby hylle vs and make vs bonde vnto eternall damnacyon and detters of the euerlastyng wrath of God/ euen as he well sealeth and vnderstandeth whose conscience is truly touched of the lawe. In this the daunger were we yet the lawe came/ that we knewe not what synne mente/ neither yet knowe we the wrath of God vpon synners/ tyll the lawe hath vttered it. So seest thou that a man must haue some other thyng/ yf and a gretter and a gretter & a moare myghty thinge then the lawe to make him ryghteous & safe. They that vnderstande not the lawe on this wyse are blind & go to worke presumptuously supposyng to satisfie the lawe with woordes. For they knowe not that the lawe requyeth a fre: a willinge: a lusty & a louyng herte. Therfore they se not. Wholes ryght in the face the wyse hangeth betwene & hydehys face so that they cannot beholde the gloire of hys countenance howe the lawe is spiritual & requyeth the hert. I maye of myne awne strenght refrayne that I do myne enemye no hurt: but to loue him with all myne herte: to put awaye wraethe cleane oute of my mynde: can I not of myne awne strenght? I maye: refuse moneye of myne awne strenght: but to put awaye loue vnto ryches oute of myne herte: can I not of myne awne strenght? To abstayne fro adultrye as concernyng the vntowarde dede: can I do of myne awne strenght: but not to desyre in myne hert an vnpossible vnto me as is to chose whether I will hongry or thurst: yet so that I maye requyre. Wherfore of a man awne strenght is the lawe neuer fulfilled. We must haue theiunto goddis fauour: his spyrte purchaused by Chyristes bloud. Therfore the lawe when I saye a man maye do many thynges outwardly cleane agaynst his herte: we must vnderstande that man is but deuen of diuers appetites: the greates appetite ouercometh the lesse & carpeyth the man awaye violently with hye. As when I desyre vengeance: I feare also the inconuenience that is lyke to followe: I feare he greatter: I abstayne: yet the appetite I desyreth bygeance he gretter: I cannot but prosecute: I feare: as we se by experience in many murdres: & theues: whych though they be brought into neuer so great perell of deeth: yet after they haue escaped: do euen the same agayne. And comen we ney pascute their lust: because feare & shame are awaye: why other whych haue the same appetites in their hertes: abstayne at p leest waye outwardly or woike secretly bypunge ouercome of feare and of shame: and so lyke wyse is it of all other appetites.

Further more he declareth howe the spyrte & the fleshe feyghte to gether in one man: and maketh an exanple of him selfe: that we myght lerne to knowe how to woike a ryghte: I meane to kyl synne in oure selues. He calleth both the spyrte & also the fleshe a lawe: because that lyke as the nature of Goddis lawe is to dyue to copell & to craunte: so the fleshe dyueth/copelleth/ craunteth & rageth agaynst the spyrte: & will haue her lustes satisfide. On p other syde dyueth the spyrte: & cryeth a ryghte agaynst the fleshe: & will haue his luste satisfide. And this stryfe dureth in vs: as longe as we lyue in some moare & in some lesse: as the spyrte of the fleshe is stronger: & the very man hye awne selfe is both the spyrte & the fleshe: whych feyghteth with his awne selfe vntill synne be vterly slayne: & we all to gether spirituall. In the viij. Chap. he cōfōrteth such feyghters p the bypunge not be cause of lesse fleshe/other thynge that they arke in fauoure with God. And he sheweth howe that the spyrte remaynynge in vs: hureth not for ther is no danger to them that are in Christ which walke not after the fleshe: but after the spyrte. And he expoundeth moare largely what the nature of the fleshe & of the spyrte is: howe the spyrte cometh by Christ: which spyrte maketh vs spirituall: & maketh subdueth & mortifieth the fleshe: & crisyeth vs thar we are uerthelasse the sonnes of God: & also beloued though that synne rage neuer so moche in vs: to longe as we folowe the spyrte & feyghte agaynst synne to kyl & mortifie it. And because no thynge is so good to the mortifyinge of the fleshe: as the crosse & tribulacion: he cōfōrteth vs in oure passyons & afflictions: by the assuys of the spyrte which maketh intercession to God for vs: myghtely with groupages that pisse ma's vtteruince: so that mas herte cannot cōprehende them: a wyth the mournyng also of the creatures with vs: of greates desyre that they haue: that we were lowed fro synne & corrupcion of the fleshe. So he we that these the chapters: the viij. viij. do none other thynge to moche as to dyue vs vnto the ryghte woike of fapth: which is to kyl the olde man and mōrtifye the fleshe. In the ix. x. xi. chapters he treateth of Goddis predestinacion: & hence it spūgeth all to gether: whether we shall beleue or not beleue: be lowed fro synne or not be lowed. By which predestinacion oure iustifyinge & saluacion are cleane take oute of oure handes: & put in the handes of God only: which thynge is most necessarye of all. For we are to woike & so vncertaine: that if it stode in vs: there wolde of a truely no man be saved: the deuill no doute wolde deceaue vs. But now is God sure: that his predestinacion cannot deceaue hym: neither can any man withstand: let him: and therefore haue we hope and truste agaynst synne.

But were muste a marke be set vnto those bypunge/ but bye and hye clymyng spyrtes howe ferre they shall go: which fytt of all bringe hether there hye reason: & pūgnat wytes: & bygyne fytt from an hye to ferre thotomelise: & regetes of Goddis predestinacion: whether they be predestinat or not. These must nedes ether cast the selues downe hede dog into desperacion: or else cōmyt the selues to the chaunce carelesse. But folowe thou the order of this epistle: & not all thy selfe: I saye with Christ I lerne to vnderstande what the lawe & the gospell meane: & the offyce of both: & that thou mayst in the one knowe thy selfe: & how that thou hast of thy selfe no strenght: but to synne & in the other the grace of Christ. And then se thou fpyghte agaynst synne: & the fleshe as the viij. fytt. Chapters teache the. After that when thou arte come to the viij. chapter & arte vnder the crosse & suffryng of tribulacion: the necessitye of predestinacion will wape: & thou shalt well se howe pūcious a thynge it is. For excepte thou haue borne the crosse of aduerfite and temptacion: I saye seurelye thou shalt not be able to vnderstande the very bymyne of desperacion: & vnto hell gates: thou canst neuer meble with the sentence of predestinacion without thynne awne harme: without secret wraath & grūdyng inwardly agaynst God: for other wyse it shall not be possible for the to thynke that God is ryghteous & iuste. Therfore must Adam be well mortified and the fleschely wyte brought vterly to nought: per p thou mayst awaye with this thynge: & dyneke to stronge wyne. Take hede therefore vnto thy selfe: that thou dānce not wyne: whyle thou art yet but a lychpynge. For euery lychpynge hath hye tyme/measure & age: & in Christ is there a certayne chylthod: in which a mā must be content with myke for a reason: vntill he wake stronge & growe vnto a perfecte man in Christ: & be able to eate of moare stronge meate. In the xij. Chapter he geueth exhortacions. For this maner obferueth I am in all hys epistles: fytt he teacheth Christ & the fapth: then exhorteth he to good woikes: & vnto continual mortifyinge of the fleshe. So here teacheth he good woikes in deade: & the true lychpynge of God: & maketh all mōrtificacions to offer by not money & bestens as the maner was in the tyme of the lawe: but their awne bodies: with kylpynge & mortifyinge of the lustes of the fleshe. After that he descrebeth the outwarde conuersacion of Christen men: how they oughte to behaue the selues in spirituall thynges: how to teache/peache & rule in the congregacion of Christ: to ferue one to another: to suffre all thynges pūctly: & to cōmyt the woike & vengeance to God: in cōclufyō how a Christen man oughte to behaue him selfe vnto all men: to frend/foe or what loener he be. These are the ryghte woikes of a Christen mā which springe oute of fapth. For fapth hepeyth not holpe daye: neither suffreth any mā to be yde: wherfore.

Thys do ye thou wilt vnderstande.

me her of God: meadeth mas lawe to teache her to do hye: dutie. And as in pūgnyng he dyd put forth Christ as the cause & auctor of oure ryghtewines & saluacion: euen so here setteth he hym forth as an ensample to conterfayte: that as he hath done to vs: enen so shulde we done one to another.

In the xliij. Chap. he teacheth to deale soberly in the consciēce of the weke in the fapth: which vnderstand not yet the libertie of Christ perfectly pūgh: & to fauer the of Christ loue: & not to vse p libertie of p fapth vnto hyndrance: but vnto the furtherance & edifyinge of the weake. For where so che cōsideracion is not: there followeth debate & despising of the Gospell. It is better therfore to forbere p weake a whyle: vntill they were stronge: then that the learnyng of the Gospell shulde come all to gether vnder fote. And such woike is the singular woike of loue: & where loue is perfect: there must nedes be such a respect vnto the weake: a thynge p Christ cōmanded & charged to be had aboue all thynges.

In p. xij. Chap. he setteth forth Christ agayne to be folowed: & we also by his ensample shuld suffre other that are yet weake: as the that are faple/ope spynners/ vnterned/ vnterperce/ of lothsome maners: & not to cast them awaye for a lychpynge: but to suffre the tyll they were better: & exhorteth them in the meane tyme. For to deale Christ in the Gospell & now dealeth with vs: daily/ suffryng oure imperfections/ wekenes/ cōuersacion/ and maners: not yet fastyoned after the doctryne of p Gospell: but smell of the fleshe/ & sometyne breake out in outwarde dedes. After that to conclude id all he wylteth them encrease of fapth/peace/ & ioye of consciēce: pūctly the & cōmitteth them to God: & magnifyeth his offyce & administracion in the Gospell: & soberly & with greates discrecyon descrebeth succoure and ayde of them: for the poore synners of Ierusalem: it is all pure loue that he spekeyth of: & dealeth with all. So finde we in this pūctle pūctly: vnto the vntowarde: whatsoeuer a Christen man or woman ought to knowe: that is to wete what the lawe/ the Gospell/ synne/ & grace/ fapth/ rightewines/ Christ/ God/ good woikes/ Loue/ hope/ & the crosse are: and euen where in the pūctle of all that pertayneth to the Christen fapth: & howe a Christen man oughte to behaue him selfe vnto euery man: be he perfect or a synner/ good or bad/ stronge or weake/ frend or foe: and in conclusyō howe to behaue oure selues both toward God & toward oure selues also. And all thynges are profoundly grounded in the scripures: & declared with ensamples of him selfe/ of the fathers/ and of the prophetes: that a man can here desyre no moare. Wherfore it appereth euidently p Pauls mynde was to comprynde heryn in thys pūctle all the hole lernynge of Christes wo. Whis epistle is in hys herte/ the same hath the lycht & the effecte of the olde testamēt with him: wherfore let euery man withoute ex: is the dyne into ceptis cōceptis him selfe therin vntill he receiue it night & daye cōtinually: vntill he be fullye acquaynted therwith. All the scripures.

The last Chapter is a Chapter of recomendacion: wher in he yet mynglyth a good monycion: & we shulde beware re/ & p he yep of the tradicions & doctryne of men: which begyle the simple with sophistery & lernynge that is not after the Gospell: openly it aduise & drawe them from Christ: and noosell them in weake and feble and (as I saye) callethe them in the pūctle to the Gata: bringeth mē to thynge in bedgerly ceremonies for the entent p they wolde lyne in fatte pastures & be in auctorite: and be taken as the true vnder Christ: & aboute Christ: and lye in the temple of God: that is to wite in the consciēces of men where God only/ standinge of it. hys woide/ and his Christ ought to lyte. Compare the fore all maner doctryne of men vnto the scripures & se whe ther they agree or not. And cōmitte thy selfe whole & all to gether vnto Christ: and so shall he wyth hys holy spyrte and the last Chap.

The somme and hole cause of the wytyng of this Epistle/ is to proue that a man is iustified by fapth onlye: which propofycon who to denyeth/ to him is not only this Epistle and all that I saye: but also the hole scripture so locked by: that he shall neuer vnderstande it to his soules health. And to bypunge a man to the vnderstandynge and fapth: that fapth onlye iustifyeth: I saule proueth that the hole nature of mā is so pūcted & so corrupced: & so deead concerninge godly lychpynge: or godly thynkynge: that it is impossible for hye to kepe p lawe in the syght of God: that is to saye: to loue it/ and of loue & lust to do it as naturally as a mā eateth or drincketh: vntill he be quychend agayne & heales thorow fapth. And by iustifyinge/ vnderstande none other thynge then to be recōiled to God: & to be restōred vnto his fauoure: & to haue thy synnes forgiven the. As when I saye God iustifieth vs: vnderstande therby: that God for Christes sake/ merites & deseruynges onlye recōueth vs vnto his merce/ fauore & grace: and forgeneth vs oure synnes. And when I saye Christ iustifieth vs: vnderstande therby: that Christ hath onlye redēd vs/ bought & deliuered vs oute of the wraoth of God: & damncacion: & hath with hys woikes onlye/ purchasid vs the merce/ the fauoure and grace of God: & the forgenes of oure synnes. And when I saye that fapth onlye iustifieth/ vnderstande therby: that fapth & trust in the trueth of God & in p merce/ promysed vs for Christes sake: for his deseruynges & woikes onlye/ doth quyet the conscience and certifye hye: that oure synnes be forgiven and we in the fauoure of God.

Further more/ let before thynne eyes Christes woikes and thynne awne woikes. Christes woikes onlye iustifye the & make satisfaccion for thy synnes: thynne awne woikes not: that is to saye/ quyeteth thy conscience: & make the sure p thy synnes are forgiven the: & not thynne awne woikes. For the promys of merce is made the for Christes woikes: & not for thynne awne woikes sake. Wherfore seinge God hath not promysed that thynne awne woikes shall saue the: therfore fapth in thynne awne woikes can neuer quyet thy conscience: ner certifye the before God: (when God cōmeth to iudge and to take a reconyng) that thy synnes are forgiven the. Weponde all this/ myne awne woikes can neuer satisfie the lawe: or pūge hye: that I owe hye. For I owe the lawe to loue hye: with all myne hert/ soule/ power & myght. Which thynge to pūge I am neuer able whyle I am cōpased with fleshe. For I cannot once begynne to loue the lawe: except I be fytt lye by fapth that God loueth me and forgeneth me. Finallye: that we saye fapth onlye iustifyeth/ ought to offende no man. For p thys be true: p Christ onlye redēd vs/ Christ onlye bare oure synnes/ made satisfaccion for them and purchasid vs the fauoure of God: then must it nedes be true: that p trust onlye in Christes deseruynges and in the promys of God the father made vs for Christes sake/ doth onlye quyet the conscience & certifye hye: that the synnes are forgen. And when they saye: a mā must repent: for sake synne: & haue a purpose to synne no moare as nye as he can & loue the lawe of God: Ergo fapth alone iustifyeth not. I answer: that and all lyke argu mentes are nought: & lyke to this. I must repent & be forp/ the Gospell must be preached me: and I must beleue it: or else I cannot be partaker of merce: which Christ hath deserued for me: Ergo Christ onlye iustifieth me not: or Christ onlye hath not made satisfaccion for my synnes. As this is a naughty argument/ so is the other.

Now go to reader/ and accordpunge to the order of Pauls wytyng: eue to do thou. Fyrt beholde thy selfe dily gently in the lawe of God: & se there thy iust damncacion. Secondlye turne thynne eyes to Christ: & se there the exreadyng merce of thy moost hynde & louyng father. Thyrly remember that Christ made not this attonement that thou shuldest anger God agayne/ neither dyed he for thy synnes: that thou shuldest lyue still in the: neither clen sed he the: that thou shuldest retorne: as a synne/ vnto thynne olde podell agayne: but p thou shuldest be a new crea ture and lyue a new lyfe after the wyll of God: and not of the fleshe. And be dyligent lest thow lose thynne awne negligēce & vntanfulness: thou lose this fauoure and merce agayne.

The Epistle of the Apostle Saynt Paul to the Romaynes.

Paul declareth his love toward the Romaynes/ with what the Gospel is with the true theof/ & rebuketh the weakeynes of the fleshe.

The first Chapter.

Paul the seruauit of Iesus Christ called to be an apostle put a parte to preache the Gospel of God/ which he promysed afore by his Prophetes in the holy scriptures & make mention of his sonne/ the which was begotten of the fced of Dauid/ as pertainyng to the fleshe/ and declared to be the sonne of God/ with power of the Holy goost that sanctifyeth. fence the tyme that Iesus Christ oure Lorde rose agayne from deeth/ by whom we haue receaued grace and Apostleshippe/ to bringe all maner hethen people vnto the obeyence of the sayth/ that is in his name/ of the which hethen are ye a part also/ whych are Iesus Christes by vocacion.

To all you of Rome beloued of God and by calling/ is as a sayntes by callinge. * Grace be with you and peace from God oure father/ and fro the Lorde Iesus Christ. If ye be I thanke my God thorow Iesus Christ/ for you all/ because youre sayth luyng: for the is published throug out all the worlde. For God is my wytnes/ whom I serue with my sprete in the Gospel of his sonne/ that with sayntes/ and it out ceasynge I make mencyon of you all- wayes in my prayers/ beleschyng that at one tyme or other/ a prosperous tomye/ by the will of God/ myght fortune me/ to come vnto you. For I longe to se you/ that I myght bestowe amonge you some spirytual gyfte/ & grace betw you and peace. By grace/ here vnderstande the comen sayth/ which both ye and I haue. I wolde that ye shuld knowe byethen/ where with he how that I haue often tymes purposed to come vnto you (but haue bene let hyther to) to haue some frute amonge you/ as I haue amonge other of the Gentys. For I am deter both to the Grekes and to them which are no Grekes/ vnto the learned and also vnto the vnlearned. Lyke wyse/ as moche as in me is I am redy to preache the Gospel to you of Rome also. For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ because it is the power of God vnto saluacyon to all that beleue/ namely to the Jewe/ and also to the Gentyle. For by it the ryghtewesnes which cometh of God/ is opened/ from sayth to sayth. As it is witten: the iust shall lyue by sayth. For the wrath of God apereth from heauyn agaynst all vngodlynes and vnyghtewesnes of men which withholde the truthe in vnyghtewesnes: it ynge/ what maye be knowen of God/ that same is manifest amonge them. For God oyd shewe it vnto the. So that they must pble thynges: that is to saye/ bys eternall power and godhed/ are vnderstande and fene/ by the workes from the creation of the worlde. So that they are without excuse/ in as moche as wht they knewe God/ they glorified him not as God/ nether were thankfull but waxed full of vanities in their imaginations/ and their folish hertes were bynded. When they counted themselves wyse/ they became folles and turned the glory of the immortal God/ vnto the similitude of the ymage of mortal man/ & of bydes/ and foure footed beastes/ and of serpentes. Wherefore God lyke wyse gaue the by vnto their hertes lustes/ vnto vncleannes/ to defyle their awne boddys bitwene the selues: whych touned bys truthe vnto a lye/ & worshypped and serued the creatures more then the maker/ which is blessed for euer. Amen. For this cause God gaue them by vnto shamefull lustes. For euē their women byd chaunge the naturall vse vnto the vnnaturall. And lyke wyse also the men lette the naturall vse of the womā/ & bent in their lust/ one to another. And mā to mā wrought filthynes/ & receaued in the selues the rewarde of their erreure/ as it was accordyng.

And as it semed not good vnto the to be a known of God/ euē so God deliuered the by vnto a leaude mynd/ that they shulde do the things which were not comly/ beinge full of all vnyghteous doynges/ of fornicacion/ wickednes/ coneteoufnes/ malicousnes/ full of enuye/ moztter/ debate/ dyspette/ euyl condycioned/ whysperers/ backbiters/ haters of God/doers

Which men though they knew the ryghtewesnes of God/ how they which commyt loche thynges/ are worthy of deeth/ yet not only do the same/ but also haue pleasure in them that do them. The rebuketh the Jewes/ which as touchyng synne are lyke the Grekes/ & worse then they.

his will/ & hast experience of good/ & bad/ in the rebuke of the lawe: & beleuest that thou thy selfe arte a gyde vnto the bynde/ a lyght to them which are in darcknes/ an informer of them which lacke discrecyon/ a teacher of vnlearned/ which hast the ensample of that which ought to be knowen/ and of the truthe/ in the lawe. But thou which teachest another/ teachest not thy selfe. Thou preache a man shuld not steale/ and yet thou stealest. Thou sayst/ a mā shuld not comyt aduoutry/ and thou breakest wedlocke. Thou abhorrest ymages/ and robbest God of his honoure. Thou reioycest in the lawe/ & thorow breakyng the lawe/ dishonourest God. For the name of God is euyl spoken of amonge the Gentys thorow you/ as it is witten.

Circumcision becomyth a ypleth/ if thou kepe the lawe. But if thou break the lawe/ thy circumcision is made vncircumcision. Wherefore if the vncircumcised kepe the right thynges contained in the lawe/ shall not his vncircumcision be counted for circumcision? And shall not vncircumcision which is by nature/ if it kepe the lawe/ iudge the which beynge vnder the letter and circumcision/ dost transgrede the lawe? For he is not a Jewe/ which is a Jewe outwarde. Neither is that thinge circumcision which is outwarde in the fleshe. But he is a Jewe which is hyd within/ and the circumcision of the herte is the true circumcision/ which is the sprete & not in the letter/ whose prayle is not of men/ but of God.

The fethers what preferment the Jewes haue/ and that both the Jewes and Gentys are vnder synne/ are iustified only by the grace of God in Christ.

What preferment then hath the Jewe? Other what auantageth circumcision? Surely very moche. First vnto the was committed the worde of God. What then though some of the dyd not beleue? that their vnbeleue make the promes of God with out effecte? God forbid. Let God be true/ & all men lyars/ as it is witten: that thou myghtest be iustified in thy sayinge/ & shuldest overcome/ when thou art iudged.

If oure vnyghtewesnes make the ryghtewesnes of God more excellent: what shall we saye? Is God vnyghteous whych taketh vengeance? I speake after the manner of men. God forbid. For how then shall God iudge the worlde? If the veritie of God appere moare excellent thorow my lye/ vnto his prayle/ why am I hence forth iudged as a synner? I saye not rather/ (as men euyl speake of vs/ and as some aspyne that we saye) let vs do euyl that good maye come therof. Whose damnyon is iuste. What sayewe then? Are we better then they? No/ in no are not vnder þe lawe: but vnder grace? God forþþ. Remember ye not how that to whoſoever ye comyt you reſelues as ſeruauntes to obey: his ſeruauntes ye are to who ye obey: whether it be of ſynne vnto deeth/ or of obedience vnto rightewelleſſe? God be thanked/ that though ye were once the ſeruauntes of ſynne/ ye haue yet obeyed wyth herte vnto þe forme of doctrine wher vnto ye were deliuered. Ye are then made fre fro ſynne/ and are become the ſeruauntes of rightewelleſſe. I will ſpeake groſſy becauſe of the infirmitie of youre fleſhe. As ye haue geue youre members ſeruauntes to vncleines & to iniquitie fro iniquyte vnto iniquyte: euē ſo now geue youre members ſeruauntes vnto rightewelleſſe/ that ye maye be ſanctified. For whē ye were the ſeruauntes of ſynne/ ye were not vnder rightewelleſſe. What frute had ye then in thoſe thinges/ wherof ye are now aſhamed? For þende of thoſe thinges is deeth. But now are ye deliuered fro ſynne/ & made ſeruauntes of God/ & haue youre frute þe ſhuld be ſanctified/ & þende everlaſtinge life. For þe rewarde of ſynne is deeth: but eternall life is þe gyfte of God/ thozow Jeſus Chriſt oure Lorde.

eternall life is the gyfte of God/ thozow Jeſus Chriſt oure Lorde.

Chriſt hath deliuered vs from the lawe and deeth. But ſay we what the fleſhe and outwarde man is/ and calleth it the lawe of the members.

The viij. Chapter.

Remember ye not brethren (I ſpeake to them that knowe the lawe) how þe lawe hath power ouer a mā as longe as it endureth? For þe woman which is in ſubiection to a mā/ is bounde by þe lawe to the mā/ as longe as he lyueth. If the mā be deed/ ſhe is looſed from the lawe of the mā. So then yf whill the mā lyueth ſhe couple her ſelfe to another mā/ ſhe ſhalbe counted a wedlocke breaker. But yf the mā be deed/ ſhe is fre fro the lawe: ſo that ſhe is no wedlocke breaker/ though ſhe couple her ſelfe with another mā.

ye are deed concerning the lawe. To be deed concerning ye ſhulde be coupled to another (I meane to the lawe is to him that is ryſen agayne from deeth) that we ſhulde bringe forth frute vnto God. For whē we were in the fleſhe/ the luſtes of ſynne which were ſtered by the lawe raygned vnto deeth. But now are we deliuered fro the lawe and deeth from that wherunto we were in bondage that we ſhuld ſerue in a newe conuerſation of the ſpyte/ and not in the olde conuerſation of the letter.

Euē ſo ye my brethren/ are deed concerning the lawe by the body of Chriſt/ that ye ſhulde be coupled to another (I meane to the lawe is to him that is ryſen agayne from deeth) that we ſhulde bringe forth frute vnto God. For whē we were in the fleſhe/ the luſtes of ſynne which were ſtered by the lawe raygned vnto deeth. But now are we deliuered fro the lawe and deeth from that wherunto we were in bondage that we ſhuld ſerue in a newe conuerſation of the ſpyte/ and not in the olde conuerſation of the letter.

What ſhall we ſaye then? is the lawe ſynne? God forþþ: but I knowe not what ſinne meāt but by the lawe. For I had not knowne what luſt had meāt/ excepte the lawe had ſayd/ thou ſhalt not luſt. But ſynne toke an occaſion by the meanes of the commaundement/ and wrought in me all manner of concupiſcence. For beſely without þe lawe/ ſynne was deed. I once lyued without lawe. But when the commaundement came/ ſynne reynued/ and I was deed. And the very ſame commaundement which was ordeyned vnto life/ was ſoſde to be vnto me an occaſion of deeth. For ſynne toke occaſion by the meanes of þe commaundement/ and ſo dyſceaued me/ & by the ſelfe commaundement clewe me. Wherfore the lawe is holy/ and the commaundement holy/ juſt and good.

Was that then which is good/ made deeth vnto me? God forþþ. Maye ſynne was deeth vnto me/ that it myght appere/ how þe ſynne by the meanes of that which is good/ had wrought deeth in me: that ſynne which is vnder the commaundement/ might be out of meaſure ſynfull. For we knowe that þe lawe is ſpirituall: but I am carnall ſolde vnder ſynne/ becauſe I wote not what I do. For what I wold/ that do I not: but what I hate/ þe do I. If I do now that which I wolde not/ I graunte to þe lawe that it is good. So then nowe/ it is not I that do it/ but ſynne that dwelleth in me. For I knowe that in me (that is to ſaye in my fleſhe) dwelleth no good thinge. To will is preſent to me: but I fynde no meanes to perſorme that which is good. For I do not that good thinge which I wold but that euil do I/ which I wold not. Finally yf I do that I wolde not/ then is it not I that do it/ but ſynne that dwelleth in me/ doeth it. I fynde then by the lawe/ that when I wolde do good/ euyl is preſent with me. I deſire in the lawe of God/ concerninge the inner man. But I ſe another lawe in my members rebellinge agaynſt the lawe of my mynde/ and ſubouynge me vnto the lawe of ſynne/ which is in my members. O wretched man that I am: who ſhall deliuer me from this body of deeth? I thanke God thozow Jeſus Chriſt oure Lorde. So then I my ſelfe in my mynde ſerue the lawe of God/ and in my fleſhe the lawe of ſynne.

The lawe of the ſpyte geueth lyfe. The ſpyte of God maketh vs Gods children and heyes with Chriſt. The aboundaunt loue of God can not be ſeperated.

The viij. Chapter.

There is then no damnacion to them which are in Chriſt Jeſu/ which walke not after þe fleſhe: but after the ſpyte. For the lawe of þe ſpyte þe bringeth lyfe thozow Jeſus Chriſt/ hath deliuered me from the lawe of ſynne/ & deeth. For what the lawe coulde not do in as moche as it was weakē becauſe of the fleſhe: that performed

Synne is the perſonified God/ & ſent his ſonne in the ſynne: here for a ſimilitude of ſynfull fleſhe/ & by ſynne damned ſynne in þe fleſhe: þe rightewelleſſe requyred of the lawe/ myght be fulfilled in vs/ which walke not after þe fleſhe/ but after the ſpyte.

For they þe are carnall/ are carnally mynded. But they that are ſpirituall/ are goſtly mynded. To be carnally mynded/ is deeth. To be ſpirituallly mynded is life & peace.

Because that þe fleſhly mynde is emptye agaynſt God: for it is not obedient to þe lawe of God/ neyther can be. So then they that are geuen to the fleſhe/ cannot pleaſe God.

But ye are not geuen to þe fleſhe/ but to the ſpyte: yf to be that þe ſpyte of God dwel in you. If ther be any mā that hath not the ſpyte of Chriſt/ the ſame is none of hyſ. If Chriſt be in you/ the body is deed becauſe of the ſpyte: but the ſpyte is lyfe for rightewelleſſe sake. Wherfore yf the ſpyte of him þe rayſed vp Jeſus from deeth/ dwell in you: euē he þe to ſynne wyll rayſed by Chriſt from deeth/ ſhall quychen ſynne quychen youre mortall bodies/ becauſe that his ſpyte dwelleth in you.

Therfore brethren we are nowe betters/ not to the fleſhe/ to liue after þe fleſhe. For yf ye lyue after the fleſhe/ ye muſt dye. But yf ye mortifye þe dedes of the body/ by þe helpe of þe ſpyte/ ye ſhall lyue. For as many as are led by the ſpyte of God: they are the ſonnes of God. For ye haue not receaued the ſpyte of bondage to feare any moare/ but ye haue receaued the ſpyte of adoption wherby we crye Abba father. The ſame ſpyte certifieth oure ſpyte that we are the ſonnes of God.

If we be ſonnes/ we are alſo heyes/ & heyes I meane of God/ and heyes anered in Chriſt yf to be that we ſuffer to gether/ & we maye be glorified to gether.

For I ſuppoſe that the afflictions of this lyfe/ are not worthy of þe glory which ſhalbe ſhewed vpon vs. Alſo the ſeruent deſyre of þe creatures abydeþ loyngē when the ſonnes of God ſhall appere/ becauſe þe creatures are ſubdued to baynte agaynſt their wil: but for his wil which ſubdueth them in hope. For the very creatures ſhalbe deliuered fro the bondage of corrupcion into þe glorious libertie of the ſonnes of God. For we knowe that euery creature grooneth with vs alſo/ & travayleth in payne euē vnto this tyme.

Not they only/ but euē we alſo which haue the fyrſt fruites of þe ſpyte/ moe in oure ſelues & wayte for the (adoption) & loke for þe deliuerance of oure bodies. For we are ſaued ſayd by hope. But hope that is ſene is no hope: for how can a mā hope for that which he ſeeth? But and yf we hope for that we ſe not/ then do we with patience abyde for it.

Lyke wyſe the ſpyte alſo helpeth oure in firmities. For we knowe not what to deſyre as we ought: but the ſpyce maſtly intereſſe ſyon mightly for vs with groynages which cannot be expreſſed with tonge. And he that ſearcheth the hertes/ knoweth what is the meaninge of the ſpyce: for he maketh interceſſion for the ſayntes accordyngē to the pleaſure of God.

For we knowe þe all thinges worke for the beſt vnto them that loue God/ which alſo are called of purpoſe. For thoſe which he knowe befoze/ he alſo ordeyned befoze/ that they ſhulde be lyke faſtyoned vnto the ſhape of his ſonne/ þe he myght be the fyrſt begotte ſonne amonge many brethren. Wherouer which he appoynted befoze/ the alſo he called. And which he called/ them alſo he juſtified/ which he juſtified/ them he alſo glorified.

What ſhall we then ſaye to theſe thinges? yf God be on oure ſyde: who can be agaynſt vs? which ſpared not his awne ſonne/ but gaue him for vs all: how ſhall he not with hyma geue vs all thinges alſo? Who ſhall laye any thinge to the charge of Goddes choſen? it is God that juſtifieth: who then ſhall cōdempne? it is Chriſt which is deed yee rather whych is ryſen agayne/ whych is alſo on the ryght hande of God & maketh interceſſion for vs.

Who ſhall ſeperate vs fro þe loue of God? what tribulacion? or anguyſhe? or perſecucion? or other honger? ether nakedneſſe? ether parrell? ether ſwearde? As it is wyrtten: for lo: we are counted as ſhepe apoynted to be ſlayne. Neuertheleſſe in all theſe thinges we ouercome ſtrongly thozow his helpe that loued vs. Ye and I am ſure that neyther deeth/ neyther lyfe/ neyther Angels/ nor rule/ neyther power/ neyther thinges preſent/ neyther thinges to come neyther he ygh/ neyther loweth/ neyther any other creature ſhalbe able to departe vs fro þe loue of God/ ſhewed in Chriſt Jeſu oure Lorde.

But cōplayneth vpon the hard hertes of þe Jewes that wolde not receaue Chriſt/ and how the heythens are choſen in theyr ſteade.

The ix. Chapter.

Saye the trueth in Chriſt/ and I ye not/ in that wherof my conſcience beareth me wytnes in þe holy ghōſt that I haue grete heynenes and continual ſorowe in my hert. For I haue wyllyd my ſelfe to be curſed fro Chriſt/ for my brethren & my kynnen as pertayninge to þe fleſhe/ which are þe Iſraelites. To who pertayneth the adoption/ & the glorie/ & the conuerſion/ & the lawe that was geuen/ and the ſeruite of God/ and the promyſes: whoſe alſo are the fathers and they of whome (as concernyng the fleſhe) Chriſt came/ which is God ouer all thinges bleſſed for ever Amen.

I ſpeake

Chryſtoſtome

I speake not these thynges as though the word of God had take none effecte. For they are not all Israelites which came of Israel: neither are they all chyldren straght waye because they are the seed of Abraham. But in Isaac shall thy seed be called: this is to saye/ they which are the chyldren of the fleshe/ are not the chyldren of God. But the chyldren of promys are counted the seede. For thys is a worde of promys/ aboute thys tyme wyl. I come/ and Sara shall haue a sonne.

Neither was it so wyllyng only: but also when Rebecca was wyllyng chylde by one/ I meane by our father Isaac/ per the chyldren were borne/ when they had nether done good nether bad: that the purpose of God which is by election/ myght stande/ it was layde vnto her/ not by reason of workes/ but by grace of the caller: the elder shall serue the younger. As it is writtē: Jacob he loued, but Esau he hated. What shall we saye then? is there any vnrightewesnes to God? God forbid. For he sayth to Moses: I wyl shewe mercy to whom I shewe mercy: and wyl haue compassion on whom I haue compassion. So lieth it not then in a mans will or runninge/ but in the mercede of God. For the scripture sayth vnto Pharaon for this same purpose haue I stered the byp/ to shewe my power on the/ & that my name myght be declared thowout all the worlde. So hath he mercede on whom he wyl/ and whom he wyl/ he maketh hard herted.

Thou wylt saye then vnto me: why then blameth he vs per? For who can resist his will? But O mā, what arte thou whych disputest with God? Shall the worke saye to the worke? he man: why hast thou made me on this fashyon? Hath not the potter power ouer the clay/ euen of the same lump to make one vessel vnto honoure/ and another vnto dishonoure? Euen so/ God willinge to shewe his power/ and to make his power knowe/ sufferinge with longe patience the vessels of wrath/ ordeyned to damnacion/ that he myght declare the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercede/ whych he had prepared vnto glory: that is to saye/ of which he called/ not of the Jewes only/ but also of the gētyls. As he sayth in Osee: I wyl call them my people whych were not my people: and her beloved whych was not beloved. And it shall come to passe in the place where it was sayd vnto them/ ye are not my people: that there shall be called the chyldren of the lyuynge God.

But Elaias cryeth concernynge Israel/ though the nombre of the chyldren of Israel be as the sonde of the see yet shall but a remnant be saved. He synneth the worde hereby/ & maketh it short in rightewesnes. For a short worde wyl God make on erth. And as Elaias sayd before: except the Lorde of Saboth had left vs seede/ we had bene made as Sodom/ and had bene lykened to Gomorra.

What shall we saye then? We saye that the gentyls which folowed not rightewesnes haue ouertaken rightewesnes: I meane the rightewesnes which cometh of sayth. But Israel which folowed the lawe of rightewesnes could not attayne vnto the lawe of rightewesnes. And wherfore? Because they sought it not by sayth: but as it were by the workes of the lawe. For they haue stumbled at the stonelyng stone. As it is writtē: Beholde I put in Syon a stonelyng stone/ and a rocke which shall make men faule. And none that beleue on him/ shall be ashamed.

The vnfaithfulness of the Jewes. Two maner of rightewesnes.

The .x. Chapter.

Let us my heres desyre a prayer to God for Israel is/ that they myght be saved. For I beare them recorde that they haue a seruient mynne to God warde/ but not accordynge to knowledge. For they are ignorant of the rightewesnes which is alowed before God/ and go about to stablysh their awne rightewesnes/ and therfore are not obedient vnto the rightewesnes which is of faile before God. For Christ is the ende of the lawe/ to fulfill all that beleue.

Moses describeth the rightewesnes which cometh of the lawe/ how that the man which doth the thynges of the lawe/ shall lyue therin. But the rightewesnes which cometh of sayth/ speaketh on this wyle. Saye not in thine hert/ who shall ascende into heauen/ & ther to fetch Christ downe/ thus beleue/ is Othcr who shall descende into the depe? (For is nothinge els but to fetch by Christ fro deeth) But what sayth the scripture? The worde is nye the/ eue in thy mouth and in thine herte.

This worde is the worde of sayth whych we preache. For yf thou shalt knoweledge by thy mouth that Jesus is the Lorde/ & shalt beleue with thine hert that God raised hym fro deeth/ thou shalt be safe. For the belefe of the hert fulfillyth/ & to knoweledge with the mouth maketh a man safe. For the scripture sayth: whosoever beleueth on him shall not be ashamed.

There is no dyfference betwene the Jewe & the Gentyll. For one is Lorde ouer all/ which is ryche vnto all/ & call on him. For whosoever shall call on the name of the Lorde/ shall be saved. But how shall they call on him/ on who they beleue not? how shall they beleue on him of whom they haue not herde? how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preache/ except they be sent? As it is writtē he sent/ that is/ writtē: how beautifull are the feet of them which bringe glad tydings of peace/ and bringe glad tydings of good thynges. But they haue not all obeyed to the Gospell. For Elaias sayth: Lorde who shall beleue oure saynges? So then sayth cometh by hearinge cometh by the worde of God. But as he haue they not herde? No doubt/ their sounde wet out into all landes: & their word into the endes of the worlde. For I demaunde whether Israel byd knowe or not? Yf yf Moses sayth: I wyl prouo- he you to may/ by them that are no people after that/ is holde and sayth: I am founde of them that sought me not/ and haue appered to them that alked not after me. And agaynst the sayth: Israel he sayth: all daye longe haue I stred/ ched forth my handes vnto a people that beleueth not/ but speaketh agaynst me.

All the Jewes are not cast awaye/ therfore I saue the gentyls that be called/ not to be hye mind not to be hye Jewes/ for the indgements of God are depe and secrete.

The .xi. Chapter.

Saye then: hath God cast awaye his people? God forbid. For euē I herely am an Israelite/ of the seed of Abraham/ & of the tribe of Benjamin/ God hath not cast awaye his people whych he knewe before. Ethen wote ye not what the scripture sayth by the mouth of Elaias/ how he maketh intercession to God agaynst Israel/ saying: Lorde they haue kylled thy prophetes & dygged doune thine altars: & I am lefte on ly/ & they seke my lyfe. But what sayth the answer of God to him agayne? I haue reserved vnto me leuē thousande me whych haue not bowed the knee to Baal. Euen so at this tyme is ther a remanant leste thowout the electio of grace. If it be of grace/ then is it not of workes. For then were grace no moare grace. If it be of workes/ then is it no moare grace. For then were deseruinge no longer deseruinge. What then? Israel hath not obtayned that he sought. No but yet the electio hath obtayned it. The remanant are blinded/ accordynge as it is writtē: God hath geue the sprete of vnquyetnes/ eyes that they shuld not se & eares that they shuld not heare/ eue vnto thys daye. And Dauid sayth: Let their table be made a snare to take them with all/ & an occasion to faule/ & a rewarde vnto the. Let their eyes be blinded that they se not: & eue and euen/ & howe done their backs.

I saye then: haue they therfore stumbled/ that they shuld be but faule only? God forbid. But thowowe these faule is saluacion haue ned vnto the gētyls/ for to prouoke the wrath of the gentyles all. Wherfore yf the faule of the/ be the ryches of the worlde: and the mynysynge of them & oppressed is the ryches of the gentyls: how moche moare shulde it be so/ yf they all beleue. I speake to you gētyls/ in as moche as I am a gentyll. I wyl magnify myne office/ & I myght prouoke the which are my faule/ & I myght saue some of the. For yf the castinge awaye of them/ be the recouynge of the worlde: what shall the recouynge of the be/ but lyfe agayne from deeth? For yf one pece be holy the whole heepe is holy. And yf the rote be holy/ the banches are holy also.

Though some of the banches be broken of/ and thou bringe a wy de olyue tree/ arte graft in amonge the/ & made partaker of the rote and fatnes of the olyue tree/ bost not thy selfe agaynst the banches. For yf thou bost thy selfe/ remeber that thou bearest not the rote/ but the rote the. Thou wilt saye then: the banches are broken of/ that I myght be grafte in. Thou sayest well: because of vnbeleue they are broken of/ & thou standest stedfast in sayth. Be not hye mynded/ but feare seynge the God spared not the naturall banches/ le it haply he also spare not the.

Beholde the kindnes & rigour of God: on the whych fell/ rigourousnes: but to ward the/ kindnes: yf thou continue in his kindnes. Or is thou shalt be hewed of/ & they yf they byde not styll in vnbeleue/ shall be graffed in agayne. For God is of power to graffe them in agayne. For yf thou wast cut out of a naturall wilde olyue tree/ and wast graffed contrary to nature in a true olyue tree: how moche moare shall the naturall banches be graffed in their awne olyue tree agayne.

I wolde not the secrete shulde be hyd fro you my brythren (lest ye shuld be wyle in poure awne consayces) that partly by kindnes is happened in Israel/ but yll the fulnes of the gentyls be come in: & so all Israel shall be saved. As it is writtē: & here shall come out of Syon he doth deliuer/ & shall turne awaye the vngodlynes of Jacob. And this is my covenante vnto them/ when I shall take awaye their synnes. As concerning the gospell they are enemyes for your sakes: but as touching the electio they are loued for the fathers sakes.

For hereby the gyftes and callinge of God are soche/ that it cannot repent him of them: for loke/ as ye in tyme passed haue not beleued God/ yet haue now obtayned mercy thowow their vnbeleue: eue so now haue they not beleued the mercy whych is happened vnto you/ & they also maye obtayne mercy. God hath wrapped all nacyns in vnbeleue/ that he myght haue mercede on all.

The depnes of the aboundant wysdome & knowledge of God: how vnsearchable are his iudgements/ & his wayes past findinge out.

The fleshy & proude mynd/ will be as wyllyng as God must be anoynted to leane to feare God & to obey him/ to leue disputinge with hym Philipp. iij. c.

True seruinge of God is to b. in ge the body vnto obedience of the lawe of God.

Beleue you therfore brethren/by the mercypur of God/ye make youre bodies a quicke sacryfice/holy & acceptable vnto God: which is youre resonable seruinge of God & satisfyng not your selus lyke vnto this worlde: but be ye chaiged in youre shape/by the renewinge of youre wittes that ye maye fele what thyng is good/that acceptable/a persaycte myll of God is. for I saye (thowtome & grace & bnto me geue is) to every man amonge you/ & no man esteeme of hym selfe moare then it becometh him to esteeme/ but & he discretely iudge of him selfe/accozdyng as God hath dealte to every man the measure of fayth.

1. Cor. xij. b. Ephes. iij. b.

Prophecie is taken here for expoundynge him that teacheth/take hys doctrine. whych in darth places must be expounded & agree to the ope places & geue all articles of the fayth

Amos b. Ephes. iij. a. 1. Pet. i. b.

As we haue many members in one body/a all mebers haue not one office: so we beynge many/are one body in Christ/and every ma amoge oure selues/one anothers mebers. & Scynge that we haue diuers giftes accozdyng to the grace that is geuen vnto vs: yf eny man haue a gyft of prophecie/let hym haue it & it be ager pinge vnto the fayth. Let hym that teacheth/take hys doctrine. Let hym that exhorteth/ geue attendaunce to his exhortacio. & if eny man geue/let him do it w singlenes. Let hym that ruleth/do it w diligēce. If eny ma shewe mercy/let him do it w cherfulness. Let loue be without dissimulacio. Hate & which is euyl/and cleaue vnto that which is good. Be kynde one to another w brotherly loue. In geuinge honoure/go one before another. Let not that busynes which ye haue in hande/be tedious to you. Be seruent in the spete. Applye youre selues to the tyme. Reioyce in hope. Be patient in tribulacio. Continue in prayer. Distribute vnto & necessarye of & sayntes & be readye to harbour. Blesse them which persecute you: blesse but couerle not. Be merry wth the that are merry. Wepe wth the & wepe. Be of lyke affectio one to wardes another. Be not hie minded: but make your selus equal to the of & lower sorte. & Be not wise in youre awne opynions. Recōpēce to no mā euyl for euyl. Bzouyde afoze hande thynges honest in & syght of all men. If it be possible/how best of youre parte/haue peace with all men. Dearly beloued auēge not youre selues/ but geue rōume vnto the wrath of God. for it is witten: vengeaunce is myne/a I will rewarde sayth the Lord. Therfore yf thyn enemy hunger/ fede him: yf he thirst/ geue him drynke. for in sodoing thou shalt heape coles of fyre on hys heed. Be not ouercome of euyl: but ouercome euyl wth goodnes.

The obedience of men vnto theyr rulers. Loue ful fylleth the lawe. It is how no tyme to folowe & wozkes of darthnes.

The xij. Chapter.

Euery soule submit him selfe vnto the pautozpte of the hyer powers. for there is no power but of God. The powers & be/are ordeyned of God. Who soeuer therfore resisteth power/ resisteth & ordinaunce of God. And they & resist/ shall receaue to the selfe danacyon. for rulers are not to be feared for good wothes/ but for euyl. Wilt thou be without feare of the power? Do wel then: & so shalt thou be payd led of the same. for he is & minister of God/ for thy welth. But and yf thou do euyl/then feare: for he beareth not a sword for nought but is & minister of God/ to take vengeaunce on the that do euyl. Wherefore ye must nedes obeie/ not for feare of vengeaunce only: but also because of conscience. And euē for this cause paye ye tribute. for they are Goddes ministers/seruinge for the same purpose. Geue to every man therfore his due: tribute to whom tribute belongeth: custome to whom custome is due: feare to who feare belongeth: honoure to who honoure pertaineth. & Owe nothinge to eny mā: but to loue one another. for he & loueth another/fulfylleth the lawe. for these comaundementes: thou shalt not comit aduouty: thou shalt not kyll thou shalt not steale: thou shalt not beare false wytnes: thou shalt not despyse & so forth (yf there be eny other comaundement) they are all comprehended in this sayinge: Loue thynē neyghbour as thy selfe. Loue hurteth not hys neyghbour. Therfore is loue the fulfyllinge of the lawe.

And this also we knowe/ I meane & season/ howe that it is tyme & we shuld now awake oute of slepe. for now is oure saluacyō neare then whē we beleued. The nyght is passed and the daye is come nīe. Let vs therfore cast awaye the dedes of darthnes/ and let vs put on the (Armoure) of lyght. Let vs walke honestly as it were in the daye lyght: not in tynge and dzycknyng: nether in chamburyng and wantannes/ nether in styffe & enuynge: but put ye on & Lord Iesus Christ. And make not prouysyon for the fleshe/ to fulfyll the lustes of it.

The weakē ought not to be despyed. No mā shulde offende anothers conscience. Agayne/ for outwarde thynges shulde no man condempne another.

Hym that

To the Romayns.

1. b. iij.

The xij. Chapter.

In that is weakē in & sayth/ receaue vnto you/ not in outputynge a troublinge hys conscience. One be leueth & he maye eate all thyng. Another which is weakē/ eateth carbes. Let not him & eateth/ despyse him that eateth not carbes: And let not him whych eateth not/ iudge him that eateth. for God hath receaued hym. What arte thou that iudgest a nother mannes conscience that seruant? Whether he stande or faule/ that knoweth the & pertaineth vnto his master: ye/ he that liade. for God is able to make him stande.

This man putteth differēce betwene daye & daye. Another mā counteth all dayes aspye. & he & no mā wauer in his awne meanyng. & he that obserueth one daye moare then another/ doeth it for the Lordes pleasure. And he that obserueth not one daye moare then another/ doeth it to please the lord also. He that eateth/ doeth it to please the lord/ for he geueth God thankes. And he that eateth not/ eateth not/ to please the lord with all/ and geueth God thankes. for none of vs lyueth his awne seruant: nether doeth any of vs dye his awne seruant. If we lyue/ we lyue to be at the Lordes wyll. And yf we dye we dye at the Lordes wyll. Whether we lyue therfore or dye we are the Lordes. for Christ therfore dyed for us/ and rose agayne/ and reuyued that he myght be Lord both of deed and quicke.

But why dost thou then iudge thy brother? Dost thou despyse thy brother? We shalbe all brought before the iudgement seate of Christ. for it is witten: as truly as I lyue sayth the Lord/ all knees shall bowe to God. So shal euery one of vs geue accountes of him selfe to God. Let vs not therfore iudge one another eny moare.

But iudge thys rather/ that no man put a bloke rightwys stonblinge blocke or an occasion to faule in his brothers waye. for I knowe and am full certyfyed in the Lord Iesus that ther is nothyng comen of it selfe: but vnto him & iudged. & he geueth it to be comen: to him is it comen. If thy brother be greued wth thy meate/ now walke wth thy meate/ for whom Christ dyed. Cause not youre & treasure to be euyl spoken of. for & kyngdome of God is not meate & drynke: but rightewynes/ peace & ioye in & holy goost. for whosoever in these thyngs serueth Christ pleaseth well God/ & is commended of men.

Let vs folowe tho thynges which make for peace/ & thynges wherwith one maye edifye another. We shalpe not the wothe of God for a lytell meates sake. All thyngs are pure: but it is euyl for & mā/ which eateth with hurte of hys conscience. It is good nether to eate neither/ nether to dzycke wyne/ nether eny thyng/ wherby thy brother combleth/ euen faileth/ or is made weakē. Hast thou sayth? haue it wth thy selfe before God. Happy is he that condempneth not him selfe in & thyng whych he alloweth. for he that maketh conscience/ is dāpned yf he eate: because he doth it not of fayth. for whatsoeuer is not of fayth/ that same is synne.

The infymyte and frailtyes of the weakē ought to be borne wth all loue and kyndnes/ after the ensample of Christ.

The xij. Chapter.

Which are stroge/ ought to beare & fraynes of the which are weakē & not to stonde in oure awne consayntes. Let euery man please hys neyghbour vnto his welth and edifyng. Christ pleased not him selfe: but as it is witten fell on me. & Whatsoeuer thynges are witten afoze tyme/ are witten for oure learninge/ that we thoww parvence & comfote of the scripture/ myght haue hope.

The God of patience & consolacion/ geue vnto euery one of you/ & ye be lyke mynded one towarde another after the ensample of Christ Iesu: that ye all agreynge to gether/ maye wth one mouth praye God & father of oure Lord Iesus. Wherefore receaue ye one another as Christ receaued vs/ to & praye of God. And I saye that Iesus Christ was a minister of & circucision for the trueh of God/ to conferme the promyses made vnto the fathers. And let the gentylis praye God for his mercy/ as it is witten: for this cause I will praye the amonge the gentylis/ and syng in thy name. And agayne he sayth: reioyce ye gentylis wth his people. And agayne/ praye & Lord all ye gentylis/ & laude him all nacions. And in another place Clayas sayth: ther shalbe & rote of Jesse/ & he & shall rye to raygne ouer the gentylis: in him shall & gentylis trust. The God of hope fylle you wth all ioye and peace in beleuinge: that ye maye be ryche in hope thowtome the power of the holy goost. & I my selfe am full certyfyed of you my brethren/ that ye youre selues are full of goodnes and fylled wth all knowledge/ & are able to exhorte one another. & neuertheless brethren I haue some what boldly wrytten vnto you/ as one that putteth you in remembraunce/ thowtome & grace & is geuen me of God/ that I shuld be the mynster of Iesu Christ amoge the Gentylis/ and shuld minister the glad tydinges of God/ that the gentylis myght be an acceptable offerynge sanctyfyed by the holy goost. I haue therfore wherof I maye reioyce in Christ Iesu/ in tho thyngs which pertaine to God. for I dare not speake of eny of tho

thynges whych Christ hath not wrought by me, to make y^e Gentyls obediet/with worde and dede/in myghty sygnes & wonders/by y^e power of the spyete of God: so that from Jerusalem and the costes rounde aboute vnto Illyricum/ I haue fylled all countres wth the gladd tydynges of Christ.

The fyrst Epistle of Saynt Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians.

He commendeth the Corinthians/ exhorteth them to be of one mynde/ and rebuketh the diuysion y^e was amonge them. Wordly wysdome is folyshnes before God/ yee there is no wysdome but in the despised crosse of God.

The fyrst Chapter.

Paul by vocacyon an Apostle of Iesus Christ thozow the wyll of God/ and brother Sotenes.

a* Sayntes by callynge. De. loke Ro. vi. i. a.

Vnto the congregacion of God which is at Corinthum. To them that are sanctified in Christ Iesu/ & sayntes by callynge/ with all y^e call on y^e name of oure Lorde Iesus Christ in every place/ both of theys and of oures.

Grace be with you and peace fro God oure father/ and from the Lorde Iesus Christ.

I thanke my God all wayes on youre behalfe/ for the grace of God which is geuē you by Iesus Christ/ y^e in all thynges ye are made ryche by him/ in all lerninge and in all know ledge/ euen as the testimony of Iesus Christ was cōfermed in you/ so that ye are behynde in no gyft/ & wayte for the apperyng of oure Lorde Iesus Christ which shall strenght you vnto the ende/ that ye maye be blamelesse in the daye of oure Lorde Iesus Christ. For God is faythfull by whom ye are called vnto y^e fellyshippe of his sonne Iesus Christ oure Lorde. I beseeche you brythren in the name of oure Lorde Iesus Christ/ that ye all speake one thyng & y^e there be no dissencion amonge you: but be ye knyt to gether in one mynde & in one meanyng: It is shewed vnto me (my brythren) of you/ by them that are of y^e house of Cloe/ that ther is stryfe amonge you. And this is it that I meane: how that comenlye amonge you/ one sayeth: I holde of Paul/ another I holde of Apollo: the thyrde I holde of Cephas: the fourth I holde of Christ. Is Christ deuided? was Paul crucified for you? ether were ye baptised in the name of Paul? I thanke God that I christened none of you/ but Crispus and Gaius/ lest eny shulde saye y^e I had baptised in myne awne name. I baptised also the house of Stephana. Forthermoze knowe I not whether I baptised eny man or no.

For Christ sent me not to baptise/ but to preache the Gospell/ not wth wysdome of wordes/ lest the crosse of Christ shulde haue bene made of none effecte. For the preachinge of the crosse is to them that perisse folyshnes but vnto vs which are saued it is the power of God. For it is wyrtten: I wyll destroye the wysdome of the wyle/ and wyll cast awaye the vnderstandynge of the proude. Where is the wyle? Where is the scribe? Where is the searcher of this worlde? Hath not God made the wysdome of this worlde folyshnes?

For when the worlde thozowe wysdome knewe not God/ in the wysdome of God: it pleased God thozow folyshnes of preachinge to saue them that beleue. For the Jewes requyre a sygne/ & the Grekes seke after wysdome. But we preache Christ crucified/ vnto the Jewes an occasyon/ of fallynge/ & vnto the Grekes folyshnes: but vnto them which are called both of the Jewes and Grekes/ we preache Christ the power of God and the wysdome of God. For the folyshnes of God is wyser then men: & the weakenes of God is stronger then men. Brythren loke on youre callinge how that not many wyle men after y^e fleshe/ not many myghty/ not many of hye degre are called: But God hath chosen the folysh thynges of the worlde/ to confounde y^e wyle. And God hath chosyn y^e weakie thynges of the worlde/ to confounde thynges whych are myghty. And byle thynges of the worlde/ & thynges which are despised/ hath God chosen/ yee and thynges of no reputacyon/ for to bynge to nought thynges of reputacyon/ y^e in the fleshe shulde reioyce in his presence. And vnto him partayne ye/ in Christ Iesu/ which of God is made vnto vs wysdome/ and also good/ & fauour/ ryghtwylnes/ & sanctifyinge and redēption. What accordynge as it is wyrtten: he whych reioyseth/ shulde reioyce in the Lorde.

It is not eloquence and gloriouse paynted wordes of wordly wysdome/ that can edifye & couerte soules do/ is forgenit vnto Christ: but the playne wordes of the Scripture/ for they make mencion of him and his crosse. which he dothe not as he shuld hymt & not imputed vnto him Jere. viij. c. I. b. And

To the Corinthyans.

lxx.

And brethren when I came to you / came not in gloriousness of word / or of wisdom / shewing unto you testimony of God. Neither shewed I myself that I knewe any thyng amonge you / save Jesus Christ / even the same that was crucified. And I was amonge you in weaknes / and in feare / and in moche tremblinge. And my wordes & my preachyng was not wth entyngyng wordes of mannes wysdome: but in shewing of the spete and of power that youre sayth shuld not stande in the wysdome of men: but in the power of God.

But what we speake of / is wysdome amonge the that are perfecte: not the wysdome of this worlde / neither of the rulars of this worlde (which go to nought) but we speake of wysdome of God / which is in secretes & lyeth hidd / which God ordeyned before tyme of the worlde / unto oure glory: which wysdome none of the rulars of this worlde knewe. For had they knowen it / they wolde not have crucified the Lord of glory. But as it is wrytten: The eye hath not sene / & the eare hath not hearde / neither have entered into the heart of man / the thynges which God hath prepared for them that love hym.

CBut God hath opened the vnto us by his spete. For the spete searcheth all thynges / & he knoweth the thynges of a man: save the spete of a man which is with in him. For so the thynges of God knoweth no man / but the spete of God. And we have not receaved the spete of the worlde: but the spete which cometh of God / for to knowe the thynges that are geuen to us of God / which thynges also we speake / not in the comynge wordes of mannes wysdome / but with the comynge wordes of the holy ghost / making spirituall comparisons of spirituall thynges. For the naturall man perceaueth not the thynges of the spete of God. For they are but folyshnes but hym. Neither can he perceave them / because he is spirituallly examined. But he that is spirituall / discussech all thynges: yet he him selfe is iudged of no man. For who knoweth the mynde of the Lord / other who shall informe hym? But we understande the mynde of Christ.

DPaul rebuketh the sectes and authores therof. Christ is the foundation of his church. No man ought to relope in men / but in God.

The iii. Chapter.

And I coulde not speake vnto you brethren as vnto spirituall: but as vnto carnall / even as it were vnto babes in Christ. I gaue you mylke to drinke / a not meate. For ye then were not stronge / no neither yet are. For ye are yet carnall. As longe verely as ther is amonge you enuyng / stryfe & dissencion: are ye not carnall / & walche after the manner of men? As longe as one sayth / I holde of Paul / & another I am of Apollo / are ye not carnall? What is Paul? What thyng is Apollo? Only mynisters are they by whom ye beleue / eue as the Lord gaue euery man grace. I have plantid / Apollo watered: but God gaue the encrease. So then / neither is he that planteth any thyng / neither he that watereth / but God that gaue the encrease. He that planteth & he that watereth / are neither better then the other. Euery man yet shall receaue his rewarde accordyng to his labour. We are Goddes labourers / & we are Goddes bylding. Accordyng to the grace of God geuen vnto me / as a wyle bylder haue I layde the foundation. And another bylt thereon. But lett euery man take hede how he byldeth vpon. For other foundation can no man laye / then that which is layde / which is Jesus Christ. If any man byld on this foundation / golde / syluer / precious stones: eue / timber / haye / or stoble: eue / ry mannes worke shall appere. For the daye shall declare it / and it shall be shewed in fyre. And the fyre shall trye euery mannes worke what it is. If any mannes worke he hath bylt vpon / vpon / he shall receaue a rewarde. If any mannes worke burne / he shall suffer losse: but he shalbe safe hym selfe: neither the lesse yet as it were thozow fyre.

Ere ye not wate that ye are the temple of God / & how that the spete of God dwelleth in you? If any man defyle the temple of God / him shall God destroye. For the temple of God is holy / which temple ye are. Let no man deceaue hym selfe. If any man seme wyle amonge you / let him be a sole in this worlde / that he maye be wyle. For the wysdome of this worlde is folyshnes with God. For it is wrytten: he compasseth the wyle in their craftyness. And agayne / God knoweth the thoughtes of the wyle that they be dayne. Therefore let no man reioyce in men. For all thynges are poures / whether it be Paul / ether Apollo / ether Cephas: whether it be the worlde / ether tyme / ether death / whether they be present thynges or thynges to come: all are poures: & ye are Christes / & Christ is Goddes.

The preachers are but mynisters. Judgement be longeth only vnto God.

The iii. Chapter.

Et me this wyle esteeme vs / eue as I ministers of Christ / & disposers of the secretes of God. Furthermore it is requyred of the disposers that they be founde saythfull. With me is it but a very small thyng / that I shuld be iudged of you / ether of mans daye. No I iudge not myne awne selfe. I knowe nought by myselfe.

The iii. Chapter.

Ere ye not th. I am iustified. It is the Lord that iudgeth me. Therefore iudge no thyng before tyme by my selfe. For the Lord cometh / which will lyghten thynges that are hidd in darknes and open the counsels of the heartes. And then shall euery man haue prayse of God.

But these thynges brethren I haue described in myne awne person and Appolos / for youre sakes / that ye myght learne by vs. & no man counte of hym selfe beyonde that which is aboute wytt: & one shew not agaynst another for engmans cause. For who preferreth the? What hast thou / that thou hast not receaved? If thou haue receaved it / why reioycest thou as though thou haddest not receaved it? Now ye are full: now ye are made ryche: ye raygne as kynge without vs: and I wolde to God ye dyd raygne / that we myght raygne with you.

Ere thynketh that God hath set forth vs which are Apostles / for the lowest of all / as it were men appointed to deeth. For we are a galyng stroke vnto the worlde / and to the Angells / and to men. We are soles for Christes sake / and ye are wyle thozow Christ. We are weak / & ye are stronge. Ye are honorable / & we are despised. Euen vnto this daye we hunger and thirst / and are naked / and are boffetted with fylles / and haue no certayne dwellinge place / and laboure moche wyth oure awne handes. We are reuyled / and yet we blesse. We are persecuted / and suffer it. We are euill spokid / and we praye. We are made as if we were the fylthynges of the worlde / the offcomynge of all thynges / euen vnto this tyme.

I wryte not these thynges to shame you: but as my beloued sonnes I warne you. For though ye haue ten thousande instructours in Christ: yet haue ye not many sayth ys. In Christ Iesu / I haue begotten you thozow the Gospell. Wherefore I desyre you to folowe me. For this cause haue I sent vnto you Timotheus / which is my deare sonne and sayth full in the Lord / which shall put you in remembrance of my wayes which I haue in Christ / eue as I teache euery where in all congregacions. Some well as though I wolde come no more at ye. But I will come to you shortly / & God will: & ye all knowe / not by wordes of the which swell / but the power: for the kyngdome of God is not in wordes / but in power. What will ye? Shall I come vnto you with a rodde / or els in loue & in the spirit of mekeness?

After what maner Paul curseth the man that had comitted fornicacion with his mother in lawe.

The b. Chapter.

Ere goth a comen sayng that either is fornicacion amonge you / & fornicacione loche for ycarpen as is not ome named amonge the gentis: & one shuld haue his fathers wyle. And ye well / & haue not rather forpowed / that he which hath done this dede / might be put fro amonge you. For I verely as absent in body / euen to present in spete haue determynd all redy / as though I were present / of him that hath done this dede / in the name of oure Lord Iesu Christ / when ye are gathered to gether / and my spete / with the power of the Lord Iesu Christ / to deliuer hym vnto Satan / for the destruction of the fleshe / that the spete maye be saued in the daye of the Lord Iesus.

Youre retyngyng is not good: knowe ye not that a lytic leue cometh & whole lomp of doue. & purge therfore the olde leuen / that ye maye be new doue / as ye are swete breed. For Christ oure efferlambe is offerid by for vs. Therefore let vs kepe holy daye / not with olde leue / neither with the leue of maliciousnes and wickednes: but with the swete breed of purenes and trulhe.

I wryte vnto you in a pistle & ye shuld not copany with fornicatours. I no I meant not at all of the fornicatours of this worlde / ether of the coueteous / or of extorsioners / ether of the ydolaters: for then must ye ned haue gone out of the worlde. But now I wryte vnto you / that ye copany not to gether / & eny & is called a brother / be a fornicator / or coueteous / or a worshipper of ymages / ether a replayer / ether a dronchard / or an extorsioner: wth hym & is soche se that ye eate not. For what haue I to do / to iudge the which are wythout? Ye ye not iudge them that are with in: them & are wythout / God shall iudge. Put awaye from amonge you that euill person.

The rebuketh the so: goinge to lawe together before the heiden / & reproach vnto lawe.

The vi. Chapter.

Ere one of you haue goth another go to lawe vnder the wyched / & not rather vnder the sayntes. Do ye not know that the sayntes shall iudge the worlde? If the worlde shalbe iudged by you: are ye not good ynough to iudge small trifles: knowe ye not how & we shall iudge & angels? How moche more maye we iudge thynges that pertaine to the lyfe? If ye haue iudgements of worlde / delv matters / take them which are despyled in the congregacion / & make them iudges. This I saye to youre shame. Is ther betterly no wyle man amonge you? What not one at all / that can iudge betwene brother and brother / but one brother goth to lawe with another: and that vnder the vnbeleuers?

Now

Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why rather suffer ye not wronge? why rather suffer ye not your selues to be robbed? naye/ye your selues do wronge/ & robbe: & that the vnterly. Do ye not remember how that the vnterly shall not inheret the kyngdome of God? Be not deceaued. For neither fornicatours / neither worshipp-

These & such like have no part in Christ. neither worshippers / neither weaklings / neither abusers of the selues with & makyng / neither theues / neither couetous / neither drunken / neither cursed speakers / neither pillars / shall inheret the kyngdome of God. and soche were ye verely: but ye are washed: ye are sanctified: ye are justified by the name of the Lorde Jesus / & by the spere of oure God.

Sanctifications by the spere of oure God. All thynges are lawfull vnto me: but all thynges are not profitable. I maye do all thynges: but I will be vnder nomas power. Meates are ordeyned for the belly / & the belly for meates: but God shall destroye both it & them. Let not the body be applyed vnto fornicacion / but vnto the Lorde: & the Lorde vnto the body. God hath rayled by the Lorde / & shall rayle vs by his power.

Whether remember ye not / that your bodies are & members of Christ: shall I now take & members of Christ / & make the members of an harlot? God forbid. Do ye not vnderstande that he which coupleth hym selfe with an harlot / is he come one body? For two (sayth he) shall be one fleche. But he that is ioyned vnto the Lorde / is one spere.

He fornicatyon. All synnes & a man dothe / are without the body. But he that is a fornicator / synneth agaynst his awne body. Euer knowe ye not how that your bodies are the temple of the holy ghost / which is in you / who ye haue of God / & how that ye are not your awne? For ye are dearly bought. Therefore glorifye ye God in your bodies and in your spere: for they are Goddes.

Of marriage / virgynite & wyddowehede. The viij. Chapter. Concernyng the thynges wherof ye wrote vnto me: it is good for a man / not to touche a woman. Neuerthelesse to a boyde fornicacion / let every man haue his wyfe: & let every woman haue her husbnde. Let the man geue vnto the wyfe due beneuolence. As the wyfe hath power ouer her awne body: but the husbnde. And as the wyfe & husbnde hath not power ouer his awne body: but the wyfe. Wyth drawe not your selues one from another / except it be in consent for a time / for to geue your selues to fastynge & prayer. And afterwarde come agayne to the same thyng / lest Satan tempt you for your incontinencie.

This I saye of fauoure / and not of commaundement. For I wolde that all men were as I my selfe am: but every man hath his proper gyfte of God / one after this manner / another after that. I saye vnto the vnmarrid men and wyddowes: it is good for the yf they abyde euen as I do. But and yf they cannot abstayne / lett them marry. For it is better to marry then to burne.

Vnto the marryed commaunde not I / but the Lorde: that the wyfe separate not her selfe fro the man. If she separate her selfe / let her remayne vnmarrid or be reconcyled vnto her husbnde agayne. And lett not the husbnde put away his wyfe from him.

To the remnant speake I & not the Lorde. If any brother haue a wyfe & beleueth not / yf he be content to dwell with him / lett hym not put her away. And if he which hath to her husbnde an inuicell / yf he consent to dwell with her / lett her not put hym away. For the vnbelyuynge husbnde is sanctified by the wyfe & the vnbelyuynge wyfe is sanctified by her husbnde. Or els were your chyldren vncleane: but now are they pure. But and yf the vnbelyuynge departe / lett hym departe. A brother or a syster is not in subiection to soche. God hath called vs in peace. For how knowest thou o woman / whether thou shalt saue & ma or no? Other how knowest thou o man whether thou shalt saue & woman or no: but euen as God hath distributed to every man.

As the Lorde hath called every person / so lett him walcke: and so orden I in all congregacions. If any man be called beyng circumsised / lett him adde nothyng thereto. If any be called vncircumsised: lett hym not be circumsised. Circumcision is nothyng / vncircumcision is nothyng: but the keepyng of the commaundementes of God is all together. Let every man abyde in the same state wherin he was called. Arte thou called a seruauant: care not for it. Neuerthelesse yf thou mayst be fre / vse it rather. For he & is called in the Lorde beyng a seruauant is the Lorde freman. As the wyfe he that is called beyng fre / is Christis seruauant. Ye are dearly bought / & be not menes seruantes. Brethren let every man wherin he is called / therin abyde wyth God. As concernyng virgyns / I haue no commaundement of the Lorde: yet geue counsell / as one & hath obtayned mercye of the Lorde to be saythfull. I suppose & it is good for a man so to be. Arte thou bounde vnto a wyfe: seke not to be losed. Arte thou losed from a wyfe: seke not a wyfe. But & yf thou take

As to burne after. And when the will consenteth to the lust of the fleche.

Now are they pure / not that chyldren are cleane & pure by nature / for they were agaynst the spelle of the world which is in the world. But all are vnder original synne / & naturally the chyldren of God.

But his meaning is here / that as all thynges are cleane vnto the cleane. Euen so to a chylde: man an vncleane wyfe is cleane / so that he maye be conuerst with her / & not offende in doynge / & that the chyldren of the are not to be reputed as vncleane.

Be not menes seruantes. For the seruauant of man here / is to do any thyng for the sake of man / which the will from the source of God / whiche they dyllyngent. And do not agayn.

More. regarde menes preceptes & ordynances than the very iusticions of God: ye / than God hym selfe. This is to saye / & not that we should deny to be seruantes to oure masters to whiche we be bounde accordyng to the ordynapment in conuynement.

As to the we are raylyng commaund in dunyng places of the scripures to be obeyent with loue & diligence in all thynges aggrete to Goddes holy wyll.

As a man haue the spere / chastite is good / the more quyetlye to serue God / for the which haue of a wyfe thou synnest not. As the wyfe of a virgin mary / she synneth not. Neuerthelesse soche shall haue trouble in their fleche: but I saue you.

This I saye brethren / the tyme is shorte. It remayneth that they which haue wyues / be as though they had none / and they that wepe be as though they wept not: and they that reioyce / be as though they reioyced not: & they that bye / be as though they possessed not: and they that vse this worlde / be as though they bled it not. For the fashion of this worlde goeth away. I wolde haue you without care. The synge ma careth for the thynges of the Lorde how he maye please the Lorde. But he & hath married / careth for the thynges of the worlde / how he maye please his wyfe. There is difference betwene a virgin & a wyfe. The single woman careth for the thynges of the Lorde / & she maye be pure both in body & also in spere. But she that is married / careth for the thynges of the worlde / how she maye please her husbnde. This speake I for your profit / not to tangle you in a snare: but for & which is honest & comly vnto you / & ye maye quyetly cleaue vnto the Lorde without separacyon.

If any man thinke that it is vncome for this virgin / yf she passe the tyme of marriage / and yf so neede requyre / lett hym do what he lysteth / he synneth not: lett the be coupled in marriage. Neuerthelesse he that purporeth surely in his herte / hauyng none neede: but hath power ouer his awne wyll: & hath so decreed in his herte / that he wyll kepe his virgin / both well. So then he & to syneth his virgin in marriage / doth well. But he & to syneth not his virgin in marriage / doth better. The wyfe is bounde to the lawe as long as her husbnd lyueth. If her husbnde slepe / she is at libertye to marry with who she wyll / only in the Lorde. But she is happyer yf she so abyde / in my iudgement. And I thinke verely that I haue the spere of God.

He rebuketh the & vse their liberte to the scandal of other / and sheweth how men ought to behaue them towardes soch as be weake.

The iij. Chapter. I speake of thynges dedicate vnto ydols / we are sure that we all haue knowledge. Knowledge maketh a man well: but loue edifieth. If any man thynke & he knoweth eny thyng / he knoweth nothyng yet as he ought to know. But yf any man loue God / & same is knowe of him.

To speake of meate dedycat vnto ydols / we are sure & ther is none ydell in the worlde. And that ther is none other God but one. And though ther be that are called Goddes / whether in heauē other in erth / as ther be Goddys many and lordes many / yet vnto vs is there but one God / which is the father / of who are all thynges / and we in him: and one Lorde Jesus Christ by whom are all thynges / and we by him. But every man hath not knowledge. For some suppose that ther is an ydell: but yll this house / and eate as a thyng offered vnto the ydole / and so their consciences beyng yet weake / are defyled. Meate maneth vs not acceptable to God. Neither yf we eate / are we & better. Neither yf we eate not / are we the worse.

But take hede that your liberte cause not the weake to faule. For yf some man se the which hath knowledge / yf at meate in ydols temple / shall not the conscience of him be poysoned / which is weake / be boldened to eate those thynges which are offered to the ydole? And so thowow thy knowledge shall & weake be sother perishe for whom Christ dyed. When ye synne to agaynst the brethren / & wounde their weake consciences / ye synne agaynst Christ. Wherefore yf meate hurt my brother / I wyll eate no fleshe whill the worlde stondeth / because I wyll not hurte my brother.

Loue for beareth the thyng that the maye do by lawe. He exhorteth the to runne on forth in the course that they haue begonne.

The iij. Chapter. I am not an apostle: am I not free? haue I not sene Jesus Christ oure Lorde? Are ye not my worke in the Lorde? If I be not an apostle vnto you / yet am I vnto you. For the seale of myne apostleshippe are ye in the Lorde. Myne spere bereth answer to them that aske me / is this. Haue we not power to eate and to dryncke? Euer haue we not power to leade about a sister to the brethren of the Lorde a Cephas: euer only other apostles & Barnabas haue not power this to do? Who goeth a warfare eny tyme at his awne cost: who planteth a vyneyarde / & eateth not of the frute? Who sedeth a flocke & eateth not of the mylke?

Saye I these thynges after the maner of men: Or sayth not the lawe the same also: For it is wyttē in the lawe of Moses: Thou shalt not mollell the mouth of the ore that treadeth oute the corne. Doth God take thought for oxen? Euer sayth he it not all together for oure sakes: For oure sakes no doute this is wyttē: that he which careth / shulde eare in hope: & that he which thoweth in hope / shulde be partaker of his hope. If we soe vnto you spiritual thynges: is it a great thyng yf we receyue your carnall thynges? If other be partakers of this power ouer you / wherefore are not we rather?

Neuerthelesse we haue not bled this power: but suffice all thynges lest we shulde hynder

In all our behyng we must haue respect to oure ydols temple / shall not the conscience of him be poysoned / which is weake / be boldened to eate those thynges which are offered to the ydole? And so thowow thy knowledge shall & weake be sother perishe for whom Christ dyed. When ye synne to agaynst the brethren / & wounde their weake consciences / ye synne agaynst Christ. Wherefore yf meate hurt my brother / I wyll eate no fleshe whill the worlde stondeth / because I wyll not hurte my brother.

The Epistle

hynder the Gospell of Christ. Do ye not vnderstande how that they which minister in the temple/haue their synnynge of the temple? And they which wayte at the aulter/are partakers with the aulter. Euen so also dyd the Lorde odayne/that they which preache the Gospell/shulde lyue of the Gospell. But I haue used none of these thynges.

C Neither wrote I these thynges that it shuld be so done vnto me. For it were better for me to dye/then that any man shuld take this reioysynge from me. In that I preache the gospell/I haue nothyng to reioyce of. For necessity is put vnto me. Who is it vnto me yf I preache not the Gospell? If I do it to a good wyll/I haue a reward. But yf I do it agaynst my will/an office is comitted vnto me. What is my rewarde then? Merely that when I preache the Gospell/I make the Gospell of Christ fre/that I misule not myne auctorite in the Gospell.

For though I be fre fro all men/ yet haue I made my selfe seruaunt vnto all men/that I myght wyne the moo-vnto the Jewes/I be came as a Jewe/to wyne the Jewes. To them that were vnder the lawe/ was I made as though I had bene vnder the lawe/to wyne them that were vnder the lawe. To the Jewes I were with out lawe / became I as though I had bene with oute lawe/when I was not with oute lawe as pertynyng to God / but vnder a lawe as concernynge Christ/to wyne the Jewes that were with oute lawe. To the weakes I became I as weakes/to wyne the weakes. In all thynges I fastyoned my selfe to all men / to saue at the lest wape some. And this I do for the Gospels sake / that I myghte haue my parte therof.

Perceauye ye not how I they which runne in a course/runne all/ yet but one receaueth the rewarde. So runne ye maye obtayne. Every man p proueth matteries/abstayneth fro all thynges. And they do it to obtayne a corruptible crowne:but we to obtayne an vncorruptible crowne. I therfore so runne / not as at an vncertaine thyng. So fyght I/not as one that beateth the ayer: but I tame my body/and byynge it into subieccio/ lest after I haue preached to other/I my selfe shuld be a cast awaye.

C He seareth them with the ensamples of the olde Testament/and exhorteth them to a Godly conuersion.

The x. Chapter.

Brethren I wolde not that ye shuld be ignorant of this / how I oure fathers were all vnder a cloude / a baptised vnder Moyses/in the cloude & in the see: & did all eate of one spirituall meate/and dyd all dryncke of one maner of spirituall dryncke. And they dryncke of that spirituall roche that folowed them/ whych roche was Christ. But in many of them had God no delyte. For they were ouerthrowen in the wyldernes.

These are ensamples to vs. & we shulde not lust after euill thynges/as they lusted. Neither be ye worshyppers of ymages as were some of the accordeynge as it is wyttē: The people sate downe to eate a dryncke/ & role by agayne to playe. Neither let vs comit fornicacio as some of them comitted fornicacio/ & were destroyed in one daye. xxij. thousande. Neither lett vs tempte Christ/ as some of them tempted/and were destroyed of serpētes. Neither murmure ye as some of the murmured & were destroyed of a destroyer.

All these thynges happened vnto them for ensamples/ and were wyttē to put vs in remembraunce/whom the endes of the worlde are come vpon. Wherfore let him that thynketh he standeth/take hede lest he fall. Ther hath none other temptacon taken you/ but soche as foloweth the nature of man. But God is faythfull / which shall not suffer you to be tempted aboue youre strenght:but shall in the myddes of the temptacion make awaye to escape out. Wherfore my deare beloved fle from worshyppynge of ydols.

I speake as vnto them which haue discrecion/ iudge ye what I saye. Is not the cuppe of blessing which we blesse/partakynge of of the bloude of Christ? is not the breede which we breake/partetakynge of the body of Christ? because that we (though we be many) yet are one breede & one bodye in as moche as we all are partakers of one breede. Beholde Israel which walketh carnally. Are not they which eate of the sacrifice/partetakers of the aulter?

What saye I then? that the ymage is eny thyng? or that it which is offered to ymages is eny thyng? Nay but I saye/that these thynges which the gentyls offer/they offer to deuyls/ & not to God.

And I wolde not that ye shulde haue fellowship with the deuyls. Ye can not dryncke of the cup of the Lorde/ & of the cup of the deuyls. Ye cannot be partakers of the Lordes table/and of the table of deuylles. Either all we prouoke the Lorde: Or are we stronger then he? All thyngs are lawfull vnto me/ but all thynges are not expedient. All thyngs are lawfull to me/ but all thyngs edifye not. Let no man seke hys awne profite: but let euery man seke anothers welthe.

Whatsoeuer is solde in the market/that eate/ & aske no questions for conscience sake for the erthe is the Lordes / & all that therein is. If eny of them which beleue not/ byd you to a to a feast/ & yf ye be disposed to go / whatsoeuer is set before you: eate/ aske no question for conscience sake. But and yf eny man saye vnto you: this is dedycate vnto ydols/ eate not of it for hys sake & shewed it / & for hurtynge of conscience. The erthe is the Lordes and all that therein is. Conscience I saye/ not thynke: but the conscience of that other. * For why shulde my liberte be iudged of another mannes conscience. For yf I take my parte with thankes: why am I euill spoken of for that thyng wherfore I geue thankes.

* Whether therfore ye eate or dryncke / or whatsoeuer ye do/ do all to the prayse of God. & se ye geue none occasion of euill/ nether to the Jewes/ nor yet to the getyls/ nether to the congregacion of God: euen as I please all men in all thynges/ not sekynge myne awne profite/ but the profite of many / & they might be saued. Folowe me as I do Christ.

He rebuketh them for abuse and misorde that they had aboute the Sacrament of the body and bloude of Christ/ & bringeth the agayne to the fyrst institution.

The xi. Chapter.

Comende you brethren that ye remember me in all thynges/ & kepe the ordinaunces euen as I deliuered them to you. I wolde ye knew that Christ is the heed of euery man. And the mā is the womāns heed. And God is Christes heed. Every man prayinge or prophesyng hauing eny thyng on his heed/ shameth hys heed. Every woman that prayeth or prophesith bare headed/dishonesteth hys heed. For it is euen all one/ and the very same thyng/ euen as though we were hauen. If the woman be not couered/let her also be shozen. If it be shame for a woman to be shozen or hauen/let her couer her heed.

A man ought not to couer his heed/ for as moche as he is the ymage and glory of God. The woman is the glory of the man. For the man is not of the woman/ but the woman of the mā. Neither was the mā created for the womāns sake: but the womā for the mānes sake. For this cause ought the womā to haue power on her heed/ for the angels sakes. Neuer thelesse nether is the mā without the womā/ nether the womā without the mā in the Lorde. For as the woman is of the man / euen so is the man by the woman: but all is of God.

Judge in youre selues whether it be comly for a womā praye vnto God bare headed. Or els doth not nature teach you / & it is a shame for a man/ yf he haue longe heere: & a prayse to a woman/ yf she haue longe heere: for her heere is geue her to couer her withall. If ther be any man amonge you that lusteth to stryue let hym knowe I we haue no soche custome/ nether the congregacions of God.

This I warne you of/ and comende not that ye come to gether: not after a better maner but after a worse. & fyrst of all when ye come to gether in the congregacio/ I heare there is dyssencyō amonge you: & I partely beleue it. For ther must be sectes amonge you/ that they which are perfect amonge you/ myght be knowen. When ye come to gether/ a man cannot eate the Lordes supper. For euery mā begynneth afoze to eate his awne supper. And one is hōgyr/ & another is dryncke. Haue ye not houses to eate & to dryncke in? Or els despyle ye the congregacio of God/ and shame them that haue not: what shall I saye vnto you? Shall I praye you? In this prayse I you not.

That which I deliuered vnto you I receaued of the Lorde. For the Lorde Iesus the same nyght in which he was betrayed/ toke bread: & thanked & brake/ & sayde. Take ye/ & eate ye: this is my body which is broken for you. * This do ye in the remembraunce of me. The infirmite After the same maner he toke the cup/ when cyon of the supper was done/ sayinge: This do as oft as Sacrament ye dryncke it/ in remembraunce of me. For as often as ye shall eate this breede/ and dryncke this cup ye shall shewe the Lordes deeth/ tyll he come. Wherfore whosoever shall eate of this breede/ or dryncke of the cup vnto thely/ shalbe guiltye of the body & bloude of the Lorde. Let a man therfore examen hym selfe / & so let hym eate of the breede & dryncke of the cup. For he that eateth or dryncketh vnto thely/ eateth & dryncketh hys awne damnacon/ because he maketh no differēce of the Lordes body. For this cause many are weakes & syck amonge you/ & many slepe. If we haue truly iudged oure selues/ we shuld not haue bene iudged. But when we are iudged of the Lorde we are chastened / because we shuld not be damned with the worlde. Wherfore my brethren whē ye come to gedet/ & eate/ & dryncke one another. If any mā hōgyr/ let him eate at home/ & ye come not to gether vnto condēnacio. Other thyngs will I set in order whē I come.

The dyuersite of the gyftes of the holy goost/ geue to the confort & edyfyng of one another/ as the members of a mans body serue one another.

The xii. Chapter.

In spirituall thynges brethren I wolde not haue you ignorant. Only the fyrte I knowe that ye were gentyls. I went youre wayes vnto domine ydols/ eue as ye were ledde. Wherfore I declare vnto you I no mā speakynge in the spete of God/ despieth Iesus. Also no mā can saye that Iesus is the Lorde: but the holy goost. Ther are dyuersites of gyftes herely/ yet but one spete. And ther are differēces of amynys/ yet but one Lorde. And ther are dyuers diuers maners of operacions / & yet but one God whych woꝝketh all thynges that are wrought / in all creatures. The gyftes of * p spete are geuen to euery man / to pꝛofyt the congregation. To one is geuen thowowe the spete / the utteraunce of wysdome. To another is geuen the utteraunce of knowledge by p same spete. To another is geue sayth / by the same spete. To another the gyftes of hellynge by the same spete. To a nother power to do miracles. To a nother prophete.

To a nother iudgement of spetes. To a nother diuers toges. To a nother p interpreta-cion of tonges. And these all woꝝketh euen the selfe same spete / deuidyng to euery mā seuerall gyftes / euen as he wyll. E

For as the body is one / & hath many members / and all p members of one body though they be many / yet are but one body: eue so is Christ. For in one spete are we all baptysed to make one body / whether we be Jewes or Gentyls / whether we be bonde or fre / & haue all droncke of one spete. For the body is not one member / but many. If p fote saye: I am not the hande / therfore I am not of the body: is he therfore not of the body? And yf p eare saye: I am not the eye: therfore I am not of p body: is he therfore not of p body? If all the body were an eye / where were then the eare?
If all were hearynge: where were the smellyng? But now hath God disposed the members euery one of the in p body / at his awne pleasure. If they were all one member: where were the body? Now are there many members / yet but one body. And the eye can not saye vnto p hand / I haue no nede of the: nor the heed also to p fete / I haue no nede of you.
Yee rather a great deale those members of p body whych seme to be most feble / are most necessary. And vpo those members of p body whych we thynke lest honest / put we most honestie on. And oure vngodlye parties haue most beauty on. For oure honest members nede it not. But God hath so disposed p body / that he hath geue most honoure to p parte whych laked / lest there shuld be eny stryfe in p body: but that the members shuld indifferently care one for another. And yf one member suffer / all suffer with him: yf one member be had in honour / all members be glad also.

Ye are p body of Christ / & members one of another. And God hath also ordeyned in the cōgregation / fyrst the Apostles / secondarily prophetes / thridly teachers / then them that do myacles: after that / the gyftes of hea-lyng / helpes / gouerners / diuersite of toges.
Are all Apostles? Are all Prophetes? Are all teachers? Are all doers of mirack? Haue all the gyftes of healyng? Do all speake in tonges? Do all interprete? Couet after the best gyft. And yet shewe I vnto you a more re excellent waye.

The natur & condicions of loue.

The xiii. Chapter.

I though I speake with the tonges of men & angels / & yet had no loue / I were eue as soundyng byasse: or as a tynklyng cymball. And though I coude prophesy / & vnderstode all secretes / and all knowledge: yee / yf I had * all sayth / so I coude moue mountayns oute of their places / & yet had no loue / I were nothyng.
And though I bestowed all my good / to fede the poore and though I gaue my body euen that I burned / & yet had no loue / it pꝛofeteth me nothyng.

Loue suffreth longe & is courteous. Loue enureth not. Loue doth not frowardly / swelleth not / dealeth not dishonestly / sekech not her awne / is not prouoked to anger / thinkech not euill / reioyleth not in iniquite: but reioyleth in the trueth / suffreth all thyngs / be-leuech all thyngs / hopeth all thyngs / endurech in all thyngs. Though p prophesyng saye / other tonges shall cease / or knowledge vanysh / yet loue falleth neuer awaye.

For oure knowledge is vnperfect & oure prophesyng is vnperfect. But whē p which is perfect / is come / then that which is vnper-fect / shall be done awaye. When I was a chylde / I speake as a chylde / I vnderstode as a chylde / I ymagined as a chylde. But all one as I was a man / I put awaye chyldehodes.
Now we be in a glasse / euen in a darke speakyng: but then shall we se face to face. Now I knowe vnperfectly: but then shall I knowe euen as I am known. Now abydech sayth / of these is loue. E

The xiiii. Chapter.

I about for loue & couet spetual but vnto God. For no man heareth him. How beit in the spete he speakech misteries. But he that * prophesieth / speakech vnto men / to edifyng / to exhortacion and to comforte.

He that speakech with tonges / pꝛofiteth him selfe: he that prophesieth / edifieth the congregacion. I wolde that ye all spake in tonges: but rather that ye prophesied. For greater is he that prophesyeth / then he that speakech in tonges / except he expounde it also: that the congregation maye haue edifyng. Now breledge / or pꝛophecyng / or doctrine.

Howeuer whē thynge without lyfe: geue founde: whether it be a pype or an harpe: except they mahe a distinccon in the soundes:
how shall it be knownen what is pyped or harped? And also yf the trompe geue an vncertayne voyce / who shall prepare hym selfe to feghte? Euen so lykwys when ye spake in tonges / excepte ye speake wordes that haue significacion / how shall it be vnderstande what is spoken? For ye shall but speake in the ayer.

Many kyndes of voyces are in p world / and none of them are with out significacio.
If I knowe not what the voyce meaneth / I shal be vnto him that speakech / an alien / & he p speakech shal be an alien vnto me. Eue so ye / for as moche as ye couet spetual gifedifyng of the congregation.

Wherefore let him p speakech with tonges in tonges my spete prayeth: but my mynde is wythout frute. What is it then? I wyll praye with the * spete / & wyll praye with p mynde also. I wyll synge with the spete / and wyll synge with the mynde also.

* To speakech

To speake in the mynde is to speake that other vnderstande /
as whē the pꝛea-
cher pꝛeacheth.

For els when thou bledest with the spete / how shall he that occupieth the roume of the vnlearned / saye Amē at the geuyng of thankes / sayng he vnderstandeth not what thou sayest. Thou verely geuest thākes well / but the other is not edified. I thanke my God / I speake with tonges moare then ye all. Yet I had I leuer in the congregacion / to speake foure wordes with my mynde to the informacion of other rather then ten thousand wordes with the tonges.

Brethren / be not chyliden in wytte. Now be it as concernyng maliciounes / be chylde but in wytte be perfect. In p lawe it is wrytten with other tonges / and with other lippes wyll I speake vnto this people / & yet for all that / will they not heare me / sayth the Lord.
Wherefore / tonges are for a sygne / not to the that beleue: but to them that beleue not. Contrary wyse / pꝛophecyng serueth not for the that beleue not: but for them whych beleue.
If therfore when all the congregacion is come to gether / and all speake with tonges / they come in they that are vnlearned or they whych beleue not: will they not saye p ye are out of youre wites? But & yf all prophesy / and they come in one p beleuech not / or one vnlearned / he is rebuked of all men / & is iudged of euery man: & so are the secretes of his heart opened / and so falleth he doune on his face / and woꝝhippeth God / and sayth that God is with you in dede.

How is it then brethren? Whē ye come to gether / euery mā hath his songe / hath his doctrine / hath his tonge / hath his reuelacion / hath his interpretacio. Let all thinge be done vnto edifyng. If eny mā speake wth ton-ges / let it be two attonce or at the most thye attonce and that by course / and lett another interprete it. But yf ther be no interpreter / lett him kepe sylence in the congregacion / & lett him speake to him selfe and to God.

Let the prophetes speake two attonce / or thye attonce / & lett the other iudge. If eny re-uelacion be made to another that sytteth by / lett the fyrst holde his peace. For ye maye all prophesy one by one / that all maye learne / & all maye haue comforte. For the spetes of p prophetes are in the power of p prophetes.
For God is not causer of stryfe: but of peace / as he is in all other cōgregacions of p saynct.

Let youre wyues kepe sylence in the congregacions. For it is not permitted vnto the to speake: but let the be vnder obedience / as sayth p lawe. If they wyll learne eny thinge / lett the aske their husbandes at home. For it is a shame for women to speake in the cōgregacion. Spronge the worde of God fro you?
Whether came it vnto you only? If eny mā thin-ke hym selfe a prophet / ether spirituall / lett him vnderstande / what thynges I wyte vnto you. For they are p cōmandmentes of the Lord. But & yf eny mā be ignorant / lett hym be ignorant. Wherefore brethren couet to pꝛo-phesy / & forbyd not to speake with tonges.
And lett all thinge be done honestly & in order.

Resurrection. If Christ be preached how that he rose fro the dead: how saye some that are amonge you/that ther is no resurrection of the dead?
 If ther be no rylenge agayne of þ deed: then is Christ not rylen. If Christ be not rylen/then is oure preaching bayne/ & your sayth is also in bayne. Ye and we are founde faile wytnesses of God. For we haue testifed of God/how that he rayled by Christ whom he rayled not by/ yf it be so that þ deed ryle not agayne. For yf the deed ryle not agayne/then is Christ not rylen agayne. If it be so that Christ rose not/then is youre faith in bayne/& yet are ye in youre synnes. And therto they which are fallen a slepe in Christ are perys-shed. If in this lyfe only we beleue on Christ/then are we of all men the miserablest.

But now is Christ risen from the dead / & is be come the first frutes of them that slepe. for by a man came death / and by a man came the resurrection of the dead. for as by Adam all dye: euen so by Christ / shall all be made aljue / and euery man in his owne order. The first is Christ / then they that are Christis at his comynge. well not that body & shalbe : but bare come (I meane ether of wheet / or of some other) and God geueth it a body at his pleasure / to euery seed a severall body.

✠ All fleshe is not one manner of fleshe but ther is one maner fleshe of mē / a nother maner fleshe of beasty / a nother maner fleshe of fythes / a nother of byrdes. Ther are celestiall bodyes / a ther are bodyes terrestriall.
But the glozy of the celestiall is one / a þ glozy of the terrestriall is a nother. Ther is one maner glozy of the sunne / a a nother glozy of the mone / a a nother glozy of the starres. For one starre differth fro a nother in glozy. So is the resurreccion of þ deed. It is lowen in corruption / and ryleth in incorruption. It is lowē in dishonoure / a ryleth in honoure. It is lowē in weaknes / and ryleth in power. It is lowē a naturall body / and ryleth a spretuall body. Ther is a naturall bodye and ther is a spretuall body: as it is wyrtē: the fyrste man Adam was made a lyuinge soule: and þ last Adam was made a quychenynge sprete. How be it / that is not fyrst which is spiritual: but þ which is naturall / then þ which is spretuall. The fyrst man is of þ erth / erthy: the seconde man is the Lorde from heauē. As is the erthy / soche are they that are erthye. And as is þ heuēly / soche are they þ are heuēly.
And as we haue bozne the ymage of þ erthy / so shall we beare the ymage of the heuēly.

This saue I brethren / & * fleshe & bloud cannot inheret the kyngdom of God. Neither doth corrupcion inheret vncorruption. Behold I shewe you a mystery. We shall not all sleepe: but we shall all be chaunged / & that in a momēt / & in the twynclinge of an eye / at the sounde of the last trompe. For the trope shall blowe / & the deed shall ryle incorruptible / & we shall be chaunged. For this corruptyble must put on incorruptybilite: & this mortall must put on immortallite.

When this corruptible hath put on incorruptibilite: this mortall hath put on immortallite: then shall be brought to passe þe sayinge that is wyrtte. Deeth is consumed into victo-ry. Deeth where is thy stryng? Hell where is thy victo-ry? The stryng of deeth is synne: & the strength of synne is þlawe. But thanks be vnto God which hath genen vs victo-ry: thow oure Lorde Iesus Christ. Therefore my deare brethren / be p-cted fast and immo-uable; alwayes ryche in the wo-orkes of the Lorde / for as moche as ye knowe hou that youre labour is not in vayne in the Lorde.

Corinthians.

C The consolation of God in trouble. The loue of Paul towards the Corinthians/ and hys excuse that he came not vnto them.

The fyfthe Chapter.

Daul an Apostle of Jesu Christ by the wyl of God/and brother Timotheus.
vnto the congregacion of God/ which is at Corinthum with all the sayntes whych are in all Achaia. Grace be with you a peace from God oure father / and from the Lorde Jesus Christ.

Blessed be God the father of oure Lorde Iesus Christ, the father of mercy, & the God of all comforte / whych comforteth vs in all oure tribulacion / in so moche þat we are able to comforte thē which are troubled, in what soeuer tribulacion it be, with the same com-forte, wherewith we oure selues are comforted of God. For as the afflictions of Christ are plenteous in vs / euen so is oure consolation plenteous by Christ.

Whether we be troubled for your consolation & saluacion / which saluacion sheweth her power in þe suffer the same afflictions / which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted for your consolation & saluacion: yet our hope is stedfast for you / in as moche as we know how þe as ye haue your parte in afflictions / so shall ye be partakers of consolation.

Brethren I wolde not haue your ignorance of oure trouble / whych happened vnto vs in Asia. for we were greued ouer of measure passyng strength / so greatly & we despayred euene of lyfe. Also we receaued an answer of deeth in oure selues / & that because we shuld not put oure trust in our selues: but in God / which rayleth & deed to lyfe agayne / & which deliuered vs fro so great a deeth / and doth de-liuer. On whom we trust / that yet here after he will deliuer / by the helpe of youre prayer for vs / & by the meanes of many occasions / thankes maye be geuen of many on oure behalfe / for the grace geuen vnto vs.

Our refoſynge is this / the testimony of oure conscience / that in ſynghenes and godly purenes & not in fleſhly wylſom / but by the grace of God / we haue had oure conuerſaciō in þ world / & moſt of all to you wardes. We wyte no nother thinges vnto you / then þ ye

The.ij. Epistle

And in this confidence was I mynded the other tyme to haue come vnto you / that ye myght haue had yet one pleasure moare / & to haue passed by you into Macedonia / & to haue come agayne oute of Macedonia vnto you / and to haue bene ledde forth to Iewrye warde of you. When I thus wyle was mynded: did I ble lyghtnes? Or thinke I carnally those thinges which I thinke: that with me shuld be pee pee / a naye naye. God is sayth- full: for oure preaching to you / was not pee a naye. For Goddis sonne Iesus Christ which was preached amonge you by vs (that is to saye / by me and Siluarius and Timotheus) was not pee and naye: but in him it was pee. For all the promises of God / in him are pee: and are in him Amen / vnto the lawde of God thozowe vs. For it is God which stablished vs and you in Christ / & hath annointed vs / which hath also sealed vs / & hath geuen the earnest of the sprete into oure hertes.

He sheweth the cause of his absence and exhorteeth them to forgiue the man that was fallen / & to receaue him agayne with loue.

The.ij. Chapter.

I Call God for a recorde vnto my soule / & for to sauer you wyth all I came not eny moare vnto Corinthum. Not that we be lordes ouer your sayth: but helpers of your foie. For by sayth ye stande. But I determined this in my selfe / that I wold not come agayne to you in heuynes. For yf I make you loze / who is it that shuld make me glad / but & same whych is made loze by me? And I wrote this same epistle vnto you / lest yf I came / I shuld take heuynes of the / of whom I ought to reioyce. Certaynly this confidence haue I in you all / & my foie is & foie of you all. For in great affliction and anguyshe of hert I wrote vnto you with many teares: not to make you loze / but that ye myght perceaue the loue whych I haue / most specially vnto you.

If eny man hath caused sorow / the same hath not made me sorow / but partly: lest I shulde greue you all. It is sufficient vnto the same ma that he was rebuked of many. So & now contrary wyle ye ought to to forgiue him and comforte him: lest that same persone shuld be swallowed by wyth ouer moche heuynes. Wherefore I exhorte you & loue maye haue strenght ouer him. For this cause bere- lydd I wyte / that I myght knowe & pfoie of you / whether ye shulde be obedient in all thynges. To whom ye forgiue eny thyng / I forgiue also. And hereby yf I forgaue eny thyng / to who I forgaue it / for poure sakes forgaue I it / in the roume of Christ / lest Sa- tan shuld pteuent vs. For his thoughtes are not vnknown vnto vs.

when I was come to Troada for Christes Gospels sake (a great doze was opened vnto me of the Lord) I had no rest in my sprete / because I founde not Titus my brother: but toke my leaue of them and went awaye into the. iij. of Macedonia. Thanches be vnto God whych alwayes geueth vs the victorie in Christ / & openeth the sauer of his knowledge by vs in euery place. For we are vnto God the sweete sauer of Christ / both amonge the that are saued / & also amonge the which perishe. To the one parte are we & sauer of deeth vnto deeth. And vnto & other part are we & sauer of lyfe vnto lyfe. And who is mete vnto these thynges? For we are not as many are which choppe a chausse with the worde of God: but euē out of purenes / & by the power of God / & in & lyght of God / so speake we in Christ. He prayeth the preachinge of the Gospell aboute & preachinge of the lawe.

The.iii. Chapter.

I began to praye oure selues a- gayne. Rede we as some othe / of Epistles of recommendacion vnto you: or letters of recommenda- cyon from you: Ye are oure epistle wyttē in oure hertes / whych is vnderstande & recd of all men / in that ye are knownen / how that ye are the epistle of Christ / mynistred by vs and wyttē / not with ynke: but with the sprete of the lypunge God / not in tables of stone / but in fleshy tables of the herte. Suche trust haue we thozowe Christ to God ward: not that we are sufficient of oure selues to thynke eny thyng as it were of our selues but oure abienes commeth of God / which hath made vs able to minister & newe testamēt / not of & letter / but of & sprete. For & letter killeth / but & sprete geueth lyfe. For the mynistracio of deeth thozow the letters figured in stones was glorious / so & the chyldren of Israel coude not beholde the face of Moses for & glory of his countenail: (which glory neuerthelesse is done awaye) why shall not & mynistracio of & sprete be moche moze glorious? For yf & mynistringe of cōdeniacion be glorious: moche moze no- lered of doth & mynistracio of ryghtewlnes excede. In glory. For no dout & which was there glorified is not once glorified in respect of this exceeding glory. Then yf & which is de- stroyed was glorious: moche moze shall & which remayneth / be glorious.

Seyng then that we haue soche trust / we ble great boldnes & do not as Moles / which put a bayle ouer hys face that the chyldren of Israel shuld not se for what purpose that ser- ued which is put awaye. But thei myndes were blinded: for vntill this daye remayneth the same coueringe vntake awaye in & olde & which re- testament mayneth / be their very con testamēt when they reade it / which in Christ is put awaye. But euē vnto this daye when Moses is redde / & bayle hāgeth before their hertes. Neuerthelesse whe they tourne to the Lord / the bayle shalbe taken awaye. The Lord no dout is a sprete. And where & sprete of the Lord is / there is libertie. But we all beholde the glorie of the Lord with his face open / and are chaunged vnto the same simi- litude / from glory to glory / euē of the sprete of the Lord.

A true preacher is diligent / he corrupteth not the worde of God: he preacheth not him selfe / but seeth the honour of Christ yee though it be with the parell of his lyfe.

The.iiii. Chapter.

I herfore seyng that we haue soche an offyce / euē as mercy is come on vs / we saynte not: but haue cast fro vs the clokes of vnholynesse / & walke not in craftynes neether corrupte we the worde of God: but walke in open truely / & repute oure selues to euery mannes con- science in the lyght of God. If oure Gospell be yet hyd / it is hyd amonge the & are lost / in mynistre / & can whō* the God of this world hath blinded & mindes of the which beleue not / lest the light of the glorious gospell of Christ which is the ymage of God shulde thynke vnto them.

For we preache not our selues / but Christ Iesus to be & Lord / and oure selues poure seruantes / for Iesus sake. For it is God & commaunded the lyght to thynke out of darch- nes / which hath myned in oure hertes / for to geue the lyght of the knowledge of the glory of God / in the face of Iesus Christ.

But we haue this treasure in erthe vessels. & the excellent power of it myght appere to euery lyde / yet are we not without myst. We are in pouertie: but not vterly without com- fort. We are persecuted: but are not forsa- ken. We are cast doune: neuerthelesse we pe- rish not. And we all wayes beare in our bo- dies & dypinge of the Lord Iesus / & the lyfe of Iesu myght appere in oure bodies. For we which lyue / are alwayes deliuered vnto deeth for Iesus sake / that the lyfe also of Iesu myght appere in oure mortall fleshe.

So then deeth wozyeth in vs / & lyfe in you. Seynge then that we haue & same sprete of sayth / accorpyng as it is wyttē: I bele- ued / & therfore speake. For we knowe & he which rayled by the Lord Iesus / shall rayle vnto deeth for Iesus sake / that the lyfe also of Iesu myght appere in oure mortall fleshe. For yf I forgaue it / for poure sakes / that the plenteous grace by thanches of God. What geuen of many / maye redounde to the prayse of God.

wherefore we are not wtered / but though oure* outwarde mā perishe / yet the inward man is renewed daye by daye. For oure ex- cedinge tribulacion which is momentary and lyght / prepareth an excorpyng / & an eternall wayght of glory vnto vs / whill we loke not on the thing / which are sene / but on & thing / which are not sene. For thynges which are sene / are tempozall: but thynges which are not sene / are eternall.

The rewardes for sufferynge troubles.

The.v. Chapter.

I knowe truly yf oure erthy man- cyon wherein we now dwell were destroyed / that we haue a bildinge ordeyned of God / an habitacio not made with handes / but eternall in heauen. And herfore lygh we / despyng to be clothed with oure manlion which is from heauē: to yet yf that we be founde clothed / and not na- ked. For as long as we are in this taberna- cle / we lygh and are greued / for we wold not be vnclouthed / but wold be clothed vpon / & mortallite myght be swallowed by of lyfe. We & hath ordeyned vs for this thyng / is God: which very same hath geue vnto vs & earnest of the sprete.

Wherefore we are alwaye of good chere / & knowe well that as long as we are at home in the body / we are absent from God. For we walke in sayth and se not. Neuerthelesse we are of good comforte / and had leuer to be ab- sent from the body and to be present with the Lord. Wherefore / whether we be at home or fro home we endeouore oure selues to plea- se him. For we must all appere before & iud- gemēt seate of Christ / & euery man maye re- ceae the workes of his body accorpyng to that he hath done / whether it be good or bad.

Seynge then that we knowe / how the Lord is to be feared / & we fare sayte wyth me. men. For we are knownen well ynough vnto God. I trust also that we are knowe in youre consciences.

We prayle not oure selues agayne vnto you / but geue you an occasyon to reioyce of vs / & ye maye haue some what agaynst the / which reioyce in the face / & not in the herte. For yf we be to feruent / to God are we to fer- uent. If we kepe measure / for poure cause kepe we measure. For the loue of Christ con- strayneth vs / because we thus iudge / yf one be deed for all / & then are all deed / & & he died for all / that they which lyue / shuld not hence forth lyue vnto them selues / but vnto hym which dyed for them and rose agayne.

Wherefore henceforth knowe we no mā as- ter the fleshe. In somoche though we haue knownen Christ after the fleshe / now hence forth knowe we him to no moare. Wherefore yf lurs / but at his.

any man be in Christ, he is a new creature. Wide thynges are passed awaye/ beholde all thynges are become newe. Neuerthelesse all thynges are of God/ which hath reconciled vs vnto him selfe by* Jesus Christ/ & hath geue vnto vs the office to preache & attouement. For God was in Christ/ and made agrement betwene the world & him selfe/ and imputed to preache. not their synnes vnto them: & hath committed to vs the preachinge of the attouement. Now then are we messengers in & rourne of Christe vnto you: euen as though Godd had beseeche you thowt vs. So praye we you in Christes stede/ that ye be atone with God: for he hath made hym selfe to be synne for vs/ which knew no synne/ that we by his meanes shuld be that ryghte-nes which befoze God is allowed.

An exhortacion to receaue the worde of God with thankfulness. The Corinthians are comend for their obedience and loue towardes Paul.

The.iiij. Chapter.

Eynge that we haue soche promy- ses derely beloued/ lett vs cleanse oure selues fro all filthynes of the fleshe & spete/ & growe by to full holynes in the feare of God. vnderstand vs/ we haue hurte no man: we haue corrupte no man: we haue defrauded no man. I speake, not this to condemne you: for I haue shewed you befoze that ye are in oure hert/ to dye & true to you. I am very bolde ouer you / & reioyce greatly in you. I am fylled with comforte & am excedyngre ioyous in all oure trybulacions. For when we were come into Mace- donia/ oure fleshe had no rest / but we were troubled on euery syde. Outwarde was figh- tyng/ inward was feare. Neuerthelesse God that comforteth the abiecte / comforted vs at the comynge of Titus.

And not with his comynge only: but also with the consolacion wherwith he was com- forted of you. For he tolde vs youre desyre/ youre mournynge/ youre feruent mynde to me ward: so that I now reioyce & moze. Where- fore though I made you sorow with a letter/ I re- pent not: though I dyd repēt. For I percea- ue that & same epistle made you sorow/ though it were but for a season. But I now reioyce/ not that ye were sorow/ but that ye so sorowed that ye repented. For ye sorowed godly: so & I. Petr. 4. in nothyng ye were hurte by vs. For godly sorowe causeth repentaunce vnto saluacion not to be repented of: when worldly sorow causeth deeth.

Beholde what diligence thys godly sorow- we that ye toke/ hath wrought in you: yee it caused you to cleare youre selues. It caused indignaciō/ it caused feare/ it caused desyre/ it caused a feruent mynde/ it caused punish- ment: For in all thyngs ye haue shewed your selues that ye were cleare in that matter. Wherefore though I wrote vnto you / I did it not for hys cause that dyd hurte / neither for his cause that was hurte: but that oure good mynde whych we haue towardes you in the syght of God/ myght appere vnto you.

Wherefore we are comforted/ because ye are comforted: yee and excedyngre & moze ioyed we/ for the tope that Titus had: be cause hys spete was refreshed of you all. I am ther- fore

The.iiij. Chapter.

As helpers therfore exhorthe you/ & ye receaue not & grace of God in bayne. For he saith: I haue heard the in a tyme accepted: and in the daye of saluacion / haue I suckered the. Be- holde/ now is & well accepted tyme: beholde now is that daye of saluacion. Lett vs geue no man occasion of euill/ that in oure office be founde no fault: but in all thynges let vs behaue oure selues as the mynisters of God.

In moche pacifce/ in afflictions/ in neces- sitye/ in anguyshe/ in stryppes/ in prisonment/ in stryfe/ in laboure/ in watching/ in fasting/ in purenes/ in knowledge/ in longe suffering in kynnd/ in & holy goost/ in loue vnfayned/ in the wordes of trouth/ in & power of God/ by the armour* of rightewesnes of & ryght hande & on the lyfte/ in honoure & dishonou- rable/ in euill repute & good repute/ as delea- loue/ feare. & c. uers & yet true/ as vnknewen/ & yet knowen: as dyngre/ & beholde we yet lyue: as chaste- ned/ & not killed: as sorowynge/ & yet alwaye mery: as pooze/ & yet make many riche: as ha- uynge no thyng/ & yet possedding all thyngs. & c.

O ye Corinthians/ oure mouth is open vnto you. Oure hert is made large: ye are in no straye in vs / but are in a straye in youre awne bowelles: I promyse you lyke reward to me/ as to my chylde. Set your selues ther- fore at large/ & I heare not a strangers voke with & vnbeleuers. For what fellowship hath ryghtewesnes with vnyghtewesnes? What cōpany hath light with darknes? What cō- corde hath Christ with Belial? ether what part hath he that beleueth/ with an infidell? how agreeth the temple of God with ymages? for/ not now a shamed though I boasted my selfe to him of you. For as all thynges which I preached vnto you are true/ eue so is oure boasting/ that I boasted my selfe to Titus in all/ founde true. And now is his inward af- fectiō moare abundant towardes you/ whē he remembere the obedience of euery one of you: how with feare and tremblynge ye recea- ued him. I reioyce that I maye beholde ouer you in all thynges.

The putte the in remembrance to helpe the pooze sapientes at Jerusalem/ accordyng as & Macedonias dyd.

The.iiij. Chapter.

Wo you to wit brythre/ of & grace of God which is geuen in the con- gregacions of Macedonia/ how & the aboundance of their reioysing is/ & they are tryed with moche tribulacion. And thereto though they were exceding pooze yet haue they geuen excedyngre richly/ & that in synghenes. For to their powers/ I beate re- corde yee and beyōde their power/ they were wyllynge of their awne recorde/ & prayed vs with great instance/ that we wolde receaue their benefite/ and suffre them to be parteta- hers w other in ministringe to the sapientes.

And thys they dyd/ not as we looked for: but gaue their awne selues fyrst to the Lord/ & after vnto vs by the wyll of God: so that we coulde not but desyre Titus to accomplyshe the same beniuolence amonge you also/ eue as he had begonne.

Now therfore / as ye are ryche in all par- ties/ in sayth/ in wynde/ in knowledge/ in all feruentnes/ & in loue / which ye haue to vs: eue so let that ye be plenteous in this beniuo- lence. This saye I not as commaundyng: but because other are so feruent/ therfore proue I your loue/ whether it be perlyt or no. Ye knowe the lyberallite of oure Lord Jesus Christ / which though he were ryche yet for youre sakes he came pooze: that ye thowowe his pouertie/ myght be made ryche.

And I geue counsell here to. For this is ex- pedient for you/ which beganne/ not to do on ly: but also to wyll a yere a go. Now therfore perfozme the dede: that as ther was in you a redynes to wyll/ euen so ye maye perfozme & dede/ of & which ye haue. For yf ther be fyrst a wyllynge mynde/ it is accepted accordyng to that a man hath / & not accordyng to that he hath not.

It is not my mynde that other be set at ea- se/ and ye brought into combzace: but that ther be egalnes now at this tyme/ that youre aboundance sucke their lacke: & their abou- dante maye supplie youre lacke: that ther maye be equalite/ agreynge to that which is writen. * He that gathered moche had neuer the moze aboundance/ & he that gathered ly-tell had neuerthelesse. Chakes be vnto God/ which put in the hert of Titus the same good mynde towardes you. For he accepted the re- quest yee rather he was so well willing/ that of his awne accorde/ came vnto you.

We haue sent with him & bryther / whose laude is in the gospell thowout all the cō- gregacions: & not to only/ but is also chosen of the cōgregacions to be a felowe with vs in oure tozney cōcernynge this beniuolence & to mynistred by vs vnto the prayse of the Lord and to stee by youre prompt mynde.

For this we extue/ that any man shulde re- buke vs in this plenteous distrybucyō that is mynistred by vs/ and therfore make pro- uysion for honest thynges / not in the syght of God only/ but also in the syght of men.

We haue sent with the a bryther of oures whom we haue ofte tymes proued diligēt in many thynges/ but now moche moze diligēt. The grete confidence which I haue in you/ hath caused me this to do: partly for Titus sake which is my felowe and helper as con- cernyng you/ partly because of other which are oure brythren and the messengers of the cōgregacions/ & the glozy of Christ. I ther- fore shewe vnto them prouff of youre loue/ & of the reioysynge that we haue of you / that the congregacions maye se it.

In this Chapter doth he the same that he dyd in the Chapter goyng before/ that is/ moueth them to helpe & pooze brythren at Jerusalem.

The.ij. Chapter.

If the mynistringe to & sapientes it is but superfluous for me to write. What sayn- bnto you. For I knowe youre redy- ctes signific in the scripture/ Luke Act. ix. c.

selfe vnto the of Macedonia/ & say & Achais was prepared a yere a go/ & your feruentnes hath prouoked many. Neuerthelesse yet haue I sent these brythren / lest oure reioysynge ouer you shulde be in bayne in this behalfe/ and that ye (as I haue sayde) prepare youre selues lest parauenture yf they of Macedo- nia come with me / and fynde you vnprepa- red/ the boost & I made in this matter / shulde be a shame to vs. I saye not vnto you.

Wherefore I thought it necessary to exhorthe the brythren/ to come befoze hande vnto you for to prepare your good blessinge promysed a foze / that it myght be redy: so that it be a blessinge/ & not a defraudyng. & c. This yet re- member/ howe that he whych someth tyme/ shall recepe lytell/ & he & loweth plenteously shall recepe plenteously. And let euery man do accordyng as he hath purposed in his hert/ not growdynge/ or of necessity. For God lo- ueth a chearfull geuer.

God is able to make you ryche in all gra- ce/ that ye in all thynges hauinge sufficient unto y^e bemoſte/may y^e ryche unto all maner good work/as it is writte. *He hath sparsed abroad and hath geuen to the poore/his rightewesnes remaineth for ever. He y^e syn-deth the sower seed / shall multiplye breed for fode / & shall multiplie youre seed & increace the frutes of youre rightewesnes. That on all parties/ye maye be made ryche in all syn-glenes/ which causeth thozow vs / thanks geuynge unto God.

For the office of this ministracion/not only supplyeth the neede of the sayntes; but also is aboundant here in/that for this laudable ministringe/thanks myght be geuen to God of many/which prayse God for the obedience of youre professynge the Gospell of Christ / & for youre singlenes in distributyng to the & to all men: & in their prayers to God for you/longe after you/for the aboundant grace of God geuen unto you. Thanks be unto God for his vnspettable gyfte.

He toucheth the false Apostles/ & defendeth his au-thorite and callinge.

The.ii. Chapter.

Paul my selfe beseeche you by the meekenes & softnes of Christ which when I am present amonge you am of no reputacion/ but am bold towarde you beyng absent. I beseeche you y^e I neede not to be bolde when I am present (y^e that same confidence/wherewith I am supposed to be bolde) agaynst some which repete as though we walked carnally. Neuerthelesse though we walke copased with y^e fleshe/yet we warre not fleshye. For the weapons of oure warre are not carnall thynges / but thynges mighty in God/to cast downe stronge holdes/wherewith we ouerthrowe ymagina-cions/ and euery hye thyng that exalteth it selfe agaynst the knowledge of God & bringe into captiuite all vnderstandynge to the obedience of Christ / & are redy to take vengeance on all disobedience/ when your obedience is fulfilled. Loke ye on thynges after y^e better apperance.

If any man trust in him selfe y^e he is Christes/let the same also confesse of hym selfe/y^e as he is Christes/euen so are we Christes.
And though I shuld boast my selfe some what more of oure auctorite which y^e Lord hath geuen vs to edifie and not to destroye you/ it shulde not be to my shame. This I saye I / lest I shuld seme as though I went about to make you a frayde with letters. For the epistles (sayth he) are stronge; but his bodily presence is weake/ & his speache is rude. Let hym that is soche thinke on this wyse/that as we are in wordes by letters when we are absent soche are we in dedes when we are present.

For we cannot fynde in oure hertes to make oure selues of the nombze of the / or to compare oure selues to the / which laude the sel-ues/neuerthelesse whill they measure the sel-ues to the selues/ & compare the selues with the selues they vnderstande nought. But we will not reioyce aboue measure: but according to y^e quantite of the measure which God hath distributed vnto vs / a measure that reacheth euen to you. For we stretch not out oure selues beyonde measure as though we had not reached vnto you. For euen to you haue we come with y^e gospell of Christ / & we boast not oure selues out of measure in other mens labours. For we hope/when youre sayth is increased amonge you/to be magnified according to oure measure/ more largely/and to preache y^e gospell in those regions which are beyonde you: & not to reioyce of that which is by another mans measure prepared all redy. Let hym y^e reioyseth/reioyce in y^e Lord.

For he that prayseth him selfe/is not allowed;
but he whom the Lord prayseth.

Paul (vnder suffer aunce) commendeth him selfe/and defendeth his auctorite agaynst the false prophetes.

The.iii. Chapter.

Obe to God/ye coulde suffre me a lytell in my folowynge: ye & I praye you for beare me. For I am gelous ouer you with godly gelousy. For I coupled you to one ma/ to make you a chaste virgen to Christ. But I feare lest as y^e serpent begyled Eue thozow his subtiltie/euen to poure wythes shuld be corrupte fro y^e sin-glenes that is in Christ. For y^e he y^e cometh/preache a nother Jesus then him whome we preached: or y^e ye receaue another spytethen y^e which ye haue receaued: either another gos-pell then y^e ye haue receaued/ye myght right well haue bene content. I suppose y^e I was not behynde the chiefe Apostles. Though I be rude in speakinge/yet I am not so in knowledge. How be it amonge you we are knowen to the vtmost what we are in all thyngs. Wd y^e thezin synne/be cause I submytted my selfe/y^e ye might be exalted / & because I preached to you the gospell of God fre: I robbed other cogregacions/ & toke wages of the to do you seruice wth all. And whē I was present wth you/ & had neede/ I was greuous to no ma for y^e which was lackinge vnto me/ the bzythē which cam from Macedonia/supplied: & in all thynges I kept my selfe that I shuld not be greuous to you: & so will I keep my selfe.

If the trueth of Christ be in me/ this re-ioyng shall not be takē from me in the regions of Achaia. Wherfore? Because I loue you not: God knoweth. Neuerthelesse what I do/that will I do to cut awaye occasion from them which desyre occasion / that they myght be founde lyke vnto vs in that wherin they

they reioyce. For these false apostles are diceatfull workers/ and fastyon thyn selues lyke vnto y^e Apostles of Christ. And no may-uayle/for Satan him selfe is chaunged into the fastyon of an angell of lycht. Wherfore it is no great thinge/though his ministers fastyon the selues as though they were the ministers of ryghtewesnes: whose ende shalbe accordynge to their dedes.

I saye agayne/lest eny ma thinke y^e I am follysh: or els eue now take me as a sole/ y^e I maye boast my selfe a lytell. That I speake
I speake it not after the wayes of the Lorde but as it were follyshly/whill we are how to me to boasting. Seynge that many reioyce after the fleshe/ I will reioyce also. For ye suffre soles gladly/ because that ye youre sel-ues are wise. For ye suffre eue y^e a ma bring-you into bondage: y^e a ma deuoure: y^e a ma take: y^e a man exalt him selfe: y^e a ma synne you on the face. I speake as concerninge rebuke/as though we had bene weake.

How be it wherin soeuer eny man dare be bolde (I speake follyshly) I dare be bolde also.
They are Chyres/so am I. They are Israelites/eue so am I. They are the seede of Abraham/eue so am I. They are the ministers of Christ (I speake as a sole) I am more. In labours moare abundant: In stryppes aboue measure: In prison moare plenteously: In deeth ofte. Of the Jewes true tymes recea-ued I euery tyme. I stryppes saue one. Christe was I beten with rodde. I was once stoned I suffered thyrtye shipwache. Nycht & daye haue I bene in the depe of the see. In tomynge often: in paryls of waters: in paryls of robbers: in iopardies of myne awne nacion in iopardies amonge the hethen. I haue bene in paryls in cities/in paryls in wilderness in paryls in the see/in paryls amonge false bzythē/in labour & trouayle/in watchynge often/in hunger in thyrtye: in fastynge often in colde & in nakednes. And beynde y^e thynges which outwardly happen vnto me/ I am cobzed daily/ & do care for al cogregacions/ who is sicke/ & I am not sicke: who is hurte in y^e sayth & my hert burneth not: I must nedē reioyce/ I will reioyce of myne infirmityes.
Paul is taken vp into the thyrde heauen/ & heareth wordes not to be spoken of.

The.iiii. Chapter.

We God and father of oure Lorde Jesus Christ/ whych is blessed for euermore/knoweth that I lye not.
In the cite of Damasco/ y^e gouerner of the people vnder kynge Aretas/I layde watche in the cite of the Damascens/and wolde haue caught me/ and at a wyndo-we was I let downe in a basket thozow the wall/and so scaped hys handes.

It is not expedient for me no dout to reioyce Neuerthelesse I will come to visions & reuelacios of the Lorde. I knowe a ma in Christ aboue. xiii. yeres agone (whether he were in the body I cannot tell/ or whether he were oute of the body I cannot tell (God knoweth) whych was taken vp in to the thyrde heauen.
And I knowe the same man (whether in the body/ or out of the body. I cannot tell God knoweth) how that he was takē vp into hea-uynge/and hearde wordes not to be spoken/whych no man can vtter. Of this man will I reioyce/ of my selfe will I not reioyce/ except it be of myne infirmityes. And yet though I wolde reioyce/ I shulde not be a sole: for I wolde saye y^e trouthe. Neuerthelesse I spare/lest eny man shulde thinke of me aboute that he seyth me to be/ or heareth of me.

And lest I shuld be exalted out of measure thozow the aboundance of reuelacions/ther was geue vnto me a vnyquetyes of y^e fleshe he/ the messenger of Satan to buffet me: because I shulde not be exalted out of measure. I for this thinge besought the Lorde thyrtye that it myght departe from me. And he sayde vnto me: my grace is sufficient for the. For my strength is made parfyct thozow wealnes enell me which I very gladly therfore will I reioyce of my we-knes/that the strength of Christ maye dwell in me. Wherfore haue I delectacyon in infirmities in rebukes/ in nebe/ in persecucions in anguysh/ for Christes sake. For when I am weake/then am I stronge.

I am made a sole in boasting my selfe. Ye haue copelled me: I ought to haue bene comended of you. For in nothyng was I inferior vnto the chiefe Apostles/ though I be no thyng/ yet the tokens of an Apostle were brought amonge you wth all patience/ wth dyssignes & wonders/ & mighty dedes. For what is it wherin ye were inferiours vnto other congregacions except it be therein that I was not greuous vnto you. For geue me this wronge done vnto you. Beholde now the thyrde tyme I am redy to come vnto you: & yet will I not be greuous vnto you. For I seke not your but you. Also the chyldren ought not to laye by for the fathers and mothers: but the fathers and mothers for the chyldren.

I will very gladly bestowe/ & will be bestowed for youre soules: though the moare I loue you/ & lesse I am loued agayne. But be it y^e I greued you not: neuerthelesse I was craf-ty & toke you wth gyle. Wd I will you by eny of them which I sent vnto you: I despyed Ci-tus/ & with him I sent a brother. Wd Titus defraude you of eny thyng? walked we not in one spyte? walked we not in like stepp?
Agayne thinke ye y^e we excuse oure selues?
we speake in Christ in the syght of God.

R. b. But

The Epistle of Saynt Paul the Apostle vnto the Galathians.

But we do all thinges dearly beloved for poure edifyinge. For I feare lest it come to passe that when I come I shall not fynde you soche as I wolde: & I shalbe founde vnto you soche as I wolde not: I feare lest ther be founde amōge you debate/ enuynges/ wrath stryfe/ backbytynges/ whyperynges/ welinges and discorde. I feare lest when I come agayne/ God brynge me lowe amōge you/ & I be constrained to bewaile many of them which haue synned all redy/ and haue not repentēd of the vncleennes/ fornicacion & wantannes which they haue committed.

The promyssh to come vnto them and exhorteth the to orde them selues th at he may fynde them par-fecte/ and of one mynde.

The xiiij. Chapter.

Now come I the thyrde tyme vnto you* in þ mouth of two or thre witnesses shall euery thinge stande. I tolde you before/ & tell you before:
as I sayde whē I was present with you & seconde tyme/ so wyte I now beinge absent to the whych in tyme past haue synned/ & to all other: & yf I come agayne/ I will not spare/ seynge that ye seke experyence of Christ which speaketh in me/ which amōge you is not weake/ but is myghty in you. And verely though it came of weaknes that he was crucified/ yet sheweth he thozow the power of God

And we no dout are weake in hī: but we shal shue to him/ by þ myght of God amōge you.

Poure poure selues whether ye are in the sayth or not. Examen poure awne selues: knowe ye not poure awne selues how þ Jesus Christ is in you/ except ye be cast away-es: I trust that ye shall knowe þ we are not cast awayes. I desyre before God þ ye do none euyl/ not that we shuld seme comendable but þ ye shuld do that which is honest: a let be counted as leawde persones. We ca do nothyng agaynst þ trouth/ but for þ trouth.
We are glad whē we are weake/ & ye strōge.

Chys also we wishe for/ euen that ye were perfect. Therfore wyte I these thinges being absent/ lest when I am present/ I shuld ble-sharpenes accordyng to the power whych þ Lorde hath geuen me/ to edifye/ & not to de-stroye. Finallye brethren fare ye well/ be perfect/ be of good comforte/ be of one mynde/lyue in peace/ & þ God of loue & peace/ shalbe with you. Greete one another in an holy kisse.

Bayntes. Lo All þ sayntes salute you. The grace of oure Lorde Jesus Christ/ & the loue of God/ & the fellowshippe of þ holy goost be to you al Amē.

The ende of the seconde epistle to the Corinthians.

Sent from Philippos a cite in Macedonia/ by Titus and Lucas.

Paul rebuketh the because they were fallen awaye from the Gospel/ & with his awne conuer/ syon/ may-nifesteth his office and Apostleshippe/ and declareth him self to be equall with the hye Apostles.

The fyrst Chapter.

Paul an apostle not of men/ neither by man/ but by Jesus Christ/ and by God the father which rayled him from deeth/ and all þ byethen which are with me.

Vnto the congregacions of Galacia.
Grace be wyth you and peace from God the father/ and from oure Lorde Jesus Christ/whych gaue him selfe for oure synnes/ to de-liuer vs from this present euyl worlde/ tho-row the will of God oure father/ to whom be prayse for euer and euer. Amen.

I maruaile that ye are so sone turned fro him that called you in the grace of Christ/ vnto another Gospel: whych is nothyng els/but that ther be some which trouble you/ and intende to peruert the Gospel of Christ. Ne-uerthelesse though we oure selues/ or an angell from heuen/ preache any other Gospel vnto you/ then that which we haue preached

Grace.
vnto you/ holde hym as a cursed. As I sayde before/ so saye I now agayne/ yf any man preache any other thinge vnto you/ then that ye haue receaued/ holde hī accursed. Preache I man doctrine of God? Other go I about to please men: If I stode to please men/ I were not the seruaunt of Christ.

I certifie you brethren/ þ the Gospel whych was preached of me/ was not after þ manner of men/ neither receaued I of man neither

Paul though he came longe
after the Apostles yet had he not his auctorite of Peter or of any that were before hym. He ther brought he with hī letters of recomendacyō or bulles of confirmacyō.
But the confir-
macoy of hys apostleship was þ worde of god/
conscience of men
& the power of the spīte that testified wyth hym by myra-
cles and manyfold gyftes of grace.

neither was I taught it/ but receaued it by þ reuelacio of Jesus Christ. For ye haue heard of my conuersacion in tyme past/ in the Je-wes wayes/ how þ beyonde measure I persecuted the congregacion of God/ & spoyled it: and preuayled in the Jewes waye/ aboue many of my copanions/ which were of mine awne nacion/ and was a moche more seruet mayntēer of the tradicions of the elders.

But whē it pleased God/ whych seperated me from my mother/ & wōbe/ & called me by his grace/ for to declare his sonne by me/ & I shuld preache him amōge the hethen: imme-diatly I comēd not of þ matter to fleshe and bloud/ neither returned to Jerusalem to them whych were Apostles before me: but went my wayes into Arabia/ & came agayne vnto Damasco. Then after thre yere/ I returned to Jerusalem to se Peter/ and abode with hym xv. dayes: no nother of the Apostles sawe I/ save James the Lorde brother.
The thinges whych I wyte/ beholde/ God knoweth I lye not.

After that I went into þ costes of Syria & Cilicia: & was vnkownen as touching my person vnto the congregacions of Jewes/whych were in Christ. But they hearde only þ he whych persecuted vs in tyme past/ now preacheth þ sayth whych before he destroyed.
And they glorified God on my behalfe. I

The withstandeth Peter in the face/ and proueth that the lawe & circumcysion are not necessary to saluacio.

The ii. Chapter.

Then xiiij. yeres ther after/ I wet by agayne to Jerusalem with Barnabas/ and toke wyth me Titus also. Ye & I went by þ reuelacion & comēd with the/ of the Gospel whych I preache amōge the Gentyls: but betwene oure selues/ with them whych were counted chefe/ lest it shuld haue bene thought that I shuld runne or had runne in bayne. Also Titus whych was wyth me/ though he were a Grece/ yet was not cōpelled to be circumcised & that because of incōmers beyng false bzethyen whych came in amōge other to spyce out oure libertie whych we haue in Christ Jesus that they myght brynge vs into bondage. To whō we gaue no roume/ no not for þ space of an houre/ as concerninge to be brought into subieccyon: and that because that the trouth of the Gospel myght continue with you.

Of the whych semed to be great (what they were in tyme past) it maketh no matter to me: God lokeþ on no mā person/ neuerthelesse they whych semed great/ added nothyng to me. But contrary wyse/ when they sawe þ the Gospel ouer the vncircūcysion was commited vnto me/ as the Gospel ouer the cir-cumcysion was vnto Peter: for he that was myghty in Peter in the Apostleshippe ouer the circūcysion/ the same was myghty in me amōge the Gentyls: and therfore whē they perceaued the grace that was geuen vnto me/then James/ Cephas & John/ whych semed to be pylers/ gaue to me and Barnabas the ryght handes and agreed with vs/ þ we shuld preache amōge the hethen/ & they amōge the Jewes: warninge only that we shulde remember the poore. Whych thinge also I was diligent to do.

And when Peter was come to Antioche/ I withstode him in the face/ for he was wōthy to be blamed. For yer that certayne came from James/ he ate wyth the Gentyls. But when they were come/ he withdrew and separated him selfe/ fearynge the whych were of the circūcysion. And the other Jewes dissembled lyke wyse/ in so moche that Barnabas was brought into their simulacio also.
But when I sawe/ þ they went not the right waye after the trouth of the Gospel/ I sayde vnto Peter before all men/ yf thou beynge a Jewe/ lyuest after the māner of the Gentyls and not as do the Jewes/ why causest thou þ Gentyls to lyue as do the Jewes? the whych are Jewes by nature/ and not synners of the Gentyls/ knowe that a man is not iustified by the dedes of the lawe: but by the sayth of Jesus Christ. And therfore we haue beleued on Jesus Christ/ that we myght be iustified by the sayth of Christ/ and not by the dedes of the lawe: because that by the dedes of þ lawe no fleshe can be iustified.

If then whyll we seke to be made ryghtewes by Christ/ we oure selues are founde sinners/ is not then Christ þ minister of synne?
God tobyd. For yf I bylde agayne þ whych
I destroyed/ then make I my selfe a treaspa-ser. But I thozow the lawe/ am deed to the lawe: that I might lyue vnto God. I am crucified with Christ. I lye verely: yet now not I/ but Christ lyueth in me. For þ lyfe whych
I now lyue in the fleshe/ I lyue by the sayth of the sonne of God/ whych loued me/ & gaue hym selfe for me. I despyse not the grace of God. For yf ryghtewelnes come of þ lawe/then Christ dyed in bayne.

The rebuketh the vncircūcysion of the Galathians shewynge the vnperfectnesse of the lawe/ & declareth neuerthelesse that it was not geuen for nought.

The iii. Chapter.

Folow the Galathians/ who hath bewitched you þ ye shuld not beleue þ trouth: To whō Jesus Christ was described before þ eyes/ & amōge you crucified. This only wolde I learne of you/ receaued ye þ spete by þ dedes of þ lawe/brethren I will speake after the maner of men. Though it be but a mans testament yet no man despyseth it/ oz addeth eny thyng

I saye/ that the lawe whych beganne afterdisaull the testament/ that was confermed afoze of God vnto Christ ward/ to make the promyses of none effect. For yf the inheritaunce come of the lawe/ it cometh not of promyses.

But God gaue it vnto Abraham by promyses

Wherfore then serueth the lawe? The la-we was added because of transgressyon (tyll the seed came to whych & promyses was made) and it was ordeyned by Angels in the hande of a mediator. A mediator is not a mediator of one. But God is one. Is the lawe then agaynst the promyses of God? God forbid.
Howbeit yf ther had bene a lawe geue which coude haue geuen life: then no doute rygh-tewesnes shuld haue come by the lawe. But the scripture concluded all thynges vnder by the sayth whych is in Christ Iesus. For all ye that are baptysed/ haue put on Christ.

Now is ther no Jewe nether Gentyl: ther is nether bondener fre: ther is nether man ner

The. iiii. Chapter.

And I saye that the heye as longe as he is a chylde/ differeth not from a seruaunt/ though he be Lord of all/ but is vnder tutors and gouer-ners/ vntill the tyme appointed of & father.
Euen so we/ as longe as we were chyliden/were in bondage vnder the ordinaunces of & woylde. But whē the * tyme was full come/God sent his sonne borne of a womā & made bonden vnto the lawe/ to redeme them whych were vnder the lawe: that we thozow electio-

Wherfore now/ thou art not a seruaunt/ but a sonne. If thou be the sonne/ thou arte also the heye of God thozow Christ.

They are gelous ouer you amiste. Yee/ they intende to exclude you/ that ye shuld be feruent to them warde. It is good alwayes to be feruent/ so it be in a good thyng/ and not only when I am present with you.

My lttell chyliden (of whom I trausyle in birth agayne/ vntill Christ be fastioned in you) I wolde I were with you now/ & coude chaunge my voyce: for I stande in a doute of you. Tell me yf ye desyre to be vnder the lawe haue ye not hearde of the lawe? * For it is wrytten that Abraham had two sonnes/ the one by a bode mayde/ & other by a fre womā.

Yee and he whych was of the bonde woman was borne after & fleshe: but he whych was of the fre woman/ was borne by promyses.

Whych thynges betoken mystery. For these women are two testaments/ the one from & mounte Syna/ whych gendzeth vnto bondage/ whych is Agar. For mounte Syna is called Agar in Arabia/ and boudzeth vpon & citie/ whych is now Ierusalem/ and is in bondage with her chyliden.

But Ierusalem/ whych is aboue/ is fre: whych is the mother of vs all. For it is wrytten reioyce thou baren/ that bearest no chyliden bryake forth & crye/ thou & trauest not. For the desolate hath many moo chyliden then she whych hath an husband. Brethren we are after the maner of Isaac/ chyliden of promyses.

But as then he & was borne carnally/ persecutid him that was borne spiritually. Euen so is it now. Neuerthelesse what sayth the scripture: put awaye the bonde woman and her sonne. For the sonne of the bonde woman shall not be heye w the sonne of & fre womā So then brethren we are not chyliden of the bonde woman: but of the fre woman.

He labourerth to drawe them awaye from circum-cison/ sheweth them the batayll betwixte the spete & the fleshe/ and the frutes of them both.

Beholde I Paul saye vnto you/ that yf ye be circumcised/ Christ shall profit you nothinge at all. I testifie agayne to every man whych is circumcised that he is bounde to kepe the whole lawe. Ye are gone quyte from Christ as many as are iustified by the lawe/ and are fallen from grace. We loke for/ and hope in & spite/ to be iustified thozow sayth. For in Jesu Christ/ nether is circumcison eny thyng worth/ nether yet vncircumcison/ but sayth whych by lone is mighty in operaciō. Ye dyd runne well: who was a let vnto you/ that ye

The Epistle

The Epistle of Saynet Paul the apostle vnto the Ephesians.

The everlastynge ordinaunce and election of God in saynyng all men thozow Christ Iesus hys sonne.
We are ordened vnto good workes. The dominion of Christ.

The first Chapter.

Paul an apostle of Iesu Christ by the will of God.
To the sayntes/which are at Ephesus/and to the which believe on Iesus Christ.

Grace be with you & peace
from God our father/and from the Lorde Iesus Christ. Blessed be God the father of oure Lorde Iesus Christ/which hath blessed vs with all manner of spirituall blessinges in heuenly thynges by Christ/accordynge as he had chosen vs in hym/before the foundacion of the worlde was layde/that we shuld be sayntes/and without blame before him/thozow loue. And ordened vs before thozow Iesus Christ to be heyres vnto him selfe/accordynge to the pleasure of his will to prayle of the gloire of his grace where with he hath made vs accepted in the beloved.

By whom we haue redemption thozow his bloude/euē the forgenes of synnes/acco-rdynge to the riches of his grace/which grace he shed in vs abundantly in all wylsome/and prudence. And hath opened vnto vs the mystry of his wyl accordynge to his pleasure/a purposed & same in hym selfe/to haue it declared whē & tyme were full come/that all

that all thynges/bothe the thynges which are in heuen/and also the thynges which are in erthe/shulde be gathered to gether/euen in Christ:that is to saye/in hym in whō we are made heyres/a were therto predestinate accordynge to the purpose of him which worketh all thynges after the purpose of his awne wil:
that we which before beleued in Christ shuld be vnto the prayse of his gloire.

In whom also ye (after that ye hearde the worde of tructh/I meane the Gospell of youre saluacyon/wherin ye beleued) were sealed with the holy sprete of promys/whych is the earnest of oure inheritaunce/to redeme the purchased possession/and that vnto the laude of hys gloire.

Wherefore euē I (after that I hearde of the fayth which ye haue in the Lorde Iesu/a loue vnto all the sayntes) cease not to geue thankes for you/makinge mencion of you in my prayers/the god of oure lorde Iesus Christ and the father of gloire/might geue vnto you the sprete of wylsome/and open to you the knowledge of hym selfe/and lychten the eyes of youre myndes that ye myght knowe what that hope is/where vnto he hath called you/& what the riches of his glorious inheritaunce is vpon the sayntes/a what is the exceeding greatnes of hys power to vs warde whych he beleue accordynge to the workynge of his myghty power/which he wrought in Christ when he rayled him from the deed/& set hym on his ryght hande in heuēly thynges/aboue all rule/power/and myght and dominacyon & aboue all names & are named/not in this worlde only/but also in the worlde to come:
a hath put all thynges vnder his fete/a hath made hym aboue all thynges/the heed of the congregacyō which is his body & the fulnes of hym that fylleth all in all thynges.

Paul sheweth the what manner of people they were before their conuersion/what they are now in Christ.

The ii. Chapter.

And you hath he quickened also & were deed in trespasses and synne/in the which in tyme passed ye walked/accordynge to the course of this worlde/a after the gouerner & ruleth in the ayr/the sprete that now worketh in the childre of vnbelyfe/amōge whych we also had oure conuersion in tyme past/in the lychtes of oure fleshe/and fulfilled the wyl of the fleshe & of the mynde:and were naturally the childre of wrath/euen as well as other.

But God which is rich in mercy thozow his greute loue wherewith he loued vs/ euen when we were deed by synne/hath quickened vs to gether in Christ (for by grace are ye saued) and hath rayled vs vp to gether & made vs sette to gether in heuenly thynges thozow

Christ Iesus/for to shewe in tymes to come the exceeding riches of his grace/in kyndnes to vs warde in Christ Iesu. For by grace are ye made safe thozow fayth/and that not of yourselues. For it is the gyfte of God/and cometh not of workes/lest any man shulde boast hym selfe. For we are his workmans shapen in Christ Iesu vnto a good workes/vnto the which God ordeyned vs before/that we shulde walke in them.

Wherefore remember that ye beyng in tyme passed geuys in the fleshe/a were called vnto circumcision to them which are called circcision in the fleshe/whych circumcision is made by handes: Remember I saye/that ye were at that tyme without Christ/a were reputed alienges fro the comen welth of Israel/and were straungers from the testamētes of promys/a had no hope/a were with out God in this worlde. But now in Christ Iesu/ye which a whyle ago were farre of/are made nye by the bloude of Christ.

For he is oure peace/whych hath made of both one/a hath broke downe the wall that was a stoppe betwene vs/and hath also put away thozow his fleshe/the cause of hatred/that is to saye/the lawe of commaunde-mentes containyd in the lawe wyrtten/for to make of twayne one newe mā in hym selfe so makinge peace: and to recōcile both vnto God in one body thozow his crosse/and shewe hated therby/a came and preached peace to you which were a farre of/a to them & were nye. For thozow hym we both haue an open waye in/ in one sprete vnto the father.

Now therefore ye are no moare straun-gers and forēers: but cytelens wyth the sayntes/and of the household of God: & are blyt vpon the foundacio of the Apostles & Prophetes/ Iesus Christ beyng the heed corner stone/ in whom euery byldinge coupled to gether groweth vnto an holy temple in the Lorde/ in whom ye also are blyt to gether/and made an habitacyon for God in the sprete.

He sheweth the cause of his prisonment/ & prayeth God not to forsake him because of his trouble/and prayeth God to make them stedfast in his sprete.

The iii. Chapter.

For this cause I Paul am in prison of Iesus Christ for youre sakes

The first Chapter.

Paul and Tymotheus the seruantes of Iesu Christ. To all the saynctes in Christ Iesu which are at Philippios with the Bishops & Deacons. Grace be with you and peace from God our father/ and from the Lorde Iesus Christ.

I thanke my God with all remembrance of you/ all wayes in all my prayers for you/ & praye with gladnes/ because of the fellowshipp whych ye haue in the Gospell from the first daye vnto now: and am surely certified of this/ that he which beganne a good worke in you/ shall go forth with it vntill the daye of Iesus Christ/ as it becometh me to to iudge of you all/ because I haue you in my herte and haue you also every one companions of grace with me/ euen in my bondes/ as I defende and stablish the Gospell.

For God beareth me recorde how greatly I longe after you all fro the very herte rote in Iesus Christ. And this I praye/ that your loue maye increace more and more in knowlege/ and in all feaiping/ that ye myght accepte thynges most excellent/ that ye myght be pure and soche as shulde hurte no manes conscience/ vntill the daye of Christ/ filled with the

with the frutes of ryghtewelnes/ which frutes come by Iesus Christ vnto the glory and laude of God. I

I wolde ye understode brethren that my busyness is happened vnto the greates furtheringe of the Gospell. So that my bandes in Christ/ are manifest thorow out all the iudgemēt hall & in all other places: In so moche that many of the brethren in the Lorde are boldned thorow my bandes & dare more largely speake the worde without feare. Some ther are which preache Christ of enuie & stryfe/ and some of good wil. The one parte preacheth Christ of stryfe and not purely/ supposinge to adde more aduersitie to my bandes. The other parte of loue/ because they se that I am set to defend the Gospell.

What then? So I Christ be preached all manner wayes/ whether it be by occasyon/ or of true meaninge/ I therein toye/ ye and wyll toye. For I knowe that this shall chaunce to my saluacio/ thorow your prayer & mynstryng of the spete of Iesu Christ as I heretely loue for/ & hope that in nothing I shalbe ashamed: but that with all confidence/ as all wayes in tymes past/ euē so now Christ shal be magnified in my body/ whether it be thorow lyfe/ or els deeth. For Christ is to me lyfe/ and deeth is to me auantage.

If it chaunce me to lyue in the fleshe/ that is to me frutefull for to worke/ and what to chose I wote not/ I am constrained of two thynges: I desyre to be lowled and to be with Christ/ which thinge is best of all. Neuertheless to abyde in the fleshe is moare nedfull for you. And this am I sure of/ & I shall abyde/ & with you all continue/ for the furtheraunce and toye of your fayth that ye maye moare aboundantly reioyce in Iesus Christ thorow me/ by my comminge to you agayne.

Only let your conuersacion be/ as it becometh the gospell of Christ: that whether I come and se you/ or els be absent/ I maye yet heare of you/ & ye continue in one spete/ & in one soule/ labouringe as we do/ to mayntayne the fayth of the gospell & in nothinge fearinge your aduersaries: which is to the a. token of perdition/ & to you of saluacion and of God. For vnto you it is geue that not only ye shuld beleue on Christ: but also suffre for his sake/ & haue euen the same fyght whych ye sawe me haue and now heare of me.

The exhorteth them to vnto and brotherly loue/ to beware of stryfe and bayne glory: And for a sure example he layeth Christ before them.

mercifully my toye/ & ye drawe one waye/ haunge one loue/ beyng of one accord/ & of one mynde/ that nothinge be done thorow stryfe or bayne glory/ but in mekenes of mynde every mā esteeme other better then hē selfe/ & loke not every man on his awne thynges/ but every man on the thynges of other. Let the same mynde be in you & was in Christ Iesu: which beinge in the shape of God/ & thought it not robbery to be equal with God: Neuertheless he made hym selfe of no reputacion/ & toke on him the shape of a seruaute/ & became like vnto me/ & was founde in his apparell as a man. He humbled hym selfe & became obedyent vnto the deeth/ euen the deeth of a crosse. Wherefore God hath exalted him/ & geue him a name aboue all name: that in the name of Iesus shulde every knee bowe/ bothe of thynges in heauē & thynges in erth & thinge vnder the erth/ & that all tonges shulde confesse that Iesus Christ is the Lorde vnto the prayse of God the father. I

Wherefore my dearly beloved/ as ye haue alwayes obeyed not whē I was present only but now moche more in mine absence euē so I praye for you/ & hope that in nothing I shalbe ashamed: but that with all confidence/ as all wayes in tymes past/ euē so now Christ shal be magnified in my body/ whether it be thorow lyfe/ or els deeth. For Christ is to me lyfe/ and deeth is to me auantage.

The Epistle

God had mercy on him: not on him only/ but on me also lest I shuld haue sorrowe vnto rowe. I sent him therfore the diligentlar/ & whē ye shuld se him/ ye might reioyce againe and I myght be the lesse sorrowfull. Receaue him therfore in the Lorde with all gladnes/ & make moche of soche: because that for the worke of Christ he wēt so farre/ that he was nye vnto deeth/ and regarded not hys lyfe to fulfyll that seruyce whych was lackynge on youre parte towarde me.

He warneth them to beware of false teachers/ whom he calleth dogges & enemyes of Christ and reproucth mannes awne ryghteousnes.

The. iij. Chapter.

Moreouer my brythre reioyce in the Lorde. It greueth me not to writte one thinge oftē to you. For to you it is a sure thinge. Beware of dogges/ beware of euyl woꝝkers. Beware of disension. For we are circuncision whych wor- ship God in the sprete/ & reioyce in Christ Iesu/ & haue no confidence in the fleshe: though I haue wherof I myght reioyce in the fleshe. He saluteth certayne of them/ exhorteth them to be of honest conuersacion/ and thanketh them because of the prouisiō/ that they made for him beyng in prison.

The. iij. Chapter.

The Epistle

of ye haue herde/howe that it is preached amonge all creatures whych are vnder heuē wherof I Paul am made a minister.

Actions of sufferings of Christ is a passion which we must suffer for his sake. For we haue professed are appointed to suffer with Christ John. 1. As my father sent me so sende I you.

A true Apostle wolde haue all men perfect in Christ Iesu. Wherin I also the knowledge of Christ and of his doctrine.

What greates care Paul toke for all congregacions. He exhorteth them to be steadfast in Christ to be ware of false teachers and worldly wisdom and deserveth a false prophetes.

The ii. Chapter.

I Wolde ye knewe what fyghtynge I haue for youre sakes and for the of Laodicia and for as many as haue not sene my parson in fleshe that their hertes myght be comforted and knet to gether in loue. In all ryches of full vnderstandynge for to knowe the mystry of God the father and of Christ in whom are hys all the treasures of wysdome and knowledge. This I saye lest eny man shuld begyle you with entynging wordes. For though I be absent in the fleshe yet am I present with you in the spyrte/teyng and beholdynge order that ye kepe a youre stedfast sayth in Christ. As ye haue therfore receaued Christ Iesu the Lorde/euen so walke/rotd a byt in him a stedfaste in a sayth/as ye haue learned: a therein be plētous in geuyng thālies.

Beware lest eny man come and spoyle you thozow philosophy a disceatful banitie/thozow the tradicions of men/a ordinaices after the worlde/and not after Christ. For in him dwelleth all a fulnes of a Godhead bodyly/and ye are complete in hym whych is the heed of all rule and power/in whom also is berely and in ye are circumcised with circumcysion made with out handes/by puttynge of the synfull body of the fleshe thozow the circumcysion a is in Christ/in that ye are buryed with hym thozow the thozow baptyme/in whom ye are also ryfen dowed of a agayne thozow sayth/that is wrought by a operaciō of God which rayled him fro deeth.

And ye which weare deed in synne thozow the vncircumcysion of youre fleshe/hath he quyckened with hym and hath forgiuen by wysdome. The all oure trespasses. I and hath put out the hand/wyrtynge that was agaynst vs/con-tayned in the lawe witten: and that hath he taken out of the waye and hath fastened it to his crose/and hath spoyled rule and power/and hath made a shewe of the openly/a hath triumphed ouer them in his awne person.

Let no mā therfore trouble youre cōsciēces aboute meate and drinke or for a pece of an holy daye/as a holydaye of the newe mone/or of the Saboth dayes/which are nothinge but shadowes of thinges to come: but the body is in Christ. Let no mā make you shote at a wōge market which after his awne ymaginacion walketh in the humblenes a holynes of angelis/thinges which he neuer sawe: causelesse put by with his fleschly mynde/a holdeth not the heed/wherof all the body by toyntes and couples receaueth nourishment and is knet to gether/and encreaseth with a increasyng that cometh of God.

Wherfore ye be deed with Christ from ordinaices of the worlde/why as though ye yet liued in the worlde/are ye sedde with tradicions of them that saye: Touch not/tast not/handell not: which all perit the with the bynyng of them and are after the command mētes and doctrynes of men: which thynges haue the synpitude of wysdome in chosen holynes and humblenes/a in that they spare not the body/and do the fleshe no wōshypp into hys nede.

He putteth them in remembrance of the spiritual reuerence to laye asyde all maner of corrupte lyuyng/to be frute full in all godlynde and vertue/and sheweth all degrees their dūtye.

The iii. Chapter.

If ye be then ryfen agayne with Christ I seke those thinges which are aboue/ is set forth in a where Christ lyteth on the ryght hande of God. Set youre affectyō to the only that on thinge a are aboue/a not on thinges which are on the erth. For ye are deed/a youre lyfe is hys in Christ in God. When Christ whych here after foloweth. is oure lyfe/ shall shewe him selfe/then shall ye also appere with him in glory. I Wherfore therfore youre membez which are on the erth/fornicacyon/vncleannes/biteousnes which is wōshyppinge of ydoles: for which thinges sakes the wrath of God cometh on the chyldzen of vnbelyfe. In which thinges ye walked once/whē ye lyued in the.

But now put ye also awaye from you all thinges: wrath/feare/hatred/malicious/cursed speake/hate/felthly speake/hate out of youre mouthes. A ye not one to another. a the olde man with his workes be put of/and the newe put on/which is renued in knowledge after a ymage

To the Colossians.

Lxxxiij.

Every man is Gentle no Jewe/ circumcysion no vncircumcysion/ Barbarous or Sythian/bonde or fre: but Christ is all in all thinges.

Now therfore as electe of God/holy and beloued/put on tender mercye/humblenes/humblenes of myndes/meekenes/longe suffering/forbearinge one another/a forgyng one another/ye any man haue a quarell to a nother: euen as Christ forgaue you/ euen so do ye. Aboue all these thinges put on loue/which is the bonde of perfectenes. And the peace of God rule in youre hertes/to the which peace ye are called in one body. And se that ye be thankfull. Let the worde of Christ dwell in you plenteously in all wysdome. Teache and exhorde youre awne selues/ in Psalmes/and hymnes/a spirituall songes which haue fauour with the/ singynge in youre hertes to a Lorde. And all thinges (what soeuer ye do in worde or dede) do in the name of a Lorde Iesu/ geuyng thālies to God a father by hym. I

Whys submyt youre awne selues unto youre awne husbandes/as it is comly in the Lorde. Husbandes loue youre wyues and be not bytter unto the. Chyldzen obey youre fathers and mothers in all thinges/ for that is well pleasyng vnto the Lorde. Fathers rate not youre chylzen/lest they be of a desperate mynde. Seruautes be obedyent vnto your bodyly masters in all thinges: not with eye seruyce as men pleasers/ but in singlenes of herte/fearyng God. And whatsoeuer ye do/ do it hertely/as though ye dyd it to a Lorde/a not vnto men: for as moche as ye knowe a of the Lorde ye shall receaue the rewarde of inheritaunce/ for ye serue the Lorde Christ. But he that doth wōnge shall receaue for the wōnge that he hath done: for there is no respect of persones with God. Ye masters do vnto youre seruantes that which is iust and equall/teyng ye knowe that ye also haue a master in heauen.

He exhorteth them to be feruent in prayer/to walke solely vnto them that haue not yet come to the true knowledge of Christ/and saluted them.

Continue in prayer and watch in a same to thākes geuyng/prayng a llo for vs/that God open vnto us the waye of vterance/a we maye speake the mystry of Christ/wherfore I am also in bonds/that I maye vter it/as it becometh me to speake. Walke wylly to them that are without/and redeme the tyme. Let youre speache be all wayes well fauored and polidzen with salt/that ye maye know how to answer every man.

The deare brother Tychicus shall tell you of all my busynes/whych is a saythfull ymage nister and fellowe seruante in the Lorde/whā I haue sent vnto you for the same purpose/that he myght knowe how ye do/and myght comfort youre hertes/with one Onesimus a saythfull and a beloued brother/ whych is one of you. They shall shewe you of all thinges which are adoyng here.

Aristarchus my yerson fellowe saluteth you/a Marcus Barnabas cyllers sonne/ touchinge whom ye receaued commaundementes. If he come vnto you/receauē hym: and Iesus which is called Justus/which are of the circumcysion. These only are my wōsheloues vnto a yerson of God/whych were vnto my consolaciō. Epaphras the seruant of Christ/ whych is one of you/saluteth you/ and allwayes laboureth feruently for you in prayers/that ye maye stande perfect and full in all that is the wyll of God. I beare him recorde a he hath a feruent mynde toward you and toward them of Laodicia and them of Hierapolis. Deare Lucas the Philicion greteyth you/and Demas. Salute the brethren whych are of Laodicia/and salute Nymphas a the congregacion/which is in his house. And whē a epistle is reed of you make that it be reed in the congregacyon of the Laodicians also: and that ye lyke wyse reade the epistle of Laodicia. And saye to Archippus: take hede to the offyce that thou hast receaued in a Lorde/that thou fulfyll it. The salutacion by the hande of me Paul. Remēber my bondes. Grace be with you Amen.

The.i. Epistle

The fyrst epistle of Saynt Paul the Apostle to the Thessalonians.

The thanketh God for them/that they are so steadfast in fapth and good woikes/ and receaue the Gospell with soch earnestnes.

The fyrst Chapter.

Paul Syluanns and Ti-motheus. vnto the congregacion of the Thessalonians/in God the father/ and in the Lorde Jesus Christ.

Grace be with you/ & peace
from God our father/ and from the Lorde
Jesus Christ.

We geue God thankes all waye for you all/ makinge mencion of you in oure prayes with out ceasinge/ & call to remembraunce poure woike in the fapth/ & labour in loue & perseuerance in the hope of oure Lorde Jesus Christ/ in the sight of God our father: because we knowe brythen beloued of God how that ye are electe. For oure Gospell came not vnto you in worde only/ but also in power/ & also in holly goost & in moche cer-tayntye/ as ye knowe after what maner we behaued oure selues amonge you/ for poure clakes. And ye became folowers of vs & of Lorde/ & receaued the worde in moche affliccion/ with toye of holly goost/ so that ye were an ensample to all beleue in Macedonia & Achaia. For fro you sounded out the worde of the Lorde/ not in Macedonia & in Achaia only/ but poure faith also which ye haue vnto God/ spread her selfe abroade in all quartars/so greatly that it nedeth not vs to speake eny thinge at all. For they them selues shewe of you what maner of entyringe in we had vnto you & how ye tourned to God from ymages/for to serue the lyvinge and true God/ & for to loke for his sonne from heauen/ who he rayled fro deeth: I meane Jesus which dyuereth vs from the wrath to come.

We putte them in mynde of the godly conuersaciō that he led amonge them whē he preached the Gospell vnto them/ thanketh God that they receaue his worde so frutefully and exulteth his absence.

The.ii. Chapter.

O ye poure selues knowe brythen of oure entrafice in vnto you/ how that it was not in bayne: but euen after that we had suffered befoze & were wamfully entreated at Philippos (as ye well knowe) then were we bolde in oure God to speake vnto you the Gospell of God/in moche stryunge. Oure exhortacyon was not to brynge you to erreure/ nor yet to vniclenes/ nether was it in gyle: but as we were allowed of God/ that the Gospell shuld be compted vnto vs: euen so we spake/ not as though we entended to please men/ but God/which tryeth oure hertes.

Nether was oure conuersaciō at eny tyme with flatterynge wordes/ as ye well knowe nether in cloked coueteousnes/ God is recoz-de: nether sought we praye of men/ nether of you/ nor yet of eny other/ when we myght haue bene chargeable/ as h Apostles of Christ but we were tender amonge you/ euen as a norse cherefeth her chyldren/ so was oure affecyon towarde you: oure good wyll was to haue dealte vnto you/ not the Gospell of God only: but also oure awne soules/ because ye were deare vnto vs.

Ye remember brythen oure laboure/& trauayle. * For we laboured daye & nyght because we wolde not be greuous vnto eny of you/ and preached vnto you the Gospell of God. Ye are witnessers/ & so is God/ how holy-ly & iustly & vnblymeably we behaued oure selues amonge you that beleue: as ye knowe how h we exhorted & comforted and be sought euery one of you/ as a father his chyldren/ that ye wolde walke worthy of God/ whych hath called you vnto his kyngdome and gloze.

For this cause thake we God with out cea-syng/ because that whē ye receaued of vs h worde wherwith God was preached/ ye re-ceaued it not as the worde of man: but euen as it was in dede/ the worde of God/ whych worketh in you h beleue. For ye brythen became folowers of h congregacyōs of God which in Jewry are in Christ Jesus: for ye haue suffered lyke thynges of poure kynsmē/ as we oure selues haue suffered of the Jewes.
Whych as they kylled h Lorde Jesus & their awne Prophet/ eue so haue they persecuted vs: and God they please not/ and are contrary to all men and forbydd vs to preache vnto the Gentyis

To the Thessalonians.

Lxxxv.

Gentyis/ that they might be saued/ to fulfill their synnes all waye. For the wrath of God is comie on them/ euen to the vtmost.

For as moche brythen as we are kept fro you for a season/ as concerninge the bodyly presence/ but not in the herte/ we enforced h more to se you personally with great desyre.
And therfore we wold haue come vnto you/Paul once and agayne: but Satan with-stode vs. For what is oure hope or ioye/ or croune of reioysinge/ are not ye it in the presence of oure Lorde Jesus Christ at his commyng/ yes ye are oure gloze and ioye.
We sheweth how greatly he was reioysed when Cl-mothy tolde him of their fapth and loue.

The.iii. Chapter.

Before sence we could no longer forbear/ it pleased vs to remayne at Athens alone/ and sent Timo-theus oure bryther and minister of God/ and our laboure felowe in the Gospell of Christ/ to stablishe you and to comforte you ouer your fapth/ that no man shulde be moued in these afflictions. For ye your selues knowe that we are euen apoynted there vnto.
For berely when I was with you/ I tolde you befoze that we shuld suffer tribulacion/euen as it came to passe/ & as ye knowe. For this cause whē I coulde no longer forbear/I sent h I myght haue knowledge of poure fapth/ lest haply the tempter had tempted you/ & that oure laboure had bene bestowed in bayne.

But now lately when Timotheus came from you vnto vs/ and declared to vs poure fapth and poure loue and how that ye haue good remembraunce of vs all wayes/ desy-ring to se vs as we desyre to se you. Therfore brythen we had consolacyon in you/ in all oure aduersyte and necessity/ through poure faith. For now are we alpye/ yf ye stode sted-fast in the Lorde. For what thankes can we recompence to God agayne for you/ ouer all the ioye that we ioye for poure sakes befoze oure God: whyle we/ nyghte and daye praye excedyngly that we might se you presently/ & myghte fulfill that whych is lackynge in poure fapth.

God him selfe oure father/ and oure Lorde Jesus Christ gyde oure iorney vnto you: and the Lorde increace you and make you stowe ouer in loue one towarde a nother/ and to-warde all men/ euen as we do towarde you/to make poure hertes stable & vnblymeable/in holynes befoze God oure father/ at the comyng of oure Lorde Jesus Christ with all his sayntes.

We exhorteth the to stedefastnesse/ to kepe the selues fro synne & vnclely conuersaciō/ to loue one another:
rebukeyth vbelnesse/ and speaketh of the resurrection.

The.iiij. Chapter.

Furthermore we beseeche you bry-then/ and exhorte you in the Lorde Jesus/ that ye increace more and more/ euen as ye haue receaued of us/ how ye ought to walcke & to please God.
Ye remember what commaundementes we gaue you in oure Lorde Jesus Christ. For this is the wyll of God/ eue that ye shuld be holy/and that ye shuld abstayne from fornicaciō/that euery one of you shulde knowe how to kepe his bestell in holynes & honoure/ & not in h lust of concupiscence/ as do hethen which which know not God/ that no mā go to farre and defraude his bryther in bargaynyng: because h Lorde is a venger of all suche thynges/as we tolde you befoze time and testified. For God hath not called vs vnto vncleynnes: but vnto holynes. We therfore that despylth/ despylth not man/ but God/ which hath sent his holly sprete amonge you.

But as touchynge brytherly loue/ ye nede not h I wyte vnto you. * For ye are taught of God to loue one another. Ye & that thyng berely ye do vnto all the brythen whych are thozow out all Macedonia. We beseeche you brythen that ye increace more & more/ & that ye stude to be quyet/ & to medle with poure awne busynes/ & to worke with your awne handes/ as we commaunded you: that ye maye behaue poure selues honestly towarde them that are without/ and that nothyng be lackyng vnto you.

I wolde not brythen haue you ignorante concernynge the which are fallen a slepe/ that ye sozowe not as other do which haue no hope. For yf we beleue that Jesus dyed & rose agayne: eue so the also which slepe by Jesus/will God brynge agayne with him. And thus saye we vnto you in the worde of the Lorde/that we which lyue & are remainynge in the commynge of the Lorde/ shall not come per-they which slepe. For h Lorde him selfe shall descende from heauen with a shoute and the boyce of the Archangell and trompe of God.
And the deed in Christe shall arple fyre: then shall we which lyue and remaine/ be caught vp with them also in the cloudes/ to mete h Lorde in the ayer. And so shall we euer be w-the Lorde. Wherfore comforte poure selues one another with these wordes.

We enfourmeth them of the daye of dome and commyng of the Lorde/ exhorteth the to watch/ and to re-garde soch as preach Gods worde amonge them.

The.v. Chapter.

Of the tymes and seasons brythen ye haue no nede that I wyte vnto you. * For ye your selues knowe perfectly/ h the daye of the Lorde shall come eue as a thefe in the nyght. When they shall saye peace & no daunger then commeth

We are bounde to thanke God all wayes for you brethren / as it is mete / because that your fayth groweth exceedingly / and euery one of you shyneth in loue towardes another betwene your selues / so that we oure selues reioyce of you in the congregacions of God.

ouer your pacience & fayth in all your persecutions & tribulacions that ye suffer / which is a token * of the ryghtewys iudgement of God / that ye are counted worthy of the kyngdom of God / for which ye also suffer. It is be-rely a ryghtewys thyng with God to recompence tribulacion to them that trouble you:

and to you which are troubled / rest with vs when the Lorde Iesus shall shewe him selfe from heauen with his myghty Angells / in flamyng fyre / rendyng vengeaunce vnto them that knowe not God / and to them that obeye not vnto the Gospell of oure Lorde

Iesus Christ / which shalbe punished with euerylastyng damnacion / from the presence of the Lorde / & from the glory of his power / when he shall come to be glorified in his sapientes / & to be made manifest in all the that beleue: because oure testimonte that we had to you / was beleued / euen the same daye that we preached it. * Wherefore we praye all wayes for you / & our God make you worthy of the callinge / and fulfill all delectacion of goodnes and the woorkie of fayth / in power: that the name of oure Lorde Iesus Christ

maye be glorified in you / & ye in him / thow the grace of oure God / and of the Lorde Jesus Christ.

The sheweth them that the daye of the Lorde shall not come / till the departyng from the sayth come fyrst: & therefore he exhorteth them not to be disceaved / but to stande stedfast in the thynges that he hath taughte them.

which is by fayth: for the ende of y^e comma-ment is loue that commeth of a pure herte and of a good conscience / & of fayth vnfaned: fro the which thynges some haue erred/and haue turned vnto vayne tangelynge because they wolde be doctours in y^e scripture/and yet vnderstande not what they speake/ ne-

Roma. vii. c.
Eph. ii. d
Eph. vi. a

* We knowe that the lawe is good/ yf a man vse it lawfully / vnderstandyng thynges/how that the lawe is not geuen vnto a righteous man/ but vnto the vnrighteous & disobedient to the bngodly and to synners/ to vnholp and vncleane/ to murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers / to manstealers & whomongers: to the that defyle them selues with makinge: to menstealers: to payrs & to perjured/ & to forth yf there be any other thing that is contrary to holisome doctryne/ accordinge to the Gospell of the gloze of the blessed God/ which gospell is committed vnto me.

And I thanke Christ Iesus oure Lorde which hath made me stronge: for he counted me true/ and put me in office/ when before I was a blasphemour/ and a persecuter/ & a tyrant. But I obtayned mercy/ because I did it ignorantlye thowto vnbelefe. Neuerthe-later the grace of oure Lorde was moare aboundant with fayth and loue which is in Christ Iesu.

The grounde
of the sayth.

* This is a true sayinge & by all meanes worthy to be receaued: y^e Christ Iesus came into the world to saue synners/ of whome I am cheefe. Not withstandinge for this cause was mercy geue vnto me/ that Iesus Christ shulde fyrst shewe on me all longe patience/vnto the ensample of the which shall in tyme to come beleue on hym vnto eternall lyfe.

So then vnto God hyng euerlastyng/ immortal/ inuisyble/ & wyle only / be honoure and prayse for euer and euer. Amen.

* This commaundement commit I vnto y^e sonne Timotheus/ accorpyng to the prophecies which in tyme past were prophesied of the/ that thou in them shuldest fyght a good fyght/ hauyng fayth & good conscience which some haue put awaye from them/ & as cōcer-nyng fayth haue made shipwrache. Of whose nombre is Hymeneus & Alexander whych I haue deliuered vnto Satan/ y^e they might be taught not to blaspheme.

* He exhorteth to praye for all men. He wyl not haue women to be ouercostly arayed nor to teache in the cōgregaciō/ but to be in silence/ & obeye their husbands.

The ii. Chapter.

Exhorte therfore / that aboute all thynges/ prayers/ supplicacions/intercessions & geuyng of thankes he had for all men: to hynges/ and for all that are in auctorite / that we maye lyue a quyet and a pealable lyfe/ in all God-lynes and honestie. For that is good & accepted in the syght of God oure sauour / whych
* wyl haue all men saued/ and to come vnto the knowledge of the truelyth. For ther is one God/ and one (mediator) betwene God & mā/which is the man Christ Iesus / which gaue him selfe a ransom for all men / y^e it shulde be testified at his tyme/ where vnto I am o-dayned a preacher and an Apostle: I tell the trueth in Christ & I ye not beyng the teacher of the gentyls in fayth and veritie.

I wyl therfore that the men praye euery where / lytynge by pure handes wythout wrauth/ or dowtyng. Likewyl also the wemen that they araye them selues in comelye apparell with shamesfastnes & discrete behauiour/not with brydded heare other golde/ or pear-les/ or costly araye: but with suche as becommeth wemen that professe the worshippyng of God thowto good woorkes: * Let the woman learne in silence with all subiection. I suffre not a woman to teache / neither to haue auctorite ouer the man: but for to be in silence. For Adam was fyrst formed / and then Eue. Also Adam was not deceaued / but the woman was deceaued/ and was in trasgres-sion. Not withstandinge thowto bearyng of chyldren they shalbe saued / so they conty-nue in fayth/ loue & holynes with discrecion.

What maner a mā a bishoppe or prest ought to be and what condiciō his wyfe and chyldren shuld haue The properties also requyred in a deacon or mynister:
and in his wyfe.

The iii. Chapter.

This is a true sayinge: If a man couet the office of a Bishoppe he de-syreth a good woike. Ye & a Byshoppe must be faultlesse/ the husband of one wyfe/ sober/ discrete / honestly appa-relled/ harberous/ apt to teache/ not drownyng/ not geue to fylthy lucre: but gentle/le/ abhoryngte fyghtyng/ abhoryngte coue-teousnes/ and one that ruleth his awne house honestly/ hauyngte chyldren vnder obedience with all honestie. For yf a mā cannot rule his awne house/ how shall he care for the congregaciō of God. He maye not be a yonge sco-ler/ lest he swell and faule into the iudgement of the euyl speaker. He must also be well reported of amonge them which are with outer/ lest he fall into rebuke and snare of y^e euyl speaker.

Lykewyl must Deacons be honest / not double tonged/ not geuen vnto moche drinkyng/

kyng neither to fylthy lucre: but hauyng y^e mystery of the sayth in pure conscience. And let them fyrst be proued/ and then let the minister/ yf they be founde faultlesse.

Euen so must their wyues be honest / not euyl speakers: but sober and faythfull in all thynges. Let the Deacons be the husbands of one wyfe/ and suche as rule their chyldren well/ and their awne householdes. For they that mynister well/ get them selues good de-gre and greate lybertie in the sayth/ which is in Christ Iesu.

These thynges wryte I vnto the/ trustyng to come shorly vnto the: but and yf I tarie longe/ that then thou mayst yet haue knowledge how thou oughtest to be haue thy selfe in the house of God/ which is y^e congregaciō of the lyuinge God/ the pylar & grounde of trueth. And without naye greate is y^e mystery of godlynes: God was shewed in y^e fleshe/was iustified in the spete/ was sene of Angels/ was preached vnto the getyls/ was be-lieued on in erth and receaued by in gloze.

The propheticte of the latter dayes/ & exhorteth Tymothy to the diligent readyng of the holy scripture.

The iiii. Chapter.

He spete speaketh euidently that in the later tymes some shall departe from the sayth/ & shall geue hede vnto spetes of erroure / and delyue the doctryne of them which speake faule thowto pocrisye/ & haue their consci-ces marked with an hote yron/ for byddyng to mary/ & commaundyng to abstayne from meates which God hath created to be recea-ued with geuyngte thankes / of them whych the handes / & beleue and knowe the trueth. For all y^e creatures of God are good and nothyng to be refused/ yf it be receaued with thankesgeuyngte.

For it is sanctified by the worde of God and prayer. If thou shalt put the brythren in re-membraunce of these thynges/ thou shalt be a good mynister of Iesu Christ/ whych hast bene noysshed by in the wordes of the sayth and good doctrine which doctryne thou hast continually folloved. But cast awaye vngodly and olde wyues fables.

Exerceyse thy selfe vnto godlynes. For bodely exercyse profiteth lytell: but godlynes is good vnto all thinge/ as a thinge which hath promysed of the lyfe that is now/ & of y^e lyfe to come. This is a true sayinge/ & of all partyes worthy to be receaued. For therfore we laboure & suffre rebuke/ because we beleue in y^e lyuinge God which is y^e fauoure of all men/ but specially of those y^e beleue. Soche thynges commaunde a teache. Let no man despise thy youth: but be vnto the that beleue/an ensample/ in worde/ in conuersaciō/ in lyfe.

lyfe.

lyfe/ in spete/ in sayth and in purenes.
* wyl come/ geue attendaunce to readyng/ & to exhortaciō and to doctryne. Despyse not that gyfte that is in the/ which was geue the thowto prophesie and with y^e layinge on of the handes of an elder. These thynges exerceyse/ & geue thy selfe vnto the / that it maye be sene how thou profetest in all thynges.
Take hede vnto thy selfe and vnto learning/and contynue therein. For yf thou shalt do do/thou shalt saue thy selfe and the y^e heare the.

The teacheth him how he shal be haue hym selfe in rebuke all degrees. An odyne concernyngte wydowes.

The v. Chapter.

Re buke not an elder: but exhorte him as a father & the yonger me as brythren/ the elder wemen as mothers/ the yonger as sylters/ wyth all purenes. Honoure wyddowes which are true wyddowes. If eny wyddowe haue chyldren/ let them learne fyrst to rule their awne houses godly and to recompense their elders. For that is good and acceptable before God. She that is a very wyddowe & frendlesse/ putteth her trust in God/ and con-tynue in supplicaciō and prayer nyght & daye. But she that lyueth in pleasure/ is deed euen yet alyue. And these thynges commaunde/that they maye be wythout faule. If ther be eny that prouyde not for his awne and namely for them of his household / the same denyeth the sayth / and is worse then an infydel.

Let no wyddowe be chosen vnder thescore yere olde/ and soche a one as was the wyfe of one man/ & well reported of in good wokes: yf she haue noysshed chyldren / yf she haue bene liberrall to straungers/ yf she haue welshed the sayntes fete/ yf she haue mynistred vnto them which were in aduersite/ yf she were continually geuen vnto all maner good woorkes. The yonger wyddowes refuse. For when they haue begone to were wantone/ to the dishonoure of Christ / then wyl they mary/ hauyngte damnacon / because they haue broken their first sayth. And also they learne to goe from house to house ydle: yee not ydle only/ but also tryflyng and belybodies/ speakyngte thynges whych are not comly.

I wyl therfore that the yonger wemen mary and beare chyldren/ and gyde the house/and geue none occasiō to the aduersary to speake euyl. For many of them are all redy turned backe/ & are gone after Satan. And yf eny man or woman that beleueth haue wyddowes/ let the minister vnto the/ & let not y^e congregaciō be charged: y^e ye maye haue sufficient for the that are wyddowes in dede.

The.ij. Epistle

Deut. xxi. b.
1. Cor. ix. a.
Mathe. x. b.
Luce. x. b.

The elders that rule well / are worthy of double honour / most specially they which labour in the worde & teachyng. For by scripture sayth thou shalt not mouthe & mouthe of the ore that treadeth out the corne. And the labourer is worthy of his reward. * Agaynst an elder receaue none accusation: but vnder two or thre wytnesses. Them that synne / rebuke openly / that other maye feare.

I testifie before God and the Lorde Iesus Christ & the electe angels / that thou obserue these thynges without hasty iudgement / & do nothinge partially. Laye handes sodenly on no man / nether be partaker of other mens synnes: kepe thy selfe pure. Drink no lenger water / but ble a lyttell wyne for thy stō makes sake and thyne often dyspleases.

Some mennes synnes are open before hande & go before vnto iudgement: some mennes synnes folowe after. Lpewyse also good workes are manifest before hande and they that are other wyse / cannot be hyd.

The dutye of seruantes towarde their masters. Agaynst such as are not satisfied in the worde of God. Agaynst couetousnes. A good lesson for ryche men.

The.ii. Chapter.

IEt as many seruantes as are vnder the yoke / counte theyr masters worthy of all honour / that by name of God & his doctryne be not euill spoken of. Se they which haue beleuynge masters / despyse them not because they are brethren: but so moche the rather do seruyce / for as moche as they are beleuynge & beloved and partakers of the benefite.

These thynges teache & exhorthe. If any mā teache other wyse / & is not content wth the wholesome wordes of oure Lorde Iesu Christ / & wth the doctryne of Godlynes / he is putte by and knoweth nothyng: but wasteth his byaynes about questions & stryfe of wordes wherof spryngge enuie / stryfe / raylyngs / euill surmysynges & bayne dysputacions of men wth corrupte myndes and despytute of the trueth / which thinke that lucre is godlynes. From soche separate thy selfe. Godlynes is greates ryches / yf a man be content wth that he hath. * For we brought nothyng into the worlde / and it is a playne case that we can carry nothyng out.

I wherfore I warne the that thou stee by the gyfte of God which is in the / by the puttyng on of my handes. * For God hath not geue to vs the spere of feare / but of power / and of loue / & of sobrenes of mynde. Be not ashamed to testifie oure Lorde / nether be ashamed of me / which am bounde for his sake: but suffre thou aduersitye also wth the Gospel / thowome the power of God / whych saued vs / and called vs with an holy calling / not accordyng to oure dedes / but accordyng to his awne purpose and grace / which grace was geuen thowome Christ Iesu before the worlde was / but is now declared openly by the apperynge of oure sauoure Iesu Christ whych hath put awaye deeth / & hath brought lyfe & immortallite vnto lyght thowome Gospel / * wherunto I am apointed / & preacher and Apostle / and a teacher of the gentyls: for the which cause I also suffre these thynges. Neuertheles I am not ashamed. For I knowe whom I haue beleued / and am sure he is able to kepe that which I haue comytte to his keepyng / agaynst that daye.

1. Tim. v. b.

Se thou haue the ensample of some holysome wordes which thou hearest of me in sayth & lone whych is in Iesu Christ. That good thinge / which was comytte to thy keepyng / kepe in the holy goost which dwelleth in vs. This thou knowest how that all they which are in Asia / be turned fro me. Of which sorte are Phigelos and Hermogenes. The Lorde geue mercy vnto the house of Onesiphorus: for he ofte refreshed me / and was not ashamed of my chayne: but when he was at Rome / he sought me oute very delygently / and founde me. The Lorde graunt vnto him that he maye fynde mercy with the Lord at that daye. And in how many thyngs he ministered vnto me at Ephesus thou knowest very well.

As he is in the first Chapter / so here he exhorteth him to be constant in trouble / to suffre many / and to hyde fast in the wholesome doctryne of oure Lorde Iesu Christ.

The.ii. Chapter.

Thou therfore my sonne / be stronge in the grace that is in Christ Iesu. And what thyng thou hast hearde of me many bearyng wytnes / the same deliuer to faithfull me / which are apte to teache other. Thou therfore suffre affliction as a good souldier of Iesu Christ. No mā & warreth entanglyd him selfe wth wordes / bypnyes / and that because he wolde please him that hath chosen him to be a souldier. And though a mā stryue for a mastery / yet is he not crowned / except he stryue lawfully. * The husbandman that laboureth must first recea-ue of the frutes. Consider what I saye. The Lorde geue & vnderstandyng in all thyngs. Remember that Iesus Christ beyng of the seide of David / rose agayne from deeth accordyng to my Gospel / wher in I suffre trouble as an euill doer / euen vnto bondes. But the worde of God was not bounde. Herefore I suffre all thynges / for the electes sakes / that they myght also obtayne & saluacion which is in Christ Iesu / wth eternall glory.

Rom. ix. a.

It is a true saying / yf we be deed wth him we also shall lyue wth him. If we be patient / we shall also raygne wth him. * If we beleue not / yet abyde he sayth full. We cannot denye him selfe. Of these thynges put them in remembrance / & testifie before the Lorde / & they stryue not about wordes / which is to no profit / but to peruert the hearers.

1. Tim. ii. b.

Study to shewe thy selfe laudable vnto God a workman that nedeth not to be ashamed / dyutynge the worde of trueth iustly. * Angostly and bayne boyces passe ouer. For and v. d. they shall encrease vnto greater bngodlynes / and their wordes shall tret euē as doeth a cancre: of whose nombze is Hymeneos and Philetos / which as concernyng the trueth haue erred / sayinge that the resurreccyon is past all redy / and do destroye the sayth of dyuers perfonnes.

But the sure grounde of God remayneth / and hath this seale: the Lorde knoweth them that are his / and let euery mā that calleth on the name of Christ / departe fro iniquite. Not wth standyng in a greate house are not only beuelles of goulde and of syluer: but also of wood and of erthe / some for honoure / & some vnto dishonoure. But yf a man purge hym selfe from suche felowes / he shalbe a beuell sanctified vnto honoure / mete for the Lord / and prepared vnto all good workes.

1. Tim. i. c.

Lustres of youth auoyde / & folowe rightewesnes / sayth / loue / and peace / wth them that call on the Lorde with pure herte. * For of the vngostly and vnlearned questios put fro the / remembraunce that they do but gendre stryfe. But the seruant of the Lorde must not stryue: but must be peacable vnto all men / and apte to teache / and one that can suffre the euill in meknes / and can informe them that resyst / yf that God at any tyme wyl geue them repentaunce for to knowe the trueth: that they maye come to them selues agayne out of the snare of the deuyll / which are now taken of hym at hys wyl.

The. ii. Chapter.

Whe be the church: & the obedience of the harte is the spiritual sacrifice. Bodily sacrifice must be offered to our neighbours for yf thou offerest it to God thou makest a body of ly: poble of him. Erfore laye asyde all maliciousnes and all gyle / and dissimulacion / and enuye and all backbytinge: and as newe bozne babes / desyre that reasonable mylke / which is without corrupcyon / that ye maye growe therein. If so be that ye haue tasted how pleasaunt the Lorde is / to whō ye come as vnto a luyng stone disallowed of men / but chosen of God & precious: & ye as luyng stones / are made a spirituall house / & an hoīy presthode for to offer vp spirituall sacryfyce / acceptable to God by Iesus Christ.

The.ij. Epistle

¶ In to Cape/ And whē these theyerd shall appere ye shall receaue an incorruptible crowne of glozpe. ¶ Lkewyse ye pōnger submyt your selues vnto the elder. Submyt your selues euery mā/ one to another/ knet your selues to gether in lowlynes of minde. For God resisteth the proude/ and geueth grace to the humble. Submyt your selues therfore vnder the myghty hande of God/ & he maye exalt you/ when the tyme is come. Cast all your care to him: for he careth for you.

¶ Be sober and watch/ for your aduersary the deuill as arowynge lyon walketh about/ sekynge whom he maye deuoure: whom resist stedfast in the fayth/ remembrynge that ye do but fulfyll the same afflictions whych are apoynted to your brethren that are in the worlde. The God of all grace/ whych called you vnto his eternall glozpe by Christ Iesus/ shall his awne selfe after ye haue suffered a lytell affliction make you perfect: shall settle/ strenght and stablishe you. To him be glozpe and dominion for euer/ and whyll the worlde endureth. Amen.

¶ By Siluanus a faythfull brother vnto you (as I suppose) haue I wyrtten brethly exhortynge and testifyynge how that this is the true grace of God/ wherin ye stande. The companions of your eleccion that are of Babylon/ salute you/ and Marcus my sonne. Grete ye one another with the kyss of loue. Peace be with you all whych are in Christ Iesus. Amen.

¶ The seconde epistle of Saynt Peter.

¶ For so moch as the power of God hath geue them all thynges pertainynge vnto lyfe/ he exhorteth them to fyte & corrupcion of worldly lust/ to make their callynge sure with good woordes/ and frutes of fayth. He maketh mencion of his awne deeth/ declarynge the Lord Iesus to be the true sonne of God/ as he him selfe hath bene vpon the mount.

¶ The fyrst Chapter.

¶ Simon Peter a seruaunt & an Apostle of Iesus Christ/ to them whych haue obtained lyke precious fayth with vs in the ryghtewesnes that cometh of oure God & sauoure Iesus Christ.

Grace with you/ and peace be multiplyed in the knowledge of God and of Iesus oure Lord. Accordynge as his godly power hath geuen vnto vs all thynges that pertaine vnto lyfe and godlynes/ thowow the knowledge of him that hath called vs by vertue & glozpe/ by the meanes wherof/ are geuen vnto vs excellent and mooste grete promyses/ that by the helpe of them ye shuld be partakers of the godly nature/ in that ye fye the corrupcion of worldly lust.

¶ And herunto geue all diligence: in your sayth/ minister vertue & in vertue knowledge/ and in knowledge temperance/ and in temperance pacience/ in pacience godlynes/ in godlynes brotherly kyndnes/ in brotherly kyndnes loue. For yf these thynges be amonge you and are plenteous/ they will make you that ye nether shalbe ydle nor vnfrutefull in the knowledge of oure Lord Iesus Christ.

¶ But he that lacketh these thynges is blynde and gropeth for the waye with his hande/ & hath forgotten that he was purged fro bys olde synnes.

¶ Wherfore brethren/ geue the moare diligence for to make your calling & eleccion sure. For yf ye do soche thynges/ ye shall neuer erre. Yee & by this meanes an entrynge in shall be ministered vnto you abundantly vnto the euerlastynge kyngdome of oure Lord and sauoure Iesus Christ.

¶ Wherfore I will not be negligent to put you all wayes in remembraunce of soche thynges/ though that ye knowe them your selues/ & be also stablisht in the present trueth. Not withstandinge I thynke it mete/ as longe as I am in this tabernacle/ to stee you by puttynge you in remembraunce/ for as moche/ as I am sure how that the tyme is at hande that I must put of my tabernacle/ euen as oure Lord Iesus Christ hath shewed me. I will enforce therfore/ that on euery fyde ye myght haue wherewith to stee by the remembraunce of these thynges/ after my departing.

¶ For we folowed not deceivable fables whē we opened vnto you the power & comynge of oure Lord Iesus Christ/ but with oure eyes we sawe his maieste: euen then berely when he receaued of God the father honoure & glozpe/ and when ther came to him a voyce to him fro the excellent glozpe. This is my beloued sonne/ in whom I haue delecte. His voyce we heard when it came from heauen/ beyng with him in the holy mounte.

¶ We haue also a ryght sure worde of prophete wherunto ye take hede/ as vnto a lyghte shyneth in a darcke place/ ye do well/ vntyll the daye dawne & the daye sterre aryse in your herites. So that ye fyrt know this: that no prophete in the scripture hath eny pruate interpretacion. For it had bene better for them/ not to haue knowne the waye of ryghtewesnes then after they haue knowen it/ to turne from the holy commandment geue vnto them. It is happened vnto the accordynge to the true prouerbe: The dogge is turned to his vomit/ & the sow that was wesshed/ to her wallowynge in the myer.

¶ The exhorteth men to beware of such as wolde make them beleue/ that the daye of the Lord were flacke in comynge: prayeth them to lede a godly lyfe/ & to loke verely for the comynge of the Lord/ whose longe tarynge is saluacion/ and because he wolde haue no man lase/ but wolde receaue all men to repentance.

¶ The. iij. Chapter.

¶ This is the seconde epistle & I now write vnto you beloued/ wherewith stee by/ and warne your pure myndes/ to call to remembraunce the wordes whych were tolde before of the holy prophetes/ and also the comaundment of vs the Apostles of the Lord & saue our.

¶ This fyrst vnderstande that ther shall come in the laste dayes/ mockers/ whych will walke after their awne lustes & saye. Where is the promys of his comynge? For sence the fathers dyed/ all thynges contynue in the same estate wherin they were at the begynnyng. This they knowe not/ (and that wyllynge) how that the heuens a great whyle ago were/ and the erth that was in the water/ appeared by oute of the water/ by the voyce of God/ by the whych thynges the worlde that then was/ perished/ ouerflowing with water. But the heuens berely and erth whych are now/ are kept by the same worde in store/ & reserued vnto fyre/ agaynst the daye of iudgement and perdition of vngodly men.

¶ Verely beloued/ be not ignorant of this one thyng/ how that one daye is with the Lord/ as a thousande yere/ and a thousand yere as one daye. The Lord is not flacke to fulfill his promys/ as some men countlacknes: but is payent to vs warde/ and wolde haue no mā lost/ but wolde receaue all men to repentance.

True wyrtelle of the everlastyng worde of God.
The bloude of Christe is the purgacion from synne.
Roman is without synne.

The fyrst Chapter.

What whych was from

In the begynnyng / whych we in his gospell have heard / which we have and as Paul & Peter in their Epistles / teacheth first the justifyinge of worde of the lyfe. For the lyfe appered / & we sayd that all have sene and beare wytnes / and we have brought to you that eternall lyfe / which was with the father / and appered unto us. That which we have sene and herde / declare we unto you / that ye maye have fellowship with us & our father and his sonne Jesus Christ. And this wyte we unto you / & your joye maye be full.

And this is the trydynge whych we have heard of him & declare unto you / that God is lycht and in him is no dercknes at all. If we saye that we have fellowship with him / and yet walke in dercknes / we lye / and do not the truth. But and yf we walke in lycht / as he is in lycht / then have we fellowship with him / and the bloude of Jesus Christ his sonne clenseth us from all synne.

If we saye that we have no synne / we deceave oure selues and trueth is not in us. If we knowe oure synnes / he is faithfull & true to forgive us oure synnes / and to cleanse us from all unryghtewynesse. If we saye we have not synned / we make hym a lyar and his worde is not in us.

Christ is oure advocate. Of true love / and how it is tryed.

Apoc. xii.

f. The. ii.
Apoc. xii. a.
and. f. vi.

* Neuerthelesse the daye of the Lorde will come as a thefe in the nyghte / in the which daye the heuens shall peryshe with terryble noyse and the elementes shall melt wth heet / and the erth with the wothes that are therein shall burne.

If all these thynges shall peryshe / what maner persons ought ye to be in holy comverfacion and godlynes: lohyng for & hastinge unto the comyng of the daye of God / in which the heuens shall peryshe with fyre / and the elementes shall be consumed wth heate.

* Neuerthelesse we loke for a newe heaven & a newe erth accordyng to his promys / wher in dwelleth ryghtewynesse.

Wherfore dearly beloved / seynge that ye loke for soche thynges be dyligent that ye maye be founde of hym in peace / wythout spotte and bndefyled. And suppose that the longe sufferynge of the Lorde is saluacion / euen as oure dearly beloved brother Paul / accordyng to the wysdome geuen unto him / wrote to you / yee / all moost in every epistle / speakyng of soche thynges: amonge which are many thynges harde to be vnderstande / which they that are vnlearned and vnstable peruert / as they do other scriptures unto their awne destruction. Ye therfore beloved / seynge ye knowe it before hand / beware lest ye be also plucked awaye with the erreure of the wycked / and fall from youre awne steadfastnes: but growe in grace / and in the knowledge of oure Lorde and saueoure Jesus Christ. To whom be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

My lytell chyldre / these thynges write I unto you / that ye synne not: yf any man synne / yet we haue an advocate wth the father / Jesus Christ / whych is ryghteous: and he it is that obteyneth grace for oure synnes: not for oure synnes only: but also for the synnes of all the worlde. And herby we are sure that we knowe hym / yf we kepe hys commandementes. He that sayth I knowe hym / and keepeth not hys commandementes is a lyar: & the veritye is not in hym. Whosoever keepeth his worde / in him is the loue of God perfect in dede. And therby knowe we that we are in him. He that sayth he bydeth in hym / sought to walke euen as he walked.

Wherfore I wrote no newe comāndemēt unto you: but that olde comāndemēt which ye hearde from the begynnyng. The olde comāndement is the worde whych ye hearde from the begynnyng. Agayne a newe comāndement I wrote unto you / a thyng & is true in him / & also in you: for the dercknes is past / & the true lycht now shyneth. He that sayth how that he is in the lycht / and yet hateth hys brother / is in dercknes euen vntill this tyme. He that loueth hys brother / abydeth in the lycht and ther is none occasion of euyl in hym. He that hateth hys brother / is in dercknes / and walketh in dercknes: and cannot tell whither he goeth / because that dercknes hath bynded his eyes.

He that hateth his brother / is in dercknes / and walketh in dercknes: and cannot tell whither he goeth / because that dercknes hath bynded his eyes.

Babes I wrote unto you how that youre synnes are forgiven you for his names sake. I wrote vnto you fathers / how & ye knowe him that was fro the begynnyng. I wrote vnto you younge men / how that ye haue overcome & wicked. I wrote vnto you lytell chyldren / how that ye knowe the father. I wrote vnto you fathers / how that ye knowe hym that was from the begynnyng. I wrote vnto you younge men / how that ye are stronge & the worde of God abideth in you and ye haue overcome that wycked.

Se that ye loue not the worlde / necher & thynges that are in the worlde. If any man loue the worlde / the loue of the father is not in hym. For all that is in the worlde (as the lust of the fleshe / the lust of the eyes / and the pryde of goodes) is not of the father / but of the worlde. And & worlde banyseth awaye and the lust ther of: but he that fulfilleth the will of God / abydeth euer.

Lytell chyldren it is the last tyme / and as ye haue herde how & Antichrist shall come euen now are there many Antichristes come allredy. Wherby we knowe that it is & last tyme. They went oute fro us / but they were not of us. For yf they had bene of us / they wolde no dout / haue continued with us. But that fortuneth that it might appere / that they were not of us.

And ye haue an oymnt of the holy gost & ye knowe all thynges. I wrote not vnto you / as though ye knewe not the trueth: but as though ye knewe it / and knowe also that no lye commeth of trueth. Who is a lyar but he that denyeth that Jesus is Christ: the same is the Antichrist that denyeth the father & the sonne. Whosoever denyeth the sonne / the same hath not the father. Let therfore abyde in you that same which ye hearde fro the begynnyng. If that which ye hearde fro the begynnyng / shall remayne in you / ye also shall contynue in the sonne / and in the father. And this is the promys that he hath promysed us euen eternall lyfe.

This haue I writte vnto you / concerninge them that disceave you. And the annoyntinge whych ye receaued of hym / dwelleth in you. And ye nede not that any mā teache you: but as the annoyntinge teacheth you all thyng / and is true / and is no lye / & as it taught you euen so byde therin. And nowe babes abyde in hym that when he shall appere / we maye be bolde and not be made a shamed of hym at his comyng. If ye knowe that he is ryghteous / knowe also that he whych foloweth ryghtewynesse / is borne of hym.

The synnguler loue of God toward us: and how we agayne oughte to loue one another.

The. iii. Chapter.

Holde what loue the father hath shewed on us that we shuld be called & sonnes of God. For this cause the worlde knoweth you not / because it knoweth not hym. Dearly beloved / now are we the sonnes of God / & yet it doth not appere what we shalbe. But we knowe that whē it shall appere / we shalbe lyke hym. For we shall se him as he is. And every man & hath this hope in him / pougeth him selfe / euen as he is pure. Whosoever commytteyth synne / committeth vnryghteousnes also / for synne is vnryghteousnes. And ye knowe & he appered to take awaye oure synnes / and in hym is no synne. As many as byde in him / synne not: whosoever synneth / hath not sene of hys synne / nether hath knowen hym.

Babes / let no man deceave you. He that doeth ryghteousnes / is ryghteous / eue as he is ryghteous. He that committeth synne / is of the deuyl: for the deuyl synneth sence & begynnyng. For this purpose appered & sonne of God / to loose the wothes of the deuyl. Whosoever is borne of God / synneth not: for his seed remayneth in him / & he cannot synne / because he is borne of God. In this are the children of God knowen/and the children of the deuyl. Whosoever doeth not ryghte-nes/is not of God/nether he that loueth not hys brother.

He that seeth that Antichrist & synne can not dwell together: for Christes spirit te fygtheth agaynst synne.

He that doeth ryghteousnes / is borne of God & taughte of hys synne.

Loue is the first fructe of all other. For this is the thinges that ye heare fro the beginninge; & ye shuld loue one another not as Capn which was of y^e wicked & selve his brother. And wherfore se we he him? Be cause his ayme workes were euyl/and hys brothers good. Wherfore not my brother though the worlde hate you. We knowe & we are translated from deeth into lyfe/because we loue the brethren. He that loueth not hys brother/abideth in deeth. Whosoever hateth hys brother/is a man clea. And ye knowe that no man clea/hath eternall lyfe. lyfe abydinge in hym.

Wherby perceaue we loue: that he gaue his lyfe for vs: & therefore ought we also to geue oure liues for the brethren. Whosoever hath this worlde good & seyth hys brother haue neede: & shutteth by his compassion from him: how dwelleth & loue of God in him? Wherby let vs not loue in worde/nether in tōge: but with the debe & in berite. For therby we knowe that we are of the berite/and can befoze hym quyet oure hertes. But yf oure hertes cōdepe vs/God is greter then oure hertes/& knoweth all thynges. Beloued/yf oure hertes cōdepe vs not/then haue we trust to God warde: & whatfoeuer we aske we shal receaue of him: because we kepe his commaundementes/& do those thinges which are pleasyng in his sight. of the worlde/ & therefore speake they of the worlde/ & the worlde heareth the. We are of God. He & knoweth God/heareth vs: he that is not of God/heareth vs not. Wherby knowe we & spete of berite/a the spete of erreure.

Beloued/let vs loue one another: for loue cometh of God. And euery one that loueth is borne of God/and knoweth God: He that loueth not/knoweth not God: & for God is loue. In this appered the loue of God to vs: ward/because that God sent his only begotten sonne into y^e worlde/ that we might lue thozow him. Verin is loue/not that we loued God but that he loued vs/and sent his sonne to make agreement for oure synnes.

Beloued/yf God so loued vs/we ought also to loue one another. No man hath sene God at any tyme. If we loue one another/God dwelleth in vs/and his loue is perfect in vs. Wherby know we: that we dwell in hym/& he in vs: because he hath geuen vs of his spete. And we haue sene and do testifye that the father sent the sonne/which is the saueour of y^e worlde. Whosoever confelleth that Ius is the sonne of God/in hym dwelleth God/and he in God. And we haue knowe and beleued the loue that God hath to vs.

God is loue/and he that dwelleth in loue/dwelleth in God/and God in him. Verin is y^e loue perfect in vs/that we shuld haue trust in the daye of iudgement: for as he is/euen so are we in thys worlde. Ther is no feare in loue/but perfect loue casteth out all feare/for feare hath paynfullnes. He that feareth/is not perfect in loue.

We loue hym/for he loued vs first. If a he that loueth ma saye/I loue God/a yet hate his brother he is a lyar. For how can he that loueth not his brother who he hath sene/loue God who he hath not sene? And this commaundement haue we of hym: that he whych loueth God/shuld loue his brother also. Amen.

To loue God/is to kepe hys commaundementes. Fayth ouercometh the worlde. Euery synne lyfe is in the sonne of God. Of thys synne vnto deeth.

The .v. Chapter.

Whosoever beleueth that Iesus is Christ/is borne of God. And euery one that loueth him which begat/loueth him also whych was begot of him. In this we knowe that we loue the children of God/whē we loue God and kepe his commaundementes. This is the loue of God that we kepe his commaundementes/& his commaundementes are not greuous. For all that is borne of God/ouercometh y^e worlde. And this is the victoꝝ that ouercometh the worlde/euē oure fayth. Who is it that ouercometh the worlde: but he whych beleueth that Iesus is the sonne of God.

The seconde epi- le of Saynct John.

The wyrteth vnto a certayne lady/ & cōpyleth that her child: & walke in the truethe/ & exhorteth them vnto loue/ & warneth them to beware of such deceauers as denye that Iesus Christ came in the flesch/ & prayeth them to continue in the doctryne of Christ: & to haue nothinge to do with them that bringe not this lernynge.

The elder to the electe lady & her chyldre which I loue in the truethe: and not I only/ but also all that knowe the truethe/ for the truethe sake whych dwelleth in vs/ and shalbe in vs for euer.

With you be grace/mercy/and peace fro God the father & fro the Lord Iesus Christ the sonne of the father/in truethe and loue.

I reioyced greatly/ that I founde of thy chyldren walkinge in truethe/as we haue receaue a commaundement of y^e father. And nowe befeche I the lady/not as though I wrote a newe commaundement vnto y/ but that same which we had fro y^e beginninge/ & we shuld loue one another. And this is the loue/ that we shulde walke after his commaundementes.

This commaundement is/that as ye haue hearde from the beginninge/ye shuld walke in it. For many deceauers are entred into the worlde/which confesse not that Iesus Christ is come in y^e flesch. This is a deceauer & an Antichrist. Loke on youre selues/ & we looke not that we haue wrought: but that we may haue a full rewarde. Whosoever trasgesseth & bydeth not in the doctryne of Christ/hath not God. He that endureth in the doctryne of Christ/hath bothe the father and the sonne.

If ther come any vnto you and bringe not this learninge/him receaue not to house: nether byd him God spede. For he that bydeth him God spede/is partaker of his euyl dedes. I had many thinges to wyrt vnto you/neuer thelesse I wolde not wyrt in paper & ynke: but I trust to come vnto you/& speake to your mouth to mouth/that oure ioye maye be full. The sonnes of thy electe sister grete & Amē.

The thyꝝde epistle of saynct John.

He is glad of Sayus/that he walke in the truethe/ & exhorteth them to be louynge vnto the poore Christ in their perfecucion/ & with the bynnde dealyng of Diotrephes/and the good reporte of Demetrius.

The elder vnto the beloued Sayus/ who I loue in the truethe. Beloued I wishe in all thynges & thou prosperedest & fastedest well euē as thy loue prospereth. I reioyced greatly when

This Iesus Christ is he that cam by water and bloud/not by water only: but by water and bloud. And it is the spete that beareth wytnes/ because the spete is truethe. (For ther are thre whsch beare recorde in heauen/ & ather/ & worde/ & wholy good. And these thre are one) Forther are thre whsch beare recorde (in erth) the spete/ and water/ and bloud: and these thre are one. If we receaue the wytnes of men/the wytnes of God is greter. For thys is the wytnes of God/ whych he testified of hys sonne. He that beleueth on the sonne of God/hath y^e wytnes in hym selfe. He that beleueth not God/hath made him a lyar/because he beleued not the recorde that God gaue of hys sonne. And thys is that recorde/ how that God hath geuen vnto vs eternall lyfe/and this lyfe is in hys sonne. He & hath the sonne/hath lyfe: and he that hath not the sonne of God/hath not lyfe.

These thynges haue I wyrtten vnto you that beleue on the name of the sonne of God that ye maye knowe howe that ye haue eternall lyfe/and that ye maye beleue on the name of the sonne of God. And thys is the trust y^e we haue in hym: that yf we aske any thinge accordynge to hys wyll/he heareth vs. And yf we knowe y^e he heare vs whatfoeuer we aske/ we knowe that we shal haue the petitions that we desyre of hym.

If any man se hys brother synne a synne that is not vnto deeth/ let hym aske/ and he shal geue hym lyfe for them that synne not vnto deeth. Ther is a synne vnto deeth/for whych I saye I not that a man shuld praye. All vnyghtewelnes is synne/ & ther is synne not vnto deeth.

We knowe that whosoever is borne of God/synneth not: but he that is begotten of God kepeth hym selfe/and that wyched toucheth hym not. We knowe that we are of God/and that the worlde is all to gether set on wychednes. We knowe that the sonne of God is come/ and hath geuen vs a mynde to knowe hym whych is true: and we are in hym that is true/through his sonne Iesus Christ. This same is bery God/and eternall lyfe. The Epistle of Saynt Paul vnto the Hebues.

Howe God dealt lovingly with them of the olde tyme in sendinge them his prophetes / but moche more mercy hath he shewed vs in that he sent vs his awne sonne. Of the most excellent glory of Iesus Christ / which in all thynges is lyke to his father.

The first Chapter.

In tyme past dyer. I say many wayes / I came vnto the fathers by prophetes / but in these last dayes he hath spoken vnto vs by his sonne / whom he hath made heyre of all thynges: by whom also he made worlde. Which sonne beyng the brightnes of his glory / a very ymage of his substance / bearyng by all thynges with the worde of his power / hath in his awne person purged oure synnes / & is sittyen on the right hande of the maiestye on hye / and is more excellent then the angels / in as moche as he hath by inheritaunce obteyned an excellent name then haue they.

For vnto whych of the angels sayde he at any tyme: Thou arte my sonne / this daye begate I the. And agayne: I will be his father / and he shall be my sonne. And agayne whiche he bringeth in the first begotten sonne into the worlde / he sayth: And all the angels of God shall worshippe hym. And of the angels he sayth: We make hym angels spretes / & his ministres flammes of fyre. But vnto his sonne he sayth: God / thy seate shall be for ever & euer. The scepter of thy kyngdome is a ryght scepter. Thou hast loued ryghtewesnes and hated iniquyte. Wherefore God whych is the God / hath anoynted the with the oyle of gladnes aboute thy felowes.

And

And thou Lorde in the begynnyng hast layde the foundacyon of the erth. And the heuens are the workes of thy handes. They shall perishe / but thou shalt endure. They all shall be olde as doth a garment: and as a vesture shalt thou chaunge them / and they shall be chaunged. But thou arte all wayes / and thy yeres shall not faile. Fy vnto which of the angels sayde he at any tyme: Syt on my ryght hande / tyll I make thine enemyes thy fote stole: Are they not all ministryng spretes / sent to minister for the sake of which shall be heyres of saluacion.

Wherefore we ought to geue & more hede to the thynges we haue herde lest we perishe. For yf the worde which was spoken by angels was stedfast: so that euer transgression & disobedience receaued a iust recompence to rewarde how shall we escape / yf we heare so great a voyce as the Lorde hym selfe / and afterwarde was confirmed vnto vs by the hearde it / God bearyng wytnes thereto / both with synnes and wonders also / and with diuers myracles / & giftes of the holy gooste accordyng to his awne will.

If & bespyers of notes were so gretiously punished what shall become of saluacion / which at this tyme he hath begun to preach of the Lorde hym selfe / and afterwarde was confirmed vnto vs by the hearde it / God bearyng wytnes thereto / both with synnes and wonders also / and with diuers myracles / & giftes of the holy gooste accordyng to his awne will.

Wherefore we ought to geue & more hede to the thynges we haue herde lest we perishe. For yf the worde which was spoken by angels was stedfast: so that euer transgression & disobedience receaued a iust recompence to rewarde how shall we escape / yf we heare so great a voyce as the Lorde hym selfe / and afterwarde was confirmed vnto vs by the hearde it / God bearyng wytnes thereto / both with synnes and wonders also / and with diuers myracles / & giftes of the holy gooste accordyng to his awne will.

He hath not vnto the angels put in subiection the worlde to come / wherof we speake. But one in a certayne place wytnesseth / sayinge. What is man / that thou arte myndfull of hym: After thou haddest for a season made hym lower then the angels: thou crownest hym with honour and glory / & hast set him aboue the workes of thy handes. Thou hast put all thynges in subiection vnder his fete. In that he put all thynges vnder him / he left nothyng that is not put vnder him. Nevertheless we yet see not all thynges subdued vnto him / that was made lesse then the angels. We see that it was Iesus / which is crowned with glory & honour for the sufferynge of death: & he by the grace of God / shulde tast of death for all men.

For it became him / for whome are all thynges / and by whome are all thynges / after that he had brought many sonnes vnto glory / & he shuld make the Lorde of their saluacion perfecte thowow sufferynge. For he is sanctified / & they which are sanctified / are al of one. For which causes sake he is not ashamed to call them brethren sayinge: I will declare thy name vnto my brethren / & in the myddes of the congregacions will I prayse the. And agayne: I will put my trust in hym. And agayne: beholde here am I & the chyldre which God hath geue me: For as moche then as the chyldren were partetakers of fleshe and bloud / he also him selfe lykewise toke parte with the / for to put doune thowow deeth / him that had lordshippe ouer deeth / that is to saye the deuyll / & that he myght deliuer them / which thowow feare of deeth were all there life tyme in daunger of bondage. For he in no place taketh on hym & angels: but the seed of Abraham taketh he on him. Wherefore in al thynges it became him to be made lyke vnto his brethren / that he might be mercifull / and a saythfull hye ptesse in thynges concernynge God / for to pouрге & peoples synnes. For in that he hym selfe suffered and was tempted / he is able to sucher them that are tempted.

He requyeth vs to be obedynt vnto the worde of Christ / whiche is more worthy then Moyses. The punishment of such as wil not obede the wordes of Christ / whiche is more worthy then Moyses. The punishment of such as wil not obede the wordes of Christ / whiche is more worthy then Moyses.

The iiij. Chapter.

Wherefore holy brethren / partakers of the celestiall callinge / cōsider & embassadour & hye ptesse of oure professio Christ Iesus / which was saythfull to him that made him / euen as was Moyses in all his house. And yet was this man counted worthy of more glory then Moyses: In as moche as he whych hath prepared the house / hath most honour in his house. Every house is prepared of some man. But he that ordeyned all thynges / is God. And Moyses be rell was saythfull in all his house / as a minister / to beare wytnes of the thynges whych shuld be spoken afterwarde. But Christ as a sonne / hath rule ouer his house / whose house are we / so that we holdfast the confydence & the reforesynge of that hope / vnto the ende.

Wherefore as the holy goost sayth: to daye yf ye shall heare his voyce / harden not youre hertes / after the rebellion in the daye of temptacio in the wyldernes / where youre fathers tempted me / proued me / & sawe my workes. 40. yere longe. Wherefore I was greued with this generacyon & sayde. They erre euer in their herte: they bereyly haue not knowe my wayes / so that I swaie in my wrath / that they shuld not enter into my rest. Take hede brethren / & therby in none of you an euill herte in disobedience / that he shuld departe fro the sayinge of God: but exhort one another dayly / whyll it is called to daye / lest any of you were hardeneth thowow the deceyfullnesse of synne.

We are partetakers of Christ yf we kepe fast vnto the ende the first substance / so longe as it is sayd: to daye yf ye heare his voyce / harden not youre hertes / as whiche ye rebelled. For some / when they hearde rebelle / how be it not all that came out of Egypt vnder Moyses. But Soche an hve pzet it became vs to haue which is holy/harmlesse/undefiled/separat from synners/and made hve then heauen. Which nedeth not dayly (as ponder hve pzetes) to offer by sacrifice/for it for hys awne synnes/and then for the peoples synnes. For that dyd he at once for all/whē he offered by him selfe. For the lawe maketh men pzetes/whych haue infirmite: but the worde of the othe that came sence the lawe/maketh the sonne pzet/which is perfecte for euermoze.

The office of Christ is more worthy then pzetes office of the olde lawe/whych was vnperfecte/and therfore abrogate.

The. viij. Chapter.

If the thing which we haue spokē this is the pyth: p we haue soche an hve pzetē his sytten on pvyght hāde of pteate of maiestie in heauē is a minister of holy thinges/ & of the very tabernacle which God pyght/and not man. For euery hve pzet is ordeyned to offer gyftes and sacrifices: wherfore it is of necessitie that thys man haue some what also to offer. For he were not a pzetē/ yf he were on the erth where are pzetes that accorde to the lawe offer gyftes/whych pzetes serue vnto ensample and shadowe of heauenly thinges: euen as the answer of God was geuen vnto Moyses when he was about to synthe the tabernacle. Take hede (sayde he) that thou make all thinges accorde to the patrone shewed to the in the mount.

Now hath he obtayned a more excellent of fyce/in as moche as he is the mediatoz of a better testamēt/whych was made for better promyses. For yf that fyrst testamēt had bene fautelesse: then shulde no place haue bene sought for the seconde. For in rebukinge the he sayth: Beholde the dayes will come (sayth the Lorde) and I will synthe the house of Israel/and vpon the house of Iuda/a new testamēt: not lyke the testamēt that I made with their fathers at that tyme/when I toke them by the handes/to lede them oute of the lande of Egypte/for they contynued not in my testamēt/and I regarded the not sayth the Lorde.

For this is the testamēt that I will make with the house of Israel: After those dayes sayth the Lorde: I will put my lawes in their myndes/and in their hertes I will wyte the/and I wyll be their God/and they shal be my people. And they shall not teache/euery mā his neyghboure/and euery mā hys brother/sayinge: knowe p Lorde: for they shall knowe me/ from the lest to the mozte of them: for I wyll be mercifull ouer their vnyghtewelnes/ & on their synnes and on their iniquities. In p he sayth a new testamēt/ he hath abrogat the olde. Now that which is bylamulles and wexed olde/ is redy to bannyshe awaye.

The profyte and worthynesse of the olde Testamēt and howe farre the newe excellith it.

The. ix. Chapter.

In that fyrst tabernacle were had oze/ & dinatyses/ & seruinges of God/and wordly holynes. For ther was a foze tabernacle made/wherin was the candellstiche & p table/ & the shewe bzeed which is called holy. But with in p seconde bayle was ther a tabernacle/which is called holpest of all/whych had the golden senter & the arche of the testamēt ouerlayde round about with golde/wherin was the golde pot with Manna/and Arons rodde that sprōge and the tables of the testamēt.ouer p arche were the Cherubis of glozy shadowynge the seate of grace. Of which thinges we wil not now speake particularly.

When these thinges were thus ordeyned/ the pzetes went all wayes into the fyrst tabernacle & executed the seruite of God. But into the seconde wēt the hve pzet along/once euery yeare:and not with out blood/whych he offered for him selfe/ & for the ignozaunce of the people. Wherwith the holy goost thys signified that the waye of holy thinges/ was not yet opened/whyll as yet the fyrst tabernacle was standynge. Whych was a synnitude for the tyme then present/and in whych were offered gyftes & sacrifices that coude not make the mynyster perfecte/ as pertainynge to the consyence with only meates & drynches/ & diuers welthinges & iustifying of the fleshe/ whych were ordeyned vntyll p tyme of refozmacyon.

But Christ bringe an hve pzet of good thinges to come/ came by a greater & a moare perfecte tabernacle/ not made w handes: that is to saye/ not of thys maner byldynge/ nether by the blood of goates & calues: but by his awne blood he entred in once for all into the holy place/ & founde eternal redemcyon. For yf the blood of oxen and of goates and the aswes of an heyter/when it was sprynckled/ purified the vnclene/ as touchynge the purifyinge of the fleshe: how moche moare shall the blood of Christ/ which thozow p eternal spete/ offered him selfe without spot to God/ poure poure consciences from deede wothes for to serue the liuinge God?

And for this cause is he the mediatoz of the newe testamēt/ p thozow deeth which chausted for the redemcyon of those transgressors that were in the fyrst testamēt/ they whych were called/ myght receaue the pygmes of eternal inheritaunce. For wher euer is a testamēt/ ther must also be the deeth of him that maketh the testamēt. For the testamēt

testamēt taketh auctoritie whē men are deede: for it is of no value as longe as he that made it/ is a liue. For whych cause also/ nether p fyrst testamēt was ordeyned with out blood. For whē all the comaundemētes were redde of Moyses to al the people/ he toke the blood of calues and of goates/ with water & purple woolle & ylope/ & sprynckled both the boke/ & all the people/ saying: * this is the blood of the testamēt whych God hath appoynted vnto you. Mozeouer/ he sprynckled the tabernacle with blood also/ & all p ministringe vessels. And also almost all thynges/ are by the lawe poured with blood/ and with out shedding of blood is no remission.

It is then nede that the similitudes of heauenly thynges be purified with soche thinges: but the heauenly thynges the selues are purified w better sacrifices then are thosē. For Christ is not entred into the holy places that are made with handes/ which are but synnitudes of true thinges: but is entred into very heauē/ for to appere now in the sight of God for vs: not to offer hym selfe oftē/ as the hve pzet entred into p holy place euery yeare with straige blood/ for then must he haue often suffered sence the woilde began. But now in the ende of p woilde/ hath he appered once/ to put synne to flight/ by the offeringe of hym selfe: And as it is apoynted vnto me that they shall once dye/ and then cometh the iudgemēt/ * euen so Christ was once offered to take awaye the synnes of many/ & vnto them that loke for hym / shall he appeare agayne without synne vnto saluacyon.

The olde lawe had no power to cleanse awaye synne but Christ dyd it with offeringe of his body once for all. An exhortacyon to receaue this goodnesse of God thankfully with patience and stedfast sayth.

The. x. Chapter.

In the lawe which hath but p shadowe of good thynges to come/ & not p thinges in their awne fashion can neuer with p sacrifices which they offer yeare by yeare continually/ make p comers ther vnto parfayte. For wold not then those sacrifices haue creased to haue bene offered/ because that the offerers once poured shuld haue had no moare consciences of synnes. Neuerthelesse in those sacrifices is ther mencyon made of synnes euery yeare. For it is vnpossible that the blood of oxen and of goates shuld take awaye synnes.

Wherfore whē he cometh into the woilde/ he sayth. * Sacrifice & offeringe thou woldest not haue: but a bodie hast thou ordeyned me. In sacrifices and synneofferinges thou hast no lust. Then I sayde: Lo I come/ in the cheff of the booke it is wytten of me/ that I would do thy will/ o God: Aboue/ when he had layed sacrifice and offeringe/ & burnt sacrifices and synneofferinges thou woldest not haue/ nether hast allowed/ which yet are offered by the lawe/ and then sayde: Lo I come to do thy will/ o God: he taketh awaye the fyrst to stabillise the latter. By p which will/ we are sanctified: by the offeringe of the body of Iesu Christe once for all.

And euery pzet is redy dayly ministringe/ & ofte tymes offereth one maner of offeringe which can neuer take awaye synnes. But thys mā after he had offered one sacrifice for synnes/ sat hym doune for euer on the ryght hande of God/ and from hence forth taryeth tyll his foes be made his fote stole. For with one offeringe hath he made perfecte for euer the that are sanctified. And the holy goost al so beareth vs recorde of thys/ euen when he tolde befoze: This is the testamēt that I will make vnto them: after those dayes sayth the Lorde. I will put my lawes in their hertes & in their mynde I wyll wyte them/ and their synnes and iniquities wyll I remember no moare. And where remission of these thinges is/ ther is no moare offeringe for synne.

Seynge bzeethē that by the meanes of the blood of Iesu/ we maye be holde to enter into that holy place/ by the newe and lyuinge waye which he hath prepared for vs/ through the bayle/ that is to saye/ by hys fleshe. And oure dutye/ p seyng also that we haue an hve pzet which is ruler ouer the house of God/ let vs drawe nye with a true herte in a full faith/ sprynckled in oure hertes from an euill conscience/ & welshed in oure bodies with pure water: & let vs kepe the pzeffession of oure hope/ with out wauerynge (for he is sayth full that pze-mised) & let vs cōsider one another/ to prouo- he vnto loue/ & to good wothes: & let vs not forsake the felshippe that we haue amonge oure selues/ as p maner of some is: but let vs exhorde one another/ & that so moche the moare/ because ye se that the daye draweth nye.

* For yf we synne willingly after that we haue receaued the knowledge of the truelyth/ is the synne ther remayneth no moare sacrifice for synne/ wherof is spokē but a fearfull lokinge for iudgemēt/ & biolēt is. For yf we synne/ which shall deuoure p aduersaries. * That is the syn that despyseth Moyses lawe/ dyeth with out mercy vnder two oze thye witneses. Of how holy ghooste: moche sozer punishment suppose ye shall be which. So be counted wothe/ which treadeth vnder fo- te the sonne of God: and counteth the bloude of the testamēt as an unholy thyng wher- with he was sanctified/ and both dishonoure to the spete of grace. For we knowe hym that hath sayde: vengeance belongeth vnto me/ I will recompence sayth the Lorde. And agayne: the Lorde shall iudge hys people. It is

It is a fearful thinge to faule into. * By the handes of God he des of the lvinge God.

Call to remembrance the dayes that are past / in the which after ye had receaved light / God as it is sayd ye endured a greete fight in adversities / part by whyll all men wondred & galed at you for the same & tribulacyō that was done unto you / and partly whyll ye became companions of the which so passed their tyme. For ye suffered also with my bondes / and toke in worth the spoilinge of youre Goodes / & that with gladnes: knowinge in youre selues how that ye had in heuena a better and an enduringe substance. Cast not awaye therfore youre confidence which hath great reward to recompence. For ye haue nede of paciēce / & after ye haue done the will of God / ye might receave the promes. For yet a very litle while / & he that shall come will come / and will not tary. But the iust shall lyue by fayth. And ye he withdrawe hym selfe my soule shall have no pleasure in him. We are not which withdrawe our selues unto dāpnacyō / but partayne to fayth / to the winninge of the soule.

What fayth is / a commendacyō of the same. The first beleue of the fathers in olde tyme.

The xi. Chapter.

Fayth is a sure cōfidence of thinges which are hoped for / and a certayntie of thynges which are not sene. By it the elders were well reported of. Thozow fayth we understode that the worlde was ordeyned by the worde of God / & that thinges which are sene / were made of thinges which are not sene. By fayth Abel offered unto God a more plenteous sacrifice / than Cān: by which he obtayned witness that he was righteous / God testifyinge of his gift: by which also he beinge deed / yet speaketh. By fayth was Enoch translated that he shulde not se deeth: nether was he founde: for God had taken hym awaye. Before he was take awaye / he was reported of / that he had pleased God: but without fayth it is impossible to please him. For he that cometh to God must beleue that God is / and that he is a rewarder of them that seke him.

By fayth Noe honored God / after that he was warned of thinges which were not sene / and prepared the arcke to the savinge of his house: wholde / thozow the which arcke / he conserved the worlde / and became heire of the rightewelsnes which cometh by fayth.

By fayth Abraham / when he was called obeyed / to go out into a place / which he shuld afterward receave to inheritance / & he went out / not knowinge whether he shuld go.

By fayth he remoued into the lande / & was promysed hym / as into a straunge countrey / & dwelt in tabernacles: and so dyd Isaac & Jacob.

heire with hym of the same promes. For he looked for a citie havinge a foundacyō whose bylder and maker is God.

Thozow fayth Sara also receaved strength to be with chylde / & was deliuered of a childe when she was past age / because she iudged hym faythfull which had promysed.

And therfore sprange ther / of one / & of one which was as good as deed / so many in multitude / as the starres of the skye / and as the sond of the see / thozow which is innumerable.

And they all dyed in fayth / & receaved not the promes: but sawe them a farre off / & beleued them / and saluted them: and confessed that they were straungers and pilgrims on the erthe. They that saye soche thynges / declare that they seke a countrey. Also ye they had bene myndfull of that countrey / from whence they came out: they had leasure to haue returned agayne: but now they desyre a better / that is to saye a heauēlye. Wherfore God is not ashamed of them / euen to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a cytie.

By fayth Abrahā offered by Isaac / whē he was tempted / & he offered hym beinge hym only begotten sonne / which had receaved the promes of whō it was sayde / in Isaac shall thy seed be called: for he cōsidered / & God was able to rāle it by agayne from deeth. Therfore receaved he hym / for an ensample. In fayth Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau / concerninge thinges to come.

By fayth Jacob when he was a byrtinge / blessed both the sonnes of Joseph / & bowed hym selfe toward the toppe of his scepter.

By fayth Joseph when he dyed / remembred the departinge of the children of Israel / and gave commaundement of hym bones.

By fayth Moses whē he was bozne / was hyrd thre monethes of his father & mother / because they sawe he was a proper chylde: nether feared they the kynge's comaundement.

By fayth Moses whē he was great / refused to be called the sonne of Pharaos daughter / & chose rather to suffre adversitie with the people of God / then to enioye the pleasures of synne for a season / & esteemed the rebuke of Christ greater ryches then the treasure of Egypt. For he had respect unto the reward.

By fayth he forsoke Egypt / and feared not the fiercenes of the kynge. For he endured euen as he had sene hym which is trustyble.

Thozow fayth he ordeyned the ester labe / & the effusyon of bloud / lest he that destroyed the fyrst bozne / shulde touche them.

By fayth they passed thozow the reed see as by drye lande / which when the Egyptians had assayed to do / they were drownded.

By fayth the wallis of Jerico fell downe / after they were compassed about seven dayes.

By fayth

rebut.

By fayth the harlot Raab perished not with the unbelieuers / when she had receaved the spyres to lodginge peaceably.

And what shall I more saye / the tyme wolde be to shew to me to tell of Gedeon / of Barach / & of Sampson / & of Jephthae: also of David & Samuel / & of the Prophetes: which thozow fayth subdued kingdomes / wrought rightewelsnes / obtayned the promes / stopped the mouthes of Iyons / quenched the violence of fyre / escaped the edge of the swerde / of weakes were made stronge / waxed valient in fyght / turned to flight the armyes of the alientes. And the women receaved their deede rayled to lyfe agayne.

Other were rached / & wolde not be deliuered / & they myght receave a better resurrection. Other tasted of mockynges & scourginges / moreouer of bondes & prisonment: were stoned / were hewed aunder / were scyped were slayne w swerdes / walked by & downe in shypes thynnes / in gales thynnes / in nede tribulacyō & heracion which the worlde was not worthy of: they wandred in wilderness / in mountaynes / in denes and caues of the erth.

And these all thozow fayth obtayned good reporte / & receaved not the promes / God proudyng a better thyng for us / that they with out us shulde not be made perfecte.

An exhortacion to be patient & stedfast in trouble & adversite: by hope of everlastinge reward. A cōmendacyō of the new Testament above the olde.

The xii. Chapter.

Wherfore let us also / (seying that we are compassed with so great a multitude of witnesses) laye awaye all & preseth downe / & the synne that hath gotten on / & let us runne with paciēce unto the battayle that is set before us / lookinge unto Jesus the auctoz & synisher of oure fayth / which for the love that was set before hym / abode the crosse / & despised the shame / & is set doune on the right hande of the trone of God. Consyder therfore how that he endured such speake agaynst hym of synners / lest ye shulde be weryed & saynte in youre myndes. For ye haue not yet resysted unto bloudsheddinge / stryvinge agaynst synne. And haue for gotten & consolacyō / which speaketh unto you as unto childre: my sonne despyle not & chaste ninge of the Lord / nether saynt when thou arte rebuked of him: for whom the Lord loveth / him he chasteneth: yee / & he scourgeth every sonne that he receaveth.

If ye endure chastenyng / God offereth hym selfe unto you as unto sonnes. What sonne is that whō the father chasteneth not? If ye be not under correctiō / where of all are partakers / then are ye bastards & not sonnes. Moreouer seying we had fathers of oure fleshe which corrected us / and we gave the reverence: shulde we not moche rather be in subieccō unto the father of spetual gyftes that we myght lyue? And they berely for a fewe dayes / nurtred by after their awne pleasure: but he learneth by unto that which is profitable / that we myght receave of hys holynes. No manner chastisyng for the present tyme seemeth to be ioyous / but grievous: neuerthelesse afterwarde / it bringeth the quyet frute of rightewelsnes / unto them which are therein exercised.

Stretch for the therfore agayne the hand / which were let doune / & the weakes knees / & let ye haue straght steppes unto your fete / lest any haltinge turne you out of the waye: yee let it rather be healed. Embrace peace w all men & holynes: with out the which no mā shall se the Lord. And loke to / that no man be destitute of the grace of God / & that no rote of bitterness spryng by a trouble / and therby many be despyled: and that ther be no fornicacyō / or unclene person / as Esau / which for one breakfast solde his byrthryght. Ye knowe how that afterwarde whē he wolde haue inheritance / he was put by / and he founde no meanes to come therby agayne: no though he desyred it with teares.

For ye are not come unto the mounte that can be touched / and unto burnyng fyre / nor yet to myst and darcknes and tempest of weder / nether unto the founde of a trompe / & the voyce of word: which voyce they that hearde it / wished awaye: that the communicacyō shuld not be spoken to the. For they were not able to abyde that which was spoken. If a beast had touched the mountayne / it must have bene stoned / or thrust thozow w a dart: eue so terrible was the sight which appered. Wholesayde / I feare & quake. But ye are come unto the mounte Syon / & to the citie of the lvinge God / the celestall Jerusalem: and to an innumerable syght of angels / & unto the holy ghostes congregaciō of the fyrst bozne sonnes / which are witten in heuē / and to God the iudge of all / and to the spretes of iust & perfecte men / and to Jesus the mediator of the new testament / and to the sprynklyng of bloud that speaketh better then the bloud of Abel.

Se that ye despyle not him that speaketh. For ye escaped not which refused hym & spake on erth: moche more shall we not escape / yf we turne awaye from him that speaketh from heuē: whose voyce then shoulde we not obey? & now declareth sayinge: yet once more shal I shake / not the erth only / but also heuē: & about that same I shal saye / yet once more / signyfeth the remouyng awaye of those thinges which are shake / as of thinges which haue ended their course: & the thinges which are not

And tie of the fastyon of it perissheth: euen so shal he that taketh the ryche man perissheth with his aboundance. moze on hym Hapyy is the man that endureth in temp- then that / of tacion / for when he is tryed / he shal receaue what soeuer he gre he be of / is the crowne of lyfe / which the Loyde hath pro- a false chrysten myled to them that loue him. I. and an apostle mpled to them that loue him. I. ta from Christ.

Let no man saye when he is tempted / that he is tempted of God. For * God tēpteth not e * God temp- teeth not vnto euell. Almygh- tey God hath euer tempted a pro- ued hys electe- by trouble and persecucion / a by murtheryng gyste / and euery parfayt gyste / is from aboue the wyth out- and cometh doune from the father of lyght worde plaged: wyth whom is no variableness / nether is he neuertheles he doth it not vn- chaunged vnto darchnes. Of his awne wyll to euell / but for begat he vs wyth the worde of lyfe / that we good / namely: shuld be the fyrst frutes of his creatures: because he lo- ueth the / a will be swyfte to heare / slowe to speake / and slowe to wrath. For the wrath of man wozyeth cyed. Thus not that which is ryghteous befoze God.

Wherfore deare brethren / let euery man be swyfte to heare / slowe to speake / and slowe to wrath. For the wrath of man wozyeth cyed. Thus not that which is ryghteous befoze God. Wherfore laye a parte all sylphynes / all superfluyte of malycyousnes / and receaue wyth meynes / the worde that is grafted in you / whych is able to saue your soules. I. And se that ye be doars of the worde and not hearers only / decauyng your awne selues wyth sophistrye. For yf eny heare the it is the lust a worde / and do it not / he is lyke vnto a man that beholdeth hys bodily face in a glasse. concupyscence For asone as he hath looked on hym selfe / he goeth his waye / and forgetteth immediatlye what his fastyon was. But who so lotheth in the parfayt lawe of libertye / and conti- nueth ther in (yf he be not a forgetfull hear- rer / but a doer of the worde) the same shalbe happye in hys dede.

If eny man amonge you seme deuoute / and refrayne not hys tonge: but deceaue his awne herte / this mānes deuocion is in bayne. Pure deuocyon and bndeyled befoze God & father / is this: to blype the faderlesse and wid- dows in their aduerfite / and to kepe hym selfe bndeyled of the worlde. I.

The forbyddeth to haue eny respecte of persones / but to regarde the poore as well as the ryche / to be lo- uynge and mercifull / and not to boast of sayth where no dedes are: for it is but a dede sayth / where good way has folowe not.

The. ij. Chapter. A

Brethren haue not the sayth of oure Loyde Jesus Christ p Loyde of glo- ry in respecte of persons. If ther co- me into your cōpany a mā with a golde rynge & in goodly aparell / a ther come in also a poore mā in byle raymet / a ye haue a respecte to him that weareth the gape clo- thyng / and saye vnto him. Set thou here in a good place: and saye vnto the poore / stande thou there o: set here vnder my fote stole: are ye not parciall in your selues / and haue iud- ged after euyl thoughtes?

Harken my deare beloued brethren. Hath not God chosen p poore of this worlde: which are ryche in sayth / a heyses of the kyngdome whych he promysed to them that loue hym? But ye haue despyed the poore. Are not the ryche they which opzesse you / a they which dze- we you befoze iudges? Do not they speake euil of p good name after which ye be named

If ye fulfyll the royall lawe acco: dyng to the scripture which sayth. Thou shalt loue thine neghbour as thy selfe / ye do well. But yf ye regarde one person moze then another / ye cōmyt synne / a are rebuked of p lawe / as trasgessours. Whosoever shal kepe p whole lawe / a yet saye in one poynt / he is gyltye in all. For he that sayd. Thou shalt not commyt adulterye / sayed also: thou shalt not kyll.

Though thou do none adulterye yet yf thou kyll / thou arte a trasgressor of the lawe. So speake ye / a to do / as they that shalbe iudged by the lawe of libertye. For ther shalbe iud- gement merciles to him p the meth no mercy / a mercy reioyleth agaynst iudgement. I.

What anayleth it my brethren / though a mā saye he hath sayth / whē he hath no dedes: a * Call sayth be naked hot her of true be naked of destitute of dayly fode / & one of fapth which by you faye vnto the: departe in peace / God fend loue is mightye you warmnes and fode: not wylthandynge in operacio/but of & dayne pma geue the not tho thinges which are nedful gination & opi to the body: what helpeth it? Euen so fapth/ and that vnto yf it haue no dedes/is deed in it felfe.

ful people haue of fapth & the fore doth he call it deed fapth/ he caufe the re folowe no good wor: hys of it/as ther do of the fapth p iustifyeth in p fapth of God

b * To be iustified here & all thys Chapter ouer/ as to be de clared. Iust/ & p reputed vnto hym for ryghtewlnes: and he as in Luke p. x. c. And. rvi. d. not how that of dedes a m is iustified/ and not to be made iust of fapth only. Likewyle also was not Raab in fapth of god the harlot iustified thozow workes/ whe the receaued the messengers/ and sent them out another waye? For as the body/ wyth oute father iustified the fpyete is deed/ euen so fapth wyth out dedes is deed. I thus moche: was not our father Abrahā by his workes declared iust: that is/ yd not his workes declare a fapth that he was iust/ and were furer tokens of his ryghtewlnes? It fignifyeth not/ p Abrahā was by his workes made iust before god/ reputed ryghtew/ obtained remiffō of fynnes/ for by fapth he cā therby not by workes/ as witnefeth. Ro. p. vii. a. Rom. vii. a.

e * Pe te then that of dedes a man is iustified &c. that is/ is declared iust/ is openly known to be ryghtew: lyke as by the frutes the good tree is known for good. Otherwyle maye not this fentence be interpreted. For ther coulde nothing be moare folp the than this faying of James/ yf a man wolde thus interpret it: that no man obtayneth re a anyfō of fynnes/ but because his workes are worthy of fo great a benefyte. This interpretacōyn who fo fpyketh forwardly by/ vnder standeth not what remiffō of fynnes is/ or how the cōfciēce ought to be cōforted whe it fapth that it wyngeth no workes to God which are fufficient to please hym. And this interpretacōyn is cleane cōtra ry to other open fayinges of the fcripture/ which teache that remiffō of fynnes cōmeth frely: as the p. lxxviii. fapth. I fapde / I wyll knowlege mynne offence and accufe my felfe vnto the Lorde/ and thou forgaueft me the wyckednes of my fyne. And Rom. iiii. a. To hym that worketh not/ but beleueth on him that iustifieth the vngodly &c. what can be moare playnely fapen/ than that fynnes are forgaue to a wycked & vngodly man that worketh not/ that is/ not for any of his workes but frely. To conclude/ yf the Gofpell forgaue not fynnes/ but for oure good workes fakes & for oure worthynes: it differyth no thing from the lawe/ it faueth no moare then the lawe. Thys I trust wyll iustifye the good and wyle. For as touching them that wyng no thing vnto this caufe but a wyl to braule and chpde/ wyll neuer fuf. fre them felues to be iustified. And yet yf we wolde contend by the numbre of Authorities/ this one place of James is ouerthrowen with many witnelles/ of p. vii. men wyll vnderfande by iustifyacōyn all one thyng in them both. Therfore when p. vii. fapth/ fapth iustifi. fapth: vnderfande therby fapth caufeth p. vii. be cōfited iust/ reputed ryghtew/ and that oure fynnes are not imputed vnto vs/ but forgaue vs for Chyftes sake. When James fapth/ workes iustifye/ he meaneth thus/ workes declare vs iust and fapth euydently that we are ryght. wres. This thait thou make them accorde. Place faptheth me here. (Reader) rather then tyme by wyl/ or elles wolde I yet haue fapen moare of thys thyng.

What good and euell cometh thozow the tonge. The dute of fuch as be lerned. The difference betwixte the wylfome of the Gofpell and the wylfome of the world.

The iij. Chapter.

My brethren/ be not euery mā a*ma. After remembryng how that we fhall receaue the moze dānacion: for in many thinges we fyne all. If a man fyne not in woze/ p fame is a perfecte man/ & able to tame al the body. Beholde we put bittes into the hofles mouthes that they fhuld obeye vs/ & we turne aboute all the body. Beholde also the fhyppes/ wych though they be fo gret/ & are dzyue of fcarce windes/ yet are they turned about with a very fmal helme/ whyther foever the violence of the gouerner wyll. Euen fo the tonge is a lytell member/ and bofeth great thynges.

Beholde how gret a thyng is a lytell fyre kyndleth/ and the tonge is fyre/ and a woze of wyckednes. So is the tonge fet amonge oure membres/ that it defyleth the whole body/ & letteth a fyre al that we haue of nature and is it felfe fet a fyre euen of hell.

All the natures of beastes/ and of byzdes/ and of ferpentes/ & thinges of the fee are me hied and tamed of the nature of man. But the tōge can no mā tame. It is an vnruly euyl full of deedly poplon. Therwyth bleffe we God the father/ and therwyth curfe we men which are made after the fylmitude of God. Out of one mouth pzoceadeth bliffinge and curfynge. My brethren thefe thinges ought not fo to be. Both a fountayne fende forth at one place fweete water & bytter alfo: Can the fygge tree/ my brethren/ beare olyue beries: other a byne beare fygges? So can no fountayne geue bothe falt water & frefhe alfo. If eny mā be wyle & endued with learynge amōge you/ let him thewe the workes of his good conuerfacion in meknes that is coupled wyth* wylfome.

But yf ye haue bytter enyng and ftryfe in oure hertes/ reioyce not/ whether be lyars agaynft the trueth: this wylfome descendeth not from aboue: but is erthy/ and* naturall/ and diuelfifhe. For where enyng & ftryfe is/ there is vnfablenes & all māner of euyl workes. But the wylfome that is frō aboue is fpyt pure/ then peafable/ gentle/ & eafy to be entreated/ full of mercy and good frutes/ without iudginge/ and without fimulacion: pee/ and the frute of ryghtewlnes is fowen in peace/ of them that mayntene peace.

Warre & fighyng cometh of voluptuousnes. The frendfhippe of the woide is enemye before God. An exhortacion to fye fclauder & the vāpity of thys lyfe.

The iij. Chapter.

From whēce cometh warre and fighyng amōge you: come they not here hence: euen of oure bo: voluptuousnes / & raryne in oure membres. Ye iust/ and haue not. Ye enyue & haue indignacōyn/ and cannot obtayne. Ye fpyght and warre & haue not/ because ye afke not. Ye afke and receaue not/ because ye afke a myffe: euen to confume it vpon oure bo: voluptuousnes. Ye aduouterars/ and women that bryke matrimonye: knowe ye not how that the frendfhippe of the woide is enemye to godwarde: whofoeuer wilbe a frede of the woide/ is made the enemye of God. Ether do ye thynke that the fcripture fapth in bo: yne. The* fpyte that dwelleth in you/ lufteth euen contrary to enyue: but geueth moze grace.

Go to now ye that faye: to daye and to mor: row let vs go into fuche a cytie and continue there a yere and bye and fell/ and wyne: & yet cannot tell what fhall happē to mozowe. For what thinge is oure lyfe? It is euen a vapoure that apereth for a lytell tyme/ and then banyfeth awaye: for that ye ought to faye: yf the Lorde will and yf we lyue/ let vs do this or that. But now ye reioyce in oure bofynge. All fuche reiofynge is euyl. Therfore to hym that knoweth how to do fr: for god hath good/ and doth it not/ to hym it is fyne.

He p knoweth & yet doth not/ is withoute fcy: fr: for god hath good/ and doth it not/ to hym it is fyne.

The iij. Chapter.

Go to now ye ryche men. Wepe/ and howle on oure wyckednes that fhall come vpo you. Ouereyche is corrupte/ oure garmentes are mo: theaten. Ouere golde and oure fyluer are cankered/ and the ruff of them fhall be a wy: nes vnto you/ and fhall eate oure flefhe as Ye haue heaped treafure to ge: ther in oure laft dayes: Beholde the byre of p labour/ is wyche haue reped doune oure feldes (wyche byre is of you kept backe by fraude) cryeth/ and the cryes of them wyche haue reped/ are entred into the eares of the Lorde Sabbaoth. Ye haue ryued in pleasure on the erth and in wantōnes. Ye haue nozpy: shed oure hertes/ as in a daye of* slaughter. Ye haue condemned and haue fylled p iust/ and he hath not refpited you.

Be patient therfore brethren/ vnto the cōmyng of the Lorde. Beholde the hulbande man wayteth for the precyous frute of the erth/ & hath longe patience ther vpon/ vntyll they the one at he receaue* the ery and the latter rayne. If eny be difeased amonge you/ let hym call for the elders of the congregacō/ and let the praye ouer him/ and anoynte hym wyth oyle in the name of the Lorde: &* the prayer of fapth fhall faue the fpyche/ and the Lorde fhall rayfe him by: & yf he haue cōmytted fynnes/ they fhall be forgaue hym.

Knowlege oure fautes one to another: & praye one for another/ that ye maye be healed. The prayer of a righteous man auayleth moche/ yf it be feruet. Helias was a mā mo: tall euen as we are & he prayed in his prayer that it myght not rayne: & it rayned not on p erth by the fpace of thye yeres & fyre mone: thes. And he prayed agayne/ & the heuē gaue rayne/ and the erth brought forth her frute.

Brethren yf eny of you erre frō the trueth and another couert him/ let the fame knowe that he which couerteth the fyner from goryng & ftraye out of hys waye/ fhall faue a foule from deeth/ and fhall hyde the mult: tude of fynnes.

The Epistle

The Epistle of Saynct Iudas.

He rebuketh such as beyng blinded with their own lustres/they the crueth: and that the maye knowe them the better/ he sayeth they be such as synne beagaynst nature and despyle rulers. &c. He exhor-teth vs to edifye one another to praye in the holy goost to conynue in loue/ to loke for the commynge of the Lozde/ and one to helpe another out of the fyre.

Iudas the seruant of Iesus Christ/ the brother of James. To them which are called and sanctified in God the father/ and preserved in Iesu Christ. Mercy vnto you and peace and loue be multiplied.

Beloued/ when I gaue all diligence to wyte vnto you of the comen saluacyon it was nedfull for me to wyte vnto you/ to exhorte you/ that ye shuld continually laboure in f-sayth which was once geuen vnto the sayn-tes. For ther are certayne craftely crept in/of which it was witten a fore tyme vnto so-che iudgement. They are vngodly and turne the grace of oure God vnto wantannes/ and denye God the only Lozde/ and oure Lozde Iesus Christ.

My mynde is therfore to put you in remebrance/ for as moche as ye once knowe thys how that the Lozde (after that he had belyuered the people out of Egypt) *destroyed them which afterwarde beleued not. The angels also which kept not their fyrst estate: but lette their awne habitacyon: he hath reserued in euerylastynge chaynes vnder darchnes vnto the iudgement of the greates dawe: *eue as Sodom and Gomor/ & the cypres aboute them (which in lyke maner despyled them sel-ues with fornicacyon/ and folowed *strange fleshe) are set forth for an ensample/ & suffre the vengeance of eternall fyre. Lyke wyse these dreamers desile & fleshe/ despyle rulers and speake euill of the that are in auctorite.
 Yet Michael the archangell when he stro-ue agaynst the deuyl/ and disputed about f-body of Moyses/ durst not geue saylinge sentence/ but sayde: the Lozde rebuke the. But these speake euill of those thynges which they knowe not: & what thynges they knowe naturally/ as bestes which are without reason/ in the thynges they corrupte them selues.
 And so be vnto them/ for they haue folowed the waye of Cayn and are vterly geuen to the erreure of Balam for luhers sake/ *and peryshed in the treason of Coze.

These are spottes which of youre kindnes feast together/ wyth out feare/ sedynge the selues. Cloudes they are with oute water/carped about of wyndes/ and trees with out fruite at gadynge tyme/ twyse deed and plucked by the rotes. They are the ragynge waues of the see/ conynge out their awne name. They are wandynge starres to whos is reserved the myst of darchnes for euer.

Enoch the seuenth from Adam prophesied befoze of such sayinge. *Beholde/ f-Lozde shall come wyth thousandes of sayntes/ to geue iudgement agaynst all men/ and to rebuke all that are vngodly amonge them of all their vngodly dedes/ which they haue vngodly committed/ and of all their cruell speekynges/ which vngodly synners haue spok-agaynst hym.

These are murmurers/ complainers/ walkynge after their awne lustres/ whose mou-thes speake proude thynges. They haue min greates reuerence because of a bauntage.
 But ye beloued/ remeber the wordes which were spoken befoze of the Apostles of oure Lozde Iesus Christ/ how that they tolde you *that ther shulde be beggers in the last tyme which shuld walke after their awne vngodly lustres. These are makers of sectes/ fleshye/haupnge no spete.

But ye deuyse beloued/ edifye youre selues in youre most holy sayth/ prayynge in the holy goost/ and kepe youre selues in the loue of f-God/ lohyng for the mercy of oure Lozde Iesus Christ/ vnto eternall life. And haue co-passion of some/ separtynge them: & other saue with feare/ pullynge the out of the fyre and hate the fylthy bellure of the fleshe.

Unto him that is able to kepe you/ that ye faule not/ and to present you faultlesse befoze the presence of his glory with ioye/ that is to saye/ to God our saue our which only is wyse/ be glory/ maieste/ dominion/and power/ now and for euer. Amen.

Of S. John.

The Reuelacion of saynct John the deuine.

Happy are they that heare the worde of God and kepe it. He wyrteth to the seuen congregacions in Asia/sepe seuen candellstiches/ and in the myddes of them/one lyke vnto the sonne of man.

The fyrst Chapter.

The reuelacion of Iesus Christ/ which God gaue vnto hym/ for to shewe vnto his ser-uantes thyngs which muste shortly come to passe.

And he sent and shewed by his angell vnto his seruant John/ which bare recorde of the worde of God/ and of the testimony of Iesus Christ/ and of all thyngs that he sawe. Happy is he that redyth/ & they that heare the wordes of the prophesy/ and kepe those thynges which are writte therein.
 For the tyme is at hande.

John to the viij. congregacions in Asia. Grace be with you and peace/ from him which is and which was/ and which is to come / & fro the viij. spetes which are present befoze his throne/ and fro Iesus Christ which is a sayth-full wytnes/ & fyrst begotten of the deede: and Lozde ouer the kynges of the erth. vnto him that *loued vs/ and washed vs from synnes in his awne bloude/ & made vs kynges and prestes vnto God his father be glory & dominion for euermore. Amen. *Beholde he cometh with cloudes/ & all eyes shall se hym: & they also which peered hym. And all kyndes of the erth shall waiyle. Euen so: Amen.

 which is a which was and which is to come.

I John youre brother & companion in tribulacio/ & in the kyngdome & pacifice which is in Iesu Christ/ was in the yle of Barchinos for the worde of God/ and for the wytnessing of Iesu Christ. I was in the spete on a son-dawe/ & herde behinde me a gret voyce / as it had bene of a trompe sayinge: I am Alpha & Omega/ the fyrst and the laste. That thou seyst/ wyrteth in a boke/ & sende it vnto the congregacions which are in Asia/ vnto Ephesus/and vnto Smyrna/ and vnto Pergamos / & vnto Chiatira/ and vnto Sardis / and vnto Philadelphia/ and vnto Laodicia.

The fyrst figure.

And I turned backe to se the voyce that spake to me. And whē I was turned: I sawe viij. golden candellstiches/ & in the myddes of the candellstiches/ one lyke vnto the sonne of man/ clothed with a lynne garment doun to the ground/ & girt about f-pappes with a golden girdle. His heed/ & his heares were whyte/ as whyte woll/ and as snowe: & his eyes were as a flame of fyre: & his fete lyke vnto brasse as though they bryt in a fornaice: & his voyce as f-soude of many waters. And he had in his ryghte hande. viij. starres. And out of his mouth went a sharpe two edged swearde. And his face shone euen as f-sonne in his strength.

The candle of the vii. congregacions. And the vii. candles are the delictes which thou sawest are the vii. congregacions.

The erhoztely fourte congregacions to amende / and the reward of him that ouercōmeth.

The ii. Chapter.

Messenger is a preacher of the congregacion.

Anto the messenger of the congregacion of Ephesus wyte: these thynges sayth he that holdeth the vii. starres in his right hande / and walketh in the myddes of the vii. golden candlesticks. I knowe thy wothes / and thy labour / & thy patience / & how thou canest not forbeare them which are euyl: and examinedst them which saye they are Apostles / & are not: and hast founde them liars and bydest wasthe thy selfe. And hast patience: & for my names sake hast labored & hast not fayne.ouerthelste I haue somewhat agaynst the / for thou hast lette thy fyrst loue. Remēber therfore from whence thou art fallen / & repent / and do the fyrst wothes. Or elles I wyll come vnto the shortly / and wyll remoue thy candlesticke out of his place / except thou repent. But this thou hast because thou hast lette the dedes of the Nicolaitans / which dedes I also hate. Lett him that hath eares heare / what the sprete sayth vnto the cōgregaciōs. To him that ouercōmeth / wyll I geue to eate of the tree of lyfe / which is in the myddes of the Paradise of God.

The Nicotaitans were heretiques which helde opinion that wyces ought to be comen: of whiche Eusebius lib. iij. cap. xxiij.

And vnto the Angell of the cōgregacion of Smyrna wyte: These thynges sayth he that is fyrst / & the laste / which was deed and is aloue. I knowe thy wothes & tribulacion & pouerte / but thou art ryche. And I knowe the blasphemie of them which call them selues Jewes & are not: but are the cōgregacion of Sathan. feare none of those thynges which thou shalt suffer. Beholde / the deuyll shall caste of you into prison / to tempte you / & ye shall haue tribulaciō. r. dayes. Be saythfull vnto the deeth / and I wyll geue the a crowne of lyfe. Lett him that hath eares / heare what the sprete sayth to the congregacions: He that ouercōmeth / shall not be hurte of the seconde deeth.

The congregacion of Pergamos wyte: This sayth he which hath the sharpe swerde with two edges. I knowe thy wothes / & where thou dwellest / euē where Sathans seat is / and thou kepest my name & hast not denyed my sayth. And in my dayes Antipas was a saythfull wytnes of myne / which was slayne amonge you / where Sathan dwelleth. But I haue a fewe thynges agaynst the: that thou hast there / them that mayntayne the doctrine of Balam / which taught in Balake / to put occasyon of synne before the chylde of Israel / that they shoulde eate of meate dedicat vnto ydoles / & commyt fornicacyon. Euen so hast thou them that mayntayne the doctrine of the Nicolaitans / which thinge I hate. But be conuerted / or elles I wyll come vnto the shortly / & will fight agaynst the with the swearde of my mouth. Lett him that hath eares / heare what the sprete sayth vnto the congregacions. To him that ouercōmeth wyll I geue to eate of the manna which is hyd / and wyll geue him a whyte stone / and in the stone a newe name wytten / which no man knoweth sauynge he that receaueth it.

And vnto the messenger of the cōgregaciō of Chiatira wyte. Chys sayth the sonne of God / which hath his eyes lyke vnto a flame of fyre / whose fete are lyke byasse: I knowe thy wothes and thy loue / seruyce / & sayth / & thy patience / and thy dedes / which are mo at the last then at the fyrst. Notwithstandynge I haue a fewe thynges agaynst the / * that thou sufferest that woman Isebell / which called her selfe a Prophetesse / to teache & to deceaue my seruantes / to make them commyt fornicacion / and to eate meates offered vnto ydoles. And I gaue her space to repent of her fornicacion / and she repented not. Beholde / I wyll caste her in to a beed / & the that commyt fornicacion with her / into gret aduersitie / excepte they tourne from their deades. And I wyll kyl her chylzen with deeth. And all the cōgregacions shall knowe that I am he which searcheth & reynes & hertes. And I wyll geue vnto euery one of you accoz dyng vnto your wothes.

Vnto you I saye / and vnto other of them of Chiatira / as many as haue not this ierning and which haue not knowen the depnes of Sathan (as they saye) I wyll put vpon you none other burthen / but that which ye haue already. Holde fast tyl I come / & whosoever ouercōmeth and kepeth my wothes vnto the ende / to him wyll I geue power ouer nacions / and he shall rule them with a rodde of yron: and as the vessels of a potter / shall he breake them to shewers. Euen as I receaued of my father / so wyll I geue him & moynge starre. Lett him that hath eares / heare what the sprete sayth to the congregacions.

He instructeth and enfourmeth the Angels of the congregacions / & declarynge also the reward of hym that ouercōmeth.

The iii. Chapter.

Anto the messenger of the cōgregacion of Sardis: this sayth he that hath the sprete of God and the vii. starres. I knowe thy wothes: thou hast a name that thou iquest / and thou arte deed. Be awake & strength the thynges which remaine / that are redy to dye. For I haue haue not founde thy wothes perlayte before God. Remember therfore how thou hast receaued and heard / & hold faste / and repent. * If thou shalt not wathe / I wyll come on & as a these / & thou shalt not know what houre I wyll come vpon the. Thou hast a fewe names in Sardis / which haue not defyled their garmentes: & they shall walke with me in whyte / for they are worthy. He that ouercōmeth shall be clothed in whyte atage / and I wyll not put out his name out of the booke of lyfe / and I wyll confesse his name before my father / and before his Angels. Lett him that hath eares / heare / what the sprete sayth vnto the congregacions.

Elie. xxiij. c. Job. xij. c.

And wyte vnto the tydinges bringer of the congregacion of Philadelphis: this sayth he that is holy and true / * which hath the keye of Dauid: which openeth & no man shutteth / and shutteth and no man openeth. I knowe thy wothes. Beholde I haue set before the an open doze / and no man can shut it / for thou hast a lytell strength & hast kept my sayings: and hast not denyed my name. Beholde I make them of the congregacion of Sathan / which call them selues Jewes and are not / but do lyve: Beholde / I wyll make them that they shall come & worshippe before thy fete: and shall knowe that I loue the.

Because thou hast kept the wordes of my patience therfore I wyll kepe the from the houre of temptacion which wyll come vpon all the worlde / to tempte the that dwell vpon the erth. Beholde I come shortly. Holde that which thou hast / that no man take awaye thy crowne. Him that ouercōmeth / wyll I make a pyllar in the temple of my God / & he shall go no more oute. And I wyll wyte vpon him / the name of my God / and the name of the cytie of my God / newe Jerusalem: which cometh doune out of heauen from my God / and I wyll wyte vpon hym my newe name. Lett him that hath eares / heare / what the sprete sayth vnto the congregacions.

The congregacion of Laodicia.

And vnto the messenger of the congregacion which is in Laodicia / wyte: This sayth (Amen) the saythfull and true wytnes / the begynnyng of the creatures of God. I knowe thy wothes that thou arte neither colde nor hotte: I wolde thou were colde or hotte. So then because thou arte betwene bothe / and nether coulde ner hot / I wyll spew the oute of my mouth: because thou arte ryche and iurelyd with goodes / & hast a hede of nothing / and knowest not how thou arte wretched & miserable / poore / blynde and naked. I counsell the to bye of me golde tryed in the fyre / & thou mayste be ryche: and whyte rayment / & thou mayste be clothed / that thy feithy nakednes do not appere: and annoynt thyne eyes with eye salve / that thou mayste se. * As many as I loue / I rebuke & chasten. Be seruent therfore and repent. Beholde I stande at the doze and knoche. If any man heare my voyce & open the doze / I wyll come in vnto him and will suppe with him / and he with me. To him that ouercōmeth / wyll I graunte to syt with me in my seate / euen as I ouer cam and haue sytten with my father / in his seate. Lett him that hath eares / heare what the sprete sayth vnto the cōgregaciōs.

He seyth the heauen open / and the seate and one syttinge vpon it / and xxiij. seates aboute it with xxiij. elders syttinge vpon them / and foure beastes prayng God daye and nyght.

The seconde figure.

After this I looked / & beholde a doze was open in heauen / and the fyrste voyce which I hearde / was as it were of a trompett talkynge with me which sayde: come vpon hydder / and I wyll shewe the thynges which must be fulfilled here after. And immediatly I was in the sprete: & beholde a seate was put in heauen / & one satte on the seate. And he that sat / was to loke vpon / lyke vnto a iasper stone and a sardyne stone: And ther was a rayne bowe aboute the seate / in syght lyke to an emeralde. And aboute the seate were xxiij. seates. And vpon the seates xxiij. elders sitting / clothed in white rayment / and had on their heades crownes of gold.

And out of the seate proceded lyghtnynges / and thundrynges / and voyces / and ther were vii. lampes of fyre / butynge before the seate / which are the vii. spretes of God. And before the seate ther was a see of glasse lyke vnto a crystall / and in the myddes of the seate / and rounde rounde about the seate were. iiii. beastes full of eyes befoze & behynde. And the fyrst beaste was lyke a lyon / the seconde beaste lyke a calfe / & the thirde beaste had a face as a mā / & the fourth beaste was lyke a flyinge egle. And the. iiii. beastes had eche one of them. vi. wynges about hym / & they were full of eyes. And they had no rest daye neyther night sayinge. Holy / holy / holy / Lord God almighty / which was / & is / & is to come.

And whē those beastes gaue glory & honour & thankes to him that sat on the seate / which lyeth for ever & ever. the. xiiii. elders fell doune befoze hym / & sat on the trone / and worshipped hym / & sayde for ever / and caste their crownes befoze the trone sayyng. thou arte worthy / Lord to receaue glory & honour / & power / for thou hast created all thing / & for thy wylls sake they are / & were created.

And the. xiiii. elders opened the booke / and therfore the four beastes / the. xiiii. elders / & the angels praye the lambe / and do him worshippe.

The. b. Chapter.

And I sawe in the ryght hande of hym that sat in the trone / a booke writte with in & on the backsyde / sealed w. vii. seales. And I sawe a stronge angell which cryed w. a lowde voyce: who is worthy to open the booke / & to lose the seales therof / And no mā in heauē / neyther in erth / neyther vnder the erth / was able to open the booke / neyther to loke thereon. And I wepte moche / because no mā was fowde worthy to open / & to rede the booke / neyther to loke thereon.

And one of the elders sayde vnto me: wepe not: Beholde a lyon beinge of the tribe of Iuda / the rote of Dauid / hath obtayned to open the booke / & to lose the. vii. seales therof. And I behelde / & lo in the myddes of the seate / & of the. iiii. beastes / & in the myddes of the elders / stode a lambe as though he had bene kyllid / which had. vii. hornes & vii. eyes / which are the spytes of God / sent into all the worlde. And he came & toke the booke oute of the right hande of hym that sat vpon the seate.

And whē he had takē the booke / the. iiii. beastes & the. xiiii. elders fell doune befoze the lambe / hauyng harpes & golde vialles full of odoures / which are the prayes of sayntes / & they songe a new songe sayyng: thou art worthy to take the booke / & to open the seales therof: for thou wast kyllid / & haste redeemed vs by thy blood out of all kynredes / & tonges / & people / & nations / & haste made vs vnto oure God / kyng / and prestes / & we shall raygne on the erth.

And I behelde / and I hearde the voyce of many angels about the trone / and about the beastes & the elders / & I hearde thousand thousandes / sayyng w. a lowde voyce: Worthy is the lambe that was kyllid to receaue power / & ryches / & wysdome / & strenghte / & honour / & glory / & blessing. And all the creatures which are in heauē / & on the erth / & vnder the erth / & in the see / & all that are in the / & hyde / sayyng: blessing / honour / glory / & power be vnto him that sitteth vpon the seate / & vnto the lambe for evermore. And the. iiii. beastes sayd Amē. And the. xiiii. elders fell vpon their faces / & worshipped hym that lyeth for evermore. And the lambe openeth the. vi. seales / and many thinges folowe the openinge therof.

The. vi. Chapter.

And I sawe whē the lambe opened one of the seales / & I herde one of the. iiii. beastes saye / as it were the noyse of thonder / come & se: and I sawe.

And beholde ther was a whyte horse / and he that sat on him / had a bowe / and a croune was geuen vnto him / & he went forth conqueringe & for to ouercome. And when he opened the seconde seale / I herde the seconde beste saye: come & se. And ther went oute another horse / & was reddy / & power was geuen to him that satte thereon / to take peace fro the erthe / & that they shuld kyll one another. And ther was geuen vnto him a great swearde.

And whē he opened the thirde seale / I herde the thirde beste saye: come & se. And I behelde / & lo / a blacke horse / & he that sat on him / had a payre of balances in his hāde. And I herde a voyce in the myddes of the. iiii. beastes saye: a measure of wheat for a peny / and a peny / & a measure of barley for a peny / & a peny / & a wyne se thou hurte not. And when he opened the fourth seale / I herde the voyce of the fourth beste saye: come & se: & I loke. And beholde a grene horse / & he that sat on him / was deeth / & he that folowed after hym / & power was geuen vnto them.

them ouer the fourth parte of the erth / to kyll with swerde / and with hunger / & with deeth / that cometh of bermen of the erth.

And when he opened the fyfte seale / I saw vnder the aultre / the soules of them that were kyllid for the worde of God / & for the testimony which they had / & they cryed with a lowde voyce sayyng: How longe tarest thou Lord holy & true / to iudge & to auenge oure blood on the that dwell on the erth? And longe whyte garmentes were geuen vnto euery one of the. And it was sayde vnto the that they shuld reste for a lytle season vntill the number of their felowes / and brethern / and of the that shulde be kyllid as they were / were fulfilled.

And I behelde when he opened the fyfte seale / and lo ther was a great erth quake / & the sunne was as blacke as sacke cloth made of heare. And the mone waxed euē as bloudy / and the starres of heauen fell vnto the erth / euen as a figge tree casteth from her her figges / whē she is shaken of a myghty wynde. And heauē banished away / as a scroll whē it is rolled to gether. And all mountayns and yles / were moued oute of their places. And the kynges of the erth / and the gret men / and the ryche men / and the chiefe captaynes / and the myghty men / and euery boundman / and euery free man / hyd them selues in denes / & in rockes of the hylles: & sayde to the hylles and rockes: fall on vs / and hyde vs from the presence of him that sitteth on the seate / & from the wrath of the lambe: for the grette daye of his wrath is come / and who can endure it.

And the seruautes of God sealed in their foreheades out of all nacions & people / which though they suffer trouble / yet the lambe sedeth them / & ledeth them to the fountaynes of lyuynge water / and God shall wype awaye all teares from their eyes.

The. vii. Chapter.

And after that / I sawe. iiii. angels stande on the. iiii. corners of the erth / holdynge the. iiii. wyndes of the erth / that the wyndes shuld not blowe on the erth / neyther on the see / neyther on any trece. And I sawe a nother angell ascende from the risinge of the sunne: which had the seale of the lyuynge God / and he cryed nistly a melody with a lowde voyce to the. iiii. angels (to who senger. And all power was geuen to hurt the erth & the see) sayyng: hurt not the erth neyther the see / neyther the trees / tyll we haue sealed the seruautes of oure God in their foreheades.

After this I behelde / and lo a gret multitute / (which nomā coude nombre of all naciōs) and people / and tonges / stode before the seate / before the lambe / clothed with longe white garmentes / and palmes in their handes / and cryed with a lowde voyce / sayinge: saluacion of oure God / and vnto the lambe. And all the angels stode in the compase of the seate / & of the elders / & of the. iij. bestes / and fell before the seate on their faces / & worshipped God / sayinge: Amē: Blessinge and glozy wyl dome and thākes / & honour / & power / & myght / be vnto oure God for euermore. Amen.

And one of the elders answered / sayinge vnto me: what are these which are arrayed in longe whyte garmentes / and whence came they? And I sayde vnto hym: Lord thou wotest. And he sayde to me: these are they which cam out of great tribulacion and made their garmentes large / and made them whyte in the bloude of the lambe: therefore are they in the presence of the seate of God & serue hym daye and nyght in his temple / and he that syteth in the seate wyl dwell amōge the. They shall hunger no more / neither thurst / neither shall the sunne / lyght on the / neither any heate / for the lambe which is in the myddes of the seate / shall fede them / and shall leade the vnto fountaynes of lyvinge water / & God shall wype awaye all teares from their eyes.

The seuenth seale is opened / there is sylence in heauē / the foure angels blowe their trompettes / and greates plagues folowe vpon the earth.

The. viij. Chapter.

And when he had opened the seuenth seale / ther was sylence in heauē / aboute the space of halfe an houre. And I sawe angelles standyng before God / and to them were geuen. vij. trompettes. And another angell came & stode before the aultre hauyng a golden sencer / and a coche of odoures was geuen vnto him / that he shulde offre of the prayers of all saynctes vpon the golden aultre / which was before the seate. And the smoke of the odoures which cam of the prayers of all saynctes / ascended vnto God out of the Angelles hande. And the Angell took the sencer and fylled it with fyre of the aultre and caste it into the erth / and voyces were made / & thondrynges and lyghtnynges / and erth quake.

And the. vij. Angels which had the. vij. tro- pettes prepared them selues to blowe. The fyrst Angell blew / & there was made hayle and fyre / which were myngled with bloud / & they were caste into the erthe: and the thirde parte of trees was burnt / & all grene grasse was bynt. And the seconde Angell blew: & as it were a gret mountayne burnyng with fyre was caste into the see / & the thirde parte of the see tourned to bloude / and the thirde parte of the creatures which had lyfe / dyed / and the thirde parte of shippes were destroyed.

And the thirde Angell blew / and ther fell a gret starre from heuen burnyng as it were a lampe / and it fell into the thirde parte of the ryuers / and into fountaynes of waters / & the name of the starre is called wormwood. And the thirde parte was turned to wormwood. And many men dyed of the waters because they were made bitter. And the fourth Angell blew / and the thirde parte of the sunne was smytten / and the thirde parte of the mōe / & the thirde parte of starres: so that the thirde part of the was darchned. And the daye was smytten that the thirde part of it shulde not shyne / & lyke wyle the nyght. And I behelde and hehe an Angell flyyng thorow the myddes of heauen / sayinge with a lowde voyce: Wod / woot to the inhabitants of the erth because of the voyces to come of the trompe of the. iij. Angels which were yet to blowe.

Of S. John.

Liut.

The fifth & syfte Angell blowe their trompettes: the starre falleth from heauen: the locusts come out of the smoke: The fyrst two is past: the foure angels that were bounde are loosed / and the thirde parte of men is kyled.

The. ix. Chapter.

And the fyfte Angell blew / and I sawe a starre fall fro heauen vnto the erth. And to him was geuen the hape of the bottomlesse pytt. And he opened the bottomlesse pytt / & ther arose the smoke of a gret fornace. And the sunne & the ayer were darchned by the reason of the smoke of the pytt. And there came out of the smoke locusts vpon the erth: and vnto them was geuen power as the scorpions of the erth haue power. And it was comaunded them / that they shuld not hurt the grasse of the erth: neither any grene thyng: neither any tree: but only those men which haue not the seale in their foreheades. And to the was comaunded that they shulde not kyll them / but that they shulde be vexed. b. monethes / & their payne was as the payne that cometh of a scorpiō / when he hath stonge a man. * And in those dayes shall men seke deeth / & shall not finde it / and shall desyre to dye / & deeth shall flye from them.

And the synillitude of the locustes was lyke vnto hoyses prepared vnto battayll / and on their heades were as it were crounes / lyke vnto golde: & their faces were as it had bene the faces of men. And they had heare as the heare of women. And their teethe were as the teethe of lyons. And they had habbergions / as it were habbergions of pyon. And the sounde of their wynges / was as the sounde of charrettes when many hoyses runne to gether to battayle. And they had tayles lyke vnto scopiens / & there were stynges in their tayles. And their power was to hurt men. b. monethes. And they had a kyng ouer the / which is the angell of the bottomlesse pytt / whose name in the hebrewe tonge / is Abaddon: but in the Greke tonge / Apollyon. One was past / & beholde two wooces come after this.

Abaddon is moche to saye as a destruyng.

The. ix. gure.

And the syfte Angell blew / and I herde a voyce from the. iij. corners of the golden aultre / which is before God / sayinge to the syfte Angell / which had the trompe: Loose the. iij. Angelles / which are bounde in the grete ryuer Euphrates. And the. iij. Angelles were loosed which were prepared for an houre / for a daye / for a moneth / & for a yere / for to kyle the. iij. part of men. And the nombre of hostmen of warre were. xx. tymes. x. And I herde the nombre of the: and thus I sawe the hoyses in a billyon / & them that late on them / hauyng fyre habergions of a facincte colour / & byrmstone / & the heades of the hoyses were as the heades of lyons. And out of these mouthes went forth fyre and smoke & byrmstone. And of these. iij. was the. iij. part of men kyled: that is to saye / of fyre / smoke / & byrmstone / which proceeded out of the mouthes of them: for their power was in their mouthes and in their tayles: for their tayles were lyke vnto serpentes / and had heades / & with them they byd hurt. And the remnaunt of the men which were not kyled by these plagues / repented not of the dedes of their handes that they shulde not worshippe deuyls / and ymages of golde / and syluer / and yaste / & stone / and of wood / which nether can se / neither heare / ne- ther go. Also they repented not of their mur- der / and of their locery / neither of their fornicacion / neither of their thefte.

The

The Angell hath the booke open: he sweareth ther shalbe nomore tyme: he geueth the booke vnto John/ which eateth it vp.

The .i. Chapter.

And I saw another myghty angell come doune from heuen clothed with a cloude/ and the rayne bowe vpon his heed. And his face as it were the sunne/ & his fete as it were pylars of fyre/ and he had in his hande a lytel booke open: and he put his ryght fote vpon the see/ and his lyfte fote on the erth. And cryed with a lowde voyce / as when a lyon roareth. And when he had cryed/ seue thondres spake their voyces. And whē the .viij. thondres ad spokē their voyces/ I was aboute to wyte. And I herde a voyce from heauen sayinge vnto me/ seale vp those thynges whych the .viij. thondres spake/ and wyte them not.

And the Angell which I sawe stonde vpon the see/ and vpon the erth/ lyfte vp his hande to heuen & swore vpon him that I wryte for euer moze/ which created heuen/ and the thynges that therein are/ and the see / and the thynges which therein are: & there shulde be no longer tyme: but in the dayes of the voyce of the seuen Angell/ whē he shalbe begyn to blowe: euen the mistery of God shalbe fynished as he preached by his seruantes the prophetes.

And the voyce which I herde from heuen/ spake vnto me agayne/ & sayd: * go and take the lytle booke which is open in the hande of the angell which standeth vpon the see/ & vpon the erth. And I went vnto the angell/ & sayde to him: geue me the lytle booke / and he sayde vnto me: take it/ & eate it vp/ & it shall make thy belly bytter/ but it shalbe in thy mouth as swete as hony. * And I toke the lytle booke out of his hande/ and eate it vp / & it was in my mouth as swete as hony: and as sone as I had eaten it/ my belly was bytter. And he sayde vnto me: thou muste prophesy agayne amonge the people/ and nations/ & tonges/ and to many kynges.

The temple is measured. The seconde two is past.

The .ii. Chapter.

And then was geue me a rede/ & he brounto a rode/ and it was sayde vnto me: I ple and meate the temple of God/ and the auter/ and them that worshype therein/ and the quere which is in the temple/ cast oute and meate it not: for it is geuen vnto the Gentyles/ & the holy cytie shall they treade vnder fote. xliij. monethes. And I wyl geue power vnto my two wytnesses/ and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and .lx. dayes / clothed in sack cloth. These are two olyue trees / and two candelltyches/ standynge before the God of the erth.

And yf any man wyl hurt them / fyre shall procede out of their mouthes / and consume their enemyes. And yf any man wyl hurt the thys wyse muste he be kylled. These haue power to shut heuen/ that it rayne not in the dayes of their prophesying: and haue power ouer waters to turne them to bloude / and to smyte the erth with all maner plagis / as oft as they wyl.

And when they haue fynished their testimony/ the beast that cam out of the bottomlesse pyt / shall make warre agaynst them & shall overcome them/ and kylle the. And their bodies shall lye in the stretes of the greates cytie/ which spirituallly is called Sodom and Egypte / where oure Lord was crucified. And

And they of the people & kindredes/ & tonges/ and they of the nations/ shall se their bodies .iij. dayes & an halfe / & shall not suffre their bodies to be put in graues. And they shal dwell vpon the erth/ shall reioyce ouer them and be gladd/ & shall sende gyftes one to another for these two Prophetes vexed them that dwell on the erth.

And after .iij. dayes and an halfe the sprete of lyfe from God/ entred into them. And they stode vp vpon their fete: & grete feare came vpon them which sawe them. And they herde a grete voyce from heauen / sayinge vnto them. Come vp hydder. And they ascended vp into heauen in a cloude/ and their enemyes sawe them. And the same houre was ther a great erthquake/ and the tenthe parte of the cytie fell/ and in the erthquake were slayne names of men seuen. M. and the remnaunt were feared/ & gaue glory to God of heauen.

The seconde woo is past/ & beholde the thyrde woo wyl come anon.

And the seuen angell blewe/ & ther were made grete voyces in heauen / sayinge: the kyngdoms of this worlde are oure lordes & his Christes/ & he shall raygne for euer moze. And the .xliij. elders / which sate before God on their seates/ fell vpon their faces/ & worshipped God sayinge: we geue the thankes Lord God almightie: which arte & wast/ and arte to come / for thou haste receaued thy grete myght/ and hast raygned. And the nations were angry/ & thy wrath is come/ and the tyme of the ded that they shuld be iudged & that thou shuldest geue rewarde vnto thy seruantes the Prophetes and Sayntes/ & to them that feare thy name small & great and shuldest destroye them / which destroye the erth. And the temple of God was opened in heuē/ and ther was sene in his temple/ the skene of his testament: & ther folowed lightnynges/ and voyces / and thondrynges and erthquake/ and moche hayle.

The seuen angell bloweth his trumpet. There appeareth in heauen a woman clothed with the sonne/ Michael fighteth with the dragon/ which persecuteth the woman.

The .xii. Chapter.

And ther appered a gret wonder in heauen: A woman clothed with the sunne/ & the moone vnder her fete/ and vpon her heed a croune of .xiiij. starres. And she was with chylde & cryed traualynge in byrth/ and payned redy to be deliuered. And ther appered another wonder in heauen/ for beholde a gret red dragon/ havinge .viij. heddes/ and ten hornes & a croune vpon his heades: and his tayle as the chylde parte of the starres / and cast them to the erth.

The .xiii. Chapter.

And the dragon stode before the woman/ whych was redy to be deliuered: for to deuoure her chylde as sone as it were borne. And she brought forth a man chylde/ whych shulde rule all nacyns with a rode of yron. And her sonne was taken vp vnto God / & to his seate. And the woman fled into the wyldernes/ where she had a place/ prepared of God/ that they shulde fede her there a. M. & .xl. dayes.

And ther was a great battaill in heauen/ Michael & his Angells fought with the dragon/ & the dragon fought & his angelles/ and preuailed not: nether was their place founde any moze in heauen. And the great dragon/ that olde serpent called the deuyl and Sathanas was cast out. Which deceaueth all the worlde. And he was cast into the erth / & his angelles were cast out also.

And I hearde a lowde voyce sayinge: in heuen is nowe made saluacyon & strengthe & the kyngdome of oure God/ and the power of his Christ. For he is cast doune which accused them before God daye and nyght. And they overcame him by the bloude of the lambe/ and by the woode of their testimony/ and they loved not their lyues vnto the deeth. Therefore reioyce heuens / and ye that dwell in them. I woo to the inhabitants of the erth/ & of the see: for the deuyl is come doune vnto you/ whych hath great wrath/ because he knoweth that he hath but a short tyme.

And when the dragon sawe / that he was caste vnto the erth/ he persecuted the woman/ whych brought forth the man chylde. And to the woman were geue two wynges of a grete eagle/ that she myght flye into the wyldernes/ into her place / where she is nourished for a tyme.

glasse see, haunge the harpes of God, and they longe the longe of Moyses the seruante of God, and the longe of the lambe, sayinge: Gret and maruelous are thy woꝝkes: * Lord God almyghty, iuste and true are thy wayes kyng of Sanctes. Who shall not feare o Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only arte holy, and all gentyls shall come & woꝝshyppe befoze the, for thy iudgementes are made manifeste.

And after that, I looked, and beholde the temple of the tabernacle of testimony was open in heauen, and the seven Angels came out of the temple, which had the seven plagges, clothed in pure and byght linnen, and haunge their byestes gyrded with golden girdels. And one of the some beestes gaue vnto the seven Angels, vii golden vialles, full of wrath of God, which liueth for euer moze. And the temple was full of the smoke of the gloꝝe of God and of his power, and no man was able to entre into the temple, tyll the seven plagges of the seven Angels were fulfilled.

The Angels poure out their vialles full of wrath.

The xvi. Chapter.

And I herde a great voyce out of the temple sayinge to the vii. Angels: go poure out your wayes, poure out your vialles of wrath vnto the erth. And the first went, and poured out his viall vnto the erth, and there fell anoyntment, and a soze botche vpon the men which had the marke of the best, and vnto them which woꝝshipped his ymage. And the seconde Angell shed out his viall vnto the see, and it turned as it were into the bloud of a deyd man: & every liuinge thing dyed in the see. And the thyrde Angell shed out his viall vpon the ryuers and foun- taynes of waters, and they turned to bloud. And I herde an Angell saye: Loꝝde which arte and wast, thou arte ryghteous and holy, because thou hast geuen loche iudgementes for they shed out the bloud of sayntes, and pꝛophetes, and therfore hast thou geuen the bloud to drynke: for they are worthy. And I herde another out of the aultre saye: euen so Loꝝde God almyghty true and ryghteous are thy iudgementes.

And the fourth Angell poured out his viall on the sunne, & power was geuen vnto hym to bere men with heate of fyre. And the men ragged in gret heate, & spake euyl of the name of God which hath power ouer those plagges, and they repented not, to geue hym gloꝝy. And the fyfte Angell poured out his viall vpon the seate of the beste, & his kyngdome waxed derke, and they gnewe their tonges for soꝝowe, & blasphemed the God of heauen for soꝝowe and payne of their soꝝes, and repented not of their dedes.

And the syxte Angell poured out his viall vpon the gret ryuer Euphrates, & the water dyed by that the wayes of the kynges of the este shulde be prepared. And I sawe thre vn- cleane spretes lyke frogges come out of the mouth of the dragon, & out of the mouth of the beste, & out of the mouth of the false pꝛophete. For they are the spretes of deuyls woꝝking myꝛacles, to go out vnto the kyngs of the erth and of the whole world, to gaddre them to the battayle of that gret daye of God almyghty. Beholde I come as a thefe. Wap- py is he that watcheth, and kepeth hym gar- mented, lest he be founde naked, and men se his synnynges. And he gathered them toge- ther into a place called in the Hebrue tonge Armagedon.

And the seventh Angell poured out his viall in to the ayre. And ther cam a voyce out of heauen, from the seate, sayinge: it is done. And ther folowed voyces thondꝛynges, and lightnynges, & ther was a gret erthquake, soche as was not sence men were vpon the erth, so myghty an erthquake and so gret. And the greate cytye was deuoyded into thre parties, and the cyties of all nacyns fell. And gret Babylon came in remembraunce befoze God, to geue vnto hy, the cuppe of the wyne of the fearenes of his wrath. Every yle fled away, & the mountaynes were not founde. And ther fell a gret hayle, as it had bene alentes, out of heauen vpon the men, and the men blasphemed God, because of the plage of the hayle, for it was gret & the plage of it soze.

The xvi. Chapter.

And ther came one of the seven An- gels, which had the seven vialles, and talied with me, sayinge vnto me: come I wyl shewe the the iud- gement of the gret whoze that synneth vpon many waters, with whiche haue committed for- nicacion the kynges of the erthe, so that the inhabytens of the erth, are dronchen with the wyne of her fornicacyon. And he caried me away into the wyldernes in the sprete. And I sawe a woman syt vpon a roke colozed best full of names of blasphemie which had ten hornes. And the woma was arrayed in purple and rose coloure and decked with golde, pꝛe- cious ston, and pearles, and had a cup of golde in her hand, full of abominacions & fil- thyness of her fornicacyon. And in her forehead was a name written, a mystry, gret Babylon the mother of whozomes, and abomina- cions of the erth. And I sawe the wyldernes with the bloud of sayntes, & with the bloud of the myrtues of Iesu. And when I sawe her, I wonderd with gret meruaile.

And the Angell saide vnto me: wherefoze maruellest thou? I wyl shewe the the myste- ry of the woman, and of the best that beryth her, which hath seven hornes and ten hornes. The best that thou seest, was, and is not, & shall be destroyed out of the bottomlesse pye, and shall go into destruction, and they that dwell on the erth shall wondre, whose names are not written in the booke of lyfe fro the be- gynnynge of the worlde, when they beholde the best that was, & is not. And here is a my- stry, that hath wysdome.

The seven heades are seven mountaynes, on which the woma synneth: they are also seuen kynges, & que are falle, & one is, & a no- ther is not yet come, wher he cometh he must contynue a space. And the best that was, & is not, is euyl the egge, & is one of the seut, & shall go into destruction. And ten hornes which thou seest, are ten kyngs, which haue receaued no kyngdom, but shall receaue po- wer as kynges at one houre with the best. These haue one mynde, and shall geue their power & strenght vnto the best. These shall fight with the lambe, & the lambe shall ouer come them, for he is Lord of lordes, & kyng of kynges, & they that are called, and chosen and sayntes.

And he sayde vnto me: the waters which thou sawest, where the whoze synneth, are people, & folke, and nacyns, and tonges. And the ten hornes, which thou sawest vpon the best, are they that shall hate the whoze, and shall make her desolate & naked, & shall bite her fleshe, and burne her with fyre. For God hath put in their hertes to fulfyll his wyl, & to do with one consent, for to geue her kyng- dome vnto the best, vntill the wyldernes of God be fulfilled. And the woman which thou sawest, is a greate cytye, which raggeth ouer the kynges of the erth.

The louers of the worlde are sorpy for the fall of Ba- bylon, but they that be of God haue cause to reioyce for her destruction.

The xviii. Chapter.

And after that, I sawe another An- gell come fro heauen, haunge gret power, and the erth was lightened with his byghness. And he cryed mightely with a strong voyce sayinge: Gret Babylon is fallen, is fallen: and is become the habitacion of deuyls, and the holde of all folle synners, & a cage of all vncleane & hate-full bydes, for all nacions haue broken of the wyne of the wrath of her fornicaciō. And the hynges of the erth haue comitted fornicaciō with her, & her merchautes are waxed ryche of the aboundaunce of her pleasures.

And I herde a nother voyce from heauen/saye: come away fro her my people/that ye be not partekers in her synnes that ye receave not of her plages. For her synnes are gon up to heuen, & God hath remembred her wickednes. Rewarde her euen as she rewarded you, & geue her double accordyng to her work. And poure in double to her in the same cyppe which she filled vnto you. And as mo-che as she glorified her selfe & liued wantonly so moche poure ye in for her of punishment and sorowe/ for she sayde in her selfe: * I syt beinge a quene & am no wyddowe & shall se no sorowe. Therefore shall her plages come at one daye, deeth/ & sorowe/ & hunger/ and she shall be burnt with fyre: for stronge is the Lord God which iudgeth her.

And the hynges of the erth shall wepe her and waille ouer her, whych haue committed fornicaciō with her/ & haue luyed wantonly with her/ when they shall se the smoke of her burnyng/ & shall stande a farre of/ for feare of her punishment/ sayinge. * Alas/ Alas that gret cite Babylō/ that mighty cite: for at one houre is her iudgement come. And the merchautes of the erth shall wepe & waille in them selues/ for no man wyll bye their ware enymore/ the ware of golde and siluer/and precious stones/ nether of pearle/ & raines/ & purple/ & skarlet/ & all thyne wodde and all maner beffels of puerie/ & all maner beffels of most precious wodde, & of bzard and yron/ and synamon/ and odours/ & oyl-metres/ and franchysence/ & wyne/ and oyle and fyne floure/ and wheate/ beffes/ and she-pe/ and hores/ and charetes/ and bodyes and soules of men.

And the apples that thy soule lusted after are departed from the. And all thynges which were deyntie/ and had in pryce are departed fro the/ & thou shalt fynde the no more. The merchautes of these thynges whych were waxed ryche/ shall stande a farre of from her/for feare of the punishment of her/ wepyng and wailing/ & sayinge: * Alas/ alas/ that gret cite/ that was clothed in raynes & purple/ and skarlet/ and decked with golde/ and precious stones/ & pearles: for at one houre so great riches is come to nought.

And every shippe gouerner/ & all they that occupied shippes/ and shipmen which worke in the see/ & rode a farre of/ & cryed/ when they sawe the smoke of her burning/ sayinge: what cite is like vnto this gret cite? And they cast dust on their heddes/ & cryed wepyng/ and wailing/ & sayde: * Alas/ alas/ that gret cite citie/ wherein were made in the all the ship-pes in the see/ by the reason of her costlynes/for at one houre is she made desolate.

Reioyce ouer her thou heauen/ & ye holy Apostles and Prophetes: for God hath geue youre iudgement on her. And a mighty angell toke by a stone lyke a gret myllstone/ & cast it into the see/ sayinge: with such violence shall that gret cite Babylō be cast/ & shall be founde no more. And the voyce of harpers/& musycians/ and of pypers/ & trompetters shall be herde no more in the: & no crafter mā/of whatsoever craft he be/ shall be founde eny more in the. And the sounde of a myll shall be herde no more in the/ & the voyce of the byrdgrome and of the byrd/ shall be herde no more in the/ for thy merchautes were the gret men of the erth. And with thyne inchaunt-ment were deceaued all nacions: & in her was founde the bloude of the Prophetes/ & of the sayntes/ & of all they were slayne by the erth.

¶ Prayer or thankes are geue vnto God for iudginge the wyche/ & for ouercomynge the bloude of his seruantes.
The Angell wyll not be worshipped. The soules and bydes are called to the slaughter.

The xix. Chapter.

¶ After that I herde the voyce of moche people in heauen sayinge: Al-leluya. Saluacion and glozy & honour and power be ascribed to the Lord oure God/ for true & righteous are his iudgements/ for he hath iudged the gret wyche whych did corrupt the erth by her fornicaciō/& hath auenged the bloude of his seruantes of hir hand. And agayne they sayde: Alleluya. And smoke rose by for euermore. And the xxiiiij. elders/ & the iiij. bestes fell doune/ & worshipped God that sat on the seate sayinge: Amen/Alleluya. And a voyce came oute of the seate/sayinge: prayse oure Lord God all ye that are his seruantes/ and ye that feare hym both small and gret.

And I herde the voyce of moche people/euen as the voyce of many waters/ and as the voyce of stronge thondrynges/ sayinge: Alleluya/ for God omnipotent raygneth. Let vs be glad and reioyce and geue honoure to hym: for the marriage of the lambe is come/and his wyfe made her selfe redy. And to her was graunted/ that she shoulde be arrayed with pure and golde raynes. For the ray-nes is the ryghtewysnes of sayntes. And he sayde vnto me/ * happy are they whych are called vnto the lammes supper. And he sayde vnto me: these are the true saynges of God. And I fell at his fete/ to worshyppe hym. And he sayde vnto me/ se thou do it not

it not for I am thy felowe seruaunt/ & one of thy byrth/ and of them that haue the testimony of Iesus. Worshipppe God. For the testimony of Iesus is the spyrte of prophesy.

The xix. figure.

¶ And I sawe heauen open/ & beholde a wythe horse/ and he that sat vpon him was saythull and true/ and in ryghtewysnes did iudge and make battayle. Hys eyes were as a flame of fyre: and on his heed were many crownes: & he had a name wyrtten/ that noman knewe but he him selfe. * And he was clothed with a besture dypt in bloud/ and his name is called the worde of God. And the warriors whych were in heauen/ folowed hym vpon wythe horses/ clothed with white & pure raynes: & out of his mouth went out a sharpe sword/that with it he shoulde smyte the herthen. And he shall rule them with a rodde of yron/ & he trode the wynefat of feartnes and wrath of almighty God. And hath on his besture & on his thigh a name wyrtten: kynge of kynges/and Lord of Lordes.

¶ And I sawe an Angell stande in the sunne/and he cryed with a lowde voyce/ sayinge to all the fowles that flye by the middes of heauē/come and gather youre selues to gether vnto the supper of the gret God that ye maye eate the fleshe of kynnes/ and of hye captaynes/and the fleshe of myghty men/ & the fleshe of horses/ and of them that syt on them/ and the fleshe of all free men & bond men/ & of small and gret. And I sawe the beast & the kynnes of the erth/ & their warriors gathered to gether to make battayle agaynst hym that sat on the horse and agaynst his souldiers.

¶ And the beast was taken & with hym that false prophet that wrought myracles before him/ with which he deceaued them that recei-ued the beestes marke/ & them that worshipped his ymage. These both were cast into a pyre of fyre burninge by myllstone: & the remaunt were slayne with the swearde of hym that sat vpon the horse/ which swearde proceded out of his mouth/ & all the foules were fulfilled with their fleshe.

¶ The dragon is bounde for a thousande yeres. The beest aryle and receaue iudgement.

The xx. fig-

The xx. Chapter.

¶ I sawe an Angell come doune from heauen/ hauinge the keye of the bottomlesse pyt/ & a gret chayne in his hand. And he toke the dragon that olde serpent/ which is the deuyl & Satan/ & he bounde him a thousande yeres:
cast him into the bottomlesse pyt/ & he bond him/ and set a seale on him/ that he shoulde de-ceave the people no moare/ till the thousand yeres were fulfilled: And after that he must be loosed for a lytell season.

¶ And I sawe seates & they sat vpon them iudgement was geuen vnto them: & I sawe the soules of them that were beheaded for the wytnes of Iesu/ & for the worde of God/whych had not worshipped the beast/ nether his ymage/ nether had taken hys marke vpon their foreheades/ or on their handes: and they luyed/ & raygned with Christ a thousand yeres:
but the other of the deed men luyed not agayne/vntill the thousand yere were finished. This is that fyrst resurreccyon. Blessed and holy is he that hath parte in the fyrst resurreccyon.
For on such shall the seconde deeth haue no power for they shall be the Priestes of God and of Christ/ and shall raygne with hym a thousand yeres.

¶ And whē the wythes are cryed out of the sunne.

The Reuelacion

Erech. xxviii. Halbe lowed out of his prison and shall go out to deceaue the people whych are in the foure quarters of y^e erth. Whogog/ to gather them together to battayl: whose nombze is as the soude of the see: and they went by in the playne of the erth: and compa sed the tentes of the saynct about: & the be- lousid cytie. And sye came doune from God/ out of heauen: and deuoured them: and the de uyll that deceaued the/ was cast into a lake of fyre and byrmstone: where the best & the false p^rophet were and halbe tormetted daye and nyght for euer moze.

And I sawe a grete whype seate and hym that late on it/ from whose face fled awaye both the erth and heau: n/ & their place was no moze founde. And I sawe the deed/ both great and small stonde before God: And the bokes were opened/ and another boke was opened/ which is the boke of lyfe/ & the deed were iudged of those thynges whych were wrytten in the bokes accordyng to their dedes: and the see gaue up her deed/ whych were in her/ and death and hell deliuered up the deed/ which were in the: & they were iudged eu. ry man accordyng to his dedes. And death and hell were cast into the lake of fyre. This is the seconde deeth. And whosoever was not foudde wrytten in the boke of lyfe/ was cast into the lake of fyre.

In this Chapter is descrybed the newe and spirituall Jerusalem.

The xxi. fy-gure.

The xxi. Chapter.

Ezech. xlii. c.
and. lxxvi.
Ezech. lii.

I sawe a newe heu^e & a newe erth. For the fyrst heu^e & the first erth were banished awaye/ & ther was no moze see. And I John sawe that holy cytie newe Jerusalem come downe from God out of heau^e prepared as a byrde garnished to be hys wyf. And I herde a grete voyce out of heauen sayinge: Beholde the tabernacle of God is with men/ & he will dwell with the. And they shall be his people/ and God hymselfe shall be with them and be their God. And God shall wype awaye all teares from their eyes. And there shall be no moze death/ neither sorrow/ neither crying/ neither shall there be any moze payne/ for the olde thynges are gone. And he that late upon the seate/ sayde. Beholde I make all thynges newe. And he sayd vnto me: wryte/ for these wordes are saythfull and true.

And he sayd vnto me: it is done. I am Alpha and Omega/ the begynnyng & the ende. I will geue to him that is thurst of the well of the water of lyfe fre. He that ouercometh/ shall inheret all thynges/ and I will be hys God/ and he shall be my sonne. But the feare- full and vndeuyng/ and the abhominable/ and murderers/ and whoremongers/ and for- cers/ & idolaters/ & all lyars shall haue their parte in the lake which burnyth with fyre & byrmstone/ which is the seconde deeth.

And there came vnto me one of the vii. An- gels which had the vii. byrds full of the. bit. laste plagues: & talked with me sayinge: come hysder/ I wyl shewe the the byrde/ the lambes wyf. And he carped me a waye in the sprete to a grete and an hys mountayne/ and he shewe me the grete citie/ holy Jerusalem descen- dyng out of heauen from God/ haunged by byrghnes of God. And her byrghne was lyke vnto a stone moste precious/ & a fal- par cleare as Cristall: and had walles grete & hys and had. xii. gates/ and at the gates. xii. Angels: and names wrytten/ which are the. xii. tribes of Israel: on the West parte. iij. gates/ and on the North syde. iij. gates & towards the South. iij. gates/ and from the West. iij. gates: and the wall of the cytie had. xii. founda- tions/ and in them the names of the lambes. xii. Apostles.

And he that talked with me/ had a golden rede to measure the cytie with all & the gates therof and the wall therof. And the cytie was. llii. square & the length was as large as the bredth of it/ & he measured the cytie with the rede. xii. M. furlonges: & the length & the bredth/ & the hepyth of it/ were equal. And he measured the wall therof. an. cxliiij. cubites: the measure that the angell had was after the measure that man useth. And the byldyng of the wall of it was of Isapur. And the cytie was pure golde lyke vnto cleare glasse/ & the foundacons of the wall of the cytie were gar- nished with all maner of precious stones. The fyrste foundacons was Isapur/ the seconde was Emal-

Emeralde: the thyrde Sardonix/ the fyrst Sar- deos y^e bit Crisolite: the eyght Berall the ix. a Topas: the tenth Crisoprados: the ele- venth a Jacynete: the twelth an Amatist.

The xii. gates were xii. pearles euery ga- te was of one pearle and the strete of the ti- tie was pure golde as thorow shynnyng glasse. And ther was no temple therein. For the Lorde God almighty and the lambe are the temple of it. And the cytie hath no neede of the sonne nether of the mone to lychten it. For the byrghnes of God dvy lycht it: and the lambe was the lycht of it. And the people whych are saved shall walke in the lycht of it: and the kynges of the erth shall bringe their glory vnto it. And the gates of it are not shut by daie. For ther shall be no night there. And ther shall entre into it none unclene thyng: nether whatsoeuer worketh abhominacion or maketh lyas: but they only which are wryt- ten in the lambes boke of lyfe.

The ryuer of the water of lyfe the fructi- nesse & lycht of the cytie of God. The Lorde giveth ever his seruautes warninge of thynges for to come, the angel will not be worshipped. To the worde of God maye no- thinge be added nor mynished therefrom.

The. xxi. Chapter.

And he shewed me a pure ryuer of water of lyfe clere as Cristall: proceedyng oute of the seate of God and of the lambe. In the myddes of the strete of it/ and of ether syde of the ryuer was ther woode of lyfe: which bare xii. man- ner of frutes: and gave frute euery moneth: and the leues of the woode serued to heale the people with all. And ther shall be no more curse but the seate of God & the lambe shall be in it: and hys seruautes shal serbe hym. And they shall see his face and his name shall be in their foreheades. And there shall be no nyght there and they neede no candle, nether light of the sunne: for the Lorde Geveth them light and they shall ragne for evermore.

And he sayde vnto me: these saynges are saythfull and true. And the Lorde God of Saynetes and throphetes sent hys angel to shewe vnto his seabautes the thynges which muste shortly be fulfilled. Beholde I come shortly. Happy is he that kepeth the sayinge of the prophety of this boke. I am John which sawe these thynges and herbe them. And wher I had herbe and sene. I fell downe to wor- shippe before the fete of the Angel which shewe me these thynges. And he sayde vnto me se thou do it not for I am thy felowe seruant and the felowe seruant of thy brethren the throphetes & of them which kepe the sayinge of this boke. But worshippe God.

And he sayde vnto me: seale not the sayinge of the prophety of this boke. For the tyme is at hande. He that doeth euill let him do euill still: and he which is filthy let him be filthy still: & he that is righteous let him be more righteous: & he that is holy let him be more holy. And beholde I come shortly and my re- warde with me to geue euery man accordyng as hys dedes shall be. I am alpha and omega the begynnyng and the ende: the first and the last. Blessed are they that do his com- mandementes that their power maye be in the tree of lyfe and male entre in thorow the gates into the cytie. For without shall be dog- ges and inchauters and whormongers and murtherers and idolaters and whosoever lobeth or maketh lealenges.

Iesus sent mine angel to testifie vnto you these thynges in the congregacions. I am the rote and the generation of David and the bright morninge starre. And the sprete and the byrde salde come. And let hym that heareth sale also come. And let him that is thurst come. And let whosoever will take of the water of lyfe fre.

I testifie vnto euery man that heareth the wordes of the prophety of this boke: yf any man shall adde vnto these thynges/ God shall adde vnto him the plagies that are wrytten in this boke. And yf any man shall mynished of the wordes of the boke of this prophety/ God shall take awaye his parte out of the boke of lyfe and out of the holy cytie and fro the thynges which are wrytten in this boke. He which testifieth these thynges sayth: be it.

I come quickly Amen Euen so co- me Lorde Jesu. The grace of oure Lord Jesu Christ be with you all. Amen.
